

Miss M. Carey Thomas
The Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr
Pennsylvania

Hotel Windermere,
101, WEST MONUMENT STREET,
Chicago, Sept. 7th / 93

What do I think, my darling, you ask — I was so troubled that I had made up my mind to telegraph to ask whether there was any thing matter this night unless ^{a letter} your telegram came, and when it did come

I felt very much like telegraphing to beg you to be a little careful but realized that it wd do no possible good.

Indeed, indeed, my dear one, it is dangerous — you are running a very great risk — You have been on a steady sham since for 18 days (I do not feel much hope that you are doing any less) — a sham with of mind and body — and it simply terrifies me to have a year which is necessary going thro' such a hard one and which follows such a fearfully hard one as last year began in such a way - You are not going to give up coming home on the 13th & staying the 14th & 15th are you? There at least you will not have to keep up the boys mans pace - and indeed if in no other reason - you might want come if you do not want to break down - I am going to mail just this little word of appeal to you tonight & write to-morrow -

(2)

Telegraph me if there is any change in your plans, but don't let there be. Goodnight & adieu my beloved. I want a letter to so

(3)

Much - more than you can tell - How I wish I'd be with you this night & see with my own eyes how you are Mary G. -