PARK QUESTION ON BALLOT

Will Put $75,000 Project Before People at General Election

POOL NOT INCLUDED

The voters of Swarthmore will be given an opportunity at the general election in November to either approve or disapprove the purchase of a public park of approximately five acres of land which is now a part of Riverview Farms owned by Louis Cole Emmons. Council Thursday night passed a resolution stating that they felt the question was one which should be decided directly by the residents of the borough.

At the council meeting last month, Mr. Emmons offered to sell to the borough his private swimming pool and five acres of ground adjoining. In the meantime difficulties have arisen which made it appear that the pool would not be a desirable public project. On the basis of this Mr. Emmons changed the park site to the opposite side of the drive entering his estate from Swarthmore avenue.

The five acres as now shown upon plans filed at borough hall are located just behind the Adams, Buck, Fenno, and other properties on Swarthmore avenue as far south as College avenue. It would be about 310 feet across and 700 feet long or in a north and south direction. Mr. Emmons would agree to put in a new street where the private drive now extends to his home and extend College avenue as the southern boundary of the park. A new street would also be improved along the eastern boundary of the public property.

The price asked for the land is $75,000. Mr. Emmons says that the opening up of the property behind the proposed park for home development would increase the assessed valuation of Swarthmore real estate to such an extent that the park would soon be paid for by increased taxes.

If the proposed $75,000 bond issue is not approved, Mr. Emmons states that his most likely prospect for the purchase of the land is some private school whose taxes would mean very little to the borough.

Council's chief cause for hesitation on the matter was the number of projects which are scheduled to come up in the future and cut into the borrowing capacity of the borough.

"Our present borrowing capacity on capital improvements is about $142,000 which represents what has not already been used of the total $240,000 borrowing capacity," declared Frank N. Reitzel, president of council. "Out of this money we must pay for several capital improvements sometime in the future. If the people want the park and are willing to face the possibility of not getting some of the other improvements that is for them to say."

The other improvements referred to include a new or improved borough hall, possible sewers and new street paving, the new sewerage disposal plant, the new street behind the old Bank building, widening Chester road in the business district, etc.

In reply to the feeling that any of these improvements such as the sewerage disposal plant might be absolutely necessary in the near future with the borrowing capacity insufficient to meet the needs, Mr. Emmons stated that he would agree to buy back the property for the amount paid within five years of the time it was purchased should council so desire.

On the ballots for the general election the question will be stated about as follows: Shall the indebtedness of the Borough of Swarthmore be increased in the sum of $75,000 for purchasing a certain tract of ground in Riverview Farms belonging to Louis Cole Emmons for use as a public park or playground.

The resolution passed by council stated that it is to be understood that council shall be under no obligation to make such a purchase whether authorized by said election or not and that this resolution is passed solely to obtain the sentiment of the tax payers and not as an endorsement of the proposition by council.

LEGION MEETING HERE SEPT. 15

Frank R. Morey, superintendent of schools will be the speaker at the first meeting of the Harold Ainsworth Post of the American Legion in the Legion headquarters in borough hall Sept. 15. Mr. Morey is an active Legion worker and will talk on the school program here.

COLLEGE OPENS SEPTEMBER 19TH

Swarthmore College will open the third week in September with classes getting under way Friday, September 19 preceded by the Freshman Placement Program Sept. 14 to 18.

The incoming class this year consists of 190 men and women who have been selected from 1200 applicants. The number of new students is larger this year than usual as there have been practically no withdrawals during the summer.

Eleven of the new students come from homes in the borough. They are: David W. Bishop, David Brearley, Thomas Casey, Ralph Preston, Miles H. Robinson, Porter Wray, Elizabeth A. Blessing, Elinor Clapp, Margaret O. Cresson, Kathryn Meschter, Grace R. Shelly, and Luscinda B. Thomas.

There is one enrollment from Brazil and one from the Canal Zone, Panama. The rest of the newcomers are from nearly every state in the union.

HI SCHOOL GRID PRACTICE BEGINS

Captain Kurtzhals and Large Squad Practice Daily at College Ave. Field

ZIEGENFUSS TO COACH

With Swarthmore High facing the most difficult football schedule in many years, practice is already under way and a squad of about thirty-five men is working out daily on the field behind the college avenue school. Although it was hoped that the new athletic field at the Rutgers avenue school would be ready for this fall, the sod is not heavy enough and games will be played again on the college avenue field this year.

The team found encouragement this week in the new policy of the local school board which this year increased the equipment supplied by the school to include headgears and shoulder pads. In the past the boys have had to supply their own protective equipment, and the school athletic association has only furnished jerseys and pants. As it is, the members of the team still have to buy their own shoes and stockings.

Coach Ziegenfuss reports that there is plenty of good material returning this year and that the local school should have a good aggressive team on the field for the opening game with Nether Providence in Swarthmore, Oct. 3.

Bill Kurtzhals is captain of the team this year and should prove a formidable bulwark on the line. Among the other boys who are reporting daily for practice are: Trimble Kent, Ronald Kent, Charles Smith, Alfred Madison, David Woodling, Danato, who is a new man from Ridley Park, Erwin Kahler and Kenneth Christie, all experienced backfield men; and Captain Kurtzhals, Bob Detweiler, Schyler Simmons, Alfred and Henry Hoadley, Samuel Wisdom, William Taylor, William Alston, Francis Murphey, Everett Walters and Robert Cathill, all experienced line men.

ELECTRIC COMPANY RATES REDUCED HERE

Delaware County merchants and other commercial electric users will be the beneficiaries of rate reductions just announced by the Philadelphia Electric Company, to become effective September 1. The decision means that reductions in commercial lighting rates recently announced as applicable to the County of Philadelphia will be extended to the suburban area as well, giving to the entire city and suburban territory identical rates for this class of service.

According to the new schedule, customers in this group will pay 7½ cents per kilowatt hour for the first 48 hours use of load; 6 cents for the next 48 hours use, and 2½ cents for all in excess of 96 hours use of the load or demand. This change will affect the first and third blocks, where the rates are now 8 cents and 3 cents respectively. It will result in a saving of one-half cent per kilowatt hour in the first block of 48 hours use of load and a similar saving per kilowatt hour to those customers whose use of load exceeds 96 hours.

In addition to the foregoing, the Company has also announced reduction in the retail Power Rate of ½ cent per kilowatt hour for the first 48 hours of use of load served.

OFFICER HELD ON FEDERAL CHARGE

Swarthmore Bluecoat Captured as He Calls at Home of Chester Woman

WROTE OBSCENE LETTER

Charged with writing and mailing an obscene letter to a young married woman, Walter Brown, 22 years old, of East Fourth street near Crosby, Chester, Swarthmore's newest police officer, was held without bail for the federal authorities when arraigned for preliminary hearing before Magistrate Berry in police court at Chester Wednesday morning.

The recipient of the letter is Mrs. Anna Jenkins, of Potter street near Eighth. Upon receipt of the objectionable epistle, the young woman notified the detective bureau and Detective Freimuth was assigned to the case.

The writer of the letter had specified that, if the recipient was in accord with the suggestions contained therein, she was to place a white cloth in the window of her home as a signal, at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Before that time, Detective Freimuth appeared at the home of the young woman and secreted himself.

Promptly at the appointed time, the signal having been used as proposed by the letter writer, Brown put in his appearance and entered the dwelling. As he did so, according to the police, he greeted Mrs. Jenkins with a remark that convinced Freimuth that Brown was the man wanted and he promptly placed him under arrest.

A friend of the accused, who was present at the hearing this morning, informed the police that in his opinion there were at least two other young men who had been with Brown and that there was reason to believe they were implicated in the letter writing. The friend also stated that Brown's purpose in going to the Jenkins home yesterday at the time designated in the letter, was to offer an apology to the young woman.

Brown was held in $1,000 bail for the Grand Jury.

GIRL CHORUS AT TRINITY CHURCH

A vested choir of girls will lead the singing of the Sunday School at Trinity Church this year under the leadership of Mrs. Samuel D. Clyde.

The school will open on Sunday, September 14th and will meet at 9.45 a. m. The rector of the Church will act as Superintendent. The teaching staff has been increased and on account of the enlarged enrollment the opening exercises each Sunday will be held in the church. The school has been departmentalized and classes have been arranged for boys and girls according to their public school grades. Prof. Scott B. Lilly, of Swarthmore College, will teach the Young Men's class. The kindergarten and primary departments will be directed by Miss Constance Enid Smith, of Swarthmore college, and the Cradle and Font Roll departments will be in charge of Mrs. William S. Harvey, 2nd.

The "Practical Lesson Course" will be introduced. This course was used by Mr. Guenther at St. Paul's, Overbrook, and has been successful in a number of other parishes in the diocese. Each scholar has a lesson book and home work is required.

A meeting of the officers and teachers will be held at "The Lodge" on Monday evening, September 8th., at eight o'clock.

The Fifth Annual Flower and Vegetable Show of the Garden Section of the Swarthmore Woman's Club will be held at the Clubhouse September 16. This event opens the Woman's Club activities for the year.

Mrs. George Zimmer will be general chairman of the show and will name the heads of committees within a few days. Although the summer has been dry, a large number of entries in every classification are expected.

The first meeting of the Girl Scouts will be held Saturday September 13 at the Woman's Club.

BAZAAR OCT. 2-3-4 FOR TRINITY CHURCH

A little bit of France will come to Swarthmore on October 2, 3 and 4. Final arrangements for the Bazaar for the new church building fund, of Trinity Church, were made at three enthusiastic meetings held this week. The gymnasium and grounds of the Preparatory School will be transformed by local artists, under the direction of Miss Florence Tricker, into a "French Village."

Mrs. Albert Hill, General Chairman, reported that an unusual exhibit of the work of the mountaineers of western North Carolina had been secured. A friend of the church has had a large number of Mexican novelties shipped from that country; they will be sold at a special booth. The men of the parish will take charge of a "Country Store", where a little of everything from corn-cob pipes to live chickens and kittens will be on sale.

H. S. GRADUATES PLAN FALL WORK

70% of Class Already Decided to Continue Studies—Eleven to Swarthmore

SOME WILL COMMUTE

At least seventy percent of Last June's graduating class of the Swarthmore High school will scatter far and near to attend various institutions of higher learning. Undoubtedly this percentage will be even greater as reports are received from several who are still out of town.

Naturally, Swarthmore College draws the largest number, the following nine having elected to go there: David Bishop, Elizabeth Ann Blessing, David Brearley, Thomas Casey, Elinor Clapp, Margaret Cresson, Kathryn Meschter, Grace Shelly, and Porter Wray.

The trains to Philadelphia will carry several former classmates to various schools in the city: Barbara Dolman to the University of Pennsylvania; Elinor Windell and Stephen Mason to Drexel Institute; Elizabeth Lumsden to Temple University; Edna Hoff, Sonya van Santen Koff, and Dorothea Gullman to Pierce Business School; Eleanor Duff to the School of Industrial Art; Nancy Slater to the Philadelphia School of Design; Margaret Vlachos to the Cowanova Studios of Dancing; Irma Keighton to the Graphic Sketch Club; and Harry Bernard to the Drexel Institute Evening School.

Five will go to schools nearby: Pearl Bastian and Dorothy Underhill to Beaver College; Vincent Carels Pennsylvania Military College; Carolyn Evans and Lillian Myers to West Chester State Teachers' College.

Only two will go North: Gellert Allemen to Lehigh University and Gerard Bye to Harvard College.

The Sunny South has attracted five: Florence Miner and Grace Ottey to Goucher College; Harold Hormann to Wake Forest; and Ralston McLean and John Stanley Taylor to Duke University.

Four will go West: Norman Passmore to Pennsylvania State College; Frances Spencer to the University of Wisconsin; Isabel Ryan to Carleton College, Minnesota, and George Roberts to Earleham College, Indiana.

Sabina Gryzbowski has already taken a higher degree, that of Mrs. when she became the bride of Richard B. Warren last month.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO OPEN MONDAY

Sympathetic understanding of the problems of each individual child was the theme of Supervising Principal Frank R. Morey before the teachers of the public schools here at a luncheon given by the school board Thursday noon. A feature of the meeting which brought forth much praise from the teachers was the food served in the cafeteria by Mrs. Frank E. Williams who has just taken charge of the work. The luncheon was a complete meal very tastily prepared at a cost of only 30 cents per person.

School will open Monday morning with classes fitting in practically the same schedule as last spring except for the manual training and drawing which will be in the new shop building. The new laboratory has not yet been completed but will be finished within a week.

R. R. OPENS BIDS ON UNDERPASS

Final Report That Work is to Start Before September Fifteenth

COUNCIL URGES SPEED

With the beginning of at least the first part of the Chester road underpass almost certain within the next ten days, Borough Council at its September meeting Thursday night added another communication to the present list informing the Pennsylvania railroad that regardless of difficulties of construction during mid-winter, council desired the entire project to be pushed through to completion as rapidly as possible.

This action was in reply to the letters received in the past few days from E. B. Temple, chief engineer of the Eastern Division of the railroad.

Mr. Temple's communication received last Saturday stated that the railroad was advertising for bids for the first part of the underpass. This initial work is to consist of the large sewer from Chester road to Crum Creek through the College property and the grading and permanent paving of the large parking area north of the railroad east of Chester road, and the new street from South Chester road opposite the bank to the station grounds, this street to be located west of the approach to the underpass.

The letter closed with the recommendation that because of the excavating necessary in the project and the likelihood of a great deal of mud and confusion during the middle of the winter, the excavating and the work on the actual underpass not be started at least until after the first of the year and preferably not until early spring.

To previous suggestions of this nature, borough council has consistently held that the entire project should be started at once and completed as rapidly as possible. The letter approved Thursday night continued this idea and informed the railroad that the borough would be willing to suffer the inconvenience of detours and confusion during the winter in order to hurry the project.

The most recent communication from the railroad reported that Thursday was the last day for receiving bids on the project and that Mr. Temple expects to see work actually started before he leaves on his vacation about September 15.

ANNEXATION OF NEW LAND PROBABLE

The annexation of the land south of Yale avenue east of Cornell avenue continued to move toward a successful culmination at borough council meeting Thursday night when council passed a resolution stating that under certain conditions it would sign the agreements with the school board and the syndicate and take the property into the borough.

The resolution was as follows: "Resolved that the proper officers be authorized upon production of power of attorney verified by affidavits, satisfactorily to the Borough solicitor, and upon delivery of all exhibits referred to and in accordance with said separate agreements with the School District and the syndicate and the approval of the Borough Engineer to execute and deliver the said separate agreements as read in open meeting of Borough Council Sept. 4, 1930."

The approval of this resolution will make it possible for the school board and syndicate to sign the necessary agreements with the borough without holding another meeting. Claude C. Smith solicitor for the school board, stated that he hoped all parties to the two contracts could affix their signatures within a few days so that work on the school sewer could start at once and it would be unnecessary to put in temporary septic tanks.

NEWCOMERS

Charles Parker has rented the property 718 Harvard avenue, Swarthmore, formerly occupied by Philip C. Snow, to Dr. Jose' Zozaya, of Devon, Pa. Dr. Zozaya is connected with the H. K. Mulford Company at Glenolden and will also be identified with Swarthmore College. Mr. Parker also rented the property owned by Mrs. Thomas S. Safford, 410 Cedar Lane, to R. L. Morton of Harrisburg, Pa., who is connected with the Southwark Steel Company, a subsidiary of the Baldwin Locomotive Works.

Correspondence

To The Editor:

A number of the taxpayers of Swarthmore Borough, of whom the writer is one, thoroughly believe that we are over-policed. Five regular policemen for a law-abiding, peace-loving town like Swarthmore is at least two more than many of us believe are necessary. Now that the last officer added to the force has eliminated himself as a desirable and efficient officer, according to the Philadelphia Record of the 3rd, it would be a good time for our borough council to try out a smaller force by not filling the vacancy at this time. Perhaps a little later the force can be reduced to the number of three. I believe that by so doing our police force could be quite as efficient as it now is, at a saving of from $2,000 to $3,000 per year.

The most of the taxpayers believe that the tax rate should lower rather than advance, and if this can be done without affecting the efficiency of our service it would seem good executive management to do it. If you agree with the writer in this particular, speak to your councilman and ask him to use his best efforts to bring to pass the condition we suggest. There is plenty ahead to absorb our income from taxes for necessary and imperative improvements. I trust that our good councilmen will weigh the above suggestion seriously and soberly.

Taxpayer.

Gentlemen:

As you published my letter to Mr. W. W. Atterbury recently and having heard some favorable comments regarding the letter, I think in justice to the railroad the enclosed reply from Mr. Elisha Lee may encourage the residents of Swarthmore who expect prompt action.

If you care to use it in total I assume that he would have no objection, and I believe Mr. Lee really appreciates matters coming to the front when dissatisfaction may be brewing.

Yours very sincerely,
J. V. S. Bishop

Mr. J. V. S. Bishop,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Bishop:

In the absence of President Atterbury, I take the liberty of answering your letter of August 20th, concerning the project of eliminating the grade crossing at Swarthmore Station, the situation with respect to which is as follows:

After the plans and financing of this project had been agreed upon and an Order was issued by the Public Service Commission of Pennsylvania, there developed the advisability of constructing an extensive drainage system before starting on the crossing elimination itself—which would interfere for a considerable length of time with highway traffic. There was some objection to this, but I am now told that it has been agreed to by those concerned and that work on this drainage will be started in a short time.

We appreciate very much your interest in writing us.

Very truly yours,
Elisha Lee

HEDGEROW PROGRAM FOR COMING WEEK

Audiences who saw the Hedgerow Theatre's production of "Ten Nights In a Bar Room" a few years ago may witness the revival of another melodrama of the same vintage when Virginia Farmer's dramatization of Stephen Leacock's CAST UP BY THE SEA makes its re-appearance in Rose Valley on Saturday night. This latest addition to the recent Hedgerow Saturday night openings is a travesty of the serious drama of the 1880's, when up-stage heroines were applauded upon entrance and "stopped the show" to greet their friends; when villains were hissed and "specialties" were performed by members of the casts between acts. Leacock, in his inimitable manner, calls it "A gripping heart-drama in which the foam of the sea carries to the heart a tale of true love baffled by the wind and storm." This production, enhanced by new scenery designed and executed by Takashi Ohta, reproduces all the details of the ten-twenty-three theatres of the past and provides a roll-licking good time to the spectators.

A Trial Will Prove the Superiority of GOLDEN GUERNSEY MILK

Due to the natural increase in our herd, we are at this time able to take on a few additional customers in Swarthmore, Wallingford, Moylan and Rose Valley for Riverview Farms Golden Guernsey Milk.

Riverview Farms is the only dairy delivering milk in this locality from a Pure Bred Accredited (for tuberculosis) Guernsey Herd.

We know that much milk is now being offered and sold in these localities supposedly from such herds. To our knowledge and belief, in the last fifteen years the only dairies delivering milk from such herds in these localities are the Wawa Dairy Farms, Wawa, the Pencrest Farms, Media, owned by Walter Smedley, and the Riverview Farms, Swarthmore.

The Wawa Farms no longer make local deliveries in these localities and the Pure Bred Guernsey Herd of Mr. Walter Smedley of Pencrest Farms was sold at public sale on May 24, 1928.

If you use milk in any form in your home, you owe it to yourself and family to know the source and how this ONLY PERFECT FOOD is produced and handled before it reaches you. They say seeing is believing—so why not go and see for yourself just how your milk and cream is produced by visiting your milkman's barns and dairies. You are welcome to visit ours at all times.

There are indeed few communities fortunate enough to be served this rich golden milk from Pure Bred Tuberculin Tested Guernsey Cows.

The Guernsey has always been known as the "Estate Cow," and today you will find her supplying milk and cream for the tables of such well known folks as J. P. Morgan, Henry Ford, Marshall Field, III, Pierre du Pont, Horatio G. Lloyd, L. F. Loree, C. M. Schwab, and many others.

Riverview Farms Golden Guernsey Milk, winter and summer, contains the necessary proteins—fat, sugar and minerals, to make it a well-balanced, nourishing and natural beverage. It has the creaminess, the unmistakable flavor of genuine country milk. Its purity and sweetness are protected by the most scientific measures. The service is absolutely dependable.

Could you buy better health insurance for your family?

Let us repeat—don't be misled—Riverview Farms at this time is the only dairy delivering milk to the above communities from Pure Bred Tuberculin Tested Guernsey Herds.

May we serve you?

SCHOOL PROPERTY ANNEXATION SOON

Agreements Between Borough, Syndicate and School Board Ready to be Signed

BOARD MEETING TUESDAY

Although the agreements between the syndicate, which owns a large part of the ground below Yale avenue east of Cornell avenue and borough council, and the school board and borough council, have not been signed during the past week, plans are going ahead on the basis that the annexation of the syndicate property which includes the new Rutgers avenue school site will be completed within the next week.

Frank N. Smith, a member of the syndicate, says that they are ready to sign at any time. Claude C. Smith, solicitor of the school board says that the agreement between the board and council was not signed this week because of the time required at meetings to award contracts but that he saw no reason why it would not be signed at a special meeting next Tuesday.

Borough council passed a resolution which appears in this week's issue of The Swarthmorean among the legal advertising, saying that council was ready to sign both agreements providing certain terms were complied with.

The agreement between the borough and the syndicate provide for the following streets all of fifty foot width with paving twenty-five feet from curb to curb.

Rutgers avenue from Leiperville (Fairview) road to Yale avenue.

A proposed but unopened street hereinafter for convenience called "School" street bounding the school grounds along the East running in a northerly and southerly direction between Strath Haven avenue and Westdale avenue.

Michigan avenue from Leiperville (Fairview) road in a northeasterly direction the entire tract.

Leiperville (Fairview) road from Cornell to Michigan avenue.

Strath Haven avenue from Cornell avenue in an easterly direction to the said (School) street.

Westdale avenue from Cornell avenue in an easterly direction to the said (School) street.

Although the borough does not contemplate immediately making permanent improvements to any or all of these streets, it reserves the right to make or cause these improvements to be made whenever it sees fit.

The borough agrees to request the school district to contribute one-half of the net cost of making improvements on streets abutting the school grounds.

The syndicate agrees that, where it owns less than a majority of the frontage of assessable property, its property may be assessed at any time in the future, as in the case of streets above mentioned, a proportionate share of the full net cost to the borough of making such improvements including costs of street intersections. However, no share apportionable to the school district shall be assessed upon the syndicate or other private owners.

The cost of the sewers are to be paid under the same terms. Should the syndicate fail to make improvements as ordered the borough may make same and syndicate shall pay costs within ten days. As security the syndicate shall

DR. JESSE HOLMES SOCIALIST LEADER

Dr. Jesse H. Holmes has been named chairman of the committee working in the interest of the socialist ticket in the general election this fall. Although Dr. Holmes says that there will not be a complete list of Socialist candidates for all of the offices, the ticket will be one of the largest ever backed by the party. "On the basis that the capitalistic system has collapsed and fallen down completely, we expect to poll a large protest vote throughout the entire state," Dr. Holmes declared. Dr. Holmes spoke on Tuesday night before a Philadelphia labor union and expects to make a number of addresses before the election.

FIRST LEGION POST MEETING NEXT MONDAY

The first fall meeting of the Legion Post is scheduled for Monday, Sept. 15, at 8 P. M. over the Fire Station, Boro Hall.

A cordial reception awaits all those men who have recently come into Swarthmore and vicinity and who may wish to ally with the local Post No. 427. A splendid spirit is manifesting itself this autumn, looking toward accomplishment of numerous civic activities that have been subscribed to by the officers and executive committee in numerous sessions called for that purpose.

TRINITY BAZAAR PLANS PROGRESSING

Committees at Work on "French Village to be Held on Prep School Campus"

COUNTRY STORE FEATURE

With over a hundred and forty men and women actively at work on various committees, the plans for the "French Village" to be held on October 2, 3 and 4 at the Preparatory School are rapidly taking definite shape. Twenty-five men, under the leadership of William B. Bullock and Louis W. King, will have charge of the Country Store. A group of twenty of the younger men, directed by Joseph Reynolds, Vincent Cianci and George Frescoln, will arrange many of the open-air side shows and supervise the bowling alleys. There will be attractive prizes to the men and women having the highest scores; special matches will also be arranged.

Mrs. Charles A. Stern, who is general treasurer of the bazaar, will have charge of the Art Needlework booth. Books, new and old, will be sold by Mrs. Lipman and her co-workers. Mrs. Montgomery Smith is arranging for the cafeteria which will be open each day from 5:00 to 7:00 p. m. Home-made cakes and bread will be sold by Mrs. A. B. Chapin, Mrs. Bayard Hunter Morrison, Sr., and their committee.

An attractive booth will be in charge of Mrs. Samuel D. Clyde, who will have a display of candles. Mrs. H. Roger Coleman is chairman of the candy committee and Mrs. H. B. Lincoln is the leader of a group in charge of "smokes." Twenty of the young girls of the parish, under the leadership of Miss Muriel Mann, will have charge of the "Children's Corner", and Miss Ann Powell Corbin will be the "Captain" of the "Pirates' Den."

Flowers and plants for the garden will be sold by Mrs. Alfred S. Lewis. Mrs. William B. Bullock and Mrs. Norman Hulme are arranging the display of Mexican novelties, especially imported for the bazaar. A 9-hole "Goofy Golf" course is being laid out by Albert E. Corbin and his assistant. Prof. Scott B. Lilly and Prof. Duncan G. Foster will have an unlimited supply of balloons and Mrs. John Burriss West will have charge of the "Pop Corn" table.

Those who wish to look into the future will consult two fortune tellers whose identity will be disclosed later. Bargains will be found at the "White Elephant" whose "keeper" will be Mrs. Weston D. Fuller, and Mrs. Raymond Walters will have charge of a booth where all kinds of useful articles will be on sale.

The important work of publicity will be directed by Mrs. Lovett Frescoln and Ernest Wernher is chairman of the committee in charge of general construction work.

FORTNIGHTLY

The Fortnightly will begin its meetings on Monday, October 6th. Cards of announcement will be sent to members, stating place of meeting and book to be reviewed.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scouts will meet at the Woman's Clubhouse at 9:00 A. M. Saturday morning. They will please bring their lunch as the regular meeting will be held at Alligator Rock in the College woods.

LET'S REALLY MAKE THEM WELCOME!

A new school year is beginning for the students at the College and the other private institutions as well as for the local public schools. It offers new opportunities not only to those enrolled in one institution or another but to the people of the borough.

The spirit of cooperation between these schools and the people of Swarthmore like everything else must either increase or decrease. During the coming year, The Swarthmorean is going to make an energetic, consistent effort to bring the people of the village and the people of the college and schools closer together.

Sometimes we feel that our cry of "Welcome back to Swarthmore" have a hollow ring and that after making a polite gesture we who make our homes here the year around do not go far out of our way to add to the happiness and contentment of the college and private school students.

There are exceptions and those families in the boroughs who have children in college at the present time are of course more interested than those whose contact was some time ago. Yet we feel that with the more than three hundred alumni of the college making their home here, the question "what can I and my family do to make some present undergraduate's life at Swarthmore happier and more interesting," should be asked in every home.

The general answer to this question is the admission that we should attend college activities and show our interest in this way. But there are other more specific ways.

One family in Swarthmore that originally hailed from a distant state entertains any freshmen from that state at dinner some time during the fall. This is an idea which many good Swarthmore families could imitate. What freshman would not enjoy a home cooked dinner at the home of a Swarthmore family familiar with his own part of the country?

A specific instance of hospitality is the Strath Haven Inn. Mr. and Mrs. Scheibley have for years entertained students who lived too far away to return home over holidays and week-ends. With apologies for becoming personal we have never forgotten their kindness to us on

FLOWER SHOW TUESDAY, SEPT. 16

Many Entries of Flowers and Vegetables Expected in Annual Exhibition

WOMAN'S CLUB SPONSORS

The fifth annual Flower and Vegetable Show of the Garden Section of the Swarthmore Woman's Club will be held at the Club House Tuesday, September 16, 1930.

Exhibits must be entered before 11:00 A. M. All residents of Swarthmore and vicinity are invited to send exhibits. Do not think that your flowers are not good enough to exhibit, but enter them and let the judges determine their merits. Each exhibitor must supply his or her own receptacles. No exhibit can be removed until after 9 P. M. At the close of the show, flowers left will be sent to the flowerless in hospitals and in Philadelphia. Ice cream and home-made cakes will be on sale during the afternoon and evening.

The judges will be David Rust, of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, H. O. Wilcox of the Delaware County Agricultural Extension, Herbert Gilmore and Hosea Waterer. The judges of the Junior Section will be Miss Margaret Price and Mrs. Owen Stevens. The judges of the artistic arrangements of centerpieces will be Mrs. Carl De Moll and Mrs. Carl Chaffee.

The flower committee consists of Mrs. E. A. Jenkins, chairman, Mrs. Ellwood Chapman, Mrs. Rosalie Roberts, Mrs. Arthur Redgrave, Mrs. H. P. Blades, Mrs. W. B. Chambers, Mrs. W. A. Raiman, Mrs. Wilfred Ervin, Mrs. Clifford Buck, Mrs. William Earle Kistler, Mrs. Harold Reese Goodwin, and Mrs. Arthur Howland.

On the vegetable committee are Mrs. George Jones, Mrs. Lovett Frescoln, Mrs. Horace Walter, Mrs. Charles L. Bolton, and Miss Mary Pusey.

The decoration committee will be composed of Mrs. H. P. Onyx, Mrs. Joseph Seal, Mrs. Elliott Richardson, Mrs. Ansel Coffin, and Miss Muriel Mann.

Mrs. J. Warren Paxson, who is in charge of the Junior Section will select her own aides.

Mrs. Claude Smith has charge of the sale of ice cream and cakes. She will be assisted by Mrs. Frank D. Windell.

BRAINERD-PAXSON

John Grist Brainerd of Philadelphia and Alice Carolyn Paxson were married on September sixth, 1930, at the home of Alice Hall Paxson 311 Cedar Lane, Swarthmore, after the manner of the Society of Friends. After a wedding trip through New England the couple will live at Media, Pa.

Births

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Clothier Lesley at the Chester Hospital on September 9th.

AYDELOTTE TELLS OF REVOLUTION

President of Swarthmore College Describes Students' Part in South American Revolt

WILL EXCHANGE SCHOLARS

Dr. Frank Aydelotte, president of Swarthmore College and chairman of the Advisory Board of the Guggenheim Foundation, upon his return from South America last Friday described his glimpse of the Peruvian revolution. "We were on our way home when the revolution was proclaimed," Dr. Aydelotte said. He, with several other men, were in South America establishing contact for the exchange of scholars for the Guggenheim Foundation.

"We were to have landed at Mollendo, but the ship officials refused to put into port, fearing that the leaders of the rebel faction would commandeer the ship to transport troops. The port was closed at Mollendo, and we left twenty-three tourists sitting on the dock there. They wanted to return to this country.

"By the time we reached Lima the next day the Revolution was well started. The deposed President Leguia, of Peru, was on a warship in the harbor when we entered. Crowds had looted his home as well as those of other Government officials.

"The revolution looked more like a Sunday afternoon off" than like a military revolt, although there were a few houses burned and we heard intermittent firing. Huge crowds filled the streets. Soldiers with rifles stood on every street corner and kept the crowds moving.

"Street cars were not running but everything else seemed moving as usual.

"When we were in the Argentine all the University students were on strike. That was our only intimation of trouble there."

When asked why the university students of other nations appeared to take a greater interest in politics than American students, Dr. Aydelotte said it was due to the differences in university life. "Foreign students are not as interested in athletics. They are more mature than our boys, and are comparable to our graduates and professional students," he said. He also declared he had been informed that in South America university students were often misled by agitators.

"When I asked what the average student wanted that caused him to go on strike I was told many inconsequential things, but the real cause of students' revolts always goes back to politics and a desire for change in government," he said.

Cafeteria Supper

A cafeterian supper will be given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church Thursday Oct. 9th.

190 FRESHMEN ENROLLED FOR COLLEGE OPENING

Arrive Sunday Night and Early Part of Week for Placement Program

FOOTBALL SQUAD ARRIVES

Once again Swarthmore begins to seem natural and wideawake as trunks pile sky-ward on the R. R. station platform and returning students of the college noisily greet each other when they chance to meet. Freshmen arrive tomorrow and Monday while classes will actually begin next Friday.

The incoming class consists of 190 men and women, the largest in the history of the college. Dean Raymond Walters is perplexed to know where to put them all since the 190 admitted allowed for the usual number of withdrawals and no one has withdrawn.

The forepart of the week will be devoted to the freshman placement program with plenty of time to get acquainted with each other and the buildings about the campus.

Thirty-five football candidates returned yesterday and are hard at work this afternoon on the college gridiron under Coach E. Leroy Mercer's direction. The first football game of the season is, on Sept. 27 with Drexel in Philadelphia.

Dr. Samuel C. Palmer will resume his position as graduate manager of athletics again this year after an absence of several years while he was away from the college.

Stores in the borough are supplied to meet the needs of the students and the Business Men's Association created last year says that several ideas are now under consideration which it is hoped will bring about increased business for the local stores and better service for the students.

There are few changes in the faculty of the college this year. Dean Walters announced the appointment of two new members of the Department of Education following the leave of absence granted to Dr. W. Carson Ryan, Jr., to become director of Indian Education in the Government service. Dr. Ryan will continue to supervise education honors work at Swarthmore.

The newcomers will be Professor B. L. Terman formerly of Pekin University, China, and now at Defiance College, who will be visiting professor of Education at Swarthmore for 1930 and 1931, and Dr. Mary Wentworth McConaughy, former head of the Department of Education and Professor of Psychology at Mount Holyoke College, who will teach the classes in psychology.

POSTPONE AWARDING UNDERPASS CONTRACT

The office of the engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad reported yesterday afternoon that contracts for the initial work on the Chester road underpass would probably be awarded either yesterday or this morning at the latest. E. B. Temple, chief engineer of the R. R., sailed Thursday for Europe and reported the night before he left that the contracts would certainly be awarded this week.

Asked how soon actual work would begin after the contracts were awarded, Mr. Temple's office reported yesterday the contractors would begin the sewer project at once probably next week, as well as the paving of the new street west of the underpass south of the railroad and the new parking space north of the railroad east of Chester road.

PALMER-PLUM WEDDING SEPT. 27

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Vivian G. Plum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Plum of Terryville, Connecticut, to Mr. Copeland Palmer of Swarthmore, which will take place September 27 at the Congregational Church, Terryville, Connecticut.

Both Miss Plum and Mr. Palmer are well known in Swarthmore, the former having graduated from Swarthmore High School in 1922 before attending Sweetbriar of which she is a graduate. Mr. Palmer, who is in the employ of the Scott Paper Company, was a graduate of Swarthmore College, class of 1927.

Let's Make Them Really Welcome

Another Swarthmore family enters one of the language clubs, and another family one of the girls' organizations during the year. While the college authorities would probably not welcome a wholesale social onslaught of the undergraduates, we believe that they would favor any little courtesy which would add to the contentment of the students without interfering with their studies.

by working outside of class hours, and we feel equally certain that there are dozens of families in the borough who would have work which could be done very efficiently by students at the college.

COLLEGE ALUMNI REGISTER READY

New Book Contains Complete Data on Graduates and Non-Grads of College

MANY LIVE IN BOROUGH

The most complete and carefully catalogued Alumni Register of Swarthmore college ever published is just off the press and will be distributed soon.

Miss Lukens and any who have assisted her have turned out a very complete volume which appears to contain all of the information about the board of managers, the faculty, and the alumni of the college, anyone could possibly desire.

TRINITY S. S. TO BEGIN ON SUNDAY

Trinity Sunday school will begin on Sunday at 9:45 a. m. The opening exercises will be held in the church. There will be a staff of over twenty officers and teachers; nine new teachers and assistants having been secured over the summer.

Those who will have charge of classes include: Prof. Scott B. Lilly, W. Barker Keighton, Miss Iona Putnam, Miss Anne Jeffords, Miss Martha Keighton, William Bird, Miss Elizabeth Matos, John Wyeth, Biddle Heg, Miss Mariel Mann, Miss Jeannette Bair, Mrs. F. P. Byerly, Miss Elizabeth Dickenson and Mrs. Bayard Hunter Morrison, Jr.

Meetings of the teachers will be held at the rectory once a month for the work of the Baby Welfare association, are in charge of Denny Jones. Mildred Sergeant Brewster is organizer.

FASHION EXPOSITION FOR BABY ASSN.

The Philadelphia Fashion exposition will open at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel Monday morning, September 15th, for a week's showing of all the newest fall styles for the coming season. The entire proceeds from admissions to the exposition will be donated to the work of the Baby Welfare association, a chartered organization whose efforts for the past six years have been devoted to the conservation of baby life in Philadelphia.

The models exhibited in the daily afternoon and evening fashion shows will show the return to the softer, more feminine style, which logically have brought an increase in furs, especially the long-haired fluffy furs. The evening gowns will be the new empire and Grecian models with the evening wraps an alliance of sherr velvet and fur with wide sleeves and dipping hems. Daytime dresses will be shown with multiple gored skirts in heavy flat crepe, lame and black satin.

Hopper-Miner

The Swarthmore Presbyterian Church was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon when Miss Helene White Miner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Miner of Park avenue became the bride of Thomas Washburn Hopper son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Manderville Hopper of Suffern, N. Y.

Miss Miner was attended by her sister, Miss Jean Miner as maid of honor, the groom's sister, Mrs. Paul Sanders as matron of honor, and Miss Vesta Rogers as bridesmaid.

Mr. Hopper was attended by his brother Robert Hopper as best man and the ushers were Mr. Robert Butler and Mr. Albert Craig.

Mr. Kneeder was at the organ and the Reverend Dr. John Ellery Tuttle, pastor of the church, performed the marriage ceremony.

The bride was gowned in ivory satin with a cap of old lace, belonging to Mrs. Hopper. The maid of honor wore a gown of turquoise blue crepe with a turban in a deeper shade. The matron of honor was gowned in light green with a turban in a darker shade, and the bridesmaid wore a gown of peach color with a deeper peach turban. All of the gowns were made with long full skirts and peplum jackets.

A reception for the immediate family and close friends followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hopper will live in Petersburg, Virginia.

RED CROSS SEEKS HURRICANE AID

The Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter of the American Red Cross is one of eight large Chapters along the Eastern seaboard which has been requested by the national Red Cross authorities at Washington to receive money contributions for the relief of the Santo Domingo hurricane disaster victims.

Colonel J. Franklin McFadden, Chairman of the Southeastern Penn-

Sylvania Chapter, received a communication yesterday from Robert E. Bondy, Manager of the Eastern Area of the American National Red Cross, asking that the headquarters of Chapter and the various Branches be utilized as centers where money donations may be given for the storm sufferers.

Local contributions for the relief of the people of Santo Domingo will be received by Mrs. J. H. Taylor, 241 Kenyon avenue, chairman, or Mrs. Gerald Effing, Haverford avenue, treasurer of the local Red Cross chapter.

St. Luke Parishioners

Present and past parishioners of the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany who reside in Swarthmore will attend the annual closing Sunday services in the orchard of the Church Farm, Broomall, on Sunday (September 14) at 4 o'clock.

The church choir will make its only appearance of the year. Rev. D. M. Steele, D.D., rector, will relate the impression he formed in his recent trip abroad with Mrs. Steele.

be given a perpetual easement and right of way over same.
Another clause provides that the borough shall incur no added expense by placing telephone, electric and other wires underground.
The expenses of annexation, consisting of all sums and costs due Springfield Township and Ridley Township and all legal and engineering costs are to be recouped by the borough by a special tax with interest at 6 per cent on all unpaid balances, to be levied upon all properties in the tract except the school district. This tax is to be in addition to all boro, state and county taxes.

The agreement between the borough and the school district restates many of the clauses in the syndicate agreement and specifies that the borough is to pay one-half the net cost of improving the streets, placing curbs, and laying sidewalks bounding the school property as follows: Rutgers avenue from Westdale to Strath Haven; Strath Haven avenue from Rutgers to "School" avenue; "School" street from Strath Haven to Westdale avenue and Westdale avenue from "School" street to Rutgers avenue.

No share of the school district's apportionment of street improvement costs shall be due and payable before July 1, 1933, in view of the present cost of the building program. After July 1, 1933, the board agrees to pay its total share with interest of six per cent on any balance left unpaid.
The school district agrees to pay one-half the cost of constructing all sewers in streets abutting school grounds.

WARNING!
(Don't Read This If You Don't Drink Milk)
THEY say that liquids after passing through a modern sewage disposal plant are chemically pure and fit to drink—but who, knowing the source, would drink them? Who would not prefer the water from a clear sparkling spring to that of the other chemically pure water?
So it is with milk. The only way to know that your milk is fit to drink is to really know the source. Have you ever visited the barns, dairies, or seen the cows from which your milk originates? If you would take the trouble to do this, there is no doubt you would agree that more than pasteurization is needed, in many instances.
Riverview Farms has always encouraged visitors. Those who do take the trouble to see the source of their Golden Guernsey milk in Swarthmore can never be persuaded to use any other kind. All Riverview Golden Guernsey milk is bottled and sealed right at the farm—sealed with all the goodness and flavor in it a few minutes after it comes from the Pure Bred Guernsey cow.
The delicate wholesome flavor of Riverview Golden Guernsey Milk appeals to children. They relish it as they do no other milk. It is rich in food values so necessary to growth. Its butter fat is evidence of the high vitamine content. Butterfat is a most important element in milk. It produces heat and energy. Riverview Golden Guernsey milk is rich in butter fat, it contains more solids and more energy units.
These are some of the reasons why you should give your children Riverview Golden Guernsey Milk to drink. If the children will not drink ordinary milk try them on Riverview Golden Guernsey Milk and see what happens.

PARK PROJECT FACES DELAY

The five acre public park site east of Swarthmore avenue between the continuations of Elm avenue and College avenue, which council last week proposed to submit to a vote of the people in the form of a $75,000 bond issue, ran into difficulties this week in the form of an announcement from Clarence G. Myers, assistant borough solicitor, that the resolution was a nullity.

The land which can be secured for $75,000 is admittedly an ideal public park site. Council's action of placing the question of whether or not the land should be purchased, before the people in the form of a bond issue, was both condemned and praised this week.

Whether, in view of Mr. Myers' decision, enough time remains before the November election to take up the matter at the Oct. meeting of Council and have the question placed on the ballot, is doubtful. A movement has been started by several residents who are strongly in favor of the project to urge a special meeting of council so that there will be sufficient time to place the question before the voters.

In his statement declaring the resolution a nullity, Mr. Myers said: It was the duty of council to consider the advisability of the project and determine whether the borough should or should not accept the proposition, and if they found in the affirmative, advertise an ordinance over a period of at least thirty days.

Coapman-Conner

The wedding of Miss Catherine Margaret Conner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

James A. Conner of Oaklane and Mr. Norman Lynn Coapman of Swarthmore will take place at seven o'clock this evening at the Trinity Reformed Church, Broad and Venango Streets, Philadelphia.

The bride will be attended by Miss Louise Bierle as maid of honor and Miss Anne Parris and Miss Rose Messa as bridesmaids. Mr. Frank E. Williams, brother-in-law of the groom, will act as best man. The ushers will be Theodore R. Conner and Fred C. Conner, brothers of the bride.

The bride will wear white satin with a tulle veil and carry a shower bouquet. The maid of honor will wear peach satin with a velvet hat to match and carry Talisman roses and larkspur. The bridesmaids will wear gowns of orchid satin with velvet hats of the same shade and carry Butterfly roses and larkspur.

After October first Mr. and Mrs. Conner will live at 235 Park avenue, Swarthmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawrence arrived home this week from their cottage near Ocean City, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Temple of Maple avenue sailed for Europe Thursday and will be gone about five weeks.

As fine gold refined—
THE NEW PACKARD EIGHT

WE MOST cordially invite you to come in and look over the new Packard cars now on display at our showrooms.

You will find them as fine gold refined—as one of the world's finest cars made still finer.

A Wide Choice of Beautiful New Models

The new Packard Eight includes more notable improvements and refinements than any Packard of recent years. It is available in thirty-two beautiful models ranging in price from $2385 for the ever-popular Standard Eight Five-Passenger Sedan to $6075 for the finest Individual Custom creation. (At the factory.)

Improved carburetion and manifolding have increased the power. With added power, performance, especially in traffic and at the "red light", has been bettered. The advantages which only a four-speed transmission can give have been retained, with the transmission converted to the "short-shift" type. Longer and softer springs and new shock absorbers provide more riding comfort. An entirely automatic lubrication system now takes the human element out of daily chassis care and protects the long life resulting from fine engineering and precision manufacture.

Bodies made in Packard's own factories are the finest in every way that Packard has ever offered. Traditional appearance has been retained and beauty of line refined. Interiors have been beautified and made more luxurious. New color combinations have been provided.

Thirty years of building for the most discriminating clientele has taught the Packard Motor Car Company what such a clientele demands. And year by year—and again this year—new luxuries, new refinements and new improvements have been added.

An Investment in Luxurious Transportation

Today when nearly everyone is thinking in terms of investment instead of speculation, and buying more carefully, we ask you to view refined and improved cars—cars without a single speculative or untried feature. With Packard the car has always been greater than any one feature. You could not buy, expecting to keep your car four or five years if it were otherwise.

We shall be delighted to have you visit our showrooms and, as our guest, you will not be urged to buy. You will be extended every courtesy and desired attention in return for your own kindness in calling.

LEGION SECURES SITE ALONG CRUM FOR SCOUT CAMP

Beautiful Woodland North of Borough to be Used by Local Troops

LEGION PLANS ACTIVITIES

Swarthmore's three Boy Scout troops will have a woodland retreat only a few miles from the borough this fall and winter where they can build a cabin of their own and spend many week-ends in true Boy Scout fashion, thanks to the activity of the Harold Ainsworth Post, No. 427 of the American Legion.

Herbert T. Bassett was chairman of the committee which has secured this beautiful piece of woodland along the Crum not far from the Swarthmore Paper mill north of the Baltimore pike. The woodland is part of a farm owned by a man who through the Legion is offering it for the use of the boys. It contains a swimming hole and offers a great opportunity for woodcraft and play.

Not content with securing the woods, the Legion plans to help the Scouts build their cabin and turn the woods into a real outdoor paradise for the boys of Swarthmore. The Legion men are as enthusiastic over the project as the Scouts and several groups of ex-service men have visited the land since Mr. Bassett announced its acquisition at the first fall meeting of the Legion, Monday evening.

The September meeting, presided over by Commander George Corse, was marked by a large attendance and by an unprecedented display of interest in civic projects which the executive committee outlined for the post's program during the coming year.

Frank R. Morey, supervising principal of the Swarthmore schools, was the speaker of the evening and before dwelling upon some specific phases and problems of the Swarthmore schools, he outlined the development of education in a general way. Mr. Morey was a member of the Legion post at Camp Hill his former home and is transferring his membership to the Harold Ainsworth Post.

The remainder of the meeting consisted of reports by the various committees and discussion of the idea of using the former site of the Yale avenue school which is still owned by the school district. It seemed to be the sentiment of the men that this site could be put to excellent use and that the school board should retain possession of it until some plan for the development of the land could be worked out.

The problem of using the land to public advantage will be taken up with the school board and with other civic organizations in the borough which the Legion thinks should be interested.

The meeting this month was held in the rooms of the Fire Association in Borough Hall since the Legion rooms in Borough Hall are being used by the Union school until the completion of the new Rutgers avenue building.

WEEKS MEMORIAL TO BE STARTED SOON

The committee of the Keystone Automobile club in charge of the Weeks Memorial at the intersection of North Chester road and the Baltimore pike is awaiting bids and expects to award the contracts for the improvement of the site immediately.

There is about $5000 in the fund for this work and all of it will be used in improving the triangular piece of ground. The estimates are being secured on setting the Baltimore pike curb line back to the ultimate right of way of the State Highway department.

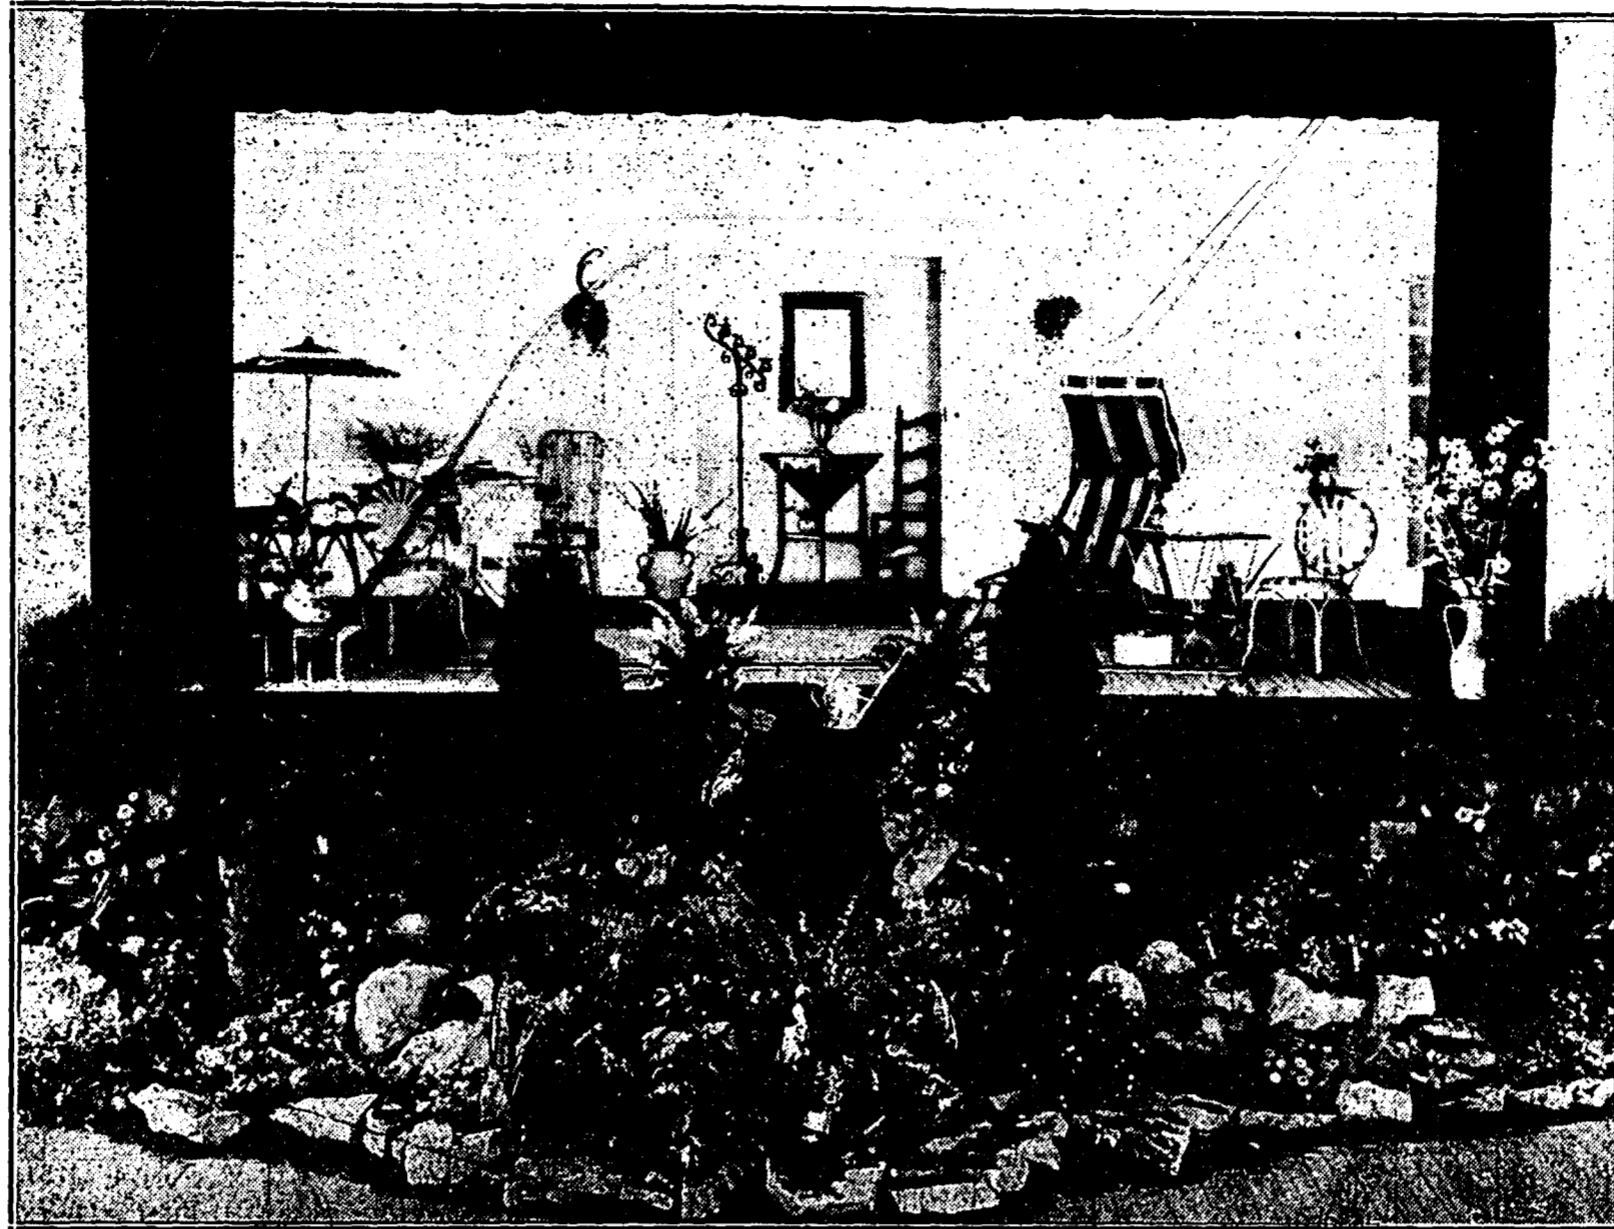

The club is also working with the State Highway department to get them to pave the set back area as soon as the curb is relocated.

It has also been decided that if funds are available the property will be graded and beautified with grass, trees and shrubbery. Also to encircle it with a cement sidewalk such as is called for in the plans for the memorial.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy, formerly of Swarthmore are spending the winter at the Farm House at Westtown where their daughter is attending school. They visited friends in Swarthmore on Friday.

Go to the Swarthmore Market for fine quality meats or call Sw. 950 for free delivery. Satisfaction guaranteed.—Adv.

SCHOOL BOARD AWARDS CONTRACTS

Purchase Equipment for New Rutgers Avenue Building

HOLD THREE MEETINGS

Necessary qualifications for school directors not always thought of in connection with the position were made apparent during the past two weeks at meetings of the Swarthmore board for the awarding of contracts for school equipment.

A school director may know the theoretical problems of the classroom, may know the answer to engineering problems in connection with building programs, may suggest ways and means of cutting down the budget, but if he can't grasp a school desk or table in two brawny hands, tug and tear at it, jump on it, and endeavor by every human means to break it in at least a dozen places, he is not a well qualified school director.

For the past two weeks at three evening meetings which have lasted far into the night, Swarthmore's school directors have been picking, thumping, pounding, scratching, pulling, dropping, wrestling, twisting, and submitting to every indignity and torture samples of furniture to be selected for the new Rutgers avenue school.

The climax was reached on Wednesday night when one member of the board hoisted his six feet two onto the top of a desk and jiggled for three minutes to prove the product of his preference superior to the product favored by another member of the board.

After a hectic day pushing children in and out of classrooms the new superintendent of schools has been attending the board meetings heaving furniture in and out of the board room with all the deftness of a licensed piano mover.

Although several near accidents were reported when turn screws failed to hold and desk tops proved treacherous, medical attention was not necessary.

It is said that one of the directors kept count of the number of pieces he had shown faulty by his superior strength and expects to use the information in his campaign for re-election.

MARY LYON TO OPEN SEPT 25 AND 30

The Mary Lyon school will open September 25 for the high school division and Sept. 30th for Wildcliff. There are few changes in the faculty this year and the enrollment is expected to be about the same as last year.

PURCHASE OF GYM SITE COMPLETED

The purchase of the tract of ground just west and adjoining the present College avenue school site by the Swarthmore School board from Swarthmore College has been completed and plans for the erection of a gymnasium and other buildings on the ground are advanced one step further. The price paid for the land was $22,000.

The schools of the borough are more crowded this year than ever before partly because of the delay in entering the new Rutgers avenue building and partly because of the unusually large enrollment.

Although the faculty is the same as last year, the enrollment at the present time is 783 as compared with 719 last year. Of this number there are 133 tuition pupils, divided as follows: five in the kindergarten, 91 in the grade school and 37 in the high school. This represents an increase of nine percent over the enrollment of tuition pupils last year.

FIRST PLAYERS' CLUB PRODUCTION SELECTED

Roy C. Comley will head the cast committee of the Swarthmore Players' Club and is already at work with other members of the committee making plans for this year's production. "Two Virtues," a three act English comedy by Alfred Sutro will be the production for November. It will be directed by Dr. A. F. Jackson and Roy C. Comley.

The monthly productions will be directed as follows: November, Dr. Jackson and Mr. Comley, December, Charles D. Mitchell, January, Robert Graham, February, Mr. Comley and Dr. Jackson, March, The Barnstormers, April, John Dolman Jr., and May, Roland G. E. Ullmann.

The first production has not yet been entirely cast according to Mr. Comley and Dr. Jackson.

Among other plans for this year the casting committee is particularly desirous of developing new talent. Although it is not likely that definite tryouts will be held, members of the club who would like to be considered for parts in a play are urged to get in touch with the casting committee which includes all of the directors of the plays and J. Kirk McCurdy, president of the club. Members are also urged to report any newcomers in town who are known to have dramatic ability.

A new feature of this year's productions will be that each director will be aided by an assistant director.

ROCK GARDEN FEATURES ANNUAL FLOWER EXHIBIT

Garden Committee of Woman's Club Sponsors Fifth Annual Display

HUNDREDS OF ENTRIES

Hundreds of exhibits and a large rock garden leading from the front of the building up to the stage which was arranged as a garden terrace set with tables and chairs marked the Fifth Annual Flower Show sponsored by the Garden section of the Swarthmore Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon and evening at the clubhouse. Mrs. George Zimmer is chairman of the Garden section of the club.

In spite of a heavy rain early in the evening the attendance at the display was all that could be desired and the flowers exhibited gave no evidence of having passed through a severe summer drought. The tables were artistically arranged and showed off the exhibits to great advantage.

The rock garden at the front of the room was one of the most extravagant things ever attempted by way of making the display attractive. H. D. DeMuth deserves a great deal of credit for the beauty of the garden as he worked for two days bringing rocks to the clubhouse and helping arrange the display. Miss Vera DeMuth also helped and Mrs. H. P. Onyx was in charge of the arrangement of the display and worked diligently to make it a success.

The awards were as follows:

Dahlias—Decorative, one bloom, 1st Mrs. J. O. Duke, 2nd Dr. Hearne. Cactus, one bloom, 1st Mrs. J. O. Duke, 2nd Mr. A. R. Redgrave. Any other variety, 2nd Mrs. W. T. Matos, honorable mention, Mrs. T. W. Simpers. Decorative dahlias, 3-blooms, 1st Mrs. J. O. Duke, 2nd Mr. J. H. Perkins. Cactus dahlias, 3 blooms, 2nd Mr. L. W. Matos. Five blooms, any variety, 1st A. R. Redgrave. Eleven blooms any variety and color, Mrs. J. O. Duke. Collection of pompons, Mrs. J. A. Duke. Collection of dahlias grown from seed, 1st Mrs. J. O. Duke, 2nd A. R. Redgrave, honorable mention H. E. DeMuth.

Gladiolus—Three spikes, one color, 1st H. E. DeMuth, 2nd H. E. DeMuth. Five spikes, mixed colors, 1st Mr. A. R. Redgrave, 2nd Mr. H. E. DeMuth, honorable mention E. A. Jenkins.

Roses—Hybrid Tree, one or more varieties, 1st H. P. Blades, 2nd E. A. Jenkins. Vase of Sweetheart roses, limited to seven blooms, Miss Isabel Bunting. DR. ELLIS TO FLY TO ASIA

One of Swarthmore's world-travelers, Dr. William T. Ellis, of Walnut Lane, leaves next week for another trip to the Near East; and this time he plans to make the land part of his journey by airplane.

Sailing next Tuesday night on the Bremen, Dr. Ellis will spend a few weeks in Great Britain. Thence he will fly into Germany; and from Germany he will go by air to Prague, Vienna and Budapest, and over the Balkans to Constantinople, Angora and Aleppo; stopping enroute to interview leading men for a series of articles he is to write.

Dr. Ellis' principal work on this trip will be done in Palestine and Arabia. He will also visit Egypt and Cyprus. During his absence, Mrs. Ellis will visit their sons, Franklin C. Ellis of Rochester, and Dr. Mackinnon Ellis, of Bryn Mawr. Dr. Ellis expects to return for Christmas.

HEGDEROW TO PLAY "DEVIL'S DISCIPLE"

On Saturday night, September 27, there will be restored to the Hedgerow Theatre repertory for the first time this year Shaw's comedy satire of New England fanaticism, "The Devil's Disciple". The role of the single minded hero, "Dick Deadeon", will be played by William Price, and others in the cast will be Alfred Rowe and Rose Henley as "Minister Anderson" and his wife "Judith". This is the play which uses a crisis in American history to reveal the narrowness of soul and blundering singleness of purpose of the New Englander, and is one of the most pointed and keen comedies George Bernard Shaw has given us. It is an understanding an interpretation of human hardness sprung from the soil as is Eugene O'Neill's "Desire Under the Elms."

Sidney Howard's "Lucky Sam McCarver", which has its opening performance tonight, will be repeated on Tuesday, with Harry Belver as "Sam". On Wednesday evening the Farmer-Leacock heart-throb travesty, "Cast Up By the Sea" will be given with Miriam Phillips, Dudley Vaughan, Joseph Leberman and Ferd Nofor as the leading quartet of overwrought souls.

Donald Corlay's puppet play "Lime-light" will be the show for Thursday night, with Kay Roma as the puppet woman whose soul is drowned in her own vain emotions and Ferd Nofor, Jesse Oser, Marshall Gatchell and William Price as the men who dangle on her strings. The play for Friday night will be J. M. Synge's shrewd and beautiful comedy, "The Playboy of the Western World."

Girl Scouts

The Girl Scouts will meet at the Women's Clubhouse at 9 A. M. Saturday. If the weather permits, a picnic meeting will be held in the College woods.

NEW PACKARD EIGHT

Why not own one?

AGAIN this year the story of the new Packard Eight is not a sensational one. Packard did not reach its world leadership among fine car manufacturers by sensational means.

The story of the new Packard Eight is the sound and sensible story of a fine car made even finer. That is what Packard has been striving to do and has done each year for thirty years. But no new Packard of recent years has embodied so many refinements and improvements as this one.

Eight years of successful eight-in-line experience result in a powerplant and chassis it now seems impossible to further improve. Precision workmanship is protected by automatic lubrication. Packard designed and built bodies—beautiful with the grace of line always characteristically Packard—increased power, still better performance, still smoother and more quiet luxury of travel—these things distinguish the new car. They are worth experiencing.

But the greatest thing we offer you in a Packard is a sound conservative investment in truly fine transportation—an investment never depreciated by needless changes in design—a long-time investment in motor car satisfaction.

You are probably paying for the new Packard Eight whether you own one or not. If you drive a car of its size and power, we know you are and we can prove it. So why not own one? Operating costs are no greater for a Packard Standard Eight than for any other car of its size regardless of its list price. Depreciation on the Packard is actually less, for you like others will keep it far longer than you would any ordinary car.

Records show that Packard owners keep their cars nearly twice as long as the cars they traded in, and that the chances are nine out of ten that you, having once bought a Packard, will never buy any other make of car!

Allow us to figure your ownership cost for you without obligation. You may find that a new Packard Eight can be yours for a surprisingly small down and monthly payment. If your used car is of average value there may be no down payment necessary.

TRINITY CHURCH "FRENCH VILLAGE" OPENS THURSDAY

"Country Store" to be Big Feature
—George Earnshaw to Autograph Baseballs

DINNER EVERY EVENING

George Earnshaw, Swarthmore's famous member of the Athletics, will autograph a limited number of base balls to be sold at the "French Village," which will be held at the Preparatory School on next Thursday, Friday and Saturday for the benefit of the Trinity Church building fund.

Local artists, under the direction of Elmore Tricker, began last evening to transform the interior of the Gymnasium into a quaint corner of rural France. Little shops will open hospitable doors to visitors and attractive booths will display all kinds of useful and fancy articles, domestic and foreign. One of the most beautiful exhibits will be that of original paintings and sketches by the artists who are assisting.

The men of the parish are reproducing an "honest-to-goodness" country store, which will revive memories of a dimming past. Old-fashioned show-cases will be filled with a characteristic assortment of odds and ends; a set of harness and buggy whips and lamps will be reminiscent of days gone by; a "Village Post Office" will be a reminder of times when knowledge of the outside world came from that source and was tinged with local gossip. In this setting will be found groceries, and other food-stuffs. Each day fresh vegetables and fruits will be supplied from local gardens.

Occupying the most prominent place in the "French Village," will be a drawing of the new church, the first unit of which will soon be started. Tentative plans have been made by George Whitman Casey, the Senior Warden, and his associates. The building will be of Gothic design and Clerstory windows will make possible a high nave. It will be erected parallel to the present church which will be used as a Chapel and for the Sunday School.

The main entrance will be on Chester Road and over the east end will be built a bell-tower. When construction work began the Nave only will be built, and will seat about 400 people. The basement, approximately thirty-six by eighty feet, will be used for various parish activities and will provide additional class rooms for the Sunday School.

WOMEN VOTERS TO DISCUSS WINTER'S WORK

A joint meeting of the Swarthmore and Delaware County Leagues of Women Voters will be held at the Swarthmore Woman's Club House at 2:30 P. M. Tuesday, September 30th, to consider "Our Winter's Work."

Among the guests who will give short talks are Miss Mary Lee Turner, Mrs. William E. Lunt, and Mrs. M. W. Montgomery, all of whom are officers of the Pennsylvania League.

The meeting will also be attended by the officers and heads of standing committees of the Delaware County League, and by the chairmen of the seven local Leagues of the County.

A large and interested attendance is desired to make an inspiring and helpful meeting to open the season's work.

Johnson-Jeglum

The wedding of Miss Gladys Aste Jeglum, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Jeglum, now of Swarthmore formerly of Estherville, Iowa, and Mr. Horace Merrill Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Johnson of The Harvard, took place at 4:30 Monday afternoon at the Valley Forge Memorial Chapel. The Reverend W. Herbert Burke performed the ceremony. Mr. James Jones played two selections on the violin. The bride was attended by Miss Helen Robinson of Estherville, Iowa. Mr. Claire Jeglum, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Following the ceremony there was a dinner at the Springhaven Country Club for the members of the family and intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will live in Swarthmore.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. M. Herbert Paul of 536 Ogden avenue announce the engagement of their daughter Florence Middleton Paul and Joseph Newton Pew, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Pew of Moylan.

Location of Swarthmore Post Office To Be Changed

Swarthmore's post office for the next ten years will be located on South Chester road in the building which has recently been occupied by a series of restaurants. Clarke and Harvey the owners of the building are having plans drawn up now for several changes both inside and outside the building in order to provide several hundred more square feet of space to comply with the agreement with the Post Office Department at Washington.

While the building is being improved for the post office, the owners will also improve the second floor as a modern apartment and will make some interior improvements in the vacant store just north of the new post office building.

The post office has been housed in its present quarters for nearly a year since the contract made ten years ago with the owner of the building expired. During this time bids have been called for twice by the Post Office Department in Washington.

The new post office will not only be larger than the present one but will contain new lock boxes and new equipment behind the windows for speedier handling of the mail. It is even rumored that the new lock boxes will be equipped with locks that actually work.

The new building will be occupied just as soon as the necessary changes can be made and the new equipment installed.

SWARTHMORE MAN PROMOTED IN WORK

Edwin B. George, of Elm avenue, Swarthmore who for the last three years has been manager of the Philadelphia office of the United States Department of Commerce, has been appointed chief of the newly organized Marketing Service Division of the department in Washington. He will assume his new duties next week.

The usefulness of the Philadelphia office has grown 7300 per cent during the time Mr. George has been in charge. He was chosen to head the new bureau after more than 100 trade experts had been under consideration.

Mr. George has become known as a popular luncheon and after-dinner speaker and has appeared before most of the business and civic organizations in Philadelphia. He has spoken in Swarthmore before the Men's Association of the Presbyterian Church and was principal speaker at last year's Memorial Day exercises in the Borough.

He is president of the Phi Delta Theta Alumni Club, vice-president of the Benjamin Franklin Club, and a member of the Penn Athletic Club and the Engineers' Club.

He has been connected with the Department of Commerce eight years and has served abroad five years of that time. He was trade commissioner to the Philippine Islands, the Dutch East Indies, British India and other sections of the Far East.

Mr. George says, "The new division in Washington is being created for the express purpose of adding to the department's present facilities for serving individual manufacturers, distributors and retailers which detailed advice and assistance."

LIBRARY BOARD HOLDS FIRST FALL MEETING

The board of the Swarthmore Free Public Library in Borough hall met Monday evening and discussed the fall program. The library hours were changed for Wednesday and the rooms will be open from 2 to 5:30 in the afternoon on that day instead of in the morning as at present.

The library now has 3500 volumes, 2000 adult and 1500 children's books. More people took out books during the summer according to Miss Lindale, librarian, than during last winter. The installation of additional bookshelves in the large room was discussed and will probably take place soon.

Rivals Flower Show

The Flower Show at the Woman's Club last week had a rival at the home of Mrs. J. E. Snyder on Rutgers avenue when the Night Blooming Cereus, in spite of a downpour of rain, attracted a considerable crowd that evening.

This plant, which blooms only once a year with large starlike flowers of pure white, is unusual in another respect. just as the flowers are in their full development and as they begin to fade, they give off a wonderfully sweet perfume.

The Swarthmorean regrets that credit was not given in last week's article on the Flower Show to M. J. Mahoney for bringing in the rocks and stones used in the rock garden. Insufficient credit was also given Mrs. Wilfred Irvin who helped to a great extent in building the rock garden and decorating the clubhouse.

Make Skip-Stop Stop

Vassar avenue which has been a skip-stop on the Media-Darby trolley line since the war is now a regular stop.

CLOTHIER MEMORIAL SCAFFOLDING REMOVED

Like the unveiling of a monument the Clothier Memorial has been cleared of scaffolding this week and this morning stands out in greater beauty and dignity than was even thought possible by those who have tried to peer behind the wooden framework which has partially hidden it.

On Monday the stone work on the tower was finished and Mrs. Joseph Swain, President and Mrs. Frank Aydelotte and several members of the faculty were present to take part in a brief ceremony. A flag was hoisted at the top by workmen.

COLLEGE MEN RESENT PROCTORS IN DORMS

Students at Swarthmore College were reported as highly indignant over a new proctor system which has been established by order of the dean of men. The system calls for the placing of a member of the faculty or a graduate student in each of the six sections of Wharton Hall, the men's dormitories.

While it is said that the college administration denies that the men are there to keep order the students of the college claim that this is the purpose and that they feel the plan is an intrusion upon the work of the Student Government Association.

Members of the College administration point out however that there is so little interest in the Men's Student Government Association and that the organization last year failed to function in several instances that some other system such as the "proctor system" is necessary.

MEMORIAL CHIMES TO BE DEDICATED

The Swarthmore Presbyterian Church is the recipient of a beautiful and timely gift—a set of organ chimes presented by her daughters, Mrs. Leonard C. Ashton of Swarthmore, and Mrs. Harold G. Marr of Monterey, Massachusetts, in memory of their mother, Jessis Bacon (Mrs. William Plumer) Potter.

The chimes, made by the Mayland Company, one of the foremost makers of organ chimes in this country, have been installed by the Austin Organ Company, makers of the beautiful organ presented to the Swarthmore Church in 1922 by Mrs. Potter and her daughters in memory of her husband, the late Justice William Plumer Potter and dedicated January 14th, 1923.

The chimes, consisting of twenty-five tubes, the largest number ever used on an organ, cover two octaves, from G to G in the middle keyboard, as most hymns are usually written. They are of the highest grade and as complete and fine a set as is ever placed in an organ.

There is both a loud and soft attachment, the former giving the effect in the church of heavy bells and the latter of distant bells soft and far away. The chimes are playable from two keyboards, thus insuring the finest musical effects. They will be heard for the first time at the Vesper Service to-morrow, at quarter before five o'clock, when they will be dedicated in an impressive service.

In connection with the installation of the chimes, the Austin Company has gone over the Memorial Organ, retuning it and smoothing the tone of the pipes. A plastered wall between the organ pipes and the outer organ wall has been removed, releasing much more effectively than was possible before, the rich pedal and lower tones of the organ. It is a matter for congratulation not only to the church but to the community that such an enrichment of church worship has been made possible in Swarthmore through the generosity of one of the community's most honored families.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Andes announce the birth of a son Charles Lovett, Jr., born September 23rd at the Joseph Price Memorial Hospital in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brill, Swarthmore and Ogden avenues, announce the birth of a daughter Judith Ellen, Sunday, Sept. 21, at the Samaritan Hospital, Philadelphia. Mrs. Brill was formerly Miss Eve Alger.

Mr. and Mrs. George Andrews Hay announce the birth of a son George Andrews Hay, Jr., born August 21 at Garden City. Mrs. Hay was formerly Miss Alice Casey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Burriss West of Princeton avenue announce the birth of a daughter born Sunday morning at the University Hospital in Philadelphia.

ELIMINATION OF CHESTER ROAD GRADE CROSSING UNDER WAY

Work Started Tuesday on Drainage Sewer South of College Power Plant

START PAVING SOON

Work was begun Tuesday morning on the Chester road underpass at the Pennsylvania railroad grade crossing in Swarthmore. Today two steam shovels and a crew of fifty men are working on the drainage sewer just south of the College power plant while employees of the College are removing trees and shrubbery preparatory to the surfacing of the new parking area north of the railroad east of Chester road.

J. Joseph McHugh, contractor, who was awarded the sewer and paving part of the underpass contract says that the work will be rushed with the hope of "getting out of the trenches by Christmas." Closing off of Chester road at the crossing will not be necessary while this preliminary work to the real underpass is going on.

The drainage sewer will be completed first from behind the College power plant down to Crum creek. It will run in a southwesterly direction down a small valley. From the power plant east it will run across the lawn of the college property just west of the railroad station and connect with the underpass.

A sewer pipe of 48 inches inside diameter made of reinforced concrete and weighing 525 pounds to the foot will be used and it will be necessary to dig a trench 30 feet deep at the upper part of the project near the station. The trench will be six feet six inches wide throughout and is about fifteen feet deep where it is being built at the present time.

Improvement of the new parking area north of the railroad and laying of the new street south of the railroad west of the underpass opening will probably begin next week. Some filling in will be necessary in the parking area but both pieces of work will be hurried along as rapidly as possible.

The firm of J. Joseph McHugh has done a great deal of work for the Pennsylvania railroad having built a number of underpasses and done considerable work on the new railroad improvements in Philadelphia. Mr. McHugh standing on Chester road and observing the flow of automobiles crossing the railroad stated that he had never before seen a crossing which so obviously needed elimination as the one in Swarthmore.

Rachel W. Hillborn 1837—1930

For nearly a half-century, this beloved friend has resided in Swarthmore and has rendered devoted service to the welfare of the borough, the college, and the Swarthmore Monthly Meeting of Friends. So strong and simple was her character that she was indeed a "Mother in Israel." Steadfastness, sagacity, and serenity were among her outstanding characteristics. Her sustained enthusiasm for the things that are more excellent found consistent expression in a steadfast support of the fundamental principles of eternal justice and righteousness. Her counsel was eagerly sought in committees of the College Board and Monthly Meeting, of which she was an active member for many years, and her advice was so sound and sagacious that it was felt to be founded on a close contact with the Divine source of all wisdom. The sweet serenity of her countenance and presence was realized by all who knew her to be the reflection of that Inner Light which shines in the soul of man from the Light of God's own countenance.

We are grateful that she has lived, and that she has lived in our community. May we not show our gratitude by seeking more devotedly to live closer and be more obedient to the Divine source of steadfastness, sagacity and serenity which is always accessible to those who seek for it in spirit and in truth?

Rumsey-Artueba

The wedding of Miss Marie Artueba of Ridley Park and Mr. John Rumsey of Swarthmore took place last Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents. After their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Rumsey will live in Ridley Park.

After the Underpass

The beginning of the underpass on Chester road is good news to most Swarthmoreans. If any lesson can be drawn from the beginning of the work this late in the year it is that the only way to get a thing is to fight for it. We remember half a dozen individuals who, when The Swarthmorean was endeavoring to stir up discussion of the matter and council was writing letters to the Public Service Commission, declared that they knew from inside sources that the underpass was not included in the Pennsylvania R. R.'s program of improvements for this year and that all attempts to get the work begun this fall were wasted effort. Perhaps the underpass would have been started without the agitation of the past two months, but there was no harm in letting the R. R. know that we were ready to fight for the rights that we believed honestly belonged to the borough and the other members of the agreement. You may or may not approve the underpass, but there seems to be general admission in the borough that with the elimination of the grade crossing begun, a new project which will benefit the borough more than anything else now challenges the attention and support of every resident of the borough. We refer to the by-pass, the new state highway east of the borough carrying Philadelphia-Chester traffic around Swarthmore instead of through it.

To this project The Swarthmorean pledges itself consistently and untriggly. The head of the State Highway Department in this district has contended during the past summer that the project would get along more rapidly if publicity were withheld until the survey of the possible route were completed. This work is now finished and within a short time the people of Swarthmore will be called upon to back up the recommendations for the highway which will undoubtedly be made by the State department for this district. It sufficient interest in the project can be aroused the financing can be arranged by the state and county as surely as the underpass was begun this fall in spite of all predictions to the contrary.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meschter of Dickinson avenue and Mr. Roland L. Eaton were among those who attended the Allentown Fair last week.

Mrs. J. S. Bates of Haverford avenue has as her guests her mother Mrs. Roesler of Bridgeport, Conn., Mrs. Fairchild and Miss Klein of New York.

Mrs. Robert G. Gillilan entertained her bridge club Friday at her home. Mrs. Charles Israel of Wheeling, West Virginia, was a guest of Mrs. J. E. Snyder of Rutgers avenue this week.

Mrs. S. Melton Brant and Mrs. Wesley Cliffton entertained at tea last Friday afternoon.

to the bar a week before his marriage and will take up active practice at once with a prominent firm of Philadelphia attorneys.

The church was beautifully decorated for the wedding and the service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. John Ellery Tuttle and the Rev. Dr. Burleigh Cruickshank assisting.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin trimmed with duchess lace and a full veil cap tied with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaids were Miss Renee L. Smith of Philadelphia, Miss May B. Jardelle, Miss Mary Case, and Dr. Clara L. Davis, all of Lansdowne. They wore gowns of peach chiffon with slippers to match and carried bronze dahlias.

The bride was accompanied by her sister Miss Eleanor Kennedy as maid of honor. Miss Kennedy wore a gown of aquamarine blue chiffon with satin slippers to match and carried bronze dahlias.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and the best man was Mr. R. Drummond Smith of Philadelphia, brother of the groom. The ushers were Mr. J. Winslow Smith, and Mr. Harold J. Saxon of Philadelphia, Mr. Samuel C. Fleming of Ridley Park and Mr. Merrill Lynn of Lewisburg. A reception at the home of the bride's parents for members of the two families followed the ceremony.

*The NewPACKARD EIGHT
DE LUXEFinest of all the world's Fine Cars*ASK
THE MAN WHO OWNS
ONE

THE new Packard Eight De Luxe models just announced are by far the finest motor cars Packard has ever designed and built. While no radical changes have been made, either in the tried and proved Packard chassis or in the beauty of line long acknowledged supreme among the aristocrats of all motordom, the new model nevertheless surpasses all previous Packards in sheer excellence, in refinement of detail, and in all those things which spell true luxury of transportation.

This new line of big, luxurious Packard cars literally embodies everything the name "Packard" has come to mean in thirty years of world leadership—as fine gold refined—Packard's latest masterpiece.

Prices (at the factory) range from $3490 for the two-passenger Roadster to $4285 for the beautiful and luxurious seven-passenger Sedan-Limousine.

If you prefer to buy out of income, as so many prefer to do, you will find our Income Payment Plan most attractive.

We cordially invite you to our salesrooms to see this superb new Packard creation. In it you will recognize the masterly designing and superior craftsmanship upon which Packard reputation is founded. Ride in it and you will find your dream of motor car performance and luxury surpassed.
