

THIS SIDE OF CARD IS FOR ADDRESS

Mrs. F. W. Gookin
13 West Walton Pl.
Chicago
Ill.

② I got your letter, with Mrs. Blodgett's note enclosed. It does sound like fun. With all those songs, I'll need my long coat, for times when I'm not wearing my suit, but I don't see how I can carry it, for I'll have two suitcases which will be more than I can manage anyway. Yet I'll need the coat. What shall I do? R.S.V.P.

M. hasn't spoken yet. She can't think I'm getting the ticket & reserving the parlor car seat, for I don't know the train. Yet I can't ask her, can I?

I got 78 in my Eng. quiz.
More later love
