Wednesday, 3 P.M.

Dearest Minnie,

We were sorry to find on coming in a little while ago that we had missed you - We have been spending a large part of the night in supplying our passage on the "Republic"; Sept. 9th, that being the latest date - alas, on which we can get back in time.

to be of any use to Mrs<sup>(2)</sup> Andrews before the opening of the school — At the present we are not quite so much to be commiserated as we all thought, for by the advice of a physician here we are going to the Highlands instead of Switzerland & intend weather permitting to take in two or three of the notions — Cathedral en route — In summer right we stop at Peterborough Unless we hear to the

He will come to see this Lucas at 12.30 - If you hear she is not coming, you could telegraph us perhaps in time, as it will be rather hard for us to get there

If she should not come, we will <sup>+ we hear that she is</sup> be there at 2 o'clock, and after our interview, if we are not too exhausted, I could go with you to the Holman Munt, the old water colors or wherever you liked for ④ an hour — We leave at about 5 — I hoped to write to you from Oxford to tell you of my interest about Grace's engagement and about <sup>Oxford</sup> &c., but I'd manage very little of my writing —

Yours

I enclose Miss Chamberlain's Prof. Gildersleepe's notes the Schöeder's (about which by the way my remark was not serious)
