Mr. Bate's Camp.

The new management of Bate's House this summer, by which Miss Crane, the Superintendent, was assisted by an experienced housekeeper and a cook, has been found a complete success. At Spring Street one hears from every side praises of the management, the food and of the health and happiness which the guests gained there. Children were happier, mothers were happier, and workers were happier and more useful than last year.

We have to thank for this successful season Miss Crane, the Superintendent; Miss Strohger, the housekeeper; Miss Isabel Smith, the assistant manager, our Spring street helpers, those who have contributed towards the camp, and the Bryn Mawr workers.

The following were at the camp for one or two weeks: K. B. Blodgett, L. Garfield, A. P. Smith, A. Davis, A. Grabau, E. L. Dulles, M. Scattergood, K. Dodd, J. Deming, K. Snodgrass, E. Smith, E. Ayer, L. Cox, M. Dodd, J. Niles, M. G. Branson, H. C. Robertson, E. Wagner, R. Bixler, M. Tuttle, S. Collins, H. Harris, A. Irwin, H. Smith, R. Tinker, H. Harris, K. Huntington, E. Lord, F. Lord, G. Hamilton, A. McMaster, G. Branham, M. Ames, E. Bontecou, H. Smith, M. H. Taber, G. Jones and O. Erbsloh.

Taber in recognition of her services in providing refreshments for visiting teams and 'Varsity throughout the year. Miss Applebee was given a new emergency case and an alarm clock, which, it was hoped, would help her to get people down to the games promptly.

Election of Freshman Chairman

Dr. Branson jumped off at Mr. Foley's house, apparently for a professional visit, while the car drove to the paint shop behind the house, where Agnes Grabau, 1916, and eight Freshmen had been waiting since 7.30. The meeting was over in a minute, but it was not known by the college as a whole until later in the afternoon. The new Chairman was a ten-bar girl, and for two years voted "optima" at Rosemary.

The editors of the College News take great pleasure in presenting their first issue to the college. They have organized themselves during the summer in order to answer a general feeling expressed last June, in favor of a weekly newspaper. They hope to make the paper of all the service which it was thought such a paper might offer. To the faculty we hope to give the opportunity of putting in notices and articles of the things that interest them and would interest the undergraduates, if they only knew about them. To the alumnae we hope to make a particular appeal through alumnae notes, reports of college activities, and an opportunity to express their opinions on college matters. To the graduates we offer news of the work of the faculty in their subjects outside of college, a means of expressing their opinions and reporting their activities. To the undergraduates the paper will naturally be of most interest, because it will report college events, contain news of the alumnae, give opportunity for comparison of problems with other colleges, and a chance for journalistic work. This purpose cannot be attained unless all the people who were in favor of it, give their active assistance. Without the support of everyone and without the assistance of a great many, the editors will be absolutely unable to make it a success.

Outside the office window hangs the sign, "Reporters Wanted—the more the merrier." This means people to gather college, alumnae and intercollegiate news, musical and theatre-going people to write of the concerts and plays in town. If you are at all interested in newspaper work come and see one of the board right away. The staff of the paper up to the present has been purposely made as small as possible, with just enough people to get out the first issues. This is because the editors have felt they wanted time to find the very best people for the work. All the material which you hand in, and which is accepted, will be kept under your name and credited to your account when new members are added to the board next month. Profits will be divided in proportion to the work accepted among all the staff, reporters as well as editors. Before you pick up pad and pencil and visit the Christian Association room in the library (office hours 2 to 3 daily), there are just a few points to notice. Promptness in handing in material is of the greatest importance. The earliest reports will of course receive first attention. All work must be given to the editors before one o'clock Fridays. Besides prompt news, news that is out of the ordinary, surprising, hard to get, will count strongly in your favor. But remember, first come to the board and get your "assignment." The College News cannot accept anything from you unless you have been authorized by the editors.

The College News was started without any idea of its being a paying proposition, but of course a weekly paper cannot run without a business organization. We have arranged this to the best of our ability, although any suggestions as to improved business methods will be welcomed. To say it tritely, we are anxious to please, but we are also anxious to make the paper a business success; not that we may make a profit, but that we may show the college world the publication of a weekly can be satisfactorily achieved, as has already been proved for a monthly, and that we may be able to increase the attractiveness of the paper by having extras and cuts.

A large subscription list and many advertisements mean a great deal of work added to the duties of the business manager. There is probably work for a dozen people on the business staff in order that no one may be strained. Addressing, mailing, and distributing copies, and collecting subscriptions and advertisements offer a good many means of helping the paper, and of working toward a position as assistant business manager either this year or next. Indeed it may be found wise to have two assistants to take charge of the two sources of income. Therefore do not consider that the chances are against you, but try for one of these offices, which may become remunerative, if we, with your help, are successful.

To the Editors of The Typyn O'Bob:

We wish to thank the Typyn O'Bob for the opportunity it offered us last May to increase interest in a college weekly. We wish to assure them that we will accept no literary matter and would be very sorry to infringe upon their sphere. If there is any way in which we could co-operate with them, we should be only too glad of the opportunity.

Notice, 1917.

Competition for the Assistant Business Manager of the "College News" is now open. The successful candidate is to be announced in November. Office hours: Christian Association Library, daily, 2-3.

To Alumnae.

We have sent sample copies to all the A. B.'s of the college and to some former undergraduates as well, hoping they will become interested in contributing and subscribing to the paper. If they send notice or check within two weeks the second and third issues will be mailed to them, so that they will not miss President Thomas' opening speech and other items of important news. All suggestions as to what material would appeal to them will receive prompt attention.

CORRESPONDENCE COLUMN

(The Editors do not hold themselves responsible for the opinions expressed in this column.)

To the Editors:

Interesting and authentic college news every week! That is what is within our reach now that Bryn Mawr is to publish a weekly. It ought to be a very special boon to us, as alumnae, thus to be able to keep in touch with Bryn Mawr's daily happenings; for, after all, it's the continuity of detailed information that keeps up our interest in things.

Can Bryn Mawr support a weekly news sheet with the "Typ" and "Lantern"? We hear alumnae and undergraduates ask. But instead of asking let's do it. As alumnae surely we can do our share and that a large one. We can encourage the board by expressions of our approval; we can stimulate the board to greater effort by our expressions of disapproval, and we can all subscribe.

Yours sincerely,

AN ALUMNA.

To the Editors:

The impression has gone abroad that class government is becoming less and less democratic, which means that classes are getting further and further away from the fundamental principle of Bryn Mawr College. In the matter of class government, it has occurred to us that the following plan, if carried out in spirit rather than in letter, might solve the difficulty. At the expiration of the six weeks' term of the temporary officers a president shall be elected by the class. At the same time each hall shall elect a representative. These representatives, together with the president, shall constitute the Board of Directors of the class and shall choose from their number the other officers. Matters of importance shall be discussed by the Board and submitted to each hall by the hall representative before being given to the whole class for decision. The hall representative must realize that she may never act as an individual, but as a representative of her hall. In carrying out the full spirit of such a plan it would logically come about that each member of the class would have an opportunity to share in the work of the class. It might be a good plan in the larger undertakings, such as a class play, for the Board of Directors to apportion the work to the different halls as nearly evenly as possible, giving each hall its own definite responsibility. The bond that will hold a member most closely to her class is the realization that she is an integral part of its life and this realization will come only through having shared in the varied activities of her class.

Dear Editors:

Often I find it difficult to answer correctly questions about Bryn Mawr College. Will it be possible to obtain accurate information through the medium of your paper? If so, will you kindly tell me what year President Wilson was professor at Bryn Mawr and where he lived?

Ehlers, 1909, is Warden of Radnor. Miss Cynthia Wesson, M. A., has been appointed as Assistant Director in the Gymnasium. Miss L. Watson, 1912, is the Assistant Business Manager.

Library Notices.

About seven hundred new books have been added to the Library during the summer, and will be on exhibition in the New Book Room for two weeks before they may be taken out.

Study out of doors—Miss Reed has had comfortable steamer chairs placed on the cloister roof and reserved books may be used there under the same regulations as when used in the main room.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The opening meeting of the Athletic Association will be held on Monday, October 5th, at 7 P. M. The business before the meeting is the opening speech by the President, the reading of rules and the election of an indoor manager. Freshmen are required to attend this meeting.

Indoor Manager

The Athletic Board has lost one of its members; E. Dougherty is not returning to college. As Secretary during 1913-1914, and as indoor manager since last May, she worked faithfully for the Association, and her absence will be a great loss.

Two New Cups

Two new cups have been presented to the Athletic Association. 1914 has presented one for the championship in interclass tennis doubles. M. Morgan has added further interest to gymnasium classes by giving a cup for the best person in apparatus work in the Sophomore or Freshman Class.

Use of Swimming Pool

Freshmen may not enter the deep end of the pool until authorized. Authorization on Monday, October 5th, at 9 P. M.

Hockey Practice Schedule

'Varsity—Wed., Thurs., Tues., 5 p. m.
1915—Wed., Mon., 4.20; Thurs., Fri., Tues., 5 p. m.
1916—Thurs., Fri., Mon., Tues., 4.20; Wed., 5 p. m.
1917—Wed., Thurs., Tues., 4.20; Fri., Mon., 5 p. m.
1918—Fri., 4.20; Mon., Tues., 5 p. m.

'Varsity.

Captain, M. Morgan.

This year every one is going to have a chance to make 'Varsity. If some other girl gets the position you have been coveting, be a good sport and do all you can to help her, for it is for the good of the team. The prospects for the coming year are not as bright as they might be. Only three of the last year's players are back. This necessitates the filling of the eight other positions with new material. There is plenty of good material in 1915, 1916 and 1917. The Freshmen are an unknown proposition, but for the most part it is inexperienced and undeveloped. There are two whole weeks before the first big game; therefore, if every one starts right in and works as hard as possible, we will surely have splendid results. But it depends on every single solitary hockey player whether 'Varsity will be a success or not.

1915 Hockey.

Captain, M. Morgan.

Reports from the front as to 1915 hockey show the casualty list increasing. Since entering upon the hockey campaign 1915 has suffered heavy losses. R. Harrington, E. Channing, C. Head, L. Mudge and E. Blount have all departed this college life, while E. Pugh and H. Everett have had leave of absence. But all available material will be "commandeered," and the present team reinforced. And if the team of 1915 can still "fight with a might that has never been seen," the enemies may be routed and victory achieved.

1916 Hockey.

1916 has lost this year some of its best hockey players: K. Scriven, l.f.; H. Orr, r.h.; M. Mabon, r.f.; and A. Jaggard, g. This means the team will have to be rearranged and many new players put on. The vacancies can be well filled if every one who is physically able, will come out and try, and will not say she is no good. The reason 1916 has not won is not because it cannot, but because it thinks it cannot.

1917 Hockey.

1917 hockey is going to be great this year; that is, if everybody in the class comes out for the teams and shows enthusiasm. Everybody ought at least to have a try at the game, for each one may be just the star we need. Though we have lost two or three of our best last year's players, there are plenty of people who came out seldom or scorned hockey entirely last year that can fill these vacancies satisfactorily. All three teams ought to show great improvement since last year. Practice and careful training especially will do wonders. By coming out every day and by pulling together you may be sure that our three hockey teams will do the class great credit, even if they don't carry off first honors.

1917 Tennis.

All 1917 tennis players should practice every possible chance, as an improvement in any one's game may put her on the team. We want to make the summer and autumn practice count for something against 1915 and 1916, and no one knows what we may have to encounter from 1918.

1918 Tennis.

Class tournament will begin Thursday. Today is the last day for signing.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

We are glad that Miss Deems has consented to be the graduate member of the Board of the Christian Association. She was President of the League and served on the committee which joined it and the Union into the present Christian Association.

Membership Committee

This committee has been busy during the summer enrolling new members and sending letters of welcome and handbooks of information to incoming students. The committee was on hand in Taylor Hall, Monday and Tuesday, to help the Freshmen register. The annual reception will be held Saturday evening, October 3d. The Association extends a cordial invitation to all members of the college, old and new.

Federation Committee

Bryn Mawr sent eight delegates to the World's Student Christian Federation Conference at Eaglesmere this summer. They were: R. Tinker, '15; O. Erbsloh, '15; K. McCollin, '15; R. Newman, '15; D. Belleville, '16; L. B. Dillingham, '16; A. Grabau, '16; E. L. Dulles, '17.

Two Bryn Mawr Alumnae, Mrs. Dickie, '08, and Miss Kate Chambers, '11, taught classes; and Miss Mary MacKelvey, '12, managed the athletics in which Bryn Mawr won second place for water sports and basket-ball.

Employment Bureau

One of the Vacation Bible Schools in Philadelphia was supported and taught by Bryn Mawr students. Dr. Barton kindly obtained for us a gift of $75.00, which completed the $300.00 pledged by the Christian Association. This money went to pay for the salaries of the teachers: C. L. Westling, '14, Principal; C. Sutch, '15; A. Lee, '16; C. H. Westling, '17.

All entering students wishing employment while in college may make application to H. M. Harris in the Bookshop, or to A. Werner, R. 4-6 Den.

Finance Committee

The treasury, quite properly, is now nearly empty, but unfortunately all obligations have not been met. $125 is still owing to the Federation Secretary, and no money has gone to the Merion Township Playground Association, nor has the

Mr. Tonomura's Building Fund been completed by the necessary $200. The reasons for this deficit are that the receipts were over-estimated, and that too much was undertaken.

Settlement

Bryn Mawr girls taught four classes last year at the Light House Settlement: Wednesday, 4-5 P. M., Games. Tuesday, 4-5 P. M., Gymnasium. Thursday, 4-5 P. M., Sewing. Saturday, 3:30-5 P. M., Basket-ball. There were in each class twenty-five girls from 8 to 14 years old. They are so interested in the classes that any one who likes children would enjoy teaching them. This year the classes are to be the same. Many new teachers are needed. Any one can do this work, for she need not know much about teaching.

Bible Study

The committee has arranged for three Bible Classes, led by the students, during the first semester, and one, led by a minister, during the second semester. The dates and hours have not yet been settled. The subjects are as follows: "Life of Christ," Leader, A. Graham, '16. "Minor Prophets," Leader, H. Taft, '15. "Tests of Life: Studies from the Epistles of St. John" Leaders, C. M. K. Applebee, E. B. Kirk, '16; M. G. Branson, '16.
