The Program for the Fourth

All arrangements have been completed for the most comprehensive celebration ever attempted by this Borough.

THE ANTIQUES AND TERRIBLES
The parade will start from the Public School Building at 7.30 A. M., march from College Avenue to Cedar Elm, to Chester Road, to Park Ave., to Yale, to Kenyon, to Rutgers, to the Preparatory School grounds.

THE SPORTS
Promptly at 8.30 on the day to which the children of Swarthmore have long looked forward, the races, jumping contests, and all the other events which have been planned, will start. The prizes have been on display in the window of the Utility Shop the past week. Some of the events will be divided into classes according to the height of the children, and thus the tiny small folks will be given an equal chance with the older ones.

BASEBALL GAME
The baseball game, in which it seems that the men of the town wish to take part, will be started at eleven o'clock.

THE PARADE
At seven o'clock in the evening the children will gather at Station Square in a line behind the Band, when they will march to the School Building, Chester Road and out College Avenue, then arriving at the School Building, there will be a flag raising with appropriate ceremonies. The flag will be up on the fine new pole which has been erected in front of the school.

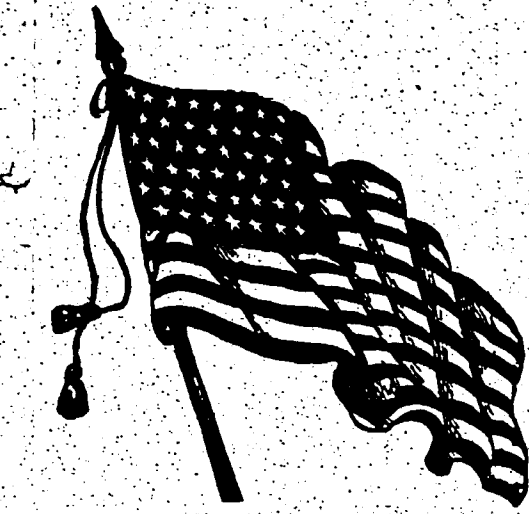

BAND CONCERT
From 7.30 to 8.00 o'clock the Band will give a concert in the rear of the schoolhouse. Chairs will be provided for the audience. A chorus from the school under the direction of Miss Fricke will sing a number of patriotic songs, accompanied by the Band. (The members of the Chorus are requested to be at the Schoolhouse at seven o'clock sharp.)

MOTION PICTURES
Five reels of motion pictures will be shown on a screen which will be stretched across the back of the Schoolhouse. The pictures will be furnished by the Band and the words of the songs will be shown on the screen so that all may sing them.

FIREWORKS
A fine display of fireworks, will be set off at nine o'clock, lasting for about an hour.

MARCH HOME
After the fireworks, a parade will be held behind the Band, Japanese lanterns will be lighted, and the line of march will be to the front of the Schoolhouse, out College Avenue to Chester Road, down Chester Road to Station Square where the line will disband.

Bring and bring your Japanese lantern.

NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

This summer's meeting of the National Education Association of the United States which will be held in St. Paul, Minn., July 4-11, will be of special interest to Pennsylvanians as two prominent Pennsylvanians are to deliver important addresses on the program. Doctor Joseph Swain, President of Swarthmore College, is president of the National Education Association and will deliver the principal address at the first session on July 6, on the "Relation of the Teacher to American Citizenship," and Doctor Nathan C. Schaeffer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will deliver an address on July 8, on the subject, "The Purpose of Elementary and High School Education." The following Pennsylvanians are State Directors, and members of the Committee of Cooperation:

- Deputy Superintendent Reed B. Yerrick, Harrisburg.
- Principal George H. Stout, Philadelphia.
- Director J. M. Berkey, Pittsburg.
- Superintendent Frederick E. Downes, Harrisburg.
- Superintendent Charles L. Loe, Williamsport.
- Superintendent James L. Allison, Wilkes-Barre.
- Superintendent H. H. Baish, Altoona.
- Superintendent S. E. Weber, Scranton.
- Superintendent Charles S. Foss, Reading.
- Superintendent Addison L. Jones, West Chester.
- Superintendent James J. Palmer, Oil City.

One day of the general sessions of the Association has been set apart for the discussion of topics relating to the Status of Woman. The program on this day is as follows:

- Training for Social Responsibilities—Mrs. Lois Kimball Mathews, Dean of Women, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis.
- The Social Waste of Sex Discrimination—Sojourn T. Preston Breckinridge, Assistant Professor of Social Economy, University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.
- The Humanities Old and New—Emma M. Perkins, Professor of Latin, Woman's College, Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio.

PREPARATION OF WOMEN FOR TWENTIETH-CENTURY LIFE—Mary E. Woolley, President, Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass.

In the last issue of the Swarthmore News, there were a number of questions raised by a subscriber regarding our street repairs.

In reply to the questions about the new steam roller and auto-dray, we would say that it was purchased at a cost of $4,000. The object in buying the machine was to save money. The Borough Council considered that by doing their own work, the $25,000 authorized by the voters last Fall could be spent on our streets to the best advantage. Moreover, we would have the equipment for future repairs, which equipment could not be purchased from the regular annual budget.

Tarvia A is being used on streets that have been previously coated. This material was used by the former Council on the streets receiving the heaviest traffic. The coating when covered with 1/2-inch chip costs about 6 cents per square yard.

The two trolley roads passing through Swarthmore are under contract to keep their respective avenues in repair. This fact was brought to their attention by Council at a meeting in early Spring. The trolley company using Baltimore Avenue made a tarvia road, while that passing down Yale has built a water-bound macadam.

At the last meeting of Council an ordinance was passed to have property owners curb, gutter, and macadam the roadway on Dickinson Avenue between Harvard and the Borough line, Park Avenue between Harvard and Yale, Princeton Avenue between Railroad and Harvard, and Elm Avenue between Cedar Lane and Walnut Lane.

ONE-THIRD BASKET
Is that all the flowers Swarthmore, with its lovely lawns and gardens, CARES to send for the sick in hospitals? Even the two baskets, which is the largest number received by the Flower Mission Committee, seems a small quantity for a neighborhood like this. WHAT CAN YOU DO ABOUT IT? BERTHA SELLES, Chairman Flower Mission Committee.

PENNSYLVANIA VERSES

By JOHN RUSSELL HAYES
JOSEPH PRIESTLY'S GRAVE AT NORTHUMBERLAND
Preacher beloved of Coleridge and of Lamb,
He fed their spirits as with heavenly lore;
Now 'mid the quiet Quaker graves he sleeps
In this old town by Susquehanna's shore.

INDEPENDENCE HALL
In calm and simple dignity it stands,
Matchless memorial of heroic years,
What lover of our land can pace these halls
And muse upon their past untouched by tears!

A STREET-PIANO IN LOGAN SQUARE
Men smile and step more lightly down the street,
Young girls hum o'er the tune, the children dance;
And trees and grass and flowers in that old square
Gleam in the golden sunlight of romance.

WEST CHESTER
Heart of Penn's ancient county,—well I love
Thy kindly homes, thy streets, thy pealing chimneys,
Thy fields and groves, and old historic haunts,
Still fragrant with the charm of by-gone times.

HAVERFORD COLLEGE LIBRARY
Immured among old memory-haunted trees
And wrapt around with quiet Quaker spell,
How it hath ministered to chosen youth,
How waked their hearts to wisdom—
—who may tell!

PUBLIC LEDGER.
As you grow better you sweep up out of the grasp of money, praise, ease, distinction; you sweep up into the necessity of truth, courage, virtue and God.

The SWARTHMORE NEWS wishes to thank those who responded so promptly in paying their bills, the management appreciates the help given by the paper thus far. Because there is no working capital, it means close financing. If all those who are in arrears will follow the example of the ones who are so nobly helping to keep the paper afloat, there will soon be smooth sailing. A story is told of a man in a boat who was racing to catch up with a steamer. As he was rowing hard, he heard a cry for "help" from some one who was in swimming. The rower called back to the swimmer, "keep afloat, I will be back in a few minutes." When he returned, the victim had disappeared from sight. The Swarthmore News is in need of a little timely assistance. Do not play the part of the man in the boat, help to keep the paper afloat.

The second crop of weeds can be checked if the first crop is destroyed before the seeds fall. Now is the time—cut the weeds from that vacant lot of yours. Fall in line with the cleaning brigade. We want the best and cleanest borough in the county.

Only a little firecracker, harmless as can be; just a little safety match, with Dick and me. Dick and me struck the safety match, and the match struck the cracker—now we are patient with the pain it caused, and we can lie.

The president of the People's Rights Association, Dr. William T. Ellis, said: "Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad." Even the most pessimistic of the friends of good government in Delaware County never imagined that the gang would go to such lengths as to have this bill ignored, the facts of which have never been denied by the accused men themselves. "Still, when the officers of the People's Rights Association entered the jury room and found the district attorney bent on proving that they had no case; and when they found the sort of witnesses he had called, they began to fear that even this affronting, this flouting of common sense and justice, was not beyond his office. The district attorney has failed to bring the perpetrators of this monstrous crime of jury wheel stuffing to justice during the past two years.

In this present instance his conduct of the case, so far as we could observe, favored the accused rather than the Commonwealth. He acted like the attorney for the defendants."

VIGILANTE.

PATRIOTISM ABOVE PARTISANSHIP

That some apparent defeats may be real victories is evident from the impression that has been created through out Delaware County by the action of the Grand Jury last week, in ignoring the bills against Ex-Sheriff Sproul and former Jury Commissioners Wise and Stewart on the charge of misfeasance in office.

The charge was purely technical, and according to the earlier statements of the district attorney and of all the lawyers consulted, there could be no question about the crime, because these officials had failed to protect the jury wheel.

Now the astounding charge is made by the People's Rights Association, after interviewing members of the Grand Jury, and after the experience of their officers in the Grand Jury room, that the district attorney was not only failing to prosecute the case for the Commonwealth, but that he was actually siding with the accused men, and that he gave the jury to understand that these officials were charged with the major crime of stuffing the jury wheel.

The Executive Committee of the People's Rights Association met on Monday night and took action, which will have consequences of which every citizen in Delaware County will be made aware in due time.

Meanwhile, the following statements by officers of the People's Rights Association, made since the failure of the Grand Jury to act was reported, will be of peculiar interest to the people of Delaware County.

W. Lacie Verleden, chairman of the Jury Wheel Committee of the People's Rights Association, and one of the best known Republicans of Delaware County, said, after the jury reported, "I am stunned—overwhelmed. It is incredible. What can we hope for if a Grand Jury of twenty-one men can be found to ignore a bill like this, when all the facts are so matters of clear and undisputed public record?"

"There is no question that the jury wheel was stuffed. And there is no question that it was in the legal custody of Sheriff Sproul and Commissioners Wise and Stewart, and they certified the list of names, some of which proved to be fraudulent, had been properly drawn. And there is no question that the law clearly provides for a punishment of their failure to fulfill their duties.

"Yet, here is the amazing verdict that these men are not guilty of misfeasance in office! In the light of such a finding, what protection have the people left to them?"

"Nevertheless, we accept this defiance as a challenge to the forces of law and order in Delaware County, and we shall keep up our fight with renewed vigor. The jury wheel crime is by no means a closed incident. The possibility of all legal processes is not yet ended. The final Grand Jury and court of appeals is the people themselves."

Professor Robert C. Brooks, of Swarthmore College, said, "I am not discouraged by the action taken today, inasmuch as I had anticipated it. It seems to show that in Delaware County jury wheels may be stuffed with impunity. As a citizen of that county I am profoundly saddened to have to give up the last vestige of my good opinion of the sanctity of her judicial institutions. The fight is not ended. It has just begun. We must bring home to the people of the county the facts of the case. In the last analysis they must understand the cleansing process, with-out which will theories of lawlessness can point to the jury wheel itself for justification."

J. Passmore Inkinton, secretary of the People's Rights Association, said, "The case while it is before the Grand Jury is in the hands of the District Attorney. It is claimed that no evidence was brought proving anything, but innocence. It is difficult for me to suppose that the District Attorney could not have brought evidence if he had wanted to, when the Court record itself, by the dismissal of all its work, shows that the jury which the defendants were responsible was partly fraudulent."

Edward J. Durnall, another member of the committee, said: "From what I have heard, members of the Grand Jury say, some of them acted in ignorance of the real offense charged, against the criminals. Surely this points directly to the need of a cleaner change of instruction to the Grand Jury by the judge."

AN EASY TEST FOR DIRTY MILK

It needs no argument to prove that milk contaminated with stale milk is no more fit for food than other foods exposed under the same objectionable conditions. Dirty milk is not only objectionable because of its visible dirt, but because of the invisible bacteria which accompany it and threaten the health of the consumer, especially infants. It is claimed by one who has made investigations, that 5,000,000 babies in the civilized world every year die because of the use of clean milk. Dirty milk that has been carefully strained through a layer of absorbent cotton may not show sediment on the bottom of the bottle, but that is not a final test for its quality. Most of the bacteria were washed through the filter and these bacteria, during the time that the milk is held in the bottle, increased greatly in numbers.

The following test will indicate the presence of stale milk in both the visible and invisible test:

1. Cleanse a test tube or small bottle with boiling water.
2. Cool to the temperature of the hand by holding it by the bottom in an inverted position.
3. Fill half full of the milk in question and maintain a temperature of from 90 degrees to 100 degrees for about twenty-four hours.
4. Look for gas holes in the curd, which, if numerous, indicate dirty milk, and if present in such numbers as to cause a floating curd, indicate very dirty milk.

The egg incubator or the thermos bottle may be used in securing the proper temperature.

The Mastodon Tent

When showers make the woods all wet, we seek the tent and get a shelter from a multitude of sheltering leaves.

The Mastodon Clock The blonchell hourly rings her chime To let the folks know the time. She rings it all the long night through From set of sun 'til dawning dew. She rings it all the livelong day— And every little elf and fay Prepares his meals and feeds his flock By this same dainty little clock.

News Notes

This week Miss Martha Speer has chaperoned twenty-five young girls to Camp Wyongonic, Denmark, Maine. Miss Speer will be a counsellor in the camp for the rest of the summer. Camp Wyongonic is very large and is one of the most ideal examples of the summer camps that have sprung up all over the country.

Miss Phoebe Lukens is being entertained by friends in many of the towns through which the Chautauqua passes. She spent last Sunday with Miss Ruth Ayres in Easton.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bassett have rented their house and are spending the summer at Ocean City with Mr. and Mrs. Simmons.

Miss Ruth Potter has been attending the Y. W. C. A. Conference at Eaglesmere.

Miss Brown, our well-known riding mistress, has removed her horses to Point Pleasant for the summer. A party rode down with her, leaving Swarthmore at five o'clock Saturday morning and arriving at Point Pleasant on Monday. Among the party were Miss Dorothy Ashton, Miss Myrtle Elmore, Mr. David Dennison, and Mr. Robert Joyce.

President Swain and Dean Alexander have gone to St. Paul to attend the annual meeting of the National Education Association, of which Dr. Swain is President.

Mrs. Swain, who spent a few days here before her husband went West, has returned to her cottage at Buck Hill Falls. She was accompanied by Miss Alderfer.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bassett spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Robinson are spending the summer at their farm on the Susquehanna.

Mr. Alden Jones has given up his work with the Chautauqua and has taken a position in Philadelphia.

On the third of this month, the wedding of Mr. William Day to Miss Frances Breder of West Philadelphia, was quietly solemnized. Mr. and Mrs. Day will live in Brooklyn, N. Y.

A letter received from Mrs. Jessie Holmes states that she and Dr. Holmes are now in London. They will make a visit to Woodbrook and expect to sail for home the latter part of July. Dr. Holmes will engage in Chautauqua work for the remainder of the season.

Miss Amy Hoover, who has been visiting the Elmores, has gone to Harrisburg, where she will return to her home in Joylin, Missouri.

Mrs. Flavia Lutz and her two daughters are at Chautauqua, N. Y., where they expect to remain about seven weeks.

Mr. Roth, head of the Department of Physical Education of the Men at Swarthmore College, has gone to a summer camp at Arcola, Pa.

The new register containing the name and address of every alumnus, graduate, and former preparatory school student of Swarthmore College has just been issued.

Miss Phoebe Lukens was bridesmaid at last Saturday afternoon at the wedding of Miss Sarah S. Jenkins, of Gwynedd, to Mr. Horace Mather Lippincott, of Germantown.

The following account from the Linozer will be of interest to many Swarthmoreans, who know Mr. and Mrs. Patch when both were teaching at the Preparatory School.

PATCH—HALLOWELL
A pretty wedding took place when Miss Mary Linton Hallowell became the bride of Ralph S. Patch of Groton, Mass., by Friends ceremony at Maidenbrae, Jenkintown, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Hallowell.

The bride wore a gown of soft white satin, draped with duchess and pointed lace. Her veil of princess lace was caught with sprays of lilacs of the valley and the same dainty flowers were used with orchids for her shower bouquet.

Miss Hannah Hallowell, a sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, wore an imported gown of white enl embroidered chiffon and carried a shower bouquet of yellow marguerites and ferns.

The bridesmaids, Miss Eleanor Rittenhouse, Miss Annelle Boyle, Miss Frances Hallowell and Miss Emma Hallowell, another sister of the bride, were gowned alike in cream chintilly lace with panniers of Nile green taffeta, looking chic in their Castle cays of shadow lace. They carried arm bouquets of sunset roses and ferns.

Mr. Patch had Dr. Earle Kisher for his best man, and the ushers were T. Jay Sprowl, Philip Carpenter, F. Norman Wilson and Edwin S. Hallowell, J.

A dinner and reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Patch after their return from their honeymoon will reside in Plainfield, N. J.

Miss Martha C. Heber, of Louisville, Ky., will arrive today on a visit to her sister, Mrs. E. Morris Ferguson, Vassar Avenue.

Rev. E. Morris Ferguson has returned from Chicago where he delivered a course of lectures before the Moody Bible Institute, and made several addresses before the International Sunday School Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wirt have been entertaining many out-of-town friends.

Born on June 29, 1914, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rodman Shoemaker, 319 Dickinson Avenue, a son named Walter Rodman Shoemaker, Jr.

Miss Grace Prickeit has been appointed a teacher in the Atlantic City Schools for the next year.

Miss Marion Watters, Physical Director at Hallowell, Me., is at home for her vacation. She is accompanied by Miss Chase, one of the teachers from the Hallowell schools. Both young ladies expect to spend the latter part of the summer in the Maine woods.

CARE OF HOUSE PLANTS IN SUMMER
House plants, such as palms, ferns and begonias, should be repotted, and old leaves removed. Seed fronts of ferns, as well as poor fronds, should be cut off close to the pot, to encourage a new growth.

When repotting a plant, cut off any straggling roots, and rub off the earth with the hands to make the ball smaller. Use the same pot, or if necessary, one slightly larger, putting plenty of drainage in the bottom, handful of earth on top of the drainage and firm it down with the hand. Set the plant in so that the top of the ball is about one and one-half inches from the top of the pot. Fill the pot up to the top with earth, then pack the earth in tightly, leaving one inch or more space, at the top, for watering. Select a shaded place and sink two-thirds of the pot in the ground. Water freely.

In the early part of September, lift the plants out of the ground. Take off dead leaves, and put a little fresh soil in the top of the pots. Stand the plants together, in a place where they will get plenty of air, but not sun, and water freely over the top with watering can, or hose spray until it is time to take them into the house.

By following the above method any one can have good, healthy plants for winter. EMMETT CANNON.

I have just unloaded a car of cedar arbor poles of various sizes and lengths. There are some very large cedar posts among the lot. In order to move some of them at once I will sell at a low price.

Great Celebration of the Fourth Unmarred by Accidents of any kind

The Fourth of July celebration was of the most successful ever held in Swarthmore. The weather was ideal for the carrying out of the excellent plan that had been arranged for by the committees in charge. The first part was the parade of Antiques and Ribbles at 7:30 A. M. A Land comed of young ladies rendered musical costumes that would be hard to equal. All the well-known characters from "Gold Dust Twins" to "Bringing Father" were represented. At 8:30 the races, jumping contests and other events which had been planned began. The judges were Dr. John W. Adams, Carroll Thayer and Mr. Edw. F. Hecker.

PRIZES
The prizes were five silver cups, one Medal and 10 ribbons. The winners were as follows:

STORE AND RESIDENCE OF CHARLES A. SMITH

STORE AND RESIDENCE OF CHAS. A. SMITH, GROCER AND PROVISIONER

The above cut represents the place of business and residence of Mr. Chas. A. Smith, grocer and provisioner, who is one of Swarthmore's pioneer merchants. Mr. Smith began the grocery business in Swarthmore in 1892, and has continued in business at that place up to the present time.

From a pioneer beginning with one boy as the only helper, and one team for the business has grown to require the regular help of two butchers, five clerks and four delivery wagons.

Mr. Smith evidently believes that "a rolling stone gathers no moss," for since he first began business at this place, 22 years ago, he has been serving the good people of Swarthmore with edibles and delicacies from his store.

He has always taken an active interest in public affairs, and has won many friends by his courteousness and faithfulness to duty.

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE

On last Sunday morning, the small stable in the rear of the residence of Mr. Donado on Michigan Avenue was destroyed by fire. The alarm was received at the fire quarters at 3:15 A. M., and was answered promptly. Owing to the fact that there was no water with which the flames could be fought, and that the fire had gained great headway before being discovered, the building was entirely destroyed. After remaining until all danger was past, the firemen returned to the Borough fire quarters.

EARLY MORNING BLAZE

Tuesday morning at 3:30 the firemen were again called into service. The call came from the residence of Mr. E. B. Temple, 315 Maple Avenue. The family were awakened by the telephone ringing, upon investigation a blaze was discovered on the second floor between the partitions of the wall, caused by an electric wire. In some manner it touched the telephone wire and so rang the bell which awakened the family. A hose was immediately used, and when the firemen arrived the fire was out. Mr. Devere had imported a number of cattle without being accompanied by a certificate of health as required by an Act of Assembly. State agents have been patrolling the Pennsylvania-Ohio-West Virginia border line and a number of other prosecutions are pending.

REV. WILLIAM M. WOODFIN AT THE SAMARITAN HOSPITAL

Rev. Wm. Woodfin went to Atlantic City last week, after having been operated upon for appendicitis. He was gaining strength rapidly when another complication set in, for three days he was seriously ill with a temperature of over 104. Dr. Babcock was summoned and in consultation with Dr. Alger, it was decided to take him to the Samaritan Hospital. The latest reports are that Mr. Woodfin is making rapid progress. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

AN EXPRESSION OF THANKS

The Antiques and Horribles Committee desires to express, through the columns of the SWARTHMORE NEWS its sincere thanks to those whose assistance made the parade possible.

LOYALTY

There is no success without loyalty. The man who is disloyal to his superior, to his profession, or to his country, is disloyal to himself and to all that is good in him.

CONTRABAND CATTLE

Oscar Devere, a cattle dealer of near Fifty-four, Washington county, Penn., appeared before the County Court at Washington, Penn., on June 11th, and pleaded guilty to a charge of illegally importing cattle from West Virginia into Pennsylvania. He was sentenced to pay a fine and the cost of prosecution. The prosecution was brought by agents of the Pennsylvania State Livestock Sanitary Board, who discovered that Mr. Devere had imported a number of cattle without being accompanied by a certificate of health as required by an Act of Assembly. State agents have been patrolling the Pennsylvania-Ohio-West Virginia border line and a number of other prosecutions are pending.

to his feelings. Just a little consideration for others will help greatly to overcome a habit of this nature. In the near future, it is to be hoped that we will all join in the only safe, sane way of celebrating our glorious Fourth of July.

It is said that "Every man has his price." The price however varies with the individual. Money, may be the price of many, but there are some who hold honor, truth and parity above the sordid mercenary things of life.

SWARTHMORE HALL, ENGLAND

The following letter from Dr. Jesse Holmes will be of great interest to his many friends. The above picture is Swarthmore Hall referred to in his letter, and after which this borough was named.

Loanthwaite Farm, Hawkhead, Eng.

THE SWARTHMORE NEWS:
 Dear Friends—
 We often hear it said, when travel is talked of, that we should "see America first." But there is something to be said for seeing the other countries first, and especially this older country, which is the mother of our own. For England has 2,000 years of history and only a few hundreds of miles each way, while we have 200 years of history and some thousands of miles each way; and moreover, most of the 2,000 years is as much our history as that of the English, while the literature is all ours as well as theirs. England is so convenient to see, especially for one whose purse has a limit in easy sight. Everything is just over the way or just around the corner.

The Holmes family has been spending a month among the English lakes—the beauty spot and general recreative ground of England. Our home is an old farmhouse built when Dan Chatter was a boy or when John Willet was giving the Bible to the English. The beams of the kitchen ceiling are hewn, not planed, and are black with age. A man can just walk under them without lumping his head. The floor is the slate stone of the district, uneven but worn smooth with long use. The fireplace has been somewhat modernized but still has the crane and the three-legged pots. The people and surroundings suit the place. The farmer has lived in the house since he was a baby. His hostess was formerly housemaid to a lady of title, and knows how to make things comfortable, without spoiling the aspect of the antique, which we raw, young American folk love above all things.

Of course the mountains are all about us; Helvellyn rises grandly to the north, Conistone Old Man is a few miles to the west, and the Langdale Peaks are a part of the sunset view. As for lakes, Esthwaite Water is in sight, Windermere is just the other side of the latter, Barrow and half a dozen others are within walking distance—some of them ten or fifteen miles. For quiet, restful beauty, I suppose there isn't anything in the world better than this. It isn't grand distances or mountains and plains, but it is human, and it is beautiful.

The human side is the one we miss in much of our American scenery. We haven't lived long enough to produce great men and great events everywhere; but this whole country is fragrant with associations. This rustic seat by Conistone water was Ruskin's favorite resting place; his grave is just over there in the church yard, his home was on the bluff, and his collections and belongings are in a little museum in the village. On the way home we may pass the field where Wordsworth stood when the beauty of the world flooded his whole being and he dedicated himself from that time forth to the expression of it. In Hawkhead village is the Grammar school where the poet was educated and where the poet was educated and where his name is carved on one of the old house's "Dove cottage is not far away, and Grassmere churchyard, Southby's Falls of Lodore are just by Derwent-water and of course Coleridge belonged here too.

It is not necessary to say that history was made here, for it was made all over England. This was Strachyn de over the English. This was Strachyn de over the English. This was Strachyn de over the English. This was Strachyn de over the English.

DR. SWAIN ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION
 Doctor Swain, who was elected last July to the presidency of the National Education Association, has been actively interested in all of the educational activities of Philadelphia since his election to the presidency of Swarthmore College in 1902. Doctor Swain's election to the Presidency of the National Education Association was by the unanimous vote of both the nominating committee and the association, the first time in ten years that this has occurred. This unanimous election was a tribute to the high character of the work of the Committee on Teachers' Salaries, Tenure and Pensions, which was presented before the association shortly before his election, and which, says the Salt Lake "Herald-Examiner," is regarded as by far the ablest and most comprehensive on this topic of vital interest to teachers that has been presented before the association.

SAFETY FIRST
 These two words have become a world-wide slogan; they can be applied, if given the proper thought, to every line of trade.
 The PLUMBING in your home may be in an unsanitary condition, thereby placing the health of the family in danger of a serious illness. Why not "SAFETY FIRST?"
 The ROOF or RAIN CONDUCTORS may be at the point of causing leaks and doing damage many times over the cost of repairs. Why not make them "SAFETY FIRST?"
 The FURNACE, RANGE and FLUES should at this season of the year be thoroughly overhauled and cleaned, repaired if necessary, save a possible delay when needed. Why not "SAFETY FIRST" rather than probably trouble?
 We are here to be of Service to You.

The new Management and Board of Directors are making every effort to put the paper "on its feet," but unless there is co-operation it will be impossible to accomplish this.

The Government looks on her station; for now by the rules of the census report it enters her: "No occupation."

Let us be loyal to each other and support the ones who are working for the best interests of the many.

The "Public Ledger" invites you to enter a competition for the best word story submitted by a Pennsylvanian, the merit of the story to be valued according to the Christmas spirit that pervades it.

Our attention was called to the action of a seaside Mayor, who personally ordered the arrest of violators of the Sabbath ordinances, and who closed a moving picture show last Sunday.

There are, fortunately, some who cannot take pleasure in that which seems a desecration, that in which the real name may be identified from the assumed name.

Men and woman were created free an equal, but with a difference. Her's is a wiler tree than an oak, an oak is no use for that wiler tree to be created in up its drooping branches.

and it behooves all who hold to a proper observance of the "Lord's day" to do their utmost to preserve it in its integrity. This law observing Mayor from Ocean City and all who like him, stand for that which is best and true and good, should have the hearty support of every right-minded person.

According to the papers, much illness has been reported in nearby suburbs due to "Argentina Beef." Fortunately, Swarthmoreans need have no uneasiness regarding this matter.

THOUGHTS ON WIMMIN'S RIGHTS

Mrs. Myers, she that was tall, Green as a while ago, came in this mornin before things was put to rights, she flopped herself down in the first chair, she came to.

What's the trouble now? sez I. "Trouble enough," sez she, "an no speakin' trouble either. This same old story that's been runnin' on through all the ages, from Adam 'n' Eve, Adam took Eve to task, 'cause the weeds sprang up in his 'later patch,' an 'cause there was a piece laken out of his new store shavel when he'd done it, he himself an forget all about it."

NO OCCUPATION She rose before daylight made crimson the east. And never the sun when he sank in the west.

TEMPER VS. TEMPERANCE

Over two thousand years ago Confucius said, "Few are those who grow on the side of self-restraint. The great multitude are those who grow on the slope of the passions." It is not uncommon to find a person who is "on the slope of the passions."

The duplicate nozzle has been authorized. On Sunday last several of the officers of the Association, inspected the pond on the Harriet Calvert property on Michigan Avenue, with a view of ascertaining its availability in the event of a fire in that neighborhood.

The officers of the Association have requested that all fire hydrants installed in the future, shall have the usual steam connection, the new hydrant order-of-installed by Councils so a time ago, will be of this type.

The new play pipe known as the Boston type has been received and is much admired by the men of the Alban shut-off device is attached.

All day they come and go— Pitypat and Tippytoe. Foot prints up and down the hall. Playthin scattered on the floor.

How they riot at their play! In their troop, dandling bread— Only battered bread will do. And the latter must be spread in inches thick with sugar too!

Every day recurrent lings! Hands to scrub and hair to brush. Search for jaythings gone amiss. Many a wee complaint to hush.

Who but you could work such you. Pitypat and Tippytoe. But when comes this thought to me? "Some there are that chillless-de,"

Steadily I stroke their heads— Fondly kiss each velvet cheek, God help those who do not know. A Pitypat and Tippytoe.

The Printer's Devil Gets blamed with almost as many misdeeds as his illustrious namesake. Last week in one of the county papers he omitted one little figure 1, but as it could, have been in the million column, it made quite a difference.

FIRE ASSOCIATION NOTES The regular monthly meeting of the Association was held on last Thursday evening with a very good attendance.

On Sunday last several of the officers of the Association, inspected the pond on the Harriet Calvert property on Michigan Avenue, with a view of ascertaining its availability in the event of a fire in that neighborhood.

The officers of the Association have requested that all fire hydrants installed in the future, shall have the usual steam connection, the new hydrant order-of-installed by Councils so a time ago, will be of this type.

The new play pipe known as the Boston type has been received and is much admired by the men of the Alban shut-off device is attached.

All day they come and go— Pitypat and Tippytoe. Foot prints up and down the hall. Playthin scattered on the floor.

How they riot at their play! In their troop, dandling bread— Only battered bread will do. And the latter must be spread in inches thick with sugar too!

Every day recurrent lings! Hands to scrub and hair to brush. Search for jaythings gone amiss. Many a wee complaint to hush.

Who but you could work such you. Pitypat and Tippytoe. But when comes this thought to me? "Some there are that chillless-de,"

Steadily I stroke their heads— Fondly kiss each velvet cheek, God help those who do not know. A Pitypat and Tippytoe.

FACTS WORTH KNOWING Experiments may be fascinating but when it comes to buying groceries deal with the merchants you know to be reliable and public-spirited.

Bright Streets The busy streets—after dark—and the well lighted, bright stores are the stores where people like to deal. If you used Electric Light in your place of business and an Electric Sign over your door, you would not only attract trade to your own store but you would increase the value of your street as a business street.

FIRST MORTGAGE $5, DUE 1955

Coupon February and August

We call special attention to the following features that make these bonds a most desirable local investment:

First mortgage on valuable terminal property within the city limits immediately adjoining the terminal of the Market Street Elevated, thus affording great advantage

as an outlet and source of traffic for the company's lines.

The territory which this company's lines serve, we believe, offers the greatest opportunity for future development in the suburbs of Philadelphia, which growth will be reflected in the increased earnings of the company, and, consequently, in appreciation in the value of these bonds. The latest available earnings for the seven months ending June 30, 1914, show an increase in gross of over $30,000, as compared with the corresponding period of the previous year.

PRICE: 94 and Interest, Yielding 5.35%

The issuance of bonds at this time is for new equipment which is made necessary by the increase in traffic on the Company's Lines.

Mrs. Lydia Linville is spending a few days at her home during the absence of Mrs. Trego, Mrs. Linville, Miss Alice Linville and Miss Lucy Linville, are living at Knowlton this summer with Mr. Arthur Linville, who has a fine farm at that place.

Miss Mae Lynd spent a short time in Swarthmore this week, she says "every one is having a good time at Point Pleasant."

Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Peterkin have taken up their residence on Dartmouth Avenue.

NOTES FROM "THE HARVARD"

Mr. and Mrs. Maxon and daughters are guests of the Harvard.

Mrs. Hood and daughters have gone to Eaglesmere for a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Andrew have returned from a short visit to Asbury Park.

Mrs. D. W. Hullbert is enjoying herself at Galen Hall, Wernersville, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunwoody, of West Chester, are among the Harvard guests.

Mr. West Bissell has returned to Swarthmore for the summer.

NOTES FROM STRATH HAVEN INN

The guests of the Inn are enjoying the moving pictures which have been provided for their entertainment every week. Aside from the Wednesday and Saturday evening dances, Monday and Friday evenings are devoted to dancing instruction from regular teachers of the Cortisoz Dancing School, Philadelphia.

Thursday of last week the young people held a moonlight dance on the lawn.

There was a cabaret entertainment given in the dining room after the regular dinner, Thursday, July 16th.

The Inn is filled to its fullest capacity. There is entertainment provided for all, with tennis, boating, dancing, bridge and numerous other diversions to while away the summer hours, a delightful time is assured.

Every Sunday evening a song service is held in the dining room by different churches in Swarthmore, which is largely attended by the guests of the Inn.

ICE. The only person in Swarthmore carrying ice stock all the time. My taxes amounting to several hundred dollars per year, helps to build our streets and run our school and no other ice man contributes to either, therefore I ask the trade of every family in Swarthmore.

East Lawn Cemetery

East Lawn Cemetery is situated at the lower end of Park Avenue.

The lay of the ground with the many beautiful old trees makes it an ideal situation for a cemetery.

The aim of the management is to make East Lawn a Swarthmore cemetery, where Swarthmore families may have a burial place to be proud of, and it is with this in mind that they are seeking the support of Swarthmore residents.

Many of the most prominent families in Swarthmore have lots in East Lawn and people who have been active in Swarthmore affairs are buried there.

The Company invites everyone to visit the Cemetery. Mr. Emmet Canning, the Superintendent, 5 Girard Avenue Swarthmore, is doing much to add to the attractive features of the grounds.

THE HOUSE OF PRAISE

Ver needn't bring no mournin', To hang out by thy door, With mother, settin' peaceful, On that farther shore.

The first time that she's rested, In all her narrer life; Her that's been darter, sister, An forty year, a wife.

Hard lines 'tis, alters workin', An not for money, mind, But jist for love's sake slavin', Till yer grow bent and blind.

Up airy in the mornin', Afore the dawn o' light, An scullin' cookin' sewin', 'Long till the dead o' night.

Ma had no handsum dresses, No diamond rings, nor gold, Jist like her life, her things was All deadly plain an' old.

She never heard no music, 'Less, when the night grew deep, The good Lord sent His angels, To sing her wants to sleep!

So 'taint no house o' Mournin', It's jist a house o' praise, First time in all her days!

FACTS WORTH KNOWING

The first thing an up-to-date business man does is to advertise. Frank Marsh formerly with Chas. A. Smith belongs in that class, he invites you to visit his New Meat Market on Chester Road, give him a chance to please you. When unexpected guests arrive, you need not worry about the luncheon if you have a can of Tartar Salmon on hand. It makes a most delicious salad, this particular brand has a delicate flavor of its own. For sale only by E. W. Hannum & Sons. Have your guest try a glass of that good Buttermilk from the Swarthmore Dairy. Then telephone Smith's Grocery Store for one of those fine Watermelons. Keep a supply of Fresh Cut Flowers on hand, from the Marot Greenhouses, for the unexpected guest will enjoy the flowers as well as the dainty luncheon. In the afternoon take your friend to Strath Haven Inn and play a game of Tennis, on your way there stop at the store of De Witt C. Lewis and get a supply of Tennis Balls. If you will introduce your guest at the Swarthmore National Bank they will cash his check and he will be so impressed with the convenience, beauty and hospitality of Swarthmore he will immediately invest his money in one of those Attractive Houses built by Carroll Thayer. Walton & Walton will be ready to insure his property with The Penna. Fire Insurance Co. and the M. D. Gould Co. will convince him that Safety comes First in plumbing.
 Jos. S. Seal can tell him how to Beware of Frauds. After the game of tennis take him to the Parlors of Florence E.
 Witzel and buy a jar of Elmo Cream
 for Sunburn, next treat him to a glass of that Refreshing Soda Water at Shirer's. Do not fail to call his attention to the Twin Necessities by the Phila.
 Sub. Gas & Electric Co., also to the Bright Streets the Delaware Co. Electric Co. advertise, and the Pure Water the Springfield Con. Water Co. furnish. If he wants Modern Electric Appliances direct him to Wm. R. Govett, Morton, Pa. Tell him that Harry H. Evans keeps the Best Milk outside of Swarthmore and his Best Trade is in Swarthmore because—Swarthmoreans appreciate the Best of everything—that is why the First National Bank of Media advertises in the SWARTHMORE NEWS and Yocum and Powers advertise Victoria Lot Home Paper. A cemetery lot may not be an attractive investment but you must admit it is a necessary one. Why not select a good lot in a beautiful, peaceful spot? The Eastlawn Cemetery Co. will be glad to quote you prices. Last but not least take your guest to Railroad Avenue and introduce him to the only Ice man in Swarthmore, who pays taxes, and helps to improve our streets and support our new school.

DEMAND REGULATES SUPPLY

The demand for hen's eggs far exceeds that of duck's the little poem tells the reason why—do not try to imitate the duck—advertise their wares and create a demand for what you have to sell.

When Mistress Hen has laid an egg,
 She cackles loud and high
 The farmer hears her in the field,
 The rich man, riding by,
 The farmer's wife with pleasure greets
 The tale she has to tell,
 And cries out to her busy maid,
 "Another egg to sell!"
 The neighbors call, and each one buys—
 Well, well! it pays to advertise!

But Madam Duck will lay an egg,
 And never make a sound.
 "Catch her," she sneers "go shouting out,
 Through all the country round.

ICE. The only person in Swarthmore carrying ice stock all the time. My taxes amounting to several hundred dollars per year, helps to build our streets and run our school and no other ice man contributes to either, therefore I ask the trade of every family in Swarthmore.

The fuss folks make for Mrs. Hen!
 Of course, it's just her luck;
 The noisy thing! "So no one buys
 The eggs of Mother Duck.
 Well, well! for some the world stands still!
 It always has, and always will.

MORAL: If you have eggs, or wooden pegs
 Or anything to sell,
 Rise up and shout your news about,
 "Twill pay, and pay you well!
 When dollars fill your empty till,
 Your purse grows huge in size, You'll laugh and say, "I've learned the way,
 It pays to advertise!"

STRATH HAVEN INN NOTES

On Tuesday, the 14th, a recital was given by Miss Keating and Miss Miller, assisted by Miss Elder, soloist. The lengthy program included a monologue as well as musical numbers and was thoroughly enjoyable.

The Dinner Dance held on Wednesday was attended by many visitors who were unanimous in the opinion that the dance was a most enjoyable arrangement.

Guests of the Inn, and about forty of their friends, were treated to a Cabaret entertainment on Thursday. Tables were arranged around the side of the dining room, having an open space for dancing in the center. The room was finely decorated and soft drinks and sandwiches were served.

On Friday evening a movie, picture entertainment was followed by the usual
 Friday night dancing class.

The usual dance was held on Saturday evening.

On Sunday evening a song service will be given, from 10.15 to 10.30 P. M.

The dancing class is arranged for day, as usual.

Arrivals at the Inn are as follows:
 Mr. M. E. Bullwinkle, Phila.
 Mr. Dudley Clapp, Washington,
 Reginald M. McCloskey, Phila.
 Stanley B. Reed, Phila.
