SEEK TO AVOID TRAFFIC DETOUR WITHIN BOROUGH

Council Urges R.R. to Build Temporary Roadway East of Present Crossing

R.R. CONSIDERS PROPOSAL

In an attempt to eliminate as much inconvenience to the townspeople as possible while the Chester road underpass is in the course of construction, borough council has suggested that the Pennsylvania R. R. arrange for a temporary roadway just east of the present point where Chester road crosses the R. R. tracks.

J. Archer Turner, head of the property committee of borough council, has taken the matter up with E. B. Temple chief engineer of the Eastern division of the R. R. and has received Mr. Temple's assurance of cooperation if the plan is at all feasible.

The proposed temporary roadway would cut off from the present roadway just east of the present American store building and would either run into the new parking area or north of the R. R. and east of Chester road or between the new parking area and the present roadway north of the railroad.

Mr. Temple when questioned about the proposal said he saw no apparent reason why it could not be worked out but that no definite statement could be made until the contracts for the underpass had been let when the temporary road would be proposed to the company in charge of the work.

Even if the temporary roadway is provided it will be council's idea to establish the detours originally planned so that through traffic and heavy commercial traffic will be encouraged to use Swarthmore and Yale avenues or to avoid Swarthmore altogether in traveling between Philadelphia and Chester, and that the use of the temporary roadway be restricted to traffic within the borough as much as possible.

In order to build the new roadway it would be necessary to remove the traffic pedestal at Park ave. and Chester rd. Council is agreeable to this:

The new arrangement suggested by council will undoubtedly meet the approval of townspeople and the merchants in particular. Jacob Meschter, president of the Swarthmore Business Men's Association, said that he knew the members of the association would welcome a temporary crossing at Chester road in order to accommodate those who live north of the railroad and visit the business district every day.

During the past week, the last bids on the construction of the underpass were received and it is expected that contracts will be let by the middle of next week.

EASTER MUSIC AT TRINITY CHURCH

The choir, assisted by F. Nevin Wiest and John D. Hoffa, Cornetists, will render special Easter music at the eleven o'clock service to-morrow morning, under the direction of Frederick A Knapp, organist and choirmaster. Gounod's "Messe Salomelle"—the St. Cecile Mass—will be sung. The soloists will be, Edna Mixsell, Soprano, Florence Mixsell, Alto, Walter Studdiford, Tenor and William Gardner Cleaves, Treble. The Offertory will be "The Gloria" from the "12th. Mass" by Mozart. The Organ numbers include, "Prelude and Fugue", by Bach and the "Grand Chorus" (A Major) by Guilmant.

At 4:00 o'clock there will be a Children's Easter Service. The Girls' Church School Choir, directed by Mrs. Samuel D. Clyde will sing.

On Monday evening, April 6th., the Annual Parish Meeting will be held in the Parish House at 8:00 o'clock. A Parish Reception, given by the Woman's Guild, will follow. Mrs. Charles A. Stern is chairman of the Reception Committee.

Shelley's Orchestra of six pieces has been engaged for the music at the Dance to be given by the young people on Friday evening, April 17th., in the Woman's Club, following the play, "What Men Live By."

Miss Flora H. Witham of Swarthmore has been visiting at Haddon Hall, Atlantic City. Other Swarthmore guests registered at Haddon Hall during the past week have been: Mr. and Mrs. J. Bernard Walton, Mr. Joseph H. Walton, Miss Martha G. Haviland and Mr. James S. Haviland.

Easter Egg Hunt Begins 11 O'Clock This Morning

Live Rabbits To Be Given Finders of Prize Winning Eggs; Sponsored By The Swarthmorean; Limited to Children 10 Years or Under

All is in readiness this morning for Swarthmore's first community-wide Easter egg hunt which is being sponsored by The Swarthmorean for all children of the borough ten years of age or under. The children will gather at the West entrance to Borough Hall at 11 o'clock and will then be led to the place where the hunt is to be held.

Present indications are that approximately three hundred children will participate in the affair. Many parents have signified their intention of bringing children as young as two years. The success of the hunt to some extent will be measured by the number of small children who participate.

Photographers from the Philadelphia newspapers will be on hand so that many of the participants will see themselves in Sunday's papers.

The principal prizes for the hunt consist of live rabbits which have been on display all this week in the window of The Swarthmorean office. These rabbits as well as other prizes will go to children finding eggs which are marked to indicate that the finder is to receive a rabbit.

The prize winning eggs will be hidden in difficult places so that they will be found by children with keen eyes rather than by those who arrive first at the place where the eggs are to be found. Whether a child finds a prize winning egg or not each participant will have a good time and undoubtedly will find plenty of candy eggs to have made his work worth while.

Chief of Police John Rogeri has agreed to cooperate in seeing the children safely across the streets to the place where the hunt is to be held and there will be a number of adults present to see that children over ten years of age do not participate.

If the hunt is well attended and successfully carried on, it promises to become an annual affair sponsored each year by The Swarthmorean.

FORTNIGHTLY MEETING DATE SET AHEAD

The next meeting of the Fortnightly will be on April 13th instead of April 6th. The Philadelphia Orchestra meets on April 6th and many members wish to attend that.

The sale of tickets for "Neighborly Night," April 22nd, has been most successful. The program is working out in a most interesting way. The Mitchell's will present "Would You Believe It?" a comedy by Joe Atkins. Mr. Colafemina will sing several numbers. He very generously does this work gratuitously. The College Quartette will also assist in this very worthy cause.

The Spelling Match will be a unique feature. A small group of Swarthmore men will spell against an equal number of Swarthmore women. To the winning team Mrs. Albert Hill will present a silver loving cup, appropriately engraved.

MUSIC AT EASTER VESPER SERVICES

In keeping with the joy of Easter the choir of the Presbyterian Church has prepared beautiful musical programs for both services.

The vesper service at 4:45 P. M. is given over to an especially beautiful program beginning with the celebrated "Christus Ressurrexit" by Ravenello played by Mr. Knechtler on the organ.

The choir will sing "The Lord Now Victorious" by Mascagni; a traditional Spanish Easter Carol; the well-known "Hosanna" by Granier and the "Seraphic Song" by Rubenstein with organ, violin and harp accompaniment.

The assisting artists are Anthony Bove, harpist and Edna Coates Colafemina violinist.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend and bring their friends.

BORO TAX RATE TO REMAIN 11 MILLS FOR 1931

Accepted Budget Provides for Street Improvements; Library Board Presents Petition

EXTEND SIDEWALK NOTICE

Swarthmore's borough tax will be the same this year as last year—eleven mills for the general fund and one mill for the sinking fund. The cut of one or one and one-half mills proposed at meetings earlier in the year was finally given up in view of the street improvement program planned for this year and also the fact that next year more money will be required for the sinking fund in order to retire the bonds sold to finance the R. R. underpass.

While a slight cut might have been possible this year, council decided that in view of the needed street improvements as well as the fact that any cut this year would probably have to be again next year to meet the sinking fund demands, it would be wiser to keep the tax rate at the same figure.

The estimate of borough expenditures and receipts for 1931 as submitted by Leonard C. Ashton, head of the finance committee, and used as the basis of the tax rate for this year was as follows:

Harold Barnes president of the board of the Swarthmore Public Library accompanied by Mrs. Jesse H. Holmes, Mrs. Phelps Soule, Mrs. Harold Griffin and Mrs. Soule Hodge, members of the library board, waited upon council and presented a petition requesting submission to the voters at the September primaries whether or not a one-half mill tax should be levied upon the tax payers of Swarthmore for the purpose of providing funds for the public library.

The petition contained the names of approximately 350 voters or more than the 3 per cent necessary to make council place the question on the ballot in September. Mr. Barnes after presenting the petition also pointed out that the library would need about $900 above the amount raised in the membership drive this year to meet operating expenses for the current year.

A resolution was passed by council stating that in view of the general cooperation with council on the part of the property owners to cause all sidewalks to be placed in good repair, an additional period of one month would be granted for voluntary compliance with the request of council to repair or reconstruct walks. This means that final notices allowing thirty days before council undertakes to repair walks that have not been repaired, will be sent out May 1 instead of the first of April.

To the Editor of The Swarthmorean: I wish to apologize for the erroneous statement in my letter of some weeks ago, when I said that I had not been charged a personal tax although I had made a return. I have just learned that the personal tax of 1930 is based on the return of 1929. I was not in Swarthmore at that time for I live in the Kimmel tract. I had also failed to note that my real estate assessment was reduced 14 per cent from the Ridley Township figures.

Greater Chester Exposition At Chester Armory Next Week

The fourth annual Greater Chester Exposition opens Monday of next week and continues for six days closing Saturday night. The Exposition, which has always attracted a great many Swarthmore people, is conducted by the Delaware County Chamber of Commerce through its Retail Merchants' Division with W. F. Deleantay general manager of the C. C. Cooperating.

Joseph J. Grieco is general manager of the affair while Howard Gallagher, manager of the Chester branch office of the Keystone Auto Club heads the committee from the Retail Merchants' Bureau. Mr. Gallagher is assisted by H. H. Ward, Clifford N. Peoples, John Downham, and Arthur D. Anderson.

The Harmonica Band of the Chester Boys Club will give a concert Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights between 8 and 9 P. M. Mrs. William T. Hull, 504 Walnut Lane, will entertain at luncheon, on Friday, April 10, in honor of her daughter Mrs. Bronson Davis, of Richfield, Mass.

COUNTY FEDERATION OF WOMEN ACTIVE

Chief measures being sponsored by the Delaware County Federation of Women's Clubs are a tubercular hospital at Broad Meadow Farm, the conservation of birds, wild flowers and trees, the banning of large and unsightly advertising signs along the highways and better international relations, according to Mrs. Elmer E. Melick, President of the organization.

"The twenty-nine clubs affiliated in the federation are concerned with all things that make for the well being of the county," said Mrs. Melick. "Within the last year we have taken several important steps to co-ordinate the energies of the several clubs whose total membership is in the neighborhood of 4000 women."

A President's council has recently been formed by the Federation. This body, composed of the presidents of all the individual clubs, meets once a month for discussion of current problems. Another plan calls for two meetings a year of the chairmen of similar committees. These meetings are held between the three general meetings of the Federation. The Federation also holds frequent "institutes" meetings which take the form of a school for club organization work. At the last meeting of this sort, held in Media, 300 members were present.

Besides standing 100 per cent. behind the establishment of a tubercular hospital in Delaware county, the Federation hopes, that, eventually, each club in the organization will support a room in such an institution as part of its charitable work.

A county chorus composed of 200 voices has been formed to sing at the Federation meetings. Besides the president, the officers of the Federation include Mrs. J. LeRoy Smith, first vice president; Mrs. How-

NO EXCUSE FOR GAS TAX INCREASE

With an estimated revenue of $154,000,000 available to the Department of Highways for 1931-33, there is no shadow of excuse for any increase in the gasoline tax, according to J. Boston Weeks, president of the Keystone Automobile Club.

The TOP of every FRIGIDAIRE is a porcelain-topped table

Food on its way into a Frigidaire and food on its way out need not be juggled, or trip-piled, or inconveniently parked on the distant kitchen table... the flat expanse of showy porcelain atop the Frigidaire makes such a perfect serving shelf! It is an ideal place to put piping-hot things that should be cooled off before they are exposed to low temperatures... a splendid permanent place to keep the few foods that need not be refrigerated.

And nothing—hot or cold, smooth or scratchy—can it any way scar or mar the lifelong lustre of its diamond-hard Porcelain-on-steel finish.

A conveniently flat, unencumbered serving table top is one of the very real advantages of Frigidaire Advanced Refrigeration. There are many others. We invite you to come in and learn all about them.

"THE BAD MAN"
AT PLAYERS' CLUB
John Dolman Directs and Stars in Drama of Mexican Border
ROLES ADMIRABLY CAST

"The Bad Man", which may be termed John Dolman's play from both the standpoint of acting and directing, has been entertaining large audiences of Players' Club members every night this week. Admirably suited for the limitations of the Woman's Club stage and excellently cast, the production has met practically unanimous approval.

It is a fast moving play, full of entertaining characters who, as portrayed by the Swarthmore actors, made the most of their lines. With a crowded stage most of the time and a great deal of action, the characters handled themselves with ease and presented graceful natural pictures at all times.

The production was also admirable in that in spite of the name, which gives the impression of a one-man production, the parts were quite evenly divided, or else were so well done as to assume proportions of similar importance.

John Dolman as Pancho Lopez, a Mexican bad man, appeared in amusing contrast to his role in "The School for Scandal", which he directed last year. His latest triumph, however, only added laurels to his already burdened crown. "His own" enthusiasm for the role was equalled only by the responsiveness of his audience. Aside from his own interpretation, his direction was at all times evident to any who chose to be critical.

The Swarthmore Home and School Association will meet Monday evening in hour will follow the program.

Plans Changed to Provide Larger Shower and Locker Rooms for Girls

Bids for the new gymnasium-cafeteria building which is to be added to the present College avenue school will be received May 14 it was decided by the school board at the regular monthly meeting Thursday evening.

The only change in the original plans discussed at the past few meetings provides for larger quarters for the girls' shower and locker rooms previously it had been planned that shower rooms for both the girls and the boys should be built into the basement of the second unit of the improvement. Now the plan has been changed so that the entire basement will be devoted to the girls, thereby giving them quarters large enough for many years while the boys will be given temporary locker rooms and shower rooms in the East end of the basement.

SUPLEE'S SPRING SUGGESTIONS

Spring Cleaning We have all the needs for Spring house cleaning. Good tools and implements are half the job.

We have many types of hand trowels and weeders and complete floral sets, small size tools for working around the flower bed and light enough for the ladies to use.

And Beautify

It is time to paint, inside and out—not only to improve looks but to protect. Get your painting supplies here.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Fraser returned Wednesday from New York where Mr. Fraser spoke before yearly meeting on "employment".

Mr. and Mrs. R. Chester Spencer and daughter, Miss Mildred, left Wednesday for Richmond, Virginia where they will attend the marriage of Mrs. Spencer's brother, George Richard Fulton.

A dinner-dance will be held at the Springhaven Club, this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Corse and their sons, Jack Corse and George F. Corse, Jr., of 411 Yale avenue, Swarthmore, have returned from Baltimore, Md., where they spent Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Chambers, of 812 Westdale avenue, who recently returned from a motor trip through Florida and the South, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lee P. Wray of Swarthmore, at dinner, Monday night.

Mrs. Wesley N. Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. S. Milton Bryant and their two children motored to Elizabeth, N. J. for the Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon R. Green and two sons of Jamaica, L. I., have been spending the Easter holidays with C. A. Bunting and family. They will remain until the 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Temple, of Maple ave., entertained at buffet supper Tuesday evening in celebration of the 27th anniversary of the founding of the Swarthmore National Bank and trust company of which Mr. Temple is president.

Mrs. R. Floyd Flank, Blacksburg, Va., Miss Florence E. Smith, Moylan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Criss, Mr. and Mrs. Albert N. Garrett, Mr. Joseph E. Mrs. Carroll Thayer will entertain the Fortnightly at her home on Harvard avenue on Monday, April 13 at 2:30 o'clock.

"The Barretts of Wimpole Street," a play depicting the Browning love episode will be read by Mrs. Roland Eaton. This play has been one of the greatest of the winter successes in London where it was first produced in London where it was seen by descendants of Mr. Barrett. It was not enjoyed by these descendants because their ancestor was shown in his real character. That is a minor part of the play. That relating to the Brownings is most delightful.

Mrs. Walter will give literary topics and Mrs. Wickham will sing.

In so far as it is possible, members are asked to make a report on the sale of tickets for the "Neighborly Night" entertainment to be given on April 22nd at the Woman's Club.

Pearson's Paradise

Dr. Pearson sailed for his new post in a spirit of optimism. We are inclined to share that mood, in spite of President Hoover's expressed regret concerning present conditions.

Whoever looks at pictures of the Virgin Islands sees a region of semi-tropical beauty and luxurious natural scenery—the deep green of forests washed round by white foaming surf, and the blue ocean stretching away to meet the serene and cloudless heavens on the horizon line.

Governor Pearson's plan for developing this land of rich beauty may bring the Virgin Islands into popularity as a southern resort. Plantations that have lost out on sugar may prove wholly ideal as sites for estates of well-to-do Americans seeking refuge and peace among those haunts of fairy charms where Columbus once sojourned. We look to our genial and far-seeing Swarthmore fellow-citizens to put "Pearson's Paradise" on the map in fresh bright colors.

Presbyterian Notes

The attendance at morning worship Easter-Day was the largest for many years. Seventeen new members were received into the church. The eight who were received by letter from other churches represented the Baptist, Reformed, Methodist and Christian churches.

The beautiful decorations of the chancel on Easter consisted of lilies presented by members of the congregation in memory of departed loved ones, with palms.

At the close of the services of the day, the lilies were distributed among the sick and bereaved members of the congregation. Miss Selridge, with Mrs. E. M. Bassett and Mrs. Oscar M. Miller arranged the decorations of the chancel.

To-morrow morning, the two ruling elders-elect, who were chosen at the annual meeting, Dr. David McCahan, and Henry L. Smith, will be ordained and installed by the pastor. They were chosen for a period of five years. The elders retiring by limitation of office were J. Everton Ramsey and Prof. James S. Heberling.

The offering for relief of the unemployed at morning worship on Easter-Day was $367.00. In addition to this, the Woman's Association gave $100.00 last month for the same purpose and will also contribute the amount received at the unemployment luncheon of the Association at its regular meeting yesterday. The sacrament of baptism was administered Easter-Day to Sara Grace, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Pritchard, and to Nancy Foster, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Snow. In the baptisms of the day, Dr. Tuttle used water brought from the river Jordan.

Mrs. Anna C. Hall

Swarthmore has lost another of its fine old residents in the death of Mrs. Anna Camden Hall, widow of Dr. L. B. Hall who died at her home 214 Dickinson avenue last Friday. She was seventy-two years old and although less active during the past few years, her death came suddenly after an illness of only a few days.

Mrs. Hall had been a resident of Swarthmore for about thirty years and during that time had devoted every spare moment to unselfish work in the Presbyterian Church, the W. C. T. U., and other religious and charitable movements. For many years she was secretary of the W. C. T. U. and the Woman's Missionary Society.

Aside from her church work, Mrs. Hall's chief interest was in her writing. For many years she assisted Mrs. Julia Hazard in editing the Swarthmore News, and her verses and articles signed with the initials A. C. H. will be recalled by all of the older residents of the borough. She also wrote short pieces of prose poetry entitled Ralt Rason's Rhymes, which Swarthmoreans will remember.

Her writings were full of charm and wit and her conversation was always inspiring and full of humor. Among her verses were many about Swarthmore. This one taken from an old issue of the Swarthmore News is as typical as any:

Beyond most inland places,
It sports fair fields and shady woods,
As well as other graces,
And it is to rock upon the sea
One takes a sudden notion,
He simply boards a Darby car,
And, lo, the rolling ocean.

Upon the death of any Swarthmorean Mrs. Hall could almost always be counted upon to write a tribute in verse. From an old copy of The Swarthmore News we have taken these lines written by Mrs. Hall as a tribute to someone else. They are particularly applicable to the author.

THE SWARTHMOREAN

APRIL 11, 1931

She was so pleasant, that where'er she strayed,
Day smiled with joy, and singing went her way,
And troubles like dull shadows crouched, afraid,
Pierced by her sunlight, fled unseen away.

She was so pleasant, that she shamed all gloom,
And timid hopes and budding fancies sweet,
As she came smiling, broke in perfect bloom,
To grace the pathway of our laggard feet.

She was so pleasant! Ah, the hours shall pass,
Laughing or sighing, time's long drawn train,
Like fleeting shadows on the waving grass,
But we shall never see her like again.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the home on Dickinson avenue. Dr. John Elbery Tuttle and Rev. Lloyd S. Stevens officiated. The survivors are: one daughter, Anna (Mrs. Arthur Groves) of Dickinson avenue, and four sons, Alfred of Vermont, Robert of Vineland, N. J.; Lou of Philadelphia, and John of Guerrant, Ky.

Mrs. Sarah Eleanor Singley passed on Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter Mrs. Ethel M. Whittier, 49 Amberst avenue with whom she has been living in Swarthmore for 14 years. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the home.

LEGISLATIVE LUNCHEON OF WOMEN VOTERS

The Delaware County League of Women Voters will have a Legislative Luncheon at 12 o'clock noon, Friday, April 17th, at the Media Woman's Club, Jackson and Jefferson Sts., Media, and a card party at 2:30 P. M.

The luncheon, which is practically a cost price affair, is in charge of Mrs. J. O. Hopwood, who will present "Interesting Sidelights on Pennsylvania Legislation of 1931."

There will be table prizes for the card party, and those attending should bring their own cards. Since Mrs. J. Passmore Cheyne is county chairman, Mrs. E. A. Swarthmore, county vice-chairman, and Mrs. Philip Marot, secretary, Swarthmore women should be particularly interested in helping make the affair a success. Reservations for the luncheon and card party should be made with Mrs. George R. Linn. Call Media 1447 not later than Wednesday, April 15.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS OF CONSERVATION

Mrs. Charles S. Musser, Chairman of the Conservation Department of the Delaware County Federation, spoke at the Woman's club on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Musser's talk was timely since

Swarthmore is now in the midst of a campaign for trees and roadside beautification. Some of the speakers were appalling. She said that "five-sixths of our woodlands have been destroyed"; "we are consuming wood five times as fast as it is growing." A plea for better "outdoor manners" was made and the audience

ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF FORD VALUE

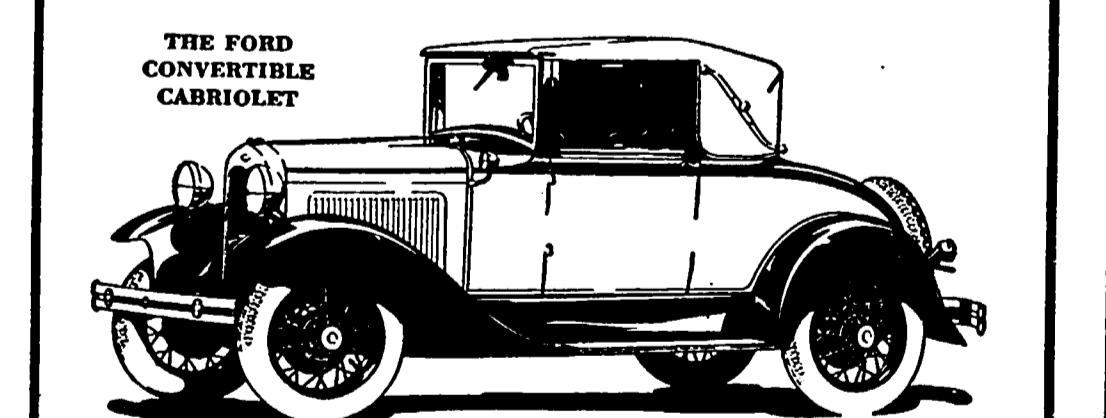

Bright, enduring RUSTLESS STEEL is used for many exposed bright metal parts of the Ford

WHEN YOU BUY a Ford you buy enduring beauty. The body finish is made to last for the life of the car and practically all exposed bright metal parts except the bumpers are made of enduring Rustless Steel.

This Rustless Steel has great tensile strength. It is the same bright metal all the way through. A salt test equivalent to forty years' service under the severest weather conditions failed to have any effect on its brilliance. It never requires polishing. All you do is wipe it with a damp cloth, as you do your windshield.

This is just one of many features that show the substantial worth of the Ford. In speed, comfort, safety, economy and long life—in the richness of its finish and upholstery—it brings you everything you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.

LOW FORD PRICES $430 to $630

(F. o. b. Detroit, plus freight and delivery. Bumpers and spare tire extra at low cost. You can purchase a Ford on economical terms through the Authorized Ford Finance Plans of the Universal Credit Company.)

APRIL 11, 1931

was reminded of the fact that trees mean water. An effort is being made throughout the nation to have trees planted for the George Washington Bicentennial (1932). Mrs. Musser also spoke of the "Peace Garden" which is to be built along the Northern border of the United States and ended her talk with a plea for birds, which also go with trees. Mrs. Musser advocates a license for cats and suggests that until that comes people put bells that will ring, on the cats.

Mrs. Daniel R. Goodwin, American Home Section, introduced the second speaker for the afternoon, Edwin B. George, chief of the Marketing Service Division of the Department of Commerce at Washington.

The speaker began by saying that his was a changing state that facts of yesterday were not facts of today and that this was a buyers' day. Mr. George made many interesting points including a defense of standardization of many things. He spoke at length on art in industry, calling attention to the fact that the article done up in an attractive box, would far outsell the one with a dull box. He also spoke of the kitchen and pointed out that nowadays the "pot would call the kettle pink" and that art had even gone as far as "kitchen pajamas" which Mr. George thinks adds to industry.

All this helps create appreciation for the fine arts as well as making everyday drudgery more attractive. The audience appreciated the talk and know more about the department of commerce in Washington than they did. Until a short time ago Mr. George lived in Swarthmore and was in charge of the Philadelphia office of the department of commerce.

Miss Vera DeMuth and Mrs. William Allen Raiman served tea after the program.

Those interested in "Economic Nutrition" should save Friday, April 24th. Miss Bacon of the State Department of Agriculture will speak at the Woman's Club on that subject. The time will be published later. Mrs. Daniel R. Goodwin will have charge of the program.

The meeting Tuesday of the Woman's Club will be a stated meeting. In addition, Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., will speak on Citizenship and Current Politics, under the leadership of the Citizenship Committee, Miss Martha G. Haviland, chairman, Mrs. John Delfino, secretary, Mrs. Arthur Tomlinson will be the hostesses. The polls will be open at the clubhouse from ten to twelve and from two until five.

Mrs. Francis V. Warren, and her committee, Mrs. LeRoy Mercer, Mrs. Joseph Bates, Mrs. Elric Sprout, Mrs. Roy Conner, Mrs. Gary White and Mrs. Harold Griffin, report around lunchtime and thirty dollars worth of tickets sold for "Philip Goes Forth" as a means of paying for the new piano for the Woman's Clubhouse.

The members of the committee on Education of the Woman's Club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George A. Hoadley, Miss Margaret Hamel, Dean of Girls, Swarthmore High School, told of the "Extra Curricula Activities"; Miss Grace Rotzel, principal of Rose Valley School, told of some phases of Progressive Education. Mrs. Robert Lewis reported from the Conference of the Delaware County Education Chairmen.

Mrs. George W. Zimmer, will have a meeting of the Garden Committee of the Woman's Club at her home on Ogden avenue, on Monday afternoon at three o'clock to conclude the business of the group for this year.

Children of Swarthmore should save May 29th to attend a talk by Mr. Edward Skipper concerning birds. Most interesting slides will be shown and Mr. Skipper always keeps his audience amused with his bird call imitations.

Girl Scouts

On March 30, the Girl Scouts interested in working for the Rock Finder's Merit badge visited the special exhibit of minerals at the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia. Many of the specimens in this exhibit come from Delaware County.

In the permanent exhibit which is one of the finest, the girls found many interesting specimens of precious and semi-precious stones.

In the afternoon the girls visited the Pennsylvania Museum of Art on the Parkway to see a collection of Medieval art treasures. Many of the pieces had been brought from Europe stone by stone to make a true background for the exhibit.

is just around the corner, but we are trying to evade that "Spring let-down" in appetites and have our friends feel fit and full of "pep," so that they can enjoy life and the many good things in food, that Spring brings along.

We are changing with the season in all the offerings on our menus and we do take pride in the fact that "sameness" and monotony do not drive folks away from us—

folks do come to eat here because of the novelty and variety in foods that we offer.

We have had a wonderful Winter season and now we are getting ready for Spring.

VISIT HISTORICAL PLACES SATURDAY

Swarthmore's historical pilgrimage planned by the Home and School association for the people of Swarthmore and their children, will take place next Saturday. The Home Service committee of the association headed by Mrs. E. H. Bonsall, Jr., of Cornell avenue is in charge of the tour.

The program as planned is as follows:
2:00 P.M. Meet at Swarthmore High School
2:15 P.M. Visit the "Blue Church"
2:30 P.M. Visit the marker of Jane Lowmies' Cave
3:00 P.M. Visit the Benjamin West House, and Friends' Historical Library
3:30 P.M. Visit the Leiper Quarry and site of the first railroad and snuff-mill

There will be cars to help in transportation from place to place. The committee in charge feels that it cannot assume responsibility for children, and it is hoped that parents themselves will come with their children; or if it is impossible for them to come, to place their children in charge of some older person.

It is not necessary to take the whole trip, but parties may join or leave the group at any point. A final notice will appear in the next issue of the "Swarthmorean."

CONCERT OF WOMAN'S CLUB CHORUS MAY 1

Friday, May 1, has been chosen as the date for the concert to be given by the chorus of the Woman's Club. William Sylvano Thunder has been training the chorus for several weeks and will direct the concert. Mrs. Herbert F. Of course Packard has a long-established clientele. But repeat order business is to be expected. The surprising fact is that so many owners of lower-priced cars are turning to Packard transportation. The reason is that they have found it costs no more.

Give us the opportunity and no doubt we can show you that you, too, are paying Packard costs while not enjoying Packard ownership. Why not phone, or drop in to see us?

STRESS NEED FOR SOCIAL WORKER

Nurses Now Doing Work That Should Be Done By Special Worker
UNEMPLOYMENT CONTINUES

Realizing that a special worker for social service is a necessary addition to the present staff of the Community Health Center with headquarters in Borough hall, a number of women are organizing a campaign for funds in the communities in this district that would benefit most by this improvement.

"If the experience of this winter has taught Central Delaware county anything, it is that of preparation for emergency," says one woman active in the work of the Relief Committee here. "Our four nurses have given sixteen percent of their time to family service. Therefore, looking conditions squarely in the face, we are brought to the realization that a special worker for social service is necessary."

A small group of women representing our Community Health Society is starting on a campaign for funds and support from the towns that will benefit by such an undertaking. At the meeting on April ninth, it was suggested that a worker be procured, providing that the community was ready with its support, to work into the field through the coming summer and be ready for what might come next winter. The requirements were repeatedly stressed by the women at their meeting.

The committee in charge of this undertaking is as follows: Mrs. A. F. Jackson, chairman, Mrs. Thomas Safford, Mrs. Eugene L. Hofmann, and Mrs. Wm. Johnson. Mrs. Martin B. Young, Mrs. George C. Barber, 3rd, and Mrs. Bassett Preston have also joined the committee in agreeing that the worker must be a woman of very high moral calibre, having had training to give her understanding and outlook in the psychology of a needy family, and with patience and sympathy toward all.

"There are three hundred people in the Broomall section and our nurses and doctors are needed there. If Broomall is included in this plan, Delaware County will be the first in the State fully equipped to take care of the sick and the needy. Other towns represented in this district are Holmes, Folsom, Morton, Rutledge, Springfield, Ridley Park and Swarthmore. Mrs. Young, president of the Community Health Society, and the twenty-odd other women present at the meeting pledged their support to this undertaking. If citizens generally are interested it will certainly go through this year."

ZONING CONFERENCE AT 69TH ST. TUESDAY

The Delaware County Zoning Conference will be held Tuesday, April 21, at 8:00 P. M. at the auditorium of the Delaware County Real Estate Board, 69th & Walnut Streets. A cordial invitation is being extended to County, Township and Borough Officials and persons interested in the subject of Zoning to attend this gathering. No admission charge. There is plenty of free parking space near the place of meeting.

The progress which Zoning is making in the County will be considered but the special feature of the meeting will be an address by Roland S. Wallis, representing the Regional Planning Federation of the Philadelphia Tri-State District. His talk will be illustrated. This will afford an excellent opportunity for all who are interested in the future development of the County to learn some of the extensive plans which are now being prepared to care for the proper future development of Philadelphia and its environs. The Committee in charge of arrangements are Robert S. Shaw, R. E. Kraber, H. L. Simon and L. H. LeBaron.

Gellert Alleman, Jr.

It was Gellert Alleman, Jr., not Gilbert Alleman, as printed in last week's paper. He whose high standing as a Freshman at Lehigh University has ranked him among the first six of the college. The young man in question is a son of the distinguished chemist, Dr. Gellert Alleman.

SCHOOL BOARD NAMES TEACHERS

Few Changes Mark Public School Teaching Staff for 1931-32
NEW TEACHERS SELECTED

The Swarthmore School board at its regular April meeting acted upon the election of teachers for the public schools for the school year 1931-32. Under state law each teacher has a continuing contract which continues in force year after year unless terminated either by the board or the teacher. In these cases, therefore, the action taken was a matter of determining salaries and positions.

The following teachers were re-elected for the ensuing school year: High School: Mildred S. Avery, French; Elizabeth K. Barten, Science; Lillian M. Barton, Social Studies; Charles A. Britton, Mathematics and Administrative Principles; J. Eugene Duncan, Mathematics; Margaret D. Hamel, Social Studies; Hanna E. Kirk, English; Ann S. Larkin, Librarian; Hermine W. Most, French; James H. Miller, Jr., Mathematics; Albert D. Spaeth, Science; Grace T. Wilson, Latin; Anna E. Woodward, English.

Special Teachers: Virginia Allen, Physical Education; Esther M. Cherry, Household Arts; Benjamin Cook, Industrial Arts; Claudia A. Hancock, Fine Arts; Theresa A. Young, Helping Physical Education; Celeste Belford, First grade; Marion L. Green, Second grade; Carolyn Forstner, Third grade; Lydia L. Reinhardt, Fourth grade; Henriette L. Weber, Fifth & Sixth grades; Dorothy Wilson, Kindergarten.

Rutgers Avenue School: Lillian Hewes, Principal, teacher of 3rd grade; Mary L. Hubley, First grade; Lucy E. Johnson, Union; Janet Krall, Second grade; Margaret L. Moore and Kathryn M. Moran, Fifth & Sixth grades; Margaret L. Price, Kindergarten; Eleanor W. Pusey, Fourth grade. Resignations were received from several teachers and accepted with an expression of appreciation for past service: Catherine Craven, English; Frances Hayes, Fifth & Sixth grades; Alice S. Phinney, Music; Katherine Smedley, English & Social Studies; Dorothy E. Thompson, Third grade.

The board elected the following teachers to new positions and to fill positions vacated by resignations: Doris Van De Bogart of Hudson, N. Y., A. B. Mount Holyoke, B. Ed., University of Cincinnati, Supervisor of Music. Helen B. Hall, A. B. Wellesley, English and Social Studies, Junior High School. Marjorie E. Kay of Denver, Colorado, A. B. and A. M., University of Iowa. Fifth & Sixth grades, Social Studies. Jane Michener of Swarthmore, A. B. Swarthmore College. French and Latin. Marcia Perry, A. B. Swarthmore College. English.

Tom Crosby

Many Swarthmoreans will be grieved to hear of the death week before last of Tom Crosby. Tom was connected with the Swarthmore Chautauqua for many years and also with the Ford agency in Swarthmore and later in Chester. He roomed for many years over the American store on Park avenue. He had been in poor health for some time and died and was buried at his home town, Fredericksburg.

"NEIGHBORLY NIGHT" PROGRAM WEDNESDAY

The "Neighborly Night" program for the benefit of the Unemployed Fund of Swarthmore will be held next Wednesday evening at the Woman's Clubhouse. Mrs. William R. Landis, in charge of the sale of tickets reports that nearly all of the 300 seats in the clubhouse have been sold and that no tickets will be on sale at the door.

The rehearsals for the play directed by Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Mitchell, "Would You Believe It?" are in progress and Miss Hill and Mrs. Perry are working out interesting plans for the spelling match. Donato Calefemina will also contribute several musical selections as will the College quartette.

SIR PHILIP GREET HERE IN "MACBETH"

Company of Players Will Give Performance in Clothier Memorial

On Saturday evening, April 18th The Swarthmore College Little Theatre Club will sponsor an appearance of Sir Philip Ben Greet, well known English actor and producer, and his company of players in a performance of "Macbeth" in the Memorial Auditorium and will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

The only other visits which the Ben Greet Players have made to Swarthmore was in 1922 when they gave one of their first performances of "Macbeth" in the Memorial Auditorium and will begin at 8:15 o'clock. Since that time they have made repeated tours of this country, the most recent transcontinental tour before the present one which they are now completing having been made in 1929-30. At that time they appeared at such universities as Columbia, Brown, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and many others, never failing to bring the most favorable criticism, and possessing what most productions lack, the magnetic power of drawing crowds.

The company returned to America this year by insistent demand of leading universities and cities at which they appeared last year and by request of many which they will return to England in the latter part of April after the most extensive trip which they have ever taken in America.

Sir Philip Ben Greet himself has been on the stage for fifty years and has taught more actors than perhaps any other living man. He is famous as one of the greatest living authorities on the English drama, and his Shakespearean productions have helped to set the standard in both England and America. In recognition of a life devoted to the cause of drama in education, he was knighted by King George V of England, in June, 1929.

The board elected the following teachers to new positions and to fill positions vacated by resignations: Doris Van De Bogart of Hudson, N. Y., A. B. Mount Holyoke, B. Ed., University of Cincinnati, Supervisor of Music. Helen B. Hall, A. B. Wellesley, English and Social Studies, Junior High School. Marjorie E. Kay of Denver, Colorado, A. B. and A. WOMAN'S CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Mrs. Wm. Earl Kistler Chosen President to Succeed Mrs. Jesse H. Holmes

Mrs. William Earl Kistler was chosen president of the Swarthmore Woman's Club at the election of officers held on Tuesday. The program of the meeting consisted of a talk on Current Politics by Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., of Havertown.

The other officers chosen to serve for the coming year were first vice president, Mrs. Roland L. Eaton; second vice president, Mrs. Arthur E. Bye. Mrs. Harold Goodwin, and Mrs. J. Warren Paxson; recording secretary, Mrs. John A. Detelson; Corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Hanny; treasurer, Mrs. J. Horace Walter; and new directors, Mrs. Jesse Herman Holmes, Mrs. William A. Rainman, Mrs. W. D. Wernmouth, and Mrs. George Zimmer. The admission committee consists of Mrs. John R. Brownell, Mrs. William J. Cresson, Mrs. Philip H. Jewett, and Mrs. Harry L. Miller.

Mrs. Huber, the speaker for the afternoon, is a daughter of the late John Faber Miller, and was well qualified to speak upon her interesting subject. She told her listeners that to understand politics one must understand two things which concern politics, "questions of leadership" and "regulation of Public Utilities."

"It is a vital question of the day as to government ownership of utilities and as to how far they shall go," the speaker said. In speaking of "Women in Industry" she said that investigators had found that most accidents occur around eleven o'clock, and late afternoon, thus proving that it was when the workers are tired, that accidents happen.

Mrs. Huber proved that she was conversant with all the political issues. In (Continued on Page Eight)

The plays chosen for this year are "The Man in the Bowler Hat" by A. A. Milne, "The Valiant" by Horworthy Hall and Robert Middlemass, and "Station YYY" by Booth Tarkington. There will be a special dance and orchestra numbers between the plays. The casts include many experienced players, such as Walter Wrenner, Charles Hearne, Henry Hartman, Eleanor Whitmore, Kay Wood and Sam Butler and many promising new ones such as Biddle Heg, Ruth Brill, Harry Johnson, Christine and Alice Robinson, Walter and William Hickman, Bill Kurtzthalz, Brooks Sanford, Ellen Pearson, Everett Walters and Eleanor Wernmouth.

TODAY— I saw a fine home destroyed by fire. There was no insurance, as the policy had not been renewed promptly. That won't happen to us, for we have put all our insurance in the hands of Emmons and Andes. They notify us when a policy is almost due to expire. Let them call them at Swarthmore 1044.

SPRING is just around the corner, but we are trying to evade that "Spring let-down" in appetites and have our friends feel fit and full of "pep," so that they can enjoy life and the many good things in food that Spring brings along.

We are changing with the season in all the offerings on our menus and we do take pride in the fact that "sanness" and monotony do not drive folks away from us—

RATHER— folks do come to eat here because of the novelty and variety in foods that we offer.

We have had a wonderful Winter season and now we are getting ready for Spring.

ASK THE MAN WHO OWNS ONE TWO OUT OF THREE GRADUATE TO A PACKARD

Did you know that two-thirds of those who buy the Packard Standard Eight turn in lower-priced cars? Think of it—two out of every three of our Standard Eight sales are made to people none of whom ever before owned a Packard!

costs no more to maintain and operate the Packard than any other car of like size and power, no matter what its first price. And that depreciation amounts to no more when you keep the Packard longer, as most Packard owners do.

Packard cars are built for long life and complete reliability. This applies to the Packard Standard Eight, priced at the factory from $2385 to $2885, no less than to the larger, heavier Packard DeLuxe Eight, factory priced at from $3490 to $4285, and the Individual Custom Creations ranging up beyond $10,000.

Why not, then, take the first step toward Packard ownership—get in touch with us? Here is what we can show you with actual figures: That it

ECONOMIC NUTRITION CLASS NEXT FRIDAY

A class in Economic Nutrition will be held in the basement of the Woman's Clubhouse next Friday morning, April 24, at 10 o'clock under the auspices of the Emergency Relief and Unemployment Committee headed by Mrs. Ellwood E. Chapman and Mrs. W. T. Johnson, cooperating with the Home Department of the Woman's Club.

The purpose of the meeting will be to explain to those present how economies may be practiced in buying and cooking. It is hoped that the information secured will be passed along to families in greater need than most of those in Swarthmore so that real benefit may be experienced.

Miss Bacon of the Agricultural Extension Bureau of the State will give the lecture. The subject will include economic marketing as well as a demonstration in cooking with relation to nutritive values.

PRaise for Work of Ezra T. Cresson

The late Ezra T. Cresson, who for many years lived on Amherst avenue, and is still survived by his widow who makes her home in Swarthmore, is spoken of with respect and honor in a recent article about the records of the American Entomological Society of which Mr. Cresson was one of the founders.

The Entomological Society is now associated with the Academy of Natural Sciences in Philadelphia. There a whole section of the Academy is set aside for the exhibition of the society's collection of insects, while several large storerooms above are filled with the hundreds of cases that contain thousands of specimens of insect life picked up by members of the society during their researches afield and brought there for classification and study.

The entomological section is one of the most active departments of the Academy and every year it has expeditions abroad, either in this country, in Europe or in Asia. The original group of Philadelphia scientists were, in many instances, men engaged in other lines of endeavor as a means of livelihood. But they developed such an intensive and sustained interest in this study that for over seventy years the members of the American Entomological Society, first named the Entomological Society, and then the Entomological Society of Philadelphia, have rendered a service that is of incalculable value to the horticultural and agricultural interests of the Nation.

According to the historical records of the Society, which was founded in 1859, it was able to carry on in this period, and to assure its continuance, probably for all time, largely through the active interest of a half-dozen of its members of whom none was more indefatigable in the pursuit of this science and in the advancement of the welfare of the society than was Mr. Cresson, who acted as the curator of its collections and as editor of its publication. He spent night after night at its office printing some of its papers and books and collected and classified every insect he could find, keep up an extensive correspondence with scientists and entomologists in other parts of the country and abroad, and stimulated and sustained the interests of his fellow members, while writing extensively on the hymenoptera until he became recognized as one of the foremost authorities. As a systematic entomologist, whose sons, George B. and Ezra, Jr., also became active in the pursuit of this science, he was, as Professor H. T. Fernald has said, "the finest hymenopterist this country has ever seen." All told, Cresson, whose eyesight was almost ruined by his nightly studies of bees and bugs under the flickering gas jets of the days before electric lighting, described 2,737 species, most of them from the Western part of the country; singularly enough not a single species from east of the Mississippi appears in his list.

After his resignation as Treasurer, in 1924, two years before his death, the society, after paying tribute to him in the form of a resolution of appreciation, made him its first honorary member.

COUNTY MAY GAIN IN LEGISLATURE

Bill Would Set Up Four Districts Outside City of Chester

CHESTER UNCHANGED
Radical changes in the state legislative districts of Delaware county, Philadelphia and adjacent counties are contained in a House reapportionment bill introduced last week at Harrisburg by Representative Bart Richards of Lawrence county, a Pinchot supporter.

The proposed reapportionment, which applies to Pennsylvania as a whole, is based upon figures of the 1930 federal census. The new bill provides a drastic change in Delaware county, increasing the districts from two to four, as well as boosting the membership from four to five. At present the 1st Delaware county district, comprising Chester city, has one representative, while the rest of the county is included in the 2d district which elects three. The Chester city district, with 59,164 population, is unchanged, but the other district is divided into three, as follows:

Second district, boroughs of Marcus Hook, Media, Morton, Parkside, Ross Valley, Swarthmore, Trainer, and Upland and townships of Aston, Bethel, Birmingham, Chester, Concord, Edgemont, Lower Chichester, Marple, Middletown, Nether Providence, Newtown, Springfield, Thornbury, Upper Chichester and Upper Providence, population 55,639, one member.

Third district, boroughs of Collingdale, Colwyn, Darby, Eddystone, Pottroft, Glenolden, Norwood, Prospect Park, Ridley Park, Rutledge and Sharon Hill and townships of Darby, Ridley and Tinicum, population 93,368, one member.

Fourth district, boroughs of Aldan, Clifton Heights, East Lansdowne, Lansdowne, Milbourne and Yeadon and townships of Haverford, Radnor and Upper Darby, population, 106,113 two members.

Trinity Starts Building Drive
Last Monday night the men of Trinity Church met and teams were appointed to raise $40,000, the first unit in the campaign for a new church building. It is expected to complete this part of the campaign by the first of May. The team captains are Louis W. King; H. M. Fussell, Jr., Clarence W. Worst; Dean H. Parker, and A. B. Chapin. The general chairman of the mens' committee is Ernest O. Lange. The team members include: Ernest Werber, Samuel D. Clyde, A. Penrose Robinson, W. M. Harvey, Alfred S. Lewis, F. E. Brewster, George W. Casey, Karl Cleaves, W. L. Cleaves, Vincent Cianci, Wayne Randall, and William B. Bullock.

News Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Buck, of Guernsey road, Riverview Estates, Swarthmore, have returned after visiting Mrs. Buck's father, C. A. Nelson, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., who celebrated his ninety-second birthday on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Buck will leave by motor on Thursday to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Buck, of Lynchburg, Va.

Mrs. Robert L. Coates, of Harvard avenue, has returned from a three days' visit in Harrisburg. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Lueders, of North Princeton avenue, entertained at dinner on Saturday night, when their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rodman Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sidney Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Coates.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin George, of Washington, D. C., were the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McCurdy, of Riverview Estates. Mr. and Mrs. George will be remembered as former residents of Swarthmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvet Wilson, of Strath Haven avenue, entertained Dr. Grier and Miss Grier over the weekend. Dr. Grier is Mrs. Wilson's father and has just returned from a three months' cruise on his yacht in Florida waters.

Mrs. William R. Main and son have been recent guests at the Seaside Hotel at Atlantic City. Mr. Henry B. Cookman, of 119 College avenue, Swarthmore, entertained at luncheon at her home Thursday. Major and Mrs. Ray C. Rutherford spent last week with their brother, S. S. Rutherford, of Strath Haven ave. They were on their way from Abilene, Texas to Paris, France, where Major Rutherford has been detailed with the Gold Star Pilgrimage.

Mrs. A. Pentose Robinson, of 606 University Place, and her daughter, Barbara Ann, have just returned from a visit to Mrs. Robinson's mother in New Rochelle, New York.

Woman's Club Elects Officers

Closing her talk she said she liked detective stories and the intrigue of politics fascinated her in the same way; second, history was a favorite subject and politics is making history; and as a third reason that she appreciates the freedom of women and likes to do what she can for the less fortunate women who can't get out and work for themselves.

The two new members were received: Mrs. Alden Q. Davis of 302 Cornell and Mrs. Frank W. Brewster of 323 Dickinson street.

Mrs. Arthur E. Bye, chairman of Arts, invited members to accompany her on a trip to the colonial houses in Fairmount Park on Wednesday, May 13th, at which time all houses will have hostesses in the costume of the period in which the house figured.

Mrs. Robert L. Coates will talk on "Poetry for Plain People" at the club meeting on next Tuesday afternoon, urging it as a "leisure time vacation".

and also will read from her own poems. An added treat will be Madame Freya Faber, a Dutch luttist who will play several numbers on this ancient instrument and will wear the costume to suit the piece played. A social hour will follow.

"The Swarthmore unemployment situation seems encouraging, but one morning in past week, there were more applications for work than for some time. Skill and training of the men employed makes one of the biggest problems. You cannot send a machinist into a formal garden and expect not fair to him, nor to his employer. "Because of this condition, the College woods have been a god-send. Under a foreman one man can make good as well as another, if he wants to work. Besides delegating foreman and bookkeeper, the College has donated $1,000 to this cause.

"The plan to have baskets in our stores to relieve food contributions works well. People are remembering that green vegetables are a necessary part of the diet and are giving them rather than so much canned stuff. Butchers give soup meat, for which we are very thankful. "Coal is still being supplied, rents have been advanced, and clothing is given out daily from the Health Center.

"The present need seems to be for little boys' trousers, children's sweaters, more shoes, especially children's. "The Unemployment Dis. committee is grateful to the Public Schools of Swarthmore for the donations of canned goods, etc. In addition, a total amount of $111.48 was donated from the schools, $65.50 given by the Faculty and the remainder by the children."

R. was advised that the result might be disappointing in that several of the traces might not live. It was therefore decided that the R. should turn over to the college $2750, this money to be used by the College in redeveloping next fall the campus touched by the underpass. Henry Hoot, director of grounds and buildings at the college said that the college would probably add to the money appropriated by the R. R. and would work out some effective landscaping where the present west side parking area. New six inch trees will be planted to replace those that are to be destroyed this spring. In order to improve drainage conditions at Swarthmore avenue just south of Chester road, council discussed the need for curbing on Swarthmore avenue between Ogden avenue and Chester road. the "Media Inn" opened its doors and in the first short year we have accomplished more than we ever dared dream of.

Our Local Friends and townfolks thought, to put it mildly, that the "Patrons" were crazy, or at least foolhardy, to attempt to start up and operate the "Media Inn" but we, with a good group of workers, have just triumphantly tried to make friends for "Media Inn" by doing our best to render a real service, both to our nearby friends and traveling public.

We Have Built Up
a wonderful following for our dining room and restaurant service, and our rooms have been almost one hundred per cent full every night since we opened.

We Are Surely Grateful and now, we are trying to extend and better the service. Watch us. Again we say Thank you,
The Patrons.

make a study of the situation and bids will be solicited at once for the improvement on both sides of the street. After a discussion led by Leonard C. Ashton, head of the finance committee, it was decided that the borough insurance should be placed during the next year with Wilson and Co. of Philadelphia. The commissions for this insurance will be divided equally, Campbell, who for many years acted as broker for the borough insurance and the other half being equally divided among five Swarthmore insurance agents: E. C. Walton, Charles Parker, Charles A. Smith, William S. Bittle, and Sweeney and Clyde. Joseph S. Bates, head of the highway committee was instructed to make up a complete program of the streets in the borough to be improved during the next twelve months. After this program has been adopted, council will decide whether to ask for bids for the entire job at once or divide it into several parts and seek bids for each.

Council authorized the solicitor to notify the Frank Smith syndicate that if the sidewalk along the east side of Rutgers avenue between Yale avenue and the new school were not begun before May 1, the borough would go ahead with the work without further warning.

Bids for furnishing the borough with a new car for the police department were read and it was decided to purchase a standard Ford touring car from Edmund Steinman of Media for $506. An allowance of $175 for the old police car was offered. A request for a special permit to allow Paulson & Co. to add a second story to the one story front part of their present building on Park avenue was presented and discussed. It was decided that the request was within the zoning and building law and that no special permit would be necessary.

HISTORICAL TOUR PROVES POPULAR
Interesting Features of Each Place Explained to those Making Pilgrimage
SPONSORED BY H. AND S.

Those who took the Historical Pilgrimage of Swarthmore last Saturday sponsored by the Home and School Association, felt amply repaid for the journey. At the "Blue Church" Mrs. E. O. Lange and Mrs. Emilie G. Pollard told of the early history of the church, and how it had served as a community center for many years. Mrs. Pollard kindly opened her own home, which was formerly one of the dwellings of the Lowmies' estate, and showed many features of interest. Mrs. Garrett, a descendant of Jane Lowmies told all that is known about the cave dwelling where the marker shows the date, 1685. A log cabin followed the cave home, of which there are naturally no remains. But some time later a stone residence was built which was occupied by the Lowmies family for many generations. Mr. Lewis, the present owner of the home, pointed out some of the original features, such as stone steps, where knives were sharpened, the huge fire-place, and heavy door-latches and knockers.

Mrs. Jenkins and Miss Ethel Brewster told the visitors how Chester Road was located on the other side of the Benjamin West House in the old days. A fire destroyed the interior of the house some time ago, but the outside is much as it originally was, even to the daffodiles which are supposed to have descended from those planted by Benjamin West's mother. Colonial furniture and some of West's sketches made the interior of the house quite realistic, especially as there was an old fashioned cradle, a pussy-cat, and an individual bird. At the Friends' Historical Library J. Russell Hayes showed some relics of early years. There were also some drawings by Benjamin West; one of the heads of animals being a great interesting. Miss Margaret Leiper, a special granddaughter of Thomas Leiper, who opened the Leiper Quarry, answered many questions which were asked concerning the remains of the first railroad, the snuff mill, the little French school, and other points of interest in the neighborhood. There was not time to visit the locks on the canal, but the remains of these may be clearly seen not far from Fairview Road.

Altogether it was felt that the tour was most worth while, especially as the best authorities were on hand to give information at each point.

Golf Course Sold
Sharpless Rock Manor, the site of a golf course at the intersection of Chestnut street and Chester road, has been purchased by C. Gordon Sharpless, who will occupy the property after renovations with his intended bride, Miss Alexia duPont Ortiz, after June 15. The site is close to Sharpless Rock, where John Sharpless came here from England in the era of William Penn and landed on the rock jutting into Ridley creek. Thus his descendant again comes into possession of the site. The property was held for sale at $50,000. It contains five acres, a fine Colonial house and several smaller houses. The house will be remodeled on the exterior, with very few changes to the interior of the dwelling. Renovations and improvements, it is believed, will cost in the neighborhood of $20,000. Furniture of an antique variety has been imported from England by Casper P. Sharpless, father of Gordon, to match the interior of the home.

COUNTY COMMITTEE OF LEGION MEETS HERE
Delegates of the County Committee of the American Legion will be guests at the Legion rooms in Borough Hall. About 21 representatives of posts throughout the county will be present. Dr. John Murphy and Allen Eaveson, 3rd, delegates in the county committee from the local post will be in charge of next Friday night's meeting.

Dumping In Borough Said To Violate Clean-Up Ordinance
Borough Authorities Expected To Take Steps To Have Newly Annexed Tract Cleaned Of Rubbish And Trash

Just two years ago this month, Ordinance 303 was added to the laws of the borough. This ordinance provides for the health and cleanliness and the beauty, convenience, comfort and safety of the Borough of Swarthmore, by prohibiting the accumulation of rubbish, noxious vegetation, and other objectionable accumulations on private or public property. Ordinance No. 303 was the pet hobby of Carroll Thayer, burgess of Swarthmore before the regime of William R. Landis, the present law enforcement head. After talking about the need for such an ordinance for several years of his administration Burgess Thayer was successful in having the measure approved during the final year of his term of office. Certainly Ordinance 303 is receiving scant attention as may be seen by even the most casual observer driving around Swarthmore. Take your out of town friends to see the schoolhouse will be more than disconcerted by the gardens of tin cans, hunched by piles of ashes, plaster, old automobile parts, etc. Which litter both sides of Rutgers avenue, the east side of Cornell avenue and other points throughout the newly annexed section of Swarthmore. This land was annexed to Swarthmore with the approval of the owners. It has always been an eyesore with its noxious vegetation, rubbish, etc. and now that the borough has control of this condition by means of Ordinance No. 303 it should be cleaned up and kept such an ordinance for several years of his administration Burgess Thayer was successful in having the measure approved during the final year of his term of office. DOG QUARANTINE IS PROCLAIMED
Local Man Bitten by Own Dog Which is Reported Had Rabies

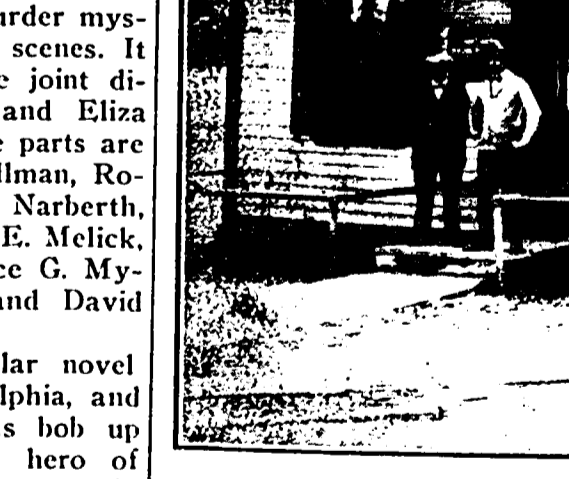

A one hundred day dog quarantine is to be proclaimed in Swarthmore at once as a result of a Swarthmore rabies found to have been suffering with rabies during the past few days. The dog was killed on Tuesday and its head sent to Harrisburg after it had bitten its master on the hand. Whether the proclamation will provide that dogs be both muzzled and on a leash is not known but it is certain that every dog will be required to be on a leash. Next week after the proclamation has been posted, the representatives of the State will come to Swarthmore and pick up every dog whether licensed or unlicensed that is not on a leash. It is reported that it is not likely that any dog in Swarthmore was bitten by the dog found to have been suffering with rabies. The dog in question disappeared from its home in Swarthmore Sunday night and had appeared up to that time to be perfectly normal. On Tuesday the dog was found in Meantown and when the owner went to claim it, it bit him on the hand. The head was sent to Harrisburg and a report was forwarded to the Swarthmore police that the canine was infected with rabies.

WOMEN VOTERS MEET HERE NEXT TUESDAY
The Swarthmore League of Women Voters announces an exceptionally interesting meeting to be held in the Woman's Clubhouse, Tuesday, April 28th, at 2:30 P. M. Mrs. Clifford R. Buck, a member of the Swarthmore League, will describe her impressions of the Pennsylvania Legislature when she recently attended its sessions. Mrs. Marie O'Connell, President of the Woman's Democratic Club, and Chairman of the Women's Democratic Club, will speak on the Election Code, a most timely subject, especially when intelligent citizens throughout Pennsylvania are making every effort to obtain the adoption of the Code. Mrs. O'Connell is thoroughly informed concerning the Code and is a brilliant speaker as well. She promises to present the subject in everyday language, minus technicalities, thus emphasizing the value of the provisions of the proposed Code as they affect the individual voter and his municipality. A social hour will follow the meeting with music by Mrs. Herbert Fraser. Tea will be served, and a cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested to attend.

DISTRICT MEETING OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY
The annual meeting of the South District of the Philadelphia Conference will be held next Thursday under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. Two sessions will be held, one in the morning at 10:30 and the other in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Joseph Scott will preside at the morning session, the Rev. Lloyd P. Stevens will lead the worship. Mrs. W. N. Spangler will give the welcome and Mrs. W. A. Boppel will make the response. In the afternoon, Mrs. John Howard Taylor will sing and Mrs. Laura Baird will be among the speakers.

New Publicity Head
Mrs. James A. Davis, of Amherst avenue, who was formerly with the Swarthmorean, has been appointed Publicity Chairman of the Delaware County League of Women Voters, in place of Mrs. George M. Hughes, of Providence Road, Chester, who has resigned, so that she may devote more time to her work as Chairman of Motion Picture of Delaware County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Walton's Office, Old Landmark, Makes Way For New Underpass

The past week saw the removal of one of Swarthmore's landmarks, the office of E. C. Walton, to make way for the underpass. As far as can be learned this building was originally erected as a pavilion with all sides open and a flag on top. It was built about 41 years ago by William H. Brannon. Its original location in the form of a pavilion was farther south on Chester road and after being turned into a real estate office for the sale of lots offered by the Swarthmore Improvement Co. it was removed to its present site about 35 years ago. Henry Kent was head of the Swarthmore Improvement Company and was the owner of the building. The office has been the headquarters of the Swarthmore Building Association since its founding 32 years ago. It was also the place of the first meeting to

LOCAL WOMAN AUTHOR OF PLAYERS' CLUB PLAY
The May Players Club production will be a new and original play written by Isabel Briggs Myers, author of "Murder Yet To Come" and a member of the Club. The first production anywhere will be Monday, May 4, and the usual five performances will be given. The title of the play is "Death Calls For Margin" and it is a murder mystery in three acts and four scenes. It is being produced under the joint direction of Roland G. E. and Eliza Katharine Ullman. The nine parts are taken by Eliza Katharine Ullman, Roland P. Harper, John David Narberth, Roland G. E. Ullman, Elmer E. Melick, J. William Simmons, Clarence G. Myers, Isabel Briggs Myers and David Ulrich Ullman. As in Mrs. Myers' popular novel the scene is laid in Philadelphia, and familiar names and locations bob up constantly. Jerningham, the hero of "Murder Yet To Come", reappears in this play, together with his friend, Nelson, the detective. "Death Calls For Margin" is the second original full-length play written by this organization of players. The other one was "Bilked", produced two years ago by the author, Roland G. E. Ullman. The play is shaping up rapidly and is now in its sixth week of rehearsal.

H. S. Baseball
The Swarthmore High baseball nine will play two games at home next week. The first will be on Tuesday when the local boys meet the Ridley Park team at 3:30 and the second game on Friday will be with Marple-Newtown.

News Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Buck, of Guernsey road, Riverview Estates, Swarthmore, have returned after visiting Mrs. Buck's father, C. A. Nelson, his ninety-second birthday on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Buck will leave by motor on Thursday to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Buck, of Lynchburg, Va.

Mrs. Robert L. Coates, of Harvard avenue, has returned from a three days' visit in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Lueders, of North Princeton avenue, entertained at dinner on Saturday night, when their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rodman Shoenaker, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sidney Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Coates.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin George, of Washington, D. C., were the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McCurdy, of Riverview Estates. Mr. and Mrs. George will be remembered as former residents of Swarthmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvel Wilson, of Strath Haven avenue, entertained Dr. Grier and Miss Grier over the weekend. Dr. Grier is Mrs. Wilson's father and has just returned from a three months' cruise on his yacht in Florida waters.

Mrs. William R. Main and son have been recent guests at the Seaside Hotel at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Henry R. Cookman, of 119 College avenue, Swarthmore, entertained at luncheon at her home Thursday. Major and Mrs. Ray C. Rutherford spent last week with their brother, S. S. Rutherford, of Strath Haven ave. They were on their way from Abilene, Texas, to Paris, France, where Major Rutherford has been detailed with the Gold Star Pilgrimage.

Mrs. A. Penrose Robinson, of 606 University Place, and her daughter, Barbara Ann, have just returned from a visit to Mrs. Robinson's mother in New Rochelle, New York.

Closing her talk she said she liked politics for three reasons: First, she liked detective stories and the intrigue of politics fascinated her in the same way. Second, history was a favorite subject and politics is making history; and as a third reason that she appreciates the freedom of women and likes to do what she can for the less fortunate women who can't get out and work for themselves.

The two new members were received: Mrs. Alden Q. Davis of 302 Cornell and Mrs. Frank V. Brewster of 323 Dickinson street.

Mrs. Arthur E. Bye, chairman of Art, invited members to accompany her on a trip to the colonial houses in Fairmount Park on Wednesday, May 13th, at which time all houses will have hostesses in the costume of the period in which the house figured.

Mrs. Robert L. Coates will talk on "Poetry for Plain People" at the club meeting on next Tuesday afternoon, using it as a "leisure time vocation."

and also will read from her own poems. An added treat will be Madeline Fraga Faber, a Dutch luttist who will play several numbers on this ancient instrument and will wear the costume to suit the piece played. A social hour will follow.

"The Swarthmore unemployment situation seems encouraging, but one morning in past week, there were more applications for work than for some time. Skill and training of the men employed makes one of the biggest problems. You cannot send a machinist into a formal garden and expect him to know iris from daffodils. It is not fair to him, nor to his employer.

"Because of this condition, the College woods have been a god-send. Under a foreman one man can make good as well as another, if he wants to work. Besides donating foreman and bookkeeper, the College has donated $1,000 to this cause.

"The plan to have baskets in our stores to relieve food contributions works well. People are remembering that green vegetables are a necessary part of the diet and are giving them rather than so much canned stuff. Butchers give soup meat, for which we are very thankful.

"Coal is still being supplied, rents have been advanced, and clothing is given out daily from the Health Center.

"The present need seems to be for little boys' trousers, children's sweaters, more shoes, especially children's. The Unemployment Committee is grateful to the Public Schools of Swarthmore for the donations of canned goods, etc. In addition, a total amount of $111.48 was donated from the schools, $65.50 given by the Faculty and the remainder by the children."

R. was advised that the street might be disappointing in that several of the trees might not live. It was therefore decided to have the R. R. should turn over to the college $2750, this money to be used by the College in re-landscaping next fall the campus touched by the underpass. Henry Hood, director of grounds and buildings at the college said that the college would probably add to the money appropriated by the R. R. and would work out some effective landscaping where the present west side parking area. New six inch trees will be planted to replace those that are to be destroyed this spring.

In order to improve drainage conditions at Swarthmore avenue just south of Chester road, council discussed the need for curbing on Swarthmore avenue between Ogden avenue and Chester road. The borough engineer will make a study of the situation and bids will be solicited at once for the improvement on both sides of the street. After a discussion led by Leonard C. Ashburn, head of the finance committee, it was decided that the borough insurance should be placed during the next year with Wilson and Co. of Philadelphia. The commissions for this insurance will be divided equally, half going to the widow of Leslie G. Campbell who for many years acted as broker for the borough insurance and the other half being equally divided among five Swarthmore insurance agents: E. C. Walton, Charles Parker, Charles A. Smith, William S. Bittle, and Sweeney and Clyde.

Joseph S. Bates, head of the highway committee was instructed to make up a complete program of the streets in the borough to be improved during the next twelve months. After this program has been adopted, council will decide whether to ask for bids for the entire job at once or divide it into several parts and seek bids for each individual job.

Dumping In Borough Said To Violate Clean-Up Ordinance
Borough Authorities Expected To Take Steps To Have Newly Annexed Tract Cleaned Of Rubbish And Trash

Just two years ago this month, Ordinance No. 303 was added to the laws of the borough. This ordinance provides for the health and cleanliness and the beauty, convenience, comfort and safety of the Borough of Swarthmore, by prohibiting the accumulation of rubbish, refuse, garbage, and other objectionable material, and by requiring the removal of such material from private or public property.

At the Friends' Historical Library, J. Russell Fayers showed some records of early years. There were also some drawings by Benjamin West; one of the heads of animals being especially interesting.

Miss Margaret Leiper, a great granddaughter of Thomas Leiper, who opened the Leiper Quarry, answered many questions which were asked concerning the remains of the first railroad, the snuff mill, the little French school, and other points of interest in the neighborhood. There was not time to visit the locks on the canal, but the remains of these may be clearly seen not far from Fairview Road.

As in Mrs. Myers' popular novel the scene is laid in Philadelphia, and familiar names and locations both in constantly, Jerroldham, the hero of "Murder Yet To Come", reappears in this play, together with his friend, Wilson, the detective.

"Death Calls For Margin" is the second original full-length play written by a Club member and produced by this organization of players. The other one was "Billed", produced two years ago by the author, Roland G. E. Ullman.

Its original location in the form of a pavilion was farther south on Chester road and after being turned into a real estate office for the sale of lots offered by the Swarthmore Improvement Co. it drove into the College Library and was removed to its present site about 35 years ago. Henry Kent was head of the carriage line to college avenue when he built it to shift into third gear. When he reached the Garrett apartments just this side of Elm avenue he was forced to go into the fourth or lowest gear and was unable to "climb the mountain" at about one mile an hour.

WOMEN VOTERS MEET HERE NEXT TUESDAY
The Swarthmore League of Women Voters announces an exceptionally interesting meeting to be held in the Woman's Clubhouse, Tuesday, April 28th, at 2:30 P. M.

Mrs. Clifford R. Buck, a member of the Swarthmore League, will describe her impressions of the Pennsylvania Legislature when she recently attended its sessions.

Mrs. Marie O'Connell, President of the Woman's Democratic Club, and Chairman of the Philadelphia Conference, will speak on the Election Code, a most timely subject just now, when intelligent citizens throughout Pennsylvania are making every effort to obtain the adoption of the Code. Mrs. O'Connell is thoroughly informed concerning the Code, and is a brilliant speaker as well. She promises to present the subject in everyday language, minus technicalities, thus emphasizing the value of the Code to the individual voter and his municipality.

A social hour will follow the meeting with music by Mrs. Herbert Frazer. Tea will be served, and a cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested to attend.

DISTRICT MEETING OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY
The annual meeting of the South District of the Philadelphia Conference will be held next Thursday under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. Two sessions will be held, one in the morning at 10:30 and the other in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Joseph Scott will preside at the morning session, the Rev. Lloyd P. Stevens will lead the worship. Mrs. W. N. Spangler will give the welcome and Mrs. W. A. Bopple will make the response. In the afternoon, Mrs. John Howard Taylor will sing and Mrs. Laura Baird will be among the speakers.

New Publicity Head
Mrs. James A. Davis, of Amherst avenue, who was formerly with the Swarthmorean, has been appointed Publicity Chairman of the Delaware County League of Women Voters, in place of Mrs. George M. Hughes, of Providence Road, Chester, who has stepped down so that she may devote more time to her work as Chairman of Motion Pictures of Delaware County Federation of Women's Clubs.

HISTORICAL TOUR PROVES POPULAR

Interesting Features of Each Place Explained to those Making Pilgrimage

SPONSORED BY H. AND S.

Those who took the Historical Pilgrimage of Swarthmore last Saturday sponsored by the Home and School Association, felt amply repaid for the journey. At the "Blue Church" Mrs. E. O. Lange and Mrs. Emily G. Pollard told of the early history of the church, and how it had served as a community center for many years. Mrs. Pollard kindly opened her own home, which was formerly one of the dwellings of the Lowmes' estate, and showed many features of interest.

Mrs. Garrett, a descendant of Jan-Lowmes told all that is known about the cave dwelling where the marker shows the date, 1685. A log cabin followed the cave home, of which there are naturally no remains. But some time later a stone residence was built which was occupied by the Lowmes family for many generations. Mr. Lewis, the present owner of the home pointed out some of the original features, such as stone steps, where knives were sharpened, the huge fireplace, and heavy door-latches and knockers.

Mrs. Jenkins and Miss Ethel Hester told the visitors how Chester Road was located on the other side of the Benjamin West House in the old days. A fire destroyed the interior of the house some time ago, but the outside is much as it originally was, even to the daffodils which are supposed to have descended from those planted by Benjamin West's mother. Colonial furniture and some of West's sketches throughout the interior of the house are realistic, especially as there was an child with crayons at hand representing old fashioned cradles, a pussy-cat, and a dog.

At the Friends' Historical Library, J. Russell Fayers showed some records of early years. There were also some drawings by Benjamin West; one of the heads of animals being especially interesting.

Miss Margaret Leiper, a great granddaughter of Thomas Leiper, who opened the Leiper Quarry, answered many questions which were asked concerning the remains of the first railroad, the snuff mill, the little French school, and other points of interest in the neighborhood. There was not time to visit the locks on the canal, but the remains of these may be clearly seen not far from Fairview Road.

Altogether it was felt that the tour was most worth while, especially as the best authorities were on hand to give information at each point.

LOCAL WOMAN AUTHOR OF PLAYERS' CLUB PLAY
The May Players' Club production will be a new and original play written by Isabel Briggs Myers, author of "Murder Yet To Come" and a member of the Club. The first production anywhere will be Monday, May 4, and the usual five performances will be given.

The title of the play is "Death Calls For Margin" and it is a murder mystery in three acts and four scenes. It is being produced under the joint direction of Roland G. E. and Eliza Katharine Ullman. The nine parts are taken by Eliza Katharine Ullman, Roland G. E. Ullman, Elmer E. Melick, J. William Simmons, Clarence G. Myers, Isabel Briggs Myers and David Ulrich Ullman.

As in Mrs. Myers' popular novel the scene is laid in Philadelphia, and familiar names and locations both in constantly, Jerroldham, the hero of "Murder Yet To Come", reappears in this play, together with his friend, Wilson, the detective.

"Death Calls For Margin" is the second original full-length play written by a Club member and produced by this organization of players. The other one was "Billed", produced two years ago by the author, Roland G. E. Ullman.

Its original location in the form of a pavilion was farther south on Chester road and after being turned into a real estate office for the sale of lots offered by the Swarthmore Improvement Co. it drove into the College Library and was removed to its present site about 35 years ago. Henry Kent was head of the carriage line to college avenue when he built it to shift into third gear. When he reached the Garrett apartments just this side of Elm avenue he was forced to go into the fourth or lowest gear and was unable to "climb the mountain" at about one mile an hour.

H. AND S. BENEFIT PLANNED FOR MAY 12 UNDERPASS WORK MAKING PROGRESS
The program for the benefit of the Home and School Association scholarship fund this year will consist of a presentation of "Mary Mary Quite Contrary" by the Hedgerow Players from Rose Valley. The entire proceeds of the play will go towards providing a scholarship at Swarthmore College for some member of the present senior class.

This play is one of the most popular of any presented by the Hedgerow players. A star cast including Jasper Decker and William Price will be in the production along with other talented members of the Hedgerow Theatre.

There will be no reserved seats and tickets may be purchased at Buchner's or at the high school. Doors will open at 7:45.

DOG QUARANTINE IS PROCLAIMED
Local Men Bitten by Own Dog Which is Reported Bad Rabies
160 DAY QUARANTINE
A one hundred day dog quarantine is to be proclaimed in Swarthmore as a result of a Swarthmore dog found to have been suffering with rabies during the past few days. The dog was killed on Tuesday and its head sent to Harrisburg after it had bitten its master on the hand.

Whether the proclamation will provide that dogs be both muzzled and on a leash is not known but it is certain that every dog will be required to be on a leash.

Next week after the proclamation has been posted, the representatives of the State will come to Swarthmore and pick up every dog, whether licensed or unlicensed that is not on a leash. It is reported that it is not likely that any dog in Swarthmore was bitten by a rabid dog. The dog in question disappeared from its home in Swarthmore Sunday night and had appeared up to that time to be perfectly normal.

On Tuesday the dog was found in Media and when the owner went to claim it, it bit him on the hand. The Media was sent to Harrisburg and a report was forwarded to the Swarthmore police that the canine was infected with rabies.

WOMEN VOTERS MEET HERE NEXT TUESDAY

WOMAN'S CLUB CHORUS SINGS NEXT FRIDAY

The Woman's Club chorus, no longer an infant organization but an established and well trained singing group, will give its annual concert on Friday evening May 1, at 8:15 under the direction of Dr. Sylvano Thumder. The concert will be held in the beautiful new Clothier Memorial on the College campus instead of at the Woman's Clubhouse as in the past.

This year in particular, the people of Swarthmore are urged to make the concert a civic affair. Each year has seen an improvement in the chorus and Mrs. R. Chester Spencer, chairman of the chorus group, is very desirous that this year with the use of the Memorial Hall the attendance be greatly increased.

In addition to the choral numbers, which will be accompanied by the pipe organ, there will be numbers by the Schmidt string quartet from the Philadelphia orchestra. Professor Thumder will have a rehearsal at the Clothier Memorial on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, one on Monday at two o'clock, as usual, and on Tuesday at four o'clock. The concert will take place at four o'clock in the city on Thursday at ten o'clock, when the chorus will rehearse with the string quartet. Tickets may be secured from any member of the chorus or at Buchner's Toggery shop.

SEEK TWO ADDITIONAL JUDGES FOR COUNTY

Delaware county, setting forth the need of additional judges. It is practically the unanimous opinion of county attorneys that two more judges are needed. This week and last week four judges have been hearing civil cases at Media, which is a practical demonstration of the need. It is not likely that Delaware county representatives at Harrisburg will support the Sheffer bill, unless it is amended to give Delaware county two new judges. "By all means two more judges are needed," declared Judge John M. Broomall, Jr. "We need four judges to conduct the trials, at all times, leaving one judge free to take care of his office work." If five judges were apportioned to Delaware county, four court rooms could be operated, giving each of the five judges some free time to devote to writing opinions and doing other important work that demands time outside of actual court hours.

It is the custom of the courts at Media to open at 10 o'clock and continue in session until 5 o'clock, with an hour's recess for lunch. Many times, particularly during criminal trials, the closing hour is extended to 6 o'clock and later. In Philadelphia and most other counties of the state, courts close at 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon, permitting judges time to do work in their own offices. There are several lawyers who undoubtedly would become candidates for judicial honors should either of the bills pass, but at this stage of the game they are chary in making announcements.

EVERYWHERE you go you hear reports of the good performance and reliability of the Ford.
One owner writes—"The Ford Tudor Sedan I am driving has covered 59,300 miles through all kinds of weather. It is still giving perfect satisfaction."
Another owner describes a trip of 3217 miles in 95 hours over bad roads and through heavy rain and sleet in the mountains. "Throughout the entire trip," he writes, "the Ford performed excellently and no mechanical trouble of any kind was experienced. The shatter-proof glass undoubtedly saved us from serious injury when a prairie chicken struck the windshield while we were traveling at 65 miles an hour."

SEEK TWO ADDITIONAL JUDGES FOR COUNTY
Introduction of a bill at Harrisburg Wednesday by Representative Sheffer, Milfin county, providing for one additional Common Pleas judge for Delaware county, which is a practical demonstration of the need. It is not likely that Delaware county representatives at Harrisburg will support the Sheffer bill, unless it is amended to give Delaware county two new judges.

The Turner bill was the result of a petition signed by scores of lawyers of Delaware county, setting forth the need of additional judges.

By all means two more judges are needed here," declared Judge John M. Broomall, 3d.

"We need four judges to conduct the trials, at all times, leaving one judge free to take care of his office work." If five judges were appointed to Delaware county, four court rooms could be operated, giving each of the five judges some free time to devote to writing opinions and doing other important work that demands time outside of actual court hours.

It is the custom of the courts at Media to open at 10 o'clock and continue in session until 5 o'clock, with an hour's recess for lunch. Many times, particularly during criminal trials, the closing hour is extended to 6 o'clock and later. In Philadelphia and most other counties of the state, courts close at 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon, permitting judges time to do work in their own offices.

There are several lawyers who undoubtedly would become candidates for judicial honors should either of the bills pass, but at this stage of the game they are chary in making announcements.

FORD RELIABILITY

Long, hard use shows the value of good materials and simplicity of design

EVERYWHERE you go you hear reports of the good performance and reliability of the Ford.

One owner writes—"The Ford Tudor Sedan I am driving has covered 59,300 miles through all kinds of weather. It is still giving perfect satisfaction."

Another owner describes a trip of 3217 miles in 95 hours over bad roads and through heavy rain and sleet in the mountains. "Throughout the entire trip," he writes, "the Ford performed excellently and no mechanical trouble of any kind was experienced. The shatter-proof glass undoubtedly saved us from serious injury when a prairie chicken struck the windshield while we were traveling at 65 miles an hour."

See the nearest dealer and have him give you a demonstration ride in the Ford. Then, from your own personal experience, you will know that it brings you everything you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.

Andante-Allegro

Those College chimes! Those College Chimes!
How sweet they've fallen on our ear—
How often we have counted out
Their measured tones, so rich and clear!

'Tis passing strange, 'tis passing strange,
Swarthmore was once a lovely place,
So quiet, restful, green and cool—
But time and change have wrecked its grace!

O, 'tis a shame, a crying shame,—
The underpass grows deep apace
And in the march of progress, now
The College chimes have joined the race!

REASON FOR STUDY OF ECONOMIC NUTRITION

A member of the Unemployment committee of the Borough has asked that the following be published:

In an address before the British Royal Society of Medicine, an English doctor said, "By means of proper food, and individual hereditary equipment can be developed to greater advantage than by any other environmental means."

Another doctor says, "Food and exercise are the bases of health."

Swarthmore women are keen on this question. That is the reason for the class this Friday in the Woman's Club House on "Economic Nutrition," conducted by Miss Grace P. Bacon of the Agricultural Extension Bureau. People are aware now of the so-called deficiency diseases, rickets, scurvy, etc. Children are always victims of these diseases where there is lack of food, but because they are not given the proper diet.

A noted child specialist names certain families "starch families," meaning that their diet consisted of too much of cereals, potatoes, etc. unbalanced by green vegetables and fruit. Some children have excessive sugar. One of the dangers of such a diet is damaged teeth. Others are starved for sugar and lack energy therefrom.

Swarthmore women who have leisure for it could be trained to help mothers in homes where the budget is small, the family usually large, and where lack of knowledge in marketing and cooking food threatens the health of the growing children. It would be a work well worth doing in the community.

CONCERT BY COLORED CONTRALTO ON FRIDAY NIGHT DELIGHTS MANY

Marian Anderson Sings Under Auspices of Cooper Foundation

GIVES VARIED PROGRAM

Marian Anderson, gifted colored contralto, gave an excellent concert under the auspices of the Cooper Foundation in Clothier Memorial Friday evening, April 17. The artist's well-rounded program of both classical and familiar numbers fulfilled the expectations of many who were delighted by a similar performance last year. An appreciative audience, thrilled by Miss Anderson's strong, mellow voice and unusually wide vocal range, called her back to the stage five times. The last group of negro spirituals was particularly appealing and well-rendered.

Wide Experience
Miss Anderson has had a wide experience on the concert stage. In 1925 she was signally honored to be chosen to sing with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. Her unusual talent has won her widespread recognition and Europe and America have acclaimed her as one of the great contraltos of her generation. The program opened with a rendition of Dambili's "To the Queen of Heaven," Bononcini's "Per la gloria d'adorar," "Spirate pur, Spirate" by Donaudy, and "Alleluia" by Mozart. The next group included Liszt's "Die drei Zigeuner," which allowed the singer's range of low, rich, minor tones full expression, also "In Liebestraut" by Liszt, and "Vom Monte Pinco" and "Zur Johannisnacht" by Grieg. The audience was taken by surprise by the high trills of the next selections from the opera "La Favorita" by Donizetti. The soprano, almost coloratura, capacities of the contralto, were amazing and the listeners showed their admiration by much applause. The fourth group, including "Night" by

Critiques Freud

The speaker of the evening then proceeded to point out various important objections to the Freudian theory. First, he indicated the absurdity of calling all other-regarding instincts as fundamentally sexual. Second, he asked the question, "How can there be a conscious unconscious?" but went on to show how one could be aware of a clock's ticking, for instance, without being "aware that one is aware of it." He also suggested that the depths of irrationality involved in the self as conceived by Freud were intolerable to a philosopher. He whimsically pointed out that, according to the noted psychologist, philosophy itself would have to be the satisfaction of an impulse, which was an obvious absurdity. Dr. Blanshard, in closing, convinced his audience, that although Freud's theory in some respects is fanatically absurd, it has a wide range of usefulness in mental therapy. A brief discussion followed the lecture.

The last program of the year will be a movie on April 30 at the Woman's Club.

Philosophy Professor Describes Freud's Theory of Psychoanalysis

Dr. Brand Blanshard, professor of philosophy, gave the second in a series of three lectures on "Some Leaders of Contemporary Thought" presented by the department of philosophy of Swarthmore College last Sunday night when he described Sigmund Freud's theory of psychoanalysis. The first lecture was given by Dr. Jesse H. Holmes on Albert Einstein. The last one will be given next Sunday night at 7:30 p. m. in the meeting house when Professor George E. Thomas will talk on Henri Bergson.

Dr. Blanshard opened his talk by explaining the place of psychoanalysis in the treatment of mental diseases and obsessions, and also described the application of the theory to three odd occurrences, slips of the tongue, dreams, and cases of neurotic reveries, as they are called.

Dr. Blanshard went on to explain certain terms upon which Freud's theory revolves. The "id" he described as the purposive striving toward a goal; it is composed of two kinds of desires, self-asserting, and other-regarding, the second of which Freud insists upon calling sexual. A "complex" he defined as an idea or set of ideas charged with a larger amount of emotion than is normal. "Neurosis" was explained as a mild form of mental disease resulting from a conflict of the ego and the "censor."

Dreams, according to Freud, are very significant, and analyses of them are often shockingly revealing, as they are the expressions of the desires which the "censor" has suppressed into the unconscious. Freud himself, has worked out a complicated system of symbols by which the meaning of both night dreams and day dreams may be detected.

LEGION CONTRIBUTES TO SALVATION ARMY

The regular meeting of the Harold Ainsworth Post of the American Legion was held last Monday evening at the Legion quarters in Borough hall. A collection was taken for the Salvation Army of Philadelphia and a representative sum secured.

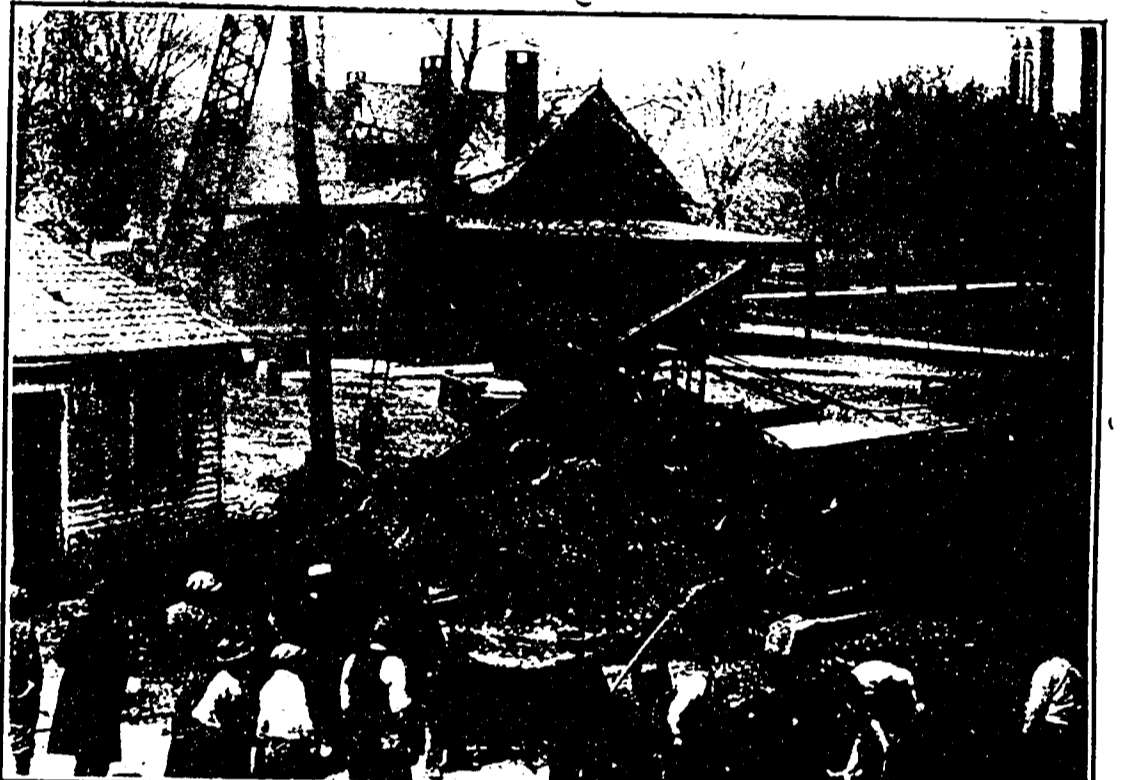

The speaker of the evening was George Fenno, who was a dollar a year man during the war and responsible for the Standardization of gasoline for aeroplanes. The Legion rooms have been furnished with new furniture and guests at the meeting Monday night included Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Ainsworth in whose son's honor the post is named. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Thayer were also guests.

The final group, composed of four negro spirituals and three encores, proved to be the climax of the evening. "City Called Heaven," "Goin' to Ride Up in de Chair," "Trampin'" and "Don't Feel No Ways Tired" were so well received that Miss Anderson was called back to sing "Gospel Train Am Comin'" as well as "Lindy Lou," and lastly, "Didn't My Lord Deliver Daniel."

BLANSHARD GIVES SECOND LECTURE IN SERIES ON CONTEMPORARY THINKERS

BUSINESS AS USUAL During Construction of Underpass

Let us bear your share of any inconvenience which might appear unavoidable during the building of the Chester road underpass.

While huge trucks obstruct the street and general confusion prevails, telephone your order to these stores and avoid a trip to the business district.

The Stores listed below are all offering free delivery and particularly during the building of the underpass, these merchants promise prompt reliable service.

Use your telephone and let us call at your home for articles to be taken to one of the stores; or telephone your order for immediate delivery.

All of Swarthmore's stores will make a special effort during the next few months to give real telephone service. Take advantage of this opportunity to save yourself inconvenience.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE GIVEN HERE

A lecture on Christian Science under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist of Swarthmore, was given in the Church Edifice, Saturday evening, April 18th by Mr. Galvin W. Allan, of Toronto, Canada.

Mr. Paul Freedley, the First Reader, in introducing the lecturer said in part:

"My Friends: Tomorrow will be the 52nd anniversary of a meeting called by our beloved leader Mrs. Eddy, and attended by just a few faithful students. It was decided at this meeting as recorded in our Church Manual to 'organize a church designed to commemorate the world and works of our Master, which would restate primitive Christianity and its lost element of healing.' In the years that I have been a student of Christian Science I have seen many healings of so-called incurable diseases, much suffering and sorrow destroyed and want supplanted. I have had many healings, and so much help along the way that I can assure you that the truths which Jesus taught are as operative to-day as they were then, and that they may be to you now what they were to St. Paul—Christ, the Power of God.

Mr. Allen took for his subject, Jesus, Our Exemplar, and said in part: "If we would understand Christianity, its Principle and its practice, we must begin by understanding its Founder, 'the man Christ Jesus,' because he and he alone has been its perfect exponent, its perfect demonstrator. If we examine the life of Jesus as portrayed in the Gospels we cannot fail to note some of his outstanding characteristics. Let us consider a few of his traits which have not been sufficiently stressed.

First, his selflessness. During the years of his ministry he seemed to have no ambition for place or power, no desire for superiority or preference. It is true that just before he entered upon his ministry he passed through a great struggle in overcoming the false sense of self; the desire for fame and dominion strove to assert itself. But it is also true that this desire was completely routed, and that never again did it become apparent in his life.

Was it Jesus' desire that his followers should serve their fellows in the same way that he did, that is, in the same spirit? Did he commend a life of service as a practical ideal? Let us see. You will remember that on one occasion Jesus called his disciples to him and said, 'Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant.' In Jesus' estimation, then, the willingness and ability to serve ranked higher than the desire to be served. Service ranked higher than dictatorship; selflessness than selfishness.

Christ Jesus is our Exemplar, our ideal model. We as Christian Scientists are his followers. The ideals he presented, the qualities of mind he manifested, we must strive to emulate. Recognizing this, the Founder of the Christian Science movement, Mary Baker Eddy, in her 'Advice to Students' wrote (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 303): 'Let us serve instead of rule, let us knock instead of push at the door of human hearts, and allow to each and every one the same rights and privileges that we claim for ourselves.'

But we were speaking of selflessness, entirely different things. Physiologists tell us that our physical bodies are completely changed or renewed every few years. You may have had five or ten entirely different bodies, but no one of those bodies which you have left behind was you. Your true selfhood, the man of God's creating, is a mental, a spiritual being, the expression of God.

BOROUGH OF SWARTHMORE, DELAWARE COUNTY
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
AUDITORS' REPORT
FOR THE YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1930

To the Borough Council and Burgess,
Borough of Swarthmore,
Delaware County, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Gentlemen:

The Borough Auditors of the Borough of Swarthmore have completed their examination of the financial records of the Secretary, Treasurer and Tax Collectors for the year ending December 31, 1930.

The scope of this examination consisted of a verification of the accounts and liabilities in the manner and as set forth in the comment of this report. We also ascertained that the records of the Secretary, Treasurer and Tax Collectors were in reconciliation as of December 31, 1930.

Respectfully Submitted,
W. M. MAIN,
W. L. JOHNSON,
WALLACE McCURDY,
Borough Auditors.

COMMENT

CASH

All cash balances were reconciled with the balances as set forth on the bank statements and further verified by direct correspondence with the depository. It was found that all recorded cash receipts were deposited and receipts transmitted to the secretary in the manner prescribed by the Borough Council.

The recorded cash disbursements were checked in detail with the minutes to determine if all payments had been approved by the Council, also that each payment was supported by a properly approved check, also that each

During the period of this examination we found the accounting records of the Borough in a uniformly good condition.

On January 7, 1931, the Borough started to use the check voucher system, which meets with our unqualified approval.

We recommend that you install a general ledger and a card of accounts, so that all vouchers can be coded to facilitate the distribution of expense. We also recommend that the records of the Treasurer carry full information relative to fines, penalties, discounts and net amount credited to the tax duplicate.

FOREST FIRES IN STATE CRITICAL

The forest fire situation throughout Pennsylvania was described as "most critical" in a warning issued by Secretary Lewis E. Staley of the Department of Forests and Waters.

Reports from district foresters throughout Pennsylvania indicate that many fires during the past week have resulted from brush burning and carelessness with smoking material. The extremely dry condition of the forest has led to many requests that a proclamation be issued by the Governor prohibiting the use of smoking material and the burning of brush in the forest areas of the state.

Secretary Staley makes a special appeal that all persons refrain from starting brush fires and from throwing away unextinguished smoking material when conditions in the woods are such that fires may start.

Manufacturers' Banquet

The nineteenth annual banquet of the Manufacturers Association of Delaware County will be held at the Chester Club and radio broadcaster will talk on the topic "Behind the Scenes at Washington." NEEDLEWORK GUILD ELECTS DIRECTORS

At the meeting of the Needlework Guild held in the Woman's Club House Tuesday of last week the following new directors were announced: Mrs. Michael Kovalenko, Mrs. R. C. Allen, Miss Margaret Tuttle, Mrs. Lewis Fassel, Mrs. S. S. Rutherford, Mrs. Asa Don Dickinson, Mrs. Ellwood Garrett, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. Norman Thorne, Mrs. William W. Matos, Mrs. Arthur Redgrave, Mrs. Harold Griffin, Mrs. Raymond Walters, Miss Elizabeth Steele who is taking the place of her sister, Mrs. Charles A. Smith, who was one of the best workers in the Swarthmore Guild, and Mrs. S. S. Farley.

The National Convention of the Needlework Guilds of America will be held at the Ball Room of the Bellevue Stratford in Philadelphia April 30th to May 2nd. The Swarthmore Guild will be represented by Mrs. Thomas Safford, Honorary President; Mrs. William H. West, President; Mrs. J. V. S. Bishop, Secretary; Mrs. Charles A. Bunting, Treasurer; and three accredited delegates, Mrs. Albert Preston, Mrs. Bayard H. Morrison, and Mrs. George A. Watson.

Except for the business meeting on Thursday morning, all meetings are open to directors and contributors. The morning session will be held at 10.30, the afternoon session at 2-5, and the evening session at 8:15—all Daylight Saving Time.

On Thursday afternoon the main speaker will be Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Sr. The Thursday evening program will be "Readings and Planting Stories," by Katherine Taft Jones. Friday afternoon the principal speaker will be Maude Ballington Booth.

The Junior Session, held Saturday morning at eleven o'clock in the Rose Garden will be presided over by Mrs. Thomas J. Preston, Jr. (who was formerly Mrs. Grover Cleveland).

Girl Scouts Today the Girl Scouts are planning to plant flowers and seeds around the Springfield Short line station at Sprout road. It is very barren around the waiting room and the girls hope to make the surroundings more attractive. On May 2 the girls of both troops will hold a cake sale in one of the vacant stores to raise money for the trip to Washington.

On Friday evening, April 17th, the Girl Scouts took part in a singing contest at the Upper Darby Junior High School. All of the troops of District 6 were represented. The judges awarded first prize to the Glendole troop and second prize to the Swarthmore troop.

The girls from Troop 16 and Troop 194 who sang were: Ina Zimmer, Barbara Bassett, Elizabeth Sholinger, Edith Woodruff, Caroline Underwood, Margaret Ann Badger, Rose Lane Mitchell, Ann Wray, Dorothea Dodd, Grace Dodd, Petra Lavelle, Dorothy Simons, Betty Cleaves, Florence Cleaves, Priscilla Clayden, Sylvia Swann, Margaret Shoemaker, Elizabeth Hessebrauch, Jane Richardson, Mary Ellen Mercer and Eleanor Kolff.

Last Saturday morning two girls of Troop 194 were invited by Captain Marriott and Sylvia Swann to make Second class at the Mother's Day service Sunday morning, May 3. The Scouts will meet at 10:45 at the west entrance to the church to attend the services in a body.

The Rev. Lloyd S. Stevens, pastor of the Methodist Church, has invited the Girl Scouts to attend the Mothers' Day service Sunday morning, May 3. The Scouts will meet at 10:45 at the west entrance to the church to attend the services in a body.

MERCHANTS PROTEST AT PARKING BAN

Merchants along South Chester road have expressed dissatisfaction during the past week at the new arrangement which prohibits parking on the east side of the street in front of their stores. Plans are underway for a delegation made up of practically every merchant in the block appearing before council next Thursday night and asking that three feet of sidewalk be removed and the curb set back to allow parking as usual while the underpass is being built.

"We understand," said Morris Martel of Martel Bros. "that council is planning to set back the curb and widen the street in the future and we should like to have it done now while it will be of most benefit to the merchants instead of waiting until the underpass is completed."

Walter N. Supple is also interested in having the improvement made at once instead of later as is planned at the present time.

"It is obvious that the street between the curb and the underpass along the business block of South Chester road should be widened," said Joe Peckerman when interviewed, "and if it is done at once it will permit parking as usual and be a great benefit to the merchants."

B. S. Lebeberg said he would be glad to aid the movement to have the street widened now instead of waiting until the underpass is finished.

"Parking is already congested along Park avenue between Chester road and Dartmouth avenue and unless the street South Chester road is widened to permit parking as usual, while the underpass is being built, it may prove a hardship on both the people shopping in town and the merchants."

COMMUNITY BASEBALL TEAM TO PRACTICE

Swarthmore's Community Baseball team is scheduled to get underway next week with the first game to be held about last year's team, Prent Manning, veteran pitcher, and Porter Waite, catcher, are all anxious for the team to start practice early this year. Fred Pine, who has managed the team for several seasons, says that notices will be sent out to prospective players within a few days asking them to report for practice next week. Mr. Pine says that several new men have evidenced interest in playing on the local team and that everything points towards a successful season.

MAY DAY PROGRAM NEXT FRIDAY MORNING IS AT 6:45

The May Day procession on Friday, May 1, will start at 6:45 a. m. from the steps of Parrish Hall and proceed to the east campus near the rose garden. Here the queen will be crowned and there will be a special dance. Then each class will dance about the Maypoles, twenty-four freshmen coming first. The higher the class, the more stately will be its dance. The ceremony will close with the traditional Step song. The seniors will wear caps and gowns and carry May baskets given them by the freshmen. The other classes will be dressed in white.

Clean-Up Ordinance

the new Rutgers avenue school and whatever favorable impression is made by ever or unused materials or substances of whatsoever kind and condition."

There are plenty of other places in the borough where this ordinance may be applied. Read for instance this description of objectionable accumulations as contained in the ordinance:

"OBJECTIONABLE ACCUMULATION shall mean any accumulation of supplies, goods, chattels, merchandise, fuel, manufacturing and any and all materials used or to be used for building, grading, or other purposes, whether possessing value or not, deposited or stored in such a manner or place, or for such length of time, or under such circumstances as to be objectionable, unsightly, unsightly, inconvenient, or dangerous, or hindering free ingress and egress, including anything above-described as rubbish or noxious vegetation, and every other kind of material deposited at a place other than, or in amount in excess of, that reasonably necessary to the lawful use of the premises for business, residence, or other legitimate purpose."

In spite of this clause the property adjoining the new apartment house on the South Chester road has been permitted to remain a depository for old lumber and supplies such as have just been described.

Over on Harvard avenue opposite the end of Dickinson avenue is a condition which has caused the depreciation of property values in that neighborhood by thousands of dollars for years. In this instance, council took steps to remedy conditions last fall but complications bluffed them out and at the present time this vacant land bodes fair to be as unsightly as ever within a few weeks.

It is when conditions such as these are called to the attention of the public that the need for an active Civic Association is acutely felt in Swarthmore. Yet at the present time the Business and Civic Association has reached a point of inactivity unequalled in a number of years. Through no fault of the officers and half a dozen active members, no meetings have been held all winter simply because it is virtually impossible to arouse enough interest to make the efforts of the Association of any consequence.

Next fall with the construction of the underpass, Swarthmore will have many new situations with which to deal. Certainly a program of beautifying the business district in the vicinity of the underpass will be evident. There is no question that the underpass will affect the present boundaries of the business zone, new stores may be built, unforeseen problems arise. All of these will or should be of interest to the tax payers of Swarthmore who have their money invested here in the attractiveness of the community.

The prevalence of conditions described above is not only a powerful argument in favor of some sort of organization for the protection of the taxpayers but also an indication that the law enforcement agents of the borough in their eagerness to enforce traffic ordinances are overlooking the existence of other ordinances of equal significance.

WOMEN HEAR PROGRAM OF LUTE AND POETRY

Members of the Woman's Club enjoyed a unique program on Tuesday afternoon when Madame Freya Faber played a number of selections on the lute. Preceding the music she gave a history of the lute, saying that its only forerunner was the harp, dating back to biblical times. She said that it preceded newspapers the people singing the news to the accompaniment of the lute. Every king had his minstrel with a lute but when the piano was introduced, it "made more noise" and displaced the lute. Madame Faber was in costume and sang several of her national (Holland) hymns but the favorite was a lullaby, which is universal.

Following the music, Mrs. Jesse H. Holmes introduced "our own Mrs. Robert L. Coates" who talked of rhyming as a "legitimate pastime for leisure" then read some of her own poems, to the delight of her hearers, and closed her part of the program by insisting that each member write a poem by fall.

Lecture on Art

On Thursday evening, April 30th at 8:15 at the Whittier House, Mrs. Laura Waring, art teacher at the Cheyney Normal School, will give a talk on Art, and show some of her own paintings. Mrs. Waring has won several of the Harmon Awards for her work. There will also be a short musical program, consisting of spirituals sung by the choir of the Morton Baptist Church, and a piano and violin solo by Mrs. Augustine Phillips. The public is cordially invited.

Westminster Guild

The Westminster Guild of the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mildred Bond Wednesday evening. The Guest Speaker, Miss Josephine Frame, Assistant Treasurer of the Board (Presbyterian) of Pensions gave an interesting account of the splendid work which has been accomplished in that specific field. At the close of the meeting a kitchen shower was held in honor of Catherine Starr, a prospective June bride.

Women Voters Notes

Swarthmore women who enjoyed the witty and informative talk given by Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., on "Citizenship and Current Politics", before the Woman's Club on April 14th, will be interested to know that Mrs. Huber will continue her radio talks over WLIT every Friday at 2.45 P. M. during the remainder of the current session of the Pennsylvania Legislature.

On Tuesday, April 28th, from 7 to 7.30 P. M. Eastern Daylight Saving Time over WEAF, Mr. Charles P. Howland of Yale University, and Mr. Philip C. Jessup of Columbia University, will discuss the question of "Disarmament."

Early in June, the Delaware County League of Women Voters, at its headquarters in Media, will be hostess to a Five County Conference of Leagues, including Philadelphia, Bucks, Chester, Montgomery and Delaware counties. The program and hospitality committees are now at work making preparations for a successful event.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. Jarden Guenther, of "The Lodge", were guests at the Dinner given by the Mayor of Philadelphia for the delegates to the World Conference on Work for the Blind. Mr. Guenther is a Director of the Pennsylvania Home Teaching Society for the Blind.
