

Mrs M. Carey Thomas
Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr

---

Penns.

Hotel Windsor

101, WEST MONUMENT STREET,

Chicago, Oct. 5th 1913
11.45 a.m.

I am going to begin my letter now, although I am in a very restless mood, having come home after two hours among the pictures, to try to meet Robert & Mary on their arrival. They were expected here at 11, but there is still no sign of them, so I fear their train is late as everyone's seems to have been of late, no matter by what line - I more than half hoped to find something from you, but there was not a line. I am afraid it certainly means that you were utterly tired up on Sunday night -

Here I was interrupted & now I have not just time to say that I am honestly yours - that all

2

Hotel Windsor
101, West Monument Street,

Chicago, Oct. 2nd 1892
11.42 a.m.

I am sorry to begin my letter with a I am in a very bad mood and have done after the time the pictures, in my book, the many in their arrival - they were expected here at 11, but there is this in sign of them, so I have been a late as very much because have been of late, no matter how late - I have been half asleep and sorry for you, but I have a face. I am afraid it certainly means that you were with that on Sunday night - there was interrupted a few I have not yet time to say that I am sincerely yours - that all

The beautiful things I want to share with you - The weather is again as brilliant as in June - I will write tonight

With a long kiss from my beloved hoping so much that to-morrow my way brings a letter

Love of yours

May 28