Dearest Mary,
Again another letter written as you say against time but I really cannot help it—As I take you on the train I had not time to read your letter—even until then & since I have been driving all over Phila^{da} to attend to an exhibit. I am really desperate about it—Yes I have ordered the Model for human Building

I was very tired again Sunday. Mr Walker staid a long time & I dictated letters all the evening. I sent you by express today some more books a la venture. Balster you know I met & liked, really immensely, in our 2 1/2 hrs talk at dinner at Gosses Return these books to me but the post lot direct to Wilsons Library 115 South 11th (Eleventh) St Phila & mark on them returned by Miss Thomas. Try reading trash when you are tired, indeed it is better than newspapers.

You must not write to me in the evening nor when yr back is aching. Mr Gunn's letter needed no answer, I think, & send the answer to John's from B. M. Julia's is forwarded with proper directions.

Now my calman is here & I must go to see Ed. Belle the last trustee except Comfort and then I shall have done all I can. My letter to Francis Cope I cannot get

④ into satisfactory shape. It may or easily do more harm than good. Name & I are ~~glad~~ it exhausted by our attempts. You shall see copies of everything. Chas. Taylor too I must write to. Lamapard Dr Rh — is really more ill than they think him & things must go on irrespective of him.

If yr mother's letter has not gone perhaps "at her discretion" would be better than "sole & absolute" as being less militant & less apt to provoke them - do you not think judge P -

I am so delighted you are better - Please worry about nothing Your letter today was very nice - I am glad you were so glad to have been ^{made} ~~been~~ me so happy as I have been since yr letter at the $10000 I yet — the disaffection may be so much the greater But we will not think of that and I am also so glad to have Mamma so pleased as she is with yo offer. I think it cannot fail to make a real difference. And then too yo last stay at

B. M. was far more successful than any previous one, Mamma has been fully loyal to me & has ~~tried~~ ~~ed~~ tried to comfort me in every possible away. You see have been such a consolation to altho I was sure it was making you ill - as it was going you see stopped my sickness just as feared - it was very nice to have you here not then for me that is.

Why not show yr back to some really great specialist

③
Might it not be wise
Please do this

The nurse I th'ld
