PLAN NOW FOR FLOWER SHOW

Everyone in Swarthmore and vicinity is welcome to exhibit in the Swarthmore Woman's Club annual fall flower show, which, sponsored by the Garden Section, will be held at the Park avenue club house on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 14 and 15.

With the large number of lovely gardens, both large and small, in this section, all gardeners, beginners and experienced alike, are expected to join in the show. So don't think your flowers are not worth entering.

There will be several commercial exhibits and a new class this year will consist of "pictures of the gardens", There are so many residents, especially the date of the flower show in mind and take garden pictures during the summer. Further information regarding this class may be secured by consulting Mrs. H. A. Peirsol, chairman, or Mrs. Charles Russell.

A class which should arouse much interest among women is an "afternoon tea table for two" in antique setting (no flat silver). This class is limited, so notify Mrs. Charles Parker not later than September 8 if you wish to be among the first ten whose entries will be accepted. Show calendars will be available about September 1. Notice fill be given later as to where they can be procured.

Council, Wednesday Evening, Pleased With Response From Property Owners

The August meeting of Council held Wednesday evening was mostly occupied with routine business. T. E. Hessenbruch, chairman of highways, reported the satisfactory completion of grading, curbing and gutter work on Bowdoin and Kenyon avenues. Gratification was expressed at the prompt response from property owners in the matter of advance cash payments in connection with the WPA pavement repair project. The section of town now being covered by this repair work includes that part east of Park avenue and south of the railroad, and about one-half of this work has already been approved and paid for by the property owners and is now being done.

HORNETS DROP TWO GAMES

The Pirates won over the Tigers 7-4, will be in good position for observation Lima and Media Surmount Local Lads: Confusion Ram-- pant Friday at Home

During the past week, the Hornets dropped two decisions, Friday to Lima at home by the count of 4 to 3 and Tuesday to Media, away, to the tune of 7 to 4.

Media wasted no time, but hopped on Steigelman's offerings in the first inning and piled up five runs. The Hornets got back in the game in the second, when they counted four times. Media applied the brakes and from this point until the sixth neither team was able to push another counter across. In that inning, Media added their final counters.

The Hornet runs were scored by Burke, Henderson, Abrams and Wolfe. Abrams paced the stick-smiths with both photographic and hand done. three safe wallops, one of which was a triple. Henderson had two safe men, who are doing fine photography knocks and Barry, Sipler, Burke, Wolfe that the committee hopes they will keep and Abernathy had one safety each. Wolfe also stole two bases.

Last Friday the Hornets lost a heartbreaker to Lima by the score of 4 to 3. Korndoffer pitched hitless ball for five innings and allowed only two runners to reach first via the free ticket route. Meanwhile his teammates had scored twice through the medium of a hit batter, a single and some daring base running.

Trouble started with one away in the sixth. Barry made a futile try to snare Baldwin's fly, which fell in foul territory. Umpire Tasker ruled it a fair ball and gave his reason for this ruling that Barry had batted the ball into foul territory in his effort to make the catch. Barry stated that he jumped for the ball, but was unable to reach it. This ruling placed Baldwin on third, from which station he scored on Morrow's single.

Korndoffer had injured his arm and while Cheyney warmed up in a hurry, the Lima bench implored their batters 'to step up and take a toehold.' Beltz fouled out for the second out and then Trost hammered a legitimate triple to center sending Morrow in with the tying counter. Spaziani walked and went to third when Smith threw low trying to catch Trost off third. Trost counted on the play and Spaziani also scored a moment later when Korndoffer's pitch went into the dirt.

Cheyney replaced Korndoffer, who was unable to control the ball due to the pain in his arm. Cheyney walked Harris. Reed, a pinch hitter, went down swinging, but was given another chance because one of the umpires

Finds Many Rooms Available

Apparently now is a good time to advertise for a room. Adolph Rubin, of Adolph's Barber Shop, placed a classified advertisement in the columns of The Swarthmorean last week on behalf of one of his customers. The replies which the young man received were so numerous that we are sure he could have located a nice room not only for himself, but for several friends, had he desired. Proving that people will bother to write as well as to telephone in response to ads (this particular one asked that replies be addressed to a box in care of the paper) replies arrived at the of-fice very promptly through the mail, by messenger, and over the telephone wire until they were all in as early as Monday afternoon. Not only rooms can be secured through using classified ads in this paper; many folks have found them most valuable in finding a market for possessions they themselves do not need. But then those are only a few of the many varied instances in which these inexpensive little ads bring satisfaction to the customer. Just telephone Swarthmore 900 whenever you are puzzled about where to get a maid, good second-hand items, or whatnot, and let one of these ads relieve your mind.

fter years of hearing—"this is awful; why can't you learn to cook like my mother?"-Mrs. Willie Windblown becomes the object of praise. It all dates back to the installation of a new electric range in the Windblown kitchen. Since then, Willie has been a rousing electric cooking "fan." And he's even more enthusiastic about the low cost.

It's all very simple. Adding electric servants and using them generously lowers the average cost of each. Their new electric range earns for the Windblowns the low 2c per kilowatt-hour rate. Use more electric servants in your home and get added comforts for less money

COLLEGE CHIMES

TO RING AGAIN The news that they will soon hear the College chimes again will be welcome to the residents of Swarthmore.

For a year or so now the hours have missed the musical cadence which locally marked their passing. It has been four or five years since the chimes in the library tower of Swarthmore College have been working well but the complete absence of their tones has been of more recent date.

Newcomers to the Borough probably wondered from whence the peals issued a week or so ago when workmen stirred the echoes and recalled to oldtimers a memory, a part of Swarthmore's sweetness they had perhaps almost forgotten. It is hoped to have the chimes fixed and to have them ringing in time for the Friends' Conference, on September

An increasing series of notes which indicates the quarter hour, the half hour, and a quarter before the next hour, is consummated at the hour and followed by a counting of the hour. Cast into the hour bell is the inscription "To Swarthmore College The

Bells And Clock In This Tower Were Presented By Morris Lewis Clothier Betokening His Love and Loyalty And Commemorating The Twentieth Anniversary of the Graduation Of The Class Of '90." Each bell is inscribed "Me- land remains to be played. The date of Senior Forester in the Pennsylvania neely Bell Company, Troy, N. Y." Fur-of this event remains uncertain. Wa-ther relating the history of the chimes is the bronze plaque in the outside ter polo games do not count in the will act as assistant district forester at lobby of the building which houses league standing and that was the only Petersburg, Huntington County. them and reading "To Alma Mater The sport which had a chance of being Clock And Bells In This Tower Were played on the local field this week. COLLEGE CHIMES

TO RING AGAIN The news that they will soon hear the College chimes again will be welcome to the residents of Swarthmore. For a year or so now the hours have missed the musical cadence which locally marked their passing. It has been four or five years since the chimes in the library tower of Swarthmore College have been working well but the complete absence of their tones has been of more recent date.

Newcomers to the Borough probably wondered from whence the peals issued a week or so ago when workmen stirred the echoes and recalled to oldtimers a memory, a part of Swarthmore's sweetness they had perhaps almost forgotten. It is hoped to have the chimes fixed and to have them ringing in time for the Friends' Conference, on September

An increasing series of notes which indicates the quarter hour, the half hour, and a quarter before the next hour, is consummated at the hour and followed by a counting of the hour. Cast into the hour bell is the inscription "To Swarthmore College The Bells And Clock In This Tower Were Presented By Morris Lewis Clothier game in the Delco Valley League to Betokening His Love and Loyalty And Commemorating The Twentieth Anniversary of the Graduation Of The Class

The Postponed home game with Up-Of '90." Each bell is inscribed "Menecly Bell Company, Troy, N. Y." Further relating the history of the chimes is the bronze plaque in the outside ter polo games do not count in the will act as assistant district forester at them and reading "To Alma Mater The Clock And Bells In This Tower Were Dedicated By The Class Of 1890 Beversary Of Their Graduation."

RECENT GIFTS TO FRIENDS LIBRARY

Swarthmore College Historical Museum Enriched by Quaker Women's Donations

Among the recent gifts received by the museum connected with the Friends Historical Library of Swarthmore College are relics of two historic Quaker women whose lives have incalculably enriched this vicinity.

Three interesting memorials of Susan B. Anthony and the great struggle for human suffrage, have been acquired by gift of her niece, Miss Lucy E. Anthony, of Moylan. One of these is a facsimile of the "Declaration and Pledge of the Women of the United States Concerning their Right to, and Use of, the Elective Franchise." This was "Composed and Engrossed for Signatures by Isabella Beecher Hooker, in the City of Washington, D.C. U.S.A., February 22, 1871". It bears a pleasing portrait of Isabella (one of the famous Beecher children), and is signed by Susan B. Anthony, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Lucretia Mott, Julia Ward Howe, Dr. Mary E. Walker, and eight other pioneer suffragists.

Accompanying this document, there came a gilt-framed portrait-group of 2. seven of Susan B. Anthony's closest associates. Lucretia Mott is in the center of the galaxy, while clustering 3. around her are Harriet Beecher Stowe, Maria W. Chapman, Abby E. Foster, 4 Antoinette Brown, Lucy Stone, and Lydia Maria Child.

. Accompanying these gifts was a third connected with Miss Anthony, namely, a Resolution presented to her by the National Woman Suffrage Association at its convention in Washington, in January, 1883, just before her visit to the women of Europe. It testifies to the 9. association's "appreciation of the lifelong devotion of Susan B. Anthony to the Cause of Women!" and "acknowledges her as the chief inspirer of wo-Bill Ashton in Culver Track Meet men in their struggle for personal liberty, for civil equity and for political equality."

League Play Opens Next Month

The Swarthmore Bridge Club, which Baltimore Young Friends Camp has been meeting regularly on Wednesday nights during the summer, is now preparing for the fall matches in the annual Delaware County League and the Wilmington League. The first of these matches will be played in September and one match in each league will follow every month during the winter.

With so many people away and men Wilmington, Ohio-September 25 preferring golf to bridge in the summer the recent attendance has been smaller than usual.

S. Frank Butler, of South Chester road, president of the club, welcomes all men who are newcomers to the Borough and others who might be interested to play on the Swarthmore team to the Wednesday evening meeting in the American Legion Room, Borough Hall.

Swarthmore College Historical Museum Enriched by Quaker Women's Donations

Among the recent gifts received by the museum connected with the Friends Historical Library of Swarthmore College are relics of two historic Quaker women whose lives have incalculably enriched this vicinity.

Three interesting memorials of Susan B. Anthony and the great struggle for human suffrage, have been acquired by gift of her niece, Miss Lucy E. Anthony, of Moylan. One of these is a facsimile of the "Declaration and Pledge of the Women of the United States Concerning their Right to, and Use of, the Elective Franchise." This was "Composed and Engrossed for Signatures by Isabella Beecher Hooker, in the City of Washington, D.C., U.S.A., February 22, 1871". It bears a pleasing portrait of Isabella (one of the famous Beecher children), and is signed by Susan B. Anthony, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Lucretia Mott, Julia Ward Howe, Dr. Mary E. Walker, and eight other pioneer suffragists.

Accompanying this document, there came a gilt-framed portrait-group of seven of Susan B. Anthony's closest associates. Lucretia Mott is in the center of the galaxy, while clustering around her are Harriet Beecher Stowe, Maria W. Chapman, Abby E. Foster, Antoinette Brown, Lucy Stone, and Lydia Maria Child.

Accompanying these gifts was a third connected with Miss Anthony, namely, a Resolution presented to her by the National Woman Suffrage Association at its convention in Washington, in January, 1883, just before her visit to the women of Europe. It testifies to the association's "appreciation of the lifelong devotion of Susan B. Anthony to the Cause of Women!" and "acknowledges her as the chief inspirer of wo- Bill Ashton in Culver Track Meet men in their struggle for personal liberty, for civil equity and for political equality.'

A few weeks before the recent death of Mrs. Lucretia Longshore Blankenburg, she brought to this library ten or a dozen Friends' books which had long been in her collection; and she be- Ashton, a midshipman in Company II queathed to it the Quaker bonnet, of the Naval batallion was anchor man shawl, and two lace caps which had on the winning half-mile relay team. been worn by her grandmother, the This was his first summer at Culver. wife of Samuel Myers, of Bucks

For many years, her devoted service in several Friendly "concerns" brought her the popular title of the "Grand Old. Lady. of Philadelphia"; and numerous prizes, testimonial dinners and other public expressions testified to the love and veneration which Philadelphians cherished for her and for her husband, "the Reform Mayor", a worthy successor to the founder of the City of Brotherly love.

Swarthmore Men's Bridge Club League Play Opens Next Month

The Swarthmore Bridge Club, which has been meeting regularly on Wednesday nights during the summer, is now preparing for the fall matches in the annual Delaware County League and the Wilmington League. The first of these matches will be played in September and one match in each league will follow every month during the winter.

With so many people away and men preferring golf to bridge in the summer the recent attendance has been smaller than usual.

S. Frank Butler, of South Chester road, president of the club, welcomes all men who are newcomers to the Borough and others who might be mterested to play on the Swarthmore team to the Wednesday evening meeting in the American Legion Room, Borough Hall.
