

Rec'd 8 P.M. Jan. 26th /93

Rec'd of a u u u u

①
Jan. 26 - Thursday 11 P.M.

The Decmery, Bryn Mawr,
Pa.

Dearest Mary,

What a foolish child to telegraph - it has just come - I will not write you if you do such foolish things - You may be sure I shall let you know if I am ever really ill & I trust you to do the same instantly - Dr. Gerhard felt me with considerable fever last evening & today with a pulse of 80 - He says I am completely run down & I told

② him about symptoms that have really worried me a little since our anti-febrin night at the Lafayette wh^{ch} were so bad Tuesday evening & night & all yesterday that I was alm alarmed - palpitations of the heart which make me feel very faint & some times wake me up at night - He says it is alm certain they are the effects of that 17 grains of anti-febrin which really might have killed me
- he says he sd never never ③ have given it without being there with restoratives & that prob. it really disturbed the ^{cardiac} circulation He has I fear destroyed all my pleasure in taking it as he wants me never to touch it again - If this tonic does not answer he will try another cardiac stimulant - There is nothing functional, or organic or any thing but a purely temporary disturbance that prob. wd not exist if I had not been over working. I am to stay in bed all today & then get up & do as I

(A) please - Tomorrow aft. I have two engagements in Phila & on Sat. I shall prob. go with Mammie for Sunday to Atlantic City. I will send you an address in case there is any thing I remember of nec. I will come to Ball.

I have been thinking of what you had better do ab. these requirements & I am sure the proper thing is to insist on yr conditions being abs. & liberally carried out to the letter - To yield now will mean no power to meet later - If they are

The Decemry, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Linell
but it is imp Samp, yo

Do not state ment - I wish you were here to not carried out the money will be saved for a better object that is all. They must think you a fool to believe you, or indeed we, could can be hoodwinked in that way - There seems to me no need for any excitement on yo part - even being a woman you have the whip hand for once & can afford to be absolutely immovable - Ifancy we had better draw up a statement ⑥ with which you can tell them you will be satisfied but that your conditions will be fulfilled by nothing less definite - we are absolutely in the right, magnificently in the right - if we have in college now 170 undergraduates (girls) every one of whom has passed (not one of whom has entered by certificate) our examination for reading French & German at eight it is folly to suppose men cannot do the same at a much more mature age. The Hoff Med. Sch. under that statement of requirement for admission will soon be displaced by Columbia. Even the Univ. of Penna. I heard yesterday is agitating for a BA or BS. entrance requirement

As for the building how I wish Kelly & Ocker ^{& Hund} would come on here to see Dalton lunch with me & have Osborne build their $50,000 building ⑧ Ed, they not feel on the Trustees - But no - as you say we are not men ^{& can do nothing} - Indeed I think it is rather a lesson (to me) to have in future no great interests at stake in men's things. It can't help being for a little while emp. for women to control them - Think what a nice building & school we ed have if we ed control things

Send on Sch. letters if you approve -

And this is literally the last you hear from me - ^{Will}

2

Col. They not fulsome the Trustees - But no - as you say we are not men - ^{then do nothing} Indeed I think it is rather a lesson
 (to me) to have in future no great interests of state in men's things. It can't help
 being for a little while
 imp. for women to control
 them - Think what a nice building to school we ed have
 if we ed control things Send on sch. letter if you approve -
 And this is exactly the last you hear from me

3

I wish you were here to consult but it is ^{impossible} ~~impossible~~ not earned out the money will be saved for a better
 object that is all. They must thank you a fool to believe you, or indeed we, could
 can be hoodwinked in that
 way - There seems to me no need for any expenditure on ye fairs - even being a woman - you have the whole hand for once than offered to be absolutely immovable - Flattery we had better show up a school

Ege Deane, Bryn Mawr,
 Pa.