The Deacons, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Dearest Mary,

This package is y^r rubbers not my little Homers which are just as sweet as they can be, and I have no edition I care for, and I am going to reread ^{him} ~~them~~ this winter and next year I hope to show you these full of marks. The ② margins are charming for references and I fully expect my blue Hermes to be as much "puede" as my little red Shakespeares have been.

They have gone over many parts of the world in my pocket, and quite often climbed the Acropolis. You ought not to have given me anything except a kiss wh_{ch} is always quite sufficient and I never th'lt of anything

③ else or I so not so calmly have told you my birthday -

I hope you slept well and I want you to look less tired this evening

Love
yours

W. C. Thomas
