Dearest Mary,
I was here some bef. chapel this morning. I am so sorry you were made sick. It was all my stupid mistake that in not explaining, & fear, your cure will be useless on acct of my affairs. And why did you have a cold that night Sunday I wonder after all yr promises? Surely my

②
Sats' letter did not distress you - did it P - Oh dear, why cannot we have a little calm - You do not seem very sure ab. my coming not tiring you & I wish I knew whether if I only reach to you - I talked quietly seeing me wld be bad for you. Remember yr real cure has not begun yet an acct of the agitation of my affairs & if I come on to see you it cannot begin till after that. Your being so wrest only shows how much in need of rest you were

Know atleast you shall. ⁽³⁾ rest

But just ab. my coming

Let you send your nurse out of my room for one night, do you suffice? - If I come

I let come only Thursday aft at 2³⁰ & stay till Friday aft or all latest Sat. morning

Tomorrow night I shall be in Germantown ^{9 East Penn St} so address yr letter to The Acorn

Club 1424 Walnut St

telling me whether or not to come. Name

Wed. I think ful that it was only reasonable I sch tell you about my trustees etc & she in any case cannot leave Ballo. till Monday of next week.

I fear if I can get off I must go to Ballo. at our
sch. exhibit on Sat. — to be sure every thing is right.

Phalogs every thing is arranged for.

To think of seeing you!
Howard Comfort I shall

talk to before leaving of them all will be done.

Ed. Belle I believe
I thoroughly convinced.
I sd be amazed if he whelagavel me. He too is desparably offosed to a woman, but I think he thinks there

⑥ is no other alternative & to me personally he could not have been nicer
I will be the Garrell Bros & Frances Cope
versus Jancy the others Howard Comfils all which I do not know.

Chas Taylor's wife is dying. It seems too bad to trouble him does it not?

My dear, so much has ⁽⁷⁾ happened in the ten days since you left that, in the ten days that it will be if I come, that I cannot imagine what seeing you will be like.

Ask Dr Cushman ab. a specialist to see yr back for that will be part of my mission—

Tell me where The Holland House is & if

⑧ you tell me to come expect me betw 5/2 & 6 on Thursday unless I telegraph

Apart from my 10000 another thing will make my disaffairment much greater if I leave —

I believe since talking to them I can manage to have these Trustees in entire sympathy with liberalisin & so my regret will be much greater

Good bye my very dear one I hope you are better
