MARCH OF DIMES RALLY TUESDAY

Speakers, Play Planned
For 8 O'clock
Program

"Fighting Dimes in Action," an arresting drama of the work of the Delaware County Chapter of the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation, will highlight a March of Dimes rally scheduled at the Swarthmore Women's Club on Tuesday evening, January 11.

William L. Batt, state chairman of the 1949 March of Dimes, will be the keynote speaker at this rally which formally opens the campaign in the county. Richard C. Morse, county director of the drive, and Ruth Ann Palmer, executive secretary of the county chapter of the National Foundation, will be other speakers featured at this 8 o'clock program.

The stage presentation, especially written for the occasion by Janet Roeber of St. David's, is a blending of comedy with pathos and high drama, considerably intensified by the participation of polio patients from this area. Narrators will be Mrs. Eunice Eaton of Park avenue and the Rev. Joseph Bishop, minister of the Presbyterian, Church. Other Swarthmoreans participating in the show are Mrs. Oliver G. Swan and Mrs. George P. Warren, both of Chester road.

Chairman of the production is Mrs. Jacob V. S. Bishop of Harvard avenue with Marie Louise Forsythe of Thayer road as director.

Opportunity for open questions will be included in the opening session of the 1949 March of Dimes which, it is hoped, will raise the record sum of $60,000 to continue the fight against polio in Delaware County during the coming year.

There will be no admission fee and no solicitation at this pre-campaign rally.

PASQUIER TRIO TO PERFORM AT COLLEGE

The Pasquier trio, internationally known string group, will perform at Clothier Memorial on Friday and Sunday, January 14 and 16, at 8:15 p. m.

This group is composed of three brothers (Jean, violin; Pierre, viola; and Etienne, violoncello) and has appeared in all the principal countries of the world. Critical and popular reception has been enthusiastic everywhere.

The Pasquier Trio is well known to Swarthmore, having appeared at Clothier twice in the past two years.

LWV DISCUSSION GROUPS TO OPEN

U. N. Is Subject Of Sectional
Meets

The League of Women Voters of Swarthmore invites members of the community to participate in the discussion groups on United Nations which start next week. The study of the United Nations work is the main project for the League this year throughout the country. The League presents an excellent opportunity to learn more about the United Nations and to discuss with others the issues involved.

Mrs. Carl Chase of Wallingford is chairman of the discussion groups. Five groups will meet at different times in order to meet the convenience of as many as possible.

Mrs. Glenn Morrow will lead the group which will meet Mondays from 9:45 to 11:30 a. m., January 10, 17, and 24, at Mrs. N. Bachman's home at 420 Rutgers avenue.

Mrs. Oliver Rodgers' group will meet at her home, 635 Riverview avenue, Mondays at 8 p. m., January 10, 17, and 24. Mrs. Phelps Soule's group will meet at her home, 410 Park avenue on Wednesdays, 10 to 11:30 a. m., January 19, 26, and February 2.

Mrs. Carl Chase will lead a discussion group in Wallingford at the home of Mrs. Walter Robinson, Rodgers lane in Wallingford Hills, Wednesdays at 8 p. m., January 12, 19, and 26. Mrs. John Moore will be the leader of the group meeting at her home at 2 Whittier place on Fridays from 10 to 11:30 a. m., January 14, 21, and 28.

There is no need to "sign up" for one of the groups. Those who can attend should just plan to be present at the first meeting of whichever group suits their schedule best. The League hopes that the evening meetings will make it possible for working men and women to attend.

The League of Women Voters reminds local residents that the work of the United Nations is very important to all and demands interest and participation in discussion groups such as these.

WINS MUSICAL HONOR

David Spencer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steven M. Spencer of Ogden avenue, distinguished himself by winning the berth of concertmaster in the southeastern district festival orchestra. David placed first in tryouts held recently and competed with over 50 violinists from some 25 schools in a three-county area.

Robert Holm, director of instrumental music at Swarthmore High, stated recently that to the best of his knowledge, David, who is 13, is the youngest person ever to achieve this honor.

David is the pupil of Lucius Cole, retired member of the Philadelphia Orchestra and a resident of Drexel Hill.

SHS HOSTS FOR 100 MUSICIANS

Students To Rehearse
For District
Concert

Over 100 school musicians representing some 25 schools in a district comprising Delaware Montgomery and Chester counties will congregate at Swarthmore High School tomorrow morning to begin rehearsals for their annual District Orchestra festival. The concert is scheduled for Saturday evening, January 22, at Clothier Memorial Chapel on the Swarthmore College campus.

Membership of this group was determined through competitive tryouts held before the Christmas holidays. The instrumentation conforms to orthodox symphonic standards and the caliber of the program material is of a nature that it will be a challenge even to such a select group.

It was decided that this year the conducting chores would be shared by the music directors in seven of the schools represented. Under this plan, the participants gain the experience of playing under various baton techniques. Directors from this area will include, D. Ray Yerger, Haverford, David D. M. Haupt, Upper Darby, Andrew Frech, Lower Merion, Elwood Miller, Springfield, Don Corbin, Lansdowne and Robert M. Holm of the Swarthmore schools. Charles Long, of Chester is president of the association.

Rehearsals are scheduled throughout the entire day for the next three Saturdays and arrangements are being made to broadcast a portion of the program each rehearsal day.

Alice E. Blodgett and Robert Holm, vocal and instrumental music directors respectively at Swarthmore are co-hosts.

Juniors To Dance

The Seventh, Ninth and Tenth grades will meet for their dancing classes on Saturday evening at the Woman's Club.

The Seventh Grade will have as chaperones Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Newnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flaherty and Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hayes will assist at the Ninth Grade class.

The chaperones for the Tenth Grade will be Mr. and Mrs. Harlan R. Jessup and Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Shearer.

A small number of workers meet every other week at the homes of the members to sew for any organization which particularly needs help. Besides the $10 a year donated by each member, funds are raised by selling aprons and other articles and occasionally holding a bazaar.

Mrs. James B. Douglas will be hostess to the group at her home on North Chester road on Monday, January 10.

KRASNA PLAY TO OPEN TONIGHT

"John Loves Mary"
Begins Eight
Night Run

"John Loves Mary" is the next production at the Swarthmore Players Club on Fairview road. Opening tonight at 8:20 for the first of eight performances, this light-hearted Krasna comedy defies seriousness with its good-humored kidding of peace-time soldiering and its situations of involved complexity, to be redundant.

Produced under the direction of Nat Doughty, remembered for his fine portrayal of Spike McManus early in the fall, and with its able cast of 10, the play promises to be a good one.

Tee-Ann Doughty will play the part of Mary with Charles Seymour as the amiable John.

Barron Helmut will take the part of Oscar Dugan, Charles Stockdale of Fred Taylor, William Price of Senator James McKinley, Etta Haner of Mrs. Phyllis McKinley. Fred Echelemeyer as Lt. Victor O'Leary, Ernest O. Lange as George Beechwood, Sally McFadden as Lily Herbish and Donald Macrostie as Harwood Biddle, complete this well-balanced cast.

Stage managers are Col. Harold C. Mabbott and Thomas M. Jackson, Jr. Electrician is Mack Owens, with music under the charge of Anne Chandler. Stage decorations and property honors go to Mrs. John L. Good, chairman, and Mrs. R. T. Bates, Mrs. David Braun, Mrs. E. Faye Campbell, Mrs. Ray Latimer, Mrs. Jonathan Prichard, 3d, Mrs. Agnes Haig Sheldon and Mrs. H. S. Toole. BORO COUNCIL SETS TAX RATE

Limit Parking On
Mt. Holyoke
Place

At its first 1949 session Monday evening Swarthmore Borough Council established the local tax rate at 13 1/2 mills. Composed of 11 1/2 mills for general purposes, 3/4 for sinking fund, and 1 1/4 for library, the tax rate remains the same as in the past for borough purposes but has been increased 1/4 mill for the library.

A 24-inch storm sewer was ordered laid on Drexel road at Dickinson avenue.

It was discovered that $15,000 was left in the budget at the end of the year due to street repairs which had been planned but not accomplished during 1948.

Citizens of Mt. Holyoke place appeared regarding the parking condition along their street. In consequence Council passed Ordinance 509 prohibiting parking on the east side of Mt. The program for the day, designed to introduce these promising high school students to Swarthmore, will include campus tours, motion pictures, visits to the fraternities, dinner with faculty and coaches, and the Delaware basketball game.

This year's program is the second annual event of its kind staged by Book and Key.

Request For Films
The Polio Parents Club of Delaware County has been entertaining Polio victims with movies on their new movie projector and screen recently presented to them by the Lions Club of Haverford Township.

The Club would be grateful for any 16 millimeter sound or silent films to add to their library. Any one having films to contribute is asked to call Carl Ellis, chairman of the Volunteer Movie Committee, at Sunset 7444-M.

Pigeons Take Note
Neighbors on Vassar and Harvard avenues are being disturbed by the daily appearance of pigeons at their bird feeding stations. Presumably privately owned, the pigeons have timed their arrivals to coincide with breakfast and dinner and amuse themselves by frightening off the wild birds as they eat the food provided for them.

Residents of the neighborhood have no objection to the pigeons themselves but would prefer that they dine at home.

Jack B. Thompson of Harvard avenue, who attended a seminar of editorial writers last year, has been selected by officials of the American Press Institute of Columbia University to moderate at a seminar from January 10 to 28. Twenty-three editors and publishers from 12 states will attend.

In addition to organizing the schedule of events, Mr. Thompson will preside at the daily meetings at which guest experts from all fields of journalism will appear.

SEASON'S MUSIC SUNG AT TRINITY

Guest Harpist, Choir In Christmas Concert

On Thursday evening December 30, Swarthmoreans, their children, and their neighbors had the privilege of hearing a concert of fine quality and unusual variety, presented to the community by Trinity Church through the inspiration and leadership of Rev. George C. Anderson, rector.

The first piece, a great Prelude and Fugue of Bach for organ, was played with energy and brilliance by David Tudor. This was a surprise and last-minute appearance of the young artist, who played the entire program without rehearsal, and to whom Mr. Anderson paid tribute for his virtuosity and courage.

Marcella DeCray, harpist of the Metropolitan Opera Company, played a rich variety of pieces for solo harp. Some of them, such as Gabriel Faure's "Impromptu" and Delmas' "Priere," were written specially for the instrument, and others such as "All Through the Night" and "Traditional Carols" were arrangements, the latter by Miss DeCray herself. Miss DeCray plays with firmness, authority, and fine clear detail, as well as sensitive variety of tone.

ANNUAL MEETING Swarthmore National Bank and Trust Company Swarthmore, Penna. The Annual Meeting of the stockholders of the Swarthmore National Bank and Trust Company, Swarthmore, Pa. for the election of directors and such other business as may come before the meeting, will be held at the banking house in Swarthmore, Pa., on Tuesday, January 11, 1949, between the hours of three and 4:30 P.M.

J. Harrison Eastwood, well known tenor soloist of the Trinity Choir, gave three very fine renditions of the music of Handel, and was at his best in the air "He Shall Feed His Flock," where his steady and melodious voice maintained the pastoral feeling in the best of taste and restraint. In the more dramatic airs that followed Mr. Eastwood obviously did not feel free to exploit their dramatic possibilities to the extent to which he is capable, out of consideration for the organist with whom he had no opportunity to rehearse.

Everyone present was warmed by the hearty singing of Trinity Choir of Men and Boys in Christmas carols old and new, the oldest being one from the thirteenth century, for men's voices only, in the Gregorian Mode. The newest carol being the words of "O Little Town of Bethlehem" sung to new music by the contemporary English composer Ralph Vaughan-Williams, bids fair to make a place for itself in all repertoires.

Mr. Anderson, who is the choir's director and conductor, announced that he is working with a new group of young boys and did not expect that this year they would attempt the dramatic and difficult "Shepherd's Story" of Dickinson, but the boys had begged to be allowed the pleasure of rendering it and he had granted their request. The fine job done with this young enthusiasm commands respect and promises well for the future.

Jr. Club Hears

Illustrated Talk Members of the Junior Woman's Club enjoyed an interesting talk Tuesday evening by Dorothea G. Norton, whose topic was "Romance of the Christmas Card."

Miss Norton had many unusual and old greeting cards which she used as illustrations with her talk. She told how the cards symbolized the customs of the countries they represented and how these symbols came into being.

Greeting cards of numerous countries bearing various messages were on display around the room to add charm and color to the lecture.

Mrs. John H. Pitman introduced Miss Norton to the group. Mrs. Arnold H. Redding won the door prize which Miss Norton had donated.

Patricia Welland returned to the University of Maryland on Sunday after spending the holidays at the home of her parents.

Next week the executive board will hold a business meeting at the home of Jessie Gilbert, 407 Park avenue.

Rhythm Class to Reopen

The Alice Kraft Rhythm Dancing Class for children will reopen January 21 at the Woman's Club House. The class will begin promptly at 3:30 and end at 4:15 p. m. The opening, originally scheduled for an earlier date, was postponed due to the crowded club calendar.

Miss Kraft, well-known to Swarthmoreans, has had a wide experience in summer teaching at religious and educational conferences from coast to coast.

GEORGE CARROLL

Funeral services were held last Friday for George Carroll of Glendolen who died Wednesday, December 29, after a week's illness.

Born in 1874 in Yorkshire, England, Mr. Carroll came to this country in 1896 and had been a naturalized citizen since 1905. He is survived by his son, John W. Carroll, and four grandchildren of College avenue, and a daughter Evelyn M. Carroll of Glendolen.

To Hostess for Faculty

Mrs. E. LeRoy Mercer of North Chester road, with Mrs. Domenico Vittorini, will be hostess at the Faculty Tea Club of the University of Pennsylvania on January 11, when Dr. Robert Strausz-Hupe, Associate Professor of Political Science will speak on "Germany and European Unification." The gathering will be held in Memorial Hall, 3901 Locust street, Philadelphia.

Mrs. De Witt A. Hills has returned to her home on Elm avenue after spending the Christmas holidays with her daughter and family in Front Royal, Va.

Ned Rutherford, a student at the University of Michigan, spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Rutherford of Street Haven avenue, Sherman Clough of Brookline, Mass., was his guest for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Fischer of Dickinson avenue, spent the New Year's holidays with Mrs. Fischer's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Coates Coleman in Jenkintown.

Miss Mary E. and Miss Elinor E. of College avenue entertained Mrs. Louise Lesley and daughter Barbara of Atlantic City over the holidays. Mrs. Lesley's sons Billy and Conrad joined the family group on New Year's Day.

Professor and Mrs. E. O. Lange of "Langewood," Baltimore Pike, entertained at a family dinner during the holidays when their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lange, their son Donny, Jr., and daughter Jean of the Pilgrim Gardens, Drexel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lange and daughter Carol of Pittsburgh, and Bob Lange, a student at F. ASSESSMENTS ORDERED RAISED Borough Shares General Delaware County Increase

The noise heard in Swarthmore last week-end was not the result of an atomic bomb descending locally although its cause was apparently almost as much of a shock to some residents.

In accordance with a general increase in real estate appraisals throughout Delaware County post cards mailed to Borough residents last week informed many of increased assessments on their homes. A total increase of $750,000 is represented within the Borough in the new triennial assessments.

At the insistence of the recently created State Equalization Board the County Board of Revision of Taxes ordered assessors to effect a general increase in individual assessments to bring them in proportion to today's increased selling prices. Assessors were also ordered to give special attention to dwellings used as apartments but not previously assessed as such. The increase was demanded because Delaware County assessments were lower than most counties in the State and a decrease in State aid to county schools was threatened unless steps were taken to equalize and bring them up to the level of other counties. In other words, if a county does not keep its assessments and consequent tax payments in proportion to those prevalent in other counties the State will cut its appropriation for said county's school system in proportion.

Actually the amount paid by the taxpayer should be no higher, at least locally, since Borough and School requirements are estimated and the tax rate set to raise the needed amounts. Thus if assessments are low, tax rates must be high; when assessments are high the rate can be lower and still raise the same sum for local government purposes. The only situation where a taxpayer may pay more is if his assessment seems out of line with those of properties of similar value in the same neighborhood. In this latter case there would seem to be a legitimate complaint and the County Board of Revision of Taxes will sit at the Media Court House from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. Saturday, January 15, to hear such complaints.

The Borough's new budget calls for about $80,000 and its 1949 tax rate was set in anticipation of the new assessed valuation which amounts to an approximate $6,376,550. School and County tax rates have not as yet been set but it is believed they will also be in keeping with the increased assessment. According to the law assessors are permitted to assess up to 100 per cent of the actual value of a property. However, somewhere near 50 per cent is struck in the average case. When the fact that real estate market values in some instances have increased as much or more than 100 per cent in the past several years, the current increase in assessment would seem a logical result. In view of the record that this is the first big increase in many years, and the other aspects of the situation as explained above it also appears less of a hardship in general than might at first be thought.

Sponsor Bake Sale The Methodist Church will sponsor a Bake Sale tomorrow morning at 10 a. m. for the benefit of the Youth Fellowship Basketball team.

Miss Palmer showed movies, taken last summer at the Morrow pool where Delaware County children, badly crippled by the disease, were given a new outlook on life and much physical aid by swimming. To see how completely helpless children lowered into the water and their faces become transfixed with joy, as they were able to move about normally by the buoyancy of the water, was an inspiration. There were 84 new cases in Delaware County last year. Mrs. Lester F. Lines treasurer of Polio Parents Club of Delaware County spoke briefly emphasizing the need of supporting the March of Dimes.

On Friday, January 14, at 10 a. m. Mrs. Donald Hibbard will review "Lute Have I Loved Thee" by Ethel Mannin for the literature section.

District Orchestra Holds First Rehearsal

First rehearsal of the Southeastern District School Orchestra gave every indication of an outstanding musical event to come to Clothier Memorial on Saturday, January 22. One hundred selected students from 25 schools filled the stage and music room at Swarthmore High School last Saturday as the first all-day rehearsal began. Robert Holm, co-host with Alice E. Blodgett of this special musical event, was at the podium directing the first number.

Scattered among the group of school musicians were seven students of the local school, all in responsible chairs in their separate sections. In the concertmaster's role was 12-year-old David Spencer, eighth grade student, and pupil of Lucius Cole. Other first chair desks were occupied by Russell Snyder in the viola section, Jerry Goodman, the cello section, and William Potts, clarinet. Ruth Garrett, Harold Ogram, Eric Sharpless and John Steinfeld comprised the remaining Swarthmoreans in playing positions.

This is the first time Swarthmore has been privileged to entertain such a group of school musicians. Until this year, Swarthmore students eligible for District events in orchestra, chorus, or band, have been guests of other schools in one of four counties, Chester, Delaware, Bucks, and Montgomery. "John Loves Mary" Lifts Winter Woes To Laughs

The players' Club's 278th production "John Loves Mary," which plays to its final audiences tonight and tomorrow night, is as gay and frothy a presentation as has been achieved for some time. Beautifully staged, happily cast, swiftly paced, knowingly directed, it sugar coats the blows of rising assessments, income tax worries, and January weather.

Nat Doughty directs a cast of long time favorites and two newcomers who turn in such a contagiously lighthearted performance that audience approval is a constant spur and pleasure. Mrs. Doughty in the role of Mary is a natural, managing the lightning mood changes which Author Krasna conceives with complete simplicity and naturalness. There isn't a woman in the audience, for instance, who doesn't relive with her the experience of being caught in a most unglamorous moment when glamor is clearly the need.

Charles F. Seymour as John Lawrence earns high praise as he reacts to the tightening situations of the play. He is remarkably clever at mood shifts. He and Charles Stockdale (Fred Taylor) makes a wonderfully irresistible team. Mr. Stockdale is especially well cast in the lugubrious role of Fred and his agonizing are funny to share.

Mary's parents are capably played by veteran actor William Price and Martha Keighton who proved herself the proverbial good trouper in a last minute change from promoter to mother of the off and on bride.

One of the most subtle bits of playing is done by Ernest O. Lange in his appearance as George Beechwood, which was nicely turned, indeed. Sally McFadden is a vivacious storm center as Lily. Newcomer Fred Echeimyer does Lieutenant O'Leary to everyone's satisfaction, and the Sergeant's Donald MacBostie's Harwood Biddle is as pompous as the playwright intended and he and Mr. Price squirm alternately in their senator-general fencing. Barron Helmut's Oscar earns one. It's mighty stimulating fun, to which the stage managers, property committee, and all who work behind scenes contributed the right touch.

SEASON'S MUSIC SONG AT TRINITY

Guest Harpist, Choir In Christmas Concert

On Thursday evening December 30, Swarthmoreans, their children, and their neighbors had the privilege of hearing a concert of fine quality and unusual variety, presented to the community by Trinity Church through the inspiration and leadership of Rev. George C. Anderson, rector.

The first piece, a great Prelude and Fugue of Bach for organ, was played with energy and brilliance by David Tudor. This was a surprise and last-minute appearance of the young artist, who played the entire program without rehearsal, and to whom Mr. Anderson paid tribute for his virtuosity and courage.

Marcella DeCray, harpist of the Metropolitan Opera Company, played a rich variety of pieces for solo harp. Some of them, such as Gabriel Faure's "Impromptu" and Debussy's "Priere," were written specially for the instrument, and others such as "All Through the Night" and "Traditional Carols" were arrangements of the latter by Miss DeCray herself. Miss DeCray plays with firmness, authority, and fine clear detail, as well as sensitive variety of tone.

J. Harrison Eastwood, well known tenor soloist of the Trinity Choir, gave three very fine renditions of the music of Handel, and was at his best in the air "He Shall Feed His Flock," where his steady and melodious voice maintained the pastoral feeling in the best of taste and restraint. In the more dramatic airs that followed, Mr. Eastwood obviously did not feel free to exploit their dramatic possibilities to the extent to which he is capable, out of consideration for the organist with whom he had no opportunity to rehearse.

Everyone present was warmed by the hearty singing of Trinity Choir of Men and Boys in Christmas carols old and new, the oldest being one from the thirteenth century, for men's voices only, in the Gregorian Mode. The newest carol being the words of "O Little Town of Bethlehem" sung to new music by the contemporary English composer Ralph Vaughn-Williams bids fair to make a place for itself in all repertoire.

Mr. Anderson, who is the choir's director and conductor, announced that he is working with a new group of young boys and did not expect that this year they would attempt the dramatic and difficult "Shepherd's Story" of Dickinson, but the boys had begged to be allowed the pleasure of rendering it and he had granted their request. The fine job done with this young enthusiasm commands respect and promises well for the future.

Next week the executive board will hold a business meeting at the home of Jessie Gilbert, 407 Park avenue.

Rhythm Class to Reopen

The Alice Kraft Rhythm Dancing Class for children will reopen January 21 at the Woman's Club House. The class will begin promptly at 3:30 and end at 4:15 p. m. The opening, originally scheduled for an earlier date, was postponed due to the crowded club calendar.

Miss Kraft, well-known to Swarthmoreans, has had a wide experience in summer teaching at religious and educational conferences from coast to coast.

GEORGE CARROLL

Funeral services were held last Friday for George Carroll of Glenolden who died Wednesday, December 29, after a week's illness. Born in 1874 in Yorkshire, England, Mr. Carroll came to this country in 1896 and had been a naturalized citizen since 1905. He is survived by his son, John W. Carroll, and four grandchildren of College avenue, and a daughter, Evelyn M. Carroll of Glenolden.

The gathering will be held in Memorial Hall, 3001 Locust street, Philadelphia.

Mrs. De Witt A. Hills has returned to her home on Elm avenue after spending the Christmas holidays with her daughter and family in Front Royal, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Fischer of Dickinson avenue, spent the New Year's holidays with Mrs. Fischer's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Coates Coleman in Jenkintown.

Mrs. Lesley's sons Billy and Conrad joined the family group on New Year's Day. Professor and Mrs. E. O. Lange of "Langewood," Baltimore Pike, entertained at a family dinner during the holidays when their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lange, their son Donny, Jr., and daughter Jean of the Pilgrim Gardens, Drexel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lange and daughter Carol of Pittsburgh, and Bob Lange, a student at P. Letters To The Editor

Thanks Workers, Donors
Dear Editor:
Will you, through the columns of your paper, please help me express my appreciation and gratitude to the hundreds of citizens of Central Delaware County who so willingly served during the recent Community Chest Campaign.

Men and women of all ages in our Townships and Boroughs accepted the various tasks necessary for the success of such an undertaking and pressed forward enthusiastically until the Division goal was not only achieved but passed.

It has been a great pleasure to have worked with all these Volunteers and I sincerely hope that each one has derived as much pleasure and satisfaction from the job as I have.
So, on behalf of the thousands of persons who will be healthier and happier during the coming year because of the Red Feathers seen in the windows of our schools, homes and stores, I wish to say "Thank you one and all!"
Sincerely yours,
HARRY G. STEWART,
Chairman Central Del. Co. Division, Zone D, Community Chest.

GERM CAUSES STUDENT-SQUIRM

H.S. Students Victims Of Sickening Little Bug
A little germ with a powerful punch to the stomach apparently hit Swarthmore High School this week. Fortunately, his attack though sudden was over quickly. Some of his victims became violently nauseated for several hours but all seemed to recover within a day.

Several students who were absent Tuesday reappeared on Wednesday to find a total of 83 junior and senior high school students absent. During the morning a number more were taken ill and were sent home.

School authorities investigated and consulted Dr. J. Albright Jones, borough health officer. Food poisoning was ruled out since a high percentage of those stricken had not eaten in the cafeteria and although practically all faculty members do eat there only two of them were stricken and one of those did not eat in the cafeteria.

The elementary school absentee list was about normal, therefore the "epidemic" was diagnosed to be a sort of 24-hour gripe to which many adults in this area have fallen prey recently. The older students seemed to be affected most. Seven students were absent from the seventh grade (although not all of them from this illness), 12 from the eighth grade, 13 from the ninth, 16 from the tenth, 17 from the eleventh and 18 from the senior class.

W.I.L. ADOPTS GERMAN BRANCH

Heidelberg To Receive Shipments From Local Group
The Swarthmore W.I.L. has "adopted" the Heidelberg, Germany branch of the Women's International League in cooperation with a widespread effort on the part of the United States Section of the W.I.L. to aid in the rehabilitation of its European branches. Many of these courageous women abroad suffered persecution under the Hitler regime for their democratic ideals, but are eager to resume their work now. However, they are in desperate need of material help and encouragement.

The local plan will get under way Thursday, January 27, with a "W.I.L. Day" at the home of Mrs. Duane Terry, 503 North Chester Road, from 10:30 a. m. to 3 p. m. Members will participate in a work period during the morning when clothing, food, and magazines will be assembled for shipment to Heidelberg.

After a box lunch, Miss Grace Rhoades of Moorestown, N. J. member of the National Board of the W.I.L. will talk informally at one o'clock on her recent visit with Frau Hahn, Chairman of the Heidelberg Branch, and the activities of the German group.

MARCHING DIMES MUSTER FOR '49

County Strives For Self Support In Annual Drive

The 1949 March of Dimes drive to raise funds for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis opened officially on Friday, January 14 and will continue until January 31.

According to Mrs. Walter C. Giles, chairman of the campaign in Swarthmore, 1949 is a vital year in the history of the March of Dimes. "The epidemics of the past summer in North Carolina and California have completely exhausted the epidemic fund of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis," she said "and the research fund is being tapped in order to advance funds to chapters with large case loads. Research must go on, for it is only through research that we may hope to stamp out this crippling disease."

Red Cross Elections

The Annual Meeting of the Swarthmore branch of the American Red Cross will be held on Friday morning, January 28, at 8:45 a. m. at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Horace H. Hopkins, 4 Crest lane.

"Every person within the territory of the branch who has contributed within the year to the Red Cross is entitled to attend and to vote at the meeting. Officers of the branch and two members-at-large of the Board of Directors are to be elected at the annual meeting on January 28.

H. S. MUSICIANS KEYED FOR SAT.

Festival Concert Set For 8:15 Program In Clothier
The final day of meeting of the Southeastern District High School Orchestra, tomorrow, January 22, looms large in the minds of its 106 players and its seven conductors. Robert Holm and Alice Elodgett, co-hosts of this festival, have lined up a day that would challenge even the most stalwart man.

After an hour of section rehearsals and lunch the orchestra members will be ready in Clothier Memorial at 1 p. m. to record a half-hour program to be transcribed over Station WVCH, tomorrow afternoon at 4:15.

Polishing the program numbers will occupy the afternoon rehearsal time until 4 p. m. Relaxation in the form of a dance in the High School Gym will fit in the latter part of the afternoon. Music for the dancing will be furnished by the local school's dance band, the Garnet Rhythmairs.

Unique favors and decorations will spotlight the Banquet which will be given the players.

Program Previewed
Directors, among them Robert Holm, agree that combining the outstanding personnel of this orchestra and the excellent choice of music should make for an unusually fine evening. The program will include "Legend," a strong, melodious number written by Isaac, director of Marshall High School Orchestra; Beethoven's "Contradanzas," a group of five dances in lively measure using the typical Beethoven orchestration; "The dynamic, lilting, and colorful "Der Rosenkavalier" by Richard Strauss; two numbers by the string section of the orchestra—"Port Royal Suite" by McKay, and "Fiddle Faddle" by the violinist Anderson; "Revival," an interesting fantasy based on six well-known spirituals and written in the fascinating style of its composer, Morton Gould; and "Czech Rhapsody" by Weinberger, a number filled with Czech folk tunes developed in a masterly manner.

Added to these selections to be played by the orchestra will be an Adagio and Rondo by Boccherini, to be played by the chosen soloist of the evening, Jerome Goodman, accompanied by his sister, Judith. Mr. Goodman has been heard in many programs in this vicinity, and has proved himself an artist of unusual ability.

It is hoped that the citizens of the borough will support this musical evening by being a part of the audience to welcome these guests. The program will open at 8:15 p. m.

Plays Presented
The two winning original plays written by eighth grade English students under the direction of Miss McKee were presented last Thursday morning in Assembly. The first, a take-off on Mischief Night in Swarthmore, titled "Calling All Cars," was authored by Peter Braun, John Phillip and Russell Snyder. The second, written by Jane Seymour in collaboration with Marilyn Green, was "The Mix-Up," a take-off on "Baby-sitting."

Library Polling Begins Tomorrow

The balloting for two Board members to fill vacancies which occur this month will begin tomorrow at the Swarthmore Borough Library and continue throughout Monday at the regular hours—9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., and 2 to 4 p. m. on Saturday, and 2 to 3:30 p. m. and 7 to 8 p. m. on Monday. All adult residents or taxpayers of the Borough are entitled to vote, but those who are not yet members of the Library Association must first become members by signing the by-laws of the Association.

The six candidates who are standing for election to three-year terms are Mrs. C. Thomas Bauer, Jr., Dr. Peter E. Coste, Carroll Frey, Phillip H. Jewett (President of the Board), Mrs. Glenn R. Morrow, and Mrs. John W. Seybold. The results of the election will be announced shortly after the closing of the polls, which takes place at 8 o'clock sharp on Monday night, January 24.

SCHOOL STUDIES LATE OPENING

Other Matters Tended At Meeting Monday
A letter from the Home and School Association presented to the School Board last week requested the Board to secure the advice of competent medical authorities on the question of the late opening of school each year to reduce the possibilities of polio cases during September. This letter reported the discussion at the recent association meeting, and asked the Board to study the matter and report their findings and recommendations to the association.

Dr. J. Albright Jones, borough health officer and Dr. J. A. Calhoun, acting as physician and parents, visited the Board meeting and discussed the proposal with the Board members. Both called attention to the fact that neither the U. S. Public Health Service nor the National Foundation (continued on page eight)

FATHERS HEAR DR. NANCARROW

Principal Speaks At Mother's Club Dinner
The role of fathers in the process of education was discussed by Dr. James Nancarrow, principal of Upper Darby High School, at the annual Father's Night dinner of the Swarthmore Mothers' Club on Thursday evening, January 13 at the Strath Haven Inn.

Stressing the need for close cooperation between school and home in the production of a well-rounded individual, Dr. Nancarrow compared the father to a salesman preparing to market his child product to the consumer world. He emphasized the similarities between industry and the child, their common needs for good material, skilled workmen and a final inspection.

Dr. Nancarrow urged that full consideration be given to the differing abilities of individuals and the differing standards of achievement that these individual qualities necessitate. He also pointed out that there are many roads to success but that each individual needs a goal toward which he may direct his efforts.

Arrangements for the dinner were made by Mrs. William James and her committee. The Executive Board of the Club will meet Wednesday evening January 26 at the home of Mrs. Walter N. Moir, 22 South Chester road.

Troop 83 Plans Play
Girl Scout Troop 83 met the New Year with resolutions and plans already well-ordered and in operation. Back in December the girls resolved to win their Dramatics Badge by producing a play. Before Christmas, the play was selected, try-outs held, parts and technical jobs assigned.

After the holidays there has been the most determined amount of hard work by all members of the Troop and rehearsals have been held several afternoons a week.

Mrs. Gordon Lange, dramatics director at Swarthmore College, has generously given the girls some expert coaching. This combined with the initiative and serious work of the girls themselves promises a rewarding production. The play, "Say it With Flowers," is a Valentine's comedy, a merry mixup about a box of gardenias. It will be staged at Whittier House, Friday, January 28, at 8:15.

Everyone is invited and the silver collection will be for the benefit of the Troop treasury.

In the past, during the winter months when it is too cold to hold meetings in the Scout House, Troop 83 has been a Troop without a home. This year they have their own "den" in Mrs. Valentine's basement. When working on special arts and crafts projects, the Troop holds its meetings around the large table in Mrs. Alfred Calhoun's dining room.

Troop 83 has adopted a girl their own age who had polio four years ago and has been unable to walk since. Betty Lou Daley lives in Springfield, and the girls decorated a little Christmas tree surrounded by gifts which they delivered to her. They plan to visit her, write post cards and do as many things as possible to make her days fuller and happier.

Police Fines
Fines for three motor violations and 20 parking violations have been imposed in the Borough since the first of January.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip W. Kniskern of Riverview road have gone to the west coast. From there they go by plane to Honolulu to visit their daughter Mrs. Robert E. White and family. Mrs. Kniskern will remain for six weeks.

Do you tell time by Baby?

At his feeding times, yes. He sounds off on the dot when a meal's due. But the rest of your day, you're wise to depend on electric clocks.

With a baby in the house, it's surprising how much you depend on electric service—to prepare and refrigerate his food, heat water for his bath and laundry, wash his clothes, and so on.

Of course, you depend on electricity to help take the work out of your housework too. Always ready, it lends a willing hand with heavy chores, provides comfort, ease and even entertainment. And best of all, you can depend on its economy—for what other item in your budget does so much for so little?

Your friends and neighbors in this company—under sound business management—are continually using their technical skill and practical experience to keep electricity the biggest bargain in that budget of yours. You can depend on that too!

During the past few days you have received the annual notice of dues of the Swarthmore Fire and Protective Association. The Swarthmore Fire and Protective Association is a volunteer organization working for the benefit of our community. Support of the Fire Company is an investment in low Fire Insurance rates. It takes the cooperation of the entire community to maintain these low rates.

Letters To The Editor

URGES COOPERATION

To the Editor of the Swarthmorean
On Tuesday night, January 11, the 1949 campaign for the March of Dimes was inaugurated in Swarthmore. This was a tribute to Swarthmore and we will prove worthy of this honor. There are some facts which all of our citizens should know but they do not know them.

The cases of Polio during the last year, 1948, increased by more than 100% over last year. 50% of the amount should go to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in New York City. Owing to the tremendous increase, instead of putting money into the Foundation we have borrowed from it so that there are no funds with which to study the cause of this number one enemy to our youth.

During the last two weeks of this month every family in our community will be visited. If any are missed will they voluntarily send in their contribution. When the interest of Swarthmore is aroused, it rises to the occasion; let us make a hard pull, a concerted pull. A Swarthmorean pull to achieve our goal.

Maud L. Bishop
Del Co. Ch. Women's Activities

Under the above title I appeal to all independent groups of women to, if the cause is sufficiently appealing, contribute to the fund.

Explains Assessments

Dear Mr. Editor:

Your front page news article in the current issue of the Swarthmorean contains some points in regard to assessments which should be cleared up for the benefit of those who may be a bit hazy on the subject.

It is inferred that VALUE and SALE PRICE are synonymous. This is far from the truth as common sense or any appraiser will tell you. In boom times, goods and services sell for more than their fair value; and in periods of depression, the converse is true. Anyone who would base an appraisal or assessment on sale price would be way off the beam. Sale prices are given consideration in preparing an appraisal but are only one of the factors used in arriving at a true estimate of value. Replacement costs, less an allowance for Physical Deterioration and Obsolescence is another factor. Market VALUE (not market PRICE) and Income are other factors.

It is true that assessors are permitted to assess properties at 100% of their value, but WHAT value? It is rumored that the few assessments are based on 50% of 1939 values. Who is to determine those values?

In my opinion, assessments of 100% of a FAIR value are equitable provided these assessments are made on the same basis as appraisals made for mortgage loans. Assessments, made today, are in effect for three years (until the next triennial), while tax rates can be changed every year, making it possible to adjust individual taxes to requirements. Of course, this plan would depend, for its success, on the integrity and ability of those spending the money.

It seems to me that owners of multiple family dwellings have had a raw deal in the proposed assessments. "Discriminatory" is a mild word for it. Taxes for 1948 reached an all-time high as the result of a boost in the School Tax rate. Now comes an assessment increase of 50% or more and, on the other hand, the Rent Control Act blocks an increase in rents to compensate for increased taxes, cost of fuel oil and the 100% advance in the cost of all types of services.

When one drives through Delaware County and sees the thousands of new dwellings completed in the past year and under construction, one wonders why such a drastic increase in assessments should be necessary.

Very truly your,
Allan C. Wood

YOUR HISTORICAL HERITAGE

In all the United States there probably is no other region richer in history than Suburban Philadelphia. Since the first Dutch explorations on the Delaware in 1609, few years have passed without events of note. But unfortunately, as each year added new pages to the story, the bulk became so unwieldy that historians were forced to reduce many events to a line or two—or eliminate them altogether. As a result, much of our local history is now little known or entirely forgotten.

Yet many now-neglected incidents of the past still influence our daily lives. Often, without our knowing it, they help shape our attitude toward our government. Frequently, without our realizing it, they are reflected in the names we use when we refer to our highways, our towns and our streams.

During the coming months, Philadelphia Suburban Water Company will recall some of the past with a series of historical advertisements. Not every subject will be unfamiliar to everyone. But we hope many will read this series with pleasure and perhaps some profit. The region we have chosen is within and adjoining the area of 300 square miles served with Pure Springfield Water. Watch for the first advertisement in an early issue of this newspaper.

Christian Science

Lecturer Speaks

On Monday evening a free lecture on Christian Science was delivered by First Church of Christ Scientist, Swarthmore, in the church edifice on Park avenue.

Mrs. L. Davis Corya, Second Reader, introduced the lecturer, Miss Helen Appleton, C.S., of Boston, member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The lecturer spoke substantially as follows:

"Today, the world as never before is looking hopefully to law for the settlement of all its difficulties.

"God is the only lawgiver. Christian Scientists accept the word of the Bible as their guide and inspiration.

Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian

Science, in one of her writings (The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany, page 295) says: "The Bible is our sea-beaten rock. . . It stands the storm. It engages the attention and enriches the being of all men." It is in the Bible that we first hear God spoken of as 'lawgiver.'

"Jesus referred to God as Spirit and as Truth. He taught that God is divine life and stressed that God made him, perfect. "Jesus says that evil is never a reality. Its claim to reality is but the unreliable testimony of the physical senses.

"Mary Baker Eddy had been brought up from earliest childhood to believe in the value and the effectiveness of prayer.

"Mrs. Eddy's faith in God's presence and power grew with the years as she became more and more certain, through study and experience, that materiality had nothing to offer, either as a curative agent or towards spiritual salvation.

"Christian Science has made understandable that all healing is the result of the operation of divine law in human consciousness. Divine law is ever operative and ever available to all.

"Good health belongs to man universally. Man is a unit, a whole idea. Man is complete, reflecting all the qualities of Mind. He is not part well and part sick. Such argument stems directly from materiality. Only by spirituality can it be eliminated.

"May we become aware that "the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." (Romans 8:2)."

Program For Stage

Although the 1949 C.A.R.E. program, sponsored by the students of the Swarthmore High School, made a slow start, it has gathered momentum as plans were completed for the second year in the student body's adoption of Stage, Germany. One group, the Missions and Benevolence Society of the Presbyterian Church, has already begun work on several forms of aid for the town, and initiated the program by giving a large sum of money to the Social Education and Activities committee of the Woman's Club to be spent for diapers. This committee of the club, under the leadership of Mrs. George Warren, has also made diapers to be sent along with the ones purchased.

These groups are to be commended for their start so early in the drive. It is hoped that this year's program will not only meet but supersede last year's standards, and if this enthusiasm continues, there is every indication that it will. Any groups who would like to contribute something to Stage are asked to call White Bird, Swarthmore 0670, or Mr. Hofmann at the high school. A new feature added this year is evidence of how much these people appreciated Swarthmore's generosity last year—letters from the Mayor and townspeople, pictures of Stage, and recordings made at the ceremony at the time the packages were distributed.

Anyone interested in seeing these items is cordially invited to visit this room which will be opened to the public after January 17.

Entered in Track Meet Daniel and Andrew Kirk will participate tonight in the Inquirer-sponsored Indoor Track Meet to be held in Convention Hall.

Dan will enter the Invitation 1000 yard run while Andy will compete in the Pole Vault.

Any soprano, alto, tenor or bass with a gregarious instinct is invited to come to the Fellowship House at 21 West Franklin street, Media.

Joan Hertel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Hertel of Swarthmore avenue, Rutledge, returns this week to Endicott Junior College in Beverly, Mass., after a seven-week period of internment, an off-campus business experience in a local department store, and vacation.

School Studies Opening

Plans were made, through the Instruction Committee with Mrs. R. K. Denworth as chairman, for further meetings with teachers. Early in December, the Board met with the elementary school teachers at the Rutgers Avenue school, for a conference on Swarthmore's program for the elementary schools.

On January 18 a similar conference was held with the Senior High School teachers in the school library, to give the Board members a more intimate view of the present program.

The request of Adeline K. Strouse for a leave of absence for the spring semester to travel and study in France, was granted. Mrs. Margaret Williams Thompson, of West Chester who has taught high school French for a number of years, was elected substitute teacher during Miss Strouse's absence.

During the fall semester, practice teachers from West Chester State Teachers College and Temple University were observing and assisting in elementary grades, and in music, physical education and social studies classes.

The Board noted the honor that has come to the Swarthmore schools and community in being able to serve as host to the Southeastern District High School Orchestra, which will present a concert in Clothier Memorial tomorrow evening.

An unusually large number of Swarthmore pupils were honored by being successful in the competition for securing important places in this orchestra.

A survey report was presented, showing the practices in the sub-urban schools in organizing and providing for the instrumental music program. A number of the better schools follow the same plan as here: in the elementary grades, to provide instruments on loan for year to beginners who after showing progress are expected to buy their own; in the instrumental groups-band and orchestras, the school district to provide the large and the unusual instruments which parents could not be expected to supply, as bass horns, drums, oboes, bass viola, and so forth.

The Board authorized the securing of quotations on several additional instruments for the growing musical organizations.

A discussion of the spring sports program revealed that in boys sports there were requests for full interscholastic competition in three sports this year, namely, track, baseball, and lacrosse.

Because of the small size of the school and limited budget, the school has not heretofore been able to support more than two sports. It was decided to continue the program of last year—track and baseball, with lacrosse a minor sport, practicing and playing on Saturdays.

A survey of the limited equipment of the school audio-education program, prepared by a committee of teachers, indicated needs in the auditorium, the music room, the gymnasium, and in portable equipment for classrooms.

Microphones and loud speakers should be provided, as well as record-playing equipment. The Board expressed appreciation for the offer of the teachers to build this equipment, and authorized the purchase of needed materials.

Peace Chest Drive Opens

The annual United Peace Chest drive to aid the work of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, the National Council for the Prevention of War and the Women's International League in greater Philadelphia will get under way in Swarthmore next Monday, January 24.

Mrs. Benbow Ritchie is chairman of the Swarthmore drive. Mrs. J. Warren Paxson and Mrs. Frederick B. Tolles are contacting workers for the local campaign.

L.W.V. MEMBERSHIP TEA

LIBRARY BOARD ELECTS JEWETT

Mrs. John Seybold Also Elected To Board

In an election in which several candidates ran almost neck to neck, Phillip H. Jewett was re-elected to the Board of Directors of the Swarthmore Public Library, and Mrs. John Seybold was chosen to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of office of Charles B. Shaw. The newly-elected members will serve three-year terms.

Following the balloting, which ended on Monday night, the Board elected as officers for the coming year: Mr. Jewett, president; Mrs. Seybold, vice-president; Dr. J. Alfred Calhoun, secretary, and Harold Ogdan, treasurer.

In her annual report, covering the year 1948, Miss Bettina E. Hunter, librarian, announced the addition of 414 new readers (284 adult and 130 juvenile), bringing the total registration to 2,425—a record for new members in any given year, and the largest total enrollment to date.

Of the 43,600 books circulated in 1948, approximately two-thirds were adult and one-third juvenile titles. The circulation among the adults included 20,641 works of fiction, 6,528 non-fiction, and 1,855 periodicals.

Books purchased during the year numbered 1,347, of which 935 were for adults and 412 for children of various ages. Other additions to the library equipment were new shelving, which greatly increased the shelf capacity, and a new magazine rack, a gift from the Swarthmore Woman's Club.

Having circulated in 1948 enough books to provide ten for every resident of the borough, the library staff is anxious to have new registrations for this free community service, with a view to making 1949 a banner year in meeting the needs of book-reading Swarthmoreans.

H. L. Shay, Jr., Is Jr. C. C. Man Of Year

Howell Lewis Shay, Jr. of Park avenue was presented with the Junior Chamber of Commerce key to the city at the Philadelphia last week as the "outstanding young man of 1948."

Shay, a graduate of Swarthmore High School in the class of 1936 and the University of Pennsylvania with honors in 1941, is executive vice-president of Forces United and was instrumental in developing this organization which consists of groups pledged to help protect the Nation's Liberties.

Arthur C. Kaufmann president of the Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the award committee in making the presentation at the Union League said of Shay who is a partner in the Howell Lewis Shay architects firm, "He has given his time, his opportunity to make money, his influence, his constant unflinching service to something that needs doing so desperately that we of the committee recognize it as monumental. His work has begun but the beginning is so great, so needed, that the committee to a man voted Shay the award."

Established on July 4, 1947 in Independence Hall the national program of Forces United is dedicated to education for knowledge of the American system of government, making it work better, solving and fighting its problems.

The Thimble Group met Monday at the home of Mrs. Carlos F. Noyes of Parish road.

Speaker for the commencement will be Dr. Leslie M. Lipson, associate professor of political science at the college. Dr. Lipson was the choice of the graduating students themselves.

There will be a tea in Bond Memorial for seniors and their guests after the exercises.

PUPILS PRESENT FINE CONCERT

District Orchestra Event Fills Clothier

An overflowing audience in Clothier Memorial heartily applauded the 105-piece Southeastern District High School Symphony Orchestra last Saturday evening in a concert of the highest calibre.

The program the student musicians played was one which left the audience applauding for more. Under the leadership of seven instrumental directors from this area, the festival orchestra showed the results of a month of earnest practice and ensemble rehearsal.

The program, beginning with a melodic, sonorous Legend under the direction of Robert Holm, was well planned to give the audience music of contrasting moods and styles. "Fiddle-Fiddle," the intriguing and popular string number by Anderson brought the strongest response of the evening, a request for repetition.

Other intricate and attractive numbers included Revival, a Morton Gould arrangement of six spirituals, calling attention to the pizzicato strings, the modern harmonies of the brass, a "crying clarinet," and intricate, intriguing string sections. Under Dr. Ray Yeager's direction, this number was well executed.

Czech Rhapsody, the last number on the program conducted by Elwood Miller of Springfield, brought the true Czech folk dance and song flavor to the foreground in interesting color combinations. A favorite among the members of the orchestra, this composition proved a fitting climax to an outstanding concert.

One of the most musical numbers of the evening was rendered by the solo cellist, Jerome Goldman, sophomore at the local high school. Mr. Goodman proved himself nothing short of an artist in his rendition of Adagio and Rondo by Boccherini. Applause could not express the audience's enthusiasm. An encore, Habanera by Ravel, played in muted tone proved exceptional in its interpretation and tone.

Mr. Holm and Alice Blodgett, co-hosts of this tremendous undertaking, are to be congratulated for the success of the evening. Swarthmore is more than proud to have been host to such a fine group of students and to such high calibre musicians.

David Daugherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Daugherty of Dickinson avenue and a third year student at the University of Virginia, has been elected to membership in Alpha Kappa Psi, national professional fraternity in economics and commerce. David is also a member of the International Relations Club and holds a varsity lacrosse letter.

Swarthmore Professor Reports On World Trade Charter

Clair Wilcox of Ogdan avenue, Joseph Wharton Professor of Political Economy at Swarthmore, saw on Tuesday the publication of his book, "A Charter for World Trade."

Published by Macmillan Company, "A Charter for World Trade" concerns the charter for an international trade organization completed at the United Nations Conference on Trade and Employment at Havana, March, 1948. The final set of the conference was signed by 54 countries and the charter is scheduled to come before the legislatures of some 60 countries, including the United States, for approval in 1949.

Dr. Wilcox joined the faculty at Swarthmore in 1927 after having earned his Ph. D. at the University of Pennsylvania, his Alma Mater. Besides a distinguished career as educator, Dr. Wilcox has had an impressive record in Government service: in the NRA and OPA; as consultant on the National Resources Planning Board and on the Social Security Board; and as director, Office of International Trade Policy, Department of State. He was vice-chairman of the U. S. delegation at the United Nations Conference on Trade and Employment at Havana. In addition to these activities he has written many articles in various magazines and journals, including the "St. Louis Post-Dispatch," "New York Times," "Sunday Magazine," and "Fortune."

Spencer Article Widely Read
A recent magazine article by Steven M. Spencer of Ogdan avenue has appeared in 11 languages and been read by more than 40,000,000 people, Mr. Spencer was informed recently.

The article "Where Are We Now on Cancer?" was condensed from The Saturday Evening Post and appeared in the September, 1948 issue of The Reader's Digest. The editors believed that it would be equally enjoyable abroad, and ran it in most of the Reader's Digest international editions. Mr. Spencer has now received copies containing his article in British, Australian, Spanish, Portuguese, Swedish, Finnish, Japanese, French, French Canadian, Norwegian and Italian—with more to come.

PLANS MUSICAL PROGRAM SUN.

Community Arts Center To Present Local Vocalists

Last month the Community Arts Center of Wallingford, true to its promise, offered its membership a varied program of Art events which included an exhibit of paintings and crafts, lectures on weaving, photography, painting and a children's party.

This month attention will be focused on Music when an unusual and interesting program will be presented at the Center, Sunday afternoon, January 30, by Donald MacRostie, baritone, of Media, Sally McFadden, Anne Voigt and Perdue Cleaver, all members of the Rose Valley Chorus and the Community Arts Center. The accompanist will be Thelma Crow and the narrator, Fred Echelmeyer. There will be solos, duets, trios and quartets.

The musical program will follow the business meeting which will open promptly at 3 o'clock. James Feight of the Arts Center Board of Directors will open a general discussion period at which time the membership will be brought up to date on the organization of this newly founded and popular enterprise. Howard Flogaus of Wallingford, business director and house chairman, will report on the work done on the Arts Center's quarters.

"Many improvements have been made with the loyal cooperation of many of the members," Mr. Flogaus said, "but there is still much to be done and we are hoping more members will step forward to help lift the immense burden from the shoulders of those who have already contributed so much of their time."

Mrs. Charles Dennis, president, will take this opportunity to present the newly-appointed Board of Directors to the membership. They are: Joseph R. Gibson and Mrs. Stanley L. MacMillan, both of Swarthmore; James S. Feight, chairman, Emma M. Abbott, Mrs. J. Claude Bedford, Mrs. Charles A. Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Dutton, Mrs. Wayland H. Elsbree, Mr. Howard A. Flogaus and Cyril Gardner, all of Wallingford; Mrs. Stuart Graves and Edward T. Moore, of Media; Mr. Harold V. Hartman, of Chester and Emma L. Warfield, of Springfield.

Mrs. Vance A. Pierce of Media is publicity chairman and her local committee includes Mrs. Neal Thurman and Mrs. Samuel Gurin.

Edward T. Moore, Executive Secretary, who is in the office at the Arts Center daily (phone ME-6-1738) will report on the brochure which is now being prepared for mailing in the near future to launch the second semester of classes. "We now have more than 400 members, including about 300 students," said Mr. Moore, "and we are anxious to keep them in close touch with everything that goes on at the Arts Center as well as acquaint others with our activities."

BEREAVED
The infant son of Robert and Virginia DeHaven of Hillside Hill, Westtown, Pa., died in the West Chester Hospital on Monday, January 24. The baby was the grandson of Mrs. Helen M. Hill of Hillside avenue.

Garnet Host To West Pointers
Bill Stetson's Swarthmore College basketball squad, with six consecutive victories to its credit, takes on a large order when the Cadets of West Point invade the Field House Friday night.

The Army team, which recently pressed sensational Yale for three-quarters of a hard-fought game, has a 3-3 record. The Cadets defeated Union, Williams and Lehigh, while losing to Brown, Pittsburgh and Yale. The Swarthmore record stands at 7-3.

Three veterans of the powerful Army football team are expected to start for the visitors. They are forward Arnold Galiffa, center Jim Rawers and guard Frank Barnes. Galiffa and fellow forward Tom Boydston have been leading the Cadet attack this year.

Swarthmore's hopes ride chiefly with Jim Reilly, lanky Philadelphia who plays either center or forward. Jim leads the Philadelphia area in points per game, and the Swarthmoreans are banking on his shooting eye to surprise the West Pointers.

Friday night's contest will be the last for Rex "Sam" Gary, captain of the Garnet team and ace passer of last fall's football squad. Gary, a former resident of Swarthmore, graduates on Sunday.

Probable line-ups are: Army—Boydston and Galiffa, forwards; Rawers, center; Barnes and Mosny, guards; Swarthmore—Reilly and Fott, forwards; Hall, center; Gary and Esrey, guards.

Red Cross To Sew
Red Cross Sewing Day will be held at the Presbyterian Church at 10 a. m. Wednesday, February 2.

All women of the town are cordially invited to help make supplies for local hospitals.

Coffee will be served at noon. Members should bring a lunch.

Mrs. Sewell W. Hodge of Ogdan avenue, entertained "The Eight-some" at a luncheon-bridge Tuesday.

Koeping, with Mrs. Dorothy Paul accompanying. Mr. James Sorber will conclude the program by singing "Three Songs" by William Soule, Old Italian songs, and German songs. Mrs. Dorothy Paul will accompany these.

Seybold was chosen to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of office of Charles E. Shaw. The newly elected members will serve three-year terms.

Following the balloting, which ended on Monday night, the Board elected as officers for the coming year: Mr. Jewett, president; Mrs. Seybold, vice-president; Dr. J. Alfred Calhoun, secretary, and Harold Ogram, treasurer.

In her annual report, covering the year 1948, Miss Bettina E. Hunter, librarian, announced the addition of 414 new readers (284 adult and 130 juvenile), bringing the total registration to 2,425—a record for new members in any given year, and the largest total enrollment to date.

Of the 43,600 books circulated in 1948, approximately two-thirds were adult and one-third juvenile titles. The circulation among the adults included 20,641 works of fiction, 6,528 non-fiction, and 1,855 periodicals.

Books purchased during the year numbered 1,347, of which 935 were for adults and 412 for children of various ages. Other additions to the Library equipment were new shelving, which greatly increased the shelf capacity, and a new magazine rack, a gift from the Swarthmore Woman's Club.

Having circulated in 1948 enough books to provide ten for every resident of the borough, the Library staff is anxious to have new registrations for this free community service, with a view to making 1949 a banner year in meeting the needs of book-reading Swarthmoreans.

H. L. Shay, Jr., Is Jr. C. C. Man Of Year
Howell Lewis Shay, Jr. of Park avenue was presented with the Junior Chamber of Commerce key in Philadelphia last week as the "outstanding young man of 1948." Shay, a graduate of Swarthmore High School in the class of 1936 and the University of Pennsylvania with honors in 1941, is executive vice-president of Forces United and was instrumental in developing this organization which consists of groups pledged to help protect the Nation's Liberties.

His work has but begun but the beginning is so great, so needed, that the committee to a man voted Shay the award."

Established on July 4, 1947 in Independence Hall the national program of Forces United is dedicated to education for knowledge of the American system of government, making it work better, solving and fighting its problems.

The Thimble Group met Monday at the home of Mrs. Carlos F. Noyes of Parish road.

PUPILS PRESENT FINE CONCERT

District Orchestra Event Offers Clothier

An overflowing audience in Clothier Memorial heartily applauded the 105-piece Southeastern District High School Symphony Orchestra last Saturday evening in a concert of the highest calibre. The program the student musicians played was one which left the audience applauding for more. Under the leadership of seven instrumental directors from this area, the festival orchestra showed the results of a month of earnest practice and ensemble rehearsal.

The program, beginning with a melodic, sonorous Legend under the direction of Robert Holm, was well planned to give the audience music of contrasting moods and styles. "Fiddle-Faddle," the intriguing and popular string number by Anderson brought the strongest response of the evening, a request for repetition. Other intricate and attractive numbers included Revival, a Morton Gould arrangement of six spirituals, calling attention to the pizzicato strings, the modern harmonies of the brass, a "crying clarinet," and intricate, intriguing string sections. Under Dr. Ray Yergler's direction this number was well executed.

Czech Rhapsody, the last number on the program conducted by Elwood Miller of Springfield, brought the true Czech folk dance and song flavor to the foreground in interesting color combinations. A favorite among the members of the orchestra, this composition proved a fitting climax to an outstanding concert.

One of the most musical numbers of the evening was rendered by the solo cellist, Jerome Goldman, sophomore at the local high school. Mr. Goodman proved himself nothing short of an artist in his rendition of Adagio and Rondo by Boccherini. Applause could not express the audience's enthusiasm. An encore, Habanera by Ravel, played in muted tone proved exceptional in its interpretation and tone.

Mr. Holm and Alice Blodgett, co-hosts of this tremendous undertaking, are to be congratulated for the success of the evening. Swarthmore is more than proud to have been host to such a fine group of students and to such high calibre musicians.

David Daugherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Daugherty of Dickinson avenue and a third year student at the University of Virginia, has been elected to membership in Alpha Kappa Psi, national professional fraternity in economics and commerce. David is also a member of the International Relations Club and holds a varsity lacrosse letter.

Swarthmore Professor Reports On World Trade Charter

Clair Wilcox of Ogden avenue, Joseph Wharton Professor of Political Economy at Swarthmore, saw on Tuesday the publication of his book, "A Charter for World Trade."

Published by Macmillan Company, "A Charter for World Trade" concerns the charter for an international trade organization completed at the United Nations Conference on Trade and Employment at Havana, March, 1948. The final set of the conference was signed by 54 countries and the charter is scheduled to come before the legislatures of some 60 countries, including the United States, for approval in 1949.

Dr. Wilcox joined the faculty at Swarthmore in 1927 after having earned his Ph. D. at the University of Pennsylvania, his Alma Mater. Besides a distinguished career as educator, Dr. Wilcox has had an impressive record in Government service: in the NRA and OPA; as consultant on the National Resources Planning Board and on the Social Security Board; and as director, Office of International Trade Policy, Department of State. He was vice-chairman of the U. S. delegation at the United Nations Conference on Trade and Employment at Havana. In addition to these activities he has written many articles in various magazines and journals, including the "St. Louis Post-Dispatch," "New York Times Sunday Magazine," and "Fortune."

Howard Flogaus of Wallingford, business director and house chairman, will report on the work done on the Arts Center's quarters.

"Many improvements have been made with the loyal cooperation of many of the members," Mr. Flogaus said, "but there is still much to be done and we are hoping more members will step forward to help lift the immense burden from the shoulders of those who have already contributed so much of their time."

Mrs. Charles Dennis, president, will take this opportunity to present the newly-appointed Board of Directors to the membership. They are: Joseph R. Gibson and Mrs. Stanley L. MacMillan, both of Swarthmore; James S. Feight, chairman; Emma M. Abbott, Mrs. J. Claude Bedford, Mrs. Charles A. Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Dutton, Mrs. Wayland H. Elsbree, Mr. Howard A. "We now have more than 400 members, including about 300 students," said Mr. Moore, "and we are anxious to keep them in close touch with everything that goes on at the Arts Center as well as acquaint others with our activities."

GIRL SCOUT AID MARCH OF DIMES

Mothers Club Also Taking Theatre Collections

The College Theatre management is cooperating with the March of Dimes drive by sponsoring audience collections at both shows each evening during the drive.

Under the direction of Mrs. J. A. Calhoun, Girl Scout Troops 16 and 83 make the collection at the early shows and Mrs. John Weller president of the Mothers Club assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garrison, Mrs. Leonard Dart, Mrs. Leroy Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Prather, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Luther, Mrs. Henry Beck, Mrs. Carl Dempsey, Mrs. John Weller, Mrs. Glen O'Neal, Mrs. Roderick Hobart are taking care of the later show collections.

Garnet Host To West Pointers

Bill Stetson's Swarthmore College basketball squad, with six consecutive victories to its credit, takes on a large order when the Cadets of West Point invade the Field House Friday night.

The Army team, which recently pressed sensational Yale for three-quarters of a hard-fought game, has a 3-3 record. The Cadets defeated Union, Williams and Lehigh, while losing to Brown, Pittsburgh and Yale. The Swarthmore record stands at 7-3.

Three veterans of the powerful Army football team are expected to start for the visitors. They are forward Arnold Galiffa, center Jim Rawers and guard Frank Barnes. Galiffa and fellow forward Tom Boydston have been leading the Cadet attack this year.

Swarthmore's hopes ride chiefly with Jim Reilly, lanky Philadelphia who plays either center or forward. Jim leads the Philadelphia area in points per game, and the Swarthmoreans are banking on his shooting eye to surprise the West Pointers.

Friday night's contest will be the last for Rex "Sam" Gary, captain of the Garnet team and ace passer of last fall's football squad. Gary, a former resident of Swarthmore, graduates on Sunday. Probable line-ups are: Army—Boydston and Galiffa, forwards; Rawers, center; Barnes and Mosny, guards. Swarthmore—Reilly and Folt, forwards; Hall, center; Gary and Esrey, guards.

KEY TO HAPPINESS

★ "With health, everything is a source of pleasure; without it, nothing else, whatever it may be, is enjoyable. It follows that the greatest of follies is to sacrifice health for any other kind of happiness, whatever it may be — for gain, advancement, learning, for fame, let alone, then, for fleeting sensual pleasures," advised Arthur Schopenhauer.

Penn Center Assigns Phys. Ed. Instructor

With the assignment of a full-time physical education instructor for women for the first time this year at the Penn State Center in Swarthmore the 150 coeds are developing a sports program whose calibre of performance has been setting their opponents on edge.

Taking student leads in the development of the various programs are 10 coeds who are slated to major in physical education upon their transfer to the campus as sophomores. Among the curricula which these girls will consider upon reaching the campus are studies in health education, physical education, or recreation. And for those students who wish to continue training past the bachelor's degree, a graduate program is possible for qualified students.

At the moment 20 some members of the swimming team are preparing for six meets scheduled for the remaining winter and coming spring seasons. Their opponents will be made up of such aggregations as Chestnut Hill, Swarthmore, Beaver, Temple, Penn and Drexel. In this field the coeds are aided by their able coach, Louise Grossman, who as a member of the Penn State College swimming team last year placed in the National Swimming Telegraphic Intercollegiate Meet in the 100-yard breaststroke event.

Just recently the Penn State Center Girls' Hockey team terminated a highly successful season by winning eight tilts, tying two, and losing one. The girls are proud of this one, since this is the Center's first year in competition.

The basketball season got underway like a slow boat to China with a loss to Rosemont. But the 14-girl squad is optimistic about their remaining seven games with such opponents as Beaver, Swarthmore, Immaculata, Temple, and Bryn Mawr.

Exemplifying the diversity of programs for the Center coeds is a modern dance club of 20 members. This group is in rehearsal on an interpretation of Chinatown in New York. This feature will be presented in a variety show which will soon be scheduled by the students in the Center auditorium. Miss Grossman, physical education instructor who was graduated from Penn State's School of Physical Education and Athletics with the class of 1948, was active in women's sports on the campus. She was a member of the following teams: Volleyball, basketball, hockey, softball, swimming, and the modern dance.

Party-line service is better than fair when users use no more than their share.

On party-line telephones, courtesy pays dividends! Be brief... Space calls... Hang up gently... Take the lead in good party-line manners. It will mean better service for all.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Moeller of Park avenue will entertain as their week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. Torvald D. Eberhardt and small daughter Mary of Black Rock, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Moeller will entertain in their honor before the Series Dance tomorrow evening and again on Sunday afternoon.

FRASER REPORTS ON GERMANY

Women Told Industry Production Is Up

Mrs. C. H. Jeglum, legislation chairman, introduced Dr. Herbert Fraser at Tuesday's meeting of the Woman's Club. Dr. Fraser spoke on his recent experience in Germany where he was Chief of Public Finance Branch of the United States Military Government. He spoke of the need of the new currency plan since the decline of the mark and the black market made life difficult. He said that Communism did not flourish in western Germany because so many had seen it at work and were not convinced. He also stated that by the end of 1948 industrial production in western Germany was 70 per cent of that of 1936, and in the Saar Valley 10 per cent above that year. He felt things were better and had a restrained optimism that a peaceable solution could be worked out.

Mrs. Stoyan Russell led the club chorus in three numbers.

There will be a literature meeting at the club house at 10 a. m. on Friday, January 28, when Mrs. Owen W. Gay will give the book review.

On Tuesday, February 1, at 10 a. m., the chorus will rehearse. Also at that time Mrs. B. K. Morse asks all who are interested in making braided rugs to come to the club lounge, bringing a sandwich.

At the Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia on Thursday, February 3, there will be a gallery talk for the art section of which Mrs. B. F. Schwalm is chairman. Members will meet at Hotel Whittier at 12:30 p. m. for lunch.

On February 4 at 2 p. m., there will be a meeting of the peace service committee at the home of the chairman Mrs. T. D. Maher 226 Rutgers avenue.

To Play For State

Two of the local high school musicians have been selected to participate in the State Festival orchestra at Greensburg early in February. William Potts and Jerome Goodman, first chair players in the recent district orchestra, were notified of the honor by Robert M. Holm upon his return from the State selection committee meeting near Pittsburgh. Mr. Holm added that other Swarthmore first chair players were unfortunately ineligible because the State event is limited to students of senior high school level.

Local Quartet On Air

The Swarthmore Brass Quartet will again be heard over WDAS 4:30 to 5 p. m. this Sunday in a program aired from St. Andrew's Methodist Church, Forty-fifth and Walnut street, West Philadelphia. The group includes Charles Laws, Eric Sharpless, Larry Franck and Robert Holm. This will be the last in this series of Methodist Melodies broadcasts until late Spring. The Rev. Herbert R. Howells is in charge.

Friends Meeting Notes

The Adult Forum of the First Day School will meet in the Friends Meeting House at 9:45 on Sunday morning when William Matchett will lead the discussion on "The Problems Faced by the Conscientious Objector."

The greatest service a Realtor can render, is to find YOU the house you want at the price YOU can afford.

THIS OFFICE SPECIALIZES IN SUCH A SERVICE

The right house at the right price is hard to find, but with our intimate knowledge of the territory, we usually do a mighty good job. If we do not have the suitable listing for you, we have co-operative Brokers to consult. By listing your needs with the LeBaron office, you will save yourself a lot of work and effort. Whether it be a new, properly built operation house, or one built to your own specification, old homestead or a country place, the probabilities are that we can find it quicker than you can, and get it at the right price. We will not recommend the purchase of any property at what we consider an excessive figure. If we recommend and show it, it will be because we believe the price is right.
