My darling

Y letter this morning 20 min. after the special Dehr was very sweet.

What will you think of me I wonder. Last night I was too exhausted to write & this morning - to celebrate Mrs Menhens arrival there was not a drop of water on the house even to cook with till 9 o'clock No baths nothing. Well we compromised as follows I drew up for Miss Minturn this scheme in accordance with the statutes of Harv Name approved & suggested I wrote the last paragraph.

She is to do what she can not using my name.
If they wish my advice they must - the Annury Board & the Acad Board come back for it. Unmasked.

I shall do nothing but refuse my personal advice to a woman struggling against 1000 odds I shall never. I refused to meet the Howard Committee wh they ^{she} wished me to - refused to go to Boston with her refused to write to any one

I will continue after dinner. I have had steady interruption since she left at 1⁴⁵ alone
