Very kind of you to write. I'd just decided to go home when P.C. arrived. I'm now comfortably fixed in York England. eating lots of white bread & butter & other delicacies. I shall not be fit to do anything vigorous for a few days yet.

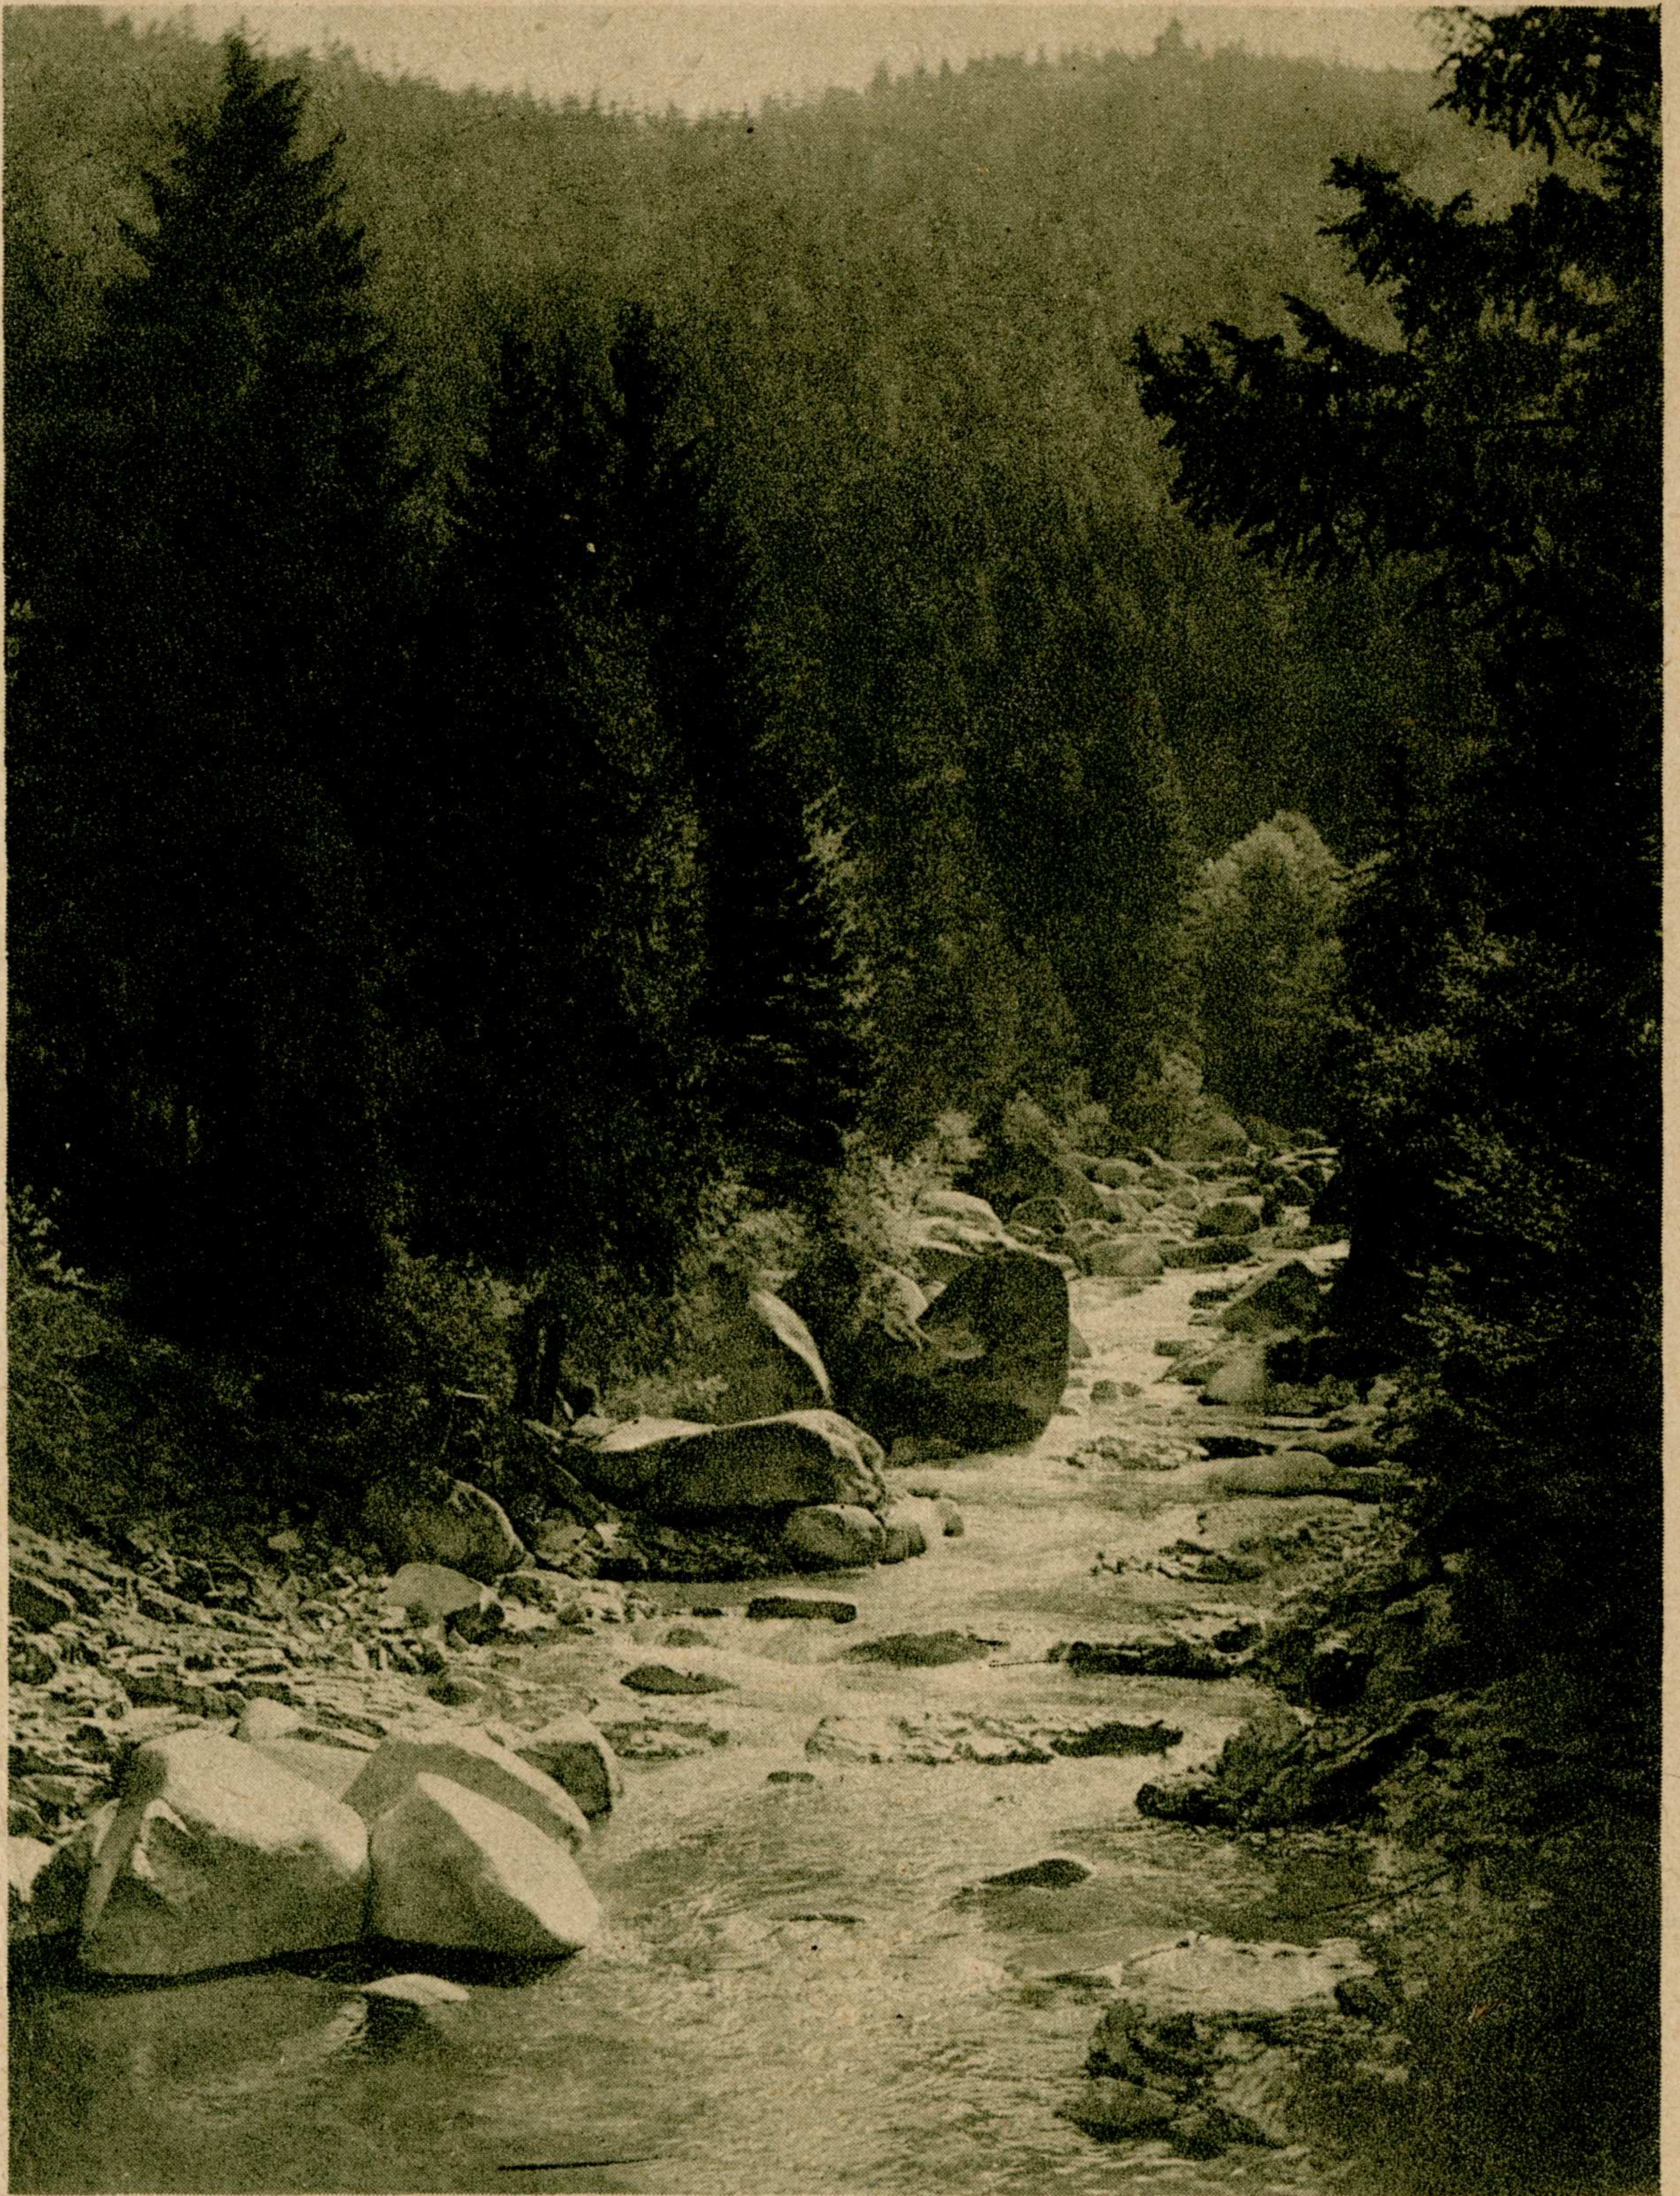

But hoping to go up into the Yorkshire dales about Easter time, lovely passing through in the train, fields of a real greenness, flocks of lambs, healthy yokels (everything?) that makes England what it is.
