

Vendome Hotel
Boston, Apr. 15th /90

Dearest Annie,

As you saw I agreed with you about circular - The "large sum" is a most unbusinesslike way of publishing it, and the "$100,000 or more" is all that I should be willing to agree to or work for - The verbal changes I agreed also with you & Maurice about - one or two of the non-essential ones wh. are simply less good than ours - I should adopt if you think it will help matters, but any that really affect the cheapness of it I sh^d certainly not consent to -

Dear Sir

Dear Sir

I have the pleasure to inform you that the "Large" form is a most convenient like way of filling out the "Form" on a sheet of paper which is offered in a separate form - the charges of paper also with the name about - one or two of the most essential ones are less than the other - I should be glad if you think it will help matters, but my best regards remain as of old & the
