Dearest Mary,

This letter must be written without eyesight as I have spent all the morning with Dr. Thomson with charming ^{result} news — He thanks deeply my assignment as less & I am suffering from over correction —

② wh^{ch} wd amply acct for my headache. I went this week for 2 reasons - 1st headache, 2nd slight pain in eye 3rd bec I have such piles of letters to dictate that I th^o I wd w^hlsc the more better this week 4th because on Monday alone I concluded we wd not both be examined without double loss of time

6th Dec - I have some pain in inner corner of eye which is as shipped on Dec & col do the better eye less than not - with less waste of valuable time

I am so delighted over the result of this Examination for 2 years ago Dr Thumme refused to charge me glasses

④

In letter I got at the station I read
on the train and do you know yr change
really provoked me.
I am not quite pleased yet - You have never been free from headache how can you say so?
Never since I have known you - You had constant headache.

while you were abroad all three of nos. - Before you went I never knew you free from it even for a day. Since you have been home after the effect of the sea voyage had worn off you have certainly

⑤ had headaches when we have been together formerly in D. F. they have become much more frequent bec. you have read more - However you never read in any sense of the term all day long. So admit please how changeous you were I am sorry for you

But this once you must 7 please me - For 16 yrs

- that we have known each other you have been trying to cure yourself & - have I think made a huge failure - Now it is my turn & I know I shall succeed - It is not much to do if you love me as you do to give me a chance in the field with Dr Cushman & Dr Solomon & Dr Schofield & the Italian

② Dr who had "undue influence" And it is just this undue influence I propose to exert

No you cannot go to Dr Hayes. By my man I've his glasses a fair trial & then I will permit you to return to Hayes. If you care so much ab. any thing I sd do it without question & this you must do for me — or — what shall I say P. I will not go with you on the 13th

③ dreamed of seeing you - Sometimes I long to see or you more than at others - is it so with you know it is a 'thore'
home Goodbye
My dear
my dear ④

1424 WALNUT STREET

love you so much Dr Thomsen is not a gossip. I have never heard him gossip. He will ask no unpleasant questions I shall be there with you & shall prevent it if he does - He never asks unpleasant questions. There is no reason why you'd not beat The Deanery I am agreed most ⑩ cordially when I asked her. She too thinks Thomson is a genuine & that he tried by you of course. In Gwynn went everywhere London Paris New York & was given 20 years ago warning that his days of using his eyes were over - He is ready yet with Thomson's glasses, the more you come, the easier it will be. I am sure I am right ab. this.

You can come wed.

of next week or of the week after - I had ~~Thurs~~ Friday & Sat. morning's I can go with you of either week, Remember my whole heart is set on this

The week aft. next, I can have you to myself on Friday & Sat. you see - I only next week of Mamma needs a dress for Lydia's wedding. I am charmed by the result of the exam. I much approve of the present treatment - I am willing

For you to begin going out a few hrs a day to the dressmaker I don't like next week but staying in bed till Sunday & trying up faithfully our 10 P.M. rule

What is your repeated question? I cannot think The Trustees I am much troubled ab. Is it that?

My eyes hurt so much stop.

Remember yr tyrant says next week, or the week after & will not take "no". Last night I than all others - is as much you know it is a "more"

home Goodbye
My very
dear

⑤ I don't need you - or more
love you so much -
Dr. Thomson is not a goosey. I have never had him goosey. He will ask
I shall be there with you to face him. Let it be done - He never asks unpleasant questions that is no reason why you should feel that Dr. Thomson is not a good one.

⑬ dreamed of seeing you - I have agreed on all

others - is it south
you know
it is a "more"
my very
dear

Sometimes I long to see you more
love you so much Dr Thomon is not a goosey. I have never had
you before you know it
is no reason why you should beal the Deener I am agreed on all

③ dreamed of seeing you
I am agreed on all
