Dec 7 Thursday
5 P. M.

My dear,

I was too busy to get off to lun. so will see G. W. C tomorrow bef.
Trustees' meeting. I fully expect Ph. Gavell to bring up something frightful tomorrow <sup>after</sup> before I leave, but we shall see.

I enclose my samples $1.50 a yard at Walmeleys. The Two pinned together are Lemmoners. I like the green a

② little - Now there is Dr Collatz & Nörrenberg

the German Librarian who wrote about the Sausse Library in the Nation - He says Adelbert wanted to buy it & Cornell cabled for it so it will be very good news if we really have
it. The seller ought to come this week

I like the one sample with a pin in it the best

Don't you. Yr two samples <sup>(3)</sup> sh<sup>d</sup> be very much

They have gone after one hr & my writing time has gone - alas - Yr long letter was very welcome so very welcome, my dear - You do not say how you feel - how are you P -

No answer about my Swede I wrote for a reference - I wonder if she had not better go on tomorrow for you to by her message - If so telegraph me & the hour

④
you could see her. She regains of course but very eager & whether efficient I do not know think not. All depends if Dr Wk - could teach Mrs
L - - - - - massage.

I have not a moment as the ~~week~~ days go by to think or read or live. Here is a note such as I get all the time, & what is to be done? As you saw from the notices the only one that has appeared - & those notices were mine by the

G

way that I mailed you the Tribune had a small notice A hateful student whose name I cannot discover sends the most hateful notices to the Tribune — always most unsuitable. I have determined to stop her now if I have time to the paper.

Tomorrow will be a blank — I say. I must stop — Another entertainment

⑧ in the Gymnasium tomorrow night & then a reel.

for 2 days except the shopping

Then Monday night 18

The Ten Fellows & Grad Garrett

Scholars come down to talk over the formation of a Graduate Club & to eat ice cream, Wed night the

Symphony Concert & Thursday

Morning M & have going away somewhere - first to Atlantic City first to

New York - only my chief objection to that is that you will be there & I do not wish to see you unless I can see you which is impossible.

 So Alice & Robbie are not to be in my cathedral room (You have not sent her letter tho. you said you did) How glad I am.
 I cannot help being glad,
 can I P not in my gallery, nor in my room, tho no one else will be there, alas.
 We must wait.

goodluck is  $\frac{1}{2}$  hr late so I have had a moment after all to tell you how little I have to tell —

Goodbye, good bye goodbye. I cannot write tomorrow unless on the train to night. The Kueles' muelly I am fittel —
