LEGION DEFEATS RIDLEY PARK 4-1

1947 Champs Do Well In Memorial Day Preliminary

As a preliminary to what points to a highly successful season the Swarthmore Legion Team downed Ridley Park by a score of 4 to 1 on Saturday. The boys were up against the pitcher who helped them to the championship last year, but Johnny Poole's pitching for Ridley Park could not stop the boy's this year in this warmup game.

A standout performance was turned in by no one for, as always with Russell Snyder coached teams, there was emphasis on team play. Larry Dalton pitched superbly throughout the game and in addition drove in two important runs with a timely single. Harry Warren had the longest hit of the day, which would have easily been a homer except for a ground rule on the College Field that limited to two bases. George Thorbahn also had a timely hit that accounted for scoring.

The locals showed real promise in all departments and those who saw the game could not help but feel that they have as good or a better chance of going a long way in American Legion Baseball than they did at this time last year. The regular season opens on Friday, June 11 on the Riverview Avenue Field with Media.

REMINDER

Mrs. Birney K. Morse, chairman of the antiques section of the Woman's Club reminds the members of Elfreth's Alley Day tomorrow, June 5, starting at 9 in the morning.

In case of rain it will be postponed to the following Saturday. Mrs. Morse, Swarthmore 0602, will be glad to supply any further information.

ESCAPE IN OREGON FLOOD

Mrs. Clarence E. Clewell of Benjamin West avenue has received word from Portland, Oregon, that her daughter Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Starr and their family are all safe, but Mrs. Schroeder has lost all of her possessions.

By being on a weekend trip to Hood River, Miss Clewell was not endangered, but the others, who are former residents of Dartmouth avenue, were in Portland when the dam broke.

To Address Seniors

Dr. Clair Wilcox will be the commencement speaker at the college on Monday.

TO PLAN "THE FOURTH"

Swarthmore Business Men's Association will meet at the Strath Haven Inn on Monday, June 7 at 7 p. m. for the election of officers and to make 4th of July arrangements.

TO SEARCH FOR PEACE MATERIALS

Ellen Brinton, College Librarian, Busy Abroad

Ellen Star Brinton curator of the Swarthmore College Peace Library sailed Friday on the Queen Elizabeth for London. She was accompanied by Elma Greenwood of New York, research expert, who relinquished a civil service post in order to act as Miss Brinton's secretary in this summer's search for peace materials abroad and then become associated with the Federal Council of Churches in New York next fall.

The two women, both of whom are members of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and make the journey with a special letter from the national board, will visit peace organizations and attend peace conferences in a number of European countries. They have several special assignments to search for and sort papers in London and Geneva and expect also to go to Denmark and Austria, collecting papers for storing in a permanent headquarters at the Swarthmore College Peace Library.

Miss Brinton will return in September for the opening of the new college term. During her absence her assistant William Fisher Brinton will be in charge of the Peace Library.

The Commission is endeavoring to reshape the complex government structure in the interests of more economy and efficiency and in line with prospective future needs. Mr. Taylor's work, for the present, is connected with the committee studying the Department of Agriculture.

SRA DANCE WELL ATTENDED

John Fischer Awarded Prize for Ticket Sales

Swarthmoreans ranging in age from four to 60 danced to the music of the Garnet Serenaders last Saturday night when the Swarthmore Recreation Association held its annual Memorial Day Dance in the high school gymnasium.

Johnnie Fischer of Dickinson avenue, with ticket sales totalling nearly $34 was awarded a $5. prize by Herman Bloom.

Charles Andes, Jr. genial and witty master of ceremonies introduced the acts, which held many surprises for the spectators.

Attendance at the dance, though greater than last year, did not compensate for the relatively thin backing accorded the Hornet's ball game Saturday afternoon. The teams, well matched, came out with close scores. George Allen who broke a bone in his foot was the only casualty of the game. Fans will follow the Hornets to Holmes next Monday, June 7.

Girl Scouts Happy

Seek Dental Clinic

A committee of interested community leaders is endeavoring to establish a dental clinic for school age children. It is to be administered by the Community Health Society of Central Delaware County, which is the public health nursing service covering this area.

Mrs. Francis H. Forsythe of Swarthmore is chairman of this committee. Others who will serve include: Mrs. Harry L. Miller of Swarthmore; Mrs. Robert Fitch and Mrs. Leonard Corwin of Springfield; Mrs. Lloyd A. Daly and Mrs. Louis Divan of Ridley Township.

This group is working under the professional guidance of Dr. Charles Rossell, Jr., Dental Consultant of the Health and Welfare Council and Dr. Muriel Robinson of the Dental Division of the State Health Department.

The committee was aroused to action when through the dental examinations in the schools it was learned that dental defects head the list.

At the present time, there is no dental service available in the county for children whose parents cannot afford to pay for private care.

In the Ridley Township School District, the Dental Division of the State Health Department has two dentists, each limited to fifteen hours per month for preventive work among the children of the first five grades of Ridley Township.

This program does not even begin to attack the great problem of children who need remedial dental work. The enthusiastic group of citizens who make up this committee is planning to establish a dental clinic in the Central Delaware County area, which will be available to the children of the Springfield, Ridley Park, Ridley Township, Swarthmore, Morton and Rutledge schools. They will be eligible for this service if their parents cannot afford private care, but are able to pay a fee.

The committee is stressing the point that this project is not to be considered charity, but citizens planning to help one another over periods of financial distress.

The time and location of the clinic will be announced in the early fall. Meanwhile the committee will seek the support of local clubs and PTA groups, in order that the children of these communities may have the dental corrections they so badly need.

Writes About New Zealand

A new book by Leslie Lipson, associate professor of political science at Swarthmore College, is being released this week by the University of Chicago Press. The book, "The Politics of Equality," is a study of the governmental system of New Zealand. In it, Prof. Lipson discusses such controversial issues as socialized medicine, minimum wage laws, government insurance, and compulsory arbitration of labor disputes.

Prof. Lipson is a graduate of Oxford University and received his Ph. D. at the University of Chicago. He was professor of political science and director of the School of Public Administration in the University of New Zealand at Victoria from 1939-1946. As a consultant to the New Zealand government, he had an opportunity to watch the day-by-day operations of the government and to participate in its work in the critical war years.

OFFER PROGRAM FOR PEACE

These churches of Swarthmore are so concerned with world tensions today that they wish to bring to the attention of the community the Program for Peace as proposed on April 26 by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, which appears below. They ask all individuals to help in ways that accord with their concepts of duty.

TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH
METHODIST CHURCH
AME CHURCH OF SWARTHMORE
SWARTHMORE MEETING OF THE RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, through its Executive Committee, meeting in special session, addresses itself to the present international crisis.

Powerful forces have pushed mankind to the brink of an awful abyss. The first and urgent task is to check those forces. Therefore, we do not deal here with the long-range task of building peace, but with a short-range task of averting war without yielding sound democratic principles. We call upon our people to immediately change the present prevailing mood which makes for war. This will not remove the basic causes of the present tension, but it will provide an increased margin of safety.

I. Our people should not tolerate any complacency about war. War would engulf all in misery and would bring other consequences quite the opposite of our intentions.

II. Our people should combat a mood of hysteria or blind hatred.

III. Our people should reject fatalism about war. War is not inevitable. If it should come, it would be because of conditions that men could have changed.

IV. Our people should not rely on military strategy to meet Communist aggression. Such reliance is more apt to bring war than prevent it. There should be greater concentration on positive programs of an economic, social, political and moral character.

V. Our people should press for positive programs which have immediate possibilities for peace and justice. They could, for example, quickly move toward:

a. Greater emphasis on increasing social welfare; b. Greater emphasis on human rights, to check terrorism; c. Greater use of processes of international conversation and negotiation.

VI. Our people should not tolerate any complacency about war. War would engulf all in misery and would bring other consequences quite the opposite of our intentions.

VII. Our churches ought to testify with renewed vigor to God's righteous love for all men and the reality of the Christian world fellowship.

No Complacency About War
Our people should not tolerate any complacency about war. War would engulf all in misery and would bring other consequences quite the opposite of our intentions.

Some have come to look upon "a preventive war" as an acceptable means of settling the present international conflict. Such a state of mind we unqualifiedly condemn. The last war ended with the dropping of two bombs which alone killed over 100,000 persons and shattered the lives of many more. New war would plunge the world into utter misery. Whatever the military result, there would be an intensification of the misery which makes men willing to exchange freedom for dictatorship.

II
To Combat Hysteria
Our people should combat a mood of hysteria or blind hatred. There is always danger that in the face of alarming events hatred or fear will arise, mass emotion and drive people into doing foolish things. A free society can survive only as its members have national anarchy, where international law and international police power are lacking, military strength is necessary, while we continually strive for the multilateral reduction and control of armaments through the United Nations. But the main defenses of what we treasure are to be found in nonmilitary measures which will change the conditions favoring the spread of despotism. To provide those defenses is not the task for military advisers.

Therefore, the American people, in conformity with the principle of democratic government, should not permit policy making to pass predominantly into the hands of those who think primarily in military terms, as seems to be the case today.

Our people and Government should not feel satisfied with merely military measures but should diligently develop and carry through programs of an economic, social, political and moral character. This, the real security of the United States and of the world may be safeguarded, and war may be averted.

Peace Program Detailed
Our people should press for positive programs which have immediate possibilities for peace and justice. They could, for example, quickly move toward:

a. Greater economic well-being throughout the world; b. Greater emphasis on increasing social welfare; c. Greater observance of human rights, to check terrorism; d. Greater use of processes of international conversation and negotiation.

We believe that the positive programs which we here propose by way of illustration flow directly from our Christian faith and its requirements for relation of mutual helpfulness and goodwill among men.

In urging at this time economic assistance to those in need, increased observance of the rights and freedoms which are claimed by virtue of man's dignity in God's sight, we are setting forth tasks which should at all times command the support of our Christian people. We are convinced that these conditions, if they are to be met, must be met in the present international crisis which commends them to all men of good will.

Primary responsibility for the technical aspects of programs rests, of course, upon government and political leadership. Nevertheless, the responsibility for the present international crisis will commend them to all men of good will.

Soviet leaders do have a global program which, if carried out in the intolerant and coercive manner of the past two years, is likely to lead to war. However, it can be dealt with by counter-measures of peace. It seems that the Soviet program will be aggressively pushed to a danger point, especially where the following conditions prevail:

first, where economies are weak; second, where the working people can be made to believe that proletarian dictatorship offers their best hope of increased welfare; and third, where man can be terrorized.

To quote from Stalin, Soviet communism strikes when and where the forces opposed have "exposed their practical bankruptcy." Where that condition is not found, aggressive Soviet action is suspended. The way to prevent war, therefore, is to change the conditions which tempt men to reckless and dangerous activities.

IV
More Than Armed Force Needed
Our people should not rely primarily on military strategy to meet Communist aggression. Such reliance is more apt to bring war than prevent it. There should be greater concentration on positive programs of an economic, social, political and moral character.

In times of international crisis it is tempting to look to military measures as a means of salvation. That is happening in America now. Nearly a year ago Secretary Marshall put forward the statesmanlike idea for the European Recovery Plan. In many respects, however, our recent international policy seems to have been much dominated by military thinking. Such domination increases the risk of war. In present conditions of international anarchy, where international law and international police power are lacking, military strength is necessary, while we continually strive for the multilateral reduction and control of armaments through the United Nations. But the main defenses of what we treasure are to be found in nonmilitary measures which will change the conditions favoring the spread of despotism. To provide those defenses is not the task for military advisers.

Therefore, the American people, in conformity with the principle of democratic government, should not permit policy making to pass predominantly into the hands of those who think primarily in military terms, as seems to be the case today.

There was a time when the

Prayer and Action Asked

VI
Our people ought, each one of them, to contribute to a change of mood so as to increase the chance of averting war without compromise of basic convictions. This is a time for prayer. Also it is a time for action. Men of goodwill must promptly lay hold of the means at hand to increase the margin of safety against war. This is a task in which every one can play a constructive part.

1. Do not tolerate any complacency about war. Some of us may ourselves be complacent about war. If not, each of us knows some who are. So each one can do something to reduce the sum total of the complacency.

2. Combat a mood of hysteria or blind hatred. Each of us is aware of focal points of war hysteria and blind hatred. We know who are some of the individuals, groups, and publications that are spreading that mood. Each by writing to political leaders or editors, can do something to stop the development of unrestrained mob emotion.

3. Reject fatalism about war. Each of us knows some who think that war is inevitable and that it is better to get it over quickly so as to relieve the strain of waiting, and to anticipate the Soviet development of atomic power. Each can do something to change that mood of fatalism and impotence.

4. Oppose primary reliance on military strategy to meet Communist aggression. Each of us can have an influence with leaders in Congress or in the administration or in political parties and can urge that they do not concentrate on military measures as though these alone would assure peace, but concern themselves also with economic, social, political and moral counter-measures against the threat of war.

5. Press for positive programs which have immediate possibilities for peace and justice. Each of us can use our voice and our vote in behalf of constructive measures by our Government to increase the margin of safety from war, such as programs for recovery, for increased social welfare, for a covenant on human rights, and for continuing diplomatic conversation with the Soviet Union.

We belong to a free society. We cherish for ourselves and for others freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of assembly, freedom of petition and freedom to vote. It is such freedoms which are threatened and which we want more fully to achieve and to preserve. Most of us would fight rather than surrender them, even though they might well be lost by fighting. These freedoms can, we are confident, be preserved if we are now used in ways to avert the immediate danger of war. In a free society every citizen has a duty of action.

Duty of Christians Cited
Our churches ought to testify with renewed vigor to God's righteous love for all men and the reality of the Christian world fellowship.

Christians have their own divine commission to proclaim the kingdom of God and His righteousness at home and abroad. God is a God of judgement as well as of mercy. In His sight all nations, including ourselves, have left undone those things which they ought to have done and done those things which they ought not to have done. We are called to recognize the just condemnation of His judgement but if we turn to Him in repentance and faith we shall avail ourselves of His mercy. We are called to be steadfast in prayer for all the peoples of the world that they may learn the things that belong to their peace; for our nation and our Government, that they may become willing to serve the purposes of God.

Our churches are part of a world-wide community of Christians. They have come into being as a universal fellowship in our own carry through.

time through the work of the missionary movement and through the new discovery of the unity in Christ that binds Christians of many communions. Let us always remember the great company of fellow Christians in Russia with whom we share a common faith that should transcend all the differences that make for conflict. Already in many places Christ has broken down the middle wall of partition in His Church even where Christians have been divided by the enmities of war. We find our ultimate hope for peace in the faith that God, through Christ, is seeking to draw all men to Himself and into fellowship with one another.

WILCOX CHARTS HARD ROAD TO PEACE FOR GRADUATES

Says Uncertain Years Ahead Can Be Won by Reaffirmed and Practiced Freedom

Ten local students, were among the 169 members of the largest graduating class in the history of Swarthmore College who received their diplomas Tuesday morning. Despite the unsettled weather the exercises were held in the beautiful Scott Outdoor Auditorium. Dr. Clair Wilcox former director of the Office of International Trade who will return to his duties as professor of Economics in the fall, delivered the commencement address, "The Price of Freedom".
Summarizing the achievements of America "shaped by the exercise of freedom" and the world responsibilities America now holds, Dr. Wilcox stated that although freedom is the most precious of our possessions, few of us have ever stopped to think what it really means to us. Freedom, or to lack it... That which one misses most in America, today, is a living faith... we lack a sense of mission... we are too comfortable to burn with a holy fire.
In this mood of uncertainty, Dr. Wilcox stated, the country meets the "moving force of revolutionary communism" which must be dealt with because it is the "antithesis of freedom". This uncertainty also gives Americans into the acceptance that World War 3 is inevitable.
"Surely it is folly to accept the thesis that war is inevitable. There is nothing in the facts of economic geography to support it. We must reject complacency and fatalism about war... For the forces of destruction, once unleashed, are not to be controlled."
Dr. Wilcox finds the belief held by millions of Americans that the way to peace is an immediate and final conference with Russia to settle all differences, unsound. "We have met with these people again and again, during and since the war; we have made concession after concession. But each concession has served to whet the appetite for another... In a nation's attitude toward the control of the atom, it meets the acid test of its good faith; the Russians have flatly rejected cooperative development as an infringement of national sovereignty. For a month after the conference after conference, we have sat in silence under a stream of continuous abuse. The sooner we come to realize that there is no simple solution to the problem of Russia, the better off we shall be.
The question of war and peace is a question of the future relations between the United States and the Soviet Union. There can be no real world government, no prospect of disarmament, no subjugation of the atom, unless the Russians will participate. Better a weak United Nations with Russia

Do You Want Fireworks?
The Swarthmore Business Association wishes to ascertain whether the majority of Swarthmoreans desire a fireworks display to top off the local Fourth of July celebration. Anyone who would like to see a revival of this custom of several years ago should contact The Swarthmore office or E. M. Buchner of Park avenue.

38 H. S. DRIVERS TESTED BY A.R.C.

The traffic safety education program given at Swarthmore High School last week by the Atlantic Refining Company at the request of The Swarthmorean resulted in a total of 38 students finishing the six-mile road test and 12 hours instruction to learners. Observers numbered 73.
The Atlantic Refining Company reported local students had been found to be very cooperative and had done an unusually intelligent job of driving during the course, also exhibiting a fine attitude toward traffic safety measures.
This driver training program for high schools was inaugurated in March 1947 by the Atlantic Refining Company in the interest of traffic safety, and is the first program of its type in the country. It has been well received in the Pennsylvania communities where it has been presented. Two dual control cars and three qualified instructors are used each time the program is given. One car is used in a road test, set up by local authorities to cover a route five to six miles in length and including left and right turns, stop signs, traffic lights and all normal driving conditions. An instructor sits at the side of each licensed student as he makes the road test. In the rear seat of the car are three observers, preferably sophomores who have a learner's permit or anticipate securing one.
At the conclusion of the trip the instructor relates to the four students both the errors made in driving practices and the operator's regard for the provisions of the vehicle code. The driver's attitude toward pedestrians and other traffic is also checked.
In the street, as close to the school as possible and barricaded by local police, the second car is used in skill tests developed by Pennsylvania State College. These tests check correct methods of parking, ability to drive forward and backward on a straight line, braking, ability to determine position of all

700 ATTEND ARTS FESTIVAL SUNDAY

Well Planned Event Draws Many From Wide Area

The Arts Festival held Sunday in Rose Valley's Old Mill under the auspices of the Delaware County Arts Center Committee drew 700 people from all sections of the County and its environs. The success of the event was most satisfying to the committee which extends its thanks to all who aided in the day's program.
Appreciation is extended by the committee's chairman James Feight, Wallingford, to the nine Art Centers in the vicinity who brought displays of their work to add to the scope of the activities and promise of the future. Assisting center included the Bryn Mawr Art Center, The Cheltenham Township Art Center, the Chester County Art Association, Chestnut Hill Art Center of the Woodmere Gallery, Conshohocken Art League, Germantown Settlement Art Center, Old York Road Guild, Philadelphia Museum of Art Classes, and the Wayne Art Center.
General chairman of the event was former Swarthmorean Cyril Gardiner, now of Wallingford. He was assisted by William Price, chairman of program, Mr. Feight master of ceremonies, Mrs. C. A. Dennis, Wallingford, and Mrs. Ralph Jennings, secretary and assistant secretary, Mrs. R. V. Peavey, Moylan, mailing chairman, Mrs. Charles Lucas, Rose Valley, hospitality; Stuart Graves and Roger Millen, both of Media, co-chairmen of the hanging committee; Emma L. Warfield, Springfield, welcome; Mrs. Norman Dutton, Wallingford, luncheon; Joseph Gibson, Rose Valley, membership; Mrs. Graves, publicity; and Mrs. J. C. Bedford, policy adviser.

PURNELL TO HEAD SRA PROGRAM

Mrs. J. Francis Taylor At Rutgers Ave. School
Theodore L. Purnell has again consented to direct a most capable staff in the Swarthmore Association's program of summer activities.
Purnell, a professor at Pennsylvania Military College, holds degrees from Albright and Penn State with additional work to his credit from the University of Pennsylvania. Besides his teaching he directs the intramural program at the College, and has coached sports at high school, Swarthmore College and P. M. C. In addition, he is a Boy Scout representative and Troop Committeeman.
General play including softball, touch and Australian football, volleyball, "capture the flag", miniature golf, quoits, horseshoes, a scavenger hunt and a hayride, will be in charge of Don Dickinson, who was recently elected president of the high school's Student Council.
The Craft program, conducted by Mrs. Purnell and her assistant Sally Woodward, will allow individual expression in working with such materials as copper, tin, aluminum, plastics, shells, clay, and leather. Tin can craft and fabric block printing or stenciling should create much interest.
The tennis instructor will be Alan McChesney and Marjorie Lewis will teach archery.
Vonnie Ryan will handle office affairs and indoor games such as jacks, checkers, ping pong, etc.
At the Rutgers Avenue School a completely different program for children from the age of two to those who have completed second grade will again be under the able direction of Mrs. J. Francis Taylor. Residents of the Borough and nearby communities are urged to register their children on June 10 for Swarthmore's unique, low-cost program of summer recreation. The opening date will be June 21 with the closing date slated for July 30.

in than a strong one with Russia out."

Dr. Wilcox sees no prospect for peace or real security for a long time. He recommends a "strong, firm, patient, wise, just" attitude toward Russia. "We must promote positive programs of economic development, social welfare, and human rights throughout the world. Above all, we must demonstrate our ability to abolish poverty, provide opportunity, and maintain freedom within our own borders. This is our best defense against communism."

"Our first and most difficult problem is the maintenance of industrial stability. We stand now at the peak of a post-war boom, financed in large part, by exports for reconstruction and expenditures for rearmament. We know that our economy is vulnerable. But we can reject the communist prophecy that it will work its own destruction."

"There is another danger.... It is the danger that we place too high a value on stability; that we purchase permanence at the expense of progress; secure security by bartering away our liberty. For progress means change, and liberty means change, and change is always difficult to take.... Whenever there is a vested interest in a particular form of employment or source of income, whether in business, agriculture, or labor, there is antagonism to change. Wherever industry or government yields to this pressure, freedom gives way to regimentation, competition to monopoly, and progress to stagnation.... We must keep the door open to innovation, enterprise, new blood and ideas."

Dr. Wilcox cited the obligation of a democracy to provide equal opportunity. "We carry on our record, one black mark. Wherever one defends our country against her critics, at home or abroad, he has to answer to the charge that he discriminates against minorities. This discrimination is shameful and dangerous.... If we believe in the virtues of a free society, we must practice them. We must allow diversity; we must tolerate heresy; we must encourage freedom of thought and speech. Here is an answer to communism; here is a task for America: to lend support to democratic governments wherever freedom is attacked; to promote positive programs of economic betterment and social amelioration throughout the world; to demonstrate the capacity of a free society to maintain high standards of living, to achieve industrial stability, to reconcile security and progress, to afford real opportunity to all its people and, whatever obstacles it may encounter, to preserve its essential liberties. These things we can do."

"But we shall need a reaffirmation of faith in the fundamental values of freedom.... for freedom, if it is to live, must be passionately believed and deeply felt.... We have it in our inheritance. We must find it in our hearts."

Among the local graduates were

in than a strong one with Russia out'.

Dr. Wilcox sees no prospect for peace or real security for a long time. He recommends a "strong, firm, patient, wise, just" attitude toward Russia. "We must promote positive programs of economic development, social welfare, and human rights throughout the world. Above all, we must demonstrate our ability to abolish poverty, provide opportunity, and maintain freedom within our own borders. This is our best defense against communism."

"Our first and most difficult problem is the maintenance of industrial stability. We stand now at the peak of a post-war boom, financed in large part, by exports for reconstruction and expenditures for rearmament. We know that our economy is vulnerable. But we can reject the communist prophecy that it will work its own destruction."

"There is another danger.... It is the danger that we place too high a value on stability; that we purchase permanence at the expense of progress; secure security by bartering away our liberty. For progress means change, and liberty means change, and change is always difficult to take.... Wherever there is a vested interest in a particular form of employment or source of income, whether in business, agriculture, or labor, there is antagonism to change. Wherever industry or government yields to this pressure, freedom gives way to regimentation, competition to monopoly, and progress to stagnation.... We must keep the door open to innovation, enterprise, new blood and ideas."

Dr. Wilcox cited the obligation of a democracy to provide equal opportunity. "We carry, on our record, one black mark. Wherever one defends our country against her critics, at home or abroad, he has to answer to the charge that we discriminate against minorities. This discrimination is shameful and dangerous.... If we believe in the virtues of a free society, we must practice them. We must allow diversity; we must tolerate heresy; we must encourage freedom of thought and speech. Here is an answer to communism; here is a task for America: to lend support to democratic governments wherever freedom is attacked; to promote positive programs of economic betterment and social amelioration throughout the world; to demonstrate the capacity of a free society to maintain high standards of living, to achieve industrial stability, to reconcile security and progress, to afford real opportunity to all its people and, whatever obstacles it may encounter, to preserve its essential liberties. These things we can do."

"But we still need a reaffirmation of faith in the fundamental values of freedom.... for freedom, if it is to live, must be passionately believed and deeply felt.... We have it in our inheritance. We must find it in our hearts."

Among the local graduates were

William Black, James Pierce, Frederick Green, Edward Bassett, Gavin Spofford, Joseph Gary, William Osler, David Hawke, James Bowditch, Grisella Hall.

Presbyterian Pastor
Came to Boro
In 1946

The Rev. Dr. H. Lewis Cutler who has been in charge of the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church since the death of Dr. David Braun some months ago, will leave the borough September 1 for the First Presbyterian Church in Boonton, N. J.

Dr. Cutler came to Swarthmore in December, 1946 to be associated with Dr. Braun in the local Presbyterian program, particularly in the field of religious education. Previously he had been Philadelphia director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, and pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian Church at Wynote.

He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and Princeton Theological Seminary and received an honorary degree of doctor of divinity from Beaver College.

To Ireland

Charles Keenan of Harvard Avenue, Barbara and Sandra Crosset of Ridley Creek road, Ginny Peel of Columbia Avenue and Ginny's cousin Jean Van Nest of East Orange, N. J. are members of a group of 15 who will sail July 1 on the Britannic to visit families in Belfast, Ireland and environs under the auspices of the Ulster-American Youth League.

Chaperoned by Mrs. William Stockton of Bryn Mawr the group also includes seven boys and girls from the Main Line and three from Chicago.

Before returning to this country on August 23 the group will have toured Scotland and England as well as Ireland, living in hotels in the former places.

EXPRESSED THANKS

Rev. M. W. Frazier, pastor of the Wesley M. E. Church, wishes to thank the citizens and the churches of Swarthmore for their support in the $25,000 church extension program drive, which is still going on. Plans are now being made for the building of a parsonage.

Planning Fireworks

Since many residents have evidenced a desire to have a display of fireworks on the evening of Fourth of July, the Swarthmore Business Association is trying to arrange a revival of this local custom. Contributions toward the purchase of the fireworks can be left at The Swarthmore Office, Michael's, or Buchner's.

For the four weeks, June 14 to July 10, Swarthmore College is acting as host to more than a hundred students who have enrolled in two case-study courses being offered by the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers. Students from as far away as Illinois and Virginia have come to attend the first two-week session.

The first course, in which 118 are enrolled, is designated Appraisal I—Principles and Procedures Applicable to the Valuation of All Types of Real Property. Appraisal II—Method and Techniques of Appraising Investment Properties, scheduled for the last two weeks, is a more advanced course for which the enrollment is only seventy.

These courses, sponsored by the Institute from time to time at various colleges and universities throughout the country, are designed for men actively engaged in the real estate business and for lawyers and investment brokers whose work touches on this field.

The American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers is a division of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. Sponsors of this particular session are the Philadelphia Real Estate Board, the Delaware County Real Estate Board, and the Philadelphia chapter of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers in cooperation with the Chester Real Estate Board and the Main Line Board of Realtors.

SCHOOL BOARD
IN JUNE MEETING

Resignation of Three
Teachers Greets
Directors

At its June meeting on Tuesday night of this week, the Swarthmore School Board received a request from the Community Health Society for permission to use the dental room in the high school building for the community dental clinic.

Under the plan, Swarthmore would join with several surrounding communities in retaining the services of a dentist one day a week to care for clinic cases. The request was granted on a trial one-year basis.

Waldo Davison and Arthur McCormack appeared before the Board to request further study at this time by a joint committee of citizens and School Board to investigate the possibility of erecting a fence and additional stands at the Rutgers Avenue field. The proposed addition would supply more seating accommodations for spectators and would provide, it is felt, considerable additional income for adequate equipment for boys who participate in sports.

With the close of the school year three members of the teaching staff have resigned and will not return next year. They are Dorothy Adams, high school teacher of English, who is going to California; Helen Grandhomme, sixth grade College Avenue teacher, who is going to East Orange; and Theresa A. Young, elementary supervisor, who is to be married.

A report on the medical examinations of the members of the teaching and maintenance staff indicated that practically all of them, within the past two years, as required by law, had such examinations and displayed a high record of health. They will also participate in the chest X-ray which will be given at the school the later part of September by the Delaware County Tuberculosis Association. At that time the older pupils of the school and the staff will be X-rayed during the day, with the members of the community being invited to avail themselves of this free service in the late afternoon and early evening.

Communication was received from Borough Council regarding the mutual use of the borough tractor, which will be used by the borough for snow removal in the winter and on loan by the school district for the cutting of grass in the summer. The Board agreed to cut the grass of certain borough properties in view of Council's permission to use this new tractor with the school district moving equipment.

Communication from the school solicitor, advised that the School Board set up an impress fund at the Swarthmore National Bank to Local contributions of Flowers for the Flowerless handed this year through the garden section of the Woman's Club with Mrs. D. Reed Geer as chairman, should be left in buckets provided for them on the clubhouse porch on Wednesday afternoons and evenings.

During June, July, August, and September members of the garden section will collect the buckets at 9 a. m. Thursdays and drive the flowers to the Philadelphia General Hospital to cheer otherwise flowerless patients.

Play Baltimore in League Opener
On 23rd

In the first league game of the new season the Sun Oil A. A. Lacrosse team, under the capable management of Joe Kahler, of North Chester road, will engage the powerful Baltimore Lacrosse Club in another of these action-packed games that spectators find so thrilling. The fracas will be staged under artificial light starting at 8:15 p. m. on Wednesday, June 23, at Andy MacMurtre Field, Concord road, Feltonville.

Both teams will feature the play of renowned ex-colleagues whose deeds with the cross gained them fame and glory. The Baltimore Club is coached by the famous Bobby Pool who donated the trophy bearing his name for which the teams compete so hotly, won last year by the Sun Oil A. A. team. Three former Maryland U. stars are in the starting line-up; Jiles Freeman, Mark Medary and Jim Barbart. Two All-Americans are from Duke U., Tommy Feltit and Jim Corrigan. Ray Wittelsberger (who made All-South in his freshman year) hails from Loyola, and from Johns Hopkins comes Bernie Hagberg. Other famous names are those of Goalie Skip Barry and All-American Bob McElroy.

Manager Kahler's list of stars includes the names of Johnny Cramer and Bill Streit from Penn, Gordy Bierman, Don Swann from Delaware, Bark McCormick and Bill Piper from Swarthmore, Ed Belfield and Jim Price from Penn State, Cornell Archbald from Syracuse, Bill Ward from Lafayette, Robbie Hopson from Dickinson, and Dick Helms and Erv Kahler from Swarthmore.

Baltimore will be seeking to avenge the two licks it took at the hands of the Oilers last season.

Mr. F. P. Jones with his daughter Miss Rosamond Jones attended the commencement exercises of his son Stuart at Oberlin College over the weekend.

Charles Kurtzhalz, of Park Avenue, director of the Philadelphia Tuberculosis and Health Association, was elected president of the National Conference of Tuberculosis Secretaries. The election took place at the 44th annual meeting of the Nation Tuberculosis Association in New York City on June 15.

The conference, a professional group representing the largest affiliation of health agencies in the United States, advises directors of the National Tuberculosis Association on local attitudes and requirements in every county and state in the nation, to decide policies, and to set trends in tuberculosis control.

Kurtzhalz first came to the Philadelphia Tuberculosis and Health Association in 1925 as health education secretary. After serving in this position for three years he did similar work elsewhere, returning to become director of the association in 1937.

Schools Offer Summer
Music Instruction

Summer music instruction will be offered by the Swarthmore schools this year for the first time it was announced by Robert M. Holm, director of instrumental work in the borough schools. The program which will run concurrently with the other summer school classes from June 21 until July 30 will be without charge. Plans call for individual lessons for beginners, a summer clinic band for the more advanced players, a string ensemble program and elementary theory and harmony classes for any interested musicians. A few school owned instruments are available for loan on a trial basis.

Classes will meet during the morning five days each week. The average student will be in attendance two periods a week of from 25-45 minutes each. Students will be excused during vacation periods and the only requirement is that they attend regularly while at home in Swarthmore.

Registration will be Monday June 21 at the high school Bandroom anytime between 9 and 12.

Teachers Greets
Directors

At its June meeting on Tuesday night of this week, the Swarthmore School Board received a request from the Community Health Society for permission to use the dental room in the high school building for the community dental clinic. Under the plan, Swarthmore would join with several surrounding communities in retaining the services of a dentist one day a week to care for clinic cases. The request was granted on a trial one-year basis.

Waldo Davison and Arthur McCormack appeared before the Board to request further study at this time by a joint committee of citizens and School Board to investigate the possibility of erecting a fence and additional stands at the Rutgers Avenue field. The proposed addition would supply more seating accommodations for spectators and would provide, it is felt, considerable additional income for adequate equipment for boys who participate in sports.

With the close of the school year three members of the teaching staff have resigned and will not return next year. They are Dorothy Adams, high school teacher of English, who is going to California; Helen Grandhomme, sixth grade College Avenue teacher, who is going to East Orange; and Theresa A. Young, elementary supervisor, who is to be married.

A report on the medical examinations of the members of the teaching and maintenance staff indicated that practically all of them, within the past two years, as required by law, had such examinations and displayed a high record of health. They will also participate in the chest X-ray which will be given at the school the later part of September by the Delaware County Tuberculosis Association. At that time the older pupils of the school and the staff will be X-rayed during the day, with the members of the community being invited to avail themselves of this free service in the late afternoon and early evening.

Communication was received from Borough Council regarding the mutual use of the borough tractor, which will be used by the borough on loan by the school district for the cutting of grass in the summer. The Board agreed to cut the grass of certain borough properties in view of Council's permission to use this new tractor with the school district mowing equipment.

Communication from the school solicitor, advised that the School Board set up an imprest fund at the Swarthmore National Bank to

This is an anagram. The four scrambled words tell a well-known truth these days of scrambled budgets.

You may have to do a little figuring to discover that it says: "ELECTRICITY IS A BARGAIN"—but it doesn't take much figuring to realize what a great bargain electricity really is!

Your pocketbook tells you that living costs have skyrocketed—that nearly everything costs more nowadays. But not electricity! The average family in this territory still gets twice as much electric service for its money as it did 18 years ago!

Check your budget and ask yourself what other item does so much to make life easy and comfortable—at such little cost!

Auxiliary to End Season

The Legion Auxiliary will meet Monday, June 21, at the home of Mrs. Harvey Pierce on South Princeton avenue for the last meeting until fall. Other hostesses will be Mrs. John Whittier, Mrs. Ellen Van S. Cleveland and Mrs. Oscar Gilcrest.

Approximately 400 coupons were sent to Coatesville for the disabled veterans for the month of May. The Woman's Association of the Methodist Church has done outstanding work on this project, which will be continued through the summer.

Mrs. Robert Bair, chairman of Poppies, handed in $180, an unusually large amount. $44 of this goes to the Swarthmore Unit Treasury. The remainder will maintain the campaign, pay for poppy material and for the labor of the disabled veterans who make the poppies.

take care of payments for extra-curricular activities. The letter also outlined the decision of the Supreme Court, under which extra-curricular funds derived from admissions and sales on school property would be school district income and had to clear through the school board treasury. A plan was presented by which this program could go into effect with the new fiscal year, beginning the first

Monday in July 1948. Hereafter, supplies, equipment, and services for the extracurricular program will have to be paid directly by the School Board, instead of from the high school treasury as in the past.

The financial report for the month showed the year's complete collections by the tax collector, Mrs. Dodd, totalled $170,000 out of a tax levy of $176,000 or approximately 97 per cent collections. In addition there was $3,000 more, or about 1.8 per cent, discount allowed for early payment. With the

$2,500 unpaid property taxes from 1947, there is outstanding at this time only $5,457 of unpaid property taxes back to and including the year 1933.

Duck Club Ends Initial Season

Over two hundred Swarthmoreans and friends closed the dancing season of the Duck Club at the local Pennsylvania State College Center on Saturday evening, June 5.

As the crowd scrambled for balloons which dropped from festive blue and pink decorations at the end of the final dance, all agreed that the closing affair was a fitting climax to the series of four dances held by the Club since January. Russ Hannan's Orchestra played for all four dances and pleased all age groups with a varied selection of music.

Residents congratulated the dance committee, headed by Mrs. Walter Moir of South Chester road, on its achievement which resulted in a successful addition to the social life of Swarthmore. Mrs. Moir announced the Duck Club plans to open another series of dances next fall.

The formal season of the Duck Club closed officially Sunday, June 6, when members used the swimming pool and gymnasium at the Penn State Center for the last of the periods which have been scheduled thrice weekly since November.

The Club was originally formed to develop a working arrangement with Penn State authorities for use of the pool and gym in the Miller Crist Building on Harvard avenue, whereby local residents could avail themselves of these facilities. Through the generous cooperation of Penn State represented here by Arthur Meyers, administrative head of the local Center, Swarthmoreans and their friends have enjoyed many afternoons and evenings of swimming, badminton, basketball and other sports at very nominal cost.

Scores of adults, teen-agers and children have used the pool under careful supervision of competent life guards, and the gym has been popular all through the winter and spring.

John Plumer of Oberlin avenue, president of the Duck Club, states similar activities are planned for next season, to whatever extent

the Penn State Center schedule will permit

WINS FIRST GAME

The American Legion Junior Baseball Team opened the regular league season on Monday with a decisive victory over Aldan. The score was 10 to 2 and spectators saw a lively ball game. The boys looked well despite the fact that three regulars were missing from the lineup and the result is indicative of what may be expected of the team during the season just started.

Much of the credit for this victory must go to Larry Dalton, who pitched a grand game, giving up only four hits while striking out ten batters. In addition Larry had a double and a single in three times at bat.

Red Barr and Bob Crowthers led the 14 hit attack by the home team with three hits each.

The next home game will be against Norwood and this is one of the most important ones of the season for the locals since Norwood is very highly rated this year. The game will be played on the Riverview avenue field on Monday, June 21.

HIGH ENROLLMENT FOR FIRST WEEK

Recreation Program Registers 179 On Tuesday

Enrollment in the pre-school and primary divisions of the Swarthmore Summer Recreation Program reached 94, a new record, on Tuesday with 25 tots playing under the watchful eye of Anne Mabbott and her assistant Marian Ransburg. Mrs. Taylor, Director, added Debbie Freeman, a junior at Sweet briar, to her staff when the number of three year olds passed 20. So far the pool and drinking fountain in the kindergarten room have made the biggest hits with their new tenants.

The "Fours" under Mrs. Kenny with Hasy Turner assisting, number 22.

The "Fives", most of whom attended Kindergarten last year, divided their time with Mrs. Lister and her assistant Betty McCahan between busy indoor activity and the lure of the well-equipped playground. Twenty-two children are in this group.

Jannie Dickson has 25 primary children, old enough for organized games on the playground, skillful work in arts and crafts and participation in singing and rhythms with Emily Pritchard.

The Summer Club on College avenue boasts its highest enrollment in years with 85 signed up.

Mr. Farnell has divided the Club into three groups and on Tuesday each Clubber scheduled his own participation in arts and crafts, archery, tennis or general play. There are three one hour periods each morning.

Fifty boys have come out for baseball this year as against last year's 30. Mr. Snyder has three squads, the boys over 14, the Hornets made up of boys from 12 to 14 whose schedule appears elsewhere in this issue, and the Clippers a younger squad of enthusiastic beginners.

Last Friday the Hornets met East Lansdowne in a very lively game, coming out on the low end of an 8-4 score.

The next day another game ended in a score of 8-5 in favor of Springfield.

Mr. Snyder is well pleased with the spirit and play of the team, although he would like a larger "rooting" section. Everyone is urged to dine early on game nights and come out to support the team.

Richard Taylor of Harvard avenue, who has just completed his sophomore year at the University of Virginia, is assisting in the press division of the Dewey headquarters during the Republican convention this week.

Truman Names Local Expert on Inquiry Board

Waldo E. Fisher of Guernsey road, professor of industrial relations at the University of Pennsylvania, is one of three men named by President Truman on an inquiry board in the soft coal dispute.

Fisher has served in similar posts and is an expert on coal both from a technical and a labor viewpoint. In 1922 he became a member of the United States Coal Commission. He was coal advisor to the National Recovery Administration, as well as chairman of the 1937 Committee on Prices in the bituminous coal industry, and economic consultant on coal to the National War Labor Board in 1943.

He was wartime chairman of the manpower council of the Philadelphia-Camden area and has written many articles on the economics of coal mining, chiefly in relation to wages, prices and production.

He has lived in Swarthmore for 19 years and in 1947 was appointed a member of the Swarthmore School Board on which he has recently been active as chairman of the teachers' salary committee.

RETURN FROM ABROAD

Dr. and Mrs. E. Fullerton Cook are now at home at 143 Park avenue, having returned Monday aboard the Noordam after a five-week honeymoon abroad. They spent two weeks in Switzerland and short periods in France, Holland and England. In the last named country they visited Mrs. Cook's sister Mrs. Margaret Marr Darch and Dr. Cook's son, Ted, and his

take care of payments for extra-curricular activities. The letter also outlined the decision of the Supreme Court, under which extra-curricular funds derived from admissions and sales on school property would be school district income and had to clear through the school board treasury. A plan was presented by which this program could go into effect with the new fiscal year, beginning the first

Monday in July 1948. Hereafter, supplies, equipment, and services for the extracurricular program will have to be paid directly by the School Board, instead of from the high school treasury as in the past. The financial report for the month showed the year's complete collections by the tax collector, Mrs. Doid, totalled $170,000 out of a tax levy of $176,000 or approximately 97 per cent collections. In addition there was $3,000 more, or about 1.8 per cent, discount allowed for early payment. With the

$2,500 unpaid property taxes from 1947, there is outstanding at this time only $5,457 of unpaid property taxes back to and including the year 1933.

Duck Club Ends Initial Season

Over two hundred Swarthmoreans and friends closed the dancing season of the Duck Club at the local Pennsylvania State College Center on Saturday evening, June 5. As the crowd scrambled for balloons which dropped from festive blue and pink decorations at the end of the final dance, all agreed that the closing affair was a fitting climax to the series of four dances held by the Club since January. Russ Hannan's Orchestra played for all four dances and pleased all age groups with a varied selection of music.

Residents congratulated the dance committee, headed by Mrs. Walter Moir of South Chester road, on its achievement which resulted in a successful addition to the social life of Swarthmore. Mrs. Moir announced the Duck Club plans to open another series of dances next fall.

The formal season of the Duck Club closed officially Sunday, June 6, when members used the swimming pool and gymnasium at the Penn State Center for the last of the periods which have been scheduled thrice weekly since November.

The Club was originally formed to develop a working arrangement with Penn State authorities for use of the pool and gym in the Miller Crist Building on Harvard avenue, whereby local residents could avail themselves of these facilities. Through the generous cooperation of Penn State represented here by Arthur Meyers, administrative head of the local Center, Swarthmoreans and their friends have enjoyed many afternoons and evenings of swimming, badminton, basketball and other sports at very nominal cost.

Scores of adults, teen-agers and children have used the pool under careful supervision of competent life guards, and the gym has been popular all through the winter and spring.

John Plamer of Oberlin avenue, president of the Duck Club, states similar activities are planned for next season, to whatever extent the Penn State Center schedule will permit.

WINS FIRST GAME

The American Legion Junior Baseball Team opened the regular league season on Monday with a decisive victory over Aldan. The score was 10 to 2 and spectators saw a lively ball game. The boys looked well despite the fact that three regulars were missing from the lineup and the result is indicative of what may be expected of the team during the season just started.

Much of the credit for this victory must go to Larry Dalton, who pitched a grand game, giving up only four hits while striking out ten batters. In addition Larry had a double and a single in three times at bat.

Red Barr and Bob Crowthers led the 14 hit attack by the home team with three hits each.

The next home game will be against Norwood and this is one of the most important ones of the season for the locals since Norwood is very highly rated this year. The game will be played on the Riverview avenue field on Monday, June 21.

BOARD STUDIES SCHOOL MERGER

Disfavors 6-District Plan, Considers Others

Serious consideration has been given by the Swarthmore School Board to an act adopted by the last session of the State Legislature, designed to combine many of the smaller school districts of the state into larger, presumably more effective operating units. Under this act a preliminary county-wide plan for jointly operating certain school districts of Delaware County has been suggested, one feature of which would have Swarthmore join with five other nearby districts in the operation of the public schools.

The School Board desires to take only such steps as will improve the Swarthmore schools in the light of all the factors that are involved in considering any change from the present district organization. In order to get the best advice it retained the services of two experts in school administration from the University of Pennsylvania Bureau of Educational Service, who have submitted a preliminary report. This report indicates that the proposed six district plan would violate the principle of geographic unity and would be administratively impractical.

On the basis of the report above mentioned, the Swarthmore School Board has notified the County Board of Education of Delaware County that it does not favor the six district plan. It is anticipated that a complete report of the University of Pennsylvania experts will be received in the near future and that it will be extremely useful to the Swarthmore Board in reaching a decision as to the best way in which it can co-operate in working toward the objectives of the county plan without any sacrifice of educational standards or administrative efficiency.

Auxiliary Reviews Year's Philanthropies

This past season the Legion Auxiliary has followed a program of broad interests. It has included $10. for the Swarthmore Health Center's Christmas gifts, $10. to the Family Service of Media, and to three families in need 50 gifts, $30., $20. worth of canned goods (part donated) and clothing valued at $50.

(part donated). The adopted orphan has received $11. County Child Welfare $20. County Junior Baseball $10. Salvation Army $5. Infantile Paralysis $10. Chester Hospital $10. Red Cross $5. Planned Parenthood $5. Sunshine Camp $15. Camp Hope $15. and Cancer Research $5.

To promote education: to the Delaware County Scholarship Fund $5. for the daughter of a veteran, and medals costing $4.50 to Rutledge School and Nether Providence High School for excellence in seven branches. A $5. Ad was placed in the Auxiliary Annual in memory of the late Helen Comley, formerly an ardent Auxiliary worker.

Rehabilitation is a permanent goal. Therefore, to the Perry Point Hospital, $19.; Coatesville $43. plus $10 and 2180 coupons for the Coupon Fund, $15. for wool knitted into two pure afghans and socks for veterans; and $5. each for the Philadelphia Naval Hospital and the Valley Forge Hospital.

Under the supervision of the Media Family Service, $100. was given to one very needy veteran's family. In memory of the 25 Swarthmore boys lost in World War II, $75. has been expended for dogwood trees on the Blue Star Memorial Highway.

This amount, $447.50, is exclusive of County and State dues and requests. Therefore, each autumn the Auxiliary wages a vigorous campaign to add funds to the depleted treasury, usually by means of a rummage sale.

The coupon project will continue through the summer in order that the various units can raise the $25,000 for the Coatesville grandstand. Lists may be procured from Mrs. Oscar Gilcrest at 208 Vassar avenue Swarthmore 3390-J, and the coupons may be sent to Mrs. Gilcrest or to Mrs. Herbert Bassett, 500 North Chester road.

This program has been under the guidance of Mrs. Howard Hopson as president of the Auxiliary.

ROMAN BATHS

Water Supplies are the Yardstick of Civilization

As the Roman Empire reached the height of its glory it realized that ample facilities for bathing were not only essential to health and comfort . . . but were necessary for recreation, sport and exercise. As a result, there were throughout the Roman Empire numerous elaborate and costly public baths which were the centers of social activities. The most famous architects of that time were employed to create these magnificent structures.

All this was made possible through the engineering skill of the Romans which enabled them to secure water at distant sources and to convey it many miles through their aqueducts.

With the collapse of the Roman Empire these aqueducts fell into disuse. This, together with a general neglect of sanitary measures, resulted in the great plagues which ravaged Europe during the Dark Ages.

This is the seventh of a series of narratives which graphically tell the story of water. Look for the next in this paper in a future issue.

GATHER PUPILS LOST ARTICLES

Annual Round-up on Display at School

Unclaimed articles of clothing left by pupils in their school lockers have been assembled in the high school for examination and claiming. In some cases where the names were in the articles, a postcard has been sent to the home asking the pupil to come and get his possessions.

However, there is a miscellaneous collection of other articles—coats, shirts, mufflers, rubbers, etc., which are thus far unclaimed, even though in most cases the teachers have tried to find the owners. There are also keys, including house keys and car keys, glasses, and trinkets.

The school earnestly requests that mothers and children come to the school any week-day between the hours of 9 to 12 and 1:30 to 4 to examine these articles and to claim any of them which they can properly identify.

These lost and found articles are now on display and will be kept on display for a period of three weeks, after which unclaimed articles will be disposed of, probably being given to some charitable organization.
