Swarthmore Resident For 37 Years Succumbs

William S. Bittle of 125 Rutgers avenue died Thursday, October 26 in the Grandview Hospital, Sellersville, where he had been under observation for several weeks. Death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage.

Mr. Bittle who was 78, had been a resident of Swarthmore for 37 years, was engaged in the Mercantile business for 10 years and was a prominent Real Estate and Insurance Broker for the past 27 years.

He was born in Chester County, the son of John and Frances Bittle. Later he became principal of Ingleside School, Queen Anne's County, Md., and assistant superintendent of schools in Queen Anne's County. In 1889 he married Emily Gertrude Smith of Ingleside, who died in August 1940.

Mr. Bittle was an active member of the Swarthmore Methodist Church, and of the Swarthmore Rotary Club.

Surviving are a son W. Mark Bittle of Sellersville, two granddaughters and one great granddaughter. Funeral services were held from his late residence Monday with interment at Church Hill,

Local Organizations Plan to Share Christmas

Mrs. Charles Israel represented the local Girl Scouts, Mrs. James Evans Trinity Church, Mrs. George Davisson the Legion Auxiliary Mrs. Frank G. Keenen the Presbyterian Church and the Woman's Club. Mrs. Roy W. Delaplaine the Music Club, Mrs. A. R. O. Redgrave the Friendly Circle, Mrs. W. E. Tetzel, Jr., the Navy League, John H. Pitman the Rotary Club, Mrs. Robert Erskine the Servicemen's wives, and Mrs. E. L. Mercer the Friends Meeting at the meeting of the Red Cross Camp and Hospital Council on September 26 at the home of the chairman Mrs. Roy C.

Reports were given by Mrs. Walter A. Schmidt treasurer, Katharine Bassett secretary, Mrs. Theo Saulnier vice-president; Mrs. Keenen chairman of the Coffee Hours at the Convalescent Annex for the month of October.

The group was most interested in meeting Miss McGowan the Red Cross recreational director at the Annex who told of Christmas plans for patients and attendants there and explained needs which the community organizations will work to fill.

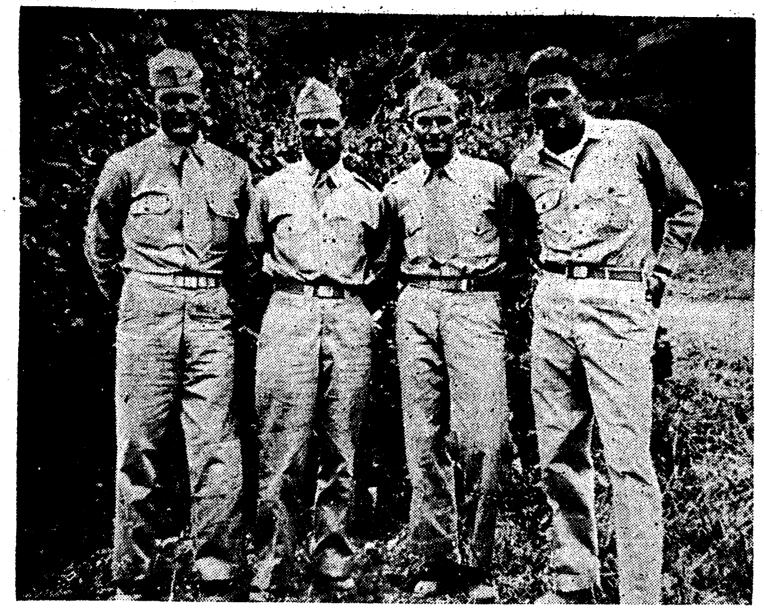

A plea was extended to the community for rooms for relatives of patients who have great difficulty in securing accommodations when here. Any person who has such rooms available is asked to call Miss McGowan Sw. 2833. There is a great need for rooms which will accommodate children also.

Games and materials to fill Sea Chests are greatly in demand and should be left with Mrs. Saulnier who asks that magazines with cartoons be saved for Sea Chest scrap-

The Council will meet next on the evening of November 24.

Charles B. Moore son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Moore of Amherst avenue is home for a week-end from Haverford College.

Health Bulletin

There have been no further cases of poliomylitis within the past two weeks. It is felt by the Health Officer that the danger of contagion is not very great at present. The bans on Sunday Schools, scout meetings, etc., are hereby lifted. Occasional cases are still occurring in some areas, and it would be wise, if unnecessary traveling, and crowding be avoided. When feasible, it would be better to postpone children's parties for several weeks.

Harrison to Address Independents At Club

Mrs. John W. Nason is chairman of arrangements for a meeting of independent voters tonight at 8 p.m. in the Woman's Club which will hear Earl G. Harrison speak for Vernon O'Rourke Democratic candidate for Congress. The president of the college will introduce the speaker, whose announced topic is "Our Man in Congress."

Harrison who is a member of the O'Rourke-for-Congress committee promises to present the relative merits of the opponents for Congress from Delaware County, James Wolfenden incumbent and Lt. O'Rourke. The latter has enthusiastic backing from local residents who feel that his three-year residence here, his political science training and experience and his service in the Navy qualify him for unusually wise representation of Delaware County in the House of Representatives.

The committee expects therefore a large gathering and desires it since although Lt. O'Rourke met his workers in the county last week, Naval regulations prevent his delivering any campaign speeches.

Members of the local O'Rourke committee include Mrs. Thomas Lueders, Mrs. Sewell W. Hodge, Mrs. William I. Hull, Mrs. John W. Nason, Walter A. Schmidt, Harry L. Miller, and John R. Marshall.

ROTARY SPEAKER VIEWS CAMPAIGN

Member of the Post Staff Says Anything Can Happen

E. H. Taylor of the editorial staff of the Saturday Evening Post, was the speaker at the Swarthmore Rotary Club at its recent meeting. His subject was an analaysis of the presidential campaign.

The speaker pointed out that there are some 30 factors that are new in this campaign that make it one of the most difficult to analize since 1916. For one thing, this campaign is one of the most scientifically conducted, by both parties, in recent years. The service men's vote is a great uncertain factor, although from information received, it appears that this vote will be influenced more by letters from home than by any other factor. The trend of the negro vote is not known, although it appears to vary according to the negro leadership in the various communities. The Political Action Committee is another pronounced influence whose force is not yet known. The degree to which people will be influenced by their opinion and concern for the President's health cannot at this time be measured.

"There are three possible outcomes," said the speaker. "There could be Roosevelt victory with a landslide of 200 or more plurality; or a Roosevelt victory by a narrow margin or 100 or less plurality; or, third, a Dewey victory. While a creeping Dewey trend has developed, it appears that Roosevelt seems to have enough edge today to win, although some people think the picture may change before election and Dewey will squeeze through."

Missing In Action

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Hanzlik of Cornell avenue have received word that their son Lt. John Robert Hanzlik has been missing in action over Germany since October

Lt. Hanzlik who had been a Pilot on a B-24 Liberator, was promoted to the rank of First Lieutenant in September.

"WITHOUT VISION____"

The political scene for the next four days will of tradition be one of mounting intensity, of rising fury of charges and counter-charges which leave the average voter confused and weary, and, one can only assume, the candidates in a state of collapse. The psychology behind this last minute whipping-up is puzzling. Perhaps it boils down to this, that neither side dare give up the at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the last word.

The honest voter in this country who beseiged senators and congressmen to support peace bills in the past cannot, for example, now with honor cry "isolationist" at those who carried out his or her will. SUFFERS DEFEAT

The then undefeated swarthmore varsity hockey team suffered some qualms on Thursday afternoon as they watched Westtown score against the second team. They fervently hoped as they sat on the side lines that the opponents' first team was not so good as their second. However, as they took their positions on the field ready to fight for another victory, they little knew that Westtown was to triumph with a 3-0 score.

The game started with a blow on the chin for Swarthmore's center Jane Vache when the ball flew up into the air following a vigorous hit by some eager player, but from then on it stayed exclusively on the ground speeding from one end of the field to the other, being much battered about in the fight that ensued, and entering Swrthmore's goal three times.

At the half, when the score stood 1-0 in Westtown's favor, coach Virginia Allen told the team that there was nothing she could say to help them, that "Westtown is just a better team," but that with an effort Swarthmore could still win. Nevertheless, the afternoon ended after an exciting game with a deserving victory for the brilliant Westtown teams, with the defeat of Swarthmore for the first time in four years, and with the score 2-1 for the second team and 8-0 for the

"So Help Me God"

By RAY L. DUDLEY

President and Publisher of The Gulf Publishing Co., Houston, Texas

I stood in the blazing sun at Ellington Field, in Texas, last Monday and watched the cadets file by, fine manly chaps, watched them come into the hall in which they were to receive their wings as commissioned officers in the United States Army Air Force. My third and last boy, a lad of 19, was among them.

Two years ago his mother and I had seen a similar group file into the chapel at Ellington to receive their wings, and our second boy was among them. Today he and his elder brother, who had chosen Navy Air, are memories, precious memories, it is true, but boys to be spoken of in hushed tones as boys who would have made good citizens, two boys whose memories will never be dimmed in the eyes of their father and mother. They, with thousands of others, have made the supreme sacrifice for America as they knew it and loved it.

defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign or domestic, that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office upon which I am about to enter: SO HELP ME GOD."

For a moment my thoughts drifted from the son whose burned body lies somewhere in France and from the other son who lies in native soil . . .

Our forefathers who wrote the Constitution knew that they were giving to future generations a document so precious that it would be worth the loss of American lives to preserve ... and they knew that there would arise enemies to it, domestic as well as foreign.

Then my mind went back to a time nearly three years ago, when my first two boys volunteered, and the pledge I made them then:

"To the best of my meagre ability I shall do all I can to defend against foes at home the institutions you boys have enlisted to uphold . . . and I shall do that without fear of sacrifice if it costs me everything I have, including my life, so help me God."

It was not necessary that I pledge them my fullest efforts to help prosecute the war... they could have expected no less of me as an American and a father,

The casualty lists over the country name thousands of parents whose boys have been lost and whose sons are as precious to them as mine were to me. I claim no distinction as the parent of boys who have died in the service. I can only claim to be among those to whom this war is a deadly serious thing, and I wish my claim to be listed among those who resent with every atom of their being, the efforts which are being made by the HILLMANS, the BROW-DERS, the MURRAYS and others, including OUR PRESIDENT, to nullify the sacrifices of thousands of American boys.

As I heard the oath to defend the Constitution repeated by the young men at Ellington, I could not but remember the remarks which have been made about it by Americans of foreign birth who would seek to destroy it . . : for the "a scrap of paper . . . an outmoded document . . . a bill of property rights rather than a bill of human rights". And these are the men who are asking that we trust our country to them.

The situation under which the COMMUNIST FRONT in America is trying to wield control over our country through the capture of one of our great political parties, is so preposterous as to be almost incredible. But fantastic that many cannot believe it. But it is true.

That he and his fellows have openly boasted that their organization, the CIO, is raising millions as a war chest to help keep Roosevelt in power, indicates a blatant confidence in their victory. That this money should be extracted from hundreds of thousands of members whose membership was forced on them, is a disgrace. That they get away with it is a shameful tribute to the close association they have with our Department of Justice.

Who was it who climbed the stairs, hat in hand, to Hillman's suite in a Chicago hotel to learn the wishes of the boss as to who would be Democratic candidate for the Vice-Presidency? It was our United States Department of Justice head—the man sworn to uphold our laws (including the Smith-Connally Act which makes it a felony for a labor party, or a corporation, to contribute to a political party). Yes, it was Attorney General Biddle, and the man with him was the person who later was named by HILLMAN as the Democratic Vice-Presidential nominee, HARRY TRUMAN.

With HILLMAN and BROWDER and their ilk as arrogant as they are now, what will their attitude be if they succeed in re-electing Franklin D. Roosevelt? Where will their power end? What will happen to the rights guaranteed under our Constitution? If our interests should ultimately clash with those of Russia at what point will these men make up their minds as to where their first loyalty should lie? If England's interests should clash with those of Russia, will our country's armed forces be thrown against a nation whose kinship to us derives from a common parenthood?

This is a long way from the ceremony at Ellington last Monday. The field has widened until the lives of a large group of fine boys seem but a drop in a great ocean.

But it is not a long way from the pledge I made my boys.

REPUBLICANS of DELAWARE COUNTY YOU HAVE A CHOICE!

O'ROURKE or WOLFENDEN

Democratic Candidate for Congress

CONGRESS SPEAKS FOR YOU

O'ROURKE says "YES"

- ".... our greatest single purpose is to win the war-to put all the force we can muster into it so the job can be finished with no undue loss
- "..., the nature of the present day world has killed isolationism as a policy
- "... and our nation must accept responsibility and leadership in whatever league or organization of nations is created to prevent further armed aggression."
- ".... the things for which millions of our young men are fighting are easy enough to understand. They want security and the right to live as free men. They want a chance to work at a job of their own choosing, to develop their own talents—and they want a world forever cleansed of the filth, degradation and suffering of war."

and Congress must express and defend these aims and principles of American voters."

WOLFENDEN said "NO"

. . . to the demand for strengthening the Army, Navy nad Air Force.

... to conscription and the extension of the draft law.

... to aid for Britain and China.

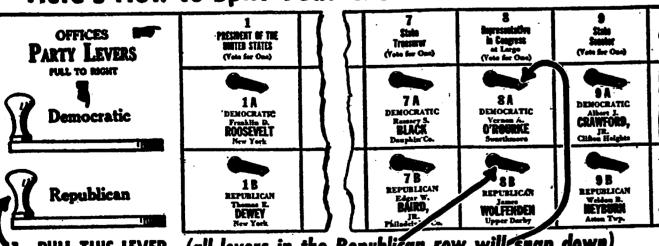

- ... to Lend-Lease. ... to strengthening the Panama Canal.
 - ... to fortifying Pacific outposts.
- ... to bills designed to curb inflation.
- ... to giving our soldiers a vote.
- ... to domestic legislation necessary to victory.

WHICH IS YOUR VOICE?

The Republican candidate for Congress, James Wolfenden, has consistently obstructed every measure intended to help our nation prepare for and win the war. (We feel sure that he would stand in the way of winning the peace, too.) Therefore, putting good government ahead of party loyalty, we sincerely ask your support in sending a man of principle and intelligence to represent us in Congress—VERNON O'ROURKE.

REPUBLICANS:

Here's How to Split Your Ticket for O'ROURKE

TALKS AT KEYSTONE SCHOOL

Mrs. Bessie Churchill a department store manager in Indianapolis, Indiana gave a stimulating talk on the personal characteristics which contribute to the success of women in business at the regular assembly of the Keystone Secretarial School last Monday.

Speaking from long experience as an employer, Mrs. Churchill counseled young women who plan business careers to acquire an understanding of the personal qualities which, no less than technical training, are important in getting a job and in securing advancement in the job. "Getting a job," she said, "is often the result of favorable 'first impression' whereas advancement in the job is generally the result of favorable longterm appraisal of the employee's performance and personal quali-In concluding her talk, she en-

OF MILK AND WINTER

Pastures gone, the air turned chill ... nature doesn't coax the flow of Supplee Sealtest Milk for you in winter as she does in summer. Now, the Supplee farmer has to do all the coaxing himself . . . and with the crops in his barn and silos, he's feeding and working to keep the production at the highest possible level during the lower production months ahead . . . doing his best to meet the war-made needs for milk at home and abroad.

Of course, every drop of fine, rich milk produced today is precious. While we can't increase your milk order just now . . . and we may not be able to fill your order for cream . . . we do take pride in being able to bring you the milk. that's extra rich and extra nourishing—Supplee Sealtest Homogenized Vitamin D Milk.

This is the milk that has a rich. wonderful flavor on cereals and fruits, adds body and goodness to your creamed soups and desserts. Actually, there's cream in every drop, from the first to the last . . . that means the whole bottle is equally high in vital food elements ... in minerals, vitamins, proteins.

Supplee Sealtest Homogenized Vitamin D Milk is next best to cream ... try it ... taste the extra goodness for yourself. You can get it from your Supplee milk man er woman, or ask for it at your neighborhood store.

Asks Wolfenden Election

Honorable James Wolfenden House of Representatives Washington, D. C.

Dear Jim:

Your renomination is a deserved tribute for the fine work you have performed as a Member of Congress. You have faithfully served your own constituents and, at the same time, have been a stalwart champion of Constitutional government.

Because of your constant effort against waste and extravagance, the tax burden of the American people is lighter than it would otherwise have been. Your vigilance has aided in checking somewhat the growth of bureaucracy and unnecessary regimentation.

The election of a Republican Congress will save Constitutional government in the United States and it will save the American way of life. I am sure an aroused people will make your reelection certain and that your experience and ability will be of great value to the country in these two important years that are ahead.

Again, my heartiest congratulations.

Sincerely yours,

JOSEPH W. MARTIN, JR., Minority Leader House of Representatives Washington, D. C.

We Gratefully Acknowledge A Correction.

One of our recent advertisements credited the Roman Pliny with saying:

"WATER IS THE BEST OF ALL THINGS: WATER IS LIFE ITSELF."

One of our readers, an eminent scholar, corrected us, advising that the saying, Water is the best of all things, "Derives not from the Roman Pliny, but from the Greek Poet, Pinder, of the Fifth Century. B. C.," and that "Pliny lived in the latter part of the First Century A. D., all of 500 years after Pinder." We admit our unfamiliarity with early Greek poetry, but still say USE SPRINGFIELD WATER CAREFULLY

OUTSIDERS LIKE IT, TOO!

Dear Editor: Even though I have been fortunate enough in my duties with the United States Naval Reserve to be stationed in the U.S. (that is, to date). I still feel that eleven months away from Swarthmore makes some of my affiliations become remote. Your gift to me of The Swarthmorean has meant closing the gap between the Swarthmore community and my-

In my travels, I have met people who have either lived in Swarthmore or who have lived in nearby boroughs to Swarthmore. I find that they are just as interested in the news and comments of The Swarthmorean, and therefore, we have something in common to talk about. I have taken the liberty of passing The Swarthmorean along to other people who have not the right to receive it directly

Again, I want to thank you for

YES, Sam is headed for a fall if he doesn't stop adding weight to his act, or else starts using a heavier cable.

By the same token, we shouldn't overload our home electrical wiring systems, either. Play safe by having large enough wires coming into your home, plus plenty of circuits to take care of lights and appliances. And by all means, have lots of convenience outlets so you won't have unsightly extension cords and wires running all over your house.

BVIOUSLY, the only servant who will do so much for so little these days is electricity.

We're glad that electricity is able to work around the clock in war plants and still stay on the job in your home. We're proud that you pay low pre-war wages for its services!

That's news in wartime. It's possible only because of sound business management and because your friends and neighbors in this company know their business.

John Robbins Hart Gives Timely Talk At Club

Home Relationships was the theme of a timely talk by John Robbins Hart, clergyman, psychologist and lecturer at the Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon November 14, Rev. Mr. Hart, rector of the Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge and Professor of Psychology at the Junto-Philadelphia's Adult School, showed that relationships in the home have much to do with relationships in the world. "Personal relationships demand the accuracy of science and the technique of art and 500 North Chester road on Monthe greatest enemy of harmony is jealousy," he said. TEAM VICTORIOUS

The hockey team ended its season rejoicing and triumphant after second teams. Never since the beginning of the year in the alumnae game had the team displayed such spirit, power, or teamwork as it did in this final contest which esfollows: 3 games lost, 0 games over WIP December 7 against tied, and 4 games won. The goals Lower Merion has been postponed in the Media game were shot by left inner Heather Champion, and center Jane Vache the varsity's high scorer for the year. Right in-

NO TURKEY!

Chicken shortake and molded avenue. cranberry salad were enjoyed by the students at lunch last Tuesday, the school's annual Thanksgiving meal, because Mrs. Plewees, cafeteria head, was unable to procure turkey. Other delicacies serv ed were: Buttered peas, fruit and nut pudding, hot rolls and butter, and ice cream. This is the first time in many years that turkey has not been served.

WE'VE GOT THE PEP!

A pep rally to enliven student support for the Thansgiving Day game at Lansdowne will be held Wednesday morning. John Fisher. principal of Lansdowne High, will be welcomed to the school. With him will come coach Carlton Abbot, F. S. Underhill, school board director, and the captain of the Lansdowne football squad.

PIOTURES ARRIVE

Recently a large crowd collected in front of the bulletin board and such words as "I don't look like that!" or "If that's the hockey team, where am I?" were heard. The occasion for all this excitement was the arrival at school of the group pictures for the yearbook. The pictures of all teams, the band, paper and individual classes were posted in the upper hall and orders for duplicates were taken.

RED CROSS SUCCESSFUL

Swarthmore schools are to be highly commended for their success in the Annual Red Cross drive in which they almost reached last year's high of $218.36, with the sum of $206.36. From the thirty homerooms twenty-four reached 100 per cent. The president of the drive, Marjorie Harrison and the persistent homeroom workers deserve much credit for their successful efforts.

TO HONOR TEAM

The annual football honor program will be held for all the players in junior and senior high on Friday ,December 1. These programs have been enjoyed for a number of years, at which times, fathers and friends of the boys pay honor to the team. C. MacDonald Swan, parents' chairman, plans to have a very interesting program.

SENIORS MEET

The senior class had its first meeting of the year in the high school cafeteria Thursday, the 16. The class, who had been kept from meeting by the polio epidemic had heretofore conducted all its business through communities.

The most important business, that of the Senior Ball, was reported on by the heads of the various committees; Kathleen Scott, class treasurer, reported the results of the hot dog and candy concessions operated by senior girls at football

President John Chicquoine asked for nominations of teachers to whom the year book should be dedicated. The seniors then adjourned their quite successful first meeting and departed to the serious business of decorating the gym for the Senior

CHARBERT • SKYLARK • LUCIEN LE LONG • CHEN YU

IT WILL BE extremely wise to do your Christmas shopping early this year-for your own comfort and convenience, and while merchandise selections are best.

Holiday shopping crowds will be greater this year than ever before. And from all indications, travel on PTC lines this month and next will increase to new all-time highs.

If shoppers delay making their purchases until near Christmas, serious congestion on PTC lines will result. War production will suffer because workers will be delayed. Shoppers will be inconvenienced when heavily-loaded PTC vehicles are unable to pick them up.

With your co-operation, PTC management and employes are confident a reasonably good standard of service can be maintained during the holiday shopping season. You can help in two ways. First, do your Christmas shopping early -start today! Second, travel to and from shopping districts between or after the rush hours. The rush hours are 7-9 a.m. and 4:30-6:30 p.m.

PTC's sole aim is to give you the best possible service. With your help we can do it during the trying days ahead.

EVENING SHOPPING HOURS

Most stores in community shopping centers will be open evenings until Christmas. Most centralcity stores will be open Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings during the weeks of Nov. 27, Dec. 4 and 11; Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings the week of Dec. 18.

Poor Wiring

Lighting was considered the first and foremost service when electricity was installed in most homes years ago. Today, that picture has changed because of the great number of electric appliances in use in everyday housekeeping. So, wiring that was adequate just twenty years ago has now become antiquated.

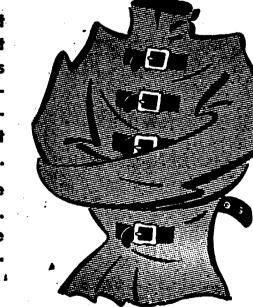

If we are to enjoy the all-electric home of the future, our homes must have modern wiring. And it isn't too soon to be thinking about the essentials of a well-wired home after the wara home that includes:

AUXILIARY TO AID CLUBMOBILE UNIT

Costs $2100 To Keep One Unit In Operation

This year the American Legion Auxiliary wants to continue the Clubmobile Unit which is stationed at the front lines and which costs $2100 per month to operate. Three Red Cross girls and one mechanic are in charge of the unit, which supplies coffee, doughnuts, cigarettes, life savers, chewing gum, candy bars, matches, books, newspapers, magazines, and which has a victrola and records, and a moving picture machine and film.

The daily need for the $3,920 doughnuts are a barrel of vitaminized flour and fifty pounds of shortening. The maintenance of the clubmobile is accomplished by the redemption of coupons from various food products. Anyone interested in supplying coupons taken from food packages and wrappers may send them to Mrs. Herbert Bassett, 500 North Chester road, Swarthmore.

343 new three-cent stamps have been received for the uncompensated veterans at Coatesville Hospital. The deadline for more stamps is December 1. Please get your contribution to Mrs. Oscar Gilcreest, 208 Vassar avenue.

Is there anyone in the community who has an outgrown red dress in good condition, size 14, who would like to give it to the Auxiliary's adopted orphan. She is asking Santa Claus for this article by way of Mrs. Gilcreest.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Coates of Harvard avenue had a family dinner on Thanksgiving. Their guests were Mrs. Eugene S. Farley and son, Gene. Dr. Farley who is attending the Junior College Conference in New York, joined them here for the day.
