DR. A. E. BASSETT BURIED MONDAY

Ex-Councilman, School
Board Head Had Heart
Condition

Dr. Arthur E. Bassett, who contributed greatly to the development of this community, was buried in West Laurel Hill cemetery, Philadelphia Monday morning following 11 o'clock services at Oliver Bair's. Dr. Bassett died suddenly at 2 a.m. Friday at his home on North Chester road where he had maintained dental offices for the past three years. Formerly he was associated with Dr. George P. Warren in the Medical Arts Building, Philadelphia.

Although he had not been in perfect health for eight years and had suffered considerably with a heart ailment since last Christmas, Dr. Bassett pursued his photographic hobby at the borough hall groundbreaking on January 20 and continued to create toys for his grandchildren in the extensive basement woodworking shop to which he was devoted.

Born in Philadelphia November 3, 1886 he came to Swarthmore in 1895 with his parents, Frank L. and Anna E. Hallowell Bassett, who lived in the Lukens house on North Chester road before building Bassett House at 519 Walnut lane, now part of Swarthmore College and used as faculty apartments.

A graduate of the old Swarthmore Preparatory School and the University of Pennsylvania Dental School, Dr. Bassett married in 1910. After three years in West Philadelphia he moved to an apartment on Elm avenue. Since 1915 he had lived at 307 North Chester road, next to Trinity Episcopal Church.

Dr. Bassett served on Borough Council from 1926 until 1930 and on the School Board 1929 through 1935, being president of the latter from February 1931 to December 1935. He acted as borough health officer during the flu epidemic in World War I, and in 1935 was one of the pioneer leaders in raising funds for infantile paralysis relief. He had been president

Burgess Seeks Civilian
Aid In Safety Measures

A Civil Defense Council for the protection of citizens in the event of a disaster has been organized in the Borough of Swarthmore. In presenting the set-up to the public, Burgess Charles R. Russell, Defense Co-ordinator, expressed the hope that citizens would volunteer their services to one of the eight operating divisions.

Superintendent of Schools Frank R. Morey is in charge of Education and Welfare, Division One. Chief of Police Thomas Bateman is in charge of Security. Chairman of Communications is Ralph S. Hayes, and Charles Thatcher is chairman of the Division of Utilities, Transportation and Industry.

Pleas for volunteers have already come from Chief of the Fire Department John Rumsey, Chief of Air Warden Service Peter E. A statewide Air Raid will be staged February 10 and 11. The goal of the Red Cross is to train one of every six individuals in First Aid and Home Nursing. Four former instructors are taking refresher courses preparatory to giving courses in First Aid. ## WOMEN TO JOIN WORLD PRAYER

World Day Of Prayer
Service Friday
February 9

The Interdenominational Council of local Church women calls Christians in the community to observe the World Day of Prayer on Friday, February 9. The Swarthmore Service will be held in the Friends Meeting House on the College Campus at 2 p.m.

This year's prayer has for its theme "Perfect love casts out fear", from the I John 4:18. It was selected by the church women of Germany, who also assisted in the program preparation. The prayer which is printed on a small card which many women carry throughout the entire year, asks "God for peace in our distraught minds and peace among nations . . . for unity in the Church . . . (and freedom from) pride of race and culture."

The uniform prayer will be first spoken by Christian women in the Fiji Islands, 30 miles east of the International Date Line. It will be echoed by Christian women in 92 nations around the world, in hundreds of languages and dialects, until the final "Amen" is spoken by Eskimos in the Arctic and by Micronesians on their tropical islands in the Southwest Pacific.

More than 17,000 communities in the United States will participate in the World Day of Prayer observance. In some, business houses will close and church bells ring hourly. Hospitals will distribute copies of the prayer to their patients theaters will project the prayer on the screen, and special services will be held in institutions.

treatment of successive prison terms for resistance to different steps in the conscription process. We blamed the Germans vigorously because they did not resist such encroachments by the Nazis. Now whose footsteps are we following? Is it any wonder West Germans turn cynical when we ask them to rearm?

It is too easy for those of us who do not have sons and brothers buried in Flanders Fields, when we have our homes and factories intact, to forget the frightfulness of modern war: millions killed, millions crippled, millions driven from pillar to post, buildings built with human toil wrecked in our supposedly civilized world.

Against Militarism

To The Editor, These are indeed critical days for the human family. Justice and liberty we went to attain and defend. How is it to be done? Professor Arnold Toynbee in his study, of 6,000 years of human history leaves one with a very uneasy realization that nations which have depended on military operations eventually all succumb from inner exhaustion. Is that what we are about to start doing? Militarization is a very subtle step of freedom. Step by step regimentation extends until the individual is a pawn in the power of the state. Compulsory service, military or otherwise, regimented controls of materials, prices and incomes can so easily accustom a population to submission that they forget the worth of initiative and freedom. Already in a "land of freedom" we are subjecting sincere Conscientious Objectors to the "cat and mouse" game.

itary service for anyone; disarmament for all to local police status; no army for Germany, none for Japan; generous help by at least our Nation to its "enemies." We cannot compete in manpower with Asia but we can help them with skills. Communism can be kept from the U.S.A. far better by freedom and a satisfactory standard of living at home than by exhausting ourselves with military expenditures.

"If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink; overcome evil with good." J. Passmore Elkinton

Urges Support of U.N.

Dear Sir: The Swarthmore League of Women Voters is concerned about the growing isolationist sentiment in the country as reflected in recent speeches by prominent citizens and echoed in mail to Congress. We realize the complexities of the issues and that there are no black and white solutions. Nevertheless, the League urges that we continue to seek a solution through the UN rather than succumb to a spirit of defeatism which might lead us to withdraw within our own shores. The League urges its members and other citizens who share its concern to make their sentiments known to our representatives in Congress and to the Secretary of State.

and treasurer of the Academy of Stomatology, president of the Rittenhouse Astronomical Society, and was a member of the Swarthmore Friends Meeting, Xi Psi Phi dental fraternity, the Miniature Camera Club and the Photographic Society of Philadelphia. He was elected to the board of governors of the Players Club of Swarthmore in May 1939 and served for two years.

Surviving are his wife, Vernon Waddell Bassett; three children, Mrs. Ralph V. Little, Jr. of Haverford place; James W. Bassett of Wonder, Ore.; and Mrs. David W. Cochrane of Upland; his mother Mrs. F. L. Bassett of West Chester; two brothers Dr. Norman H. of North Chester road; and seven grandchildren.

Although several of the forward looking projects Dr. Bassett fostered narrowly missed realization—such as opening a road connecting Park and Rutgers avenues at the post office, and taking the southern quarry area and site of the historic Leiper railroad into the Borough, Swarthmoreans enjoy an improved community today because Dr. Bassett worked tirelessly toward many features which were effected.

The borough has grown and changed tremendously in the last 15 years. Perhaps the following resolution passed by the Swarthmore School Board on November 11, 1935 can best show what the community owes to Dr. Bassett: "To Dr. Arthur E. Bassett, Esteemed colleague, wise counsellor, firm friend, President, Board of School Directors, Swarthmore, Pennsylvania 1931—1935, whose patience, fairness, and sense of justice have combined to make in him an inspiring leader and impartial president officer.

WHEREAS, The term of Dr. Arthur E. Bassett has been distinguished by notable progress in all services of the School District—the erection of the Rutgers Avenue Grade School, the College

Avenue Grade School, the Shop Building, and the Gymnasium-cafeteria Unit; also the extension and enrichment of the curriculum, the improvement of instruction, and the increased efficiency of the teaching staff, and

WHEREAS, All these achievements have been wrought while at the same time school taxes have been systematically reduced, and

WHEREAS, As President of the Board of School Directors, Dr. Arthur E. Bassett has by his tact, fidelity, and sympathy maintained such harmony and good will as to have made our services under his presidency a pleasurable experience,

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RE-

SOLVED, That we, his colleagues, do hereby acknowledge our appreciation of the public service unselfishly and devotedly rendered by him.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be recorded on the minutes of the School District of Swarthmore and a copy thereof, subscribed by each of his colleagues of the Board, be transmitted to him with an expression of esteem and affection."

- Establish 40 hour week for yardmen with additional 2 cents effective October 1, 1950, and additional 2 cents effective January 1, 1951.
- Set aside 40 hour week agreement until January 1, 1952, and establish 6 day work week for yardmen. Effective with the first pay roll period after 30 days from the date of execution of the formal agreement, yardmen required by the carrier to work on the 7th day to be paid overtime rates except engineers who shall receive straight time rates for the 7th day. This does not create guarantees where they do not now exist. On and after October 1, 1951, three months' notice to be given of desire to go on 40 hour week. Provide for consideration of availability of manpower and 4 cents per hour if and when the 40 hour week actually becomes effective.
- Settle rules for 40 hour week and 6 day week.
- Grant yard conductors and brakemen other rules such as daily earnings minimum, car retarder operators and footboard yardmasters as recommended by Emergency Board No. 81.
- Settle following rules: Initial Terminal Delay (Conductors and Trainmen) Interdivisional Runs Pooling Caboose (Conductors and Trainmen) Reporting for Duty More than One Class of Service Switching Limits Air Hoses (Conductors and Trainmen) Western Differential and Double Header and Tonnage Limitation (Conductors and Trainmen, all Territories)
- Road men to receive 5 cents per hour increase effective October 1, 1950 and additional 5 cents per hour increase effective January 1, 1951.
- Quarterly adjustment of wages on basis of cost of living index (1 point to equal 1¢ per hour. First adjustment April 1, 1951. Base to be 176).

8. Agreement embodying principles applicable to yardmasters to be entered into for benefit of yardmasters.
9. Effective October 1, 1950, the basic hours of dining car stewards shall be reduced from 225 to 205 hours per month; no penalty overtime to accrue until 240 hours have been worked, the hours between 205 and 240 to be paid for at the pro rata rate.
Effective February 1, 1951, overtime at time and one-half shall accrue after 220 hours have been worked. The basic monthly salary to be paid for the 205-hour month shall be the same as that now paid for the 225-hour month. Except that four dollars and ten cents ($4.10) shall be added to the present monthly rate effective January 1, 1951.
10. In consideration of above, this agreement to be effective until October 1, 1953, and thereafter until changed or modified under provisions of Railway Labor Act. Moratorium on proposals for changes in wages or rules until October 1, 1953, as follows:
No proposals for changes in rates of pay, rules or working conditions will be initiated or progressed by the employees against any carrier or by any carrier against its employees, parties hereto, within a period of three years from October 1, 1950, except such proposals for changes in rules or working conditions which may have been initiated prior to June 1, 1950. Provided, however, that if as the result of government wage stabilization policy, workers generally have been permitted to receive so-called annual improvement increases, the parties may meet to discuss whether or not further wage adjustments for employees covered by this agreement are justified, in addition to increases received under the cost of living formula. At the request of either party for such a meeting, Doctor Steelman shall fix the time and place for such meeting. Doctor Steelman and the parties may secure information from the wage stabilization authorities or other government agencies. If the parties are unable to agree at such conferences whether or not further wage adjustments are justified they shall ask the President of the United States to appoint a referee who shall sit with them and consider all pertinent information, and decide promptly whether further wage increases are justified and, if so, what such increases should be, and the effective date thereof. The carrier representatives shall have one vote, the employee representatives shall have one vote and the referee shall have one vote.

11. If the parties cannot agree on details of agreement or rules they shall be submitted to John R. Steelman for final decision.
The usual protections for arbitrators, miscellaneous rates, special allowances, and existing money differentials above existing standard daily rates will be included in the formal agreement.
The foregoing will not debar management and committees on individual railroads from mutually agreeing upon changes in rates, rules and working conditions of employees covered by this agreement.

Blood Unit Plans Two Trips
The Blood Mobile Unit will come to Swarthmore College on April 13 and again on May 11 to make a separate visit to the Borough. The quota on each occasion will be 150 pints of blood. It is hoped that by announcing the date early individual plans may be made to donate blood so that the quota may be filled.

The Presbyterian Church has announced February 7 as Red Cross Day. All sewing done on that day at the Church will be donated to the Red Cross.

Young Hostesses Needed
Additional hostesses between the ages of 18 and 22 are needed at the hospitals to assist in entertaining the younger men who have been injured in Korea. These girls will be supervised by older women. Volunteers may call Mrs. John Good, Swarthmore 6-0690.

The Junior Red Cross group is already working on Valentine and Easter gifts for the hospitals. The Seventh and Eighth Grade group is working under the supervision of eight interested grade mothers. The Volunteer Services are functioning regularly and on a very much accelerated program. Their objective is to be able to handle small emergencies and to cooperate with the Civil Defense program in any major disaster. A number of new members have volunteered their services; but the work continues to increase and more help is needed.

Plans for coordinating the Red Cross and Civil Defense programs are well underway and when completed will be announced in The Swarthmorean.

IN YOKAHAMA
Lt. Col. William H. Hardesty, Jr., of Ridley Park, has been assigned to the Quartermaster Section of the Japan Logistical Command, with headquarters in Yokahama. Prior to his present assignment, he served in a similar capacity with Headquarters, Eighth Army. Colonel Hardesty arrived in the Far East Command in August, 1948.

Col. Hardesty is the son of W. Howard Hardesty, of RD No. 1, Providence Road, Media. He attended Swarthmore High School and in 1933, graduated from Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., with a bachelor of arts degree.

SPORTS
Mephisto heaved a significant snort. When he saw the names in modern sport, this is going to suit me fine. Lots of these fellows are buddies of mine.

He felt justified in the hunch. He had fallen upon a ferocious bunch. Owls and eagles to scratch and claw. Wolverines and wildcat quick on the draw. Mustang ponies and longhorn steers. Pittsburgh Pirates as buccaners. Bulldogs to bite, Indians to scream. Giants and Warriors of great esteem. But instead of fragments strewn around. With arms and legs on the battle-ground. The struggle in earnest had hardly begun.

When it proved to be merely organized fun. Instead of slaughter, 'twas plain to see. Good order was kept by the referee. It all worked out on a wonderful plan. Due to the work of this marvelous man.

Eben Lang and David Stone of Cortland, N.Y., juniors at Cornell University, arrived in Swarthmore Friday to spend a week at the Lang home on Maple avenue.

PENN CURATOR TO SPEAK HERE SUNDAY

Dr. Steele, assistant curator of the Babylonian Section of the University of Pennsylvania Museum and professor of Assyriology at the University, has recently returned from a nine month stay in Iran where he led an expedition which explored an ancient Babylonian city.

The Young Adult Group in the Park avenue church, through whose interest the evening services have been resumed, extend a most cordial invitation to young and old in the community to join them.

DR. H. M. HALL TO RESUME CLASSES
Remedial Reading Groups To Include All Grades

Dr. Helen M. Hall, who has conducted remedial reading groups in the high school in recent years is making plans to resume her classes in the near future.

She will extend her work this year to all grades of the high school, selecting a small group from each grade. As a part of the special training in improving the efficiency in reading she will conduct an experiment to find out at what grade level or levels adolescents are most ready to profit by an intensive effort to make their reading as efficient as their intellectual powers would suggest. It has been frequently proven that some interfering handicap, either in the techniques of reading or an emotional outlook, has prevented pupils later from profiting fully from further study, as well as in spending too much time in reading when greater efficiency would permit a wider range of activity.

The work as conducted by Dr. Hall in recent years in the high school has carried on the good work in developmental reading conducted in the grades by Mrs. Abbie C. Enders and Margaret Price.

Dr. Hall has not only had experience at the secondary school and college levels in this reading program, but has made an intensive study of it in preparation of her doctor's thesis on the subject.

Don't let the word "premium", when applied to Old Company's Lehigh anthracite, give you the wrong idea. Actually, Old Company's Lehigh costs you less to burn, because it gives more heat per ton and it lasts longer! That means fewer tons a year... and in the long run you save money.
It's easy to prove this to your own satisfaction. Just let us fill your bin with Old Company's Lehigh premium anthracite, and see how it lasts longer.

ANY HOME IS SUSPECT TERMITES CAN BE IN YOUR HOME NOW AND YOU MAY NOT BE AWARE OF IT! The best method of detection is a complete inspection of your property by an expert. Termites continue to infest houses throughout the year and their presence is usually not detected or suspected until "swarming" begins early in the spring. These "swarming" reproductives are erroneously called flying ants and are the first danger signal noticed by the home owner unless areas of damage and infestation are accidentally uncovered. Now is the time to have a Home Maintenance Control Survey made of your property. A survey will disclose whether or not termites are active in your home. If termites are present we will outline the steps to take to eliminate them. In addition all existing termite hazards will be brought to your attention and corrective steps specified. Home Maintenance Control Surveys are available at a nominal cost to the home owner.

Hospital Announces - Building Fund

Preliminary plans for a $815,000 building fund campaign, which will finance construction of a new four-story wing and extensive modernization of the present main building and annex at Taylor Hospital, were announced last week by the Board of Managers of the Ridley Park institution.

The announcement was made by H. H. Bates, First Vice-President of the Board, coincident with the burning of a mortgage representing the payment of the last installment on the hospital's remaining indebtedness.

The "mortgage-burning" took place at a dinner at the Strath Haven Inn, attended by members of the Board and old friends of the 40 years old hospital.

The contemplated building program, Mr. Bates said, will go far toward meeting the urgent need for additional hospital beds in Delaware County, the most seriously under-hospitalized area in the vicinity of Philadelphia.

Present plans call for 58 additional beds in the new four-story wing.

Based on recommendations of a special Medical Staff Committee with Dr. A. Maxwell Sharpe as Chairman, and the Building Committee of the Board of Managers, headed by the late Donald A. Cressett until his recent death, plans for the construction program are being drawn by George Ewing local architect.

In announcing the Board's decision to go ahead with the development program at this time, Mr. Bates stated that he and his associates on the Board were prompted to take immediate action in the light of a recent State hospital bed shortage study which shows that Taylor Hospital represents the point of most urgent need in this area, as well as the strategic role the hospital may have to play in the County's civil defense plans.

The official State study, revised and approved as of October 10, 1950 showed that 684 additional beds are needed in the County - 349 of this number in the heavily industrial Chester - Ridley Park area.

"Wholly aside from the incalculable value this hospital can have in a military emergency, the enlargement of Taylor Hospital is vitally essential to all of us who live and work in this part of Delaware County. I am confident that our industries and our communities will respond generously to this appeal - our only capital campaign in 28 years," Mr. Bates said.

U.W.F. Hears Amram On "East-West Differences"

The capacity audience in the auditorium of the Media Woman's Club, February 6 indicated popular interest in the question analyzed that night by Philip Amram, attorney of Washington D. C. who spoke on "Can the East-West Differences be Settled" under the auspices of the United World Federalists, West Delaware County Chapter.

"Until there is a power to enforce an agreement between powers, the agreement is worthless," Mr. Amram stated. "The United States will not dare stop the armament race until some power is devised to stop aggression." After years of study of Communism and of eastern Europe at first hand, the speaker believes that the only hope of developing such a force is through change and development of the United Nations.

The World Federalists' purposes are "To achieve permanent peace and thus to free all peoples from the fear of War, through universal disarmament enforced by law; to release for the satisfaction of human needs the resources at present used for preparation for war; and to unite in a common purpose all peoples who genuinely desire Peace."

At present there is a bill before Congress which aims to increase the powers of the United Nations so that it may make and enforce laws forbidding aggression and limited armament. Walter C. Miller, moderator at the meeting, urged the audience to study this bill and give it support.

NEW PTC FARES

NOW IN EFFECT

New fares to help meet the increased costs of providing service are now effective on all PTC vehicles in Philadelphia

THESE ARE THE NEW FARES:

SINGLE-VEHICLE RIDE 13 1/2c token (3 for 40c) or 15c cash

TWO-VEHICLE RIDE 15c cash--the same as before

MORE-THAN-TWO-VEHICLE RIDE

(made in accordance with established exchange privileges and multiple-ride routings) 15c cash plus 1c for each vehicle used above two

7 1/2c school tickets for children attending tuition-free schools are continued. There is no change in the 8c suburban zone fare nor in the suburban school fare.

Previous established exchange privileges remain. (There are no exchange privileges on bus Route C between Olney ave. and Snyder ave. terminals of Broad St. Subway.)

THE 13 1/2c TOKEN

The new brass-colored 13 1/2c token (3 for 40c) or 15c cash entitles passengers to make any single-vehicle ride--streetcar, bus, subway-elevated or trackless trolley--within the city.

TWO-VEHICLE RIDE

The fare for two-vehicle journeys, 15c cash, is unchanged. Such journeys can be made in exactly the same way as before, in accordance with established exchange privileges. Passengers pay 15c cash on the first vehicle and obtain an exchange ticket.

MORE-THAN-TWO-VEHICLE RIDE

For a ride involving more than two vehicles and made in accordance with established exchange privileges and multiple-ride routings, passengers pay a 15c cash fare on the first vehicle and obtain an exchange as before. But, to obtain a special exchange, passengers pay 1c additional on the second vehicle. If an additional special exchange is required, another 1c is paid on the third vehicle.

FARE ON THE BRIDGE LINE

Fare on the Delaware River Bridge Line between Philadelphia and Camden is now a 13 1/2c token (3 for 40c) or 15c cash, plus a 2 1/2c bridge toll token or 3c cash. If exchange is made in Philadelphia between the Bridge Line and the Market-Frankford Subway-Elevated or intersecting surface lines, passengers now pay a 15c cash PTC fare (and obtain an exchange ticket) plus a 2 1/2c bridge toll token or 3c cash. If more than two vehicles are used, 1c is charged for each special exchange.

REDEMPTION OR USE OF 11 1/4c SILVER-COLORED TOKENS

The use of the 11 1/4c silver-colored tokens has been discontinued. These tokens may be redeemed at the rate of 45c for 4 tokens at the PTC Treasurer's Office, 4th floor, 1405 Locust St., Philadelphia 2, either in person or by mail.

Or, as a matter of convenience, passengers may, up to and including February 12, pay a single-vehicle fare with an 11 1/4c token and 4c, or pay a two-vehicle fare with an 11 1/4c token and 4c.

Reasons Why PTC Must Have a Higher Fare:

- 1. After losing money for two years while fares lagged far behind increased costs, PTC has had to seek an additional $4,200,000 to meet increased costs in 1951. The new two-year and three-year labor agreements account for $2,500,000 of the increase. Higher prices for materials and supplies, higher taxes and other necessary items will account for $1,700,000 more.
2. Although only two months have elapsed since fares were increased in December, we ask you to remember that the increase effective in December had been held up ten long months. Even when finally granted, it represented only a part of the increase needed and requested almost a year ago to help us meet last year's increased wages and last year's increased costs. It provided nothing for the higher 1951 costs that PTC must pay.
3. The new fares will increase the Company's revenue by about 5% and produce $3,600,000 toward meeting the $4,200,000 of added costs.
4. Fare increases, taken together, still amount to far less than the increased prices of most other essential commodities and services.

The new fares are well in line with the 15c fare now found necessary in most big cities. Of the nation's 20 largest cities, 15c cash fares are now in effect in Chicago, Detroit, Baltimore, St. Louis, Washington, Boston, Pittsburgh, Houston, Minneapolis, Cincinnati, Seattle and Kansas City. 15c fares have been applied for in Milwaukee and Buffalo.

Premium Coal is Economy Coal... Don't let the word 'premium' when applied to Old Company's Lehigh anthracite, give you the wrong idea. Actually, Old Company's Lehigh costs you less to burn, because it gives more heat per ton and it lasts longer! That means fewer tons a year... and in the long run you save money. It's easy to prove this to your own satisfaction. Just let us fill your bin with Old Company's Lehigh premium anthracite, and see how it lasts longer.

"In the beginning..."

You seldom realize the great antiquity of the deliciously fresh-tasting water you enjoy today. Yes, it dates from thousands of years ago... from back in the mystical age of Creation. In the beginning, on the second day, the waters were divided by a firmament. Then, on the third day, the waters under the heaven were gathered together unto one place... and this was called the Seas. Later, "there went up a mist from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground."

This was the first rainfall. Through all the years since, the same water has traveled perpetually from sea to sky to land, and back to sea: bringing the rains of summer, the snows of winter, the dews of night.

It is awe-inspiring to ponder on this natural wonder. No less awe-inspiring are the other natural forces—rooted in the mysticism of the earth's beginning—which give us the sciences of hydraulics, electronics, civil engineering, chemistry. Skillfully applied by the men and women of Philadelphia Suburban Water Company, these sciences help assure you an ample, always-ready supply of traditionally wholesome Pure Springfield Water.

Paganini Quartet

The Paganini Quartet, which appears at Clother Memorial on Thursday evening, February 22, at 8:15, takes its name from the four famous Stradivari instruments which it uses. These were once owned by Nicolo Paganini, but after his death were dispersed and were not reassembled for many years.

In our day, Emil Hermann of New York City, a violin dealer, brought the instruments together again. They were acquired for the Paganini Quartet by a noted music patron, Mrs. W. A. Clark.

For six years the Quartet has been a major feature on the American musical scene and has played numerous engagements in Europe and Canada. The members are: Henri Temianka, first violin; Gustave Rosseels, second violin; Charles Froidart, viola; and Adolphe Frezin, violoncello.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Paxson of Vassar avenue are entertaining at their house guest for a few weeks Mr. Wilber Barber of Bolivar, N.Y.

WOMEN ENJOY ONE ACT PLAY

Members of the Woman's Club enjoyed a delightful bit of drama on Tuesday afternoon when the one-act comedy "Three Cents a Day" by Raymond Bosworth was presented under the direction of Mrs. David Bingham, drama chairman. The scene was laid in a circulating library presided over by Mrs. Ted Prescott as manager and her assistant Mrs. William Fugh, Jr., who took the part of a stage struck girl. Into the library came Lina Forest, a famous actress played by Mrs. Willard Crane, Mrs. Jarvis, a star of former days with Mrs. Gordon A. Meader in the role, Mrs. Burgess, who hates the theatre, played by Mrs. Paul Young, and Mrs. Appleton who loves the drama acted by Mrs. Oscar J. Gilcreest.

Mrs. Burgess of the real value of the theatre, reveals her true identity as the famous actress who is the ideal of the rising young actress, Lina Forest. Mrs. Jarvis and Janet are invited to witness the production of the play in which Lina is starring and Mrs. Jarvis decides to return to the stage even though she must play older parts.

Mrs. Gilcreest, as one who loves the drama, added the comedy element by her pseudo-interest in the art.

A stated meeting preceded the program with reports from various committees. The following nominating committee was announced: Mrs. Frank H. McCowan, Mrs. Roy S. Latimer, Mrs. George P. Warren, Mrs. George M. Karns, Mrs. William E. Kistler, and Mrs. John E. Michael, alternate.

The Garden Department conducted a successful plant and cake sale during the afternoon.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Rudolph H. Banks, Mrs. Charles L. Boyle, Mrs. Oscar S. Hart and Mrs. Edward M. Boyd. Mrs. Joseph S. Seal and Mrs. Thomas W. Simpers were at the tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Hopkins of South Chester road left Saturday morning on a two-week automobile trip to Sea Island, Ga., and Jacksonville, Fla.

W.I.L. Delegates Attend Meet In Washington

During the past week the National Board of the Swarthmore International League for Peace and Freedom, composed of officers and delegates from state and local branches, met in Washington last week and wrestled with problems of peace and war. Mrs. William I. Hill of Walnut lane, and Mrs. Duane R. Terry of North Chester road, were two Swarthmore women in attendance. Meetings were held in the chapel of the Methodist Building within one block of Capitol Hill. One half-day was given over to visiting Congressmen and Senators on crucial issues.

The most important interview of the group as a whole was that with Senator McMahon (D. Conn.), who introduced at noon on Thursday a concurrent resolution on world friendship, sponsored by himself and 20 other Senators. The resolution calls on the President to have the text delivered to all nations, including the Soviet Union and all others behind the iron curtain.

The purpose of this message is to lessen the present tension between governments while negotiations to avoid war are proceeding at Lake Success. It was loudly applauded in the Senate.

According to a member of the League, the W.I.L. heartily supports this resolution and expects its newly organized Special Committee for World Reconstruction and World Disarmament, to assist in calling upon men and women everywhere to sponsor it as well as to educate others to realize that "universal disarmament is the only final answer to war". Encouragement for a renewed effort for reconstruction and disarmament at this time has come from many directions, particularly from some Senators, outstanding religious leaders, and from a widely-held concern for bringing into international relations "those positive, moral elements without which we cannot hope for any real security".

Opposition to Universal Military Training and the drafting of 18-year-olds also claimed the attention of the Board. Two public meetings were held, one addressed by Dr. Gertrude Bussey, an International President of the W.I.L., and an official observer at the United Nations; and the other a luncheon meeting addressed by Dr. Randolph Sailer, Professor in the Department of Education in Yenching University, China, on "China and United State Relations".

The public is cordially invited to view Miss Tricker's exhibit, which occupies the second floor lounge at the YWCA's Mid-City Center.

Rodgers, and Philip Jewett, also members of the board, and their wives; Mrs. Glenn Morrow, former Board member, and Mr. Morrow; Harold Ogram, former treasurer, and Mrs. Ogram; Mrs. Henry Shipherd, former assistant librarian, and Mrs. Anne Boulter, librarian at Swarthmore High School.

Letters To The Editor

dacy was endorsed by the Communist Party in 1944. Yet Thomas the liberal, had warned against ruinous intervention at a time when our pro-British, capitalistic reactionaries were blindly backing Roosevelt's war to make the world safe for Communism. Mr. Thomas' statesmanlike predictions are rather startling today. Yet presumably he would be suppressed, among other liberal teachers, by the same ignorant obscurantists and militarists who couldn't even point out the difference between Socialism and Communism. These are the people who interfere with the legitimate work of the F.B.I. by their officious witch-hunting.

CLARIFIES RESOLUTION

To the Editor:

At its meeting on February 20, 1951, the Swarthmore Home and School Association adopted a resolution objecting to certain parts of the pamphlet "The A-B-C's of Atomic Survival", written by Admiral John V. McEluff, Director of Civil Defense in Delaware County, and which is offered for distribution throughout the County. In view of the importance of civil defense because of the serious threat of Communism, it seems desirable to make clear the reasons why some of us felt that it was necessary to raise our voices in this protest.

The resolution adopted by the Home and School Association deplored parts of this bulletin which could be construed as suggesting the suppression of freedom of thought in the schools. Thus, the pamphlet proposes that the schools teach their students specified attitudes which the Admiral holds about the unlikelihood of receiving support from our allies, and that the schools be purged of teachers and ideas which the Admiral at one point chooses to describe as "liberal". It is impossible to escape the idea which lies behind these proposals—that it is a part of the job of civil defense officials to prescribe official and orthodox ideas for students and for the schools.

It is dangerous, I believe, for officials to put such proposals in the emotional setting of fear connected with the Bomb. Readers of the civil defense bulletin are of a frame of mind readily to follow instructions to go to the basement and lie on the floor; but we must be alert not to accept in the same fashion the Admiral's instructions concerning our thoughts and our schools.

Any such proposal is especially dangerous if, as I believe, our Country's greatest resource, in war as well as peace, is the freedom of our minds. Indeed, it is that freedom which most clearly distinguishes our way of life from that of the Communist world and makes our way of life most worthy of defense. Certainly it is inconsistent with that freedom to lay down official "truth" which must be believed and taught in the schools. Those of us who are most opposed to Communism are for that very reason opposed to the approach taken by parts of the bulletin.

I think that it is entirely possible that the author of the civil defense bulletin did not fully intend the sinister implications which seem to follow from his language; but this possibility does not make them less dangerous. Nor could one suppose that a serious threat to our liberties could come alone from a few paragraphs in a single bulletin. There is danger only if we let such proposals go unnoticed and sanction them by our silence. Now, as ever, eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.

Very truly yours,
 John Honnold

URGES OBJECTIVE APPROACH

Dear Editor:

Swarthmoreans have not received their copies of the Civil Defense Council's booklet "A, B, C's of Atomic Survival." This publication has been bought and paid for but is being held back by our town Council because of objections raised by Mr. and Mrs. J. Passmore Elkinton last week and rechecked by the Home and School Association in the form of a resolution Tuesday night. This resolution deplored the so-called attempt on the part of the booklet to restrict our freedom of thought and expression in the schools.

Since admittedly we all cherish our right to think, write, and speak our minds freely we should all battle any attempt to destroy this principle. First, however, before crying "reactionism, Nazism, dictatorship" and hurling it at a public spirited citizen like Rear Admiral John V. McEluff we should look at the facts objectively. We should ask what is the primary purpose of the publication. What are the paragraphs to which objection has been raised? What do they say? How do they say it? Why do they say it?

The primary purpose of the booklet is to disseminate helpful information in case of atomic attack. It confines itself to this purpose with the exception of a few sentences in which the author took the opportunity of hammering home the dangers of Fifth Column activities. He is expressing an opinion which evidently received the backing of the Civil Defense Council. Need we deny a hearing of this viewpoint? Is that freedom?

Let us quote the paragraphs under attack and analyze them: "The time is ripe for schools of all levels to revert to teaching good old-fashioned Americanism. Students should be guided away from so-called Liberal ideas and warned to avoid their communitistic teachings."

"School authorities should 'clean house' of the Communist-tainted Liberal teachers and their dangerous and insidious effects on young minds."

Now then, what is wrong with teaching good old-fashioned Americanism? Such teaching demands the inclusion of freedom to discuss, think and decide issues in democratic fashion.

Students should be guided, he says, not away from Liberal ideas. He obviously means Communism hiding behind the skirts of Liberalism. For Communism, we agree, is not Liberal, it is the essence of orthodoxy and force-compelled conformity. He is warning simply against misleading processes of thought control masked for the unthinking in attractive terms of Liberalism; the use of our freedoms to rob us of freedom.

School authorities should clean house, he says, not of Liberal teachers, but of Communist-tainted Liberal teachers. There is a great difference between the right of a teacher to teach objectively about Communism and the right of a teacher to teach Communism which is not objective but an insidious infiltration of subject matter with a distortion of fact. The latter teaching is accompanied by emotion-arousing material, skillfully employed in spacious and fallacious reasoning. Youngsters are not equipped at the public school level to sort out such sophistries and apply the criteria of truth to test them. We assimilate facts at an earlier age than we achieve sound judgment.

I deplore with all fair-minded people, starting a Salem Witch hunt for Communists. The average individual hasn't enough knowledge of Communism and how it works to distinguish the true Communist. However, when we find beyond question that he does exist why should we permit our freedom to be destroyed by those who hide behind Liberalism, laugh at our stupidity in not being realistic enough to preserve our idealism.

I consider the attempt to prevent the distribution of this booklet an assault upon the right of this community to have all available material on such an important subject as "The A, B, C's of Atomic Survival."

URGES WOMEN TO ENTER POLITICS

The Swarthmore Woman's Club and the League of Women Voters held a joint meeting at the Clubhouse on Tuesday afternoon when Dr. Louise N. Young gave a very informative and stimulating talk. The co-author of "Know Pennsylvania" and author of "Understanding Politics, a Practical Guide for Women", was introduced by Mrs. J. B. West, president of the League of Women Voters.

Dr. Young said that in this country women have always had great power and influence, but they fought for direct participation and the power of the ballot against strong forces and against an unfavorable constitutional setup. It was women who manned the ramparts of the abolition movement, who promoted the temperance movement, free education, the humanitarian movement - all without the ballot. These activities from 1850 to 1920 gave them experience for the suffrage movement.

In 1920 women, Dr. Young continued, swept forward in hordes. The editorials of the period show the terror the bosses felt at the prospect of women gaining the vote.

In spite of the legend that politicians were all corrupt, Dr. Young said, women were advised to get into the parties and look upon politicians as the servants of the people. In 1929-30 women reached the peak in Congress membership. The period of depression was the lowest ebb of their participation. Now the tide should be flowing back.

Dr. Young told the club members that they could do. First, they must abandon the unfortunate connotation of the word politician; every person who participates in a political activity is a politician. Second, they must reevaluate their positions as individuals in society. Women are all sovereign electors, she said, and are needed to complement the function of men. The crucial issue is that women should accept their share of responsibility.

Third, every woman should be a member of at least one voluntary association. Such associations clarify thinking. In the fourth place, women are for the most part consumers, not producers, and the consumers' point of view of looking at the services government should give is essential.

Dr. Young closed with a very urgent appeal for women to accept responsibility, to join one of the political parties, to know the precinct leaders, and give them guidance. "Those who have been chairmen and officers in clubs have the know-how to hold political office, she asserted. Women could and should take over a good share of local politics - hold what she called "the nasty little part-time jobs." By so doing they would learn something of the problems office holders have to face; they would learn the political processes; they would revitalize local government and create a reservoir of trained people.

"As long as the towns control the schools, police forces, etc., we shall never have totalitarian government," said Dr. Young. "The job for us women is in local government. The power trained women can have on this level cannot be overestimated."

Mr. and Mrs. C. Irwin Galbreath of Benjamin West avenue will drive to Baltimore Sunday and will be accompanied home by Mrs. Galbreath's mother Mrs. Charles Horner who will be their house guest next week.

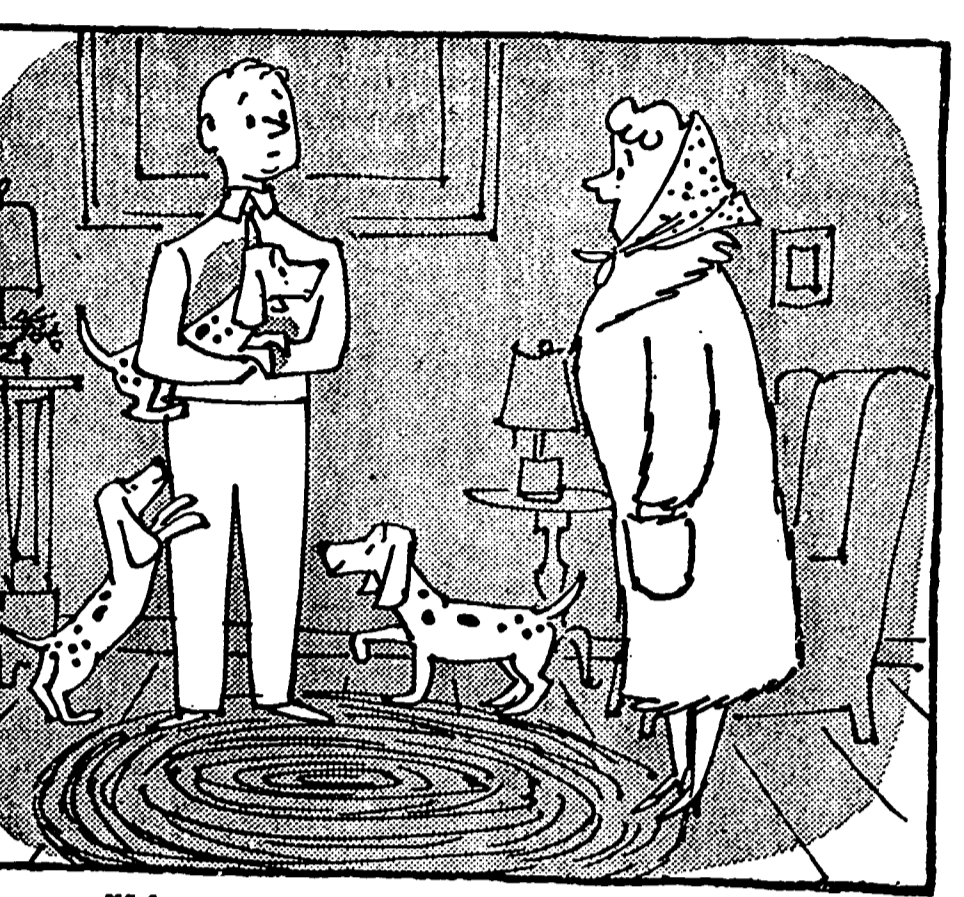

Mr. and Mrs. Theophile Saulnier of Princeton avenue will entertain at a small cocktail party tomorrow afternoon in honor of their weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Argyle of Scarsdale, N.Y., formerly of Swarthmore.

United Peace Chest Drive Launched Here

The United Peace Chest drive was launched last week at the meeting of the Womens International League held at the home of Mrs. Henry Patterson. Mrs. Ida Stabler, Mrs. Warren Paxson, and Mrs. Philip Jewett are organizing the drive in Swarthmore.

The need for support at this time was ably presented by Mrs. Katharine Arnett, a member of the national board of the W. I. L. who told of the work in Washington and in Europe.

The United Peace Chest is the cooperative fund raising agency in the Philadelphia area for the three leading national peace organizations - the Fellowship of Reconciliation, the National Council for the Prevention of War, and the Womens International League for Peace and Freedom. These organizations have been carrying on constructive peace education for over 30 years and give strong support to the United Nations in its efforts for international understanding.

The following women, soliciting in Swarthmore, will welcome at any time contributions from those who feel the urgency of this work: Mrs. William I. Hull, Mrs. Edward Jenkins, Mrs. Roy Lingle, Mrs. Roswell Harris, Mrs. Lucy Waters, Mrs. Dorothy Bravo, Olive Cleaves, Mrs. John Carrol, Mrs. Leonard Dart, Mrs. William Hobbs, Mrs. Ruth Wittmeyer, Mrs. Patrick Mallin, Mrs. Warren Paxson, Mrs. Philip Jewett, and Mrs. Stabler.

S. R. A. Board Meets

Overall plans for the summer recreation program were made at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Swarthmore Recreation Association held at the Borough Hall on February 15.

It is planned to have a program similar to the successful one of last year for the six weeks immediately following the close of the school year. No significant changes were made for the Summer Club program for boys and girls from the third grade up. The Board decided to restrict enrollment in the Pre-School and Primary program to a total of 160, with preference to be given to families which are part of the local community. This limit is the maximum number of children which can be handled at the Rutgers Avenue School.

The Association will sponsor a baseball team in the Delaware County league for boys up to age 13. It is probable that there will be no team in the age 14 and 15 group because most of the boys of that age will be playing with the Legion team. Midget baseball will be combined with the Summer club activities. It has been tentatively decided to schedule no Delaware County league games for this group.

The board delayed setting the fee for this summer's activities until more definite detail plans for the various programs could be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hanford of Harrisburg visited over the weekend with Mrs. Hanford's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Knabb of Princeton avenue.

Arts Center Children's Play Now In Rehearsal

Rehearsals are now in progress at the Community Arts Center for the third annual spring play by the Children's Theatre. Last week a meeting of the adult group, who assist the director, Mrs. Stuart Graves, with some phases of the production, was held at Mrs. Graves' home in Moylan. Although the boys and girls are in charge of most of the work on scenery, properties, and programs, this adult group acts in a supervisory capacity, takes care of the business, and is in charge of the extensive program of poster making which is held during rehearsal time on Saturdays.

Active in this group are Mrs. Raymond Gemmill, Mrs. Herbert Huse, Mrs. Edward Allen, Mrs. Palmer Skoglund, and Mrs. Richard Willis, all of Swarthmore; Mrs. Harry G. Stauffer of Drexel Hill; Mrs. Thomas Johnston of Glendon; Mrs. J. Forrest Schott and Mr. Graves of Moylan; Mrs. Dorothy Williams S. Ash and Mrs. Dorothy Startzman of Rose Valley; Mrs. John McGovern and Mrs. Glenn Middlebrooks of Wallingford; Mr. and Mrs. Ned Pyle, Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Howard Pennell, and Mrs. Donald Turner of Media.

This year's three-act play "The Heart of Gold" is an original written by Mrs. Graves, for the group of 20 boys and 20 girls taking part. It includes characters which boys and girls love to act and love to see, according to the author. It has more than the usual amount of action, for children prefer to see movement on a stage than hear voices.

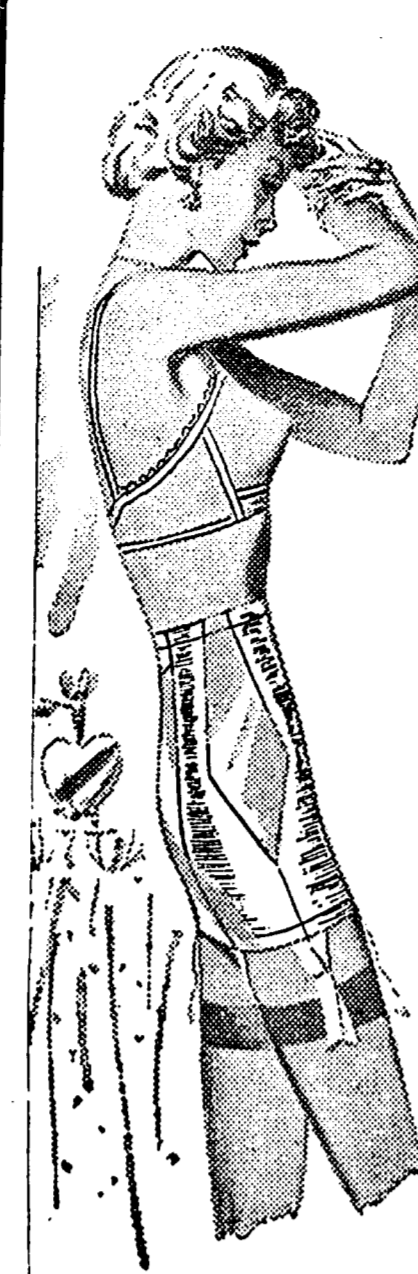

The play will be given in the Swarthmore High School Auditorium both morning and afternoon on April 28. Two performances were decided upon this year, due to the fact that last year many were turned away and the auditorium was overcrowded.

Although the boys and girls are in charge of most of the work on scenery, properties, and programs; this adult group acts in a supervisory capacity, takes care of the business, and is in charge of the extensive program of poster making which is held during rehearsal time on Saturdays.

Active in this group are Mrs. Raymond Gemmill, Mrs. Herbert Huse, Mrs. Edward Allen, Mrs. Palmer Skoglund, and Mrs. Richard Willis, all of Swarthmore; Mrs. Harry G. Stauffer of Drexel Hill, Mrs. Thomas Johnston of Glenolden; Mrs. J. Forrest Scheff and Mr. Graves of Moylan; Mrs. William S. Ash and Mrs. Dorothy Startzman of Rose Valley; Mrs. John McGovern and Mrs. Glenn Middlebrooks of Wallingford; Mr. and Mrs. Ned Fyle, Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Howard Pennell, and Mrs. Donald Turner of Media.

This year's three-act play "The Heart of Gold" is an original written by Mrs. Graves, for the group of 20 boys and 20 girls taking part. It includes characters which boys and girls love to act and love to see, according to the author. It has more than the usual amount of action, for children prefer to see movement on a stage than hear voices.

The play will be given in the Swarthmore High School Auditorium both morning and afternoon on April 28. Two performances were decided upon this year, due to the fact that last year many were turned away and the auditorium was overcrowded.

Eric Johnson Addresses Home And School Meet

More than 100 parents gathered Tuesday evening in the Swarthmore High School Auditorium to hear Eric Johnson, headmaster of the Friends Central School, discuss "What Shall the Schools Teach in Time of Crises?"

Early in his comments Johnson read portions of the controversial atomic survival pamphlet sponsored by the county defense council. In addition to condemning communism, he said, the pamphlet seems to attack the liberal tradition in American education as well as liberal teachers. Johnson pointed out that in our schools and colleges freedom of thought and freedom of teaching were cornerstones of Americanism. He warned against strait-jacketing the minds of youth, and he declared that orthodoxy, whether it be communist or fascist, was dangerous.

Johnson urged parents and teachers to teach children how to live democratically by practice and not by precept. Let them share decisions and take the consequences of unwise choices, he said. Our goal with children is self-discipline and self-direction, and that requires skillful home-school cooperation. The speaker urged adults to help children achieve moments of serenity and reflection each day. He stressed the importance of spiritual values in education pointing out that the community is only as good as the people living in it.

In the business meeting which followed, John O. Hannold, member of the law faculty of the University of Pennsylvania, proposed a resolution which after rather sharp discussion was passed by a vote of 68 to 33. The resolution stated:

"Resolved, that the Swarthmore Home and School Association deplores those portions of the Delaware County Civil Defense Bulletin entitled, "The A, B, C's of Atomic Survival" which might be construed as suggesting limiting freedom of thought in the schools. We call upon those who are concerned with civil defense to give further consideration to the advisability of distributing this material."

In the discussion following adjournment, Robert L. Amsden, high school principal, declared, "Teachers who are totalitarian sympathizers should not be permitted to teach in public schools, but school programs should include units on communism and fascism so that our students may be prepared to deal with these ideas and practices when they meet them in life."

George Plowman, president of the Association, presided. Mrs. Gordon Lange presented the speaker. Parents from the fourth grades with Mrs. Robert Gilfillen and Mrs. C. C. Shute as co-chairmen were in charge of the pleasant social hour which preceded the meeting.

Frank R. Morey, supervising principal, reported briefly on the scholarship award program which is in its 25th year. He reported that in the quarter of a century the size of the scholarship had only increased from $300 to $350. The meeting adjourned at 10:30.

Parent-Teacher Council

The Parent-Teacher Council of Media Friend's School will present a talk on "Your Child and his Play" given by Mrs. Beatrice Taylor, a member of the school's staff, on Tuesday evening, February 27 at 8:30 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting which will be held in the social room of the School at Third and North Street, Media.

Mrs. S. Milton Bryant of South Chester road entertained her duplicate bridge club at a luncheon at her home Tuesday.

SENIORS GIVE SUCCESSFUL PLAY

The Class of 1951 entertained a large and enthusiastic audience last Friday night in the High School Auditorium with their bright and thoroughly delightful presentation of "Our Hearts were Young and Gay." Directed by Hannah Kirk Mathews, assisted by students Anne Hilkert and Marian Hunt, the Senior play was a completely successful production of Cornelia Skinner's and Emily Kimbrough's account of their first trip abroad, as dramatized by Jean Kerr.

Barbara Thorbahn and June Shearer, heading the cast of 17, each turned in finished, well-sustained portrayals of Cornelia and Emily respectively, and are to be congratulated on their polished performances.

Dave Luehring as Otis Skinner, deserved a hand for his delightful bit of acting as the laconic, package-bearing father. Howard Arrison and Lee Bennett were entirely successful as "the young men".

Ann deFuria made a pleasing mother. Anne Larson and Nancy Wrightsman, were nicely crisp and British as travelling acquaintances.

Warren Gold did a good job as Monsieur de la Croix, and Julia Hionis gave life and personality to "the sometimes uninteresting part of maid all work."

Tom Simkin as the unctious Admiral, John Becker as the all-suffering Steward, Harlan Jessup as the Purser, were also effective in small parts.

Millie McCowan appeared briefly but effectively as Madame Elsie. Jean Holman portrayed the doubting Inspector, Mary Anne Dickinson the stewardess and Larry Woodruff the voluble, bowing Window Cleaner

The entire cast earned accolades for a most enjoyable and hilarious evening.

Mention should be made of cabin set, and the hotel room with Cardinal Richelieu's bed and the Eiffel Tower view.

School Board Elects

(Continued from page one) could be secured while available and before costs might increase, and that the improvements if undertaken would be completed during the summer recess.

It was stressed that the growth of the high school indicates increased classes next year. The planned project would provide an additional three serviceable classrooms. Mention as also made that the Board should consider the growth of the elementary grades where enrollments now stand as high as 36 and 37 in some classes. It was shown a division of classes, new teachers and additional classrooms might be needed there soon, and that Swarthmore's expansion presents a problem.

Dr. and Mrs. John W. Nason of Cedar lane and their house guest Dr. Nason's mother, Mrs. Albert J. Nason of Brookings, S.D., attended Lillian Hellman's new play "Autumn Garden" held in Philadelphia Thursday evening for the Vassar College Alumnae Scholarship Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Tomlinson of South Chester road are having as their house guests their daughter Mrs. Harlie D. Raynard and son David, formerly of Chicago. They are visiting here until their new home in LaMesa, Calif., is completed. Mr. Reynard left recently for the west coast to be with the Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp. in San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Lloyd Jones of Parrish road are having as their house guest this week Mrs. Albert Smith, Jr., of Metuchen, N.J. Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Poole of North Swarthmore avenue entertained informally on Sunday in honor of Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Forsythé of Thayer road, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arnold of Wallingford will leave Sunday for a vacation of several weeks in Pompano Beach, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Van Urk of Thayer road entertained at a musical Friday evening when Mr. Frederick Bristol of New York City presented a program of modern and contemporary music.

Miss Esther Worst of Harvard avenue was guest of honor at a surprise personal shower in honor of her twenty-first birthday given Wednesday evening by her sisters Misses Joanne and Mary Worst.

Joan Streeter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Streeter of Columbia avenue is one of 38 senior women students at Iowa State College, who will live in Home Management houses to practice homemaking skills for the next six weeks.
