My dear, so yanked uncle after all, but whom did you envelop yr letter to as it was not mailed - yr train letter - till 9 A M Monday morning
I did not come till 8 last evening. I wrestled with double entry book keeping - the estate books wh<sup>ch</sup> I have been done Jan 1st made mistake after mistake - because I was so tired - last evening I went to bed at 10 totally exhausted ② but triumphant as they are in balance -

Here Mrs Underhill yr Mrs Simble's sister, came to drink a cup of tea & absolutely had the bad manners to stay past her dinner hr & more so I had to ask her to dine & now it is 8 o'clock & the mail must go.

Ann says yr maid is no trouble & she had just as lief have her, but, I think she is in our way a little so do not bring her unless you really need her

Goodnight - I shall say it Wed & Thursday — and Friday & Sat. & Sunday

My dear what did you mean about Mamma's & my work & yr money - No one ever drew such a distinction certainly never in an interview - what do you mean; did you not give time too? Are you referring to an article I have missed?
