Dearest Mary, I hope very much that you have not a long pocket book, or if you have, that you will like this one. If you should do it the honor of taking it abroad with you next summer I do not think I could have given you anything that you would use more constantly - who knows, perhaps even another Albert Moore may be bought out of it -

I wish you very many Happy Xmas

BRYS BARR, PA.

I am very sorry to hear that you have had a long and painful trip. I hope you will be able to get some rest and feel better soon. I am sure you will be able to get on your feet again in a few days. I am sure you will be able to get on your feet again in a few days.
 I am sure you will be able to get on your feet again in
 feet again in a few days.

Dear Mr. Mary, I hope very much that you have written a long perfect book, or if you have, that you will let me see. If you should doubt the honor of taking it to heart with you next summer, I do not think I must have given you anything that you could see with a substantial who to have, perhaps even another libel. I mean may be brought out of it.

With you very many
 your friend
 Wm. Brewster

⑤ Dearest Mary - will you take as a Xmas card, a little book I like because of its translations from the Greek, which seem to me very nice indeed. - I hope you will find time to read them - and a vase that associated itself to yr red Montpelier roses when I first saw it & since then the Bay & new Fountains have left me no time to efface the impression by seeing something better. - I wish you many many X masses - and I hope that this one will not pass without my seeing you for a little while

Yours lovingly
