

THIS SIDE OF CARD IS FOR ADDRESS

Mrs F. W. Gookin
13 West Walton Place
Chicago Ill.

[Nov 8, 1916] Wednesday morning⁽²⁾
Near New York

Exceptionally pleasant journey. Spent most of yesterday afternoon on rear platform enjoying the superb weather. Not a particle of dust to mar one's comfort - Had the best kind of a night's rest: first stretch more than six hours, and more afterward. No, I'm not drunk this morning in spite of the evidence of my handwriting, but the train is. It is impossible to be very legible while rounding these curves at sixty miles an hour. Am feeling top top this morning & it bids fair to be a perfect day. Mathalie seems to have been on the winning side in her first entrance into politics!

7.

Send me about six
of my visiting cards.