

Mrs Thomas L. Greene,
49 West 68th Street,
New York City.

Feb. 10, 1903

Merion Hall

B. M. C.

Dearest Ma,

The college welcomed
me into its midst at six o'clock
The hall is lighted by Electricity! I was so surprised that I nearly stumbled up all the stairs

Dorothy Arnold is wildly enthusiastic about the Barnard plan. She wishes

the three of us, Elsie ^{her} she & I we to join Mrs Dallas Pratt's debutante dancing class which meets at Sherry's.
I rather like the plan. Jack already belongs.

Your loving daughter Gene

Gene has copied up nearly all my lectures. Remember if the students are down with grippe.

