SUMMER CLUB ENDS SEASON Parents' Day Marks

End of Fun For This Year

Last Friday marked the end of the Swarthmore Recreation Association's summer program. The Summer Club for children from second grade up had 106 members. The pre-school and primary group had 109 children enrolled. Nine children enjoyed the horseback riding lessons at the college.

The Summer Club held à parents' day for its last special Friday event. Mothers and fathers arriving at nine were pressed into a softball team with the staff to play against the children. The adult team won the one inning game. Then all the children present were given a turn at bats and a chance to make a run. Some of the mothers could use a bit of that good coaching Ruddy Hayes gave the Summer Club team.

The craft exhibit drew interest from parents and children. Mrs. Wayland Elsbree, craft teacher, and her assistant, Sally Woodward, spent the monning pointing out the fine work done by the children. Not on exhibit were the 62 cups made by the children for the use of the nursery school. In answer to the many inquiries of the parents about next year it was explained that there is no upper age limit for the Summer Club.

Special commendation was given for originality, consistency and faithful attendance to the following in ceramics, Nancy Carroll, Elizabeth Gibson, Lynn Mechesney, Nancy Newman, and Mary Elsbree

Will it Come Out?

Saturday afternoon at $:00 p.m. the "Mari-Elin" 19 foot sailboat built by the Karns family in the basement of their home on Wellesley road, will come out through the door. All skeptics are welcome in their old clothes. The launching will take place about August 20 at Essington.

LOCAL ATHLETES DISPLAY SPIRIT Schedule Is Planned For August Games

Swarthmore's boys baseball team continues to show steady improvement as it moves into its August schedule.

Playing almost literally between the rain drops, the local nine was able to complete eight games. Only two of these were won, but the team spirit failed to sag and in not one of the six losses did the opponents carry off the honors without a hard fight.

The team now counts an even dozen men sponsors and has played before increasingly large crowds both at home and away.

On July 15, the Swarthmoreans traveled to Upper Darby where they bowed 6 to 4 to Upland, a team composed of Upper Darby and Lansdowne players. The boys themselves and those who traveled along feel they should have won that one and are anxiously waiting for next Monday when Upland visits Swarthmore for a return game.

Manoa brought its league-leading by the American Stores Company eteran nine to Swarthmore on July 18 and went back the winner new location of the Five and Ten by a 10 to 5 scare. Larchmont Cent Store. won on the 25th at home, 6 to 5. On the 27th, the local team traveled to Ardmore and before several hundred fans, lost 11 to 4. Here, although up against one of the better boys baseball teams of the suburban areas, the younger Swarthmore boys put up a great scrap. They threatened every inning and played some of their best defensive ball of the season. Ardmore will visit Swarthmore on August 13. Rutledge returned to the local diamond and grabbed a 7 to 0 decision last Monday. Beside Upland and Ardmore, teams that will be met during August are Springfield, Llanerch, Larchmont, Wallingford, Marple Newtown, and Rutledge.

Books Needed

The Insular and Foreign Operations at the national headquarters of the American Red Cross has requested the Camp and Hospital Council Service to collect 150.000 used books for use in American Red Cross clubs and hospitals overseas. Therefore the local Camp and Hospital Committee is urging all residents to search their bookshelves for suitable books to send overseas. These books should be sent to Mrs. Theophile Salunier, 330 Princeton avenue.

The national headquarters has issued the following instructions which they request be followed explicitly:

1. Books must be in excellent condition.

2. The selection of books should consist of novels, detective stories, travel, biographies, and a few scientific books.

3. The books must not contain any written material or notes from the donors.

Real Estate Rotates

Another move in the game of real estate chess is about to be made, this time in the heart of the business section. Dr. R. C. Ammer-man, who has purchased the building at 5 South Chester road is remodeling it to suit his professional needs and will move his office to this address when the work is completed. Adolph's Barber Shop will move into the present office of the American Railway Express, which in turn will occupy the present B. J. Hoy Five and Ten Cent Store site. Renovations are in progress in the building previously occupied

Gave Their Time

Mrs. A. R. O. Redgrave, Mrs. A. E. Longwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ferris W. Mitchell, Martha Keighton, and Mrs. Nathan Speare were last Thursday's helpers at the Swarthmorean office where they wrapped Swarthmoreans for the local servicemen and women.

Anyone wishing to help with this project is urged to call Mrs. Ferris W. Mitchell, Swarthmore 0818.

GEORGE F. FENNO DIES SUDDENLY Phila. Engineer Was 17-Year Boro Resident

George F. Fenno, 60, of Swarthmore avenue died suddenly Monday morning as he was leaving the Commercial Trust Building, Philadelphia.

Mr. Fenno, a partner in the engineering firm of Fenno-Fischer and Company, Philadelphia, was a graduate of the College of the City of New York in 1903 and received his M.E. at Cornell University in 1906.

Mr. Fenno, who served as a captain in the Army Air Corps during World War I, was formerly a test inspector for the Bell Telephone Company and an insurance inspector for the Middle States Inspection Bureau. He served as vice-president of the Kissick-Fenno Company from 1919 to 1932 before forming the firm of Fenno and Fischer.

He was a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, the Engineer's Club, the Rolling Green Golf Club, and the Cor-

LT. WM. L. THORPE REPORTED KILLED Air Corps Navigator Missing Since March, 1944

The War Department has advised Mr. and Mrs. Walter L Thorpe of Dickinson avenue that the absence of their son, Lt. William L. Thorpe, reported missing in action on March 3, 1944, has been terminated by a presumptive finding of death.

Lt. Thorpe graduated from the Swarthmore High School in the class of 1940 and completed his freshman year at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, where he was a member of the Alpha Chi Rho Fraternity. He enlisted in the Army Air Corps and was inducted July 27, 1942. He reported for duty February 8, 1943, and on September 25 of that year was commissioned a Second Lieutenant at Selman Field, Monroe, La. In January of the following year, Lt. Thorpe was sent overseas from Tonopah, Nev., with the 755th Bombardment Squadron, 458th Bomb Group and arrived at the Eighth Air Corps base in England, February 2.

Lt. Thorpe was the navigator of a B-24 (Liberator) bomber which the adjutant general, in his letter, states "departed its base, 3 March 1944, on a combat mission to Berlin, Germany, and was last seen going down over the English Channel."

In addition to his parents he is survived by his brother, Lt. (jg) Robert J. Thorpe, U.S.N.R. والمحافظة والمستحجين والمراجع والمحاف in the younger group, and Patsy Finnegan, Fred Almgren, Lee Bennett, Bert Kroon, and Robert Hetherington in the older group. Special recognition goes to the following metal workers, Nancy Newman, Peggy Schumacher, Alice DeCaindry, David Almgren, Nicky Webster, Lynn Mechesney, Eddie Noyes in the younger group, and to Fred Almgren, David Williams, Lee Bennett, Nancy Grier, Beverly Harlow, Patsy Finnegan and Jim Bullitt in the older group.

The winners of the archery shoot were: at 15 yards, first Eric Bonnet, second Bob Chambers and Donald Pierce, third Bob Hetherington; at 20 yards, first Nancy Grier, second David Almgren, third Eddie Noyes, fourth Howard Shearer; at 30 yards, first Bog Lang, second Hyde Alden, third Fred Almgren and Nancy Grier, Fourth Bob Chambers.

Canoeing honors went to David Williams and Fred Almgren. Both boys worked up to Admiral which means ability to handle a canoe alone. The canoeing program was made possible through the kind-B-17 Flying Fortress in training at ness of Mr. Sheibley of the Strath the Army Air Field, Dyersburg, Haven Inn who generously donated | Tenn. the use of the canoes to the Summer Club.

Candy for the winners of the special mentions and honors, and peaches for all Summer Club members ended the six weeks of fun and good-fellowship.

AVIATOR LANGE HOME

Lt. Ernest O. Lange, Jr., who piloted an A-26 Invader Bomber of the Ninth Air Force from Laon, France, arrived at Hunter Field, Savannah, Ga., July 15. The group of 76 planes made the trip in about a week, reaching this country by the southern route.

Lt. Lange reached home July 19 and is spending a 30-day leave with his parents Prof. and Mrs. E. O. Lange of "Langewood," Baltimore pike before reporting to Indiantown Gap for further orders.

Lt. Lange is the holder of the Air Medal with one sliver Oak Leaf, four Bronze Oak Leaf Clusters, and four battle stars attached to the European Theatre transferred to a new post in the planting like many other introducof Operations Ribben.

S/Sgt. Borden is a bombsight mechanic in one of the air service groups which performs the maintenance and supply work necessary to keep the big bombers in perfect condition for their long range operations. He has been serving overseas with the 58th Wing, formerly a unit of the XX Bomber Command, since the B-29's went into action against Japan more than a year ago.

His wife, three children, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Borden reside on South Princeton avenue.

In his studies of the flora of Swarthmore, Dr. Samuel C. Palmer, emeritus of the College, has found among the plantings around the college buildings a small pink and white morning glory. This tute of Technology at Cambridge what larger native species, but it can readily be identified by its small size and somewhat different leaves. Not being able to find a description of this plant in his books, Dr. Palmer took a specimea to the Academy of Natural Sciences in Philadelphia. From there it was forwarded to the Gray Herbarium in Boston. The plant was there identified as Convolvulus Wallichiana, a native of China.

The statement from the Gray Herbarium was to the effect that this was the first time this plant had been collected in America. The Lt. Samuel M. New Ration Books for Food and Gas Before Christmas

Before Christmas rolls around you will have your new War Ration Book Five and the new "A" gasoline ration book. Distribution of these books will take place at school houses or other public buildings throughout the nation from December 3 through December 15. Actual dates to be announced later. The new "A" gasoline book will go into use December 22 but War Ration Book Five will not be used before January 1, 1946.

War Ration Book Five will be smaller than a dollar bill, containing half as many stamps as the last book issued. It will be as long as Book Four but only half as wide. The stamps will carry a number but not a letter.

The Department of Agriculture and the War Production Board has told OPA that meats and fats, canned goods, sugar and shoes all will be in tight supply for some months to come and so it looks as if a ration book will be needed throughout most of next year. To be on the safe side and avoid the expense of having to get out still another book later, OPA has set up Book Five so that it can last from 10 to 15 months if it is needed. War Ration Book Five is expected to be the last in the series of wartime ration books.

The last full set of five blue stamps in War Ration Book Four will become good on September 1. The final set of five red stamps will be validated a month later, on October 1. Since War Ration Book Five, containing the new red and blue stamps, will not go into use before January 1, it will be necessary to use other stamps in Book Four as substitutes for processed food and meat-fats stamps during the interim period use of shoe and sugar stamps will not be necessary, since sufficient stamps are provided for these items in Books Three and Four.

The new "A" gasoline book, the third issued under rationing, will differ from the present book only in color. The book will contain five sets of coupons, six coupons to a set numbered A-18 through A-23. Each set of six coupons will cover a different validity period. The first set-the coupons numbered A-18-becomes good December 22.

Gas Cooking and Heating Stoves Now Ration-Free

Gas cooking and gas heating stoves including combination ranges, except oil-gas types, may now be purchased without a ration certificate. Oil cooking, heating, combination oil-gas stoves and oil conversion burners for stoves remain.

Smoother and better

Small boys and swimmin' holes just naturally go together on hot summer days . . . and so do small boys and big, cool glasses of Supplee Sealtest Homogenized Vitamin D Milk. This smoother, better milk is a grand pickme-up after a hard day at play. It tastes wonderfully rich because every single drop has its quota of cream, and it's extra nourishing because every single drop has an equal wealth of the precious nutriments that make milk our most nearly perfect food. Get Sealtest Homogenized Vitamin D Milk from your Supplee milk man or woman, or your neighborhood storekeeper.

Philadelphia is today a great city of opportunity and accomplishment. A city whose citizens successfully employ the knowledge and experience of the past to build for the future ... not in industrial achievement alone, but in the realm of full home life and cultural advancement as well.

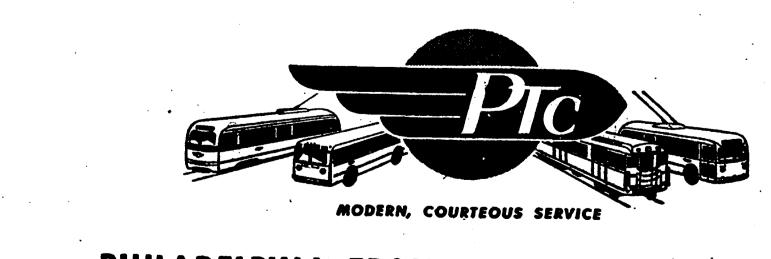

Philadelphia has more actual plans for the future now under way than any other city we know of. $100 million has been allocated by private business for improvements and developments. The City Planning Commission has under consideration $385 million in public improvements of which $205 million are recommended projects.

The reputation of Philadelphia as a home city is well deserved. 39% of Philadelphia's homes are owned by their occupants, nearly one-quarter more than the national average of all other cities having more than 50,000 inhabitants.

Philadelphia leads all cities in diversification of industry—and needed skills, whether it's making hats or building ships. Perhaps for this reason, families have been satisfied to settle down, buy a home and feel secure in their plans for the future.

One of the cultural centers of the world, Philadelphia's great universities and colleges are known everywhere. Center of medical training and research, it has more medical colleges and students than any other city. Here museums and galleries house many truly fine works of art, as well as historical collections that tell the story of man's accomplishments.

We at PTC are proud to serve Philadelphia and its citizens. In keeping with the Philadelphia aim of intelligently preparing for the future, PTC's plans are already in operation—by the end of this year 100 new buses will be in service with 220 more buses to come . . . 300 new Streamliners are called for in this plan, 100 will be delivered early next year ... 250 new trackless trolleys, plus many added service improvements highlight PTC's program to bring Philadelphia the finest transportation system in the country, fully adequate for the needs of its citizens in the new world now forming, three or four years earlier. The work was directly in charge of Dr. Mildred F. Wells and her husband W. F. Wells, cooperating with the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, the Commonwealth Fund, and the General Electric Company. The purpose of the experiment was to test the hypothesis that these lights, installed in classrooms would materially reduce the spread of air-borne infections among children in classrooms, especially in the diseases of measles, mumps, and chicken pox.

Careful studies have been made by the cooperating agencies with continual tests of the adequacy of the lamp installations. THE SWARTHMOREAN

Swarthmore Victory Rally

Swarthmore will celebrate V-J Day on Monday night August 20. The program will be held in the High School Auditorium at 8 p.m. William H. Ward will preside as chairman of the Citizen's Sponsoring Committee. There will be a few brief speeches summarizing our efforts on the home front and group singing under the direction of Otto Kraus, Jr. After the program there will be community square dancing in the High School gymnasium. L. C. Hastings will do the honors.

Representatives of the various local organizations will be seated on the auditorium stage. Service and ex-service men and women are asked to occupy the front rows in the auditorium. All those who served at home in Civilian Defense, Red Cross, and other organizations, who have uniforms, arm bands, or other insignia are asked to wear them.

> Mrs. Denworth's report shows School District for the year just closed amounted to $213,151.78, of which $186,651.47 were for current expenses involved in the operation of schools, $23,033.19 for debt service. and $3.467.12 for capital outlay.

The current expense costs include six items: A. General control Mrs. H. W. Huse and daughters $5,999.88; B. instruction $142,- > Considered from the percentage point of view it is noted that the school dollar was spent in the following proportions during the past year: For general control 2.7c; instruction 66c; auxiliary agencies 3c; operation of school plant 10.4c; maintenance of school plant 2.7c; fixed charges 2.7c; debt service 10.3c; and capital outlay 2.2c.

Of current income only 65c of the dollar is derived from local taxes, both current and delinquent. From State appropriation 15.9c are received, non-resident tuition 10.6c, balance from previous year

In actual figures Mrs. Denworth's report shows that the year's income was derived as follows: 1944 taxes $187,346.58; delinquent taxes of previous years $8,885.99; State appropriation $38,807.08; tuition of non-resident pupils $29,954.15; balance on hand from previous years $30,764.78; and miscellaneous sources $1.360.43; total income $246,618.90.

The excellent financial condition of the School District is shown by the large margin of assets over liabilities. The assets of the district are school buildings and sites $740,360.52; textbooks and equipment $71,128.45; unpaid property taxes $8,586.28; tuition receivable $1,912.30; general funds balance $33,467.12. Total assets are $860,-225.15. #### Letters To the Editor FEW FLAGS DISPLAYED

Dear Editor: Some of the finest poetry of all time has been written on "Love of Country" and the emblem which symbolizes all that that native land stands for. We thrill at every reading of such stirring lines. We thrill at the passing of the colors in any parade. But it seems as though very few of us get any thrill from displaying Old Glory on our homes.

I am amazed at the small number of flags waving from homes and business places in our town. None on the College avenue school, none on the Woman's Club, ne service flag at the underpass anymore.

I can't help toying with the thought-has the price of the good old Red, White and Blue become prohibitive? Is it too unwieldy a thing to bring home on the train? (I've seen men lugging huge garbage pails and rolls of carpet.) A flag is a long-time investment; We don't outgrow it---The style doesn't change

And the colors don't run. Now then----

Let's all buy a flag: Let's all display it. ---Mrs. Lloyd E. Kauffman.

... Spotted Targets Through

Darkness, Smoke or Fog

The Bell System—

the largest source of Radar for our fighting forces

HIS is not surprising for Radar development and production stems from the same roots that produced and continue to nourish this country's telephone system.

Radar, the instrument which enabled our land, sea and air forces to spot enemy targets through darkness, smoke or fog, was one of the outstanding new fighting instruments of the war.

Two years before Pearl Harbor the Government asked Bell Telephone Laboratories to put its wide experience and knowledge of electronics to work to help perfect Radar as a military instrument. From then on the Laboratories co-operated closely in the Radar program with the National Defense Research Committee, with Army and Navy specialists, and with scientists of Great Britain.

The Western Electric Company, manufacturing branch of the Bell System, became the Nation's largest supplier of Radar systems. One type it made was universally used by B-29's in the Pacific for navigation, target location and high altitude bombing. Another played an important part in aiming the guns on our warships.

If you're waiting for a home telephone, it helps a little to know that Radar is one of the reasons. For years telephone manufacturing plants were devoted to these war needs.

Christian Science Church Notes DEADLINE-WEDNESDAY NOON "Christ Jesus" is the subject the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1945 of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 2, 1945. The Golden Text is: "The law was given by This Is Our Victory Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ" (John 1:17). Joyously we are dropping second letters from designations of victory days. First it was "E" from VE Day, and now it is "J" from VJ Day. Then there will be left just the one glorious SALVAGE RESULTS letter "V"--"V" for Victory! . The Swarthmore boys' baseball We have celebrated the dropping of those letters with re- team and their fathers, under the joicings. Now sober second thoughts crowd upon us. What is direction of Ambrose VanAlen, this victory? Evil forces that threatened destruction of the spent Saturday, Aug. 18 collecting this victory? Evil forces that threatened destruction of the things we count dear—freedom to plan our own lives, think and speak our own thoughts, worship the highest reality we this salvage collection was five know and to be uplifted by that worship—these evil forces tons of paper and approximately. have themselves been broken and destroyed; and that is good! one and a half tons of tin cans. The foe has been crushed before he could ravage our land and our homes with the ruin he has brought upon nearly the whole world; and that is good! Canoeists Embark We rejoice in those accomplishments, but our rejoicings Alvah Wood Stuart of Vassar are subdued as we ponder. Our joy is not unconfined. Though avenue wi'l act as trip leader for victory has come, how can we be wholeheartedly glad in the Delaware and Montgomery Counmidst of so much destruction? The excitement of battle is over these who left on Tuesday by car and the clash of arms is stilled; now we begin more seriously to count the terrible cost—the millions of graves, the ruined and devastated cities; vast areas once productive now trampled and made unfit for cultivation; myriads of people cold, un-terrible cost—the intelerable burden of debt the start on an adventurous trip down sheltered, famished, dying; the intolerable burden of debt the river. binding the race in a gruelling slavery for generations; the monstrous threat of the atomic bomb—can that be victory which Port Jervis, N. Y., and Easton, Pa., thus terrifies, wounds, and wrecks the world? No, that is not victory. All that was but the preparation for victory. Victory is yet to be won! Brave men and women on the battlefronts have, with heroic devotion, crushed the immediate threat to our liberty-inspired ideals. Now all of us, with the help of them as they return to civilian life, must carry those ideals to the triumph which, alone is victory. Victory— the triumph of right and justice and human kindness—is an ideal we believe in but have not yet attained to. There comes to memory from early training a dictum of St. John's, which becomes intelligible only in a setting like "This is the victory which overcometh the world," he this. said, "even our faith."-""This is the victory . . . even our faith." Because of VE Day and VJ Day, we can have faith, for the old perils are destroyed. Now we can have faith, and that is the victory! Faith: That is what is expressed in the United Nations' Charter-faith in a juster world and a kindlier world. The realization of that world is the victory for which we all long. The heroes who have beaten down the barriers which so obviously separated us from that victory are now in process of being discharged after a dread task nobly performed. The struggle, however, is a continuing one. "There is no discharge in that war." The war goes on—only the battlefields change. Not now are the fields earthen, trodden, and sodden with the blood of martyrs, but fields of human relations. Here the principle of cooperation wars against exploitation; here mutual helpfulness contends against the selfish use of power and of wealth. Here the whole system of rewards for human labor cries for rectification by a juster and less wasteful process than that of strikes and boycotts. Here a system must be devised whereby the normally abundant supply of natural resources and of food may be more fairly distributed. On these fields, victory will be won, if ever it really is won-the victory for which VE Day and VJ Day have prepared the way. And on these fields, each of us is a warrior, either volunteer or drafted, with our personal philosophies, principles, and practices. Presbyterian Church Notes CHURCH SERVICES This Sunday morning at the 11 SWARTHMORE PRESBYTERIAN o'clock service Dr. David Braun CHURCH will preach on the subject "Short Rev. ### FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1945

FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1945

Joyously we are dropping second letters from designations of victory days. First it was "E" from VE Day, and now it is "J" from VJ Day. Then there will be left just the one glorious letter "V"—"V" for Victory!

We have celebrated the dropping of those letters with rejoicings. Now sober second thoughts crowd upon us. What is this victory? Evil forces that threatened destruction of the spent Saturday, Aug. 18 collecting things we count dear-freedom to plan our own lives, think and speak our own thoughts, worship the highest reality we know and to be uplifted by that worship—these evil forces tons of paper and approximately have themselves been broken and destroyed; and that is good! one and a half tons of tin cans. The foe has been crushed before he could ravage our land and our homes with the ruin he has brought upon nearly the whole world; and that is good!

We rejoice in those accomplishments, but our rejoicings are subdued as we ponder. Our joy is not unconfined. Though avenue wi'l act as trip leader for victory has come, how can we be wholeheartedly glad in the midst of so much destruction? The excitement of battle is over and the clash of arms is stilled; now we begin more seriously to count the terrible cost—the millions of graves, the ruined and devastated cities; vast areas once productive now trampled the count the upper Delaware and and made unfit for cultivation; myriads of people cold, un-start on an adventurous trip down sheltered, famished, dying; the intolerable burden of debt the river. binding the race in a gruelling slavery for generations; the monstrous threat of the atomic bomb—can that be victory which Port Jervis, N. Y., and Easton, Pa., thus terrifies, wounds, and wrecks the world?

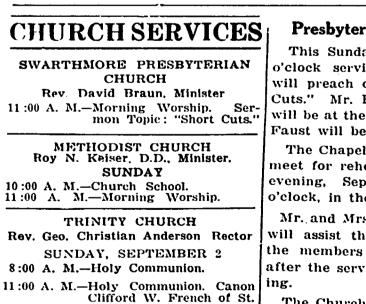

No, that is not victory. All that was but the preparation for victory. Victory is yet to be won! Brave men and women on the battlefronts have, with heroic devotion, crushed the immediate threat to our liberty-inspired ideals. Now all of us, with the help of them as they return to civilian life, must carry those ideals to the triumph which, alone is victory. Victorythe triumph of right and justice and human kindness---is an ideal we believe in but have not yet attained to.

There comes to memory from early training a dictum of St. John's, which becomes intelligible only in a setting like this. "This is the victory which overcometh the world," he said, "even our faith."—"This is the victory . . . even our

Because of VE Day and VJ Day, we can have faith, for the old perils are destroyed. Now we can have faith, and that is the victory!

Faith: That is what is expressed in the United Nations' Charter-faith in a juster world and a kindlier world. The realization of that world is the victory for which we all long. The heroes who have beaten down the barriers which so obviously separated us from that victory are now in process of being discharged after a dread task nobly performed. The struggle, however, is a continuing one. "There is no discharge in that war."

The war goes on—only the battlefields change. Not now are the fields earthen, trodden, and sodden with the blood of martyrs, but fields of human relations. Here the principle of cooperation wars against exploitation; here mutual helpfulness contends against the selfish use of power and of wealth. Here the whole system of rewards for human labor cries for rectification by a juster and less wasteful process than that of strikes and boycotts. Here a system must be devised whereby the normally abundant supply of natural resources and of food may be more fairly distributed. On these fields, victory will be won, if ever it really is won-the victory for which VE Day and VJ Day have prepared the way. And on these fields, each of us is a warrior, either volunteer or drafted, with our personal philosophies, principles, and practices.
