Dearest Minnie

I was so very much disappointed by not seeing you before I left, but Julia has told you how impossible it was — I had no doubt when I saw you that I could manage it, but I ought to have known better. — We have settled down into the routine of our life here and in spite of the comfort & the air wh. last has already strengthened. Papa I am afraid I am going to find it very dreary. The place I am not going to tell you about — the little there is to tell — as I hope you will come & see it for yourself — I intended to ask you before ^{we} you left whether you could not run down &

(2) Make me a little visit before long.
Please take it into serious consideration — You could room with me, if you wd not mind, & as we have a sitting-room, you could ^{have} my room & cubicle to yourself in some hours every day, while I was driving with Papa, reading to him, & so on — So far I only know three people in the house, Dr.
Purman Jacob (whom you may remember I have met socially in New York!) and Berry McCall's friend, Miss Lea & her sister; & do not expect to know many more, so that you wd not be distracted by people — You leave Balw. at 12.10 P.M. & reach here at 6.26, & I could give you all particulars about changes, &c. —

I had expected to write to you before this, but my time has been so broken up that it has been very hard to find even odd moments ⁽³⁾ In necessary notes, far more for with  in letters — This aft. when I have  some time I find I am howe Med Han I had realized —

.77 West Monument Street.

Lin Knox is coming to spend I am afraid only a day with me, in a hurry and I am looking forward to seeing her again with a great deal of pleasure

I had a letter fr. Julia W - day in wh. she speaks of her visit to ym & her great interest in yr. appointment and says some very nice things about it —

I hope ym like the Mona Lisa and approve of the way in wh. she is framed — I am so sorry she did not come — some — but hope she proved a welcome guest.

I hope you will ^{do} answer this dull letter soon —

Sincerely yours
Mary L. S.

Don't fail to tell me full about Bessie, please —
