MEDIA IS BIG TEST FOR S.H.S.

Nether - Providence
Routed Friday
52 - 6

The high school football team displayed great scoring power last Friday as the Nether Providence High School football team fell apart under an avalanche of touchdowns. Forty-five of the Garnet squad participated in the game and the score does not indicate the unevenness of the two teams. Nether Providence was handicapped by injuries, and Swarthmore showed great improvement over the opening game which accounted for the uneven score.

In the first quarter it appeared that the game would be very closely contested when Nether Providence scored on a long pass after the Garnet had taken the lead 6-0 on Al McGillberry's touchdown plunge. Swarthmore struck back and scored in three plays lead by Howard Arrison at full-back when he carried 40 yards, then plunged over from the 3. From here on, the game was all Swarthmore as our charging line stopped Nether Providence offense in its tracks and opened up holes for the slashing, driving, ball carriers.

The Media Mustangs come to Rutgers Field as a very formidable opponent. They have beaten Radnor in a thrilling game and lost to Lansdowne on a blocked kick in the final seconds.

As usual, this game will be a bitterly contested affair and it (continued on page eight)

MOTHER'S PLAN INFORMAL TEA

Panel Discussion Set
For Meeting
Thursday

An informal tea marks the opening of Mother's Club on Sunday, October 9, from 4 to 5 p.m. at the Woman's Club. Mrs. John B. Maerker will be in charge. Old members, all new members and any others interested in joining the group are cordially invited. Officers and board members have tried to contact as many mothers of young children as possible to extend an invitation to the tea. In the event some mothers have not been called it is hoped that this announcement will serve as a cordial invitation.

On Thursday evening, October 13 at 8 p.m., the first regular meeting of the Club will be held at the Women's Club House. At this time there will be a panel discussion by four well known mothers of Swarthmore. The topic of this discussion is "Where does Mother Belong." Participants in the panel are: Mrs. Joseph Reynolds, a mother who has combined a business career with the running of a home and the raising of two children; Mrs. Robert Spiller, a mother of three children, who has combined 20 years of teaching with her home duties; Mrs. Leonard Dart, a former social worker, and Mrs. Peter Costa, a former school teacher, each of whom has three children.

All members are urged to bring their Needlework Guild contributions to this first meeting on October 13, as all articles must be turned over at the ingathering of the Woman's Club on October 25.

Contributions Wanted

Friends of the Legion Auxiliary are asked to ransack their attics and bureau drawers, remembering that a successful Rummage Sale on October 19 and 20 will enable this Swarthmore unit to carry on welfare and hospital aid during the 1949-50 year of activity.

Anyone having clothing, household or personal goods to contribute should notify Mrs. Robert Bair, in charge of the sale, at Swarthmore 2315, or call Swarthmore 0292 to have the material collected on October 19.

FANNIE THAYER BURIED IN VT.

Widow Of Builder Died
At Home Here
Sept. 28

Mrs. Fannie A. Goodell Thayer, widow of Carroll Thayer well known local builder passed away Wednesday evening of last week at 601 Harvard avenue, in the little home which her husband built after he retired from active business. A widow for the past 11 years Mrs. Thayer had not been well since last spring.

Born in Millbury, Mass., on November 27, 1880 she was the daughter of Austin and Frances Hemingway Goodell. Educated in private schools in Philadelphia and married in that city she came to Swarthmore 45 years ago after living several years in Glenolden.

She was a member of the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church, the Woman's Club of Swarthmore, and the Swarthmore branch of the Needlework Guild.

Surviving are three nieces Mrs. Earle Creamer of Ridley Park, Mrs. James Safford of Fairhaven, Vt., Mrs. Clifford Willard of Wallingford, Vt., and a nephew Royal Thayer of St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Funeral services were conducted in the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church at 2:30 Saturday afternoon by the Rev. Joseph Bishop, minister of the church. Interment was in Wallingford, Vt.

PLAYERS CLUB OPENS MONDAY

After a summer siesta the Swarthmore Players Club opens its thirty-ninth season Monday night, October 10 with the family comedy "The Bees and the Flowers." Chosen by director Nat Doughty for its hilarity and laughter-back-if-you-don't-like-it guarantee, this Kohner and Manheimer play has already been approved by popular taste in the screen version, "The Three Darling Daughters".

Familiar names appearing on the bill are those of Francis Willis, James S. Feight, Cornelia McKernan, Sue Surrick, Mary Ann Dickinson and Shirley Smith. Newcomers to the Swarthmore stage are Jane Patterson, William S. Clement, Jerry Jordan, Virginia Perce, and Joe Farcel.

Managing the stage is Col. H. C. Mabbott with prompters Sally McFadden and Richard Fraeth, electrician Howard Pennel, Music director Patty Campbell and stage decorators and property getters Mrs. H. S. Toole and Mrs. Walter C. Giles also behind the scenes.

As the club has gone back to its six-night schedule, the show will run from Monday through Saturday, October 15, only. Curtain rises at 8:20 p.m.

Swarthmore women are very fortunate in being able to hear such an outstanding lecturer and Mrs. Donald Hibbard, program chairman, should be congratulated for securing her.

Before the lecture the club will hold its first stated meeting of the year. Tea will follow with Miss Furman guest of honor. Mrs. Birney K. Morse and Mrs. Ross W. Marriott will pour. Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Frank G. Keenen, Lillian Boyt, Mrs. George M. Karns, and Mrs. Benjamin W. Collins.

PI PHI'S RAISE PROJECT FUND

Benefit Aids Tenn.
Settlement
School

Many Swarthmore women are active in their sponsorship of the annual Delaware County Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi Sorority's benefit sale and tea for the Sorority's Settlement school at Gatlinburg, Tenn. Mrs. J. Archer Turner's home, 801 Harvard avenue, will house the event on Friday, October 14, from 2 until 5 p.m. and again from 8 until 9 p.m.

Mrs. James H. Hornaday heads the committee in charge of sales with Mrs. Owen W. Gay, Mrs. Gordon Meader, Mrs. Raymond Denworth, Miss Marion Baker as her efficient aides. Mrs. C. W. Lukens is the tea chairman, Mrs. Jack Thompson assisting.

Starting as a living memorial to the 1897 founders of Pi Beta Phi, the work at Gatlinburg began in 1912 with the sending of a teacher to take over 13 pupils at the end of the three month term furnished by the County. Today the Pi Phi School is the County School with an enrollment of over 500 pupils. The County provides teachers to meet the basic requirements, with Pi Phi furnishing the Arts and Crafts, Physical Education, Health and Music teachers to enrich the curriculum.

In addition, since there is no hospital, Pi Phi operates a health center with a qualified registered nurse whose work includes community nursing, public health instruction in hygiene and home nursing, regular health inspections and inoculations in the Pi Phi School and three rural schools and a weekly baby clinic. She works in close cooperation with the local physician and County and State Health Departments.

Articles on order Friday are produced under supervision and marketed through the Sorority's ship in the Gatlinburg, which thus helps over one hundred families to be self supporting as weavers. Each alumnae club in the United States and Hawaii holds one annual sale to provide national support for the Gatlinburg work.

COUNCIL FACES TOUGH DECISION

Digesting Landlord's
Tenants' Problems
Till Tuesday

Whether the current availability of rental housing in Swarthmore is abnormally low enough to justify the continuation of rent controls, or whether the fact that the wording "For Rent" on local house signs and realtors listings seems nonexistent is merely because desirable rental properties have always been hard to find in this borough, is the question Swarthmore Councilmen are mulling over in their minds at the moment.

By next Tuesday evening they will have arrived at their individual convictions and meet at Borough Hall to cast the votes which will decide whether a resolution requesting the abolition of rent control here is sent for Governor Duff's approval.

The half hundred citizens who appeared at the public hearing Council held Monday evening of this week equally presented both sides of the question.

Allan C. Wood, Swarthmore apartment house owner who originally had requested Council to call such a hearing, led the presentation of the landlord's side of the case. Edward L. Noyes and W. Mark Bittle local realtors replied to questions put by Mr. Wood, contending the high character and good location of this town, as well as its being a college site, has always made it difficult for tenants to find desirable rental properties and that there seems no likelihood of a change in this condition.

Mrs. Edith Cuskaden and Mrs. Ellen VanS. Cleveland of Park avenue and Mr. and Mrs. S. Milton Bryant of South Chester road also spoke in behalf of the landlord. Points advanced in favor of lifting of rent controls indicated that at this stage the controls were creating less instead of more units available to that section of the populace which through desire or necessity prefers to rent rather than own their domiciles. There being no control of property owners' costs, taxes, utilities, fuel and repairs having all increased greatly, it was brought out that many owners who formerly rented their properties are now unable to realize any return whatsoever on them at pre-war rent levels and are therefore closing or selling them to occupants and removing them from the rental market. It was further brought out that little equality exists in rent controls since properties occupied by their owners at the time the controls were set can now be rented at higher prices than superior accommodations on which rental was (continued on page eight)

Little Courtesies help make good neighbors

On party-line telephones, too, courtesy is the mark of a good neighbor!

For example, when you pick up the telephone and find the line in use, do you give the other person a few minutes to finish the call before trying again? It's the courteous thing to do... and your courtesy will be returned!

It's courteous, too, when you are talking on the telephone and realize that your neighbor is waiting to make a call, to hang up in a few minutes and free the line.

When everybody shows these little courtesies, everyone benefits!

College Makes Post

Swarthmore College, Bryn Mawr and Haverford made the Saturday Evening Post last week (October 8 issue) with the publication of Robert M. Yoder's article "Station Wagon College." The article, beautifully illustrated with color pictures, describes the results of the three colleges' eight-year experiment in sharing professors and facilities in an effort to meet the small college problem of not enough teachers and not enough courses.

"All hands seem agreed that the Philadelphia coalition is working fine," Mr. Yoder says. "The three colleges have found that they can cooperate while disagreeing happily on many a point. What they have done over the last three years is to form a loose, easy fitting federation without giving up a nickel's worth of autonomy or character."

The presidents of the three colleges, John Nason of Swarthmore, Katharine McBride of Bryn Mawr and Gilbert White of Haverford are pleased with the scheme, according to Mr. Yoder, who comments: "Plans by which everyone gains and nobody loses are rare; this seems to be one of them. No one has put dollar-and-cents values on the collaboration, but obviously each college has more in the way of instruction and equipment than it had alone."

Holds Open House

The Sponsor's Committee of the Open House Group for Older Swarthmoreans, which was organized last March under the guidance of George Bowen, Philadelphia Recreation Association, met October 8 at the home of Mrs. Harold March, Elm Avenue, to complete plans for the present season.

Those present were Mrs. John H. Pitman, Alice Lukens, Mrs. Roger Russell, Florence Magilton, Mrs. Gordon Clark, Mrs. Lloyd Kauffman, and Rosamund Jones.

Organizations of the community represented include the Recreation Association, Woman's Club, Presbyterian Church, Strath Haven Inn, Junior Women's Club, Methodist Church, and community-at-large. Committee members representing other organizations interested in this project were unable to be present at this meeting.

Mrs. March was re-elected chairman with Miss Jones secretary-treasurer replacing Miss Magilton who was unable to serve as officer this year.

Some of the problems considered involved transportation needed for various members of the Group, suitable meeting places, leadership, hostesses and helpers for meetings, and financing.

Places for meeting were offered, and it was decided to hold the Open House which comes every two weeks, in the Methodist Church during the month of October.

Mrs. March will again serve as leader of the program, helpers being appointed by the hostesses. The Committee starts the year financially with contributions voluntarily given last season by members of the Group and interested friends.

The first Open House was held on Monday, October 10, two to four in the afternoon at the Methodist Church with Mrs. Pitman and Mrs. Otto Kraus serving as hostesses.

Industrial Highway Opening
George L. Alston of North Chester road is general chairman of committee of arrangements for the formal opening of the New Industrial Highway which will take place at 4:30 p.m., Friday, October 14, at the Eddystone Avenue Bridge as part of Delaware County's observance of Pennsylvania Week October 17-24.

The Chamber of Commerce of the City of Chester and Delaware County is jointly sponsoring the event with the Committee for the Industrial Highway. A dinner at the Masonic Temple in Chester will follow the commemoration of the completion of the Industrial Highway to Chester, at 6:30 o'clock.

Other Swarthmoreans serving on the committee besides William F. Delehanty, secretary, are William Craemer and David W. R. Morgan.

1949 MUM SHOW AT COLLEGE SHOW

NEW SBA SIGNS

Members of the Swarthmore Business Association which sponsors numerous community affairs such as the approaching annual Halloween parade are now displaying red, white and blue painted aluminum identification plaques.

Year plates are changeable so the plaques can be kept up-to-date each year.

In addition to proclaiming the business' membership in the Association, when displayed the plaque announces to solicitors "No subscription, donation, advertisement or other contribution will be considered by us until you have registered all facts regarding your proposition at the SWARTHMORE BUSINESS ASSOCIATION," and it has been found not to conflict with the principles adopted by the Association.

Headquarters for the Association between monthly meetings which are held at the Strath Haven Inn are at the Bouquet Beauty Salon, 9 South Chester road, in care of Robert Honeyford, secretary.

Madeleine Carroll To Appear At College

Madeleine Carroll, noted stage and screen actress, will appear at the Swarthmore Friends Meeting House Tuesday, October 18, to show a movie and deliver a talk on a French school in which she is interested.

Miss Carroll's lecture, brought to Swarthmore under the auspices of the college Little Theatre Club, in cooperation with the American Friends Service Committee, is scheduled for 4:30 p.m. It follows a tea to be given in honor of the actress in Whitaker House at 4 p.m.

The Hollywood and Broadway star is making several other appearances in the Philadelphia area during the run of the play "Good Bye, My Fancy," in which she is featured.

Auxiliary To Hold Sale
A Rummage Sale is to be planned at the monthly meeting of the Legion Auxiliary, to be held at the home of Mrs. Herbert T. Bassett, 500 North Chester road, Monday, October 17. Every member who can keep this date, is asked to be present.

The Rummage Sale is scheduled for October 19 and 20. All articles to be donated, will be collected, if desired, upon telephoning Swarthmore 2315 or 0292.

Swarthmore friends are urged to aid the Auxiliary by donations of household goods or clothing. This help will mean more extensive work in Welfare and Hospital branches.

To Give Book Review
Mrs. Paul Townner will give a book review Saturday, October 22 at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. F. D. Windell, 800 Westdale Avenue, who is chairman of Circle No. 3 of the W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church.

Dilworth To Speak Here
Richardson Dilworth, candidate for Mayor of Philadelphia in the last Mayoralty campaign, will speak in the Friend's Meeting House, Monday afternoon, October 17 at 1 o'clock. Dilworth, lawyer, veteran, is now engaged in a campaign to be elected City Treasurer on November 8. His bid for election is supported by the Democratic Party, SDA, ADA, the Independent Citizen's Campaign, and the Independent Republicans.

100 AT PEO TEA

Members of Chapter P, Swarthmore, of the PEO Sisterhood, held a tea for more than 100 guests at the home of Mrs. Frank G. Keenen of Harvard Avenue on Friday afternoon.

Representatives from eight other chapters in the Philadelphia area, three from chapters in Wilmington, Del. and guests of local members attended.

Mrs. Louise Sears of Park Avenue, charter member and first president of Chapter P, was guest of honor at the tea. Mrs. Sears celebrated her seventy-fifth birthday anniversary during the summer and has been a member of PEO for 35 years. Before coming to Swarthmore, she belonged to a chapter in Omaha, Neb., and was active in helping to establish the PEO home in Nebraska. Mrs. Sears is one of three members of her family who belong to PEO, the others being her daughter, Mrs. Steven Spencer of Ogden Avenue, and her sister, Emma Besche of Park Avenue.

Mrs. Keenen, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements, was assisted by Mrs. George Hires, of Media and Mrs. B. F. Schwalm of North Chester road. Members of the chapter served as hostess and officers, including Mrs. Elliott Powers, vice-president; Mrs. Guy de Furia, recording secretary; Mrs. Jack Thompson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. George Karns, treasurer; Mrs. William B. Pugh Jr., chaplain; Mrs. Charles W. Card, guard, and Mrs. Paul Fetzer, past president, poured.

The tea table was decorated in yellow and white, PEO colors. Flower arrangements were arranged by Mrs. Schwalm.

Here are the NEW PTC FARES which become Effective 3 A.M., Tuesday, October 18

KIND OF TRIP	PRESENT FARES	NEW FARES	REMARKS
Single-vehicle trip within the City on streetcar, trackless trolley, subway-elevated or rail-substitute bus line.	10c	10c	No change
Single-vehicle trip within the City on regular bus lines.	12½c token or 13c	12½c token or 13c	No change
Two-vehicle trip within the City, regardless of kind of vehicles used.	Some trips 10c Others 12½c token or 13c	3½c token plus 10c	Ask for a "TRANSFER" at time fare is paid. Transfer will be issued on payment of a 3½c token in addition to the 10c cash fare. (If token is not used, the transfer charge will be 5c.)
More-than-two-vehicle trip within the City, regardless of kind of vehicles.	Same as above	15c	Ask for an "EXCHANGE" at time 15c fare is paid.
School trip within the City at reduced fare.	7½c or 10c	7½c or 10c	No change
Suburban trip, each zone (excepting Route 84 and Langhorne Division of Route 8).	7c	8c	Suburban zone fare on Route 84 and Langhorne Division of Route 8 remains unchanged, 12½c token or 13c.

THE NEW PTC fare structure prescribed by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission retains the present fare charges for single-vehicle trips within the City but eliminates free transfers except in connection with reduced rates for school fares, which remain unchanged.

The costs of providing transit service in Philadelphia have greatly exceeded the income of the transit system so far this year. The additional revenue from the new fares is urgently needed to put the Philadelphia Transportation Company in a position where it can continue to give its riders good transit service.

This is the first time that a fare structure, with charges for transfers, has been prescribed in Philadelphia. PTC will do everything in its power to make the transition from the old fare schedule smoothly and with the least possible inconvenience to patrons. We do, however, ask your patience. PTC employes have been thoroughly instructed in the details of the new fare structure. They will cooperate in answering questions and in explaining the various changes.

PTC will welcome the opportunity to make prompt adjustment in any case in which a passenger, through his own misunderstanding or ours, has been overcharged. Such incidents should be reported to the Company at its offices, 1405 Locust St., Philadelphia 2.

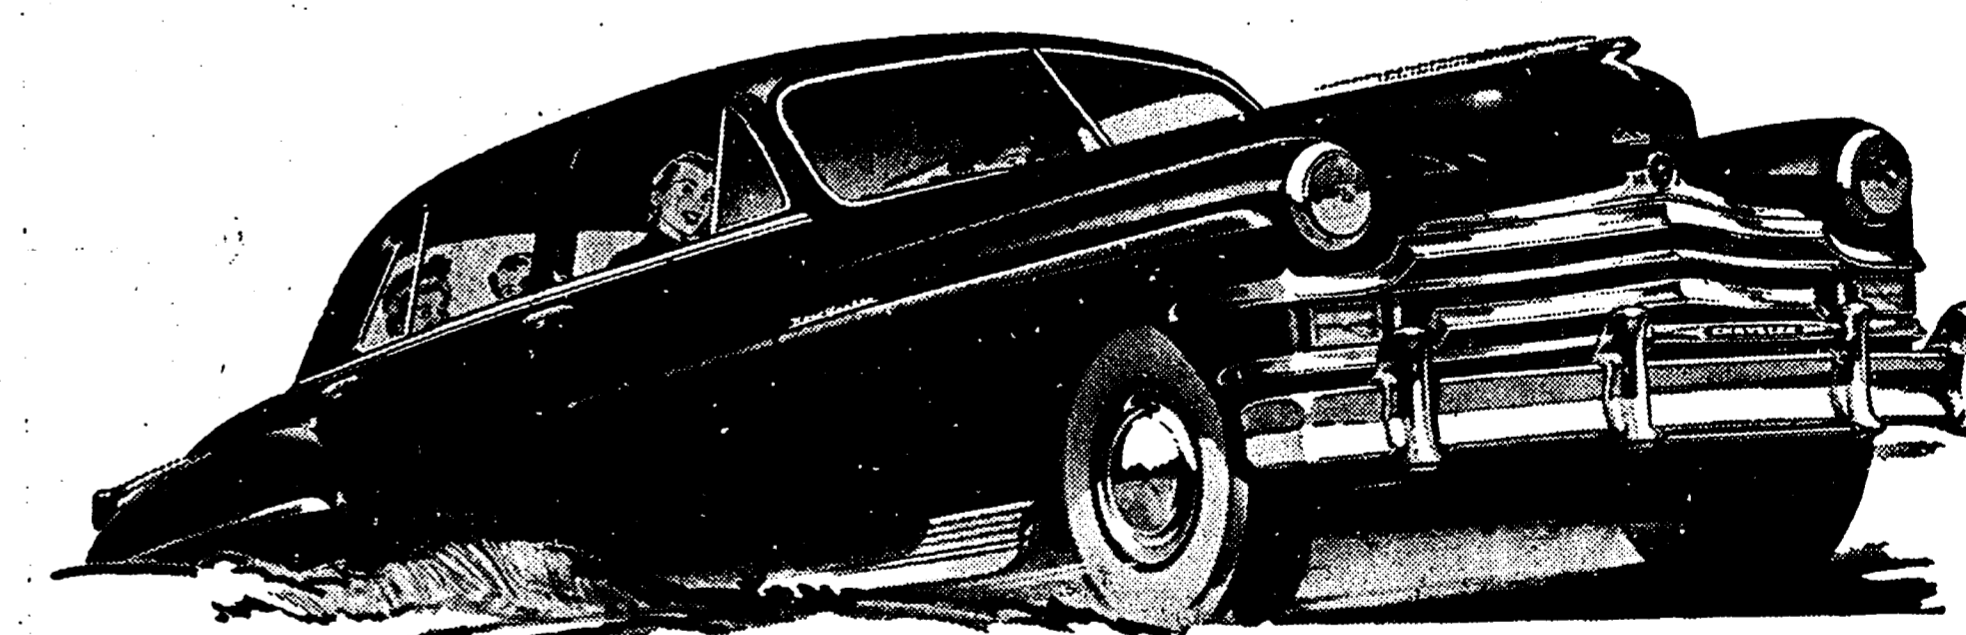

In Summary:

- To make any two-vehicle ride, please ask for a Transfer. Fare—3½c token plus 10c cash.
- To make a ride over present multiple-ride routings that requires more than two vehicles, please ask for an Exchange. Fare—15c cash.

- Fares for single-vehicle rides within the City remain unchanged.
- The 3½c token (3 for 10c) will not be good for payment of fare. It may be used only for obtaining a transfer ticket at time 10c cash fare is paid.
- Full details of the new fare structure will be found in folders available on all PTC vehicles.

Mothers Hear Panel

At Monthly Meeting
Thursday night October 13 marked the opening of the regular monthly meetings of the Mothers' Club. At this time there was a panel discussion "Where Does Mother Belong?" The two mothers who represented a career or profession with the running of a home were Mrs. Joseph Reynolds and Mrs. Robert Spiller. For the mothers who stay at home and have community activities as their outside interests Mrs. Peter Coste and Mrs. Leonard Dart were the speakers.

After the question period which followed the panel, refreshments were served by Mrs. Theodore Furnell, Hospitality Chairman, and her committee.

Preceding the discussion there was a short business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Walter N. Mohr, president. The officers and members of the board were introduced to those assembled. Plans for the Bake Sale to be held Saturday, October 22 from 10 a. m. to noon at Sipler's Hardware Store was announced.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Conwell of Columbia avenue will entertain as their dinner guests following the Penn-Navy game tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith of Wallingford, and Mr. and Mrs. William Sletyer of Germantown.

GIRL SCOUTS

Girls of Scout Troop 16 congregated Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock for an overnight expedition at the Scout House. The group of 16 made a visit to former Scout leader Mrs. Raymond Winch and her young daughter of Dickinson avenue.

Upon their return to the Scout House, the girls prepared their evening meal over the outdoor fireplace on small tin can stoves and buddy burners which each Scout had made. This was followed by an interesting evening's program of songs and skits by the indoor fireplace. The entertainment was supplemented by refreshments furnished by the mothers of the Troop.

Following a night's rest at the Scout cabin, the girls again cooked their own breakfasts, carrying out a new idea whereby each girl furnishes her own equipment and food.

After the process of cleaning up, all returned home Tuesday morning after a happy holiday. Camp directors were Mrs. Walter Magee, Scout leader, assisted by Mrs. Mary Baker.

Dr. Leroy Peterson of Vassar avenue spent the week-end in Oberlin, Ohio attending a meeting of the Oberlin College Alumni Club Presidents Council and representing the Philadelphia area Oberlin Club.

Letters To The Editor

The opinions expressed below are those of the individual writers. All letters to The Swarthmorean must be signed. Pseudonyms may be used if the identity of the writer is known to the Editor. Letters will be published only at the discretion of the Editor.

To The Editor:

During the next few weeks we shall all have the opportunity of participating in an important co-operative enterprise, the financing of the many hospitals, health, child care, and other services rendered by the 160 agencies of the Community Chest. No, there won't be 160 people ringing our doorbells. One person will call, but he will be seeking our support for all of the Red Feather Agencies, many of which operate in Delaware County. In fact, last year more money was spent in Delaware County by these agencies than was collected here in the campaign.

"How much should I give?" Each of us must answer this according to his own lights. If we think that life would be just as pleasant without the hospitals, day nurseries, visiting nurses, boys' clubs, U.S.O., homes for the aged and blind, and such organizations, then let's give our neighbor who rings our bell just a smile. But, if we, even though we personally may have no cause to call on any of these 160 organizations, get a lift from the help and joy which we know they contribute annually to thousands of others then maybe we should open our hearts—and our pocket-books—a little wider.

"Everybody benefits... Everybody gives."

Sewell W. Hodge,
Director, Swarthmore District

College Theater

Begins Rehearsals

The Swarthmore College Little Theater Club, under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Lange, has begun rehearsals for "Lady Precious Stream," its fall production to be presented in the College Commons at 8:15 p. m. from Thursday, November 3, through Sunday, November 6.

A Chinese classic of unknown origin, "Lady Precious Stream" was first translated into English for a London presentation in 1934. The Swarthmore theater group selected it in accordance with its policy of developing the various forms of the drama and because little work has been done with the Chinese drama in this country.

The use of the Commons for the play will enable the Little Theater Club to employ the arena style of presentation. Rapidly growing in popularity, this style does away with use of a stage and scenery. It also brings the audience closer to the actors who are permitted to express themselves more freely than on a conventional stage.

Suzanne Braman, a sophomore from Washington, D. C., will play the woman's lead opposite Chuck Andes, Swarthmore, another sophomore. Both were active in college dramatics last year.

CHILDREN'S PLAY AT TOWN HALL

The next presentation of the Mae Desmond Children's Theatre at Town Hall, Philadelphia, will be the famous fairy tale "The Sleeping Beauty" on Saturday, November 5, at 2:30 p. m.

A delightful version of the story of the gentle princess who pricked her finger and slept for one hundred years, the play includes enchanted scenes depicting the rainbow fairy dancing about the cradle of the tiny princess; the saucy little flower girl mimicking the pompous butler as he tries to show them how to strew flowers, the handsome prince awakening the sleeping beauty with a kiss, the haughty queen, kind king, devoted Nanny, petulant Prince Rupert, the gay peasant children.

ANSWER BLOOD UNIT QUESTIONS

The visit of the Red Cross Blood Mobile unit to Swarthmore on November 9 from 1 to 7 p.m. at the Woman's Club has raised many questions among borough citizens. In an effort to clear up any misunderstandings Mrs. Phelps Soule chairman of the Blood Committee, Mrs. Franklin Flaherty chairman of Donor Procurement, and Mrs. Horace Hopkins, Red Cross Branch chairman, wish to emphasize the following points.

The Delaware County Medical Society approved the Red Cross Program last winter. The program had already been approved by National Medical and Hospital groups. At the start of the program in April only two Delaware County hospitals were included to be sure blood would be available when needed. Now all the hospitals in this area are included. The question of charge for the blood constantly recurs Mrs. Soule stated. There is no charge for the blood. Hospitals do charge for administering it, and these charges vary in the different hospitals. The cost of the Red Cross Blood Program is met by individual donations in the Annual Fund Drive in March.

The blood is never wasted. It keeps under refrigeration as whole blood for three weeks. If it has not been used for transfusion during that time, it is sent to a commercial laboratory for fractionation into derivatives such as Immune Serum Globulin, Antihemophilic Globulin and many others. There is no charge for these derivatives.

Mrs. Soule urges all able bodied citizens to support the Peace Time Blood Program. Donors will have the satisfaction of having performed a humanitarian act as well as determining their blood type.

Call Swarthmore 2465, Mrs. Flaherty, for an appointment.

To Show Movie

"Give a Pint-Save a Life" a Red Cross short on the Blood Program will be shown through the courtesy of the College Theatre during the week of October 30 to November 3. Mrs. Phelps Soule urges everyone who can attend, to do so.

Friendly Circle Active

Mrs. W. Mark Bittle and Mrs. Charles G. Thatcher were hostesses to the Friendly Circle meeting held at Mrs. Bittle's home, 125 Rutgers avenue on Thursday, October 20. Twenty-eight members were present.

The Circle has contributed its annual gift of 22 articles to the Needlework Guild. The project of Thanksgiving baskets was discussed and all members are asked to bring canned goods (two cans) to the next meeting, or leave them with Mrs. Bittle if it is impossible to be present.

At the conclusion of the business session, a social hour was enjoyed.

Lewis Alerts Women

"If one is against the welfare state, he faces first of all the fact that we live in a world of welfare states and do business with them. Practically every major country in the world and most smaller ones have full-employment programs, unemployment insurance, pensions for old-age disability, housing subsidies. Many have compulsory health insurance, farm supports, and emergency spending for times of depression.

"Few of us would go back to the days when hunger and destitution in our midst or provision for old-age and dependency, was left either to chance or to organized private philanthropy. At the same time, the opponent of the welfare state feels that there is some place where the line can be drawn between what is a private or local matter or what is properly the function of government."

The definition of this function is the root of the matter, said Mr. Lewis, reminding listeners that the founders of this country used the term welfare in the sense of the common good, and that "in spite of the basically competitive spirit of our free enterprise history, the comfort, security, and welfare of our people has been the envy of the world."

Facing the fact that welfare, in the narrow sense of the word, is here to stay, some at national, state, or local levels, Mr. Lewis said that it is hopeless to think that federal administration of welfare can ever be anything but mechanical and challenged a local welfare department to be "a sort of community intelligence center, for focusing attention on the needs of the community and simplifying processes of modern community life."

If we have lost the battle, he said, we have lost it in our own back yard, from refusal to accept the responsibilities of citizenship. All but a very few of the attitudes and abilities as a responsible citizen are developed right in one's own community.

He then asked his audience detailed and comprehensive questions about the operation of the Borough of Swarthmore. To be able to answer everyone would be a large order, he said, but to answer none or only one or two is a serious indictment of anyone who thinks he is a good citizen.

"No democracy can survive if its people are uninformed or disinterested in the processes of democracy. What goes on in the United Nations or on Capitol Hill is only the reflection of what goes on in thousands of communities that make up a nation. A man lives not in a nation or family of nations, a man lives in a community of people.

"Let us therefore, before we condemn the welfare state, ask ourselves what we are doing to promote the welfare of our own community. In a society where welfare is literally everybody's business, the term welfare state will be one which unites instead of divides us. What we do here is the real determination of what lies ahead in the future."

Mrs. F. H. Forsythe, president of the club, presented Mr. Lewis adding to his many qualifications the fact that as the brother of the Clubs program chairman Mrs. Donald L. Hibbard he had a very real claim upon his Swarthmore audience.
