

284 Pine Street.

Springfield

Massachusetts.

My dear Susan:

I have received your letter from Elizabeth Guilford, and was very glad to get it, for I had been thinking a good deal on the very matter you write of. I felt very much as you did though I was not at college and so did not know quite how things were going.

I can only think as you do and I consider the plan you have a good one. At present

I have no suggestions of any kind to make and certainly no objections.

I shall be glad to talk with you about it all when we get back to Bryn Mawr, in the meantime please feel sure that I thoroughly agree with you and your letter. If there is anything that I could do for you in the matter pray command
me.

Very sincerely yours
Agnes Mary Whitting
August 20 1891.

T.S. I will save your letter and if you should wish to use it, will lend it to you.

A. M. W.

Faint mirrored bleed-through text from the reverse side of the page, including words like "I will save your letter" and "lend it to you".