Dearest Mary,

Oh the trials of this life. Enclosed find note from Umé & my occupation for the last two afternoons at a meeting I went to this afternoon $1000 was subscribed. I helped Mrs Tsenda write her speech & draw up her plan wh^{ch} was altogether I flatter myself effective. I'll

② went off exceedingly well and the plan we proposed was definitely accepted by the ladies - $8000 to be deposited in the hands of a perm. com. here, the scholarship to be competitive in dif. ^{cases} countries of Japan & the choice to be entrusted to a com. of Japanese ladies & gentlemen nominated by Miss Fenwick to the permanent com. here Thus it will be out of the hands of the missionaries The object of the scholarship is to be the fulfilment - of collegiate at Bryn Mawr, if medical ^③ at the Womens Med. of Penn, if industrial at the Drexel Institute. This was definitely decided on - It is has been a terrible trouble but it seems to me the scheme is saved for a more grateful little ^{creation} than time I have seldom seen. So if you wish to make a ²conditional (subscription) on the whole amt. being raised now is the time, as there are only to be three more meetings and the whole amt. is to be raised if possible by the 20th

(4) Mrs Seender undertakes to raise enough in Japan to pay the journey expenses of the candidates and their incidental expenses, as this will amount to $800 a candidate it is a considerable contribution.

Later - Thursday - it is my afternoon and I hoped to be able to get off a little scrap to you - but such crowds have been here that I have had no time and was fortified by tea, which on Thursday afternoons is a temptation to me even if no one comes as this afternoon.

The Decency, Bryn Mawr, no tra velers I mean - I will end in the second of June left. I hope you will like Darked England, and such a sweet little story The House by the Muller tree I will mail tomorrow - It is all I talg fall of all the rest of it in a nutshell - that is all the depths -

I will write you a long long letter on Sunday
tho. I have still 6000 papers to correct. Miss Child

(6) is here and is still going over & sending out open letters. Godkin did well for us did he not in his editorial

Just a note to enclose Gileles letter and my answer reprinted in Evening Post. I am delighted with Godkin. He only waited you see to see how we answered the attack & then followed it by this editorial endorsement wh appears in this weeks Patriot. I hoped he wd reprint it, ^{from every page} & he did.

The school circulars are not ready yet. I have

ordered them - I asked Miss McDowell to send me some of yr writing paper for notices of meeting, and the envelope with mod. particulars etc. - Mrs Davis has not answered ab. meeting yet - As you saw Mrs ~~de Bary~~ Brown & I were already in correspondence you see.

Here is Dr Hurd - Is she not a beautiful ~~girl~~ ~~Dr~~
~~Hurd~~ Learn up this unutterable scrawl - only keep the love with which it closes - Tell me on Sunday how you are - Yrs
