'Home at Seven' Billed For Players Next Week

Jackson Directs British Play in American Premiere

The American premier of "Home at Seven" by the British playwright R. C. Sheriff, is the bill of fare at the Players Club next week.

Through persuasion on Dr. Jackson's part, special permission was obtained for presentation of this play at the club. Some of the playgoers may remember Sheriff's earlier success, "Journey's End" and others will be anxious to be the first American critics of this new production.

The play concerns itself with a "suspense" theme woven around a respectable bank officer and his wife into whose somewhat dull lives a 24-hour memory lapse cuts an enlivening swathe.

In addition to the thrill of seeing a "sneak preview" of a play being contemplated for a Broadway run, there is the ever superb finesse of Doc Jackson's direction and the extra enticement of a cast of the following: Joyce M. Noone, William Harriman, Ernest L. Green, Jr., William Price, Stafford W. Parker, William M. Park, Penny Halladay.

Eight-twenty curtains run Monday through Saturday, November 10-15.

Band Marches Tonight In Cultural Olympics

The 74-piece Swarthmore High School show band, directed by Robert M. Holm, will perform in the 18th annual Band Day Festival of the University of Pennsylvania's Cultural Olympics at 8 p.m. today (Nov. 7) in Philadelphia Convention Hall, 34th street below Spruce.

Swarthmore's Band will present a "Musical Calendar" depicting the various traditionally American holidays. The routines were worked out by the students themselves under the leadership of Band Captain Ronald Gold. A running commentary of the show will be provided by the student announcer, Howard Shearer. Head majorette Patsy Blake will be at the helm as the band passes in review down the Convention Hall floor. Parents and friends are invited to attend.

The entire proceedings of the Cultural Olympics are under the direction of Dr. Frederick Gruber of the School of Education, University of Pennsylvania.

There will be four bands from Philadelphia.

COLLEGE GIVES 137 PINTS OF BLOOD

The combined faculty and student body at Swarthmore College gave 137 pints of blood to the Red Cross on October 28. The college Blood Donor Day was under the direction of Dr. Helen North.

The next Blood Donor Day at the college will be March 17. The next Borough Blood Donor Day has been set for May 7.

Paul M. Hummer Dies Suddenly Tuesday

Paul M. Hummer of 430 Rutgers avenue, died suddenly of a heart attack at 6:30 at his home Tuesday morning.

Born in Manheim, Mr. Hummer came to live in Swarthmore from Cincinnati, Ohio, six years ago. He had been District Manager for Armstrong Cork Company, Philadelphia and was a member of the Philadelphia Rotary Club.

He is survived by his widow, Olga A., three sons; Cpl. Dwight Hummer, who is with the Seventh Army Headquarters in Germany; Paul, a Swarthmore College graduate of June '52, and Philip, a sophomore at the University of Pennsylvania; three brothers, Charles Hummer of Guernsey road; John, David and Robert Hummer of Manheim; and two sisters, Mrs. Roy Rudd of Live Oak, Fla., and Miss Eleanor Hummer of Texas.

Services will be held at 2:30 p.m., today (Friday) at the Im-schweiler Funeral Home, 1600 Edgmont avenue, Chester. Interment will be made in the Media Cemetery.

Binns Buys Mason Yard

A large part of Swarthmore's business section has changed hands it was announced today at Baird and Bird, local realtors who have sold the Mason Builders Supply property on Dartmouth avenue to Arthur W. Binns, well-known Philadelphia real estate developer.

Although Mr. Binns, a member of Philadelphia's Committee of Seventy states it might be a number of weeks before he has any definite idea of the property's future use, it is understood apartments will be erected on the site, which is zoned for business or industry. Meanwhile Mason Builders will continue to operate as one of the borough's oldest businesses.

The plot which includes the other half of the building occupied by the Swarthmorean, extends back 160 feet to the Pennsylvania Railroad property. It has 400 feet frontage on Dartmouth avenue then continues a rear strip to a 60 foot frontage on South Princeton.

Eisenhower Polls 2077 In Borough's 92% Vote

At Last, As Swarthmore Went, So Went the Nation

Post-election Swarthmore, weary in common with the rest of the country from huddling over television and radio sets until the election outcome was certain, found itself in political agreement with the country for the first time since 1932. This predominantly Republican community polled the largest vote in its history to give President-elect Eisenhower 2077 votes and Governor Stevenson 428.

In 1932 Swarthmore gave Hoover 1357, Roosevelt 185; in 1936, Landon 1471, Roosevelt 566; in 1936 Willkie 1650, Roosevelt 372; in 1944 Dewey 1467, Roosevelt 497; and in 1948 Dewey 1688, Truman 233.

With the Borough's total registration now totalling 2850 (there is an estimated 7 per cent loss due to death, illness, and removal), it is estimated that 92 per cent of the qualified voters exercised their voting privilege on Tuesday. Complete election returns will be found in another section of this issue. Ten hundred thirty-eight votes were cast in the Borough's largest precinct, Western (1156 registered). Nine hundred forty eight voted in the Northern Precinct (1081 registered). Five hundred thirty eight voted in the Eastern (613 registered).

Tuesday was a day of bustle and activity in the Borough. The Swarthmorean car pool was in active operation throughout the day to transport members of Henry Hofmann's High School History class for needed baby sitting while voters were driven to the polls. C. Dudley Schloesser was in charge of the drivers with Mrs. Harry Transue and Mrs. Marvel Wilson as able assistants. Larry Jones ran errands for the workers. Nearly 50 residents were on call or on hand to serve as needed.

Some of Mr. Hofmann's students were on duty as child watchers at the polling centers as well. Girl Scout Troop 16 also spent a busy afternoon in volunteer mothers' helpers. Since voting at peak hours required standing in line for as much as an hour, the services were a tremendous help in clearing the polls for the evening hours.

For the record, Swarthmore registered voters have declared themselves as follows: 2350 Republicans, 380 Democrats, 114 No Party, 5 Socialists, 1 Prohibitionist.

Philanthropic Bridge Players Await Tuesday

Welfare Dessert and Party To Benefit over 20 Worthy Causes

Members of the Woman's Club of Swarthmore and their friends will turn out en masse next Tuesday, November 11 for the annual Philanthropic Dessert Bridge at 1 o'clock in the clubhouse. The enthusiastic support of this enterprise by the members and those in the community make it possible for the Club to make generous contributions to at least 20 worthy causes and at the same time provide an enjoyable occasion for all attending.

The event is the responsibility of the education department, Mrs. Peter Told, chairman and the health and welfare department, Mrs. Judson R. Hoover, Jr., chairman. The education department provides and serves the dessert. Its members are:

Mrs. John M. Pearson, Mrs. Morris Bowie, Mrs. Pierre Decrouez, Mrs. Avery Blake, Mrs. William R. Main, Mrs. Carroll Streeter, Mrs. Philip G. Wrightsman, Mrs. S. S. Rutherford, Mrs. Donald P. Jones, Mrs. Francis Forsythe and Mrs. Robert Hilkert. Heads of committees for the welfare department are:

Door tickets, Mrs. J. Paul Brown and Mrs. Walter A. Schmidt; plant table Mrs. Francis Vosters; cake table, Mrs. Paul Hertel and Mrs. William B. Lowe; candy, Mrs. James P. Daugherty; prizes, Mrs. Norman R. Jones; table setting, Mrs. Frank Rodgers Gray; Blind Association and Polio Parents table, Mrs. Charles E. Fischer; distribution of door prizes, Mrs. Francis Forsythe; hostess, Mrs. John B. Clothier; tickets, Mrs. Harry S. Toole.

Other members of the health and welfare department who have sold tickets and worked behind the scenes are, Mrs. C. M. Albright, Mrs. David Bingham, Mrs. Herman Bloom, Mrs. Leslie Clarke, Mrs. William F. Dejeanty, Mrs. Edward W. Furst, Mrs. D. Reed Geer, Mrs. W. H. Gehring, Mrs. George M. Karns, Mrs. John J. Lord, Mrs. Charles E. Lukens, Mrs. Clarence E. Loughead, Mrs. John E. Michael, Mrs. W. Rodman McHenry, Mrs. Harold Ogram, Mrs. H. Lindley Peel, Mrs. L. J. Servais, Mrs. George B. Thom, Mrs. William W. Turner, Mrs. Leslie A. Wetlauffer, Mrs. William T. Wiegand, Mrs. Earle P. Yerkes, Mrs. Charles H. Zensen.

Mrs. Alexander Lackey made posters, score pads and tallies, most of the tickets, and coffee were contributions, members of the committee donated the door prizes.

Vehicles, Moving or Still, a Council Poser

Policewomen, New Garage Collector Earnestly Sought

Borough Council Monday evening gave thought to recent growth of this area with its resultant problems of increased population and traffic on community thoroughfares. The desirability of added police protection, broached by Councilman Thomas Hopper, led to a decision to hire six policewomen. It was though Swarthmore might well follow the example of other municipalities where use of traffic directresses when pupils are going to and from school, has relieved regular policemen for apprehension of speeders, parking violators and other offenders. Such part-time services are not the economic burden that expanding the force otherwise would be. President H. Lindley Peel delegated Burgess Charles R. Russell to ask the cooperation of the Woman's Club, Mothers Club and Junior Club in securing recruits for the new posts. Secretary Elliott Richardson was assigned to investigate working of systems elsewhere, for reference in setting up details of the local program.

A traffic problem on Riverview road was brought to Council's attention by a group of residents headed by Richard Enion who presented a 41-signature petition for a barricade between the paved and dirt sections of that street. A "permanent deterrent" was sought as a means of discouraging fast thru traffic, especially commercial vehicles, from using the highway as a cut-off to Swarthmore and Yale avenues. Cyril C. Compton, Robert H. Shipman, Albert W. Kitis, Richard Beeler and Britton Liddell voiced complaints similar to Mr. Enion's regarding hazard to the numerous children on the street which is narrow and without sidewalks. It was stated that

Mrs. Wood to Address Mothers Club Thursday

Anne Wertsner Wood, outstanding author, lecturer, and horticulturist, will address members of the Swarthmore Mother's Club next Thursday evening, November 13, at the Woman's Clubhouse.

Her illustrated lecture, "Make Your Own Merry Christmas", taken from her popular book of the same name, will include many favors that can be made by scouts and small children. Mrs. Wood will also give over 50 holiday decorations that can be used in the home.

As a lecturer, Mrs. Wood has traveled widely in Europe and in this country from Maine to Florida and west to New Mexico. Her book is now in its seventh printing, and she has contributed frequent articles to magazines, such as "The Ladies' Home Journal", "The Home Garden", "House and Garden", "Popular Gardening", "Woman's Home Companion Garden Book", "Horticulture," and to a number of leading newspapers. She has frequently been heard on radio network programs.

DROP IN NEEDLEWORK GUILD COLLECTION MAY AFFECT COMMUNITY HEALTH SOCIETY

The Needlework Guild of America was founded in Philadelphia in 1885, for the purpose of collecting and distributing new clothing to hospitals and charities. The Swarthmore Branch was founded in 1909 and has worked faithfully through the years, sewing, knitting and collecting new garments, which have been distributed to many local hospitals and charities. In recent years, the special aim has been to increase the membership. In 1951, this reached a high of 985 members with a total of 3624 garments.

This year the number of garments dropped by almost 300, in spite of the fact that membership grew to 1050. The Board found that through some oversight, many faithful members have not contributed. Since this affects the Community Health Society more than any other of the 18 charities, cards are being sent asking these members to leave their contributions of money or garments, within the next week, at the Utility Shop, 19 South Chester road, where Charles Grier has been kind enough to offer space to put them. If these contributions come in as expected, the total number should exceed last year's total, and the Community Health Society will have its usual supply on which it definitely depends to take care of the sick and needy.

Many Thanks

To all Swarthmoreans:
We want to express our appreciation and thanks to everyone who helped to make the Halloween parade in the Field House so successful. All the parents whose children attended realize how much co-operation is needed to conduct such an affair. We are particularly indebted to those individual merchants and business men and to the Mothers' Club who made it possible for each child to receive a bag filled with such a wide assortment of items.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Peter Coste

THIS WAY, PODNERS

to good party-line telephone service

It's a matter of simple consideration. Remember the three Rs of party-line courtesy—be Reasonable about how long you talk; Release the line for emergencies when asked; Replace the receiver gently when you find the line in use.

If you are always courteous on the telephone, you're sure to find your party-line neighbors the same. Happy results: better telephone service for everyone concerned!

The WORST Danger Spot

may be in your car

You, the driver, and those with you, are very close to real danger at any time... on any spot along any road... if you have a mechanical defect in your car. Highway signs warn you of road hazards, but inspection is your protection against hazards within.

For Your Safety

for twice-a-year inspection of your car and its equipment. Through the years, these inspections have reduced death and injury due to mechanical failure of cars away below the national rate for such accidents.

COMMON SENSE SAYS...

that the earlier you have your car inspected during the current period... November 1 to next January 31... the more weeks, or months, of protection you will have against danger spots in your car. Winter driving makes this precaution extra important.

Vehicles, Moving or Still, a Council Poser

the School District approved the road block. The dirt part of the road borders the school athletic field.

Upon motion of Charles Thatcher, the five members of Council in attendance unanimously decreed the blockade be erected, and that police concentrate on warning speeders on the sloping street.

Letters from E. Donald Gustafson and Mrs. L. J. Servais, residents of an apartment house at 201 Elm avenue, protested the ban on parking recently placed on the north side of that street. The writers complained insufficient parking area in the rear of the apartment building, and the impossibility of its use in bad weather forced renters to take up space in front of homes on the opposite side of the avenue. Carl T. Furniss of 210 Elm and L. C. Gatewood of 104 appeared in person to say the new restriction was causing people to park along their frontages and obstruct their housewalks.

Council decided the original reason for placing the ban, to keep the north side clear so fire engines could swing out of Marple and Chestnut avenues, required its retention. However, it is to apply around the clock instead of just from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. as had been placed on erected signs. Council also directed Mr. Richardson to ask the cooperation of the apartment house owner in providing adequate off-the-street car space for his tenants.

Some encouragement on another highway issue, the highly opposed limited access link from the State Turnpike to the Industrial Highway, was received in letters from Governor John S. Fine and State Senator G. Robert Watkins of Delaware County. Replying to petitions protesting the Delaware County Planning Commission's proposal to place this by-pass near the Swarthmore-Springfield boundary, the governor stated he had discussed the matter with Secretary of Highways E. L. Smith and found at present the State Highway Department is not proceeding with any plan in that direction. He further stated that no action would be taken until there was better understanding among the people of Delaware County, especially those affected.

Senator Watkins wrote that he would do everything possible to correct the situation which he, too, thinks is wrong. Having disposed for the moment of the most pressing problems of traffic on local streets Council was faced with the job of keeping garbage from flowing into them. Jack and Ray Demko of Booths Corners, having notified Council they will terminate their six-year-old contract for collection as of January 1, advertisement for a new service was authorized. Although no reason for not renewing the contract was given, it was reported difficulty in disposal of the garbage since condemnation of many New Jersey plungeries, coupled with high labor costs were largely responsible.

Chief John A. Rumsey's request for 2000 feet of hose and additional accessories for the Swarthmore Fire and Protective Association met with a return request for a complete estimate of 1953 needs in order that such may be properly contemplated when preparing the new borough budget.

Mrs. J. N. Hensch, of 3 Crest lane, New home Thursday by Royal Dutch Airline from Holland where she spent six weeks visiting friends and relatives. Among the places she was entertained were: Amsterdam, Leiden, Breda, Hengelo and Haarlem. Mrs. V. T. Lathbury, of Walnut lane and Mrs. Paul Zecher, of North Swarthmore avenue, will entertain at a welcome home tea for Mrs. Hensch next Monday afternoon at Mrs. Zecher's home. Mrs. G. Alex Mills, of Walnut lane, will preside at the tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Carroll of North Chester road spent several days this week at State College. Mr. Carroll is visiting critic of the School of Design at Penn State.

Mrs. Raymond R. Gemmill of Vassar avenue entertained at a luncheon and shower Monday in honor of Mrs. George Bishop who is moving tomorrow from Vassar avenue to Stratford.

Bruce Godfrey of Westminster College spent the week-end at his home on Vassar avenue.

Mrs. Ford F. Robinson of Gueansey road entertained at a tea Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. N. Schoch of 913 Mt. Holyoke place, a newcomer to Swarthmore. The guests included the immediate neighbors of Mrs. Schoch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gordon McConechy of South Chester road entertained as their dinner and overnight guest Tuesday, Mrs. McConechy's cousin Mr. James W. White of Toronto, Canada who was on a business trip to New York.

"Presidential Wives" Entertain Club Women

At the stated meeting of the Woman's Club of Swarthmore held Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Walter H. Dickinson reported on the convention of the State Federation which met last May in Harrisburg, and Mrs. S. Blair Luckie gave highlights of the General Federation meeting in Minneapolis. The film "Our Neighbors" was shown by a representative from the Community Chest.

The program "Ladies of the White House" was an entertaining and instructive piece of research done by Mrs. Frank A. Hall. Interesting personalities of various wives of the presidents were recreated by living pictures and pantomimes. Costumed in a quaint black gown of the 1870's Mrs. Hall, the director, read the script. Authentic costumes were loaned by Mrs. Joseph Bates and Mrs. Benjamin W. Collins. Mrs. Charles D. Mitchell had charge of staging and properties. The copy of Gilbert Stuart's Washington was made by Mrs. Carl DeMoll. Mrs. Anthony Ventner furnished music for the delightful program.

Seventh Grade Party
The members of the Seventh Grade and their parents will hold a party in the High School Gymnasium next Friday evening, November 14. Chairmen include Mrs. Oliver E. Rodgers, square dancing and games; Mrs. Samuel C. Carpenter, refreshments and Mrs. F. C. Jensen, decorations.

Garnet Plays Yeadon 2:45 Today at Home
Beats Glen-Nor, 33 to 0, for 5th Straight Win

The Garnet banded the Glen-Nor Indians their second defeat of the season by an overwhelming score of 33-0 and stretched Swarthmore's winning streak to five.

The Garnet, piloted by Bill Hoot, got under way early in the first quarter. Andy Schroder intercepted a pass on the Indians' 47, and on a series of successive drives hit to the 27 from where Hoot threw a touchdown pass to Bill Ziegenfus.

A few seconds later the Garnet took over on their own 44. Schroder hit the line for three yards, Shearer broke lose for nine more, and Swan carried to the 42. Then Hoot passed to Don MacElwee for more yardage, and Schroder scored off-tackle from the 13. John MacAlpine, who made three conversions for five attempts, kicked the extra point. The first period ended with a 37 yard gallop by Howard Shearer. Two plays later in the second quarter, Hoot faded back from the 16 and threw another touchdown pass to Ziegenfus.

On first down the Indians fumbled, MacElwee recovering the ball on the 24. On three carries Schroder blasted his way to the six. Shearer picked one yard and then hit off-guard for another tally.

In the second half, with the Garnet leading 27 to 0, Shearer took the kick-off raced back to the Indians' 49. Schroder and Lee Swan made gains but Swarthmore lost the ball on a fumble. The Indians threw a long pass, which Lee Swan intercepted, and scampered to the 16. The Garnet lost possession on downs, but an even harder pressed Glen-Nor congregation fumbled on the 24. Bob Doherty and Howard Shearer gained yardage to the 20 and then a personal foul against the Indians put the ball on the five. This time Doherty scored on a quick pitch-out around end.

The final period, which was played by the Jayvees, was held scoreless. Speedster Steve Snyder out ran the Indians on a 30 yard run, but the apparent TD was called back on a penalty. Seconds later Snyder again broke loose—this time for 15 yards. That's Magoun then received a pass on the seven from Charlie Grier. Hoot passed to Charlie Nieuweller who was stopped one yard short of the goal. With one play remaining in the game, the Garnet failed to score.

The defensive play of the line was again outstanding as the second team in a row ended up with minus yardage. The hard-charging of ends Lonnie Stator and Bill Ziegenfus kept one of the best passers in the county off balance and the Indians finished the game with no passes completed and three intercepted. Bill Kaufman's block of an opponent's punt points up an outstanding team achievement of having blocked a punt in every game except Media.

The center of the line handled by John MacAlpine and Frank Habberset was a veritable wall, as their alert and rugged play overwhelmed the visitors. Add to this Bill Hoot's sensational passing and there is for the fans a team that has formed itself, and is getting stronger with every game.

Yeadon faces the Garnet this afternoon with a record of four wins and two losses. Their 220 pound tackles and six foot ends are sure to make themselves noticed. The game will be played on the Rutgers field at 2:45.

BOROUGH OF SWARTHMORE ORDINANCE NO. 547
An Ordinance to vacate Westdale Avenue, east of Easterly side of Rutgers Avenue, a plotted but unopened street of the Borough of Swarthmore, and to strike same from the Borough Plan without prejudice to any private rights therein.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF SWARTHMORE DOES ORDAIN:
Section 1. Westdale Avenue, an unopened street, plotted 50 feet wide, is hereby vacated as a publicly plotted street from the Easterly side of Rutgers Avenue (50 feet wide) in an Easterly direction so far as said plotted street now appears upon the public plan. It is intended hereby to terminate any municipal interest in said plotted street, and the land through or over which same was plotted, between Rutgers Avenue and Michigan Avenue, so far as the public is interested. The proper Borough Officers are hereby directed to strike such portions of Westdale Avenue east of Rutgers Avenue from the Borough Plan.

Section 2. Nothing herein contained shall be taken to constitute a closing of Westdale Avenue east of Rutgers Avenue so far as private rights are concerned, or as to any private easement or right of way along or across the same, if any such rights now exist.

GOODYEAR TIRES

Then on first down the Indians fumbled, MacElwaine recovering the ball on the 24. On three carries Schroder blasted his way to the six. Shearer picked one yard and then hit off-guard for another tally.

In the second half, with the Garnet leading 27 to 0, Shearer took the kick-off raced back to the Indians' 49. Schroder and Lee Swan made gains but Swarthmore lost the ball on a fumble. The Indians threw a long pass, which Lee Swan intercepted, and scampered to the 16. The Garnet lost possession on downs, but an even harder pressed Glen-Nor congregation fumbled on the 24. Bob Doherty and Howard Shearer gained yardage to the 20 and then a personal foul against the Indians put the ball on the five. This time Doherty scored on a quick pitch-out around end.

The final period, which was played by the Jayvees, was held scoreless. Speedster Steve Snyder out ran the Indians on a 30 yard run, but the apparent TD was called back on a penalty. Seconds later Snyder again broke lose — this time for 15 yards. Thatch Magoun then received a pass on the seven from Charlie Grier. Hoot passed to Charlie Nieuweiter who was stopped one yard short of the goal. With one play remaining in the game, the Garnet failed to score.

The defensive play of the line was again outstanding as the second team in a row ended up with minus yardage. The hard-charging of ends Lonnie Stator and Bill Ziegenfuss kept one of the best passers in the county off balance and three interceptions. Bill Kaufman's block of an opponent's punt points up an outstanding team achievement of having blocked a punt in every game except Media.

The center of the line handled by John MacAlpine and Frank Habbersett was a veritable wall, as their alert and rugged play overwhelmed the visitors. Add to this Bill Hoot's sensational passing and there is for the fans a team that has formed itself, and is getting stronger with every game.

Yeadon faces the Garnet this afternoon with a record of four wins and two losses. Their 220 pound tackles and six foot ends are sure to make themselves noticed. The game will be played on the Rutgers field at 2:45.

Garnet Plays Yeadon 2:45 Today at Home
Beats Glen-Nor, 33 to 0, for 5th Straight Win

The Garnet handed the Glen-Nor Indians their second defeat of the season by an overwhelming score of 33-0 and stretched Swarthmore's winning streak to five.

The Garnet, piloted by Bill Hoot, got under way early in the first quarter. Andy Schroder intercepted a pass on the Indians' 47, and on a series of successive drives hit to the 27 from where Hoot threw a touchdown pass to Bill Ziegenfuss.

A few seconds later the Garnet took over on their own 44. Schroder hit the line for three yards, Shearer broke lose for nine more, and Swan carried to the 42. Then Hoot passed to Don MacElwaine for more yardage, and Schroder scored off-tackle from the 13. John MacAlpine, who made three conversions for five attempts, kicked the extra point. The first period ended with a 37 yard gallop by Howard Shearer. Two plays later in the second quarter, Hoot faded back from the 16 and threw another touchdown pass to Ziegenfuss.

Then on first down the Indians fumbled, MacElwaine recovering the ball on the 24. On three carries Schroder blasted his way to the six. Shearer picked one yard and then hit off-guard for another tally.

In the second half, with the Garnet leading 27 to 0, Shearer took the kick-off raced back to the Indians' 49. Schroder and Lee Swan made gains but Swarthmore lost the ball on a fumble. The Indians threw a long pass, which Lee Swan intercepted, and scampered to the 16. The Garnet lost possession on downs, but an even harder pressed Glen-Nor congregation fumbled on the 24. RIGHT GUARD

He is so intent on getting the ball and running it back into the "play" that he is unaware that he may be running into an accident. Boys are like that!

The right guard for you—as a driver—to avoid such accidents is to be on "double guard" when you are driving your car on streets or roads where children are at play in the vicinity.

It is an unfortunate truth that children often forget all the rules of traffic safety when they are engrossed in a game. They will dart out into the street. They do not stop to see if a car is coming. That puts the entire burden of caution squarely on the driver.

To avoid hurting or killing a child—drive slowly... drive alertly... near schools, play areas, residential districts. Be certain that you can stop in time should an emergency occur. It may be the child's fault—but you will never stop blaming yourself if you hurt a child.

Is your child's school enrolled in the Green Pennant Program—the safety program that is saving lives? If not, write to the Governor's Highway Safety Advisory Committee in Harrisburg for information about this effective safety effort.

Kindergarten Mothers To Meet for Discussion

The College Avenue Kindergarten Mother's Group will meet next Wednesday afternoon, November 12, at the College Avenue School for a teacher-parent discussion on "How Kindergarten Benefits Your Child."

Mrs. V. T. Lathbury, of Walnut lane, chairman, will be in charge of the meeting and introduce R. Mildred Kidd, elementary supervisor; Mary Jane Cleaver, art teacher; Mrs. Elva Daniels, music teacher, and Mrs. Rita Montagnolo, kindergarten teacher, all of whom will take part in the discussion.

Tea will follow the program, in charge of Mrs. Charles Howland, hospitality chairman.

Other highlights in the year's program will be the February 18 meeting when Mrs. Bess B. Lane will address the kindergarten mothers on "Home and School Relationships." Mrs. Lane, of Swarthmore avenue, is the author of the book, "Your Part in Your Child's Education."

On April 15, an educational film, "Over Dependency" will be shown and guests of the meeting will be the Kindergarten Mother's Group from Rutgers Avenue School.

MUSIC CLUB PROGRAM The Swarthmore Music Club has arranged an interesting program for November 10 in Whittier House to be presented by the following:

School to Purchase Rutgers Avenue Plot

Following action by the Borough Council last Monday night in removing Westdale avenue east of Rutgers avenue from the Borough Street Plan, the Swarthmore School Board is taking steps to acquire a plot of ground just north of its present Rutgers avenue school property.

At 9:30 tomorrow morning, the Board will meet at the Rutgers avenue school to take steps to effectuate the purchase of about 12.75 acres of ground to be used for additional elementary school facilities.

The first step of the Board will be to adopt a resolution condemning this property and authorizing the Board to take possession.

On the Rutgers avenue side, the property runs about 310 feet from the corner of Westdale avenue toward Yale avenue.

Lt. Comdr. John C. Taylor, Jr., USN, of Philadelphia and Mr. Arthur Snyder of Yale avenue, will sail for St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, Monday morning.

OPEN HOUSE GROUP TO MEET NEXT MONDAY

The Open House Group of Swarthmore meets next Monday at the Presbyterian Church on Harvard avenue, at 2 o'clock. At the last meeting, Mrs. Lloyd Kauffman gave an interesting talk on her European trip this summer.

Next Monday Dr. Hugh Tucker, who for 61 years was connected with the South American Bible Association, will speak to the group on "Observations of Brazilian Cultural Life."

Holiday Decorations Is Mothers Club Topic

How inexpensive but effective home-made house decorations and favors can lend a bright touch to the home for the Christmas holiday season, was explained by Mrs. Harry Rieger, of Germantown, in her talk to Mothers Club members at their meeting last night. Mrs. Anne Werstner Wood, originally scheduled to address the group, was unable to attend.

Mrs. Rieger demonstrated how natural and artificial materials could be combined easily, inexpensively and effectively to brighten the house during the coming holiday season. She suggested that one could now start to gather milkweed pods to be silvered and used with greenery.

Noone as Mrs. Preston manages also to bring warmth and tenderness to the presentation of uneventfully serene existence blocked by evil suspicion. Fraught as her way is with fear, hers is still the balance which gives "Home at Seven" its credibility.

Ernest L. Green, Jr., does so well with his role of family doctor that he will probably have to turn away patients after this week, or a medical degree. His Dr. Sparling is in contrast with his last appearance for the Club as attorney for the prosecution, but equally well done.

William Price, the Club's "good trowler", follows his last month's stint as director with a salvage job as Major Watson in which he is boisterously, jarringly devoted as president of the club which suffers unexpected financial difficulties on the eve of its "Home at Seven".

DRAMA DEPARTMENT HEARS PHILADELPHIA CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Herman Bernard, drama chairman of the Philadelphia Federation of Women's Clubs, was the speaker at the meeting of the drama department of the Woman's Club held Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Raymond K. Denworth. Mrs. Herman who has acted in many Little Theatre groups, made her debut in the Players' Club of Swarthmore in "The Admirable Crichton".

She deplored the present status of the legitimate theater, calling it "the fabulous invalid of Broadway". In London there are 42 plays compared to 14 on Broadway. One reason is economic—admission fees have not been raised in London in 30 years and it is possible to attend for a very small sum. In America the cost of staging even a one-act play is at least forty thousand dollars. The second difficulty is in finding good plays. Young writers are hesitant to give expression to ideas not conventional for fear of being called subversive.

Mrs. Herman told of the new project of the Penn Valley Play Series, which will offer a series of plays with stars from Broadway at the Penn Valley High School auditorium.

Our Responsibility

To The Editor:
We of the boro are all saddened and distressed by the financial misappropriations of one of our number. Isn't it time for us to consider what is our own responsibility in this matter, for we are all "members of one body"? What false standards of living and spending do we subscribe to in our once simple village? What friendship, deeper than mere friendliness have we withheld? A long-time resident.

Traffic Suggestion

Dear Sir:
Following is a copy of a letter to Swarthmore Council which I offer in the hope of evoking suggestions to correct a bad condition. If you print it.

Edward H. Fyle, II
Swarthmore Borough Council
Gentlemen, Pa.

Any system of traffic control should be designed to ease the flow of traffic and reduce the possibility of accidents.

The arrangement of lights at Chester Road and Swarthmore avenue is serving neither of these functions. The lights are mechanically perfect, but their location and timing disregard the human inclinations of the average driver.

Here is what happens: The driver coming in on Chester Road confronted with a red light, inches past the light until he can watch the Swarthmore avenue light on his left. The latter changes, the driver assumes his light is green and starts up. At the same time a driver coming down Swarthmore avenue turns right on Chester road because the green arrow invites him to.

The result is that two drivers, each assuming he has the right of way, try to fit into the same space.

Meanwhile a driver headed out on Chester Road and planning a left turn into Swarthmore avenue gets a green light. He knows he has a few seconds advantage, so he swings blithely into the path of the car coming in on Chester road. Result: "Confusion compounded."

Fairly often, too, a driver coming down Swarthmore avenue, planning a right turn into Chester road, slows down when the lights turn yellow, passes the nearest light and stops. Meanwhile the green arrow shines brightly—behind him. More "confusion."

How can this foul-up be straightened without spending a lot of money? Here is one suggestion:

1. Move the green arrow from the light at the northwest corner to the southeast corner. This will keep it visible at all times to traffic on Swarthmore avenue.
2. Arrange to have the green arrow light up before the green light shows on Swarthmore avenue, rather than after. The opposing red light will stop the light-jumpers coming south on Chester Road without affecting the north-bound Chester Road traffic.

Adoption of this simple suggestion will result in fewer banged fenders and much improved tempers for everyone. It is based on many passages through the intersection at all hours of the day.

Sincerely,
Edward H. Fyle, II

MOTHERS GROUP PLANS BOOK REVIEWS NOV. 18

Book reviews and open group participation on "Literature We Share With Our Children" will keynote the meeting of the Mother's Club literature group to be held at the home of co-chairman Mrs. Carl Flammer, 640 South Chester road Tuesday, November 18, at 8 p.m.

Emphasizing the joy of family reading, members are urged to bring books they and their children have enjoyed sharing together. Brief reviews of the following books will be given: Mrs. David Ullman, co-chairman, will review Annis Duff's "Bequest of Wings," Mrs. Peter E. Coste, club president, will review Paul Hazard's "Books, Children, and Men," and Mrs. Edward E. Thomas will review Anne P. Eaton's "Reading With Children."

Fall decorations, including corn-stalks, pumpkins, and scare crows will lend a festive air to the club square dance to be held Friday evening November 21 at 9 at the Swarthmore Woman's club.

Mrs. Harold Hildestad, chairman has announced that Mrs. Frances Sorden will be the caller. Mrs. Norman Weeks is chairman of the refreshment committee, while Mrs. Maxine Hancock, Mrs. Mildred Eckenroth, and Mrs. Howard Clymer will assist on the decorations and door committee.

An elementary sewing class for club members, with Mrs. Robert Hall serving as chairman, meets every Wednesday evening at 8 at the Swarthmore High School. Jean Swift of the high school home economics staff teaches the class, which is made possible through the kindness of the school board.

KKG Sewing Group

The Kappa Kappa Gamma Sewing Group will meet Tuesday, November 18, at the home of Mrs. Walter R. Shoemaker, 510 River-view road.

WORK DAY HELD AT SWARTHMORE COLLEGE

Some 900 Swarthmore College students took off from their studies on Wednesday, November 12, to participate in a student-faculty work day. The project was designed to achieve college spirit and unity and also to help cut operation costs of the college.

Classes were dismissed all day Wednesday. The work was scheduled for two 2 1/2 hour shifts, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. The ground crew on the college campus was aided by students and faculty raking and hauling leaves, grubbing honeysuckle, painting temporary athletic bleachers, cutting trees, and cleaning up brush and fallen branches in Palmer Meadow along Crum Creek. Other projects included dusting books in the stacks of the library and house-cleaning the Lamb-Miller Field House.

In the evening a bonfire, held in Crum Meadow, climaxed the event.

Henry Bode, of Rumford, R.I., was chairman of the project which was being sponsored by the sophomore class. Work day was initiated at Swarthmore College last spring. The event was very successful, due to the large turnout of students and faculty.

YOU GET THE ONLY FULL-TIME POWER STEERING

CAUTION ROUGH ROAD

In the most beautiful CHRYSLERS ever designed!

IT WORKS FULL-TIME! The kind of power steering you can have for 1953 works for you all the time... unlike some other types of power steering which aren't effective until you exert up to 7 lbs. pressure on the steering wheel.

IT'S SAFER! On rough roads, soft shoulders, loose gravel, or in the event of a blow-out, Chrysler's full-time power steering gives you complete control of your car at all times. Hydraulic power helps you turn... lets you hold a true, steady course with a constant, predictable "feel" to the steering wheel. And with far less fatigue, no matter how long the trip!

IT'S EASIER! 85% of the steering effort is taken off your hands, substantially more than with any other type of power steering. Even when the car is standing still, you can actually turn the wheel with one finger. A real boon in traffic... on hard-to-negotiate driveways... or when parking!

Red Arrow's continuing expansion of facilities to provide adequate transportation to the communities it serves costs a lot of money. The more home-owners are attracted to locate, buy or build, the greater property values grow. For good transportation means ready access to work, school and shops.

To provide the kind of service these days demand, Red Arrow's continuing modernization program is geared to the rapidly expanding needs of you, your neighbors and your homes.

Yet the cost of this equipment, the facilities to keep it running, and the wages paid those who operate them comes entirely from the revenues Red Arrow takes in its fares.

Garnet Clips Eagles 40-0 in Game Friday

Play Prospect Park Today On Rutgers Field, 2:45 P.M.

A hard-hitting Garnet team, on the rampage through six straight victories, took Yeadon last Friday afternoon on the Rutgers Field, as its latest victim, with a score of 40-0.

On the kick-off, Bob Doherty took the ball at the 20 and raced back to the Eagles' 32. Andy Schroder twice hit off-tackle, one for 11 and again for 13 yards. Then after a five yard loss Howard Shearer took a pitch-out around end to go over from the 15. John MacAlpine kicked the extra point.

Yeadon, now on the offense, was continually set back for one loss after another. A fourth down punt was blocked and the Garnet took over on the four. Andy Schroder blasted through a hole at tackle for another tally.

The Garnet was always on the go. On third down Bill Hoot passed to Don MacElwee from his own 45. Lee Swan took a lateral from MacElwee before being stopped on the Yeadon 40. Two plays later Hoot threw another pass. Receiver Bill Ziegenfuss made a sensational catch just short of the goal and then plunged across for the TD.

Seconds before the quarter ended Schroder broke loose from the 14 and went all the way for another score. The Garnet then staged a fake kick scoring the point after touchdown on a pass from Hoot to Ziegenfuss.

In the early minutes of the second period Schroder tore through the Eagle team for 15 yards crossing the goal. But the play was capped by a five yard penalty. Schroder was again given the ball, and again he went the distance. The extra point was scored on a pass from Hoot to Swan. The rest of the period was held scoreless.

Then on the first play of the second half, a hard tackle by Bill Kauffman caused Yeadon to fumble on their 21. Bill Ziegenfuss picked up the free ball and ran into the end zone for the final TD of the game. MacAlpine kicked the extra point.

At this point of the contest the Jayvees took command. Many times they threatened to score but failed. The concluding tally was 40-0.

The highlight of the game was the defensive play of linemen Habbersett, MacAlpine, Kauffman, Staton and Ziegenfuss. For the third successive week opponents have ended up with minus yardage. Another punt was blocked by MacElwee making it six games out of seven in which the feat has been achieved. Rushing was so hard that Yeadon's fine punter was ineffective throughout.

Today, Prospect Park comes to Swarthmore in the sixth meeting of the series which started in 1947. As always it is sure to be a spirited contest with no quarter asked or given by either team.

1952 Christmas Seal Sale Opens

By Monday, Swarthmoreans should receive in their mail the 1952 Christmas seals which mark the beginning of holiday cheer and carry the reminder that sharing is the basis of the real Christmas spirit.

Purchase of Christmas Seals supports the work, for another year, of the Delaware County Tuberculosis and Health Association, which has no other source of income.

A goal of $85,000, to meet the minimum requirements for the 1953 program, has been set. According to Robert W. Bernhardt, executive secretary of the Association, the County's rapidly expanding population—a gain of 413,234 according to the 1950 census—makes necessary the appeal for funds beyond all previous demands in order to continue the preventive program against the spread of Tuberculosis. Mr. Bernhardt says that "there are more than 750 active cases of Tuberculosis in Delaware County, of which only approximately one-half are known."

"The Association's aim is to make it possible for all adults to have a free chest survey X-ray within a two-year period, but this work will only be possible if our goal is reached."

21,450 county residents were given free chest survey X-rays last year, according to Mr. Bernhardt; 80,000 more persons were reached through health education programs and another 55,000 through sound health films and printed stories in newspapers and magazines. Equally important is emergency relief for the TB patient and his family, as well as the rehabilitation of many "cured" patients.

Mrs. A. W. Bass, Jr., is chairman of the Swarthmore Campaign Committee, while Mrs. D. Norman Kent heads the group in Wallingford.

"I saw it in The Swarthmorean."

United Charities Drive Begins at High School

The United Charities Drive at high school is beginning this week although the regular Drive will come in March. In order to make the Drive a more personal responsibility, it is hoped this year that each homeroom will undertake a major service project such as work for some school, orphanage or nursery with an outstanding need. A list of suggested projects has been drawn up. This includes needs in Japan, Mexico, France, Germany, Alaska and many places in the United States.

Elizabeth McKie, junior high school teacher, is in charge of the Drive this year. Elizabeth Forysth and Cornelia McKernan are joint chairmen representing the Senior High Cabinet. John Pegrum represents the junior high school.

Brownie Troop No. 19

Brownie Troop No. 19, under the leadership of Mrs. Charles E. Board and Mrs. T. W. Prescott, is engaged in a service project making bibs for the Children's Ward of Delaware County Hospital.

The Troop, which meets in Whittier House on Monday afternoons, will have a Thanksgiving program under the direction of Mrs. Justus J. Bodley, assisted by Mrs. Henry A. Peirso next Monday.

Mrs. William McCawley is chairman of Troop Committee and Communications, assisted by Mrs. John Spencer, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Jarratt, transportation; Mrs. Bodley, refreshments, and Mrs. Pierce MacNair, cookie chairman.

Chemical Engineer Cited

Eleanor A. Greiner of North Chester Road has been elected to junior membership in the American Institute of Chemical Engineers according to an announcement received from S. L. Tyler, Executive Secretary of the Institute in New York.

A research engineer at the Sun Oil Refinery in Marcus Hook, Miss Greiner is a graduate of Girls' High School in Philadelphia and of Drexel Institute.

HAMBURG SHOW OPEN TO PUBLIC

The Hamburg Show, Swarthmore College's annual student production, will be given Friday and Saturday nights, November 14 and 15 at 8:15 p.m. in Clothier Memorial. This year's show entitled, "The Book Is Open," was written by Marc Merson, a senior student, with music by Jack Hugglett, a sophomore. The entire production is under the direction of Sally Andrews, a junior, and has a cast of 27 members.

The story has its setting in a small college and involves two students, Brain and Jim, who try to work their way through college by running a book-making establishment on campus. Needless to say, this little venture, though unsuccessful, meets with much hostility and gets Brain and Jim into a great deal of difficulty. A group of genteel sorority sisters organize a "reform" movement, to improve the morals of the college. As if this isn't trouble enough, two gangsters, having heard of the boys' "business," decide to extort "protection money" from them.

The plot becomes more involved as Brain and Jim encounter difficulties with a football-conscious alumnus, the flower-loving college president, two exceedingly charming heroines, and the two gangsters.

The humorous resolution of their difficulties combined with Hugglett's delightful music gives a light-hearted tone to this show which promises to be one of the most original of recent Swarthmore productions.

Arts Center Participates in Regional Exhibition

The Community Arts Center of Wallingford will participate in the second annual exhibit sponsored by the Regional Council of Community Arts Centers, which will be held in the lobby of the Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Company during the week beginning Monday, November 17. This exhibit will include paintings, pottery, and sculpture of 11 local arts centers. There will be a large exhibit of children's work. In addition to individual awards the community center with the best group exhibit will receive a silver cup.

A panel of judges has chosen paintings and crafts submitted by members of the Wallingford Community Arts Center for the exhibit. These include paintings by Mrs. John Kiehgasser and Mrs. Norman B. Dutton Wallingford, Mrs. F. D. Hennessy of Media and Mrs. Heinz Stolle of Springfield, Mrs. George Pedlow, Mrs. Thomas B. Lipton, J. Roger Ullrich. Pottery created by Mrs. Marjorie Dutton and sculpture by Heinz Stolle will also be sent.

Robert Walker, Art Director of the Community Arts Center, and Mrs. William McLaughlin, Exhibitions Chairman, are in charge of arranging for this local Center's part in the Exhibition. Mr. Walker is chairman of the department of Fine Arts of Swarthmore College.

A private view of the exhibit will be held Sunday afternoon, November 16, for the benefit of the membership of the community arts centers, as well as for members of the press and invited guests. Mrs. McLaughlin and Mrs. Charles C. Lucas of Rose Valley, representing the Community Arts Center on the Regional Council, will act as hostesses, and Mrs. Gerald Kynett of Wallingford will pour.

Dr. Fussell's talk on "Current Developments in Foreign Problems," will follow the 12:30 luncheon at the Haverford Hotel.

Mrs. Horace Knowles of Wallingford is chairman of the luncheon arrangements. Among those attending will be Mrs. John Bird, Mrs. Donald Cresset, Mrs. Robert Hilkert, Mrs. D. S. Tucker, Mrs. Earl Weitz of Swarthmore, and Mrs. Knowles and Mrs. James Lawrence, Jr., Mrs. Robert Norton of Wallingford.

OVER 200 ATTEND TUESDAY CARD PARTY

The annual Philanthropic Desert Bridge held Tuesday by the Woman's Club of Swarthmore was a delightful and gala occasion. More than 200 attended. The tables were gaily decorated with small plants. Numerous door prizes supplied by the committee added to the interest.

Final settlement is not complete, but it is expected that the affair will net about $400. This profit is used for the more than 20 charities of the club. The education and health and welfare departments thank those who by their patronage, gifts, and other assistance made the party so successful.

Clarence C. Franck, Jr., of Cornell Avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Franck, has been elected President of the Engineering Club, Swarthmore College.

MARKLEY TO SPEAK

Frank R. Markley, Sun Oil Company vice president in charge of Marketing, will be the principal speaker at the Brandywine District, Boy Scouts of America, dinner to be held at 6:30 P.M. November 19 in the Springfield Central School, Saxer and Powell roads, Springfield.

Mr. Markley, whose home is on Guernsey road, recently returned from a trip to Europe where he renewed business friendships with men in England, Holland and Western Germany.

What these men had to tell him concerning the difficulties of living under 'statist-type' governments such as Socialist, Nazi and Communist, plus his own personal observation, will make up the story he relates to the Boy Scout movement workers in his talk.

Johnson Smith, Rosemary Circle, Ridley Valley Farms, Media, who is chairman of the dinner's Promotion and Attendance committee, expects a crowd of 250 will be there.

H.S. Turkey Clash At Lansdowne

Swarthmore Takes Prospect Park, 25-6, in Game Last Fri.

The annual Thanksgiving Day clash will be played at Lansdowne this year — kick-off time 10 a.m. This will be farewell for 19 seniors — Co-captains Bill Kauffman and John MacAlpine, Frank Habersent, Don MacElwee, Lee Swan, Howard Shearer, Bob Doherty, Jay Phillippe, B. Barricough, Dick Bell, Charles Neuweller, Steve Snyder, Bill Hoot, Charles Grier, Andy Schneider, Dan Stromberg, Joe Meliace, Bill Ziegenfus and Walter Meyer, manager.

Two well-matched teams, Swarthmore and Prospect Park, battled it out in the first half of the game last Friday on Rutgers Field, to give the crowd a thrilling exhibition of football. The first score came late in the first period after Howard Shearer intercepted a Prospect pass and ran to the 27. On first down Shearer scampered to the 36. Andy Schroder hit the line for a total of 11 yards. Bob Doherty carried it to the 42. Howard Shearer passed to Don MacElwee, who headed for a TD. John MacAlpine converted.

John Van Wyk took the kick-off on the 10 and sped up the side.

Woman's Club to Hear Field Director Speak on CARE

The international friendship department, Mrs. S. Milton Bryant chairman, is in charge of the meeting of the Woman's Club of Swarthmore to be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. Roy McCorkel will speak on "CARE Responds to the World's Needs."

Mr. McCorkel, a resident of Swarthmore, is field director for CARE in this country. For two years he was European field director and saw much of Israel, Yugoslavia, and Southern Europe. He also visited Northern Europe, France, England, and Scandinavia.

Hostesses for the day will be: Mrs. Mark W. Bittle, Mrs. Albert L. Hilles, Jr., Mrs. William W. Turner, and Mrs. Thomas H. Ingram. At the tea following the meeting Mrs. J. Paul Brown and Mrs. Leslie A. Welfauser will pour. Mrs. H. E. Goldsmith and Mrs. Ford E. Robinson of the hospitality committee will assist.

RESOLUTION

WE who have known and worked with John M. Pearson in local government matters wish to record the high esteem in which we held him, to certify to the conscientious and skillful manner in which he performed his work as a Borough Councilman, and to express our profound shock at learning of his untimely death.

A brilliant scientist, director of research for a large corporation, John Pearson worked enthusiastically upon all phases of municipal government—highways, sewers, the fire company, the police, the library board, traffic control.

Convened in special session to express our admiration and respect, and the sympathy of our fellow townsmen, it is hereby resolved and directed that a copy of this resolution, following publication, be delivered to the family of John M. Pearson.

Christmas Seal Sale Begins December 1st

Mrs. Bass Heads Swarthmore Committee of Volunteers

Final Plans are being formulated for the cash sale of Christmas seals which will begin December 1st, according to Mrs. A. W. Bass, chairman of the Swarthmore Committee of the Delaware County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Posters have been placed, with the consent of Swarthmore's ever-patient and loyal businessmen and doctors. Boxes for coins will be located at strategic spots in several stores with the hope that extra pennies and nickels and dimes will find their way into them, to help defray the increasing cost of the work of the Association.

Members of the Junior Woman's Club along with a Committee of Junior High School girls will man the booth at the College Theatre, the management of which has been generously cooperative. There will also be a booth in the Bank where extra seals will be available, and where anyone who may have been missed in the mailings may purchase what has become a symbol of Christmas cheer in America.

Equally important to the Committee has been the assistance of Mrs. Edith Kenney, Swarthmore's School Nurse, under whose direction the school girls will work; and the courtesy extended by the ministers and rectors of the local churches.

Rosemary Cox heads the School Committee with Judy Jarratt, Taylor Barnett and Anne Hutchinson.

Volunteer workers in the Bank will include Mrs. F. H. G. Forysth, Mrs. C. Irwin Galbreath, Jr., Mrs. Charles R. Gerner, Mrs. D. Mace Gowing, Mrs. Harold G. Griffin, Mrs. Robert Kamp, Mrs. William F. Lee, Mrs. Charles W. Lukens, Mrs. Edward L. Noyes, Mrs. Harold Ogram, Mrs. H. Lindley Peel, Mrs. Carroll P. Streeter, Mrs. H. S. Toole and Mrs. Robert J. Turner.

Mrs. C. Newell West heads the Junior Woman's Club Committee.

Community Mourns Dr. John M. Pearson

Research Head Served Borough Council & Library in 18 Years Here

A Memorial service was held for John M. Pearson Wednesday evening in the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Joseph P. Bishop conducted the service.

Dr. Pearson's sudden death on Sunday morning November 16, at his home, 219 Cornell Avenue, shocked and deeply grieved this community which he had generously served and in which he was held in high esteem. He had returned Thursday to his home from Taylor Hospital where he had been hospitalized following a heart attack on October 17.

A physicist and mathematician of national repute, Dr. Pearson had a scholar's humility and an insatiable thirst for wider knowledge. He was the Director of the Physical Division of the Sun Oil Company Research and Development Department. In 1948 he received the Dr. Frank Newman Speller Award, made annually by the National Association of Corrosion Engineers in recognition of outstanding contributions in science and engineering pertaining to the field of corrosion. He held 15 patents on electrical instruments for measurement and control, and had written various articles and papers on electrical measurement in

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Community Thanksgiving Service will be held Wednesday evening, November 26, at 8 p.m. in the Methodist on Park Avenue. The Rev. Joseph P. Bishop will deliver the sermon. The entire community is invited to attend.

CUB PACK 101 CONDUCTS INITIATION TONIGHT

Cub Pack 101 will conduct its annual initiation ceremony tonight at 7:15 in the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church. Boys in the fourth and fifth grades at the Rutgers Avenue School, who have never been Cub Scouts before, as well as all boys in the third grade desiring to join the pack, will be put through their paces.

The ceremony will be performed by members born in their last year of cubbing, assisted by other pack members. Properties used have been made by the boys in their den meetings.

The committee recommended a possible moving of all elementary grades to Rutgers Avenue, but only after the need was definitely evidenced, public support obtained, and several years experience in running a somewhat increased school there and an improved College avenue unit had been gained. A full scale cafeteria was thought unjustified but moving the dividing line to relieve the load on the northern school, and purchasing or leasing adjoining land from Swarthmore College for elementary use at College Avenue were included among recommendations. Haste was urged since it is believed added facilities must be ready for use in September 1954.

Mr. Jones cautioned it was harder to secure operating funds and repayment monies than to borrow the wherewithal to build. With borrowing capacity limited by assessed valuation, the District can borrow up to $500,000 by 1955-56. It could borrow $800,000 through establishment of an Authority, he said, and also presented figures and charts showing departmental cost increases as compared to income over the next eight years.

Extra taxation through an Authority could be applied to debt reduction alone. Aid in bringing operational expenses in line with income could only come from a raise in assessments. Legislative permission to reclassify the District third class before the regular 1960 census, or from an income tax.

Dr. Carpenter, who is also chairman of the School Board's property committee, estimated the lay committee's work represented over 3000 man hours and constituted a wonderful example of Democracy in Action. Whereas an outside group of specialists was first considered, the whole survey was made by public-spirited citizens of the community — all experts in their various fields.

H. & S. Told $800,000 School Expansion Is Needed; Board, Community Hear Ultimatum

Previewing a Lay Building Study Committee report to be presented to School Board the following evening, the Home and School Association Tuesday night was told borough residents face up to a 10-mill Authority tax for elementary expansion and a probable one percent income tax for increased operational costs.

Page upon page of reports resulting in recommendations that $800,000 to $1,000,000 be spent in enlarging the Rutgers Avenue school and modernizing the College Avenue unit, were given before Donald P. Jones, finance chairman, helped parents and other property owners to view the cash facts. The over-all survey indicated 26 classrooms, or 11 more than exist at present, will be needed by 1960. Seven of the new rooms should be ready by September 1954 according to Dr. Samuel T. Carpenter, chairman of the main study committee.

John F. Spencer, chairman of the population trends sub-committee, predicted the school district's present 494 elementary pupils would exceed 700 by 1960, while the high school now having 300 residents and 183 tuition students would reach a 600 capacity from resident students alone in eight years.

Mrs. Oliver Rodgers, chairman of the educational needs and standards study, stated Swarthmore was finding it necessary to keep running if it is to maintain its rank among good schools. She said surrounding communities have made great strides, with new buildings bringing up their educational standards. Meanwhile Swarthmore's elementary schools have rooms only 75 to 80 percent the size called for by present-day standards. The fact that they are already theoretically six classrooms short is partly covered by the housing of three overflow classes in the high school building.

Charles Topping, chairman of the land and buildings sub-committee, reported the College Avenue elementary school was now 25 percent overcrowded while Rutgers Avenue was 12 percent so and would be 40 percent by 1953 and 100 percent by 1958 unless additional classrooms were built. Outdoor play area for elementary use is also greatly sub-standard although this will be corrected at Rutgers Avenue by the 12 adjoining acres now being purchased by the School District.

The high school is deemed adequate until 1958 although some additional space and additional facilities such as a larger library, centralization of science laboratories, and home equipment in the home economics department is needed. When it reaches 600 students it will require the three rooms now lent to the elementary school, plus two others. A 700 high school, accommodating 100 tuition pupils, would require still another three rooms. Since building for tuition pupils is estimated to cost $1500 per pupil and law does not permit figuring capital expenditure in tuition rates, it was generally conceded tuition pupils would have to be dropped when resident pupils taxed the capacity of the present high school set-up.

Mr. Topping stated a 600 resident high school, maintenance of some elementary classes of College Avenue without major alteration, and providing all major construction at Rutgers was the lowest cost plan. It would cost up to $200,000 more, he estimated, for a 700 high school and major construction to the College Avenue elementary school.

The committee recommended a possible moving of all elementary grades to Rutgers Avenue, but only after the need was definitely evidenced, public support obtained, and several years experience in running a somewhat increased school there and an improved College avenue unit had been gained. A full scale cafeteria was thought unjustified but moving the dividing line to relieve the load on the northern school, and purchasing or leasing adjoining land from Swarthmore College for elementary use at College Avenue were included among recommendations. Haste was urged since it is believed added facilities must be ready for use in September 1954.

Whereas an outside group of specialists was first considered, the whole survey was made by public-spirited citizens of the community — all experts in their various fields.

Because of the Thanksgiving Holiday, the deadline for next week's Swarthmorean will be noon, Tuesday, November 25. The paper will be delivered as usual on Friday.

Mr. Bernhardt says that "there are more than 750 active cases of Tuberculosis in Delaware County, of which only approximately one-half are known."

"The Association's aim is to make it possible for all adults to have a free chest survey X-ray within a two-year period, but this work will only be possible if our goal is reached."

21,450 county residents were given free chest survey X-rays last year, according to Mr. Bernhardt, 30,000 more persons were reached through health education programs and another 55,000 through sound health films and printed stories in newspapers and magazines. Equally important is emergency relief for the TB patient and his family, as well as the rehabilitation of many "cured" patients.

Mrs. A. W. Bass, Jr., is chairman of the Swarthmore Campaign Committee, while Mrs. D. Norman Kent heads the group in Wallingford.

United Charities Drive Begins at High School

The United Charities Drive at high school is beginning this week although the regular Drive will come in March. In order to make the Drive a more personal responsibility, it is hoped this year that each homeroom will undertake a major service project such as work for some school, orphanage or nursery with an outstanding need. A list of suggested projects has been drawn up. This includes needs in Japan, Mexico, France, Germany, Alaska and many places in the United States. Elizabeth McKie, junior high school teacher, is in charge of the Drive this year. Elizabeth Forsythe and Cornelia McKernan are joint chairmen representing the Senior High Cabinet. John Pegram represents the junior high school.

Brownie Troop No. 19

Brownie Troop No. 19, under the leadership of Mrs. Charles E. Board and Mrs. T. W. Prescott, is engaged in a service project making bibs for the Children's Ward of Delaware County Hospital. The Troop, which meets in Whittier House on Monday afternoons, will have a Thanksgiving program under the direction of Mrs. Justus J. Bodley, assisted by Mrs. Henry A. Peirson next Monday.

Mrs. William McCawley is chairman of Troop Committee and Communications, assisted by Mrs. John Spencer, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Jarratt, transportation; Mrs. Bodley, refreshments, and Mrs. Pierce MacNair, cookie chairman.

Chemical Engineer Cited

Eleanor A. Greiner of North Chester Road has been elected to junior membership in the American Institute of Chemical Engineers according to an announcement received by the Institute in New York.

A research engineer at the Sun Oil Refinery in Marcus Hook, Miss Greiner is a graduate of Girls' High School in Philadelphia and of Drexel Institute.

HAMBURG SHOW OPEN TO PUBLIC

The Hamburg Show, Swarthmore College's annual student production, will be given Friday and Saturday nights, November 14 and 15 at 8:15 p.m. in Clothier Memorial. This year's show entitled, "The Book Is Open", was written by Marc Merson, a senior student, with music by Jack Hugglett, a sophomore. The entire production is under the direction of Sally Andrews, a junior, and has a cast of 27 members.

The story has its setting in a small college and involves two students, Brain and Jim, who try to work their way through college by running a book-making establishment on campus. Needless to say, this little venture, though unsuccessful, meets with much hostility and gets Brain and Jim into a great deal of difficulty. A group of genteel sorority sisters organize a "reform" movement, to improve the morals of the college. As if this isn't trouble enough, two gangsters, having heard of the boys' "business", decide to extort "protection money" from them. The plot becomes more involved as Brain and Jim encounter difficulties with a football-conscious alumnus, the flower-loving college president, two exceedingly charming heroines, and the two gangsters.

The humorous resolution of their difficulties combined with Hugglett's delightful music gives a light-hearted tone to this show which promises to be one of the most original of recent Swarthmore productions.

Arts Center Participates in Regional Exhibition

The Community Arts Center of Wallingford will participate in the second annual exhibit sponsored by the Regional Council of Community Arts Centers, which will be held in the lobby of the Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Company during the week beginning Monday, November 17. This exhibit will include paintings, pottery, and sculpture of 11 local arts centers. There will be a large exhibit of children's work. In addition to individual awards the community center will receive a silver cup.

A panel of judges has chosen paintings and crafts submitted by members of the Wallingford Community Arts Center for the exhibit. These include paintings by Mrs. John Kitchgasser and Mrs. Norman E. Dutton Wallingford. Mrs. F. D. Hennessey of Media and Floyd Todd of Springfield, Mrs. Heinz Stolte, Mrs. Wolf and Mrs. George Pedlow, Mrs. Thomas B. Lipton, J. Roger Ullrich. Pottery created by Mrs. Marjorie Dutton and sculpture by Heinz Stolte will also be sent.

Robert Walker, Art Director of the Community Arts Center, and Mrs. William McLaughlin, Exhibitions Chairman, are in charge of arranging for this local Center's part in the Exhibition. Mr. Walker is chairman of the department of Fine Arts of Swarthmore College.

A private view of the exhibit will be held Sunday afternoon, November 16, for the benefit of the membership of the community arts centers, as well as for members of the press and invited guests. Mrs. McLaughlin and Mrs. Charles C. Lucas of Rose Valley, representing the Community Arts Center on the Regional Council, will act as hostesses, and Mrs. Gerald Kynett of Wallingford will pour.

Dr. Fussell to Speak At Tri-Delt Luncheon

Dr. Frances Fussell of Swarthmore will be the speaker next Wednesday, November 19, on the occasion of the Philadelphia West Suburban Alliance of Delta Delta Delta 64th Anniversary Founder's Day celebration. Dr. Fussell's talk on "Current Developments in Foreign Problems", will follow the 12:30 luncheon at the Haverford Hotel.

Mrs. Horace Knowles of Wallingford is chairman of the luncheon arrangements. Among those attending will be Mrs. John Bird, Mrs. Donald Crosset, Mrs. Robert Hilkert, Mrs. D. S. Tucker, Mrs. Earl Weltz of Swarthmore, and Mrs. Knowles and Mrs. James Lawrence, Jr., Mrs. Robert Norton of Wallingford.

OVER 200 ATTEND TUESDAY CARD PARTY

The annual Philanthropic Desert Bridge held Tuesday by the Women's Club of Swarthmore was a delightful and gala occasion. More than 200 attended. The tables were gaily decorated with small plants. Numerous door prizes supplied by the committee added to the interest.

Final settlement is not complete, but it is expected that the affair will net about $400. This profit is used for the more than 20 charities of the club. The education and health and welfare departments thank those who by their patronage, gifts, and other assistance made the party so successful.

Clarence C. Franck, Jr., of Cornell avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Franck, has been elected President of the Engineering Club, Swarthmore College.

MARKLEY TO SPEAK

Frank R. Markley, Sun Oil Company vice president in charge of Marketing, will be the principal speaker at the Brandywine District, Boy Scouts of America, dinner to be held at 6:30 P.M. November 19 in the Springfield Central School, Saxer and Powell roads, Springfield.

Mr. Markley, whose home is on Guernsey road, recently returned from a trip to Europe where he renewed business friendships with men in England, Holland and Western Germany.

What these men had to tell him concerning the difficulties of living under statist-type governments such as Socialist, Nazi and Communist, plus his own personal observation, will make up the story he relates to the Boy Scout movement workers in his talk.

Johnson Smith, Rosemary Circle, Ridley Valley Farms, Media, who is chairman of the dinner's Promotion and Attendance committee, expects a crowd of 250 will be there.

H.S. Turkey Clash At Lansdowne

Swarthmore Takes Prospect Park, 25-6, in Game Last Fri.

The annual Thanksgiving Day clash will be played at Lansdowne this year — kick-off time 10 a.m. This will be farewell for 19 seniors — Co-captains Bill Kauffman and John MacAlpine, Frank Habbert, Don MacElwee, Lee Swan, Howard Shearer, Bob Doherty, Jay Phillippe, B. Barraclough, Dick Bell, Charles Neuweller, Steve Snyder, Bill Hoot, Charles Griev, Andy Schroder, Dan Stromberg, Joe Meliace, Bill Ziegenfus and Walter Meyer, manager.

Two well-matched teams, Swarthmore and Prospect Park, battled it out in the first half of the game last Friday on Rutgers Field, to give the crowd a thrilling exhibition of football. The first score came late in the first period after Howard Shearer intercepted a Prospect pass and ran to the 27.

On first down Shearer scampered to the 36. Andy Schroder hit the line for a total of 11 yards. Bob Doherty carried it to the 42. Howard Shearer passed to Don MacElwee, who headed for a TD. John MacAlpine converted.

John Van Wyk took the kick-off on the 10 and sped up the side-on (Continued on Page 8)

Wetlaufer will pour. Mrs. H. E. Goldsmith and Mrs. Ford F. Robinson of the hospitality committee will assist.

Mrs. C. Newell West heads the Junior Woman's Club Committee.

RESOLUTION

WE who have known and worked with John M. Pearson in local government matters wish to record the high esteem in which we hold him, to certify to the conscientious and skillful manner in which he performed his work as a Borough Councilman, and to express our profound shock at learning of his untimely death.

A brilliant scientist, director of research for a large corporation, John Pearson worked enthusiastically upon all phases of municipal government—highways, sewers, the fire company, the police, the library board, traffic control.

Convened in special session to express our admiration and respect, and the sympathy of our fellow townsmen, it is hereby resolved and directed that a copy of this resolution, following publication, be delivered to the family of John M. Pearson.

Christmas Seal Sale Begins December 1st

Mrs. Bass Heads Swarthmore Committee of Volunteers

Final Plans are being formulated for the cash sale of Christmas seals which will begin December 1st, according to Mrs. A. W. Bass, Jr., chairman of the Swarthmore Committee of the Delaware County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Posters have been placed, with the consent of Swarthmore's eventful and loyal businessmen and doctors. Boxes for coins will be located at strategic spots in several stores with the hope that extra pennies and nickels and dimes will find their way into them, to help defray the increasing cost of the work of the Association.

Members of the Junior Woman's Club along with a Committee of Junior High School girls will man the booth at the College Theatre, the management of which has been generously cooperative.

There will also be a booth in the Bank where extra seals will be available, and where anyone who has been missed in the mailings may purchase what has become a symbol of Christmas cheer in America.

Equally important to the Committee has been the assistance of Mrs. Edith Kenney, Swarthmore's School Nurse, under whose direction the school girls will work; and the courtesy extended by the ministers and rectors of the local churches.

Rosemary Cox heads the School Committee with Judy Jarratt, Taylor Barnett and Anne Hutchinsion.

Volunteer workers in the Bank will include Mrs. F. H. G. Forsythe, Mrs. C. Irwin Galbreath, Jr., Mrs. Charles R. Gerner, Mrs. D. Mace Gowing, Mrs. Harold G. Griffin, Mrs. Robert Kamp, Mrs. William F. Lee, Mrs. Charles W. Lukens, Mrs. Edward L. Noyes, Mrs. Harold Ogram, Mrs. H. Lindley Peel, Mrs. Carroll P. Street, Mrs. H. S. Toole and Mrs. Robert J. Turner.

Mrs. C. Newell West heads the Junior Woman's Club Committee.

Community Mourns Dr. John M. Pearson

Research Head Served Boro Council & Library in 18 Years Here

A Memorial service was held for John M. Pearson Wednesday evening in the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Joseph P. Bishop conducted the service.

Dr. Pearson's sudden death on Sunday morning, November 16, at his home, 219 Cornell avenue, shocked and deeply grieved this community which he had generously served and in which he was held in high esteem. He had returned Thursday to his home from Taylor Hospital where he had been hospitalized following a heart attack on October 17.

A physicist and mathematician of national repute, Dr. Pearson had a scholar's humility and an insatiable thirst for wider knowledge. He was the Director of the Physical Division of the Sun Oil Company Research and Development Department. In 1948 he received the Dr. Frank Newman Speller Award, made annually by the National Association of Corrosion Engineers in recognition of outstanding contributions in science and engineering pertaining to the field of corrosion. He held 15 patents on electrical instruments for measurement and control, and had written various articles and papers on electrical measurement in (Continued on Page 8)

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Community Thanksgiving Service will be held Wednesday evening, November 26, at 8 p.m. in the Methodist on Park avenue. The Rev. Joseph P. Bishop will deliver the sermon. The entire community is invited to attend.

CUB PACK 101 CONDUCTS INITIATION TONIGHT

Cub Pack 101 will conduct its annual initiation ceremony tonight at 7:15 in the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church. Boys in the fourth and fifth grades at the Rutgers Avenue School, who have never been Cub Scouts before, as well as all boys in the third grade desiring to join the pack, will be put through their paces.

The ceremony will be performed by members now in their last year of cubbing, assisted by other pack members. Properties used have been made by the boys in their den meetings.

Parents of all boys becoming Cub Scouts for the first time are urged to be present at the induction. Other parents, friends and all townspeople are cordially invited.

The committee recommended a possible moving of all elementary grades to Rutgers avenue, but only after the need was definitely evident, public support obtained, and several years experience in running a somewhat increased school there and an improved College

H. & S. Told $800,000 School Expansion Is Needed; Board, Community Hear Ultimatum

Previewing a Lay Building Study Committee report to be presented to School Board the following evening, the Home and School Association Tuesday night was told borough residents face up to a 10-mill Authority tax for elementary expansion and a probable one percent income tax for increased operational costs.

Page upon page of reports resulting in recommendations that $800,000 to $1,000,000 be spent in enlarging the Rutgers avenue school and modernizing the College avenue unit, were given before Donald P. Jones, finance chairman, helped parents and other property owners to view the cash facts. The over-all survey indicated 26 classrooms, or 11 more than exist at present, will be needed by 1960. Seven of the new rooms should be ready by September 1954 according to Dr. Samuel T. Carpenter, chairman of the main study committee.

John F. Spencer, chairman of the population trends sub-committee, predicted the school district's present 494 elementary pupils would exceed 700 by 1960, while the high school now having 300 residents and 183 tuition students would reach a 600 capacity from resident students alone in eight years.

Mrs. Oliver Rodgers, chairman of the educational needs and standards study, stated Swarthmore was finding it necessary to keep running if it is to maintain its rank among good schools. She said surrounding communities have made great strides, with new buildings bringing up their educational standards. Meanwhile Swarthmore's elementary schools have rooms only 75 to 90 percent the size called for by present-day standards. The fact that they are already theoretically six classrooms short is partly covered by the housing of three overflow classes in the high school building.

Charles Topping, chairman of the land and buildings sub-committee, reported the College avenue elementary school was now 25 percent overcrowded while Rutgers avenue was 12 percent and would be 40 percent by 1953 and 100 percent by 1958 unless additional classrooms were built. Outdoor play area for elementary use is also greatly sub-standard although this will be corrected at Rutgers avenue by the 12 adjoining acres now being purchased by the School District.

The high school is deemed adequate until 1958 although some rearrangement of space and additional facilities such as a larger library, centralization of science laboratories, and home equipment is needed. When it reaches 600 students it will require three rooms now lent to the elementary school, plus two others. A 700 high school, accommodating 100 tuition pupils, would require still another three rooms. Since building for tuition pupils is estimated to cost $1500 per pupil and law does not permit figuring capital expenditure in tuition rates, it was generally conceded tuition pupils would have to be dropped when resident pupils taxed the capacity of the present high school set-up.

Mr. Topping stated a 600 resident high school, maintenance of some elementary classes at College avenue without major alteration, and providing all major construction at Rutgers was the lowest cost plan. It would cost up to $200,000 more, he estimated, for a 700 high school and major construction to the College avenue elementary school.

The committee recommended a possible moving of all elementary grades to Rutgers avenue, but only after the need was definitely evident, public support obtained, and several years experience in running a somewhat increased school there and an improved College avenue unit had been gained. A full scale cafeteria was thought unjustified but moving the dividing line to relieve the load on the northern school, and purchasing or leasing adjoining land from Swarthmore College for elementary use at College avenue were included among recommendations. Haste was urged since it is believed added facilities must be ready for use in September 1954.

Mr. Jones cautioned it was harder to secure operating funds and repayment monies than to borrow the wherewithal to build. With borrowing capacity limited by assessed valuation, the District can borrow up to $500,000 by 1959-60. It could borrow $800,000 through establishment of an Authority, he said, and also presented figures and charts showing departmental cost increases as compared to income over the next eight years.

Extra taxation through an Authority could be applied to debt reduction alone. Aid in bringing operational expenses in line with income could only come from a raise in assessments, Legislative permission to reclassify the District third class before the regular 1960 census, or from an income tax.

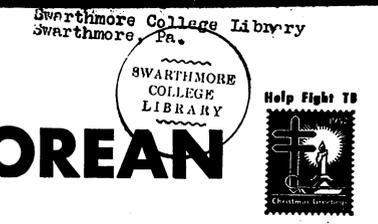

Swarthmore's real estate tax is up to the 35-mill hit for a fourth class district now. There is a real estate transfer tax and this year the School Board added a $15 per capita levy. The borough has no taxable amusements or industries and a large portion occupied by Swarthmore College and other institutions is tax free. A sales tax is considered unfeasible since it would drive away most business now enjoying by the town's small shopping area.

As Mr. Jones stated, "Residents are going to have to do something they dislike — either provide the funds to expand present schools or relinquish the idea of maintaining 25 to 30 pupil classes and accompanying modern educational standards".

Dr. Carpenter, who is also chairman of the School Board's property committee, estimated the lay committee's work represented over 3000 man hours and constituted a wonderful example of Democracy in Action. Whereas an outside group of specialists was first considered, the whole survey was made by public-spirited citizens of the community — all experts in their various fields.

MY THANKSGIVING
For Thy care of me thro' the changeful years
For the blessed privilege of tears
For Thy "Fear thou not" when assailed by fears
I thank Thee, Lord.
For health and strength and abiding will
That enable me my place to fill,
While remembering Thy "Peace be Still"
I thank Thee, Lord.
For Thy chastening rod that has proved Thy Love,
For my steadfast faith scoff cannot move
For Thy promise of sweet rest above,
I thank Thee, Lord.
For the soul's dark battles often won,
For the finishing of tasks begun,
For the power to say "Thy will be done"
I thank Thee, Lord.

Time flies fast AT THE SWITCHBOARD

Yes, time actually flies keeping pace with flying fingers. Before you know it, lunchtime; before you know it, time to apply the lipstick and go home. Any number of operators, given a chance to do other telephone work, prefer to stay with operating. They find the work so interesting that the time passes rapidly. And here are some other advantages of a telephone job:

- pleasant surroundings
- good starting salary, good chances for advancement
- regular employment with a well-known, well-regarded employer
- no experience needed to start

Annual Members Exhibit Opens at Arts Center

The Annual Members Exhibit will be opened with a reception and tea on Sunday, November 23, to which all members and friends of the Arts Center are cordially welcome.

The Annual Member's Exhibit is a concrete illustration of one of the aims of the Community Arts Center, according to Robert Walker, Art Director, providing for its members an opportunity to develop their talents, to show their work for the enjoyment of others, and to observe the work of their fellow members. Mr. Walker is Director of the Fine Arts Department at Swarthmore College.

The Exhibition has been arranged by Mrs. William A. McLaughlin of Wallingford, exhibitions chairman, and will continue until the Center closes for the Christmas recess.

Mothers Square Dance To Be Held Tonight at 9

Highlighting the Mother's club square dance to be held tonight at 9 at the Swarthmore Woman's club will be festive fall decorations of cornstalks, pumpkins and scarecrows.

Mrs. Norman Weeks, refreshment committee chairman, has announced that Mrs. Leo Marshall and Mrs. Joseph Hildebrand will assist on that committee. Mrs. Harold Hildebrand, square dance committee chairman, has urged all members to attend, pointing out that novices at square dancing can have just as good a time as those who have had experience. Mrs. Frances Sorden will be the caller.

Welfare committee chairman, Mrs. Allan R. Crawford, is in charge of the club's program to all Christmas stockings for 39 boys at Sunnycrest farm, who range in age from nine to 15 years.

This year the club will also provide toys for the physical equipment at the Dante Home in Concordville. Mrs. Peter E. Coste, club president, urges all members who are interested in this project to donate such gifts as games, puzzles, records, and outgrown toys for pre-school children. She cited that the primary need is for toys for children of pre-school age. Club members may bring their contributions for this organization to Mrs. Coste's home 121 Rutgers avenue.

Investiture Held for 3 Girl Scout Troops

On Monday, at the Presbyterian Church, in the traditional candle-light service based on the Girl Scout laws and promise, the following girls of Troop 331 received their Tenderfoot pins:

The Troop leaders, Mrs. Roy McCorkel and Mrs. Thomas Prather, with the help of their committee, served punch and cookies to the scout mothers who were the guests of their daughters.

Brownie Troops 428 and 423, under the combined leadership of Mrs. James K. Gray, Mrs. F. G. Forward, Mrs. Richard Bieler, Mrs. Robert Bird and Mrs. John Thompson, held their ceremony in the High School auditorium on Tuesday afternoon. The initiation had just enough of the elfin touch to delight both the Brownies and their mothers who were in the audience. The little gold pins put on the new uniforms upside down, with the admonition that a Good Deed cheerfully done would permit Mother to turn it right side up! The Brownies who participated are:

Before tea, orange juice and cookies were served in the cafeteria, the Neighborhood Chairmen, Mrs. Gowling and Mrs. Campbell, and the two Troop Committees received a delightful surprise in the form of a lovely rose presented by the leaders and their Brownies. The committee members are Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Wayne Goff, Mrs. Ned Williams, Mrs. S. L. Dart, Mrs. J. H. Brockell, Mrs. Ford Robinson, Mrs. Jane Bowerman, Mrs. John Carroll, Mrs. J. A. Calhoun, and Mrs. H. E. Michener.

COOKOUT FOR TROOP 269
Despite the first really typical November weather, sixth grade Girl Scouts of Troop 269, had a grand time cooking their supper in the Scout House last Monday evening. Mrs. Herbert Huse led the enterprise, and conducted the singing and games before the open fire after the meal.

Odd Nansen Speaks Here On "World Government"

World Government, — Europe's State" was presented by Odd Nansen, famous Norwegian philanthropist, author and advocate of World Government on November 17, at McCahan Hall in the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church.

Willard Tomlinson, who chaired this united effort by East and West Delaware County Chapters of United World Federalists, told of flying difficulties which delayed the speaker and almost prevented his attendance.

Odd Nansen, declaring that wars are the results of tensions and misunderstanding between East and West, said that the situation calls for federation, which is more familiar to United States citizens who have already achieved federation. People abroad would be less cynical and more confident if Europe knew what the attitude is in the United States.

First, he said, peoples must be fed and the movement must include the working man. Disarmament he stated, was complicated and a difficult problem but not impossible. One plan covers 12 years with one third of the armed force to be discarded each fourth year.

An international police force was listed as absolutely essential.

School Board to Hear Upper Prov. Problems

To Press for Third Class Rating; Jean Stratton Resigns

School Board Wednesday evening received a letter from Upper Providence School District seeking a conference on taking that township's children indefinitely as tuition pupils in Swarthmore High School, or making provision for a jointure. Donald P. Jones and John F. Spencer of the local Board were delegated to hold such a conference. It was felt that although Swarthmore is far from a solution of related problems, Upper Providence is a similar community in many ways and viewing its outlook might be useful in working on tuition program sending $12,000 worth of pupils to Swarthmore.

Also looking to the urgent need for expansive action and finances locally, the Board agreed to ask the County School Directors Association in pressing for Legislative action meeting in Springfield the next evening to seek State Board permission for an interim census to raise Swarthmore from a fourth to a third class district.

The resignation of Guidance Counselor Jean Stratton, effective December 31, was accepted with regret. Miss Stratton who is marrying and moving to Washington, D.C., will meet with the Board at its reorganization meeting, to be held at the home of Secretary Dorothy Rodgers on December 3, and evaluate the guidance program.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bowden, Jr., formerly of Swarthmore, who have been living in Bellevue, Wash., for a short time, have returned and are now residing at 411 North Swarthmore avenue. Mr. Bowden has been transferred to this territory by Scott Paper Company.

Pvt. Charles Laws of Springfield, formerly of Swarthmore, is with the 6th Armored Division at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Davidson Leuching of North Chester road has been pledged to Sigma Chi, social fraternity, at the University of Rochester. He holds a scholarship in the University's Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps, and a member of the Yellow Key, the University's hospitality organization.

Dr. Lewis Robinson Dies, Former Prof. at College

He was confined to one's official period of youthful schooling.

This group, originally called the "Thursday Evening Group", was started in 1930 when former pupils of Dr. Robinson expressed a desire to meet with him to discuss economic and political questions as they once had done. The group eventually came to include non-Swarthmore graduates and in its 22 years of existence grew to include a membership of more than 70.

Dr. Robinson was a resident of Swarthmore for more than 50 years. He lived in the house facing the entrance to the College at 411 College Avenue. He was a director of the Swarthmore National Bank and Trust Company. He recently retired as president of the board of the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored People of Philadelphia.

He was also a member of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology, the American Statistical Association, Delta Upsilon and Phi Beta Kappa fraternities, and Book and Key.

He belonged to the University Club of Philadelphia, the Rose Tree Fox Hunt Club of Media, and the Lake Shore Club of Chicago.

In 1908 Dr. Robinson married Caroline Hadley, also a graduate of Swarthmore College. His first wife died in 1946. He married for the second time in 1947, this time to Mrs. Marylyn Wyce.

Dr. Robinson is survived by his second wife, Marylyn, and six children by his previous marriage, Walter H. Robinson, of Vancouver, Wash.; Miles T. Robinson, Walla Walla, Wash.; Mrs. Howard R. Erb of Allentown; Mrs. William B. Taylor, of Coatesville, John Robinson, of Tunkhannock, and T. Thatcher Robinson, of Princeton, N.J., and 20 grandchildren. Allen H. Robinson, son of Walter, is a freshman at Swarthmore College.

Private services will be held at North Eaton Burying Ground Saturday morning. The family requests that flowers be omitted.

Memorial services will be held in the Swarthmore Meeting House, Sunday, November 30, at 3 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Hobbs and daughter Laura, and Mrs. Geneve Mohney of Park avenue spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Hobbs' brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Mohney of Drexel Hill.

Mrs. Ethel Waterbury who has been a patient at Taylor Hospital with a broken ankle, is now located at The Elwood, Baltimore pike.

Mrs. Waterbury's son Mr. Leslie Waterbury of Evanston, Ill., spent the week-end in Swarthmore visiting his mother and his sister Mrs. Richard H. Willis of Dogwood lane.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wallace, former residents of Chestnut Hill, Mass., are now living in their newly built home at 34 Oxford road, Wellesley, Mass. Mrs. Wallace is the former Miss Carolyn Cresson of Swarthmore.

Alan Hunt and William Huey, both students at the University of Michigan Law School, will spend the holiday week-end at their homes here.

Mrs. S. S. Cletcher of Weaver, S. D., who is visiting her aunts Miss Eliza Dougal and Miss Margaret Dougal of Elm avenue, entertained at a luncheon at the Warwick last Thursday followed by a theater party in honor of Mrs. Harold Townsend, the former Miss Elliot Jeffords of Vassar avenue.

Women Hear McCorkel On CARE, Good Will Org.

cent of CARE packages follow this friend-to-friend pattern and as a result a great deal of good-will has been created among persons whose viewpoints were once completely alien. He feels that these informal, friendly contacts are one of the ways by which Americans can dispel the cloud of suspicion manufactured by those who declare there is a sinister motive behind our country's generosity.

CARE's latest achievement has been to perfect a plan that will enable anyone who wishes to carry on his own small-scale Point Four program. A boy can be sent for $18.50 an apprentice package of tools which will make it possible for him to learn a trade. Or a group of persons can buy an iron lung for a needy hospital.

Working with UNESCO, CARE is trying to restock bombed out libraries in Europe with indispensable reference books for graduate students. And under the guidance of the World Health Organization, one of the scientific branches of the United Nations, CARE hopes to save lives with medical materials such as a midwives package containing the necessary sterile dressings for 24 maternity cases. It costs $24.

"The Point Four idea has the ability to stop Communism", concluded Mr. McCorkel. Our age is the first to make the benefits of civilization available on a large scale to all people around the world. CARE is one of the organizations that is trying to help."

Tuesday's meeting was in charge of the Club's international friendship committee of which Mrs. S. Milton Bryant is chairman.

Miss Anne Hussey who has been spending the summer and fall months in North Berwick, Me., has returned to her apartment at 211 College avenue.

Warm and Glamorous

Make it a warm Christmas, a glamorous Christmas, a cheery, sunny, bonny one — or all five if you like . . . choosing the WORD isn't one-fifth as important as selecting the gift that suits her taste and gives her the greatest pleasure.

We have the widest selection possible, not to make the choice harder for you — but to make sure we have what SHE would like . . . the daintiest lingerie, graceful, quilted robes, exquisite negligees, hosiery by Berkshire.

And, blouses, to be sure — wooly, nylon, sheer — coats for a certainty — sportswear, of course! The right gift for the right person makes Christmas giving truly a pleasure.

SENIOR BALL HELD

"Gypsy Violins" set the theme of the Senior Ball presented last Friday night in the high school gymnasium. Violins decorated the wall, and a tableau of gypsies before the campfire brightened one corner of the "ballroom". Gypsy music provided by Mrs. Russell Snyder at the piano, Robert Hilkert on the cello, and David Spencer on the violin, substituting for Mrs. Herman Gold, entertained the dancers and relieved Bob Horton's orchestra during intermission. Gypsy waitresses served refreshments.

General chairman of the ball was Ronny Gold, with Bill Hoot as his business manager; Bill Barracough had charge of the band, Pat Blake the invitations, Sue Harrar the theme, Dolores Zensen the decorations. Liz Forsythe handled publicity.

Also contributing materially to the event was the Senior Mothers Committee, of which Mrs. J. Kenneth Doherty is chairman. Mrs. E. W. Crosby was chairman of decorations for the cafeteria. Mrs. Howard Green, Mrs. Howard Shearer, and Mrs. William Ziegenfuss were in charge of the refreshments.

Chaperons, parents of class officers and members of the faculty and their wives, included Mr. and Mrs. I. R. MacElwee, Mr. and Mrs. Avery F. Blake, Dr. and Mrs. Gold, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Mygatt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hofmann, Mr. and Mrs. William Bush and Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Morey.

Joan Pennock, junior in the department of arts and sciences at Oberlin College, Ohio, played in the traditional Army-Navy all-star hockey game at the college last Saturday. A sociology major, she played in the game last year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pennock of Whittier place.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL 'LOOKS UP'

Football in the Junior high school has been looking up this year, as exhibited by the number of boys out, and their records. The three squads, under the coaching of William Reese and James Jamison, include the heavyweights, middleweights and lightweights. The heavyweights, although making a poor start, showed great improvement in facing Lansdowne 33-6 in the finale. But equally promising were the lightweights who ran up some of the largest scores in the history of Swarthmore junior high football.

The heavyweights: Pete Arrison, John Lewis, Ted Shatgan, Al Baughn, Walt Mann, Don Widowson, Tim McKee, Les Keighn, Hugh Morrison, Scott Pickard, Dick Snyder (Co-Capt.), Bill Lee, Hap Dunning, Ken Riddle, Dwight Sipler, George Kroon, Charles Wentze (Co-Capt.), Cal Coleman, Dick Coles, Herb Steigleman, John DeGroot, and Fred Bloom (Mgr.).

The amazing lightweights. Ken Crothers, Terry Allen, Jim Noyes, Mike Kerr, Jack Walters, Bill Morrison, Jim Patterson, Larry Jones, John Fischer, Lauren Dickinson, Keith Richardson, Bob Bradshaw, Bill Lathbury, Bill Bevan, George Brodhead, Carl Hally, Ed Payne, Rich Gurin, Dick Johnson; Harry Tarr and Henry Coe, managers.

The records of the teams are as follows: The heavyweights defeated Netzer Providence 20-0 and Lansdowne 33-6 while losing to Ridley Park 0-14, Springfield 7-13, and Eddystone 7-19.

Regardless of their record, the middleweights showed the spirit and fight so necessary for any winning team. They beat East Lansdowne 13-7, losing to Springfield 0-13 and Ridley Park 7-13.

The most spectacular scores came from the ranks of the lightweights who downed Springfield 41-6, East Lansdowne 38-0 and Ridley Park 13-0. Their only defeat came at the hands of Lansdowne who whipped them 19-0.

Anne Lukens of Strath Haven avenue arrived home Wednesday from Bucknell University for the holiday week-end.

Ginny Gehring of William Smith College, Geneva, N.Y., is spending the holiday week-end at her home on University place.

Polly Told of Bucknell University is spending the Thanksgiving holidays at her home on Park avenue.

Bruce Gemmill of Vassar avenue is home from Rensselaer University, N.Y., for the holiday week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gehring of University place have returned from a week's visit with their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacFarland and family of North Augusta, S.C.

J. Milton Neale, 2nd a freshman at Denison University, Granville, Ohio, is currently enrolled in Air Science 1 of the Air Force ROTC program. He is the son of J. M. Neale of Moylan.

Shirley Smith, a sophomore at Connecticut College, New London, is on the Decoration Committee for the Sophomore Hop, December 6. Shirley is the daughter of Mrs. Marjorie Smith of Wallingford.

Mrs. C. A. Ward of Chatham, Mass., for many years a resident of Swarthmore, has returned to the Borough to spend the winter at the Strath Haven Inn. Miss Patty Campbell of Haverford avenue, made a trip to Chatham and accompanied her aunt to her new home.

FREE GALLERY TALKS

Free Gallery talks and illustrated lectures are currently being held at the Philadelphia Museum of Art on the Parkway at 26th street, Philadelphia. The lectures take place at 3:30 p.m., on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Sundays, and will continue through May, 1953.

Persons wishing to join the Gallery Talks are requested to meet at the second floor Auditorium. Talks start promptly. Topics for December 2, 3 and 4 are, respectively, England and the 18th century; Influence of the Orient on Western art; French and Flemish tapestries.

To Speak

Eleanor Stabler Clarke will speak in the Friends Meeting House next Sunday evening, November 30 at 8 p.m., on "The American Friends Service Committee's Material Aids Program in Europe".

Mrs. Clarke has returned recently from visiting these Centers, and will accompany her talk with her own color slides.

All are welcome to attend.

PHILADELPHIA ELECTRIC COMPANY

College to Present Original Play Dec. 5 & 6

From Los Angeles to the stage of Clothier Memorial at Swarthmore College is a long way to travel, but that is how far Florence Stevenson will have gone when her new play, "Child's Play", is presented by the Swarthmore Little Theater Club under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Pearson Lange, on Friday and Saturday evenings, December 5 and 6.

The play is about the Salem witch hunts of 1692, reflecting Miss Stevenson's interest in the unusual conditions of certain historical periods. She is working at present on a play dealing with the Victorian era.

"Child's Play" was presented as a Master's thesis for the M. A. degree at Yale Drama School, which Miss Stevenson attended for postgraduate work. Since her graduation from the University of Southern California, she has worked as an actress and journalist in California, along with playwrighting. Her play, "The Stranger", was produced at the Jarvis Preview Theater in Hollywood, while "Child's Play" won the Frederick Ward Award at the Theater-Americana in Altadena, Calif.

Miss Stevenson's acting experience was primarily with small theater groups in California. For a while she was with the Gryphon Players in Laguna Beach, and at the Coronet Theater in Los Angeles she appeared in "Stage Door" as well as several other plays. She worked as Drama critic for the Los Angeles Mirror; for the Culver City Star News she was Drama Critic, Book Reviewer, and Cafe Editor. She has acted on the radio and in motion pictures at Columbia studios.

Miss Stevenson is at present in New York, but she will be at Swarthmore for a week before the performance, working with Mrs. Lange on final details of the production.

College Department Host To French Delegation

The Department of Economics at Swarthmore College was host on Monday to a delegation of French Economists that has been brought to the United States by The Mutual Security Administration. The delegation, consisting of 11 leaders in economic research and education in France, has been visiting the great universities and research institutes throughout the country. Swarthmore was selected for examination as affording an outstanding example of instruction in the liberal arts. It is the only small college to be visited by the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Craton Pitner and sons Tommy and Robert of Baltimore visited over Thanksgiving with Mrs. Pitner's mother Mrs. P. L. Whitaker of Park avenue.

Capt. and Mrs. C. C. Shute of Maple avenue will entertain at a week-end house party in honor of friends who will arrive to attend the Army-Navy game.

June Shearer, a student at William and Mary, Williamsburg, Va., accompanied by her roommate Barbara Newbery of Rochester, N.Y., is spending the holiday week-end at her home on Swarthmore avenue.

Social Security Pointers

Any person who has been in work covered by social security continuously since January 1, 1951, and is now 65 years old or over, is now insured and eligible for benefit payments, if he retires, Herbert W. Gruber, Manager of the Chester office said today.

The 1950 changes in the social security law make it possible for many persons in the newly covered groups to qualify for retirement benefits for the first time, Gruber said. These groups include the self-employed, regular domestic workers, regular farm workers, and others.

To get payments based solely on work brought under the law as of January 1951, these wage earners and self-employed persons must be covered by social security for at least six calendar quarters — about a year and a half — after 1950. The size of their monthly benefit payment will depend on the average monthly wage from employment or income from self-employment after 1950.

Gruber suggested that persons anticipating retirement discuss their situation with the Chester social security office, 5th and Market streets, Chester. Their retirement date might be very important in deciding the amount of their future benefits. He also stated that informational pamphlets describing the new amendments are available in his office without charge. "It's important," he said, "that everyone who is covered by social security be familiar with their rights and privileges."

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew McKinnell and daughters Joan and Carolyn of Yale avenue are spending the Thanksgiving week-end visiting Mrs. McKinnell's mother Mrs. Ella Buck and her sister Mrs. Matthew Donaldson and family of Basking Ridge, N.J. Mr. and Mrs. Avery F. Blake of Amherst avenue entertained at open house Saturday evening, following the Swarthmore-Haverford game, in honor of the birthday anniversary of their son Avery, Jr. The guests included the Swarthmore College football team of which he is captain and members of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.
