

NO

So I'm sorry Papa won't be here for that night. By the way, some time I want to go in Philadelphia to see the Maxfield Parrish paintings in the Curtis Building, or wherever they are.

Your nice special delivery letter came this morning. It's fine that they make deliveries on Sunday here. I should miss my home letters very much. I think I'll get some special delivery stamps myself, for I get so much pleasure out of my Sunday letters that I'd like to give you some of the same sort of joy. The photographs were fine. Aren't those good of Snip Darling? So are the Lincoln Park ones, and those of Taylor and Herion Halls (2) and the Gym., here.

When I came back I found a notice from the Dean telling me to go as soon as possible to see Miss Applebee about the special exercises.
What a bother! I'll go crazy if they start now, for the hockey and swimming are more than I can manage as it is.
I can't swim and play hockey on the same day, for that means giving up from three to four hours, including the dressing, etc. And that's impossible! I had counted so on having a real chance to do something in Hockey! I think they're horrid to start other things now. I don't expect to have a chance for tennis until spring.
and never for walking!

I'm going to save up money, and acquire an araucaria in a pot to match my (3) fern. I saw one at Wauwauke's to-day, for $1.75. I love araucarias, and they usually last well, too. Yes, I do water my fern, and it is beautiful.
My rooms are certainly sweet. I haven't yet got around to having a chance to hunt up the sewing woman. (What an atrocious sentence!) It's queer, but the cover for the middle window seat is quite a bit too wide. The others fit all right. Shall I leave it, or ask her to fix it somehow?

I think everyone of the prints is quite perfect for this room. They fit in exactly, and look made for their places.

Last evening every one was over in Pen Broke, singing. The seniors sang songs for their orals, (4) which came yesterday and to-day, and the rest of the classes sang various songs.
I think Katharine Blodgett passed her orals. By the way, if I leave French & German till the two last years, the senior year one won't do any good for these orals, as they come so early.

Gene has taken French advanced standing exams, and got 94 in the first, & 75 in the second.
That means that a whole five hours a week is passed off for some year. Lucky thing!

I've been writing for about an hour, so good night. Oh!

How I do long to see you all!
The lucky thing that goes home for Thanks giving? Do you suppose we'll be able to go to N. Y. then? I do you think K. B. will remember she asked me? But I wish I were going to see you. Very lovingly Katharine
