MRS. ROOSEVELT

Wife of President Speaking at College Under Sponsorship of Student Union

HERE APRIL 10

Swarthmoreans are eagerly anticipating seeing and hearing Eleanor Roosevelt when she comes to Swarthmore College next Thursday, April 10, under the auspices of the Swarthmore Student Union.

After having supper in the college dining room with a group of guests invited by the executive committee of the Student Union and including President' John Nason, members of the Student Union executive committee, Dean Frances Blanshard and Dean Everett L. Hunt, officers and faculty sponsors of the Student Union, Mrs. Roosevelt is scheduled to speak at 8:15 P. M. in Clothier Memorial.

Her topic as yet has not been announced but an hour's question period will follow the lecture. All questions is widely anticipated throughout this must be written, and there will be an section. opportunity at the lecture for members of the audience to submit their questions to Mrs. Roosevelt directly.

America's First Lady is an active sponsor of the International Student Service and was the principal speaker at its New Brunswick conference three months ago when Peter Kuh, Swarthmore College sophomore met her and asked her to speak here.

MRS. DAVISSON HEADS EVENING SECTION

MOVIES AID WALN FUND

If you wish to help the Nora Waln fund for the aid of British children you are asked to buy your movie tickets before April 12 from Michael's, the Bouquet Shop, or members of the Swarthmore branch of the Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity. The tickets will be good for any show at the Media Theatre Sunday, April 13 to Friday, April 18, inclusive. Shows are listed on the backs of the tickets. Helen Jackson, a graduate of Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla., where she received the Tiedtke Art Award in her senior year is chairman of the poster contest committee in connection with the movie benefit. Mrs. Jack De Groot is co-chairman. Judges assisting the committee are Mrs. Charles D. Mitchell, Mrs. Richard Brandt, and Mrs. Carl deMoll.

The national organization of Kappa has sent Nora Waln $17,000 for this aid. With this sum she was able to buy blankets, pots and pans, clothing, and food to supplement relief of larger organizations. Most of the money was spent in South Hampton, and the remainder in London.

Nora Waln has written four articles for the Saturday Evening Post but these have never been received in this country. She has opened her home outside of London for a week-end refuge for the tired business and government officials who are in need of rest.

The committee in charge of this district is: Mrs. T. A. Bradshaw and Mrs. Palmer L. Skoglund, co-chairmen, Mrs. A. F. Jackson, publicity, and Miss Jackson and Mrs. deGroot, posters.

of the minutes of last year's meeting.

Reports of the various committees were presented through three general chairmen: James H. Hornaday, in charge of business and finance: D. Malcolm Hodge, liam Simmons, in charge of stage management and building maintenance. Highlights of these reports were announcements that the club is holding its own financially, that more members than ever before have taken active part this year-in fact, all of those who appeared at fall tryouts were invited to take parts —and fewer non-members than ever thus were asked to fill in. An amusing and informative account of the work of the Junior Plays Commit-

Attend Foreign Policy Association On March 29 students from the American History and Problems of Democracy classes of the High School attended the final Student Forum of the Foreign Policy Association

Opening remarks of the Forum were made by Mr. Elliot, a member of the research department of the Foreign Policy Association, who summarized the present international situation and the questions which the students would

Among the questions were: 1. Should America assume leadership of the world? 2. To what limits should America go to aid Great Britain? 3. What part should America have making a peace treaty after the war? 4. Should Great Britain share he colonies with other European nations f satisfy their economic needs?

The students were organized groups of approximately ten persons under a student leader, and the discussion lasted for an hour and a half. At the end of this time each leader gave a summary of the conclusions reached by his group during the discussion. This was followed by a five minute rebuttal between tables.

David Nelson was the chairman the Swarthmore group; John Schobinger led one of the discussion groups Other students from our high school who attended the Forum were Ann Gorman, Amy Jane Davidson, Lois Gray, Ester Schrader, Margaret Mc-Coll, Marshall Schmidt, and William eligible for the hunt or who failed to collect prizes for them. The five eggs will be held at The Swarthmorean office until tomorrow noon so if you're under 12 and you feel a spring urge to walk around you might profitably choose one of the Egg Hunt lots to do it in today or Saturday morning. If someone over-age has found the slips he could give them to some child who attended the Hunt but didn't have the good fortune to find prize winning slips in the packages he gathered.

Seventh Annual Exhibition of Swarthmore Painters

The Seventh Annual Exhibition of Swarthmore Painters, sponsored by the Art Committee of the Woman's Club, will open Tuesday, April 22, and will be open to the public Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings, April 22, 23, and 24 from 7:30 to 9:30, and Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons, April 23, 24 and 25 from 2:30 to 5:30.

The guest exhibitor this year i John J. Dull, the well-known Philadelphia watercolorist. His work has been shown in all the leading exhibitions and galleries (Continued on Page Six) throughout the country. Mr. Dull is teacher of watercolor at the Pennsylvania Museum School of Industrial Art. On Friday evening, April 25 the exhibition will close with an informal reception for the exhibitors, their friends, club members and the general public. This will take the place of the Sunday afternoon tea held for the past two years. Mr. Dull will be our guest that evening. All residents of Swarthmore, over 18 years of age may exhibit two framed pictures. All pictures must be delivered at the Woman's

 As Pennsylvania swings full speed ahead into the national preparedness program, this company is tackling the biggest job in its history. Day by day the demands for service mount. A year ago we launched a huge construction program to enlarge our plant. This year an even greater program is under way. Right now in Pennsylvania we are spending half a million a week on new construction! We are making an allout drive-with manpower, materials and money—to keep telephone service fast, adequate and dependable to speed Pennsylvania's production.

F YOU think driving has lost its thrill-brother, it's because you haven't tried Fluid Drive in a Chrysler!

You know, Fluid Drive must be something pretty unusual to attract as much attention as it has. Wouldn't you like to try it yourself? Drive around town, pick the worst traffic and get the feel of stopping and starting without shifting gears. It's really fascinating!

WHY SHIFT GEARS?

Nobody wants to shift gears. That's why Fluid Drive with Vacamatic transmission is such a thrill. It takes all the work out of driving . . . makes it seem like something that's too good to be true.

But it is true . . . and we'd like to prove it to you. Let's set a date to go Fluid Driving. Call up now and tell us when we may come for you.

FOR SAFETY! Why Chrysler includes a Safety Clutch with Fluid Drive!

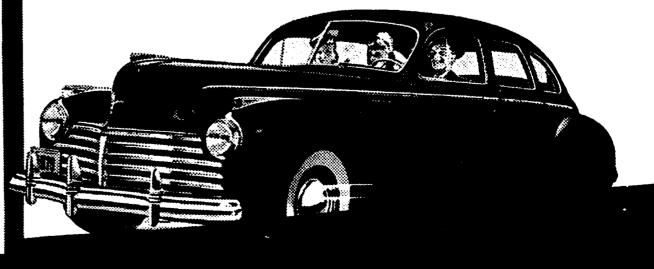

The Safety Clutch is like a lifeboat on a ship. You will use it very seldom, but you're mighty glad to have it when you need it. A very valuable safeguard for parking ... for maneuvering your car in close quarters or dangerous places!
