My dear

No news except that Dr Rhoads has gone to town today to see business whom he never succeeds in finding. There is so little <sup>for the Public Printing</sup> business that it looks to me as if I might catch the 345 for Baltimore I shall leave immediately it is over. The business that is it from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 is one hr. so do not be out

② & it looks now as if the 4 40 were abundantly possible so you may have dinner at 7 1/2 P.M.

Your letter today distressed me so much - just why not have stored pictures in the Com. Room - I knew you wd exhaust yourself it might well have waited 2 weeks 2nd " you promised me many B sd goal 5 or 4 1/2 it sd be - 3rd " the match I am more disappointed than I can say so much so that I shall go in tomorrow to see her for a few minutes after (3) my lecture - I cannot but be - lieve there is some mistake ab. it & all events it is easier for me to persuade her than for you & I shall tell her I came without consulting you because I was so disappointed

I am much better today but am struggling with a letter to Smiley - all my morning was taken up in interviews & this aft. Prame & I paid 4 calls on the cart that it had been shameful not

to pay before & are corresponding I am sure they will be

tried I am much better today
I feel more cheerful

Of course I shall insist on the terms I told you of I shall resign my position if I am not made a trustee
as soon as a vacancy occurs.

You need have no fear after all I am not sure I am not & not sure it had not better turn out so But I think things are favorable & that d John B Garrell

was much cordial on Sunday

At my dear one

④ I have been so long in the to-day before I can see what kind I am much better looking dear

dear I am much better looking

④ I can scarcely be prudent to write with you in this manner before you are conversant with the matter tried I am much obliged to you

It will be well for you to get the subject more cheerful

⑤ I shall be glad to see you on the terms of old you of

I shall receive my portion

You will have no fear of

after all I am not sure I had not better them out so I do think things are favorable to that

Dear Miss Garrett; -

Upon further Consideration of your offer I find that I would not be warranted in giving up my work here for an uncertainty; Moreover, double the amount named would scarcely pay me under the circumstances - Regretting very much to inconvenience you in any way - I Am

Respectfully Yours

Anne E. Keenan
