Civil Defense, Red Cross Course Here

100 Volunteer Workers Learn Methods of Mass Care

A Civil Defense Mass Care drill and instruction was conducted at the Woman's Club Tuesday and 100 volunteer workers from a four county area assembled for the all day program. Mrs. J. Albright Jones, chairman of the Swarthmore branch, American Red Cross, opened the program in which 42 Swarthmore volunteers participated. Father McCloskey of St. Charles Seminary pronounced the invocation.

Jack Anderson, Director, Eastern Area, State Council of Civil Defense, discussed "After the H-Bomb, What?" stressing the uncertainty of attack and defining Civil Defense as an insurance policy as it prepares self and family to care for themselves in the event of an emergency.

Police and firemen, all the normal governmental agencies will be too busy to help. Family doctors and nurses will also be in too much demand. Take the Red Cross Home Nursing Course. Keep fire extinguishers in your homes and learn how to use them.

Mr. Anderson closed with a plea for greater support, financial and active, of the Civil Defense set-up.

Mrs. Dorothy S. Abramson, deputy director of welfare, Eastern Area, SCCD, then cooperated with Henry Ross, director of Disaster Services, Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter, American Red Cross, in an hour and a half drill in organizing a 30 x 60 foot emergency mass care shelter. Comment by workers praised the exercise as an effective lesson.

Following the luncheon recess, Admiral J. V. McElduff, County Civil Defense chairman, welcomed the reassembled workers prior to a drill demonstration in registration and inquiry in which all volunteers participated under the leadership of Clifford Lane, supervisor, Delaware County Board of Assistance. Each worker received a pamphlet of Mass Care centers.

Mr. Ross answered a question "What is the Red Cross' part in Civil Defense?" with "Cooperation will the Civil Defense in each locality as it is asked." In Swarthmore Mass Care is under the direction of the Red Cross. "The Red Cross is dedicated to all disaster and anytime it is called out, it responds," he concluded.

Mrs. C. C. Shute, local chairman of Red Cross volunteers, worked with Mrs. Jones throughout the day.

Court Trial Ordered On Boro Swim Club

Preliminary Objections Dismissed On Monday

Objections to the building of the Swarthmore Swim Club's proposed community pool at Riverview avenue and the railroad were dismissed Monday morning when argued before the four judges of the Delaware County Court of Common Pleas in the Media Court House. The court directed that the matter be ordered down for an early trial. Although no date was set at the time, it is expected the case will be heard within the next few weeks.

Legal proceedings against the placement of the 500-family membership pool on the four-and-a-half acre vacant plot bordered on the east by the Piascecki Helicopter plant and on the north by Springfield Township were instituted by several residents of the Riverview avenue area last spring following approval of the pool and site by Borough Council and the Swarthmore Property Owners Association.

Hannum, president, will welcome new and returning members of the club and guests.

Officers and board members met at the home of Patricia Welland on Tuesday night, September 14, to complete plans for the coming season. A dance will be held in November with details to be announced later.

Community Nursing Services to Unite

Mrs. Groff to Direct New Red Feather Service For 296,000

At the final meetings of the Board of Directors, the Community Health Society of Central Delaware County and the Public Health Nursing Service, Delaware County, voted to consolidate their organizations in the interests of better service for 296,000 residents in the 130 square miles of the county.

Under the leadership of Samuel Evans, Jr., of Lansdowne, president of the Public Health Nursing Service, and Mrs. Carl H. Schmitt, of Springfield, president of the Community Health Society, work has been going on for months to arrange consolidation of the two nursing services. It is hoped that the formalities will be concluded early in October.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Groff will be the Executive Director of the whole which will be known as the Community Nursing Service, Delaware County, with offices at 60 S. Lansdowne avenue, Lansdowne. Eastern, Western and Central Committees, each with a chairman who serves on the Board of Directors will operate to promote local initiative and participation. Offices will be continued in the Borough Hall, Swarthmore, for the Western area.

It is hoped that by this consolidation, with its elimination of boundary problems, health services may be given more equitably and efficiently and that greater economy through centralized purchasing and administration may result.

The proposed new organization will be a non-profit incorporate body, and a member of the Community Chest of Philadelphia and Vicinity — a Red Feather Service.

Facts About School Union With Rutledge

As a result of resolutions approved unanimously by the Swarthmore and Rutledge school boards at their September meetings, the following question will be submitted to voters of both boroughs at the general election on November 2:

"Shall a Union School District be formed composed of the School Districts of the Boroughs of Swarthmore and Rutledge?"

The two school boards favor the creation of the union district and seek the approval of a majority of those voting in each borough. Rejection by either one would defeat the plan. If approved, the union district would become effective in July, 1955, the beginning of the next school fiscal year. In the near future printed information will be circulated in both boroughs, and public meetings will be arranged to further explain the proposal.

Meanwhile, for the enlightenment of its readers The Swarthmorean presents the following information in question and answer form.

Q. What is a Union district?

A. A Union district is similar in every respect to any other school district of the same population bracket, except that it encompasses two or more areas formerly separate school entities. A single board operates the schools in accordance with the Pennsylvania School Code. Since the classification of a union district depends on the combined population.

Bishop-Author Speaks

On Monday evening, October 4, the Men's Club of Trinity Church will be host at a parish dinner. The guest of honor will be the Rt. Rev. Quentin K. Y. Huang, who is Bishop of the Holy Catholic Church in China, an autonomous church within the Anglican Communion.

Bishop Huang is now a refugee in the United States. He was elected Bishop of Yunkwei, which is in Southwest China, in 1947. Two years later, the hard-working bishop, who was in the process of organizing his new diocese, found that Communist forces were sweeping from east to west. Not many months later, the city of Kunming fell and the two provinces, Yunnan and Kweichow, which comprised his diocese, were overrun.

Bishop Huang was the first bishop to be imprisoned by the Chinese Communists. He has written a book, "Now It Can Be Told," describing his experiences before and during his imprisonment.

The Bishop was educated in Episcopal schools in China and was ordained to the ministry in the United States after study at the University of Pennsylvania and the Philadelphia Divinity School. He will speak to members of Trinity Church on his experiences in China. The public is invited to hear him at 8 o'clock in the parish hall downstairs.

Swarthmore Defeats Darby Team 25 to 14

Meet Nether Providence Today at 3:00 P.M. Rutgers Field

A new Swarthmore high school football team bounced back from a 14-13 deficit to win the 1954 opener against Darby 25-14. A large Swarthmore rooting section enthusiastically turned out and shared the victory with the boys.

Lady Luck gave the Garnet a good send-off when Charlie Hummer's kick-off was recovered by his teammate, Terry Dellmuth, on the Darby 40 yard line. With quarterback Randy Mallin calling the plays, Cal Coleman broke through a large hole on the fourth play for Swarthmore's first touchdown. The extra point attempt by co-captain Dellmuth was blocked but Swarthmore stood in the lead 6-0. Following the next kick-off, Darby was stymied by a great defensive line play by the Swarthmore gridders and were forced to kick. Mixing line bucks with end sweeps by John Lewis, the Garnet was again pounding on the touchdown door. The decisive play here was a great line buck by Dellmuth at the 10 yard line, giving a very much needed first down after having been tackled in the backfield. Two plays later Dellmuth went on a gaping hole in right tackle for the score. This time the extra point was made and Swarthmore stood in front 13-0. But not for long.

The Darby Rams, finding it practically impossible to gain on the ground, turned to their air attack, and in one of the most sensational plays of the game, Quarterback Paschal retreated deep in his territory and hurled a 40 yard pass to a teammate who twisted and turned his way the remaining 30 yards to Darby's first touchdown in two years. They completely fooled the Garnet boys when they threw a pass for the extra point rather than kicking.

It was evident that Swarthmore was a little over confident at this moment, and as the result of a punt fumbled by Cal Coleman on Swarthmore's own 10 yard line, Darby was in possession of the ball and threatening to score. Three plays later they pushed over and went ahead 14-13 at half time.
The third quarter saw a much more spirited and determined Swarthmore team. Although it was scoreless, they thwarted all Darby attempts and condition started to tell. As the fourth quarter got under way, Darby again turned to their air attack which was broken up immediately by Dick Snyder's pass interception on the Darby 40. From here you could see the new Garnet team go into action and in two plays with great blocking by everyone, Cal Coleman traveled 35 yards to Swarthmore's third touchdown. Again the extra point was blocked but Swarthmore had the lead 19-14.
After the kick-off Darby again tested Snyder's defensive ability and he promptly intercepted another aerial, giving Swarthmore the ball at midfield. With a persistence that was not to be denied, the team moved the ball down to the goal line where Co-Captain Dellmuth threw across the goal line for the last and final touchdown. First downs showed Swarthmore leading 14-3. There were many newcomers in the lineup who did a fine job. Particularly outstanding at end were Charlie Hummer, Allen Vaughn and George Pappas. Ed Noyes did well as defensive tackle as did John Lewis at right half back. Of course, the performance of Co-Captain Dellmuth and Zensen stood out from the beginning and much more can be expected from them. Particularly outstanding was the line play of Mike Hurd, Carl Thomas, Stew Bowie and Preston Hollander. Their ability to open holes for the ball carriers to scoot through and to hold the line on defensive made the big difference in this ball game.
This afternoon the Nether Providence blue and gold will continue to Rutgers Avenue Field. It is always a hardy fought contest and of course the Garnet will be out to avenge last year's defeat at the hands of the team that went on to win their class championship.

Letter to the Editor

police force has been considerably expanded to provide more patrolling of streets and better enforcement of the motor code. The Council and the Burgess are continually seeking ways for stricter enforcement of our laws. A higher rate of arrests has been obtained. The cost of operating our Police Department has increased from $22,582 in 1947 to $38,493 in 1953. The police budget for 1954 will be exceeded because of increased expenditures for public safety.

In the fall of 1953, the Council adopted a plan to guard three of the most dangerous school crossings during school transit hours. This plan remains in effect this fall. This compares with Springfield Township, a much larger community where 6 school crossings are guarded by part-time employees, supported half by the school board and half by the municipality. The three Swarthmore crossings are: Yale and Rutgers avenue—being guarded by a police officer except during emergencies when he must attend to regular police duties.

Chester road and College avenue—being guarded by a deputized part-time employee. We are fortunate at this point to obtain the services of a public minded citizen who, in my humble opinion, has been instrumental in saving lives.

Swarthmore, Elm and Princeton avenues—being guarded by deputized part-time employees. In this case we were able to secure the services of Swarthmore College students, who give effective service. Last year, ten such students were employed. Because of conflicts in college schedules it was necessary to have current arrangements with six young men in order to provide reliable service at this one crossing. This service cannot start with the opening of the public schools as we must wait for Swarthmore College to convene and arrangements to be made. (Let it be made clear that the writer of the letter published in The Swarthmorean last week had received erroneous information when she stated that she was informed that the Council had refused to appropriate funds for a police auxiliary officer at the Swarthmore avenue crossing. No change from last year's arrangements had at any time been authorized.)

There are several other crossings which may be considered hazardous but we have been unable to obtain part-time employees to man them. It is not a question of money but a lack of interest on the part of people willing to act as guards. An effort was made by the former Burgess to obtain the support of several women's groups, either to act as volunteers or help in finding part-time employees. An article was published in The Swarthmorean soliciting help along those lines. If we were to judge the need for guards by the response to this approach, there just wouldn't be any crossing guards in Swarthmore. Yet in several surrounding communities the whole problem of guarding school crossings is taken over by the women on a strictly volunteer basis. In Swarthmore, some find it easier to take pen in hand than work with words. What can the citizens of Swarthmore do about safety? Industry believes that the most significant answer is education. So do many citizens. And safety education of children begins and should continue in the home. If we had proper safety training in the home and in the school, do you suppose that our children would continue to climb the railroad fence at the station, that they would continue to cut the wire fence near the railroad, school underpass, or that two little girls would stand conversing two feet from the curb in Swarthmore avenue near Princeton, with their backs to the road. If we expect Boro expenditures to correct such conditions we are sadly mistaken. No, the answer is in safety training and education. We live in a dangerous age and learning the rules for survival is just as important as learning arithmetic or going to a football game. The results of a safety program are not glamorous, someone just goes on living, but they get results and intelligent people are for it.

All who are interested in safety for this Boro should get in touch with the Citizens Safety Committee that has recently been appointed by the Council to study hazardous conditions in the Boro and to report their findings and recommendations. Very soon now, you will be hearing directly from them and I hope that you respond.

Sincerely yours,
Thomas W. Hopper

Assessed valuation, 1954: Swarthmore $7,011,000 or 28.61 per cent of market value; Rutledge $774,900, 30.95 per cent of market value. Approximate ratio of public school pupils to total population: Swarthmore .19; Rutledge .15.

no direct bearing on the tax rate except, of course, to make it uniform for all taxpayers in the area involved. Since it is hardly likely that the Swarthmore rate can be reduced, it means that the present lower Rutledge taxes will be increased. Taxes for any given year are levied by the school board in the spring when it establishes the budget for the fiscal year beginning in July. At that time the board decides what taxes and what rates must be levied to raise the amount needed. There is no reason to expect that cost of operating the union district would be more than the combined total cost for the two districts, and it is hoped it might be somewhat less. As a third class district, the union would not be limited to the 35 mill ceiling under which both Swarthmore and Rutledge now operate.

NURSING BOARD FETES STAFF

The Board of Directors of the Community Health Society of Central Delaware County entertained the seven staff members at luncheon at the Ingeneuk Wednesday, prior to the proposed consolidation. Twenty-four members of the Board were present.

Facts About School Union With Rutledge

(Continued from Page 1) tion of the component units at the last Federal Decennial census, the new district if approved would automatically be third class. It therefore would have a board of seven members.

Q. How would the board be constituted? A. One of the seven members would be elected from Swarthmore and one from Rutledge, the other five being elected at large.

Q. How do the two boroughs compare? A. Swarthmore's population in 1950 was 4,622, Rutledge 921. Covering an area of 17 square miles about five blocks in each direction, as compared with Swarthmore's 1.45 square mile, Rutledge was chartered in 1887, Swarthmore in 1893. Both were formerly part of Springfield township.

Q. What are the advantages to Swarthmore in forming a union district? A. Our High School would be assured of the attendance of nearly all Rutledge pupils (over 80 per cent of whom are already attending on a tuition basis) while the cost would be borne by Rutledge taxpayers on an equal basis with those of Swarthmore.

Q. When a union district is formed, what happens to the assets, liabilities and property of the separate districts? A. All debts and liabilities of component districts become debts of the union district, and all property becomes the property of the combination.

Q. How will the union have on our state reimbursement? A. To encourage the formation of union districts the law provides that a bonus be paid by the state according to formula which is estimated to yield in our case an additional $18,800 per year.

Murder by the clock!

When dusk steals over the October skies—death steals over Pennsylvania's highways! If the year's total of traffic accidents between the twilight hours of four to six P.M. were summed up in one two-hour period—it would mean a death every 34 seconds . . . two people injured every second.

You can escape this "murder by the clock" by remembering:

Twilight is the most dangerous time to drive. Light is tricky. Make allowances for this by slowing down.

Turn your headlights on at the first sign of dusk—and don't "override" your headlights.

Objects take on a false sense of distance—they are nearer than you think. Then be on the alert for sudden stops . . . cars making turns . . . cars coming out of side roads . . . clearance distance when passing.

Stay well within posted speed limits.

A little caution goes a long way at dusk. It can save your life on the highway.

United Nations Day In Boro October 24

Local Churchmen Announce Plans for Community U. N. Sunday

A committee of Swarthmore citizens has initiated plans for a community program on United Nations Day, October 24.

This program will support President Eisenhower's Proclamation of June 24, urging the "citizens of this Nation to observe Sunday, October 24, 1954, as United Nations Day with community programs that will demonstrate their faith and support of the United Nations and create a better public understanding of its aims, achievements and problems."

The main feature of the program will be a panel discussion to be held in the Swarthmore Friends' Meeting House at 8 p.m. on the subject "What Should the United States Policy Be Toward the United Nations?" The moderator of this panel will be Dr. Philip E. Jacob, Professor of Political Science, University of Pennsylvania, and the other participants will be His Excellency James Barington, Ambassador from Burma to the United States and permanent representative to the United Nations; General Hugh B. Hester, Brigadier General of the United States Army, (retired); Ivan H. Peterman, columnist, Philadelphia Inquirer; and one other with whom arrangements are not yet completed.

During the afternoon, there will be informal discussion groups of college and high-school age young people. The leaders of these discussion groups will include members of the political science departments of Swarthmore College and University of Pennsylvania. These discussions will be based on three or four specific problems of the United Nations which will be announced in the social science classes of the high school and for which resource material for study will be available in the school.

A trip to the United Nations Headquarters in New York is planned for Tuesday, October 19, and high school students especially will be urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

It is hoped this will be a community project in which every citizen of Swarthmore has a part. Each organization in Swarthmore is asked to participate in three ways, (1) to act as a sponsor of the program, (2) to inform and interest each member of the group in the program, and (3) to help finance the program. The expenses will not be large but printing costs and travel expenses of the speakers will have to be paid.

Murder by the clock!

When dusk steals over the October skies—death steals over Pennsylvania's highways! If the year's total of traffic accidents between the twilight hours of four to six P.M. were summed up in one two-hour period—it would mean a death every 34 seconds . . . two people injured every second.

You can escape this "murder by the clock" by remembering:

Twilight is the most dangerous time to drive. Light is tricky. Make allowances for this by slowing down.

Turn your headlights on at the first sign of dusk—and don't "override" your headlights.

Objects take on a false sense of distance—they are nearer than you think. Be on the alert for sudden stops . . . cars making turns . . . cars coming out of side roads . . . clearance distance when passing.

Stay well within posted speed limits.

A little caution goes a long way at dusk. It can save your life on the highway.

MAKE 1954 THE SAFEST YEAR EVER!

United Nations Day In Boro October 24

Local Churchmen Announce Plans for Community U. N. Sunday

A committee of Swarthmore citizens has initiated plans for a community program on United Nations Day, October 24.

This program will support President Eisenhower's Proclamation of June 24, urging the "citizens of this Nation to observe Sunday, October 24, 1954, as United Nations Day with community programs that will demonstrate their faith and support of the United Nations and create a better public understanding of its aims, achievements and problems."

The main feature of the program will be a panel discussion to be held in the Swarthmore Friend's Meeting House at 8 p.m. on the subject "What Should the United States Policy Be Toward the United Nations?" The moderator of this panel will be Dr. Philip E. Jacob, Professor of Political Science, University of Pennsylvania, and the other participants will be His Excellency James Barington, Ambassador from Burma to the United States and permanent representative to the United Nations; General Hugh B. Hester, Brigadier General of the United States Army, (retired); Ivan H. Peterman, columnist, Philadelphia Inquirer; and one other with whom arrangements are not yet completed.

During the afternoon, there will be informal discussion groups of college and high-school age young people. The leaders of these discussion groups will include members of the political science departments of Swarthmore College and University of Pennsylvania. These discussions will be based on three or four specific problems of the United Nations which will be announced in the social science classes of the high school and for which resource material for study will be available in the school.

A trip to the United Nations Headquarters in New York is planned for Tuesday, October 19, and high school students especially will be urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

It is hoped this will be a community project in which every citizen of Swarthmore has a part. Each organization in Swarthmore is asked to participate in three ways, (1) to act as a sponsor of the program, (2) to inform and interest each member of the group in the program, and (3) to help finance the program. The expenses will not be large but printing costs and travel expenses of the speakers will have to be paid.

Dean Everett L. Hunt in chairman of the local committee. The Rev. Joseph P. Bishop, the Rev. A. N. Clerk, the Rev. John C. Kulp, and the Rev. H. Lawrence Whittemore comprise the committee.

200 years old. Very little damage was done to the college buildings. A foretaste of what was to come occurred at 3 p.m. A limb of a maple tree in front of the Phillip M. Alden home at 507 North Chester road fell across the high power lines, bringing out the police, the fire company and the Philadelphia Electric Company. Traffic was detoured around the block, the electric company fixed the wires, residents had electricity again, and all was thought to be well. Shortly thereafter a large tree blew down on Dartmouth avenue, blacking it out and shortly before 4 o'clock a tremendous tree in front of the William S. Hobbs residence in the 300 block to Park avenue fell and took the high power lines with it. Police arrived promptly and handled traffic for three hours to protect it from the many live wires which were downed and threatened all traffic. One policeman was on duty at the point of the break and another detoured traffic at Drexel and Park avenues.

Car Hit

At 8:30 p.m. another large limb fell off the Alden tree, taking the wires down again, falling across a moving car on Chester road. The driver was uninjured and able to climb out of the car. From that time on, crashing trees became an ordinary incident. When trees were down across North and South Chester roads, buses and all through traffic were detoured to avoid it. The worst obstructions in the Borough were two trees across Elm avenue, one tree across Maple avenue, one across Ogden, two trees across South Chester road, and one across Yale avenue. One also fell across the 200 block of Cornell and one across the 200 block of Rutgers.

By 10:30 p.m. the big blow had mostly subsided, the stars were shining brightly, but Swarthmore was three-fourths minus electricity and fifty per cent without phone communications. From then on, the most welcome sights in the Borough were the electric company's and the telephone company's repair trucks.

Thank Firemen, Police
The entire community owes a debt of gratitude to the police force, the volunteer fire company, and the auxiliary police force and wardens of the Civil Defense Administration for their "beyond the call of duty" service throughout the emergency. Police Chief Thomas Bateman who had come on duty at 8 a.m. Friday morning remained on duty until 1 a.m. when the actual emergency was over the Fire Company's emergency radio wagon was on duty all night with Chief John Rumsey directing, and volunteer men students from Swarthmore College worked throughout the storm, clearing the streets and warning people of live wires exposed by the storm.

Four trucks and fifteen men have worked since Friday, clearing the streets, and the anti-aircraft unit of the Army worked for several hours on Saturday.

According to Borough officials, the heaviest centralized damage was done in the 300 block of Park avenue, the 300 block of Dartmouth avenue, on Elm avenue between Chester road and Princeton avenue, and on Ogden avenue between Riverview road and Swarthmore avenue.

A large tree fell on a garage at 348 Vassar avenue, splitting the garage and wrecking the car within.

No Organ
Churches were in doubt Saturday night as to whether there would be electricity for scheduled Sunday services. Presbyterians sang to piano music and were without heat or light since the current did not come on in the church until 8 p.m. Sunday. Trinity Church had electricity and services continued as usual on Sunday. Friends Meeting services were also held and the electrical service was in order.

day morning but had it for regular morning services. The pastor of the church, Reverend Kulp, explained that "being of the Lord's chosen," they did have electrical current in time but commented that "Methodists are always warm anyway." However, the Church was prepared with two Coleman gas lanterns to proceed with their supper for college students and film strip showing scheduled for Sunday night in case the electricity failed.

Regular services were held in the A. M. E. Church Sunday since the electrical current there was not affected.

Kept Schedule

The Inglenook Tea Room, without electricity from 5:50 Friday until 3 a.m. Sunday morning, managed to serve meals throughout the period. Neighbors from the Rutgers avenue area loaned their electricity by cables, a borrowed generator was hooked up to the oil burner so heat and hot water was available. Frozen goods were transported to lockers in a neighboring city.

Many Attend Post Office Open House

An "open house," held in connection with Pennsylvania Week, attracted 200 visitors to the Swarthmore Post Office last Thursday evening.

Opened to the public for the first time in 19 years, the work room of the post office was crowded with both adults and children who were conducted through the office by 10 local employees who explained the facilities for distributing incoming and outgoing mails.

Assistant Postmaster, Francis A. Harvey was host for the occasion, in the absence of Postmaster Walter C. Snyder. Postal Inspector John W. Eckersley was also on hand to greet the visitors.

School Directors In October Session Clear Up All But Few Delayed Items At Rutgers

Official acceptance of the new Rutgers Avenue School wing was effected by School Board in session Monday evening, enabling final payments on contracts with the exception of $1625 withheld on the general contract pending completion of several details which have been unavoidably delayed and the heating contract. The year's guarantee now goes into effect on the expanded building which has been in use for the past six weeks.

The low bid of J. J. Dougherty, Ridley Township, for installation of sidewalk along the Strath Haven avenue side of the school was accepted in the amount of $24. The bid of Oscar Hirt, Philadelphia, on a sound-equipped moving picture projector for the College Avenue Elementary School was also accepted at $339.

Report of the auditor's covering the past fiscal year was accepted as also was the Swarthmore Summer Recreation Association's resume of last summer's program which showed a record enrollment of 33 per cent above the previous year.

Discussion of extra use of the new multi-purpose room at Rutgers Avenue resulted in Supervising Principal Frank R. Morey being commissioned to set up an order of priority to be followed when applications for activities outside the regular school program are received, and to schedule a fee to be charged to cover extra custodial service thus entailed. A review of the advance enrollment estimate made several years ago revealed an uncanny foresight in as much as the present overall enrollment is within a pupil or two of that which was predicted. The High School, though still below the record high of 1941-42, is only a half-dozen pupils below the estimate while the elementary grades counteract with a similar number above the prediction. Since the great size of the current local sixth grade, 105 pupils now divided into three classes, will begin to shift the burden previously felt by limited elementary facilities to the secondary school, the Board decided to devote the first several of this year's monthly meetings with faculty and administration on school practices and problems chiefly to the high school. The sessions was scheduled for Wednesday evening, November 3, at the Ogdan avenue home of Property Chairman Samuel T. Carpenter.

The attendance of Mr. Boyle at the State Elementary Principals' Conference in Buck Hill Falls on October 29, 30 and 31, with payment of expenses up to $40, was authorized.

8th Grade Mothers Mrs. James B. Cooper of Parish road entertained the officers of the eighth grade Mothers Group at her home recently. Plans were made to hold three teas in November according to sections. Mrs. William Medford will hold one; Mrs. John S. McQuade, Jr., another; and Mrs. John O. Honold, Jr. the third. A party for the children was planned which will be held Saturday evening, November 20 at the high school gymnasium. Attending the meeting were Mrs. McQuade, Mrs. Medford, Mrs. Peter J. Kroon, Mrs. Thomas J. Prather, and Mrs. Robert Seely.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Brown and their children of Newark, Del. will be visiting Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood H. Garrett of Princeton avenue this week end. While here, the Browns will attend the University of Pennsylvania football game.

Mrs. Phillips Speaks On Child Rearing

Mrs. Dorothy Waldo Phillips, authoress, specialist in youth guidance and former teacher at Mary Lyon Junior College spoke on "Have you met 'The Other Half' of your child?" at the Swarthmore Mothers Club last Thursday, October 14. She emphasized that the development of the intellect is only one half of the child's education; the other half is learning how to get along with people, to make sacrifices, and to grow up emotionally. The home cannot teach all the humanities; the help of teachers, church, scouts, Y's and other groups is needed.

She stressed that a sense of proportion and a perspective of the fitness of things is needed to win against communism; educated hearts with educated minds are needed to win for democracy. Children must be exposed to adults who believe and practice principles, Mrs. Phillips stated. Because we live in a world of pressure, a world of power, we must reduce tensions and relax for the good of our children's emotional growth. She said that children need discipline for if they are not taught restraints through the years, they cannot make wise decisions later.

Mrs. Phillips ended by saying that although we live in a world of pressure, we should never underestimate the potential of 30 million dynamics of children. In a meeting preceding Mrs. Phillips' talk, Mrs. Orville W. Greenwood, chairman of sewing classes, announced that classes will begin early in January under the direction of Miss Ruth Mangus of the Pennsylvania State University Extension Service. There will be six two and one-half hour classes in tailoring, followed by four classes in silk cover making. There is no charge for these classes. Any interested members who did not sign up may do so by calling Mrs. Greenwood. Plans were completed for the Kiddie Carnival to be held on Saturday, October 23, from 11 to 3 next to the old bank building. Hostesses for the meeting last Thursday were Mrs. James Folier and Mrs. E. S. Adams. The autumn theme was carried out by the table decorations which were done by Mrs. Lindsey Wolfe. Pouring were Mrs. Howard Clymer, president, and Mrs. William Harrison, vice-president.

Chick Ramsay, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ramsay of Mt. Holyoke place, celebrated his 7th birthday last Saturday by entertaining a group of his class friends at a movie party. Chick is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Gettz of Harvard avenue.

SCOUT LEADERS TO MEET There will be a Girl Scout Neighborhood Meeting on Thursday, October 28, from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church in the Woman's Association Room. The subject for discussion will be "Practical Help for Scout Leadership in Swarthmore." Dessert and coffee will be served at 1 o'clock. All Girl Scout Leaders, Troop Committee members and other interested adults are invited to attend.

Clubwomen Enjoy Winterthur Expert

About 150 members and guests attended the meeting of the Woman's Club of Swarthmore on Tuesday when John A. H. Sweeney, curatorial assistant of Winterthur Museum, gave an illustrated talk on "Queen Anne and Chippendale Furniture." The slides picturing furniture and rooms of the museum were exceptionally beautiful and brought out clearly the points Mr. Sweeney wished to make.

"The period of Queen Anne and Chippendale," said the speaker, "extended from 1725 to 1775. By that time the Colonies were pretty well settled and with the increase in wealth people could have more luxuries. Many towns had become busy commercial centers, and more and more skilled craftsmen were coming to America."

Mr. Sweeney characterized the Queen Anne style as baroque, abounding in curves, and not much give to carving. The Chippendale, which came later, was of the rococo type, of great delicacy, and ornamented with a great deal of skillful carving. Many of the pieces in Winterthur are from old homes in Philadelphia and vicinity, reflecting the fact that Philadelphia became the center of fine cabinet making. Americans used new ideas and modified the original Chippendale style.

The growing independence of American taste, according to Mr. Sweeney, is well illustrated by a letter from Samuel Morris to his nephew, who had suggested selecting some furniture while on a trip to Europe. The uncle wrote "Household goods may be had as cheap and good here. Why buy anything in England that can be purchased here?" This was the same spirit on the opening night of the first American play, a play by Royal Tyler—in the words: "Exult each patriot heart! This night is shown a piece we well can call our own."

dent of the Delaware County Bankers' Association, immediate past chairman of Group Two Pennsylvania Bankers Association, which he now serves on its Council of Administration.

Mr. Freeman has been the officer in charge of the credit department of the bank and has participated extensively in new business development and activities. He is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College and prior to the Second World War he received banking experience in Philadelphia banking institutions. During the war he served for nearly four years, being discharged with the rank of captain.

William A. Booth, assistant cashier, will assist Mr. Freeman. Mr. Booth received his banking experience in Philadelphia after serving in the Army during the Second World War.

It is hoped that the bank renovations will be completed shortly after the first of the year.

Dartmouth College last spring and who had been working on the Van Nuys (Calif.) News operated by his uncles, Morris and Ralph Markham, while awaiting call to active duty. Donald has returned to Swarthmore and will remain with his mother until he begins Air Force service. Also surviving are two brothers: Dr. William Fetherolf of Steinsville and Irwin of Jacksonville; and four sisters, Mrs. Annie Heintzelman and Mrs. Edna Heintzelman of Schnecksville, Mrs. Eva Kohler of Kutztown, and Mrs. Mary Dietrich of New Tropic.

A private committal service and cremation at West Laurel Hill preceded the local memorial service.

SPEAKS ON ASTRONOMY

Dr. Peter van de Kamp, professor of astronomy at Swarthmore College, addressed the Burroughs Branch of The Scientific Research Society of America on Monday, October 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the Burroughs Corporation Research Center at Paoli.

The talk concerned some of Professor van de Kamp's astronomical findings and his observations. The event marked the opening RESA meeting of the 1954-55 program year.

Howard E. Thompkins of Ridley Park, a Swarthmore College graduate of the Class of 1942, is the new president of RESA's Burroughs unit.

Class Visits College

The French II class of Swarthmore High School under the leadership of Adeline K. Strouse took part in a demonstration class sponsored by the Pennsylvania State Modern Language Association and Department of Romance Languages at Muhlenberg College in Allentown, Pa., on October 23. Students who participated were Robert Lafore, Candy Allen, Nancy Dellmuth, Karen Mondale, Fred Bloom, Tom Goldmeyer, Joan Hemenway, Beth Jones, Jim McCorkle, Mary Lou Friend, Gladys Durbodaw, Pierre Decrouez, Emily Terry, Beverly Searfoss, Virginia Smith, Gordon Wyse and Nancy Martin.

Mothers who accompanied the group were Mrs. Lafore, Mrs. Decrouez, Mrs. Goldmeyer and Mrs. Robnson.

Mrs. Stanley J. Gill, the former Jane Pittenger of Nottingham, is now teaching kindergarten at an elementary school in Ithaca, N.Y.

Mr. Jack Pittenger, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Pittenger of Nottingham, visited his parents over the week end. Mr. Pittenger is now working in Washington, D.C.

Hallowe'en Precautions

Hallowe'en means fun and frolic for all children, and to make sure that the evening ends as happily as it began parents are urged to take certain safety precautions for their children.

One Pennsylvania youngster was hospitalized for a year on account of wearing a flammable costume which flashed up and burned like celluloid. In another case a candle in a paper-mache pumpkin set fire to the curtains.

Authorities explain that plastic and paper-mache masks and decorations are usually fire resistant, but if they are thin and flimsy they may be very flammable. With doubtful materials it is wise to snip off a very small piece and test it by holding it with pliers or tweezers to a lighted match or candle. Just in case it should be flammable, the safest place to test it is on top the stove or on a cement floor.

Parents can make certain that bean shooters, guns of any kind, sling shots and fireworks are forbidden, as well as jack-o-lanterns equipped with lighted candles. Children are safer when supplied with flashlights and if when the little spooks leave home on the prow, they wear something white motorists can readily see them.

Katharine Lanning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lanning of North Chester road, has been named a member of the Beaver College Glee Club. Katharine is a freshman at Beaver and is a member of the Kindergarten-Elementary Education Department.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Blackman of Sproul Road, Media, returned last week from a trip of two weeks to New England.

Patsy Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Blake of Amherst avenue was home over last week end from the University of Maryland. Sally Cronin of Aberdeen, Jack Conway and Paul Stokes of Lynn, Mass., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Blake.

In Public Concert

The Community Art Center on Rogers Lane in Wallingford is presenting a program of chamber music on Sunday afternoon, October 31, at 3 o'clock. The artists participating will be Jerome Weigler of the Philadelphia Orchestra, violinist; Dolly Schoenberg, pianist; and Jacqueline Dresden, lyric soprano.

Weigler, who was considered a child prodigy, is a graduate of the Julliard School of Music. He played with the Minnesota Symphony Orchestra under the leadership of Metropolis. He has played in Carnegie Chamber Music Hall and Town Hall in New York. He also played with the Ballet Russe. This is his fourth season with the Philadelphia Orchestra.

Mrs. Schoenberg is a graduate of the Amsterdam Conservatory of Music. She started playing at the age of six. She is a resident of Swarthmore. Mrs. Dresden is also a graduate of the Amsterdam Conservatory of Music, and is now a resident of Media.

The tentative program is a Sonata for Violin and Piano by Francis Poulenc, dedicated to Garcia Lorca and performed for the first time in this part of the country; Violin Sonata by Grieg; arias by Johann Sebastian Bach with violin obligato; Songs by Debussy; and Canto by Purcell.

This concert is open to the public.

I saw it in The Swarthmorean.

Chrysanthemum Show Opens Friday, Nov. 5

The annually anticipated Pennsylvania Horticultural Society's Chrysanthemum Show will open at 2 p.m. Friday, November 5. Doors will close at 9 p.m. that evening and hours Saturday, November 6, will be from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and on Sunday, November 7, from 12 noon to 5 p.m. There will be an admission charge.

The exhibit, staged cooperatively by the Arthur Hoyt Scott Horticultural Foundation and the Philadelphia Branch of the National Association of Gardeners is one flower lovers and garden enthusiasts do not miss. Chrysanthemums of all types and varieties will be displayed. Other displays covering the more than one acre area within the field house will include various types of holly, rare and unusual plants, fruit and vegetables. The Morris Arboretum and the Scott Foundation will display berries or fruited trees and shrubs.

The always popular arrangement classes will feature chrysanthemums, dried plant material, fruits, vegetables, gourds and orchids. One class calls for a buffet table after the game, another for an arrangement of fruits and vegetables to simulate flowers, another for gourds suitable for a centerpiece.

The special chrysanthemum class for amateurs in which entrants received in April three rooted cuttings of an unknown variety to be grown and shown as disbudded bush plants is again arousing keen interest. The David Leslie Poe Memorial Award, plus cash prizes, will be the goal in this competition.

Garden clubs from various sections have entered the competition and among the amateur exhibitors are Mrs. J. Packard Laird of Devon, Mrs. Hetherly Dutton of Avondale, Mrs. Harry C. Groome, Jr. of Chestnut Hill, Mrs. Edward L. Elliot of Bethayres and many others.

HOME AND SCHOOL SUPPORTS SCHOOL UNION WITH RUTLEDGE

A resolution passed by the Board of Directors of the Swarthmore Home and School Association urges the community to vote in favor of the proposed union of the Swarthmores and Rutledge School Districts at the general election next Tuesday.

The resolution cites several reasons for believing that the proposed move is in the best interests of the community, and lays particular stress upon the state reimbursement factors, which would provide more revenue as a result of this union. As released by Home and School president John W. Carroll, the resolution reads as follows:

"The Swarthmore School Directors have proposed a union between the Swarthmore and Rutledge School Districts. We favor this union for the following reasons:

1.) Rutledge is the best possible district with which to join because of its similarity of educational objectives, the anticipated stability of its school population, the self-contained character of the community and the fact that most of its children already attend our high school.

2.) Failure to join with Rutledge increases the possibilities of a less desirable union with some other school district in the future, as increasing pressure is brought to bear upon us by State educational policies.

3.) If such a union is not approved, the Rutledge Board may be obliged to make other arrangements to assure their children of the availability of high school facilities, resulting in a substantial loss of revenue to our school district.

4.) This union will bring about a higher revenue through the application of the state reimbursement formula and special bonus paid to encourage such unions. It will also mean that Swarthmore will receive a larger income per Rutledge pupil than is now the case.

5.) The union is equally advantageous to Rutledge because it will give them excellent educational facilities at a lower cost than they could provide for themselves.

For these and other cogent reasons we solicit the support of the community for the proposed union."

There is still time to enter an exhibit in this show, without charge, by writing or calling The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, 389 Suburban Station Building, Philadelphia 3, Pa., telephone: RIttenhouse 6-8352 for entry blanks and schedules.

John Bates, son of Dr. and Mrs. John R. Bates of North Chester road, will be home for the week-end. John is a student at Lawrenceville School, Lawrenceville, L.I.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Mourns Oak

Dear Editor:

Last week a great wind came, and now the Meeting Oak is gone; only littered chips remained when saws and trucks and men were through; and emptiness; an emptiness of space that once was filled with massive limbs and myriad leaves of green and bronze, but more an emptiness of heart among the Friends who sat within the nearby Meeting House.

For those that listen to an inner voice for guidance know full well its tones are set by things without, that oaks are tuning forks which hold our pitch and keep our strings from answering every wayward sight and sound.

And so their hearts are sad, now that the Oak is gone. Its wood will soon be burned, and even Merry soon erased from all except a faithful few. And one may wonder what it all can mean.

But who can gauge two centuries of soil that rotted leaves have formed, or guess what seed has fallen there and found its life and worked its miracle? And who can estimate the certainty of Good that came to those who sat beneath its tranquil fortitude?

Oaks have messages for men: let those who would live long and bear sound fruit drive deep their roots in Mother Earth; let those who would have peace of mind put greatest trust in simple things and count the cost not just the use of modern tools; let silence have its place in life, nor fear that solitude means emptiness; and sense of service find in doing well what life has given us to do, even though it means to stand alone and at the end to fall before the wind.

JOHN KENNEY

(That's not my name of course but somehow I can't quite bring myself to place my name with such sentimental things as pomes, oaks, and rotted leaves.)

Swarthmore Defeats Sharon Hill, 28-0

Entertains Glen Nor at Rutgers Field Today

The Swarthmore high school football team captured its fifth win of the season over hapless Sharon Hill last Friday. The Garnet team played, much as expected and spectators were little surprised at the result. Although the team did not display the form and precision they demonstrated in their previous victory over a powerful Springfield team, they were never in danger, and some sort of letdown was expected.

For the fifth consecutive time this year the local boys drove square to touchdown territory the first time they had their hands on the ball. The attack was spearheaded by Fullback Charlie Hummer substituting for the injured Terry Dellmuth, and Cal Coleman. Again, fine blocking in the line gave the backs a good running start. The first score came on a wide end sweep by left half back Cal Coleman, as he threaded his way through an open field provided by fine blocking. Pete Kroon converted the first of his five successful extra point place kicks.

Sharon Hill's attempt to run the ball was short lived as the defensive wall of Stu Bowie, Ed Noyes, Carl Thomas and Bud Stephani, along with the great backing-up of co-captain Rod Zensen, stopped all Sharon Hill offensive efforts behind the line of scrimmage. The third down pass was stolen by halfback Dick Snyder and returned to the Sharon Hill 10, from where Cal Coleman again scored on an end sweep.

Minutes later, following an enemy punt to the Sharon Hill 45, fullback Hummer broke through a Pappas-Hollander manufactured hole and galloped the distance for a third touchdown. With Kroon converting, as usual, it seems, Swarthmore was leading 21-0.

Following Pete Kroon's kick-offs, which were traveling to the goal line, frustrated Sharon Hill was forced to kick again. Safety man Dick Snyder decided to let the ball roll out of bounds at mid-field. At this point, Sharon Hill was resorting to various defensive maneuvers and in retaliation quarterback Malin crossed them up with a fake end run pass by Cal Coleman to Pete Kroon in the end zone. As the quarter ended, Swarthmore led 28-0. Throughout the remainder of the game, many players participated and the Garnet used only six plays in their offensive attack. Sharon Hill scored on the next to the last play of the game against the reserves who were fighting valiantly, but not sufficiently to prevent a score. Again, the quarterbacking and strategy of Randy Malin was a dominating factor in the game. Substitute end Lee Gemmill displayed a fine bit of defensive end play while he was in there. The Swarthmore ends again showed a weakness on rushing and ability to protect the outside which the coaches are greatly concerned about.

Other boys who participated in the game were Bob Keller, Scott Piccard, Bill Welch, Hugh Morrison, George Kroon, George Garrett, Ed Collins, John Lang, Andy Jane, Steve Carter, Happy Dunning, Jimmy Noyes, Mal Tippet, John Coleman and Warren Single.

The Glen Nor Indians bring a team to Swarthmore this afternoon, possessing a somewhat unimpressive record, having won only two games. They use the split-T formation with the quarterback option play. This is always a threat if employed properly and the local boys will have to play heads-up ball to stop it.

D. U. Lose Flag

Undergraduates of Penn Charter of Delta Upsilon fraternity are anxious to recover their chapter flag which has been missing since the international convention of Delta Upsilon was held on the Swarthmore campus September 8 through September 11. The flag, loaned to the convention, has a gold background with the Greek letters of D. U. on the field.

Anyone in the vicinity of Swarthmore who may have information about the flag is requested to communicate with Paul B. Banks, 724 Harvard avenue, phone SWarthmore 6-0519.

Lions Sponsor Program To Aid Local Blind

The Philadelphia Dog Training Club will present a program of obedience training and testing in the Swarthmore High School gymnasium on Saturday night, November 13, at 8:30 p.m.

Sponsored by the Swarthmore Lions Club for the benefit of the Blind Fund, the events are planned to demonstrate the steps in training dogs from the individual novice type through the complicated requirements of championship obedience rating.

The members of the Philadelphia Dog Training Club are donating their time and services to help the Lions raise funds for their aid to the blind in the Swarthmore area and to the Delaware County Branch of the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind.

The Chester workshop of the association was recently badly damaged by vandals who broke into the workrooms and smashed the machines and equipment used in the training and employment of blind workers from Delaware County. Funds from the Obedience Exhibition on November 13 will be used to help repair this damage.

Lois Storlazzi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Storlazzi of Park avenue, is a member of the hockey squad at Beaver College where she is a freshman.
