My dear -

It is now 7 o'clock and I am wondering whether you are well worn out or how you have got through this long day - You have probably heard by telegraph that it is not Mary Cecil or any other of your sweet contributions of feminine names, but a boy whom Margaret has brought into the world - Is there was a good reason for Maunie's not taking her prescription until now - The wife came out a few

② moments ago & when he by come back with the pres. filled I will send it down with the newspaper clippings. <sup>I send you the pres. sheet, to keep</sup> I saw Maunie & she did control herself intirely and did not seem to me any thing but intirely natural. I am afraid it was very hard for her to do it. Her mother she said was lying down in her, Maunie's room.

When I came back to the house soon after leaving you, I got a note fr.
Mr. Mayer saying that if I did not mind seeing him in bed he wd be glad to see me between 11 & 12, so at 11 I went up & had quite a long talk with him & then went

W see Maurie - He will try to see Mr. Dixon to-morrow & talk over the Hospital situation with him and the new trustee matter - He is ready to help us & will offer to support Mr. D. & to attend all meetings that he possibly can, & c m. -

9.45 - alas just came dinner & then Dr. Lockwood abt poor Barbara, to interrupt me - You wd have had a long letter this afternoon, had I not gone to sleep & slept for full an hour & a half - I was very tired and just as I knew it would be, I did not succeed in getting the letter written to-day that I was so anxious to write & should have written last night - Some-mine my darling, it is better to let people do apparently unwise things when there is special need for it — Mr. M. quite agreed with me in thinking that that paper might be changed & full approved of the changes I want to make in the Decubles — Oh you can perhaps guess the man is Mr de Forest — I am going to arrange to see H. det. if possible on Sunday & at once get work on some thing that will at least do temporarily — I wish we could talk it over together, but as it is I suppose I shall have to simply do as well as I can — My plans are uncertain as I tell.

I apprehend you in this season, that if Mr. Mayer  is well enough to see Mr. Dixon  I will then see him in the evening & leave on Friday morning. Of course if there were any possibility of Saturday evening, I should wait, but that I fear there can not be, and as there will be no chance of my really seeing you, I might as well go & obtain one visit to Dr. S. this week —

And now goodnight, my darling, or I shall miss the mail — I hope you are in bed & asleep by this time — Please be very careful in this severe weather & with this sunstroke not to catch cold while you are sick — Time is up — My darling I think of you & of Maria so constantly — With a long kiss Love yours
 Mary S.
