Services Yesterday For Mrs. McCracken

Beloved Vassar Avenue Resident Had Been Teacher, Artist, Health Worker

Swarthmore has lost one of its best loved women in the passing of Nellie Biehn McCracken on Monday morning, March 1, after an illness of a few weeks in the Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia.

In 1911 she married George L. McCracken, who for many years has been an instructor of mathematics at the West Philadelphia High School.

Mrs. McCracken was a member of the Presbyterian Church and interested in the Woman's Association of the church.

Her college classmates, her devoted pupils, her many friends and neighbors testify to her unusual gifts and to her rare personal charm.

Besides her husband and daughter she is survived by her mother Mrs. Sarah Biehn and a brother Harry Biehn of West Chester.

The Rev. David Braun conducted the service held in the Presbyterian Church on Thursday afternoon.

Juliet C. Kent.

Elizabeth Whitaker of Park avenue, a senior at the University of Delaware, and Winifred Park of Harvard avenue, a freshman at the same college, have been placed on the University's Honor Roll.

2215 Victory Volumes Enroute to War From Boro

A total of 2215 Victory Books is announced as the campaign ends today. 1046 of these have been collected and already delivered by the Red Cross Motor Corps while 1169 corralled by the school's Victory Corps are at the Swarthmore headquarters but not yet transported to the city.

More than half of the creditable Victory Corps total was gathered by the ninth grade which challenged the school. Eugene Duncan's room ran a close second.

Not only has this community contributed more books than last year but the books are of more recent publication and of excellent quality. The hard-working chairman Mrs. Frank G. Keenen thanks on behalf of soldier readers, Swarthmoreans who have given the best books in their libraries for this purpose. Although the drive has officially ended, books will still trickle into the Keenen's hallway, if last year's procedure is duplicated. All will reach their proposed destination.

SPEAKS SUNDAY NIGHT

Margaret Webster, recognized as a foremost director of the American Theatre will lecture Sunday night, March 7, at 8:15 P.M. in Clothier Memorial on the college campus.

The topic "Shakespeare—Alarums and Excursions" will undoubtedly develop Miss Webster's interpretation of her favorite playwright and her experiences directing Maurice Evans in "Hamlet," "Macbeth," "Henry IV" and "Richard II."

Her own "Shakespeare Without Tears" published last spring upheld her contention that the Elizabethan dramatist is still the most entertaining playwright being presented. Her stage debut was made in John Barrymore's "Hamlet."

Reported Missing

Mrs. Dwight D. Rowlands of Harvard avenue received a telegram from the U. S. Government last Thursday with the information that her son, Second Lieutenant Paul Caldwell who was stationed in the European Theatre as a Bombardier with the Army Air Force, is reported missing since February 15.

BARRIE PLAY AT SCHOOL TONITE

Entire Senior Class Cooperates to Make Annual Scholarship Event Success

The annual play of the senior class will be presented tonight in the high school auditorium at 8:15 P.M. James M. Barrie's comedy "The Admirable Crichton" is being directed by Hanna E. Kirk with Mary Garrett and Ann Argyle assistant student directors.

Each member of the class is doing his share of the work. The cast which acts out the story of a wealthy English family shipwrecked on a desert island is made up of Richard Adrian, Jeanne Fischer, Helen Pratt, Bonny Morse, Ned Rutherford, Jim Cleaves, Steen Merryweather, Frey Morey, Trudy Enders, Barbara Griffith, Janice Wherry, Ruth Gay, Betty Anne Hulme, Molly Jeffords, Jerry Corse, Daniel Kirk, Bill Sickle, Charles Zensen, Jay Dougherty and Walt Patterson.

Committees are composed of students under the direction of a faculty member. Claudia Hancock and Wilma Stern are directing the work of the art committee with Helen Whitecar chairman, and Janice Wherry, Agnes Beneke, Elly McGee, Laura Lee Hopkins, Dorothy Shaw, Marian Troxell, Louise Bell, Jane Myers, Shirley MacMillan, Tish Lee and Mary Dimmitt. The property committee headed by Elizabeth Pope includes Molly Jeffords, Charles Zensen, Alice Putnam, Ann Myers, Jerry Corse, Dick Bell, Walt Patterson, and Betty Ann Hulme.

Mary Armstrong of the faculty is in charge of lighting with Walt Patterson, Ruth Gay and Bill Sickle assisting. The costume committee is directed by Mabel Ewing, with Carol Hetzel chairman, Joan Prange, Lois Landon, Isabelle Mayo, Betty Ann Hulme, Kathy Downing, Jeanne Theis, Poppy Saitto, Janet Randall and Jeanne Hankins. Lt. George L. Earnshaw arrived yesterday afternoon from Jacksonville, Fla., where he has been stationed to spend a two day leave with his family on Vassar avenue before reporting for sea duty.

The film "Marching with Old Glory" showed solicitors every service of the Red Cross in action so that when they tell you that three cents a day or $10 from you will back a service-man 24 hours a day, seven days a week, with the services of the Red Cross they know whereof they speak. Under the efficient chairmanship of Mrs. Sewell W. Hodge Swarthmore's alert Red Cross assembled workers heard William F. Lee present the worker's plan of presentation and H. S. Plummer list the cost to the Red Cross of services to the soldier. Every worker left the meeting dedicated to the real but admittedly vital task of raising $15,000 this month in Swarthmore.

Contributors are reminded that Red Cross accounts are audited by the War Department, that less than 4 per cent is spent for administration. One-half of the War Fund goes to the Armed Forces, 10 per cent goes to civilian disasters such as the Boston Fire on which the Red Cross has just spent $50,000, 25 per cent goes to disaster preparedness, and the balance is returned to the collecting chapter for use in its program that covers local services to all three above mentioned.

Window Exhibits Inform

Giving the War Fund a splendid start are the informative and attractive displays of local Red Cross workers' achievements in business windows, the contribution of Mrs. A. M. Lackey to the campaign. Services Yesterday For Mrs. McCracken

Beloved Vassar Avenue Resident Had Been Teacher, Artist, Health Worker

Swarthmore has lost one of its best loved women in the passing of Nellie Biehn McCracken on Monday morning, March 1, after an illness of a few weeks in the Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia. She was the daughter of Milton A. and Sarah R. Biehn and was born in 1878 in Quakertown, Pa. Most of her girlhood was spent in West Chester, Pa. where she graduated from the High School. She received her A.B. degree at Goucher College where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority and later of the Philadelphia Alumnae Chapter. Her first teaching was at the West Chester High School where she taught mathematics and later she was for several years an instructor in both mathematics and art at Friends' Central School in Philadelphia.

In 1911 she married George L. McCracken, who for many years has been an instructor of mathematics at the West Philadelphia High School. Mr. and Mrs. McCracken purchased the home at 208 Vassar avenue where they have lived continuously. Their daughter Margaret, now Mrs. C. Richard Congdon of Burlington, Vt. has spent the last few weeks with her parents. Mr. Congdon came by plane from Burlington on Monday.

Mrs. McCracken was a member of the Presbyterian Church and interested in the Woman's Association of the church. She was one of the early members of the Swarthmore Woman's Club. From 1926 to 1935 she gave generously of her time and energy to the newly organized Swarthmore Health Center. During these years she served as one of the vice-presidents, as treasurer and as chairman of the division of Baby Clinics. Later she was a board member of the first Community Health Center of Delaware County.

Her college classmates, her devoted pupils, her many friends and neighbors testify to her unusual gifts and to her rare personal charm. Those who were privileged to know her will not forget her loving sympathy, her ready smile and her delightful sense of humor. Her fine mind, her appreciation of beauty in nature, in literature and in art were a joy, not only to her, but to her friends. During the last few years she had been greatly interested in the study of art and had exhibited frequently at the Woman's Club.

Besides her husband and daughter she is survived by her mother Mrs. Sarah Biehn and a brother Harry Biehn of West Chester.

The Rev. David Braun conducted the service held in the Presbyterian Church on Thursday afternoon. The following friends acted as pallbearers: Messrs. Alben T. Eavenson, Harlan Jessup, Joseph Perry, Earle P. Yerkes, all of Swarthmore, Harry Barton of Media and Herbert Shields of West Chester.

Juliet C. Kent.

63,000 Calls Build a Ship!

A few weeks ago at one of Henry J. Kaiser's shipyards in Portland, Oregon, a telephone man made a speech. Then the chief operator of the shipyard's switchboard swung a bottle of champagne and at a signal sent by telephone a new Liberty ship slid into the Willamette River—the SS Alexander Graham Bell.

Statisticians at the shipyard estimate that it takes on the average 63,000 telephone calls to handle the details of building each ship they launch.

An aircraft factory says it takes 12,000 calls to build a bomber. No wonder telephone lines are crowded with calls these days. Please keep your calls to a minimum. War is on in the wires. The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

Blackout (or Practice Blackout) begins with the sounding of the first Blue signal and lasts until the all clear (White) Signal or until daylight if no all clear is given. The second Blue may be followed by a second Red.

Air Raid (or Practice Air Raid) begins with the sounding of the Red signal and ends with the second Blue signal.

PEDESTRIANS

Upon the sounding of the Blue signal, pedestrians shall give consideration to movement to places of safety in anticipation of an air raid (Red) signal. This action shall be required upon a Blue signal whether it precedes or follows a Red signal.

Persons are prohibited from lighting matches, cigarette lighters, etc. While smoking is permitted, it is not permissible to light cigars, cigarettes, pipes, etc. in the open.

Flashlights must be equipped with a sheet of white paper and one thickness of red cellophane between the bulb and the lens.

Any open fires shall be extinguished and no additional fires shall be started.

On the Red, pedestrians shall immediately seek shelter. Smoking is not permitted. Flashlights may be used only if properly equipped.

ROAD VEHICLES

Upon the sounding of the Blue signal, operators and occupants of road vehicles shall give consideration to movement to places of safety in anticipation of a Red signal. All moving motor vehicles are permitted to use head lights on low or depressed beam and normal tail lights and license plate lights.

VEHICLES TRANSPORTING DANGEROUS MATERIALS

Explosives, gasoline, or other dangerous combustibles shall, upon the mobilization and Blue signal, proceed forthwith, where possible, to a place more than one hundred (100) feet from the nearest habitation or business premises and there park as provided under movement of vehicles and other conveyances during air raid. After vehicles are parked and upon the sounding of the Red signal all lights shall be extinguished.

From the Red signal to the Blue signal only authorized emergency vehicles may move with same lighting as above. All others must immediately park, leaving traffic lanes clear and extinguish lights. During practice air raids passengers need not leave vehicles. In the event of a real raid, they must immediately seek shelter. Emergency vehicles other than Army trucks and cars, fire and police equipment, ambulances, public utility repair cars and other cars carrying a C D pennant on right front corner.

BUILDINGS AND RESIDENCES

Must be blacked out on the first Blue signal as promptly as possible, in any case, within five minutes, and must remain blacked out until the all clear signal is received or until daylight.

The State Council of Defense has now authorized the use of bulbs and fixtures marked INDOOR BLACKOUT—WAR DEPARTMENT STANDARD under rigorously defined conditions. The bulbs emit a very faint orange light. Under no circumstances is blue permitted for blackout lights. Unattended lighting is prohibited at anytime. Lighting shall be attended every night whether there is or is not a period of air raid or black out.

SIGNALS

THE YELLOW WARNING is strictly confidential. Post wardens, sector wardens, auxiliary policemen, Red Cross volunteers, employes of industry, medical units, etc. shall NOT be called on the Yellow signal as these groups are to be mobilized on the audible Blue.

BLUE SIGNAL will be a two minute steady blast on both the siren on Borough Hall and the whistle at the College power house.

RED SIGNAL will be a fluctuating sound of varying pitch on the siren and a series of short blasts on the whistle for a period of two minutes in each case. This red signal will always be followed by a second Blue signal and the all clear will not be given less than ten (10) minutes after this second Blue signal.

WHITE SIGNAL (All Clear) will be given over radio stations KYW, WCAU, WPEN and WIP.

The members of the Civilian Defense will mobilize on the first Blue signal and continue until demobilized by message relayed from the control center. Wardens should report to their posts on the second Blue during daylight drills. At night, the wardens shall make an inspection of blackout of homes after the second Blue before reporting to their posts.

Standing Invitation

The Swarthmore Business Men's Association and The Swarthmorean are doing splendid work in sending their home-town newspaper to those young men and women of the community who are away in the armed forces. News of the world is good to get, but news from home is better.

I'd like to suggest that those of us whose roots are in Swarthmore no matter where we live carry the work a little farther by opening our doors to service men and women from Swarthmore who may be passing through our city. A quiet dinner in a home, or even a few minutes' talk between trains with someone who knows the people back home might make a difference to the traveling man in uniform, and if enough of us offer it we should be able to take the sharp edge off the break between home and the service.

If any soldier, sailor, Marine, WAAC, WAVE or member of whatever branch of the service may be formed by the time this gets into print is interested in this idea, he can call DELmar 4371—a nickel call—any time he gets to St. Louis. My wife (Emma Howard) and I live just about 20 minutes from the Union Station, so I am sure we can make connections at any time.

Here Come the WAVES

Dear Editor:
May I take this opportunity to thank you and the Business Men of Swarthmore for the much appreciated subscription to "The Swarthmorean"? It is a great pleasure to be able to keep in such close contact with all my Swarthmore friends through your paper.

Life in the Waves in Northampton has proved to be exciting and gratifying. We study long and hard each day with little time for recreation, so "The Swarthmorean" offers a nice relaxing way to keep up with life at home.

Now we are looking forward with enthusiasm to graduation on March the ninth, when as Ensigns we shall be able to get out and put some of the theories of our three months training into practice.

In the class following ours I was happy to find another Swarthmore girl, Kay Booth. Together we pore over "The Swarthmorean" each week.

Thanking you again for your generosity.

Sincerely,
Elizabeth Bancroft Smith.

Thanks From Midway

Many thanks to you and the Business Men's Club for sending me your paper. It is good in this land of sand and goneye birds to be able to check up on friends at home.

Talk About Morale!

"Somewhere in Africa"
February 9, '43

Dear Editor:
In bundles and singly, several days in a row or a month apart, I'm still getting the "Swarthmorean". Even over here in the land of camels, dirt, and "Ay-rabs" in crummy nightgowns, I know who is winning the bridge games, what's going on at the Players Club, and how close the town is to "buying a bomber".

I read with a great deal of interest and pride (poddin' me) about the Honor Roll you people have had made. It looks fine, and our families are proud, but did you people ever stop to think that we, over here, are equally proud of the men and women back there, too young or too old, or with deferment or disability, who are fighting equally hard, depriving themselves of things that we get, in order to keep us rolling? Don't feel sorry for us, we get sugar in our coffee, do you?

Best Regards,
GEOFFREY DOLMAN,
1st Lt., Inf.

Margie MacMillan daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley L. MacMillan of Vassar avenue, who is a freshman at Elmira College, Elmira, N.Y., is a member of the dance committee at a dance to be given Saturday, February 27, to entertain 50 service men.

Mrs. George Saltford of Collingswood, N. J. was the overnight guest of her sister, Mrs. Alexander M. Dryden of Dartmouth avenue on Sunday. Mrs. Allen Green of Philadelphia was also a Sunday guest at the Dryden home.

Mr. Dryden, who sustained a fractured left shoulder and upper-arm in a fall several weeks ago at a county committee meeting of the American Legion, has been removed from the United States Naval Hospital in Philadelphia to the Swarthmore Convalescent Annex.

Lois Linton of Benjamin West avenue entertained a few friends at her home on Friday afternoon during the school holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. James are spending the winter in Gilmanston, N. H. Meanwhile their home at 720 Ogden Avenue is being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clymen.

Mrs. Jennie Hughes of Chester was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Montgomery of Ogden avenue.

Henry Linton, Jr. was host to an informal party on Saturday evening. His guests included Beatrice and Diana Brewster of Dickinson avenue and Robert Long of Boothwyn.

DEMONSTRATE DANCE

Mrs. George T. Ashton's second illustrated music talk for young listeners stirred their appreciation of the Dance as an art Wednesday, February 24.

Dance types—ballet, tap, and ballroom—were made clear with slides. Alix Field Whitaker demonstrated the music and rhythm of castanets and Dorothy Denworth in Spanish costume performed a Spanish dance. Another of Mrs. Whitaker's pupils Louise Elkins danced a pizzicato.

In Damosch style Mrs. Ashton and Katherine Warren Coles identified the theme melodies of the clown, ballerina, charlatan, and bear from Igor Stravinsky's Ballet, Petruschka. Thus when the recording of the entire suite was played the young audience was able to follow the story by ear as well as visually as pictures shown by Mrs. Chandler Katon brought the characters to life. Two 18 inch puppets of the ballerina and charlatan roused enthusiasm and drew the information that a puppet of Petruschka is owned by envid Bobby Fawcett.

He has worked with the National Research Council and other government institutions, taught at Johns Hopkins University, and has made a number of trips to Central America.

Sgt. Albert L. Stringer, who has been stationed at Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Stringer are spending a few days with Sgt. Stringer's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Greene of Baltimore Pike.

Delightful Poems Authored by Mrs. W. F. Faragher in Sympathetic Reading

The presentation of a group of poems written by Mrs. Warren G. Faragher and beautifully read by Mrs. Roland L. Eaton gave pleasant entertainment to a large gathering at the Women's Club on Tuesday afternoon.

Each poem a delicate picture, clearly defined, reflected a momentary mood in the author's life. With sincerity and simplicity she writes—gaily, pensively and humorously.

"Morning and Evening," "Colorado," "Gipsy Girl," "The Mother," and "West Wind" are the titles of a colorful group. "At Fifty," "Prayer for Peace" and "Wings" reflect thoughtful moods.

The delightful humor in "Parting," and Mrs. Faragher's own "Psalm of Life," the wistful strain in "A Prayer for Betty, Age Three" and "Dreams," and the dignity of her "Solitude" show the author to be a versatile writer.

Mrs. Peter E. Told followed with a survey of current literature considering about 50 books. In answer to the question why read a book the speaker quoted lines by John Cowper Powys from "The Enjoyment of Literature," "Books are man's rational protest against the irrational; man's life against the planetary death, man's revelation of the God within him."

After classifying the books into related groups the reviewer referred to a small group which she called "books that sing"—"Look to the Mountain," "Seventh Cross" and Saroyan's "The Human Comedy." These, she said, give wings of the

Issue 4600 No. 2 Ration Books Here With Commendable Efficiency

Registration for War Ration Book Two was completed in the Swarthmore High School last week on schedule. The work was done by the teachers, assisted by a number of the ladies of the community whose help was greatly appreciated. A number of the juniors also assisted as guides.

The report shows that exactly 4600 books were issued, 994 on Tuesday, 1184 on Wednesday, 1000 Thursday, 884 Friday, with 568 issued to Swarthmore College students.

As a part of the task of issue of the books, blue eight-point stamps were removed to a total of 12,977. Also, 7596 coffee stamps were removed, by far the largest number of these being groups of ten from the No. 1 books of children under 14 years of age.

The officials of the Ration Board have expressed themselves as being much pleased with the efficient handling of the registration at Swarthmore.

High School Honored

Swarthmore High School is signally honored in the new list approved secondary schools announced by the Department of Public Instruction in the new Education Directory just released from Harrisburg.

The high school is, of course, on the list of approved day high schools. It is also on the list of the approved summer secondary schools and on the list of standard evening secondary schools. There are only twelve of the former throughout the state, and only eighteen of the latter in Pennsylvania. It is interesting to note there are only five schools which are on both lists, one of them being Swarthmore High School.

LOCAL ATTICS IN LIVELY ANTICS

Annual Campus Club Affairs—Gay With Color, Melody, Period Dress

A fore-knowledge of attics searched for the evening's entertainment lent anticipation to the Campus Club desert and coffee which Mrs. Robert Brodhead, Mrs. Robert Walker, and Mrs. Winthrop Wright provided in place of the usual annual dinner Tuesday evening. Whittier House was gay with forsythia and pussy-willow for the party.

On the walls Mrs. Carl Delmuth's committee had displayed photographs of the ladies present—taken at the age of nineteen. The prize, a colorful bouquet of garden vegetables, was awarded to Mrs. Harold Goddard as the most glamorous girl.

Mrs. Brand Blanshard in mid-dress and blue skirt took over the "Swarthmore Attics," pointing out that the dresses and hats about to be shown could make wearers as glamorous now as they did in 1914-18.

A chorus of Victory Garden Belles sang "In the Shade of an Old Apple Tree" from behind an improvised garden. The rendition of "Pink Lady" Mrs. H. W. Brinkmann entered dressed in a ball gown of 1905. Mrs. James D. Sorber and the chorus sang "My Hero" from the "Chocolate Soldier." Virginia Rath modeled Mrs. Chester Roberts' wedding dress of 1907 to the wedding march played by Mrs. Everett L. Hunt.

In the second scene Victory Gardeners—Mrs. Henry Ford; Mrs. L. C. Ashton, Mrs. Sorber, Mrs. Milan W. Garrett and Mrs. Harold M. March sang "When You Were a Tulip" to Mrs. Blanshard's ukele accompaniment as Mrs. Townsend Claude, Mrs. Robert Spiller and Mrs. Claire Wilcox, wearing white lace and embroidered dresses, walked about on the stage balancing their large, feather-trimmed hats. Their exit was to the lively tune, "Come, Josephine, in My Flying Machine."

The third scene opened with the singing by Mrs. March of "The Spinning Wheel" and pictures, the last two to a Shut-In who makes fascinating articles from them for a child's hospital.

Members are reminded of the March 15 meeting at 2 p. m. in Borough Hall and urged to bring all coupons to this meeting.

Spring Scrap Collection

Scrap metal consisting of iron, steel, copper, brass, aluminum and tin is now more urgently needed than ever, so that our ever increasing armed forces may be adequately supplied with armaments to cover all branches of the service.

This scrap collection will be conducted within the Borough of Swarthmore early in April. Further details and dates of collection will be announced later.

Tin cans will NOT be accepted for collection at this time but should be carefully conserved and properly prepared and will be made subject of a special collection at a later date.

MOTHERS HEAR NURSERY HEAD

Mrs. Crookston Will Consider "Sex Education" This Afternoon

Mrs. J. J. Crookston will discuss "The Foundations of Sex Education" at the regular meeting of the Swarthmore Mothers' Club to be held today, March 12, at 2:45 P. M. in the Woman's Club. The talk and discussion will be followed by a tea.

Mrs. Crookston, who is the director of the Friends' Central Nursery School, is well known to members of the club. She has discussed this subject and its problems with club members in former years and her attitude and experience have been most helpful to other mothers.

The younger discussion group will meet at the home Mrs. Wm. F. Utte, 223 Park Avenue, March 17 at 3 P. M. Mrs. George Menke, a club member, will speak on "Sex Education."

Legion Auxiliary Needs Workers

Issues Appeal for Helpers at Weekly Service Meet, and Call for March 15

A special appeal for workers on Fridays from 9:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the Gilcrest home, 318 Harvard avenue, is made to this community.

The type of work includes cutting out patches, pinning, tuffing and basting. It is creative work with but little sewing. Apart from being interesting, the finished products of blankets, knee robes and household articles will contribute much toward warmth and comfort among servicemen in bare, needy homes. The community is asked to give a few hours to this project.

Fifty Victory books were sent from the Auxiliary Salvage campaign to the Woman's Club.

Other donations from salvage since February 1 have been baby clothes, 197 magazines, used stamps, tin foil, 34 packs of playing cards, one puzzle, two pairs of pants, one blanket, one overcoat, two blankets for our boys in submarines, cards and pictures, the last two to a Shut-In who makes fascinating articles from them for a child's hospital.

Members are reminded of the March 15 meeting at 2 p. m. in Borough Hall and urged to bring all coupons to this meeting.

Tri-Sponsor Gandhi Speaker

The Swarthmore Women's Club, the Women's International League, and the League of Women Voters are cooperating in a joint meeting at the Women's Club at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, March 24, at which the speaker will be Haridas Muzumdar of India.

His subject will be "India and the United Nations' Dilemma." It is of special interest that Mr. Muzumdar is one of the followers of Gandhi. He is also the author of two books, the latest entitled "United Nations of the World," which he will be glad to autograph at the meeting to which Swarthmoreans are cordially invited.

Mrs. Frescoln has been elected Delegate to the 52nd Continental Congress, National Society, D.A.R., to be held in Cincinnati, O., April 17-21.

Attention is called at this time to the amended Flag Code which requires the right hand to remain on the heart throughout giving of Pledge of Allegiance.

"Top Hat" Saturday Film at College

Next Week's Showing of "Abe Lincoln in Illinois" to End Current Series

"Top Hat" starring Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers will be the feature of the movies in Clothier Memorial at college Saturday night, March 13 at 7 and at 9. On the same program will be several shorts: "Air for G String," "Accordian Serenade," "Sports in the U.S.S.R.," and "Flying Leather." As is the custom of the college, these movies are open to people of the borough and the Convalescent Annex of the United States Naval Hospital.

"Top Hat" which dates from 1935, is one of the better Fred Astaire films. The story is unimportant—the same old mistaken identity theme that has served so many musical-comedies. Despite the slender story, the film is sprightly, witty, and urbane. Furthermore the lyrics and music are by Irving Berlin. "Isn't This a Lovely Day?" "Check to Check," "Fancy Free" and "Top Hat, White Tie and Tails" are some of the remembered songs from this picture. Best of all, this film finds Astaire and Rogers at top form. All that need be added is that they are beautifully supported by a strong cast including Edward Everett Horton, Helen Broderick, Erik Rhodes, Eric Blore and Donald Meek.

Next week the feature of the college will be "Abe Lincoln in Illinois," starring Raymond Massey and Ruth Gordon. This will be the last movie program for the current academic year.

Modern Dance Groups to Give Children's Program On March 20

The Modern Dance Groups of Swarthmore College are presenting a Dance Program for Children, on Saturday afternoon, March 20th, at 3 o'clock, in the Women's Gymnasium at the College.

The Dance Groups are inviting to this program all faculty children, children from Swarthmore and their parents and friends and the children from the Wallingford orphanage.

As the program has been arranged especially for the children, the dances, which have been composed by the students and their director, Alice Gates, are intended to suit their tastes in particular. It is certain, however, that older people, too, will enjoy this program, if they are still children at heart!

The audience will have a chance to meet Winnie the Pooh, and his friend Christopher, and Eeyore, and Piglet, and Rabbit and his Friends—And-Relations—the Three Little Pigs, and the Little White Donkey—and the Pied Piper—and other folks that it may never have heard of. That makes it all the more fun.

There is no admission charge.

Harris of North Swarthmore avenue, was married to Mr. Samuel George Maule, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Collins Maule of Bryn Mawr on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. David Braun in the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. Harris, wore a gown of ivory faille and satin, made with a fitted bodice, featuring a heart-shaped neckline and long, tapering sleeves. The full skirt flared to form a sweeping train of satin. Her tulle veil fell from a head-dress of heirloom Brussels lace and she carried a silver prayer book belonging to the bridegroom's mother, with a shower of forget-me-nots and white sweet peas.

Mrs. Allan Clyde Hale, Jr. was her sister's matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Janet Harris, sister of the bride; Miss Nancy Maule, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Patricia Geop of Philadelphia; and Mrs. George Lyon, Jr. of Detroit, Mich. The bridal attendants were dressed alike in dusty pink, the bodices of silk jersey, made with short-quarter length sleeves and V-necks, and with wide skirts of chiffon. Their headresses were flat bows of matching grosgrain ribbon with short veils. They carried bouquets of magnolia leaves and pink gladioli. Mrs. Hale's bouquet was formed of red anemones and magnolia leaves.

Mrs. Harris wore a becoming gown of vanilla crepe, studded with palmettes, a hat of sea-foam green and a corsage of green orchids.

The bridegroom's mother chose a cherry red costume, with white accessories, a white flowered hat and a white orchid corsage.

If you trip over a telephone cord and break the wire, your telephone goes "dead". If water drips on the cord from a wet umbrella or an open window, that means trouble, too. Dropping a telephone doesn't do it a bit of good and twisted cords will some day break and cause a "noisy line".

Because of war-time shortages of copper wire, gasoline, tires and manpower, we urge you to take good care of your telephone. An ounce of prevention may save enough gasoline to start a bomber or enough copper to make a shell. Waste doesn't rhyme with Victory. The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white slipper satin gown cut on princess lines with sweetheart neckline and long train. Her veil of Duchess lace was held in place by a Queen Anne coronet. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of double white violets.

Hear Will Speaker

On Wednesday, March 10, recent experiences in Japan were related by the Rev. Theodore S. Walter under the auspices of the women's International League and the Presbyterian Church. Mr. Walter arrived in this country in August, after 26 years spent in Japan. His point of view on the Japanese preserves that balance and justice of consideration which is urged by those concerned with post-war issues. Dessert preceded the meeting which has held at the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. E. Fay Campbell of Cornell avenue entertained Rev. Walter at tea in the afternoon. Members of the College Peach party are invited, with church and personal friends particularly interested in the speaker and his comments on Japan.

ONE TOUCH OF NATURE

I Heard a Jungle Thrush
I heard a jungle thrush that had no name
Peruse the air with notes that had no bond,
A harpist, swaying on a golden frond,
It plucked the forest's strings, — but not for fame.

I heard its note — first low, resounding, clear —
Succeeded by a peal of tiny bells;
Then, like an artist when his passion wells,
It whistled to the canyon's startled ear.

Now all the jungle held its darkened breath,
While soul returned to stay the pallid thrush,
Until it once again dispelled the hush,
Proclaiming life the nemesis of death.

And then I felt that all my thoughts were birds,
For many things were thoughts that had no words.

'Y' HEAD TELLS OF TIMELY PROBLEM

Woman's Club Learns of Juvenile Delinquency and Teacher Turnover

C. Baker Thompson, principal of the Swarthmore High School and Emery M. Nelson, director of the Chester Y.M.C.A., spoke at the Woman's Club on Tuesday on problems close to this community.

Few realize what is happening to school faculties as teachers are in demand for more remunerative positions because of their training and experience. According to Mr. Thompson, there is no definite policy in the state for improving the situation in regard to the turnover in school staffs.

Invited by the Woman's Club to describe the present situation, Mr. Thompson listed two bills, House Bill 124 offering a more permanent solution and House Bill 136 offering a bonus of $300 to induce teachers to remain in the schools.

The club asked the legislative committee, Mrs. Carl de Moll chairman, to consider the matter and bring its recommendations before the club as soon as possible.

Mrs. W. F. G. Swann introduced Mr. Nelson, who spoke on "Juvenile Delinquency." After many years of intensive work in juvenile courts as the representative of Ministerial Associations in Scranton and Chester, the speaker found increased delinquency comes from broken homes, too much leisure, crowded living, lack of opportunity for adventure, bootlegging scarce commodities, and outside influences.

Courts seldom find Boy Scouts, Y.M.C.A. members, Sunday School attendants or children connected with any character building groups before them, he said.

There is need of leadership since so many workers have joined the armed forces. Society must solve the Juvenile Delinquency problem perhaps by the parents serving the sentence as the Chinese do or having the child's parents pay his board in the reform school. "Prevention is the practical way. A visit to a court is a good place to begin but not conducive to a restful night of sleep."

An anonymous donor had arranged a beautiful basket of flowers for Mrs. Nelson and a gift of two Y.M.C.A. memberships for boys of Mr. Nelson's choosing.

Nason Chairs Forum

Dr. John W. Nason, head of the college, presided over the initial session of yesterday's United Nations Forum in Philadelphia's Academy of Music.

Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, Dr. C. L. Hsia, Dr. Walter Duranty and Sir Gerald Campbell addressed this meeting which preceded evening speeches by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Governor Harold E. Stassen, William C. Bullitt, and Associate Justice Owen J. Roberts.

Some 35 Swarthmoreans attended the Forum. Members of the International Relations of the Woman's Club, Mrs. A. M. Bosshardt chairman, attended in a group. The following members of a weekly reading group were present at both sessions, being joined by their husbands for dinner and the night program: Mrs. R. Chester Spencer, Mrs. Arthur R. Dana, Mrs. Henry R. Harris, Mrs. Earle P. Yerkes, Mrs. Henry A. Piper, Mrs. Raymond K. Denworth, Mrs. Joseph J. Geer, Mrs. E. N. Hay, Mrs. Roy W. Delaplaine, Mrs. J. V. S. Bishop, all of Swarthmore, and Mrs. Clayton Albright and Mrs. Herbert F. Fraser, of Wallingford.

its fall production for juniors of the "Emperor's Clothes," and a 32nd degree Mason. He was elected a director of the Swarthmore Library Association in 1939, serving for three years.

Friends memorial services were held Wednesday morning at Friends Central Church and Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Oliver Bair's. At the morning service Clayton Faraday, Jr., a member of the faculty who had attended Camp Tip, then through Mr. Crouch's guidance entered Friends Central and Swarthmore College shared this memory which hundreds of boys whose lives he touched will echo: "When 12 years of age seeing him, lord of all he owned on the St. Lawrence; he knew all the birds and trees and what kind of soil best corn grew in, and I think perhaps most of the interest I may have today in the outdoor world was derived from my close association with him on the St. Lawrence."

Another co-worker remembered that "generally at the close of the year he would ask us over the summer vacation to 'make a new friend, read a new book, become possessed of a new idea' . . . that he frequently formulated for us certain laws of life and we knew as he gave them to us that they were laws formulated for his own life."

Interment was at Skanateles, N. Y. following a Masonic service Thursday at 2 p.m.

In addition to his widow he is survived by five sisters: May Crouch, Director of Nurses at Allentown Hospital; Frances Crouch of New York City, Mrs. W. Steinway of Greenhills, Ohio; Mrs. George Littlefield of Alexandria, Ky.; Mrs. Henry Grouse of East Lynn, Md.; and two brothers Charles W. Crouch of Red Bank, N.J., and Dr. Paul Crouch of Oxford, N.Y.

Rumsey who has received a commission in the United States Army will serve an internship at the Philadelphia General Hospital before entering the armed forces.

Red Cross War Fund Passes Half Way Mark of $15,000 Goal

McCabe Headed Special Gifts Committee Boosts $2160 Residential Total to Date With $5900 Return as Workers Report Most Residents Eager to Give

Heartening to all hard-working solicitors in the local Red Cross War Fund which had reached a total of $8316 by Thursday noon is the eager willingness of Swarthmore residents to give all they can and even a little more to this fund which is to support the war and emergency relief work, and the multiple interest, economically administered activities of the American Red Cross.

The total of $2160 which had been raised by Thursday noon by house-to-house canvassing does not disclose the generous, heart-felt gifts to back up Swarthmore's service men but the following cases cited at random may do so. One canvasser's territory which includes just seven homes of moderate income has secured $106 so far in the campaign with two contributions yet to be received; last year the same district contributed $38. Another eight house district which in the last drive contributed $150 has thus far by house-to-house and special gift solicitation given $412. A section which has never exceeded $24 has to date reached $70. If Swarthmore is to reach its quota every individual contributor must at least double his gift.

Included in the general total is $5900 raised by a prompt and earnest campaign by a War Fund Special Gifts committee headed by Thomas B. McCabe. This committee's achievement is hailed by Mrs. Sewell W. Hodge, local Red Cross chairman, as the boost which puts the drive here over the halfway mark.

Particularly moving is the eagerness of scout to join in the giving. Girl Scout Mariners have already sent in a substantial gift as have the J.J.s. Fifth and Ninth grades have asked permission—quite apart from Junior Red Cross which does not contribute to War Funds—to place boxes in their school rooms and already have accomplished amounts high enough to split them each into an effort to back a service man for a year. The College avenue school kindergarten has a Red Cross

BOROUGH CASH HIGH

Borough Council at its regular meeting Wednesday night adopted the fiscal budget to be filed with state authorities. Councilman Frank R. Markley's recommendation to change street lighting available at a saving of approximately 3% per annum was adopted. The proposed plan becomes effective April 1. It will reduce the wattage on lamps in the unpass but make little change along the remainder of Chester road. Borough street lights will be reduced 3%.

A letter from Miss Frances White was read protesting the nuisance of pigeons on her property.

The borough's cash balance at the end of February was reported to be $33,113 as against $29,283 at the same period last year, an increase of $3830. In the absence of President D. W. R. Morgan, Wallace McCurdy presided. Other members present were Andrew Simpson, S. R. Sutherland, Roy G. Rinchiff, George M. Ewing, Burgess John H. Pittman and Borough Solicitor Clarence G. Myers were in attendance.

MOTHERS' CLUB PLANS BENEFIT

Announcement of March Affair Follows Helpful Talk by Mrs. Crookston Friday

Mrs. J. J. Crookston discussed "The Foundations of Sex Education" at the regular meeting of the Swarthmore Mothers' Club held Friday, March 12, in the Women's Club.

Mrs. Crookston believes that the foundations of sex education begin with the grandparent's home life. Frudishness here is carried on through the parents and thus to the children. Sex should always be regarded as wholesome, natural and right, and parents who regard it otherwise will find it hard to treat the subject correctly with their children. Parents must think out the proper attitude to sex, in order to give their children the right approach.

Sex, as defined by Mrs. Crookston, is "an appetite, necessary to the continuation of life. For satisfaction of this appetite a partner is required." Because this is a necessary appetite it brings with it a sense of responsibility. It should always be connected with depth of thought. Birth control even though practiced, should never be lightly used and husband and wife should always remember the background of creative procreancy.

"Children are so intuitive that they sense parent problems in sex life. Since this is so, parents should try to improve their sex experience—it should be a growth throughout the married life. Children to grow up with a normal and healthy interest in their own as well as the other sex, and to do this, they need to feel a sense of harmony between the parents. The child's attitude begins to be conditioned when he is a baby. All parts of the body are good and fine, and we should always use the correct terms when referring to each of them."

The main thing, for parents, to remember in answering children's questions, sex or otherwise, is to answer them so that the child will come back for more, according to Mrs. Crookston. The feeling in the child that he can always "ask his parents" about anything will do more to offset the problem of neighborhood "bad" boy or girl, than anything else.

Mrs. Crookston concluded by reminding all that they should like their children whether they are good or bad, words and sex knowledge.

Announcement is made of a Benefit Bridge Party to be held in the Women's Club Wednesday evening, March 18. Mrs. Howard Turner is chairman of tickets. Both men and women are invited. Players are requested to bring their own cards and pencil.

The eligibility of students to attend college while in the Army will be established until they have completed basic military training, but the tests of April 2 will provide the candidate with a certificate of qualification which will assign him to a Replacement Center as a potential Army Specialized Training Program trainee.

A student who qualifies in this manner may be assigned to college in uniform, with pay, to pursue a curriculum of study for which he has shown himself qualified. All male applicants in the following groups are eligible for the Army:

An Ovenful of POTATO

We'll admit that a baked potato tastes good, but why waste an ovenful of heat on one vegetable? Instead . . . plan your meals wisely! You can cook a complete dinner, including roasts, vegetables, biscuits and dessert, all at one time in your automatic gas or electric oven. And the net results are savings in both time and fuel.

Once great passenger trains had the right-of-way. And they will again! But right now there is a war to be won. So trains vital to the war effort get priority.

And we don't think there is a single American who would have it otherwise. In fact, evidence of that grows daily. For their train is late, business men take it as something that can't be helped. They know why.

Third Ashton Talk Teaches Youth to Hear Imaginatively The third of the series of Mrs. George Ashton's four musical talks for young people was held Wednesday, March 10, in the Woman's Club House.

The program was designed to show that composers were not writing a great variety of things and in their music can be heard sounds representing birds, animals, bells and many moods such as sorrow, joy and fear. In this talk that was thrust upon us by Tojo and his yellow devils, May he never forget December 7, 1941.

My best to all my friends in Swarthmore, and my thanks to you for keeping me informed of happenings at home. I commend you heartily on your work. CAPT. E. C. AIKEN

Dear Editor: This is the third letter that I have written to you about the same subject. However, I keep on having to write you because I am so sure that I am not alone in feeling that it is an injustice to let them down in any way. Without the ammunition, food, gasoline, and other essentials they are helpless and I don't forget it. They are the enemy's best day to see, so we must do our best each day to see that they get it. Slackers at home cost lives in the front lines.

It makes me burning mad to walk up to the "village" every day at almost any time, and see all of the parking spaces taken by cars owned by people who are not doing such a thing. Most of the people here won't give up a single so-called luxury unless it is made impossible to get because there either isn't any at all to get or because it is rationed.

Bluejackets

Against the surging tide of blood and tears. Like a snarling oak tree which will never bend. So you shall stand erect until the end. Conserving hopes and overcoming fears. Until at last the ruthless flame that sears the earth is vanquished by the souls of men.

As life and death combine in a blend of peace, you shall have won the victor's cheers. You are strong. Let your resolve increase. That not one shipmate shall have died in vain. Yours is to be the glory and the peace. Today is the hour of the hour of the hour. Yours is the sacred privilege to release the conquered people from the tyrant's chain.

ENSIGN CHARLES V. THACKARA, U.S.N.R. The above sonnet appeared in "Hit the Deck," published at Fort Everades where Ensign Thackara is stationed.

DRIPS... that cost you money

Are you dropping pennies down the drainpipe? Sounds foolish, doesn't it? Yet, it's just as foolish to let a dripping hot water faucet run up your fuel bill.

Keep your gas or electric water heater operating efficiently by observing these three economy rules: (1) Repair leaky faucets; (2) Don't let the water run while washing hands or dishes; (3) Don't use more hot water than is necessary at any time.

The war has brought changes in the very busy month. A total of 675 visits were made. The requests for nursing service have increased tremendously...

A private duty nurse in the home is a luxury which many families of moderate income have never been able to afford and which, because of the shortage of nurses, few people are now able to secure. Families must be notified that nurses from this agency are available to them as well as to families which cannot pay. Too often the impression prevails that the Community Health Society nurse is a "charity" nurse alone...

HINDU LECTURER FRIENDLY CIRCLE LISTS DILEMMAS Varied Charities

Dr. Haridas Muzumdar, noted Hindu lecturer and sociologist spoke at the Swarthmore Friendly Circle during the past 12 months. This fact was brought out at the annual meeting, held Thursday March 18 at the home of Mrs. John Eastlinger, of 100 Columbia avenue, when reports were presented and elections held. Of this sum, some $400 was collected through personal solicitation of the members for Camp Sunshine, Delaware County's summer project for undernourished children. The Friendly Circle considers Camp Sunshine one of its major interests.

In addition, money has been spent in smaller sums to take care of various needs, especially of children. Milk is being furnished to families in which the budget does not allow for a sufficient quantity. Glasses will be provided for other children who need this care. The shoe problem, a major one in many families, is being solved for several through a special fund in the "shoe box." An aged couple getting along on a very meager income, is provided from time to time with the little extra sum which eases the strain for them.

In these and many other ways, the Friendly Circle's effort, so quietly done, is making a difference to families in the immediate vicinity of the borough. Names of those assisted are not made public, and the friendly, personal touch, in the hands of a few of the members, is given in a true spirit of neighborliness.

There are present more than 60 members in the active section of the Circle. Last week's meeting was the bringing out between 40 and 50 women. Mrs. A. R. Redgrave, the new president, by the retiring president, Mrs. F. Stewart Brown, Mrs. Brown thanked the retiring officers and the membership at large for the fine cooperation given during the two years' term just completed.

List Victory Garden Information Arrangements have been made to plow, harrow, lime and fertilize various pieces of ground for victory gardens. Plots are located on South Chester road and Yale Avenue; South Chester road and University place; Yale Avenue near Crum Creek Bridge; Rutgers avenue near the old Bank Building; Rutgers avenue on both sides of the street below Yale to Westdale avenue; Park avenue next to Borough Hall; Vassar avenue extreme end, west side; Dickinson avenue and Drexel road; lot in the middle of Columbia avenue on the south side; Benjamin West avenue near Swarthmore avenue; old Emmons estate; Ogden avenue near Thayer road.

Arrangements have been made to put 100 tons of mushroom manure, 5 tons of lime on the soil and plow them under. Ten tons of 3-8-7 Commercial Victory Garden fertilizer will be put on the soil and harrowed under. The ground will then be ready for planting.

Sections 30 x 50 feet will be staked off. This has proved to be as much as an inexperienced gardener can take care of in proper fashion. For each such plot a charge of $5 will be made. This is somewhat more than actual cost of preparation of the soil, the remainder is held for future contingencies and any balance will be returned at the end of the season.

The committee is anxious that all who desire lots have them as close as possible to their homes. In order to protect the neighboring gardens, it is necessary to put on the restriction that any garden which is not kept free from weeds and insects and thus becomes a nuisance is forfeited to the committee.

Harry Wood of Swarthmore College is technical adviser to the committee. Throughout the season pertinent instructions will be published concerning plantings and insecticides. Please follow the Defense Council Bulletins.

SWARTHMORE COLLEGE LIBRARY PUT RED CROSS WAR FUND OVER

SWARTHMORE, PA., MARCH 26, 1943

WAR FUND TOPS 2/3 IN LAST LAP

Every Red Cross Worker Rallies for Final Effort to Push Borough Drive Over

With five days left for Swarthmore to reach its quota the Red Cross War Fund had topped the two-third mark Thursday with a total of $10,532 collected. An incomplete report from residential canvassers accounted for $327 since Saturday's tally and John Michael, chairman of the business committee had gathered in $105 to swell the $256 already reported by his committee which will make a final whirlwind solicitation before the drive's end March 31.

Drive chairmen Mrs. R. Blair Price and Mrs. Franklin S. Gillespie are eloquent with praise for their hard-plugging solicitors whose enthusiasm sends them back and back again to homeowners not yet reached. They ask every Swarthmorean not yet contacted to send his contribution directly to them so that Swarthmore's return Wednesday night may be up to its $15,000 quota promptly. Canvassers have worked diligently to cover their territories but reaching busy residents can be an elusive task.

Mrs. Price is expecting Ridley Township in which every home is being contacted by an enthusiastic group of workers under the chairmanship of Mrs. Arthur Baker to push the community thermometer up as the final returns come in. Ridley Township High School's Varsity Club has organized an appealing campaign there. Graduate students at home on furloughs have talked for the Red Cross to the school which has already raised $135.

This is the tough last lap of the drive. These last five days will determine whether Swarthmore will rise to its share in helping the Red Cross meet the greatest demands in all its years of distinguished service to humanity.

Presents Humber Resolution

Clubwomen Find Speaker's Argument Compelling and Timely; Commend Canteen

New and long-time members of the Woman's Club of Swarthmore heard Mrs. Esther Holmes Jones a leader in the effort to get the Humber Resolution on World Federation adopted by the Pennsylvania Legislature plead her case Tuesday afternoon. A mealless, canless luncheon prepared by the Red Cross Canteen under the day's chairmanship of Mrs. Birney K. Morse and served by the club's serving committee chaired for the occasion by Mrs. Frank McCowan preceded her talk. Luncheon tables were festive with bouquets of white roses.

Mrs. Jones stated that since 4800 treaties have proved inadequate in the international community civilization has craved and a World Government with laws and enforcement seems to be the only alternative to end wars that "State Resolution on Federation" provides a way for people through their legislatures to ask their representatives in Congress to support and vote for a resolution approving the principle of world government. Also it asks the President to initiate the procedure necessary to formulate a constitution for World Federation to be submitted to all nations for ratification.

The resolution's preamble points out that "the principle of federation permits free peoples to unite under one authority without impairing their local self-government." Mrs. Jones reminded her audience, North Carolina, New Jersey, and Maryland have voted favorably on the resolution which will be presented to the State Legislature on March 23, in the following form:

Be it resolved: First, All peoples of the earth should be united in a commonwealth of nations.

The General Assembly of Pennsylvania requests the Senators and Members of the House of Representatives in Congress from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to support and vote for a Resolution in the Congress of the United States, approving the principle of World Federation and requesting the President of the United States to initiate the procedure necessary to formulate a Constitution for the Federation of the World, which shall be submitted to each nation for its ratification.

Second, A copy of this Resolution shall be sent to the Senators and Representatives in Congress from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Alexander S. van Dyck accompanied Mrs. A. M. Bosshardt in a group of songs which included "Danny Boy", "Vienna, City of Dreams", and Gounod's "Ave Maria". Mrs. W. F. G. Swann played two numbers "The Spanish Dance" on her violin and "The Swan" on the viola.

Garden Speaker Tuesday
H. O. Wilcox, director of the Delaware County Agricultural Extension Association which cooperates with Pennsylvania State College and U. S. Dept. of Agriculture will talk Tuesday afternoon March 23 at 1:30 on Home Vegetable Gardens. Members are urged to bring friends to this open meeting. Hostesses will be Mrs. Louis W. Wheelock and Mrs. Roland L. Eaton. Mrs. Lloyd Harrison will preside at the tea-table.

The Drama Section will not meet. See a day to the Red Cross War Fund may save a soldier's life.

Auxiliary Sponsors Essay Competition

Sets Contest Close at March 26; Lists Cast-offs Needed for Charitable Works

An essay contest on "Making America Strong" will come to a close on Friday, March 26, when three judges will choose for the Legion Auxiliary the winning essay by the Swarthmore Junior High School student, who most cleverly and convincingly presents this subject. The award will be $25.00 and the winning essay will be entered in the State contest. An encyclopedia will be given to its winner, and $100 will be bestowed on the essay chosen by judges in the national and final contest.

At the regular meeting Monday, it was voted to send $10 to the Red Cross Campaign, $15 for candy (Easter gifts) to Coatesville and Perry Point Hospitals, $5 to assist in repairs at the Philadelphia Naval Hospital (Solarium) and an Easter dress to Mary Snyder, adopted orphan from Scotland Home.

Friends of the Auxiliary are asked to notice the changes in sewing days at the Glenhurst, Friday, March 19 will proceed as scheduled but for the next two weeks the group will meet on Wednesday, March 24 and March 31 from 9:30 to 4:00. Workers are asked to bring box lunches.

The auxiliary took 21 garments to the Council meeting on March 10 for the State Child Welfare Shower for children of veteran families. Match folders are needed by a shut-in with which to create objects for a child's hospital. Playing cards and old silk underwear are requests from the Philadelphia Naval Hospital. Mr. Brown from the U.S.O. will call for magazines on Saturday, March 20.

When cleaning attics Swarthmoreans are urged to give any apparently useless article to the Salvage Campaign of the Auxiliary, leaving them at 318 Harvard Avenue—especially clothing and toys.

Monday this Auxiliary unit 427 celebrated the birthday of the American Legion which was formed in Paris on March 14, 24 years ago by an informal talk made by Mrs. E. G. McGuinness, sub-chairman of Delaware County. She traced the progress of a Legion bill as it is conceived and passed from committee to department head, department convention and Washington. Mrs. McGuinness in her intelligent and interesting remarks touched thoughtful material to her listeners.

box also and youngsters bring their small gifts there in the certainty that under the Red Cross banner they will help their soldier, sailor friends. One Swarthmore child began to work before the drive started on her own War Fund, aiming by three cent sales to raise what she could. When she saw Mrs. A. M. Lackey's window display of a Survivor's Kit she set her heart on reaching the four dollars needed for it. Now that she has turned it in to her neighborhood collector she feels a little better when she reads about seamen rescued from cold waters.

Included also in the $8316 Thursday total is $256 raised by the business section committee headed by John Michael which has not yet made its final report but is actively at work on a good showing from this district. According to reports as the Swarthmorean went to press the thermometer in the College Pharmacy window should go up with a real push as week-end returns are in. The fact remains that if Swarthmore is to do its share in this campaign which is crucially vital to every serviceman and to civilians the two weeks remaining must see continued generous giving on the part of every single Swarthmorean. War Fund chairman Mrs. Franklin S. Gillespie and Mrs. R. Blair Price have organized an efficient campaign. They know that Swarthmore can and will not shirk its duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl de Moll of Park avenue had a brief and unexpected visit from their son-in-law and daughter Capt. James D. Nelson, Medical Corps, U. S. Army and Mrs. Nelson on Monday night.

Capt. Nelson has, since last October, been stationed at a Base Hospital in the Middle East. He flew to this country on a special mission and will be returning to the Middle East after a short leave which will be spent in Washington, D. C. where Mrs. Nelson now resides.

Mr. and Mrs. de Moll left this morning for Washington to be with the Nelsons over the week-end.

Mrs. Plummer Reports Quick Growth in Requests for Service

At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the Community Health Society Mrs. Plummer, the Supervising Nurse, reported that February was a very busy month. A total of 675 visits were made. The requests for nursing service have increased tremendously. The population of the territory served by this agency has grown far above normal size due to industrial activity. Volunteers have been giving varied services to the agency due to the shortage of nurses. During the past month 47 hours of service were contributed by volunteers. Mrs. Margaret C. Neal, Mrs. L. J. Koch, and Mrs. G. W. Sweet, all graduate nurses, have volunteered their services to assist the employed staff.

The war has brought changes in the work during the past year, some services were curtailed and new opportunities presented themselves for greater service. The society believes now is the time for the pay service to be emphasized. Nursing service to families who can pay is more needed now than ever before because of the scarcity of private duty nurses and physicians, and because of limited hospital facilities.

A private duty nurse in the home is a luxury which many families of moderate income have never been able to afford and which, because of the shortage of nurses, few people are now able to secure. Families must be notified that nurses from this agency are available to them as well as to families which cannot pay. Too often the impression prevails that the Community Health Society nurse is a "charity" nurse alone, and that employing her carries the stigma of "charity" or deprives the needy of her care. This false impression must be corrected and the pay service better known and better understood wherever it is needed.

Griffin, Alice F. Barber, Mrs. Henry I. Hoot, Mrs. J. Passmore Cheney, S. S. Rutherford, John F. Sperry, President and President Charles T. Shaw in the chair.

Librarian Bettina Hunter's report for the months of January and February showed a total circulation of 5703—a gain of 926 over the same period in 1942. Cards were issued to 48 new readers and 207 new books were purchased.

Mrs. Hoot's report as treasurer showed disbursements of $708.09 covering librarian's salary, pay to student assistants, janitor, cost of books and magazines, telephone, and supplies.

Mrs. Told reported for the children's section that very few new juvenile books had been purchased since this committee is concentrating on the spring book week which the library has featured for several years.

Mrs. Griffin reported that the budget amount allocated to adult books is being spent for new books, which are being put into circulation promptly.

Miss Barber was authorized to complete the necessary plans for the vacation season.

Mr. Rutherford as chairman of the property committee reported progress on the new shelving authorized by the board. He reported that it was impossible to get additional wiring and electrical work necessary to increase the lighting. He was unable to arrange for an outside sign indicating the location of the library if feasible at this time.

The board was reminded by Miss Barber who is secretary of the Library Trustees' Association of Delaware County of its joint responsibility with the Springfield Public Library Board to meet in the local library Tuesday evening March 30. She urged their attendance.

Patrons of the Swarthmore Public Library who find difficulty in remembering library hours are asked to clip out and preserve the following schedule:

HINDU LECTURER LISTS DILEMMAS

Gandhi Companion on Salt March Raises Numerous Difficult Problems

Dr. Haridas Muzumdar, noted Hindu lecturer and sociologist, spoke at the Swarthmore Friendly Circle during the past 12 months. This fact was brought out at the annual meeting, held Thursday March 18 at the home of Mrs. John Eastlinger, of 100 Columbia avenue, when reports were presented and elections held. Of this sum, some $400 were collected through personal solicitation of the members for Camp Sunshine, Delaware County's summer project for under-nourished children. The Friendly Circle considers Camp Sunshine one of its major interests.

Friendly Circle Lists Varied Charities

Well over one thousand dollars has passed through the treasury of Swarthmore's Friendly Circle during the past 12 months. This fact was brought out at the annual meeting, held Thursday March 18 at the home of Mrs. John Eastlinger, of 100 Columbia avenue, when reports were presented and elections held. Of this sum, some $400 were collected through personal solicitation of the members for Camp Sunshine, Delaware County's summer project for under-nourished children. The Friendly Circle considers Camp Sunshine one of its major interests.

In addition, money has been spent in smaller sums to take care of various needs, especially of children. Milk is being furnished to families in which the budget does not allow for a sufficient quantity. Glasses will be provided for other children who need this care. The shoe problem, a major one in many families, is being solved for several through a special fund in the "shoe box." An aged couple getting along on a very meager income, is provided from time to time with the little extra sum which eases the strain for them.

In these and many other ways, the Friendly Circle's effort, so quietly done, is making a difference to families in the immediate vicinity of the borough. Many of those assisted are not made public, and the Friendly Circle's personal touch, in the hands of a few of the members, is given in a true spirit of neighborliness.

The Friendly Circle present more than 60 members in the service section of the Circle. Last week's meeting was large, bringing out between 40 and 50 women. Mrs. A. R. Redgrave, the new president, took over the gavel handed to her by the retiring president, Mrs. F. Stewart Brown. Mrs. Brown thanked the retiring officers and the membership at large for the fine cooperation given her during the two years' term just completed.

Defense Council Bulletins

Office: Borough Hall — Telephone 0351
Open Weekdays 1:30-3:30 Daily

Arrangements have been made to give lawn, harrow, lime and fertilizer various pieces of ground for victory gardens. Plots are located on South Chester road and Yale avenue; South Chester road and University place; Yale avenue near Crum Creek Bridge; Rutgers avenue near the old Bank Building; Rutgers avenue on both sides of the street below Yale to Westdale avenue; Park avenue next to Borough Hall; Vassar avenue extreme end, west side; Dickinson avenue and Drexel road; lot in the middle of Columbia avenue on the south side; Benjamin West avenue near Swarthmore avenue; old Emmons estate; Ogen avenue near Thayer road.

Arrangements have been made to put 100 tons of mushroom manure, 5 tons of lime on the soil and plow them under. Ten tons of 3-8-7 Commercial Victory Garden fertilizer will be put on the soil and harrowed under. The ground will then be ready for planting.

Sections 30 x 50 feet will be staked off. This has proved to be as much as an inexperienced gardener can take care of in proper fashion. For each such plot a charge of $5 will be made. This is somewhat more than actual cost of preparation of the soil, the remainder is held for future contingencies and any balance will be returned at the end of the season.

The committee is anxious that all who desire lots have them as close as possible to their homes. In order to protect the neighboring gardens, it is necessary to put on the restriction that any garden which is not kept free from weeds and insects and thus becomes a nuisance is forfeited to the committee.

Harry Wood of Swarthmore College is technical adviser to the committee. Throughout the season pertinent instructions will be published concerning plantings and insecticides. Please follow the Defense Council Bulletins.

DRIPS... that cost you money

Are you dropping pennies down the drainpipe? Sounds foolish, doesn't it? Yet, it's just as foolish to let a dripping hot water faucet run up your fuel bill.

Keep your gas or electric water heater operating efficiently by observing these three economy rules: (1) Repair leaky faucets; (2) Don't let the water run while washing hands or dishes; (3) Don't use more hot water than is necessary at any time.

Take Heed, Hither!

Swarthmore High this year presents a much more serious, business like appearance than ever before. A tour of the building would leave no doubt that the students are in dead earnest about the war effort as well as their usual academic pursuits.

We Appreciate An Opportunity

This year many new and varied problems face the newspaper publisher which make it increasingly difficult to afford space to organizations such as the Press Club.

The Victory Corps

One hundred thirty-two members of Swarthmore High School are directly making a contribution to the war effort. Any pupils from grades nine to twelve, participating in two more school activities and the physical fitness program are eligible.

Rubella Attacks Seniors

"Oh look mommy, I've got little red freckles all over my body." But this time it isn't Red Skelton, it's just a measly bunch of high school students complaining about the recent epidemic of this disease which is sweeping through the school.

Red Cross Hits New High

Swarthmore High School surely is Red Cross conscious this year. Margaret Hamel's home room of 10th grade girls and boys has collected a total of $89.60.

FOR A BETTER WORLD

The eleventh and twelfth grade social studies classes under the direction of Margaret Hamel have been modified considerably this year to enable pupils to understand to a better degree the present world situation.

War Activities

Swarthmore High School has been keeping up to the minute in training pupils for defense work. Fire warden and messenger courses were offered free of charge to all interested pupils during the months of November and December.

High school boys, now in the service, have reported that this course is excellent preparation for similar courses used by the Army, Navy, and Marines.

Those who successfully completed the course and received their official diploma and medals from the Council of Defense are as follows: Fire Watchers: Richard Kirk, Trudy Enders, Newell West, Anne Blakely, Jim Champion, Georgiana Gamble, Mary Ann Hook, Hay Penfield, Woody Sanville, Paul Thayer, Kay Thurman, Craig Neal, Kathleen Scott, Anne Elkins, Allen Sanders, John Foster, Robert Malone and Eleanor Moor.

Math Course for Seniors

A new math course is being given to the Swarthmore High seniors under the direction of James H. Miller, Junior High math instructor, to refresh the memories of those who forgot the fundamentals of the subject.

J. J.'s Sell Defense Stamps

Since Barbara Oberer, Bobbers Brown, Sally Spencer, Sue Thatcher, Edie Thatcher, Helen Kraus, Jean Storrs and Betty Littlefield, members of the J. J.'s in Swarthmore, have sold $450 worth of defense stamps in Swarthmore High School.

French Department Activities

The French department under Adeline Strouse has been doing its part in the war effort. The proceeds from a French Club dance given recently were presented to the American Friends Service Committee.

Spanish Club

The members of Adeline Strouse's Spanish Club have prepared a unique scrap book to be sent to a school in a Spanish-American country. This international correspondence is a project of the Red Cross.

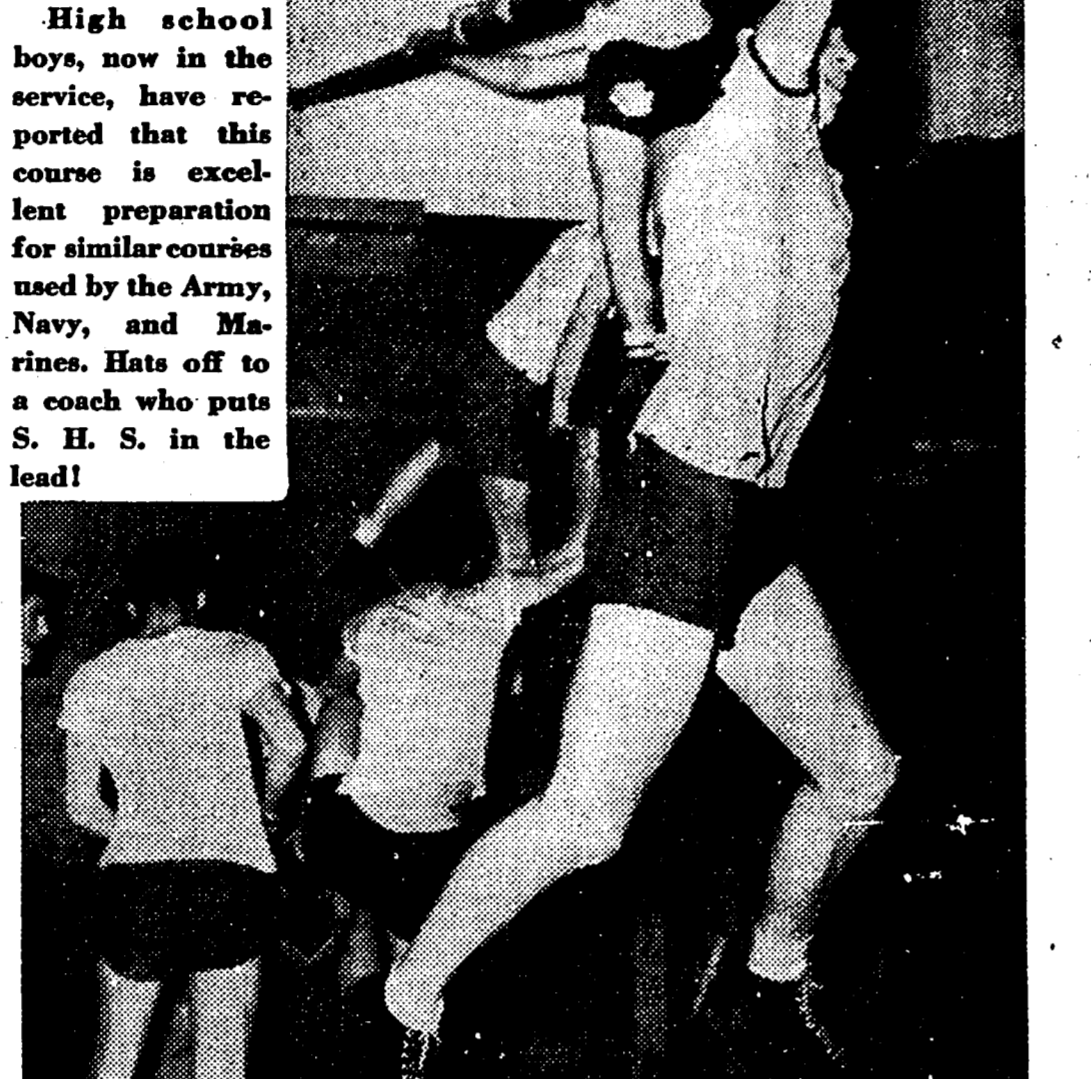

We're in it Now

When first the war came, it was like a new game. Adventure and daring, to kill without caring. To all of the youth in our school. Adventure and daring, to kill without caring.

Dr. Leslie Pinkney Hill, nationally known education author, lecturer and musician, president of Cheney Teachers' College delivered an inspiring address on racial tolerance at the National Honor Society Initiation on March 17.

SWARTHMORE COMMANDOS TOUCHENING UP

PRaise the Lord and Pass the Liniment

Up! two, three, four! Ugh! Puff! These all too familiar sounds can be heard coming from the gym at almost any hour of the day now, as the boys are whipped into shape by the new physical education course.

GIRL SPORTS

This year one of the main changes that has taken place in High School is the new physical education program. Every student is required to take five forty-five minute periods of physical exercise a week.

MUSIC NOTES

The Fifth Annual Band Concert will be presented at the Swarthmore High School Auditorium on April 16 under the direction of Richard A. Fish and Frank Lawrence. The program this year will be varied, with emphasis put on novelty numbers, including a clarinet quartet and a sousaphone solo by Fred Morey.

Track Begins

Track season opened officially last Wednesday. The first two weeks will consist primarily of getting in shape. April 7 is the date scheduled for the first meet.

Home and School to Elect

The nominating committee will report and election of officers take place at the April 5 meeting of the Home and School. The late cancellation of the anticipated program necessitates the announcement of the speaker next week.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The opinions expressed below are those of the individual writers. All letters to the Swarthmorean must be signed. Pseudonyms may be used if the identity of the writer will be published only at the discretion of the Editor.

Mariners Innovate Program

The Quiz Kids became a reality to two Mariners last Saturday. While Jane Matthews and Dinny Bonnet served as guides at the Academy of Natural Science the Quiz Kids were guests to be shown the exhibits by these volunteer Girl Scout guides. Junior Navy League Service has extended associate membership to Swarthmore Mariners. Since the service programs of the two organizations are identical in scope it seemed an elimination of duplication in effort to merge the service program. Of this step Mrs. Ruth C. Osborn National Executive for Girl Scout War Services writes: "I think this is an excellent bit of community cooperation. The tie-up with the Navy League is most appropriate. If it is successful, I shall try to arrange with the Navy League such a possibility for all Girl Scout Mariners throughout the country."

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you and the Business Association for sending me the Swarthmorean which I enjoy reading a great deal. Also if there are any spare books left over from the collection in Swarthmore our Marines over there would be glad to receive them as they have very little reading material at present. I can re-ship them out from here to our bases over there. Capt. Alvin J. Herr, Barbara and Freddy Bloom twin children of Mr. and Mrs. Herman M. Take Heed, Hither!

Swarthmore High this year presents a much more serious, business like appearance than ever before. A tour of the building would leave no doubt that the students are in dead earnest about the war effort as well as their usual academic pursuits.

We Appreciate An Opportunity

This year many new and varied problems face the newspaper publisher which make it increasingly difficult to afford space to organizations such as the Press Club. We wish to express our extreme gratitude to the Swarthmorean for allowing our club a page of its space in a time when it means so much, and to the Totds who have aided us immeasurably in creating our page.

The Victory Corps

One hundred thirty-two members of Swarthmore High School are directly making a contribution to the war effort. Any pupils from grades nine to twelve, participating in two or more school activities and the physical fitness program are eligible.

Faculty, Students in Armed Forces

During the past year, four faculty members and eight students entered the armed forces. Swarthmore High is represented in every branch of the service with two students in the Army, three in the Navy, three students in the Marine, one faculty member in the Navy Air Corps, and one student each in the Army Air Corps, Merchant Marines, and the Coast Guard.

Rubella Attacks Seniors

"Oh look mommy, I've got little red speckles all over my body." But this time it isn't Red Skunk, it's just a measly bunch of high school students complaining about the recent epidemic of this disease which is sweeping through the school.

Red Cross Hits New High

Swarthmore High School surely is Red Cross conscious this year. Margaret Hamel's home room of 10th grade girls and boys has collected a total of $8.96. Virginia Engle's 9th grade home room has volunteered money contributions for the War Fund, having collected a total of $3.07.

FOR A BETTER WORLD

The eleventh and twelfth grade social studies classes under the direction of Margaret Hamel have been studying considerably this year to enable pupils to understand to a better degree the present world situation. Units on "World Population," "Race and Cultural Relations," "Comparison of Different Types of Government," and "Problems of the Post War World," and suggestions for world organization as advanced by Ely Culbertson, Harold Stassen, Clarence Street, Henry Wallace and others, are a few of the topics that have been added.

War Activities

Defense Course Swarthmore High School has been keeping up to the minute in training pupils for defense work. Fire warden and messenger courses were offered free of charge to all interested pupils during the months of November and December.

Math Course for Seniors

A new math course is being given to the Swarthmore High seniors under the direction of James H. Miller, Junior High math instructor, to refresh the memories of those who forgot the fundamentals of the subject. The Army and Navy request that every school have such a course.

J. J.'s Sell Defense Stamps

Since October, Barbara Brown, Sally Spencer, Sue Thatcher, Edie Thatcher, Helen Kraus, Jean Storrs and Betty Littlefield, members of the J. J.'s in Swarthmore, have sold $450 worth of defense stamps in Swarthmore High School.

French Department Activities

The French department under Adeline Strouse has been doing its part in the war effort. The proceeds from a French Club dance given recently were presented to the American Friends Service Committee.

Spanish Club

The members of Adeline Strouse's Spanish Club have prepared a unique scrap book to be sent to a school in a Spanish-American country. This international correspondence is a project of the Red Cross.

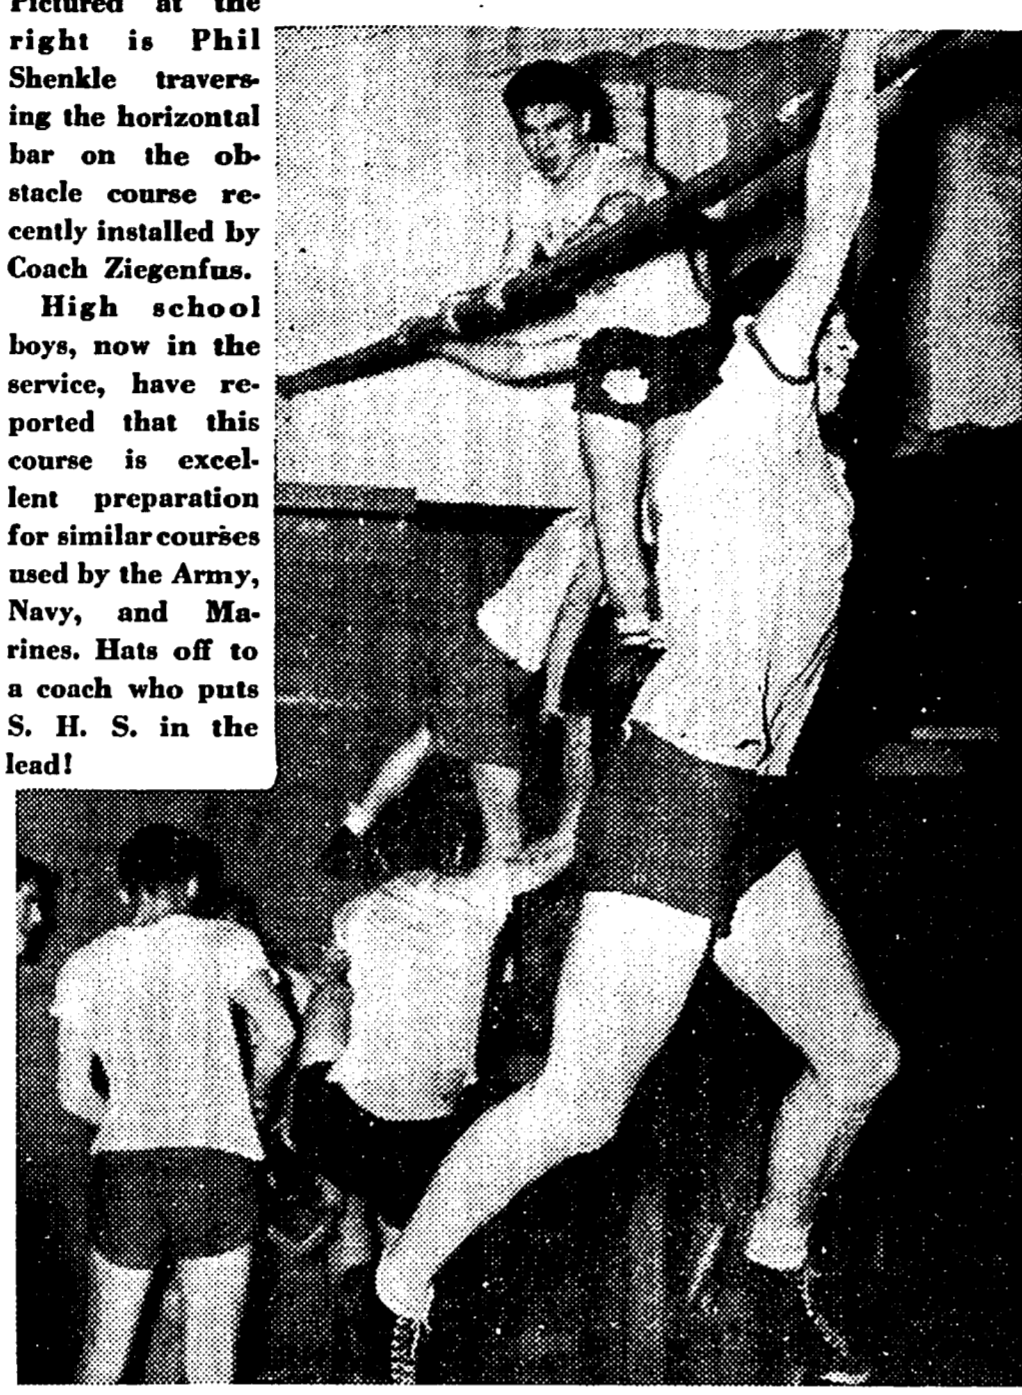

We're in It Now

When first the war came, it was like a new game. To all of the youth in our school. Adventure and daring, to kill without caring. Was a game which we didn't think cruel. Novelty thrilled us, the unusual chilled us. But we had no knowledge of war. We could not foresee the changes to be. Or ponder the problems in store.

SOUND BITES

Band Concert April 16 The Fifth Annual Band Concert will be presented at the Swarthmore High School Auditorium on April 16 under the direction of Richard A. Fish and Frank Lawrence. The program this year will be varied, with emphasis put on novelty numbers, including a clarinet quartet and a saxophone solo by Fred Morey.

SWARTHMORE COMMANDOS TOUGHENING UP

PRAISE THE LORD AND PASS THE LINIMENT

Up! two, three, four! Ugh! Puff! These all too familiar sounds can be heard coming from the gym at almost any hour of the day now, as the boys are whipped into shape by the new physical education course.

GIRL SPORTS

This year one of the main changes that has taken place in High School is the new physical education program. Every student is required to take five forty-five minute periods of physical exercise a week.

SPORTS

The Swarthmore High School basketball team ended its season with a .500 average. The Garnet won six out of twelve games not including the two wins in post-season games.

WANTS HOME NEARER

I wish to thank you and the Swarthmore Business Men's Association for sending me that swell home town paper every week. It certainly is a big comfort to receive all the news about your home town and all the people you know so well.

WANTS BOOKS

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you and the Business Association for sending me the Swarthmorean which I enjoy reading a great deal. I missed the last four (4) issues that you sent due to the fact that I was out of town for that time and upon returning was assigned to a new base, so am sending you my new mailing address with the hope that the paper will continue to arrive as I am interested in the happenings back there and also in learning where the various men in the service are stationed.

But while we're doing all this, government and municipal power systems are not paying a penny in federal taxes to help win the war. . . . Shouldn't every one do his full share?

PHILADELPHIA ELECTRIC COMPANY

How is it possible to make so much power and meet so many taxes at the same time? Because of sound business methods and long experience - because men, women and management worked together as a team.

Government and municipal power systems are not paying a penny in federal taxes to help win the war. . . . Shouldn't every one do his full share?
