Oh my beloved

Not a moment for all today apart from meeting I have written absolutely necessary business letters & now it is within 5 min. of mail time.
Yesterday after writing you I was kept at Taylor Hall till 10 P.M. & then returned utterly exhausted

Tomorrow will be bad & then the worst will be over.
Susan Walker attended to every thing while I was away & now Miss Abbot too is here - I may be too very tired to continue tonight but after this I will write regularly. I sent Miss Putnam cheque & wrote Miss Buck a long letter wh<sup>ch</sup> I have affixed but I had not time to make a copy for you. Gr cardies much <sup>3</sup> to consoled both Mamma & me (she sends her thanks) last night. We ate all the marmos & a half box of the others. She was lovely ab. my slaying all night & it makes me so happy. She afforded Mrs Remeen. I have banished "Tommy" & Mamma says I am as jealous as Othello. He caught a mouse today in eyele

And now with some of the kisses I might have given you if only I had been more relied _____

Goodnight _____

Yes _____

I telegraphed to Baltimore this morning at the yr last night's telegram said leave at 10<sup>20</sup> A. M.

Sunday.
