DEAN H. E. B. SPEIGHT ADDRESSES L. W. V.

Discusses International Questions at Opening Meeting of Local Branch

If this country sent out a call for a world economic conference to discuss "how the world ought to be fed and clothed and housed" we should be doing "something the world could rejoice in," Dean Harold E. B. Speight of Swarthmore College told the Swarthmore League of Women Voters at its opening fall meeting at the Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon.

"If we do not, what have we before us?" he added.

Dean Speight asserted that much of our own domestic difficulty was the result of "our inability to enter intelligently into the common life of the world."

"We have political sense but not economic sense," he said, suggesting incidentally that if from Washington were directed efforts to "make the United States a moral force to promote good will and intelligence," President Roosevelt would be re-elected next year.

The neutrality legislation passed by the last session of Congress at least represented a determination "to let the world know that the American people desired to be on the side of peace," the speaker went on. It was a direct repudiation of "forces which might involve us in war before we knew we were in it," he said, but felt it was possible that its framing was "unfortunate," partly because of the speed with which it was enacted.

Discussing the present Italo-Ethiopian situation, Dean Speight said that Premier Mussolini was "almost driven by the necessity of giving his people something to think about than how to feed his people a year from now."

He said that the nineteenth century problem of how to insure that an energetic people will have a legitimate outlet for their energies had not yet been solved. Such an outlet, he said, was what Italy was fundamentally asking for, and the situation was complicated by the character of Mussolini.

"People of explosive character," he added, "will not consent to be hemmed in. He warned at the same time that "the last thing a dictator should do is to go to war."

Dean Speight called attention to what he termed a "growing resentment" on the part of the black and yellow races against "the arrogance with which the white people have taken it upon themselves to rule." It might be that such a racial conflict could not be avoided, he said, advising that we "should be intelligent in trying to understand the underlying causes." This country, he declared, could not escape its responsibility for the future and "cannot afford isolation."

Dean Speight was introduced by Mrs. Waldo E. Fisher, chairman of the Department of Government and International Relations. Mrs. John Marshall, chairman of the Economic Welfare Department, announced that the November meeting would be addressed by Mrs. T. Judson Myers, executive secretary of the Delaware County Welfare Council. Mrs. J. Passmore Cheney, president of the League, presided. Tea was served.

COLLEGE SOCCER SEASON OPENS 14TH

Captain Oehmann Expects Much of Team in Contest with Franklin and Marshall

Captain Paul Oehmann, chief of the Swarthmore College soccer squad, expects to lead a victorious team this fall and has good reason for his opinion. Eight lettermen have returned and the quartet lost by graduation will have been satisfactorily replaced by October 11, when the referee's whistle will herald in the 1935 period at the start of an opening battle with Franklin and Marshall on the South Chester Road lot.

The graduation of Herb Harlow leaves a hole that will be filled with great difficulty. Harlow, a graduate of Swarthmore High, has been the brightest cog in the College soccer machine for several years and his excellent attack work was directly responsible for numerous conquests.

The lettermen now back in the outfit include Captain Oehmann, who plays on the front row; Mac Falconer, goal guard; Jack Beck, fullback; Payne Pearson, Leo Gburski, Ray Schroeder, Tommy Hallowell and Paul Peters, while a host of athletes yet to win letters will provide a list of substitutes to back up the veteran group.

H. S. Football Game Today

The first contest of this season for the Swarthmore High School football team will be with Springfield at 3.15 this afternoon on the Rutgers Avenue field.

Another home game will be played with Media next Friday.

Dr. Holmes to Open Citizens' Forum

Dr. Jesse H. Holmes, Emeritus Professor of Philosophy at Swarthmore College, will open the third season of the Chester Citizens' Forum, at the Chester Y. M. C. A., next Thursday night, October 10, at 8.15 o'clock. Dr. Holmes' topic will be "Power—God or Devil?"

Series of Literature Lectures

The French and English Departments of Swarthmore College announce a series of four lectures in literature to be held on Sunday evenings during October at the Friends' Meeting House.

The first lecture will be at 8 o'clock on October 6 when Norman L. Torrey will speak on "Voltaire and Modern Thought."

On October 13 Harold C. Goddard will be heard on "William Blake and the Imagination"; on October 20 Elisabeth Cox Wright on "Matthew Arnold and the Study of Poetry," and at the final lecture on October 27, Edith Philips on "Andre Gide and the Communist Movement."

All friends of the college are cordially invited to attend these lectures.

NEXT WEEK IS FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Charles Kimmel, Local Fire Chief, Reminds Residents of a Few Precautions

In commemoration of Fire Prevention Week, October 7 to 12, Charles Kimmel, chief of the Swarthmore Fire Department, lists a few DON'T'S which, if applied, will go far toward avoiding fires, which most always, after all, can be avoided by carefulness and common sense methods:

"Do not put hot ashes in wooden or cardboard containers—use metal.

"Do not burn rubbish outside on windy days.

"Do not use matches or candles in closets; be very careful of open flames at all times.

"Do not carelessly dispose of cigarette butts.

"Be careful of matches.

"Do not store oily mops or rags used for waxing; put them in a metal container, where, if spontaneous combustion occurs, it can be quickly curbed.

"Inspect your smoke pipe and chimney. Soot will burn.

"Thaw frozen pipes with hot water, not flame.

"When you burn leaves be sure you have them far enough away from any buildings.

"Remember, fire is one of our most dangerous and costly public enemies, and a little prevention is worth a pound of cure.

"Above all, do not hesitate to call the Fire Department."

TO RESUME WORK ON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Children's Books to Be Issued Saturday Afternoons at Temporary Headquarters

As the Swarthmore Public Library Board met on Monday evening, resuming its regular monthly meetings, all committee chairmen gave reports.

Roland L. Eaton, president, reported that he had interviewed the head of the WPA and received a promise that work would be resumed this morning, Friday, on the remodeling of the library in Borough Hall, which was discontinued late in July, a month after the project was begun, when the labor was to be transferred from the Local Works Division to the Works Progress Administration.

There is about a third of the work yet to be completed. It is hoped that the renovations will be finished and the library reinstated within three or four weeks.

Meanwhile it has been decided to keep the temporary room on the third floor of Borough Hall, open from 2 until 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoons when Mrs. Harold G. Griffin and Mrs. Peter E. Told will issue juvenile books only. Adult books will be exchanged as usual on Monday and Wednesday afternoons and on Saturday mornings.

Swarthmore Bridge Club Notes

Mr. Bayard Morrison, Sr., who has done so much to develop contract bridge in Swarthmore and who was largely responsible in organizing the Men's Bridge Club, was welcomed back after several months' absence.

He and Raymond Hickox teamed together at last week's regular Wednesday meeting in Borough Hall and were "top" in a field of eleven teams, thereby checking the onrush of new players who have been "showing up" the boys of late.

Owing to a slight mix-up in play last week, there was a delay in scoring, with the result that some of the members did not get home until nearly 1 A. M., and now it is rumored that the Swarthmore Chapter of the Amalgamated Order of Bridge Widows is seething with open rebellion against the local male devotees of Culbertson, Simms, the Official System, and so forth.

George Cross, a popular member and one of the top flight players, has returned from Rehoboth Beach, Del., and is now recuperating from several weeks' illness. The Club is hoping to see him "fill in" soon.

In reply to the recent announcement of a possible competition in the near future between ladies' teams and the men, we have been given to understand that the women did take on the men last May 24 at the home of Mr. Bayard H. Morrison, of Thayer Road, and beat them rather badly as a comeback for a previous defeat at the hands of the male experts.

The ladies plan to oppose the men again soon and we shall see who gets the best out of three meets.

Richard T. Randall, founder and head of R. T. Randall Company, 331 North 2nd Street, Philadelphia, packers' machinery and supplies, died Wednesday at his home, 406 Thayer Road, Swarthmore, after several months' illness. He was 75.

He was born in Philadelphia and in 1883 established the concern which bears his name. For many years he served as vestryman of the Episcopal Church of the Saviour, 38th Street above Chestnut, Philadelphia. His wife, Mrs. Florence F. Randall; two sons, Richard T., Jr., and Wayne H., and a daughter, Mrs. Richard G. Haig, all of Swarthmore, survive.

Services were conducted at 1 P. M. Saturday from the family residence by Rev. Wilnot Gateson, rector of the Church of the Saviour. Interment was in Woodlands Cemetery.

FIRST DAY SCHOOL OPENS THIS SUNDAY

Swarthmore Friends Plan Sunday School Programs for All Ages

The Swarthmore Friends' Meeting starts its Sunday School program next Sunday at 9.45. Peter E. Told is to be the superintendent and Mrs. Roy Delaplain is to be in charge of the primary department. A committee of twenty-seven members of the Meeting have arranged a very interesting program for the various groups in the school. From the beginners on up there will be graded Bible study, combined with study in other fields which contribute to a more thorough understanding of religious history and the present work of Christianity. A class for all interested adults will be led by various prominent Friends, in turn, in a year's study of the theory and practice of Quakerism. This course has been outlined by Janet Payne Whitney, a young English Quaker of note, who will lead the class for the first four consecutive times. College students and any others interested to know more about this body of Christian thought and practice are most cordially invited to attend this class regularly. It meets at the same time as the children's Sunday or "First Day" School—9.45—beginning October 6. The large adult group, however, meets in the Meeting House instead of Whittier House, where the children are to go.

Mrs. Paul Furnas, chairman of the First Day School Committee, will take the first thirty minutes of the adult class at its first meeting to briefly explain the plans of the school as to its liberal point of view and its emphasis on worship and Christian service. Parents are particularly requested to attend this meeting in order to discuss these plans. The children will meanwhile be getting under way with their teachers in the other end of the building.

Needlework Membership Week

Throughout the United States the second week in October is recognized among Needlework Guild workers as "National Membership Week." Each year the Swarthmore members have tried for the goal, 100% membership. Thus far they have not made the grade. However, they are still striving, and appeal to every woman to make this an individual and personal matter so that this year when suffering and distress stalk nakedly among mankind the local branch may realize the coveted goal.

If every woman will give two new garments or an equivalent contribution in money she will become a member of the Guild. For information telephone Mrs. William West, president, 508-J, or Mrs. J. V. S. Bishop, secretary of the local branch, 627-J.

Vesper Service This Sunday

Alexander McCurdy presented an organ recital at the opening Vesper Service in Clothier Memorial, Swarthmore College, last Sunday evening.

At 6.30 this Sunday evening Professor Robert K. Enders will continue the series of talks which was begun last year on "What I Believe In."

Aboard Rotterdam

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Neuweiler, of Allentown, were among the passengers who were aboard the liner Rotterdam which went aground early Monday on a reef at Morant Cays, sixty miles southeast of Jamaica, after having been blown off its course. Mrs. Neuweiler, who is the former Miss Jane Hanna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hanna, of Maple Avenue, was on a two weeks' cruise with her husband, with whom she was taken ashore safely and now awaits passage home.

BOROUGH PLANS TO ADD NEW SEWERS

Residents May Have Sidewalks and Curbs Built by Paying Cost of Materials

A letter to Burgess Pitman contained the information that free labor may be obtained for building sidewalks if the property owners will pay the cost of materials, which amounts to about 12 cents per square foot and 45c per lineal foot for curb and gutter. Anyone wishing to make application should get in touch with the Borough Secretary, Elliott Richardson.

The solicitor was authorized to draw an ordinance extending the business zone to include the lot belonging to Victor D. Shirer to which the old bank building was moved.

A new street light, which was requested by Charles Andes, was ordered placed at the corner of Rutgers and Westdale Avenues.

The borough officers were authorized to enter into a new depository agreement with the Swarthmore National Bank and Trust Company, by which the bank can deposit government bonds in place of surety bonds with the Federal Reserve Bank to protect the balance which the borough carries at the bank.

A new sewer for the use of residents on lower Park Avenue, Haverford Place and Girard Avenue was discussed at length. The plans contemplate the Borough and Ridley Township joining together and making an application to the WPA for free labor, which would greatly decrease the cost of the project. One hundred and fifteen feet would be laid on Haverford Place, 575 feet on Park Avenue, 721 feet on Michigan Avenue, 1519 feet on Girard Avenue and 540 feet to the existing outfall sewer. Of this amount 1511 feet would be in Swarthmore and 540 feet would be used in common with Ridley Township. If the Borough paid for the materials and supplies for the sewer within its limits and the sewer were used in common, the cost would be approximately $2500. The sewer committee was authorized to negotiate an agreement with Ridley Township on the construction and operation of this proposed sewer.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO OPEN NEXT TUESDAY

Various Educational Programs Worth-while Pastime for Local Women

The Swarthmore Woman's Club, which holds its opening tea next Tuesday, offers splendid opportunities to those who are interested in art or literature.

The Art Department will, this year, as usual, make trips to the Academy of Fine Arts for the Water Color Exhibit and the Oil Exhibit. The Graphic Sketch Club will be visited, and the Parkway Oil Exhibit, as well as the Exhibit of Ten at the Philadelphia Art Club.

The Art Department has become a member of the Circulating Picture Club of the Art Alliance and also of the Circulating Picture Club of Delaware County. This will bring two pictures a month to the Woman's Club of Swarthmore and anyone particularly interested in this educational project may receive pictures in the home if she becomes a member of the Federation Club of Delaware County.

The Literature Chairman and committee plan to give interesting programs reviewing new books of fiction, biographies and current literature topics. In this busy world what better way could there be to become familiar with good literature?

The Junior Woman's Club will soon start its calendar of events. The Flower Show Committee was most appreciative of the Juniors' co-operation in selling ice cream and cake at the annual exhibit of flowers. Nine members responded to this work and were most efficient.

Media Theatre to Start Kiddies' Stamp Club

Of interest to children in and around Swarthmore should be the announcement by the management of the Media Theatre that beginning this Saturday matinee, each child, boy or girl, will be enrolled as a member of the Ivory Stamp Club.

On this first Saturday, every boy and girl will receive a large, beautiful stamp album containing 132 pages, spaces for 4000 stamps, and on each succeeding week's attendance a packet of rare stamps from the various countries of the world will be the theatre's gift to these children.

Lovely Weddings In Presbyterian Church

Mary Child, John Foster; Lula Hills, Amzi McVay Married Saturday

The Swarthmore Presbyterian Church was the scene of two lovely fall weddings on Saturday afternoon.

At 2:30 the nuptials which joined in holy wedlock Miss Mary Child, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic A. Child, of Vassar Avenue, and John Clayton Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. James Foster, of South Chester Road, were performed by the Rev. Dr. John Elery Tuttle, pastor of the church. Dr. Tuttle was assisted by the Rev. Paul Musselman, of St. James Episcopal Church, Downingtown.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sister, Miss Adrienne Child, as maid of honor. The bridesmaids included Mrs. Harold Connors, of Ardmore; Reuben Nordblom, of Narberth; Rudson Wemrich, of Lansdowne; Reed Morgan, of Roxborough, and Proctor Wetherill, of Penn Valley.

The bride wore an imported gown of pale rose-blush crepe chiffon, with a flowing veil of the same tint. A small cluster of orange blossoms at each side of her face held in place her cap and face veil. She carried a small white prayerbook with streamers of white ribbon holding small white flowers.

The junior bridesmaids wore frocks of lavender taffeta, and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Deep sultan purple velvet fashioned the gowns of the senior bridesmaids, which were made on long lines with flowing sleeves, and sashes of golden yellow and leaf green. They carried arm bouquets of wine red dahlias.

The maid of honor's dress was of velvet in a rich shade of golden yellow, with sash of purple and leaf green. She carried deep purple asters. All the attendants wore halos of twisted velvet in their hair. The flower girl wore a "Kate Greenaway" costume of pale lavender taffeta and carried a yellow basket filled with purple flowers.

About two hundred guests attended the reception which was held at the home of the bride's parents following the wedding which also celebrated the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Child as well as the fiftieth anniversary of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Blecker, of Martha's Vineyard, Mass. The bride's bouquet was caught by her sister, Ruth.

Both at the church and at the home moving pictures in color were taken by Norman Dunsee, of Media, friend of the family, whose hobby is technicolor photography.

The couple are spending their honeymoon at the Hotel Pennsylvania, New York City. Next week-end they will spend at Sam Scoville's camp, Pine Barrens, in New Jersey. After November 1st, they will be at home at the Elm Apartments, on Park Avenue, Swarthmore.

The bride attended Swarthmore High School, graduated from Mary Baldwin Seminary, Stanton, Va., attended Hood College, and received her B. S. degree from the University of Boston in 1933. She has been very active in Girl Scout work, finishing ten consecutive years, and has achieved the Golden Eagle Scout in that work.

Mr. Foster, who is field Scout Executive of the Delaware and Montgomery County Council, is a graduate of Montgomery School, Wynnewood, where he later taught. He is a Golden Eagle Scout.

Mr. Blecker returned to Martha's Vineyard after the week-end, but Mrs. Blecker will remain for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Child. Among the other out of town guests at the wedding were: Mrs. Lina C. Quinby, of East Orange, N. J., great aunt of the bride; Mrs. Curtis J. Flory, of Green Village, N. J., who was one of the bridesmaids at Mr. and Mrs. Child's wedding; Mr. and Mrs. Umer Goodman, of Rahway, N. J., former Swarthmoreans; Mr. and Mrs. Westford Cutler, of Westfield, N. J., cousins of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Howard, of Germantown; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Scoville, of Haverford; Mr. and Mrs. Martin I. Lefler and Miss Mary Snyder, of Reading, and John Child, brother of the bride, who returned from Perkiomen School for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Child entertained the members of the bridal party with a dinner party on Friday.

At 4 o'clock the marriage of Miss Lula Annette Hills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt A. Hills, of Elm Avenue, and Mr. Amzi Godden McVay, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McVay, of Birmingham, Alabama, took place with Dr. Tuttle officiating.

The bride entered the church upon the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of ivory satin with fine lace yoke. Her cap and veil were held in place by orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was of white roses.

Miss Virginia Bassett, of Swarthmore, was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids; Miss Doreen Mitchell, of Wallingford; Miss Helen Jones, of Swarthmore;

THE SWARTHMOREAN

OCTOBER 11, 1935

Miss Betty Remington, of Philadelphia. There were two junior bridesmaids, Dorothy Blecker, of York, a cousin of the bride, and Ruth C. Child, another sister of the bride. Patricia Ruth Smoker, of Miami, Fla., cousin of the bride, was the flower girl.

Frank A. Fortescue, of Mt. Airy, acted as best man for Mr. Foster. The ushers were Harold Connors, of Ardmore; Guerdon Scoville, of Henshey; Reuben Nordblom, of Narberth; Rudson Wemrich, of Lansdowne; Reed Morgan, of Roxborough, and Proctor Wetherill, of Penn Valley.

The bride wore an imported gown of pale rose-blush crepe chiffon, with a flowing veil of the same tint. A small cluster of orange blossoms at each side of her face held in place her cap and face veil. She carried a small white prayerbook with streamers of white ribbon holding small white flowers.

The junior bridesmaids wore frocks of lavender taffeta, and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Deep sultan purple velvet fashioned the gowns of the senior bridesmaids, which were made on long lines with flowing sleeves, and sashes of golden yellow and leaf green. They carried arm bouquets of wine red dahlias.

The maid of honor's dress was of velvet in a rich shade of golden yellow, with sash of purple and leaf green. She carried deep purple asters. All the attendants wore halos of twisted velvet in their hair. The flower girl wore a "Kate Greenaway" costume of pale lavender taffeta and carried a yellow basket filled with purple flowers.

About two hundred guests attended the reception which was held at the home of the bride's parents following the wedding which also celebrated the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Child as well as the fiftieth anniversary of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Blecker, of Martha's Vineyard, Mass. The bride's bouquet was caught by her sister, Ruth.

Both at the church and at the home moving pictures in color were taken by Norman Dunsee, of Media, friend of the family, whose hobby is technicolor photography.

The couple are spending their honeymoon at the Hotel Pennsylvania, New York City. Next week-end they will spend at Sam Scoville's camp, Pine Barrens, in New Jersey. After November 1st, they will be at home at the Elm Apartments, on Park Avenue, Swarthmore.

ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW AT SCHOOLS

Class Rooms of College Avenue and Rutgers Avenue Buildings Filled with Blooms

The class rooms of the two grade school buildings were converted into flower gardens Tuesday, October 8, with lovely displays of fall flowers. The occasion was the annual flower show conducted by the children of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades.

Each child in the room was invited to bring a display of fall flowers to his or her room. The displays were judged on arrangement, condition of flowers and appropriateness of vase or base. The judges of the displays were Mrs. Ross Marriott, Mrs. Alfred Smalley, Sr. and Mrs. George Zimmer. The committee of judges had difficulty in selecting the best room display in each building, but finally awarded an American flag to Miss Moore's fifth grade room in the Rutgers Avenue building and to Miss Weber's sixth grade room and Mr. Bell's seventh grade room in the College Avenue building.

The following individual awards were made: Helen Hawkes received a bronze medal for the best individual display in the two third grade rooms, honorable mention going to Charles Moore. In the fourth grade Eleanor Bye received the bronze medal and Edward Beifield, honorable mention. The medal award in the fifth grade was won by Billy Sickle, with Mary Frances Dimmitt receiving honorable mention. In the sixth grade, Harry Schofield won the bronze medal and David Spach received honorable mention. Similar awards were made in the seventh grade.

COUNCIL OBJECTS TO LIQUOR STORE

Lafayette Avenue Property Owners Seek Information at Public Hearing

At the regular meeting of Borough Council Wednesday evening the proposed liquor store for Swarthmore was discussed at great length. J. Archer Turner, president of Council, read a telegram which had been sent to Governor Eare protesting the establishment of a store here. Solicitor Meyers quoted the state act which said "that after the advertisement of the location of a state store the citizens had five days in which to present petitions to the court against the location of a store on the proposed site."

It was felt that the petitions which were circulated in the Borough displayed the sentiments of an overwhelming majority of the citizens. Therefore, Council requested the Solicitor to deliver the petitions in person and explain the great opposition to such a store, and authorized payment of his expenses to Harrisburg on this mission.

Several residents of Lafayette Avenue were present asking information from the Council on the assessment for the paving of Lafayette Avenue was to be made. Some of the property owners have corner lots, others have triangular lots and a retaining wall is to be used along the stream in front of two of the properties.

They also asked information on how the payments could be financed over a period of time. The members of council stated that adjustments would be made in the cases of corner and irregular lots, the cost of the retaining wall will be allocated between all of the property owners. Clarence G. Meyers, solicitor, explained that according to law that the assessors had 6 months in which to pay their assessed costs, after that liens would be levied, but arrangements could be made to pay them off in installments.

It was explained that the material and equipment would cost about $4,705 which would make the cost not $2 and $2.50 per lineal foot. This does not include the $5,000 of free labor granted by the W. P. A.

Henry Hoot, of the Tree Committee, reported 20 trees in the borough nursery were large enough to be transplanted this winter and would be placed on South Chester Road. The borough secretary was authorized to petition the W. P. A. for labor for pruning shade trees on the borough streets this winter.

Other routine business was enacted, with the meeting being adjourned until tonight at 7:45, when the bids for materials to be used in the paving of Lafayette Avenue, will be opened.

THOMAS C. SHAFFER

Interesting Events Planned for Near Future Reported by Section Chairmen

The first stated meeting of the current year was held by the Swarthmore Woman's Club at the clubhouse on Park Avenue on Tuesday, October 15. Mr. Thomas C. Shaffer, well-known writer, traveler and lecturer on economic subjects delivered a most interesting and instructive discourse on "The Ethiopian in the European Woodpile." Introduced by Mrs. Roland Eaton, chairman of the program committee, Mr. Shaffer described in clear and forcible style the causes which have maintained the present conflict between Italy and Ethiopia. A close student of world affairs, he was able to paint a vivid picture of conditions in Ethiopia and outline the Italian position in its activities in Ethiopian territory. Mr. Shaffer took the position that no nation goes to war from a purely altruistic motive; that aside from Italy's desire to see slavery abolished in Ethiopia, the Italian nation was vitally concerned with the question of territorial expansion. He further explained in detail the interest of other countries, notably Great Britain and France, in protecting their integral rights in connection with the Italo-Ethiopian conflict, and closed his remarks with the statement that the surest way to prevent or avert war is to abolish economic and political nationalisms.

Another feature of the meeting was reported by the president, Mrs. Roland G. Ullman, of the Fortieth Annual Convention of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women, which she attended at Erie September 29 to October 4. In her own vivid and inimitable style, Mrs. Ullman imparted to the club members her enthusiasm for the convention, stressing the hospitality, promptness and harmony which prevailed at the Erie meeting, as well as the value of addresses made by Ralph Fink, David Seabury, Mrs. Thomas N. Hepburn, Dr. R. A. D. Gillis, Katherine Lenroot and the president, Mrs. John M. Phillips.

Club business consisted of a reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the recording secretary, Mrs. Mabel Fisher Williams; a report by the treasurer, Mrs. C. C. West, and the following announcements by chairman of sections:

Mrs. Joseph Seal, chairman of the health and welfare section. A card party and fashion show to be held by the section on Monday, November 4, at 2 P. M. at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Horace Water had with her the petition which Swarthmore residents are asked to sign to prevent the establishment of a State Liquor Store in Swarthmore and gave opportunity for members to enter their names thereon.

Townpeople Gather in Methodist Church; Telegrams Sent to Harrisburg, Petitions Circulated

A mass meeting of the townpeople in protest against the proposed State Liquor Store in Swarthmore was announced in the Thursday's paper, was held in the Swarthmore Methodist Church at 2:30 last Sunday afternoon. The meeting, at which there were more than a hundred and twenty-five present, was called by Burgess John H. Pitman, at the request of many citizens of the Borough. Chester Roberts acted as secretary of the meeting, at which Mr. Pitman presided, and informed the assembly of the steps which had already been taken in the matter. President Frank Aydelotte, of Swarthmore College, as well as the School Board and many individuals of the town, upon learning of the proposition, sent telegrams to Harrisburg requesting an opportunity to present objections.

The following letter, which was written to Governor Eare by Dr. J. Russell Smith, of Elm Avenue, is an example of the intense feeling of Swarthmoreans relative to the establishing of a liquor store in the Borough:

"This community was shocked to read in the newspapers recently that the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board proposed to establish a large number of new liquor stores, including one in Swarthmore, a residential borough and educational center, as I see it, a permission for the people to again do as they please in this matter, but this action of the State in pushing the sale of this maker automobile accidents and other trouble is quite another matter. It certainly puts the State in the position of debaucher and destroyer. What can the citizens do to stop this action on the part of the State?"

"As I remember the campaign against the Eighteenth Amendment, it was repeated over and over again that the movement to restore the sale of alcohol was a movement toward the ruin of the State. It was said to be very great because of ill-fate." Although Swarthmore voted 812 yes to 490 no on Prohibition in the November election of 1918, it is estimated that only one out of every ten would not sign the petition which had been prepared and were circulated after the meeting. Burgess Pitman divided the town into 39 districts, each of which averaged about 25 signers, making a total of about 1500 opposed to the establishing of a liquor store here.

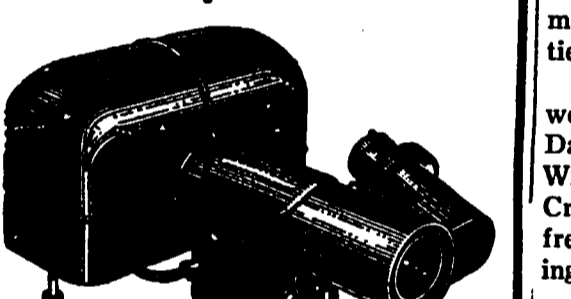

It is probable that the result of the aforementioned election is that the Swarthmore being held a fair prospect for a liquor store, even though most people when questioned reply that they voted for repeal simply because they felt that prohibition was not the proper method to cope with the situation.

Not only have people been willing to sign the petitions, but some who were not contacted have gone to the trouble to locate a petition and sign it. For the convenience of those who are not yet represented on a petition, Burgess Pitman has placed a blank in the SWARTHMOREAN office where we will be glad to have residents stop and sign. Those who circulated the petitions in the 39 districts were: Burgess Pitman, Miss Elizabeth Steel, Miss Mae Lynd, Mrs. Harvey Pierce, T. Baird, Crosby Morton, Mrs. Dwight Cooley, Mrs. George Van Alen, William Dowdington, J. Warren Paxton, Samuel Widson, Mrs. Stanley MacMillan, Paul Paulson, Mrs. Edward Boyd, Mrs. William Hoffman, Mrs. George W. Warren, Mrs. Roy Lingle, Mrs. Edwin A. Yarnall, Benjamin A. Kneeder, Jr., Mrs. Alfred Fassitt, Haldy M. Crist, George Flood, Rev. Thomas Meryweather, Mrs. William H. West, Louis W. King, Charles Deacon, Chester Roberts, Samuel M. Dodd, Mrs. J. Donald Gibson, Mrs. Arthur Kent, Mrs. L. C. Sero, Miss Olive Cleaves, J. Russell Smith, Mrs. Harold Barnes, Carl Weaver, Mrs. Edward H. Bonnell, Jr., Alfred Fassitt, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Roberts took charge of three districts.

For obvious reasons it is held that such an invasion would be most undesirable as well as detrimental to the assured safety of the resident families and the character (Continued on Page 4)

THANKS BURGESS PITMAN

To the Editor: "As a citizen of the Borough I wish to publicly to express my appreciation of the good work of our Burgess, Dr. John Pitman, in the sudden emergency of the proposal of the State Liquor Control Board to put a State liquor store in the Borough of Swarthmore."

"Burgess Pitman at once got in touch with the Liquor Control Board and seems to have followed the matter as closely as the most efficient lobbyist in the employ of the plunderbund."

"At a public meeting called Sunday afternoon in the Methodist Church, he had the town district, divided into 39 small units, each marked out on a map, the boundary of each one written out on a numbered slip, attached to blank petitions ready for the citizens to take on their work of canvassing the whole town in short order, and thus in effect getting up a special referendum and bringing public opinion to focus in what was probably the most effective way possible at this time."

"It is a fine example of what a local government should do, and I am sure that there are hundreds of others who share my appreciation of the good work of the Burgess in this connection. It is only by such devoted service on the part of many that we can keep good government."

J. RUSSELL SMITH.

UNUSUAL PROGRAMS COMING TO COLLEGE

John Goss' London Singers and Mme. Schumann First on Cooper Foundation List

The William J. Cooper Foundation brings to the student body of Swarthmore College and the College community this year John Goss and the London Singers; Mme. Elizabeth Schumann, German Lieder soprano; Charles Weidman and, Doris Humphrey, and Sir Arthur Salter, Oxford Professor.

The first Cooper Foundation program will be John Goss and the London Singers, who will give a concert here on Friday evening, December 13. This group of artists appeared here three years ago and are very well known.

The second of the programs to be brought here by the gift of William J. Cooper is Mme. Elizabeth Schumann, acknowledged one of the foremost interpreters of German classical composers. This recital will be given in Clothier Memorial on January 18.

The Statopeter in Vienna claims Mme. Schumann as its leading soprano. It is in Vienna that she now makes her home, but her birthplace was a little town in central Germany. The noted lieder singer was not twenty when she made her debut as leading soprano of the Hamburg Opera Company. Here Dr. Richard Strauss heard her, and in 1921 he introduced her to this country with her first performance at the Metropolitan.

Mme. Schumann has sung in all the leading opera houses of Europe, at Covent Garden in London, in Buenos Aires and in Rio de Janeiro. Following her operatic and concert engagements in Copenhagen, she received from the Danish King the decoration of the High Order for Art and Science.

The dance recital to be given on February 14 by Charles Weidman and Doris Humphrey brings to Swarthmore the foremost American exponents of contemporary dancing. Both of them are not only exceptionally gifted solo dancers, but also choreographers of originality and imagination. These two were born in the middle west—Miss Humphrey in Chicago and Mr. Weidman in Nebraska.

They received their preliminary training with the Denishaws, travelling with them on an extensive tour of the Orient. On their return they were ready to start off by themselves and joined forces in opening a school in New York. Breaking away from the idea of having the dance tell a story, they evolved a choreography which put the emphasis on purely rhythmic motion. They grew rapidly in importance and have appeared with the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra, the Cleveland Symphony, and the Philadelphia Symphony. In the theatrical field they arranged the dance numbers for Americanos, "As Thousands Cheer" and "School for Husbands."

On March 19 Sir Arthur Salter, Gladstone Professor of Political Theory and Institution, Oxford University, will give the first of his five lectures. Since 1932 he has been a member of the Economic Advisory Council. During the World War he was Secretary of Allied Maritime Transport Council. In May, 1918, he was sent to America on a special shipping mission. The General Secretariat of the Reparation Commission from 1920 to 1922 was filled by Sir Arthur Salter. Until 1930 he was director of the Economic and Finance Section of the League of Nations.

NO LIQUOR STORE FOR SWARTHMORE

Proposal Withdrawn in Consideration of Violent Local Opposition

The following letter which was sent to J. Archer Turner, President of Borough Council, by Governor George H. Earle, will delay the apprehensions of the many who feared to see a liquor store established in Swarthmore.

"Thank you for your telegram of October 14, regarding the proposed establishment of a State Liquor Store in Swarthmore.

"I am advised that the Liquor Control Board has investigated conditions at Swarthmore and, in view of the local sentiment against the store, has decided to abandon the plans for locating one in that community."

Charles G. Myers, Borough Solicitor, who wrote the State Liquor Control Board on behalf of Council, received a reply, substantially the same as the above, from Ben G. Helsel.

Since the appearance in the daily papers two weeks ago of an announcement that State Liquor Stores were to be set up in several Delaware County towns, including Swarthmore, there has been considerable uneasiness among the townspeople who joined in protest at a Mass Meeting in the Methodist Church on October 13.

Harrisburg was bombarded with telegrams and letters from leading citizens of the Borough, making convincingly evident the sentiment of the town regarding the matter.

Council authorized payment of expenses to send Burgess John H. Pitman, active leader in the battle against the store, to Harrisburg to present in person, petitions which had been circulated and were signed by 1500 citizens. Upon learning of the withdrawal of the proposal Burgess Pitman cancelled his trip.

ALL-PARTISAN MEETING HERE TUESDAY

Election Issues, and Candidates to Be Discussed at Friends' Meeting House

Judging from the total vote of the citizens of Swarthmore in the recent Primary Election, the choosing of County and local Officers arouses very little sense of responsibility. To stimulate interest in the coming election, a Committee from the Swarthmore Society of Friends, consisting of Juliet C. Kent, J. Warren Paxon and James F. Bogardus has arranged an All-Partisan Meeting to be held in the Friends' Meeting House on the College Campus on coming Tuesday evening, October 29, at 8 o'clock. Representatives of four Political parties will give short talks in which each will champion the issues and candidates of his party.

Mr. Albert B. Marks, of Lansdowne, will speak for the Democratic Party. Mr. Winfield W. Crawford, of Wayne, candidate for the office of Register of Wills, will be the Republican speaker. Mr. Paul G. Smith of Crozer Theological Seminary will represent the Socialist Party, and Mr. C. Wilfred Conrad, of Lansdowne, the Prohibition Party.

Two of the candidates for the Swarthmore Borough Council, Mr. T. E. Hessebruch and Mr. J. F. Meschter will speak briefly of Borough matters. Mr. D. Chandler Prince has also expressed his willingness to be present if possible. Dr. Frank Williams will be out of town. Alben T. Eavenson expressed an interest in attending the meeting, as will the candidates for School Board. Time will be given for questions and it is hoped that every Swarthmore voter will avail himself of this splendid opportunity for information before going to the Polls in November.

For a Real Halloween

Each year Halloween approaches most children experience mischievous tendencies. Since there have been a large number of electric lights broken recently about the Borough, the SWARTHMOREAN has been asked to appeal to the youths who think they find pleasure in this pastime.

Surely there is no real fun in a practice which only causes trouble and injury to others, as well as subjects the perpetrator to arrest and fine. So let's all co-operate and make this Halloween an example of good wholesome fun only.

Children's Halloween Parade Thursday; Prizes Offered for Best Costumes

Swarthmore's fifth annual Halloween parade is to be held this year on Thursday evening, October 31, at 7 o'clock. The parade will focus on Railroad Avenue and prizes will be given to the first, second and third winners in each of the four classifications.

Each year the size of the parade has grown, until there were over five hundred children last year.

The parade will focus on Railroad Avenue just behind the American Store. The route of the parade will be from the station platform along the underpass to the Bank then back to Park Avenue and along the first block of Park Avenue and back to the point of departure.

The procession will be led out a division at a time and marched in front of the judges. Spectators may see the marchers from the sidewalks along the first block of Park Avenue and the underpass.

There will be four divisions, the Fancy Dress, Comic, Miscellaneous and Original. All of the children in the

NEW OFFICERS FOR HOME AND SCHOOL

Roland G. E. Ullman to Succeed William Craemer as President

The Home and School Association held its opening fall meeting in the High School Auditorium, Wednesday evening.

The meeting opened with a business session under the direction of William Craemer, president.

The Nominating Committee consisting of Elric S. Sproat, chairman; Mrs. Allan S. Thorn and Mrs. C. S. Cleaves, presented the following slate which was duly elected: Roland G. E. Ullman, president; Howard Kirk, vice-president; Mrs. Walter H. Dickinson, secretary, and Mrs. W. Burton Richards, treasurer.

After the business session an interesting and special musical program was provided by Edna Coates Colafemina, violinist, and Donato Colafemina, tenor. Mrs. Colafemina is the violin instructor teaching pupils of the College and Rutgers Avenue Schools. There were a few brief talks by Mr. Frank R. Morey of the school, who outlined some of the new plans and curricular changes in effect this year.

Fire Company Notes

There were three fire alarms this week, none resulting in any serious damage.

At 1:40 P. M. on Sunday the department answered a call to 904 Westdale Avenue, where an automobile was on fire. The fire was extinguished before the fire truck arrived. The following day a fire fire on Fairview Road, was finally put out after two hours of driving at the speed of 40 miles per hour on Yale Avenue and falling to stop at Chester Road.

At 12:40 A. M. on October 20, James McComb Sinclair, of Claymont, Del., was also summoned to appear at 8:00 P. M. on October 25, for driving at the speed of 40 miles per hour on Yale Avenue and falling to stop at Chester Road.

At 2:15 P. M. on the 21st, a collision occurred at Walnut Lane and Ogden Avenue, between the car of Dr. W. F. G. Swann, of Ogden Avenue, driven by John A. Kohl, and the car of Mrs. C. C. West of Walnut Lane, who was driving. Both cars were damaged but no one was injured.

RECORDER OF DEEDS OFFICE PRAISED

Register of Wills Responsible for Collection of $1,000,000 Estate Taxes

Courtesy and efficiency form the basis of the successful conduct of business in the various Delaware County offices located in the Court House in Media.

Wild and untruthful charges that inefficiency, discourtesy and inattention to duty characterize the average county official and officeholder is disproved by trust of officials, attorneys, daily visitors who have business in the Court House.

In this connection a deserved tribute to the regular routine in the Recorder of Deeds' office, which is applicable to every other office under Republican rule, was contained in an editorial comment in the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin on August 3, 1934, as follows:

"Media used to mean to us the town where we turned toward Moylan and Hedgerow, but Media has a Court House, that is really distinguished, set back from the street in a pleasant square, surrounded by tall green trees, lending a pristine air of innocence to political science. And the Media politicians—they are something to be spoken of in hushed admiration. In the office of the Recorder of Deeds, clerks came over gently and begged to be out of service. There wasn't a pair of suspenders in view, nor such a thing as an obtrusive spittoon, surrounded by evidence of the poor sight of politicians, or their bad sense of direction. The Media politicians seem to believe in daily shaves, tub baths, and clean linen, and removing their cigars from their mouths when they talk. We don't know what the politics are in Media, but the politicians are something we will never forget."

The Register of Wills office, an important branch of the county government has a high reputation among trust officers and attorneys and is outstanding for courtesy and efficiency. That enviable record has been consistently maintained for the last eight years. The alertness and business acumen of the Register, as an agent of the Commonwealth, resulted in the process of three important estates, lodged in other states, being administered here after proceedings had been instituted to reclaim them for Pennsylvania.

The Register was successful in all three which netted the state treasury more than $18,500,000. The treasury of Delaware County benefited to the extent of $1,100,000.

W. I. L. Meeting Next Monday

PLAYERS CLUB BUSY PLANNING SEASON

To Open in November with Revival of "Erstwhile Susan"; First Junior Play Nov. 16

The Players Club of Swarthmore this year celebrates its twenty-fifth anniversary. Under the leadership of Dr. Andrew F. Jackson, this outstanding amateur dramatic organization will again present a series of eight senior productions and four junior plays. As in the past the productions will be directed by the men who have helped raise the club to its present high position among the little theatre organizations of the country. The roster of players will include those men and women of the community and surrounding towns who have contributed so much to the success of past performances.

Swarthmore's Players Club has grown from an unpretentious beginning of a few townspeople who stage minstrel shows and one-act sketches to its present organization, now owning its own theatre. To commemorate this progress the Board of Governors has voted this year to issue an anniversary year book. This volume will contain a short but comprehensive history of the club since its inception in 1911, a list of past presidents and a complete list of all plays and performances given up to the close of the 1934-1935 season last May. Included will be a full membership list.

A concerted effort will be made this year to build up the club membership. With a full membership the club will be in a position to produce some very desirable plays which, because of production costs, have been prohibitive in the past. As an organization, the club is a non-profit making enterprise and the management points with pride to the fact that even during the recent economic distress the club's budget was balanced and its obligations promptly met.

While the complete schedule of plays to be produced this year has not yet been announced, the season will open with a revival of "Erstwhile Susan," produced on February 10, 1911, and will continue in the Women's Club. J. William Simmons will make his bow to club audiences as a director with this initial production, which will have its first showing on Wednesday, November 5, and will continue through Saturday of that week. The cast will be substantially the same as that which originally presented the play. Some substitutions have been necessary, but the complete cast will be announced in the SWARTHMOREAN next week.

Charles D. Mitchell will direct the December play with Dr. Andrew F. Jackson following with the January production. The February season the club will be under the direction of Roy C. Comley, March, Roland G. E. Ullman; April, D. Malcolm Hodge, and May, John Dolman, Jr.

Another play already scheduled is "The Piper" as the first junior series play, which will be directed by T. Lawton Slauch. The cast for this play will shortly be announced. "The Piper," by Josephine Preston Peabody, will be presented at the club house Saturday, November 16. A matinee and evening performance will be given.

LEGION HOLDS PAST COMMANDERS' NIGHT

Colonel John Murphy Traces Post History; Men to Attend Armistice Day Services

The regular monthly meeting of the Harold Ainsworth Legion Post was held Monday evening, October 21, in the Legion rooms at the Borough Hall.

The meeting, known as Past Commanders' Night, was made particularly interesting by the fact that there were nine Past Commanders present. Medals were awarded to all the Past Commanders who had not previously received them.

There were approximately thirty members present who enjoyed hearing Col. John Murphy present in a most interesting manner the history of the Post from its inception.

In honor of Armistice Day the Legion men were requested to attend Church Services at the Episcopal Church on Sunday, November 10.

Vesper Service

An organ recital by Alexander McCurdy will be the feature of the Vesper Service at 6:30, Sunday evening in Clothier Memorial, Swarthmore College.

Entered as Second Class Matter, January 24, 1922, at the Post Office at Swarthmore, Pa. under the Act of March 3, 1879. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1935 HALLOWEEN MISCHIEF

To the Editor: If I recall correctly, at this time last year your SWARTHMOREAN published a very convincing letter urging good healthy Halloween fun for the Borough's youth to indulge in. Once again—with all the riotous color of the countryside and delightful Indian summer weather we have been experiencing—the quiet aspect of closed windows and fallen leaves is proving too much for some of our folk and with this last week in October Halloween seems to be an excuse for an outlet of unhealthy pranks.

"Specifically: to have a friend park a car 'on the hill' on a too dark street and after a three and a half hour visit (harmless hours of ten-thirty) find four deflated tires is too high an average. Would that I knew the perpetrators of this pernicious prank!!! Punishment suggested: a few wolpops on a not-too-dark street. Effective wolpops they should be and in the light of this particular incident, with no more injurious results but with the well-imagined inconvenience that would follow.

"In addition to the necessity for a few more lights in Swarthmore, and Cedar Lane between Elm Avenue and Oden is a spot to begin on—our homes (and I take it for granted no transient would bother to stop for the 'living' pastime) can continue to instill the invaluable character building reminder of consideration for others' property.

"Perhaps you will allude to this tire incident in an editorial this coming Friday, then maybe I shall feel that my very good friend is avenged!!" A READER.

Students Learn of Pearls In the Assembly on Monday morning the pupils of the Junior-Senior High School had the privilege of a very interesting address upon the story of "The Romance of the Pearl." This was given by Mr. Fred J. Cooper, a jeweler of Philadelphia, who has made an extensive study of precious jewels.

Mr. Cooper demonstrated his talk by showing a preserved Oriental oyster from Ceylon which showed a pearl in the shell. He also had a number of three-year-old oysters in a wire cage which the Japanese used to cultivate pearls. He had several necklaces of these Japanese pearls and told how they differed from the real Oriental pearls. The talk was made especially interesting by the showing of moving picture films presenting the story of the Japanese pearl fishing industry.

Mr. Cooper, who is a personal friend of Dr. Arthur E. Bassett, president of the School Board, will be remembered as the speaker who discussed so interestingly "The Story of Time" several years ago, at which time he showed the children some very unusual timepieces including a watch which strikes the hour and also plays musical selections.

Students Learn of Pearls Represent Local "Tot Lot" The Swarthmore Junior "Tot Lot" Association was represented on October 14th at the Monthly Meeting of the Philadelphia Playground Association by Mrs. Arthur R. Dana and Mrs. Oscar J. Gilcrest, who told informally of the summer work on the "Tot Lot" as planned by the Swarthmore summer committee.

EVERGREEN TREES Have you ever noticed the thousands of evergreen trees around our reservoirs? These trees are planted to protect your water supply. They prevent the growth of other trees that lose their leaves in the fall. These leaves blow into the water and become objectionable.

We also wish to beautify the shores of our reservoirs and to eliminate weeds, briars, and undesirable undergrowth.

The Philadelphia Suburban Water Company is not only trying to give you a plentiful supply of pure, fresh water, but we are also endeavoring to beautify and improve the suburbs where you live.

This is the twenty-second of a series of instructive narratives dealing with the wonders of nature and human accomplishments which make it possible for you to have a plentiful supply of water at all times. Look for the next narrative in this paper two weeks from today.

NURSING DIVISION IN OCTOBER MEETING

Miss Eaton, Secretary, Treasurer, and Chairman Report on Previous Month's Work

The regular meeting of the Nursing Division of the Community Health Society was held at the Borough Hall, Swarthmore, on Thursday, October 10, with the president, Mrs. A. F. Jackson, presiding. The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and approved. Reports were presented by the following: Mrs. A. F. Jackson, chairman of the Nursing Committee; Mrs. William T. Ellis, chairman of Volunteer Transportation; Mrs. J. Warren Palmer, chairman of the Automobile Committee; Mrs. T. Harry Brown, chairman of the Office Committee. Reports of the Child Health Center were read by their district chairmen.

The following report for September was presented by the Supervising Nurse, Miss Charlotte Eaton: "A summary of September's work shows a total of 335 visits to patients. On 131 of these, bedside care was given. Five mothers with newborn babies were given daily care during their lying-in period, or a total of 44 visits to mothers and 46 to babies. Ninety-six health teaching visits were given to mothers of preschool and school children and 12 advisory visits to adults. The reason for these figures being considerably lower than the average month is because we were somewhat short-handed. One nurse was absent about three weeks due to illness. The last part of the vacation of the other staff nurse came during the first half of the month and the last half of our office secretary's holidays came during the latter part of the month. For these reasons and an increased number of confinements attended, we have been unable to accomplish as much in our health education program as we had planned.

"We are delighted to report that the new scales for which Mrs. Douglas Stinchire collected the funds have been installed at Holmes Clinic. They are housed in the fine box made by Mr. John Moore. The set formerly used there is now quite an asset at the Avondale Clinic, which has previously used only the traveling scales. "Work in the Morton Schools is again in progress. All children have been weighed. One little boy whose mother we visited several times before she consented to get medical attention for his deafness did attend a hospital clinic this summer. The child had a tonsillectomy and can now hear! Four Morton school children have received greatly needed glasses through our referral to eye clinics. Three of these were given free by the Kiwanis Eye Clinic, of Chester. "During our office secretary's vacation this month, 16 office volunteers were secured by our efficient office chairman, Mrs. T. Harry Brown. These volunteers were: Mrs. E. D. Brauns, Mrs. Charles Fellows, Mrs. Arthur Hughes, Mrs. Horace R. Hayward, Mrs. Benjamin I. Mather, Mrs. J. Harlan Jessup, Mrs. John Esslinger, Mrs. Charles Bolton, Miss Elizabeth Steele, Miss Marion Chaffee, Mrs. Dwight Cooley, Mrs. Otto Kraus, Mrs. T. Harry Brown, Mrs. W. N. Spangler, Mrs. J. E. Underwood, Miss Mary Wood. We are most appreciative of their aid. We are also grateful to Miss Sullivan, of the Family Welfare Department, for help with correspondence during our office secretary's absence."

FRIENDLY CIRCLE IN MONTHLY MEETING

Several Near Tragedies Averted by Action of Local Charitable Group

A beautiful fall day brought out a large part of the membership of the Friendly Circle when that group was entertained on Thursday, October 17, at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Collins, on Swarthmore Avenue, with Mrs. Charles Bolton as assisting hostess. The sewing chairman, Miss Vera Demuth, reported 46 garments sent to the Health Center, and 22 garments, with $1.00 sent, as the contribution of the group to the Needlework Guild. Mrs. William West reported on the steadily growing "Shoe Fund," an emergency fund maintained to meet sudden needs as winter advances. Another separate fund reported on was the Camp Sunshine Fund, looking ahead to next summer.

Among the appeals for help, a number of interesting cases were presented: That of a child who lost an eye through an accident, necessitating a glass substitute to keep the cavity in a healthy state as the child grows. Another case of a man needing funds to complete his last month of preparation for teaching a rehabilitation group, and faced with the additional stern necessity of being fitted with glasses in order to do the fine work required, and for which he had no money. Then there was the young girl with a heart condition, in need of medical care and treatment; the family who had been obliged to let insurance lapse in order to buy necessary food to keep body and soul together and the school girl who needed sewing materials, which she was unable to finance. All these cases are to receive the immediate and sympathetic consideration of the Friendly Circle.

In addition, 3 quarts of milk is to be continued daily, to the family of 10 children whose parents are struggling along on a very small income. The president, Mrs. T. Harry Brown, appointed Mrs. Howard Dingle to be in charge of the Thanksgiving baskets. Now all this requires funds, and the Friendly Circle is faced with the prospect of many calls for assistance during the winter months ahead. The Circle would therefore welcome a large Contributing Membership at this time. No other obligation than payment of dues is incurred by this form of membership, the work of the organization being done by active members.

The committee in charge included Mrs. Eugene Stallings, Mrs. Jack Thompson, Mrs. Franklin S. Gillespie, Mrs. H. W. Brinkmann, Mrs. Robert E. Sharples, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. E. P. CHINA, GLASS TOPIC AT CLUB MEETING

Mrs. M. Geraldine McCormack Gives Interesting Histories of Industries

"Roses" will be the topic of Mr. Marion Hatton's illustrated talk at the Woman's Club next Tuesday, October 29, at 2.30 P. M. Mr. Hatton is Secretary of the American Rose Society. He will judge any arrangement of chrysanthemums left by members at the club house not later than 2 o'clock of that afternoon.

To lovers of china and glass, Mrs. M. Geraldine McCormack gave much satisfaction at last Tuesday's meeting, in her presentation of the various kinds of china and glass with which the world is blessed. The imagination of the audience turned back with Mrs. McCormack to six thousand years ago when pottery was made in primitive process; and later when archeologists read the history of Babylon, Greece and Rome in the designs and marks on pottery. "In ceramics and glass now the old saying may be applied," Mrs. McCormack stated, "nothing new under the sun." She continued, to tell that china and porcelain are synonymous, of firm texture and lighter in weight that earthenware, that strong Chinese influence is seen in the pottery of Germany, France and especially of England.

In 1709 Johann Friedrich Boettger started the famous factory at Dresden and Dresden china came into being. The same century produced a factory also at Levre in France. Jasperware was used by Mr. Josiah Wedgwood a few years later, and the white figures in bas relief (each developed from a separate mold) on the stone represented perfection one hundred and fifty years ago and today as well. Josiah Spode, a contemporary of Mr. Wedgwood, was responsible for the first production of bone china; and his earthenware has not been equalled in this day.

"In Ireland," the audience was told, "the Beekware, of a creamy color, could be found—beautiful for its lustre." "As a story accompanies the jewel pattern, taken from a Saint's halo, used in Spode; so," it was learned, "did the beautiful lavender shade of Wedgwood mean a tribute to Sara's gown."

In 1889 Wallace Scott Lennox, most modern of potters, stood before a workman in this art and decided in his boyish soul to be a potter some day. Mrs. McCormack spoke of his accomplished ambition in his factory of beautiful china for which two years before his death he received particular recognition. Totally blind and paralyzed, his joy must have been boundless to know that the Levre Museum in France desired some of his china to be placed there on exhibition.

Concerning glass which has Egypt for a birthplace, and Venice the next promoter and creator—the ears of the audience caught the tinkles of the contacts of metal on lime glass tumblers and on those of higher grades, containing more lead. It was learned that the term rock crystal now is generally applied to all superior qualities of lead crystal.

Most interesting was the case glass—one glass of one color placed upon another of clear crystal and some parts cut away, leaving two colors in one tumbler. One of the first glass factories in America made glass beads which were used in trading with the Indians; and since then New York City, Connecticut, New Jersey and Pennsylvania followed by opening glass factories. During Mrs. McCormack's talk the audience was invited in groups of ten to visit the Lennox factory and witness the many processes in producing this form of art.

The Delaware County Federation of Women's Clubs met on Thursday at the Chester Woman's Club at 10.15 A. M. for an all day session. Nine delegates from Swarthmore attended.

The Southeastern District of Women's Clubs will meet at the Germantown Club for an all day session on Monday, October 28. The discussion for the afternoon will be "Sterilization and Birth Control."

CHINA, GLASS TOPIC AT CLUB MEETING

Mrs. M. Geraldine McCormack Gives Interesting Histories of Industries

"Roses" will be the topic of Mr. Marion Hatton's illustrated talk at the Woman's Club next Tuesday, October 29, at 2.30 P. M. Mr. Hatton is Secretary of the American Rose Society. He will judge any arrangement of chrysanthemums left by members at the club house not later than 2 o'clock of that afternoon.

To lovers of china and glass, Mrs. M. Geraldine McCormack gave much satisfaction at last Tuesday's meeting, in her presentation of the various kinds of china and glass with which the world is blessed. The imagination of the audience turned back with Mrs. McCormack to six thousand years ago when pottery was made in primitive process; and later when archeologists read the history of Babylon, Greece and Rome in the designs and marks on pottery. "In ceramics and glass now the old saying may be applied," Mrs. McCormack stated, "nothing new under the sun." She continued, to tell that china and porcelain are synonymous, of firm texture and lighter in weight that earthenware, that strong Chinese influence is seen in the pottery of Germany, France and especially of England.

In 1709 Johann Friedrich Boettger started the famous factory at Dresden and Dresden china came into being. The same century produced a factory also at Levre in France. Jaspaware was used by Mr. Josiah Wedgwood a few years later, and the white figures in bas relief (each developed from a separate mold) on the stone represented perfection one hundred and fifty years ago and today as well. Josiah Spode, a contemporary of Mr. Wedgwood, was responsible for the first production of bone china; and his earthenware has not been equalled in this day.

"In Ireland," the audience was told, "the Beleckware, of a creamy color, could be found—beautiful for its lustre." "As a story accompanies the jewel pattern, taken from a Saint's halo, used in Spode; so," it was learned, "did the beautiful lavender shade of Wedgwood mean a tribute to Sara's gown."

In 1889 Wallace Scott Lennox, most modern of potters, stood before a workman in this art and decided in his boyish soul to be a potter some day. Mrs. McCormack spoke of his accomplished ambition in his factory of beautiful china for which two years before his death he received particular recognition. Totally blind and paralyzed, his joy must have been boundless to know that the Levre Museum in France desired some of his china to be placed there on exhibition.

Concerning glass which has Egypt for a birthplace, and Venice the next promoter and creator—the ears of the audience caught the tinkles of the contacts of metal on lime glass tumblers and on those of higher grades, containing more lead. It was learned that the term rock crystal now is generally applied to all superior qualities of lead crystal.

Most interesting was the case glass—one glass of one color placed upon another of clear crystal and some parts cut away, leaving two colors in one tumbler. One of the first glass factories in America made glass beads which were used in trading with the Indians; and since then New York City, Connecticut, New Jersey and Pennsylvania followed by opening glass factories. During Mrs. McCormack's talk the audience was invited in groups of ten to visit the Lennox factory and witness the many processes in producing this form of art.

The Delaware County Federation of Women's Clubs met on Thursday at the Chester Woman's Club at 10.15 A. M. for an all day session. Nine delegates from Swarthmore attended.

The Southeastern District of Women's Clubs will meet at the Germantown Club for an all day session on Monday, October 28. The discussion for the afternoon will be "Sterilization and Birth Control."

Franklin Institute is extending to Delaware and Montgomery County Federations of Women's Clubs the courtesy of a trip to the Planetarium and Museum for a small fee. There will be provided a speaker from the Editorial Staff of the Ladies' Home Journal.
