Sept. 6th / 86

Dear Girls,
Minnie's letter of yesterday has just come and we are devoutly hoping in a telegram that will resolve all our perplexities. But if Mrs. Daves only expected them to land "about the 4th" the steamer may be delayed in several days & you may hear nothing before we sail.
If all goes well, we have

⑥ arranged to go to Liverpool on Wednesday morning, but, if nothing comes from you before that, we will wait until the 4 P.M. train Wednesday, so as if need be to make our expedition to Sullivan ^{- in the evening} - We sail on Thursday, ^{the 9th} you know, by the "Republic" & have various things in connection with our passage to attend to at the White Star Office on Thursday night, so that he must be here not later than Wednesday night - Now as to alternatives if Miss Davies says "no" & remains join in her negatve We are quite appalled by yr. speaking of the possibility of Lily's being left in Greece, as, although like you, we don't want her at all, we should be willing to take her, failing Mary; it being understood with you that we, if so be that we have anything to do with the negotiations, ~~offer her~~ will contribute yr. offer of $1000. without passage & will advance her the passage money; if Mr Mary & Lily

8) fail, we say by all means take the German, as Belk's more resources wd probably prove nil or at any rate wd be no improvement, ~~and~~ the great disadvantage of delaying the beginning of the German classes - But, in this case what is to be done about the extra Latin classes?
If you simply said that the new schedule had been mailed to Miss Andrews "with full instructions" that "Miss Daves would work therein to perfection" - but this kills us nothing about what would ⁽⁹⁾ be done if Miss Daves did  not have this opportunity - Please, Marnie, relieve our minds about this and do not let us meet Miss Andrews in absolute ignorance -

We thought of writing some time ago that of course, if it would facilitate matters we wd take Miss Daves on our Steamer if she cd get a berth, but did not do it, because it seemed so entirely improbable - That, if she landed in one long voyage - on the 4th or 5th, she cd arrange to stay

(10) in another on the 9th leaving her whole family —

I enclose a cheque on the London & County Bank for £28.
So that you need not be winded about the danger of running short, if you have in advance the money for either the German or Miss D. — £10, you know how Miss nie for Miss Scott's fee a klepman came just now & made our hearts beat with mingled emotions, but it was a mistake on the part of us —

I hope this is not very incoherent

2
But it has been written ⁽¹¹⁾ in the midst of many mis-supphms — I hope Deeny is as well as we think it right to be & that you are having beautiful weather & a delightful time in spite of anxieties about jackdaws, &c. —

Alfred
Mary 28.
