Swim Team Rewins League Relay Cup Tomorrow's Opponent, Wallingford, Is Close Second

Seaworthy (pronounced "Seaworthy"), the seahorse mascot of the Swarthmore Swim Club, attending his first fray last Saturday morning at Marple-Newton, happily saw his team win the Suburban Swimming League's Freestyle Relay Cup for the second consecutive year, competing with the other five comparatively new teams in the League. Only two teams (East Whiteland and Great Valley) competed with Swarthmore for the 1957 cup.

In piling up its total to 104 points, Swarthmore placed first and broke records in almost every event. Runner-up Wallingford (whom Swarthmore encounters tomorrow in its first individual meet of the 1958 season) captured the 14-point first place in the opening event when Swarthmore's faster midjet girls' team was disqualified and drew a zero because one member took off a split second before her teammate touched the wall. Wallingford's time was 1:24.2. It is said the Swarthmore midjets (A. Townes, B. Germer, M. Schumacher, and C. Espenschade) made it in less than the record 1:20.

The 1:11.8 winning time of Swarthmore's midjet boys (S. Robinson, J. Brooks, D. Foley, H. Welsh) in the next event not only broke the record of 1:12.1 but was faster than the 1:15.7 time with which last year's over-all League champion Aronimink took Saturday's similar event while winning the Cottie Freestyle and Medley Relay Cup for which the older six teams competed.

In this, its first relay carnival, Wallingford kept the lead, despite Swarthmore winning the next three events, until mid-way in the carnival. At that time Swarthmore squeezed a fourth first place just 1.1 seconds faster than Wallingford, the switch the two-point lead into the seahorses' favor. Wallingford, in turn, bettered Swarthmore by six seconds in the next event (intermediate boys) to flip the two-point lead back into its hands.

Swarthmore took the next event (senior women), while Wallingford's score slipped as it for the first time came in less than second place (East Whiteland took second, Great Valley third, and Wallingford fourth). A similar weakness in senior men kept Wallingford a fifth as Swarthmore came in first (Great Valley second, Ply-

Mar third, East Whiteland fourth); so that no matter what happened in the final grand slam event (one girl and one boy from each age bracket) the event was Swarthmore's. Even without using its top swimmers in each bracket Swarthmore's grand slam time of 2:24.3 was second to Wallingford's winning one of 2:13.3 Swarthmore swimmers were S. Hoge, G. Silvers, D. and J. Foley, W. Gill, T. Allen, C. Williams and C. Brodhead.

East Whiteland, although suffering disqualifications in two events, tallied 56 points to place third in the Freestyle division of the carnival. Ply-Mar, the newest team in the League, with an entry in every event and no disqualifications, came in fourth with 84 points. Great Valley lacked entries in four events but tallied 38 points. Rose Tree, another first-time swimmer in the League, had entries in all but three events, suffered one disqualification, and totaled 20 points.

Aid Seahorse Victory
S. Wigton, D. Renshaw, B. Purnell and J. Espenschade swam in with the record-breaking 1:13.6 time to earn Swarthmore's first in junior girls. Previous record was 1:15.8.

G. Boyd, W. Gill, R. Howe and G. Welsh took junior boys honors for Swarthmore with the winning time of 1:09.7.

S. Williams, B. Stuart, E. Breakell, and S. Crawford broke the intermediate girls record with a 1:10.1 time. Wallingford's second place matched the previous record 1:11.2.

Four teams bettered the 1:13 standing record for the intermediate boys event. Wallingford arrived in 1:01.2, Swarthmore in 1:07.2, Great Valley in 1:08.2, and East Whiteland in 1:12.7. Swarthmore's swimmers in this event were M. Boyer, J. Foley, P. Kent, B. Clymer.

Doubling the 25-meter swimming distances of swimmers in the preceding events Swarthmore's senior girls (C. and J. Williams, G. Plesol, C. Brodhead) broke the 2:40 record by winning the event in 2:36.2.

Senior boys (R. Coles, D. Preston, R. Giffilan, R. Sublette) loped even more off the 2:09.7 record by swimming their event in 2:04.2.

Keeps Cottie Cup
Aronimink's 94 points to rewin the Cottie Cup were chalked up despite a disqualification in the final event. Aronimink took an early lead away from the home team and never relinquished it. Close upon its heels came second place winner Colonial Village with 82 points and breaking the 2:06.5 grand slam record by 3.5 seconds; Marple-Newton with 70 points shattering the 1:20 midjet girls record by 7.9 seconds and the 1:06 intermediate boys record by one second; Penn Square with 60 points breaking the junior girls record of 1:23.5 by .7 of a second; Martins Dam with 48 points; and Rose Valley with 36 points having come in with a 2:09.3 time (7.5 seconds ahead of the nearest team) in senior boys but being disqualified because their orthodox breast-stroker failed to conform to the new "head above water" rule for part of the race, and also suffering a disqualification in midjet boys. Rose Valley won the Cottie Cup in 1956 and Marple-Newton when originally offered in 1955.

Yes, "Swarthy" (as Seaworthy would sound when spoken by a seahorse busy catching his breath to win the next race) was a proud denizen of the deep last Saturday—and his bright eye is open to see that none of his best swimmers catch a cold or forget to turn out for tomorrow morning's important meet at Wallingford. At the same time he claps his fins for second, third, fourth (etc.) best—the seacoles, who are so steadfastly working to improve their own swimming skills and stand ever ready to fill in when needed.

Swarthy will be waiting for the team at the pool parking lot at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow to escort them to Wallingford where the program begins at 9 o'clock.

Dr. Rosen said the committee thought the three or four hours additional required for the recommended program could be gained by cutting physical education to two periods and doing away with one or two home room study periods. Another possibility was adding an hour to the school day on one or two days a week. Dr. Rosen said that while the committee paid tribute to Swarthmore's superior physical education program, it recognized that it was in excess of the minimum State requirement so was one spot which could be borrowed from in order to gain academic improvement within the normal school day rather than less desirably in extra week-end or night sessions.

up by appointing four members for three-year terms, four for two-year, and four for one-year and that the committee be headed by someone who was not a member of the School Board or faculty.

NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oppenlander will move on Monday, June 30, to Rockland, N. Y., where Mr. Oppenlander will be the Headmaster of the Rockland County Day School. Their son, Ted will remain in Swarthmore during the summer.

Dr. Robert K. Enders of Elm avenue is spending six weeks in Panama doing research at the Barro Colorado Island Laboratory. With him are several students from Swarthmore College.

Dr. Rosen said the committee thought the three or four hours additional required for the recommended program could be gained by cutting physical education to two periods and doing away with one or two home room study periods. Another possibility was adding an hour to the school day on one or two days a week. Dr. Rosen said that while the committee paid tribute to Swarthmore's superior physical education program, it recognized that it was in excess of the minimum State requirement so was one spot which could be borrowed from in order to gain academic improvement within the normal school day rather than less desirably in extra week-end or night sessions.

It was recommended that during split sessions, physical education be held for a double period once a week, in the morning for junior high and in the afternoon for senior high; that health be incorporated into the junior high school science program, and that students participating in varsity athletics be excused from physical education classes during the season to attend a study hall for that period.

The 20 minutes per day required for the recommended French study in grades 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 would come from taking a few minutes from each current study which in turn would be integrated into the French so that no educational loss would counteract the gain of the new language study. Dr. William McDermott, chairman of the sub-committee on language, explained that it was decided the small size of the local school system would permit only one foreign language on the elementary level and that French had been selected because its back ground literature, oral ease and general values lent it more readily to facile speech which is the major aim in presenting a foreign language to young children. Four years of Latin, French or German should be available to students at ninth grade level, the committee feels.

Dr. Rosen further said the committee recommended the establishment of a permanent lay committee so that regular reexaminations of curriculum would be done. It suggested a continuing group be set up by appointing four members for three-year terms, four for two-year, and four for one-year and that the committee be headed by someone who was not a member of the School Board or faculty.

With its senior girls taking the lead in the first event of Swarthmore Swim Club's opening Suburban Swim League meet at Wallingford Saturday morning, the local seahorse team gradually built its victorious score up to a lopsided 215-124 despite Wallingford capturing quite a few first places and its Patsy Ikeda bettering the former midjet girls' backstroke record of 42.4 by a tenth of a second.

SCHOOL AGGLADE
Word has come from Mount Holyoke College to William M. Bush, principal of Swarthmore High School, that the English Department there is very well pleased with the work of the freshmen from Swarthmore High School. The note states in effect that the Department of English of Mount Holyoke is pleased with the work of former students just completing their freshman English course, and asks Mr. Bush to relay their grateful acknowledgment to the teacher or teachers of high school English in the Swarthmore High School.

SEEK OWNERS
Numerous treasures and garments, abandoned by school children when they left school last week for summer vacation have been gathered for display in the high school cafeteria. Many of them look very dejected and anxious that their owners will come and identify them, pick them up and take them along home again.

Any children or parents who desire to examine the lost and found and retrieve lost possessions can find admission any school day from the parking lot at the high school. The tables of the sewing class are covered with these articles.

After several weeks of display any articles left will be removed and given to some charitable organization.

Forty-Seventh July 4th Community Program Starts at 9 A.M. Friday

World War II Honor Roll Now Placed; Nation's Birthday to Be Observed by Flags Flying, Parade, Fire Company Drill

Swarthmore energy will explode with an effective bang Friday morning at the Borough's forty-seventh annual Independence Day celebration takes off on its program of events; according to the announcement of William Shirley, chairman of the Business Association sponsored nearly half century old "Stay at Home Fourth."

In accordance with the hoped for permanent placing of the World War Two Honor Roll of this Borough's men who lost their lives in the service of their country expressed on Memorial Day, it is a fitting fact that as of this Fourth of July, 1958 the Memorial Stone at Borough Hall now includes that plaque. Also in the background of the community observance will be many American flags hung in the early hours of the morning from as many homes as possible in the Borough. On Memorial Day, a careful survey found the 200 block of Vassar avenue the one block in the Borough with a flag hung prominently from each residence. Several blocks on the north side of the Borough showed no colors at all.

This year's planned program will occupy the day until approximately 12:45. Originally, events continued throughout the day with water sports on the Crum and athletic races in the afternoon. At some point there was a formal program with a patriotic address. Evening events in the nearby 50-year history have included historic tableaux, a Borough picnic, fireworks, square dances. The first parade on record started at 10:30 at North Chester road and Swarthmore avenue, moved down Chester road to Yale avenue, on Yale to Park and on Park to Borough Hall where seats were provided for the following speeches. In that parade Borough officials, organizations, Lansdowne Boy Scouts (no local troops were organized), and many residents in patriotic displays.

Young Swarthmoreans in every kind of appropriate and fancy attire, astride an amazing variety of bedecked vehicles or attached to chartered pews uncertain in deportment, plus assisting parents and friends, floats and chaffeurs, will converge upon the Borough parking lot where the Children's Parade will form to march at 9 a.m. The line of march down Park avenue to Harvard and back to Borough Hall is not long enough to endanger fatigue or damage to costumes or decorations. It is long enough to permit judging at the judging stand in front of the Women's Club and to receive the favors distributed to every child in the parade and the flags given in honor of the day by the American Legion Post and to learn which entrants in the six classes catch the judges' favor to win ribbons of merit in each class.

Horace Reeves is Marshall of the parade. Classes will include Decorated Bicycles (26 inches or smaller), Decorated Tricycles, Appropriate Costumes (this is where ingenuity gleams brightly), Fancy Dress, Pets, and Floats. Judges from the Women's Club will include Mrs. David Bingham, Mrs. J. Paul (Continued on Page 8)

HOOPES - GROOTERS

The marriage of Miss Roberta Ruth Grooters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eugene Grooters of Ogden avenue to Mr. Raymond Talmsge Hoopes, Jr., son of Mrs. Raymond Talmsge Hoopes and the late Mr. Hoopes of Lansdowne, took place June 28, at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church. Dr. D. E. Evor Roberts officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

Dr. Robert Baker of New York City was the organist. He played "The Trumpet Voluntary" by Purcell as the bride entered on the arm of her father. The wedding hymn, "O Perfect Love," was sung by the entire congregation.

Miss Louise Johnson of North Chester road was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were sisters of Mr. Hoopes: Miss Janet Louise of Lansdowne and Mrs. Michael McKeown, Brookhaven, N.Y. Kathleen McKeown, a niece of Mr. Hoopes, was the flower girl.

Mr. Hoopes was served by Mr. William Sharpless of Drexel Hill. The ushers were Mr. John Tuley, Mr. William Annonio, Mr. Robert Dunn, and the bride's brother, Mr. David Grooters. The junior usher was John Grooters, also a brother of the bride.

Miss Grooters' gown of net over candlelight satin was designed on princess lines and featured an illusion neckline. The full skirt below rows of satin bands fell in graceful lines and formed a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil was attached to a hat of flowers and pearls.

Miss Johnson's dress was of blue embroidery accented with white organdy. The bridesmaids wore identical dresses in yellow. The three attendants wore white organdy Dior bows. They carried bouquets of blue cornflowers and yellow carnations. The flower girl's dress was of yellow ruffled organdy and she carried a miniature bouquet.

Mrs. Grooters was attired in a mint green sheath with an empire waistline, trimmed with satin applique. Her hat was of iridescent sequins and her corsage of shattered pink carnations.

Mrs. Hoopes was gowned in a sheath of dusty rose trimmed in lace with matching accessories. She wore a single orchid.

Voices Language Conviction
 Editor, The Swarthmorean:

I had expected and hoped that some one more directly concerned than I—some one of the large majority I believe to exist who favor the recommendation of the "School Curriculum Advisory Committee" that the French language be taught in the grades, junior high school and senior high school of Swarthmore, would champion that decision and disapprove the substitute proposed by Mr. E. H. Taylor, I would welcome for my children the opportunity provided, if they were still of school age.

The desirability of teaching foreign languages in the public schools has been realized increasingly in the past 35 years. This is the belief of Mr. Taylor, also. It has become increasingly apparent, too, that a real command of a foreign language through public school instruction can be provided best by starting in the grades and continuing through high school. The results obtained for many years by Old World countries and more recently by certain communities in the States have brought the proof.

The choice of the language to be so taught, poses the most serious question to any country. The solution by each has been made doubtless on the basis of the greatest usefulness throughout life, to the majority of the students. The French language has ranked high for years in the list of countries whose language is not English and continues to do so. It will lose out in the future far more often to the English language, than to German or Russian, I believe.

There are good reasons for knowing the German language, but the one given as a clincher by Mr. Taylor seems trivial, if not incorrect. We should long since have been freed from the "Herrnvolk" myth that Hitler and his minions strove to establish; reputable anthropologists stripped them of all evidence of a "pure Aryan race."

The proposal of the Russian language for our schools seems unwise; it is impractical now and will be for years, because competent teachers are not available. The minority who would find it most useful can best equip themselves and the more easily, after their complete instruction in French.

The slur on France as a decadent, second-rate power is not only improper but untrue. An appraisal of the basic contributions of France to all the important fields of human progress both in the past and now shows her to be inferior to few, if any. It is just the access to these records that a command of the French language gives, that is one of the strongest reasons for our choosing this language.

The apparent weaknesses of the French political organization as reported in our press can mislead anyone who does not look beyond this area about the present-day vitality of the French nation.

Returning to the practical aspect of the subject, I have found English and French much more useful in the European countries and those of Asia and Africa around the Mediterranean, than English and German. This will continue to be true for many years, I believe.

W. F. FARAGHER

To the Editor:

A group of law abiding citizens sponsored and chaperoned a dance at the Rutgers Avenue School grounds Saturday evening June 14 for the teenagers.

What happened! The music had just started to play when they had a visit from the police. Some of the people near by were complaining about the music disturbing them. Not once but twice, the police came.

Now the parents that were sponsoring that dance to keep the kids out of speeding cars or just getting into mischief had to defy the police just so the young people could have the dance.

That set me to wondering just what kind of people these are that are annoyed so easily. Surely not young people! Middle aged people with no family? Elderly people who have forgotten the block parties that used to be given for any seemingly good cause at the of the hat, a hurdy gurdy at each end of the street grinding out different tunes, lanterns strung from house to house? All just cause for complaint but no one called the police. Everyone joined in and had a good time—didn't shake their heads and say, my, my, what are the young people coming to. But now when people give up their evening so the kids can have some good clean fun all they get is a visit from the police because some people are so easily annoyed.

Just Wondering.

Coffee "Grounds" we mean. ☹️ Nothing's so likely to start a quarrel, or get you off to a bad day (or night) as a cup of wishy-washy, nondescript, flavorless coffee. ☹️ But, cheers, gals—Martinson's Coffee has come to town in a big way. Boro. Homes Honor Nation's Birthday

More than 500 flags distributed by the Swarthmore Business Association (with Alaska claiming most of the show) to Fourth of July early morning paraders in costumes; 800 popovers relished by participants and spectators at the same hour; the spectacular "singing" of Borough Hall from a smokestack by the Fire Company; which also demonstrated a game of water football; all these were the sign and traditional evidence of another congenial Fourth in Swarthmore.

Borough homes flew more flags than have waved in the breeze locally for several years. They were of all sizes including several very large and beautiful ones and they were of varying periods. Some with unusual numbers of stars in the blue field sent passersby to the encyclopedias to look up this country's history and growth.

The largest flag seen was a 10 by 20 foot, 45 star flag which covered the roof of the Henry A. Peirce home on Lafayette avenue. It is of wool and over a half century old, having been purchased by Mrs. Peirce's grandfather just after the 45th star was added for the State of Utah on July 4, 1896.

A smaller 45 star flag (but still sizeable) was flown by the Walter Dickinsons of Forest lane. It was purchased by Mr. Dickinson's family just before the 46th star was added for Oklahoma on July 4, 1908. These flags were the type (Continued on Page 4)

Novelty/Fourth Program Lined five-deep around the deck of the main pool, members and their holiday guests enjoyed an hour's program late Friday afternoon opening with a spectacular meet between the Igor Moiseyev Russian Dancers Swim Team and the Swarthmore Seashore Team's senior girls. The Russian team not only brought along its own black-robed "unbiased" judge (Sidovich in height and weight to Walter Udovich of the Swarthmore guard staff) but it employed several new techniques to gain a quick scoring lead. After "skirting" the pool deck in true ballerina fashion the four Russian swimmers (Daisy, Violet, Lilac and Tulip, somewhat resembling respectively Karl Schaefer, Bob Doherty, Charles Dietz, and Bob Sublette of the pool guards), flourishes to the poses they carried in their teeth, proceeded with original approaches in the freestyle and use of the butterfly net (on the opponent's contestant) in the butterfly. Daisy proved a most versatile diver but saved the day for the Seashores in the final relay by revealing "ahh" couldn't swim more than five yards.

Thus in the words of Guard Don Henderson, an able interpreter throughout the Russian doing, the final score proved "the American girls were the better swimmers as well as the more attractive." Henderson also abruptly tested the unbiased judge's sinkability. Seashores taking part were Carol and Joyce Williams, Gloria Florsol, Betsy Breakall and Linda Courtney.

IS SAFETY ON VACATION?

Once again Swarthmore managed a "safe and sane Fourth" although the "Third" posed a reminder that everyday hazards can be as great as any ever feared on the most riskful holiday.

Real tragedy for two families was narrowly avoided about 2 p.m. last Thursday when a bicycle ridden by nine-year-old Richard Redden of Cornell avenue emerged through a high hedge bordering a vacant lot at Dartmouth and Swarthmore avenues, jumped across the sidewalk and out into the path of a car driven by Charles Dietz, 17, Swarthmore High School football player and member of the Swarthmore Swim Club life guard staff.

Despite the suddenness with which the bicycle appeared, Dietz, who had just crossed the railroad en route to the Swarthmore shopping center, was able to swerve sufficiently to miss running over the boy. Fortunately, after five days in Taylor Hospital, having a severe face cut and leg and arm contusions besides, Richard was able to return home with as normal a life expectancy as before. He will not be able to continue his cherished trombone lessons this summer but he should complete the journey he had started to the pool. The contact badly twisted the bike's front wheel and demolished the right headlight of the car. Breathless at the thought of how much more dire the consequences could have been, sympathetic residents recalled another boy on a bike who was killed at the adjacent railroad crossing a few years ago. And they exchanged stories of the difficulties they, as drivers, are encountering daily with children on local streets—especially in the triply dangerous half-block in question where turns into and out of Dartmouth avenue, and of Riverview avenue, but a few feet to either side of a railroad crossing on heavily traveled Swarthmore avenue combine to give any driver plenty to cope with.

During the past year the local school system and parents cooperated in a concentrated campaign in which bike and rider had to pass tests and be licensed to be permitted bike-riding to school. Some (Continued on Page 5)

Pool Celebrates Fourth, Then Beats Rose Valley

Meef Rose Tree Here Tomorrow, White Seacalts Win

On the fourth anniversary of the opening of its own pool the Swarthmore Swim Club sent a delegation of midget swimmers and three divers to assist with the inaugural program at neighboring Ridley Township Swim Club's new pool off Woodland avenue. Early Friday afternoon Sandy Robinson, Dave Foley, Hal Welch and Dick McCurdy with Ann Townes, Cacki Eppenschade, Barbara Gerner and Judy Courtney demonstrated with medley relays. Linda Courtney, Sue Williams and Jean Boyer gave a diving exhibition.

They returned home in time for the gala Fourth of July program at the Swarthmore pool at 4 p.m. and turned out again at 9 a.m. Saturday morning to help their teammates in other age groups with a hard-fought 192-162 victory over the Suburban League champions of several years back, Rose Valley.

Although Swarthmore scored eight to Rose Valley's one in the opening event (senior girls backstroke), Rose Valley reversed the placings to tie the score in the next event. Swarthmore lacked a full entry in some senior and midget events but regained the lead, though at one time it was ahead only one point—so Swarthmy, the seashore mascot, kept his fins crossed until the last diver left the board and the final score was tallied.

At 9 a.m. tomorrow Swarthmore will be out for its third win when it meets Rose Tree Woods in the Swarthmore pool.

Lined five-deep around the deck of the main pool, members and their holiday guests enjoyed an hour's program late Friday afternoon opening with a spectacular meet between the Igor Moiseyev Russian Dancers Swim Team and the Swarthmore Seashore Team's senior girls. 47th July 4th Community Program Friday at 9 A.M.

(Continued from Page 1) Brown, Mrs. Robert M. Grogan, Mrs. George M. Karns, Mrs. Franklin H. Andrews view them with appreciation; this is no easy task with every young face aglow with eager hope and vigorous participation. Grounds of the College Avenue School will be the site of the Community Fun period which follows the parade as soon as parents can assemble the various parts of their group and transfer them to the field. At one side will be the PONY RIDES, for children under seven years of age; on another part will be the field games organized for the varying age groups (part of the fun is the search for the desired spot) and somewhere at the close of the game period, when each child has had the ride he so wants, will be the dispensing spot for the treat of the hour to all participants, pop-pies or disk cups. Back again at Borough Hall members of the Fire Department will go into vigorous action in a demonstration of speed and skills. This is the traditional element to which adventurous spirits in the Borough look forward from year to year. Oldtimers have been heard to say that no one is a true Swarthmorean until splashed (and splashed can be understatement) by the Fire Company on the 4th. Annually the Fire Company contribution to the Fourth program is an exciting, splashing highlight of the scheduled events. Roughwise, the balance of the day is a matter of choice. There are lively doings at the Swim Club and at the Tennis Club a round robin tournament is in progress as outlined elsewhere in this issue. There are family picnics scheduled and neighbor festivities. Altogether the spirit of the day is in keeping with the desire of the original committee for a "Safe and Sane Fourth," the furthering of the safe and neighborly celebration of the Nation's birthday.

Robert A. Young of Strath Haven avenue is working at the Gas Company in Ocean City for the summer. Bob received his certificate of architecture from Temple University this June and will enter the University of Miami in September where he will work toward securing his B.S. degree in architecture.

Post Kindergarten

The children in the post kindergarten group are busy becoming acquainted with all of the different types of indoor play equipment. Among one of the achievements of the week was a garage made by the boys from building blocks to house various kinds of trucks. The children play outside for a considerable longer length of time on swings, jungle gym, sliding boards, see-saws, and ride bicycles, scooters and wagons. The children play with balls and in various kinds of group games, involving simple running, tagging and guessing. Each day after mid-morning snack comes rest time, and music or a story record. Usually there is conversation period, where the children talk about something they did or saw. Each day is full.

Primary Group The Primary group of the Swarthmore Recreation bubbles with enthusiasm. The youngsters have exercised vivid imaginations with vacation dreams, displayed on paper. Peep shows are a cooling winter snow, spring and Christmas. Sharing has been a daily event with the children showing each other their prized possessions of arrow heads, doll dresses, home-made clocks and toy soldiers. Stories, records and singing provide good rest time activities. The sports program is active in hopscotch to line soccer, croquet to Red Rover.

The Fours The four year old group had an exciting first week at summer recreation school. Part of each morning was enjoyed inside modeling with clay, painting pictures, playing in a rhythm band and learning simple finger plays. Outdoor play, using swings, jungle gym, sliding boards, wheeled toys and sand boxes, was a happy part of each session. In the mid-morning each child had a cookie and a rest period to quietly listen to records.

Five Year Olds The five year old group of the Swarthmore Recreation Association under the leadership of Ann Keesey and Sue Gowing, were introduced to painting and clay modeling, blocks, puzzles, toys and balls. Bicycles, scooters, sand boxes, swings, and slides were enjoyed while the children played outside. After a cookie, and rest period, the children listened to stories before going home. As a continuing activity the five are reviewing and learning new and old nursery rhymes.

Summer Club Teams

(Continued from Page 1) This past week the boys and girls worked with gimp in making key ring holders, lanyards, and gimp covered hangers. Summer Club participants will also be working with leather, copper, aluminum, shells, and a variety of arts and crafts materials. It is still not too late to join the Summer Club. To Preach Here Sunday

The visiting minister at the Presbyterian Church Sunday will be the Rev. Anderson Nicol, minister of the West Church of St. Nicholas, Aberdeen, Scotland. Mr. Nicol has an M.A. degree from a Divinity School in Scotland, and commenced his ministry in the Kirk of Scotland. Later, in 1941, he went to Edinburgh and was minister in this metropolis. During the war he was a chaplain with the Royal Navy, after which he was appointed as R.N.V.R. Chaplain to the Fourth Division, Leith, Edinburgh.

He developed an interest in foreign missions and a call came for him to serve in the office of the church in Edinburgh for a year during the absence of the secretary in Manchuria following on the Japanese invasion. He has continued this interest and service has been given as Convener of the Asia Committee and as Vice Convener of the Foreign Mission Committee of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

After the war, Mr. Nicol was called to the City Church of Aberdeen. He is also a Governor of Robert Gordon's College, which comprises a secondary school and a college providing technical education for students. Mr. Nicol was invited to preach in Crathie Kirk where the Royal Family worships when on holiday in Scotland. He was the guest of His late Majesty, King George VI, and Queen Elizabeth at Balmoral Castle for the weekend.

Pool Celebrates Fourth, Then Beats Rose Valley

Meet Rose Tree Here Tomorrow, White Seacalts Win On the fourth anniversary of the opening of its own pool the Swarthmore Swim Club sent a delegation of midget swimmers and three divers to assist with the inaugural program at neighboring Ridley Township Swim Club's new pool off Woodland avenue. Early Friday afternoon Sandy Robinson, Dave Foley, Hal Welsh and Dick McCurdy with Ann Townes, Cacki Espenschiede, Barbara Gerner and Judy Courtney demonstrated with medley relays. Linda Courtney, Sue Williams and Jean Boyer gave a diving exhibition.

They returned home in time for the gala Fourth of July program at the Swarthmore pool at 4 p.m. and turned out again at 9 a.m. Saturday morning to help their teammates in other age groups with a hard-fought 192-162 victory over the Suburban League champions of several years back, Rose Valley. Although Swarthmore scored eight to Rose Valley's one in the opening event (senior girls backstroke), Rose Valley reversed the placings to tie the score in the next event. Swarthmore lacked a full entry in some senior and midget events but regained the lead, though at one time it was ahead only one point—so Swarthmore, the seahorse mascot, kept his fins crossed until the last diver left the board and the final score was tallied.

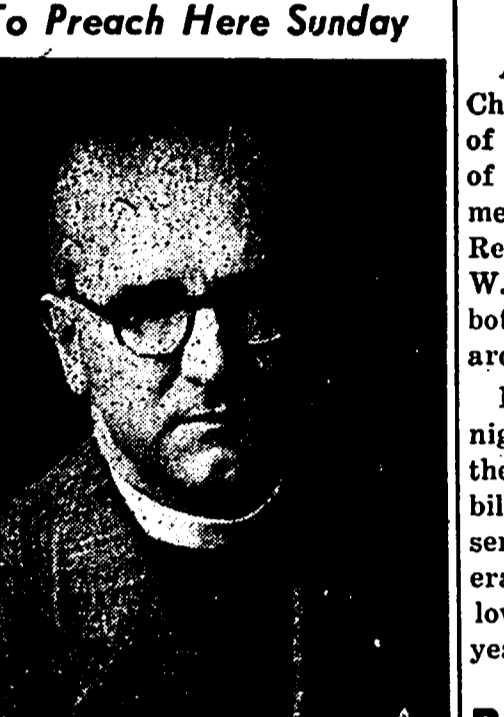

At 9 a.m. tomorrow Swarthmore will be out for its third win when it meets Rose Tree Woods in the Swarthmore pool. Novelty Fourth Program Lined five-deep around the deck of the main pool, members and their holiday guests enjoyed an hour's program late Friday afternoon opening with a spectacular meet between the Igor Moleseyev Russian Dancers Swim Team and the Swarthmore Seahorse Team's senior girls. The Russian team not only brought along its own black-robed "unbiased" judge (similar in height and weight to Walter Udovich of the Swarthmore guard staff) but it employed several new techniques to gain a quick scoring lead. After "skirting" the pool deck in true ballerina fashion the four Russian swimmers (Daisy, Violet, Lilac and Tulip, somewhat resembling respectively Karl Schaefer, Bob Doherty, Charles Dietz, and Bob Sublette of the pool guards) flowerlike to the poses they carried in their teeth, proceeded with original approaches in the freestyle and use of the butterfly net (on the opponent's contestant) in the butterfly. Daisy proved the most versatile diver but saved the day for the Seahorses in the final relay by revealing "she" couldn't swim more than five yards.

Thus in the words of Guard Don Henderson, an able interpreter throughout the Russian doings, the final score proved "the American girls were the better swimmers as well as the more attractive." Henderson also abruptly tested the unbiased judge's sinkability. Seahorses taking part were Carol and Joyce Williams, Gloria Piersel, Betty Brankell and Linda Courtney. Novelty prize-winning events for younger poolites followed. (Continued on Page 7)

Y., took place Saturday afternoon in the Presbyterian Church. Dr. David Ebor Roberts performed the 1:30 o'clock ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Chantilly lace gown featuring a scoop neckline, long, pointed sleeves, and a chapel train. Seed pearls and sequins adorned the neckline and the small cap from which her veil fell to the fingertips. She carried a loose cascade of white stephanotis and carnations with dracena foliage.

Miss Susan Barker Braun of Swarthmore was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Peter Brower Bloom of Evanston, Ill., sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Mary Ellen Warnes of Swarthmore and Miss Elizabeth Rickards Grier of Milford, Del., Miss Coral Florence Schmid of Ridgewood, N. J. The maid of honor was gowned in white eyelid organza of ballerina length with scoop neckline, over yellow taffeta. A short circular, matching yellow veil fell from a lattice crown which sat directly on top of her head. She carried a loose cascade of yellow pompon mums, harvest moon carnations and rhododendron foliage tied with yellow ribbon. The bridesmaids were similarly dressed, with green under taffeta, and green veils and bouquet ribbons.

Mr. James McKinnon of Hempstead, N.Y., was best man. The ushers were Jerry Nash of Water-vliet, N.Y., Dr. Henry Crawford Ford, Jr., of Swarthmore, and Mr. Peter Brower Bloom and Mr. Frederick Reid Bloom, brothers of the bride.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held at the Springhaven Club in Wallingford.

The bride's mother wore an ecru lace sheath with avocado accessories, and cybidium orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a powder blue lace and chiffon gown and orchid corsage.

After a wedding trip to Washington, D.C., the bride and groom will make their home near Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Tex.

LINTON - BRYANT

Miss Mary Ruth Bryant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orzo Newton Bryant of Sprout Estates, Chester, became the bride of Mr. Peter Linton of Ogdan avenue, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Linton of West Hartlepool, England, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 28, in the Prospect Hill Baptist Church, Prospect Park. The Rev. L. Earl Jackson, assisted by the Rev. Henry Prentiss, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with palms and white flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a floor length, white silk organza model over taffeta, with short sleeves, and applied flowers on the front panel. Her veil fell from a lace cap. She wore lace gloves and carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations.

Mrs. Robert Snyder of Prospect Park, as matron of honor, wore a light blue gown of organza over taffeta with a taffeta cummerbund and a light blue picture hat. Her bouquet was of pink carnations with blue trim. The bridesmaids Mrs. Arlen Frank of Wilmington, Del., and Miss Louise Craig of Folsom wore ensembles similar to that worn by the matron of honor. Their pink carnation bouquets were trimmed in pink.

Sara Ann McGraw of Ridley Park and Patti Ann Allen of Reading were flower girls for their cousin. They wore organza dresses of pink and blue respectively, headbands of flowers, and carried bouquets of pink and white feathered carnations with blue trim.

Mr. Kermil Good of Coatesville was best man for Mr. Linton. His ushers included Mr. Howard McAloonie of Swarthmore, Mr. Edward Hood of Essington, and Mr. Ray Christie of Norwood.

From Galatians will be read the Golden Text (3:26,27): "Ye are all children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ."

The Lesson-Sermon also includes this quotation from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (25:26-31): "Implicit faith in the Teacher and all the emotional love we can bestow on him, will never alone make us imitators of him. We must go and do likewise, else we are not improving the great blessings which our Master worked and suffered to bestow upon us."

College Honors Program Will Give New Look To Engineering Education Next Fall

There will be a new look in engineering education next fall when an Honors Program in Engineering Sciences is injected into the engineering division curriculum at Swarthmore College.

The new program, announced by President Courtney Smith, will cut across traditional departmental divisions of subject matter such as civil, mechanical, and electrical engineering, and will stress basic disciplines and fundamentals needed by all engineers with emphasis on the physical sciences and mathematics.

This increased emphasis on the basic scientific disciplines rather than on specialized technical subjects recognizes the unprecedented advance in the sciences in recent years. Increasingly the engineer finds he must master knowledge of unexpected kinds. Thus a mechanical engineer may need to know the principles of atomic radiations or the number theory.

Dr. Smith predicts the program will give the engineering graduate the adaptability, the spirit of inquiry, and the fundamentals emphasizing "why" rather than "how" - that will enable him to keep abreast of scientific developments and to contribute more effectively to a rapidly changing economy.

"We anticipate that the graduate of our Honors Program in Engineering Sciences will be a better brand of engineer," said Dr. Smith, in describing the details of the program. The sciences fundamental to civil, electrical, and mechanical engineering - physical sciences, engineering sciences, and mathematics - will be studied intensively in the framework of the Honors plan of study which was first established at Swarthmore in 1922.

This plan enables gifted students who have the maturity and capacity to do independent work to meet in seminar groups of from five to ten students for six to nine hours each week under the direction of an instructor. Each student will take two such seminars each semester in his junior and senior years.

He may choose his seminars from the following groups: Advanced Calculus and Differential Equations, Mechanics of Solids, Electrodynamics, Thermodynamics, Field Mechanics, Modern Physics, Linear Systems, Electronics, Structural Mechanics, Mechanical Design, and Earth Science.

The first six seminars are specified, while the remainder are elective. Honors students in the junior and senior years are thus freed from standard academic procedures such as courses, credit, and grades, but at the end of their senior year they must take written and oral examinations, covering their two years' work, given by visiting examiners from other educational institutions.

The Honors Program in Engineering Sciences, which has been under consideration for a year, has the backing of industry and of the first rate engineering graduate schools in the country which were consulted during preliminary discussions. One prominent engineering graduate of Swarthmore, George Schairer, director of research at the Boeing Airplane Company commented:

"When we talk about engineering today, we are talking more about science than practical know-how, quite a different story than 50 years ago when it was essentially all art or practice. While there are still many aspects of engineering practice or know-how to be learned, we don't think the undergraduate schools are the place for it."

"Better that the student acquire a firm understanding of the fundamentals of engineering and related sciences and to this knowledge, in graduate schools or on the job in industry, add the skill in application of these principles to specific problems."

Dr. Smith further said: "When we took this forward step in engineering education, we took a backward look at the history of engineering education at Swarthmore, which is as old as the college itself." "While a liberal amount of practical work is given, care is taken that the student understands the reasons for the work done." "And in 1873 the college catalogue was voicing a principle still firmly held today regarding engineering education set in the traditions of a liberal arts college: "In the requirements for the scientific degree care has been taken to secure general culture and not to make students of this department mere chemists or engineers." Thus Swarthmore engineering has always emphasized the fundamentals of engineering in contrast to vocational subjects, and study of the social sciences and humanities, with their potential for developing an understanding of human purposes and aims, has always been a part of Swarthmore's engineering curriculum. Dr. Smith states that the college will continue to maintain in the division of engineering full programs in civil, electrical, and mechanical engineering in addition to the new Honors Program in Engineering Sciences.

Is Safety on Vacation?

children are not so licensed, and some who are seen to have let their safety-mindedness take a vacation. Careless afoot and on bikes, some even breaking the warning lights at the railroad crossing, they seem to interpret recreation as "reck creation."

Surely every conscientious parent will want to reimpress the importance of safety measures upon his children, before—for somebody—it is TOO LATE!

Local Nurse Takes Scholarship Course

The 1953 workshops in Community-School Health Education opened last week at West Chester State Teachers College and Temple University with four nurses, two teachers, two dental hygienists, and a health worker attending from the County.

Scholarships were awarded them by the Delaware County Tuberculosis and Health Association and the Inter-Agency Planning Committee for the purpose of stimulating wider group action in effective community-school health education programs.

This week, at the half-way mark in the three-week sessions, Robert W. Bernhardt, chairman, and members of the committee will visit the West Chester Workshop and review with those attending the aims and objectives of the course, and outline how new theories and trends can be applied to local school, industrial and community health programs. Early next fall, it is planned to have evaluation meetings set up in three of the local school districts.

Similar workshops are being held in universities throughout the State this summer and Miss Edith H. Warren, of Springfield, and Miss Elizabeth Wooding, of Upper Darby will attend one at Temple University, starting June 30.

Recipients of scholarships at West Chester are: Mrs. Jennie Flammer, Swarthmore; Mrs. June Smith, Brookhaven; Mrs. Laura Schmidt, Chester; Mrs. Janice Manning, Broomall; Mrs. Gerda Lewis, Newtown Square; Mrs. Anne Aigner, Chester; and Mrs. Patricia Goodale, Springfield.

MEN OF SWARTHMORE Have you "Grounds for Divorce"? Coffee 'Grounds' we mean. Nothing's so likely to start a quarrel, or get you off to a bad day (or night) as a cup of wishy-washy, nondescript, flavorless coffee. But, cheers, men—Martinson's Coffee has come to town in a big way. That's the coffee that's been the pride of New York for upwards of 50 years. Fair warning, though—the little woman's going to scream that it costs more than others. Be Prepared!...like a Boy Scout! Just tell her, "Sure it costs more to buy, but not to use. It's much richer and stronger—takes less coffee per cup." So learn to "Economize with the best..." with MARTINSON'S COFFEE

Pool Celebrates Fourth, Than Beats Rose Valley

Cindy Wigton fished 12 pennies from the bottom to win the girls penny scramble for children 6 and under. Kenneth Dumm won the boys with 15 pennies.

Karen Sutherland won the first heat of the girls kickboard race for 7 and 8 year olds, and Janet Shallcross the second heat. John McWilliams was the boy winner.

Judy Courtney won the girls balloon race for 9 and 10 year olds. Boys winner was David Shay.

Joanne Espenschade and Sharon Parker won the girls three-legged race for 11 and 12 year olds. Two Jerry's (Clother and Stamford) won the boys event.

Always a favorite and never yet lost by the guards the old clothes relay, in which various teams challenge the guard staff to swims which involve changing into wet clothes, proved a hilarious finale. Both the winning guard team and the challengers who came closest to matching their time (John Shallcross, Jack Espenschade and Dr. Arthur Silvers) received a watermelon.

Double Ducking
It seems to be a tradition to duck Bill Gill as an inauguration of each new pool. Bill, who was the Swim Club's original building chairman, was thrown into the original pool during its opening ceremonies in 1956. Bill found himself immersed again last Friday in honor of the new deep water pool which members have been enjoying since the current season opened.

Coach Millard Robinson, pool manager and swim team director, usually a pretty hard person to toss overboard, was caught off guard by a group of seashores exultant over their Rose Valley triumph at noon Saturday and found himself rising from the bottom of the diving tank.

Both celebratory duckings were deemed justified by the duckees:

Lap-landers Progress
As the 40th day of the swim season arrived Tuesday most of the 20 "Laplanders" currently swimming the trip were about half-way "Around the World in 80 Days." On Saturday Don Grose did 70 laps to make up for time lost during a landlubbing vacation trip. Charles Brooks and Mrs. Frank Morey were leading, doing more than the required 10 laps daily in an effort to complete the trip before their vacation time comes around. Close behind them in the following order, were J. G. Lord, Jack Espenschade, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peirso, Sam Dodd, R. E. Rankin, Henry Lan, Mrs. Espenschade, Chuck Martin, Mrs. Martin Noye, Herb Brown, Bob van Ravensway, Dick Hunt, Mrs. Davies Preston, Dr. A. H. Life Saving Classes Proceed
The first senior life-saving class of the season under Karl Schaefer of the pool staff finished its course last week and a new two-week junior session opened Monday night. Anyone who missed these and would like to sign up for another course which will be given in August may do so at the pool. Juniors must be 12 years of age and seniors 16.

Oppenlander to Remain On Local Faculty

Elementary and H.S. Needs Handled by Board

A request from Harry Oppenlander that his resignation as high school science teacher, tendered two months ago, be rescinded was received and granted at a meeting of the Swarthmore-Rutledge Union School Board Wednesday evening of last week. Oppenlander's letter indicated that uncertainties developing in connection with another position he had previously accepted, led him to change his mind about leaving Swarthmore. He had been named director of an independent school forming in Rockland County, N.Y. The Board had not yet appointed a successor to his post on the local faculty.

The Board honored the motion of Dr. Samuel T. Carpenter to recommend to the School Authority the preparation and blacktopping of an 80 by 120 foot play area for the new elementary building, at a cost of $3411. Board members decided to grade and seed a 66 by 66 foot area to temporarily replace the torn-up play area of the older building until sufficient study and usage establishes the best procedure toward a complete, permanent play set-up for the combined enrollments. The $507.61 cost of the present project will be added to the elementary cafeteria contract of Enson-Galling-Hood.

Cafeteria Plans
Discussion of operation of the high school cafeteria during the next school year revealed the plan was to serve soup, sandwich and dessert to teachers, and a limited number of students. Although it seems obvious double sessions will again be necessary, the administration is still struggling for an exact schedule and considering any possible variations which might be an improvement over the emergency arrangement which followed last April's fire at the high school.

It was reported a new room schedule approval had been received from the State.

The State Tax Equalization Board report just received by Delaware County Superintendent of Schools G. Baker Thompson reveals Swarthmore is one of only three districts in the county whose ratio of assessed valuation to market value rose during the past year. In the overall county picture the ratio has fallen to an all-time low of 28.7, as compared with 27 per cent for the preceding year and 29.92 in the peak year—1950.

Market Values Listed
Swarthmore was listed with a $29,871,100 market value of taxable real property for last year and a $8,573,465 assessed valuation or a 28.7 per cent ratio. This is up .2 per cent. Trainer whose 20.4 per cent is the lowest in the county represented a 1.2 increase, and Chester Township increased from 24.7 to 24.8. Districts which remained the same were:

Aidan, 25.2; Bethel, 21; Lansdowne, 30; Marcus Hook, 27.2; Media, 32.2; Prospect Park, 27.2; and Upland, 27.1.

During the year county market value rose about $76 million from $1,775,926,800 but assessments went up less than $15 million from $479,049,477. Millbourne continued to head the list with a high percentage of 35.1 although this was a drop of .2 from the previous year. Thirty-six other districts showed decreases, including Upper Darby with the largest market value in the county dropping from 28 to 27.9, Haverford with second largest valuation falling from 24.9 to 24.8, and Chester City which declined from 32.3 to 31.9.

SUMMER IN EUROPE

Anne and Joan Paul of Flint, Mich., formerly of Park avenue, Swarthmore, will fly to Europe from Detroit, Mich., on June 23, to spend 10 weeks as a part of the exchange program sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches.

Jean will live with a teacher and his family in Kiel, Germany, whom she will join for a five-week trip through Germany, France, Italy, Switzerland, and Spain.

Joan will live with a family in Hamburg, Germany, and both the girls will spend two weeks at the World's Fair in Brussels as the guests of relatives.

Dr. Arthur Jones of North Swarthmore avenue drove yesterday to New Haven, Conn., for a weekend visit with his son Dr. Burton W. Jones.

Chief Haltown Visits SRA Groups Today

McGahan Hall at 9 each morning, now cry when they themselves, have to leave at the end of each morning—quite a testimonial to the success of this program!

The Fivis learned and reviewed nursery rhymes, putting many of them to music. They experimented with paint sticks, and made jungle animals of colored clay.

Some of the six-year-old boys built a huge fort with building blocks. It was life-size, and all of the boys had a chance to get into it and "cover up" for a few minutes.

One day, leaf people were made; huge maple leaves were taped on pieces of paper, and the children drew in a head, arms, and legs for each. They also started a project of making Mickey Mouses (Mice?) from various sized circles.

First, the children traced eight different size circles, and then cut them out. They will finish by pasting the circles on another piece of paper, to form the head, the body, and so on until a reasonably accurate reproduction of a Mickey is completed.

The Primary children liked to Crum Creek Falls, giving them a fine opportunity to start or add to all nature collections.

The climax of the current week's activities will be a visit, today, from Chief Haltown. His appearance will be at McGahan Hall, but the Summer Club participants will join the younger group there for the program. Any other children who are not an active part of either group this summer may attend.

The Swarthmore Summer Club program, now in its third week, has increased enrollment to 58 registered members. Quite a few guests have been brought by the regulars.

This past week featured ping pong and badminton tournaments. For the girls, Judy Tucker won the ping pong tournament, and Ann Townes the badminton tournament. Kim Prescott won the boys' badminton tournament, and Andy MacNair won the boys' ping pong battle.

In team competition in the boys' league the Eagles are in first place with 45 points followed by the Hawks and the Demons with 35 and 30 points respectively. The All Stars are leading the girls' league with a total of 50 points. The Panthers are in second place with 47 points, and the Bluebirds and Pickled Peppers each have 35 points.

The first nature hike was taken by one group on the college campus. Richard McKernan lead the Hawks on their hike. He along with the other members of his group pointed out many interesting aspects of nature.

Mrs. Franklin Robblee who is in charge of the Primary Summer Club has invited the intermediate summer club group to a program today. Chief Haltown, TV personality, will be on hand to perform for the boys and girls.

During the past week in arts and crafts the boys and girls have worked on a variety of leather craft objects—purses, wallets, belts, etc. Some children made hammered aluminum plates. The following children have completed some very satisfactory projects in arts and crafts:

Danny Marino, Jim Hunter, Bruce Fox, Richard Tarnoff, Patty McInroy, Ann and Joan Hyden, Peggy Schmidt, and Muffy Geer.

LOCAL DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE REORGANIZES

The Democratic Committee reorganized this week with the following officers: Chairman, Lois Peterson; vice-chairman, Charles Gilbert; secretary, Beatrice Metzger; treasurer, Henry G. Russell.

Committee members are: Northern precinct, Jane Aaron and Willis Waterford; eastern precinct, Leroy Peterson and Betty Welsh; western precinct, Dorothy Taylor and Charles Gilbert.

Fire Alarm Alarms Taxpayers

Over 100 firemen and 15 pieces of apparatus from Swarthmore, Media, Springfield, Rutledge, and Morton answered the fire alarm at 7:10 Wednesday night. So also did a flock of panicky taxpayers, as engine after engine turned down Rutgers avenue, apparently bound for the elementary school.

And bound for the school they were, but it was the Sixth District's monthly fire drill, not (thank goodness), a genuine conflagration. Nevertheless, ladders went up, hose was rolled out, and firemen played streams of water on the roof of the old building as cooperating companies put their know-how to work.

Two small puddles were found, after the deluge, one from water that had come in under a rear door on the first floor, and another from water that had come in through one of several holes—obviously made by air rifles—in the window glass. (And in case anyone's interested, there are also holes in the glass of the one story wing that definitely came from mud balls.)

So, there was no smoke and no flame, and no damage from fire or water, and no tax rise for Swarthmore, although, as one woman equipped, before the mystery was solved, "At least there'll be no tax rise this year, the bills are already out!"

The Sixth District conducted a drill last month when Fair Acres, the county home at Lima, was the target, and will stage another one next month when the objective will be somewhere in the Media area.

POLIO STILL A THREAT!

Polio strikes without warning. Epidemics spread quickly. No section of the country is immune because the virus is still widespread. Despite proved efficiency of polio vaccine, eighty million Americans under forty years of age have not completed the full schedule of three doses. Unfortunately, the vaccine cannot wipe out the disease. It simply protects those who receive it. Thus, eighty million Americans still are needlessly susceptible to the dread disease. Don't take chances with your health or that of your loved ones. See your physician! Be immunized now!

Seahorses in Easy Win Over Rose Tree Woods

Face Battle of Season in Tomorrow's Tri-Meet

Brand new in the Suburban Swimming League, visiting Rose Tree Woods last Saturday was no match for the four-year team of Swarthmore Seahorses who will really test their mettle against 1957 League Champ Aronimink and Marple-Newton in a triangular final on which hinges the League's southern division championship at 9 a.m. tomorrow in Marple-Newton's pool. Swarthmore and Aronimink are the only undefeated teams at this juncture, the latter having defeated Rose Valley 197-166 on Saturday.

Although the home team chalked up 28 firsts to Rose Tree's 7 and skipped five events for a 223-94 score Saturday to remain undefeated thus far this season, two Rose Tree girls captured all four stroke events in midgates—bettering the pool record each time! Sharon Magen by her 49.1 time in breaststroke bettered the 52.8 record snatched the previous week by Elaine Woodall of Rose Valley from Molly Schumacher, Swarthmore, who set it at 60 last year. Sharon's 51.5 butterfly also deposed the old 55.8 record of Cacki Espenschied, Swarthmore.

Barbara Bartlett by her 47.1 time in backstroke bettered the former record of L. Vogt, Aronimink by 2.6; and her 37.6 freestyle time deposed the old 38.2 record of Swarthmore's Ann Townes. Thus Swarthmore lost all but one of the four midleg records it had held for its own pool.

The one it retains is R. McCurdy's 35.2 for freestyle.

Sr. Pool Records

In winning the senior girl's freestyle in 1:11.5 Saturday, Carol Williams also bettered the pool record of 1:12.3, which she had also held previously. Carol's old pool record of 1:31.2 in senior breaststroke, which she bettered to 1:29.2 in the Rose Valley meet, has yet to be surpassed by an outsider swimming here. However Dave Preston's senior boy's freestyle record of 1:02 was lost to Brooke Plummer of Rose Valley who did it in 52.5 on July 5. Thus the locals slipped one in senior records held.

Betsy Breakell lost her 42.6 intermediate breaststroke record to Sue Robert of Rose Valley but also on July 5 Jim Foley captured the intermediate backstroke (34.7) bettering the record set by a Rose Valley swimmer here over two years ago. Charlotte Brodhead's 38.8 intermediate backstroke record has never been beaten at the pool, so the Seahorses just break even on intermediate records. The two junior records held by Swarthmore (Jim Foley's 30.2 in freestyle and his 37.7 in backstroke) have yet to be broken.

Record Record Drops
All this tallies out to Swarthmore having at present seven of the top times for events swum in its own pool, whereas at this time last year it held 11 of the 40 possible records. Thus it would seem that despite exhibiting an overall strength in winning meets, Swarthmore is not holding its own in outstanding individual performance compared to its competitors within League teams.

In addition to the customary several disqualifications in breaststroke and butterfly events last Saturday, the ticklishness of rules (Continued on Page 7)

Receives Rotarian Award

Thomas W. Hopper, Dogwood lane, ex-president of Borough Council, was named the recipient of Swarthmore Rotary Club's first Community Award at a special "Ladies' Night" at the Springhaven Club. Presented by Samuel Carpenter, outgoing president of the organization, the award was made in recognition of Mr. Hopper's "outstanding service to our community of a thoughtful, intelligent, and painstaking nature."

The award is made on merit alone, and does not establish a "tradition."

At the same meeting, Herman Bloom, Columbia avenue, was installed as president of Rotary for the 1958-59 year. Also installed as officers were:

West Cochrane, vice-president; William Bush, secretary, and Dean Church, treasurer.

Special guests of the occasion, in addition to the ladies, were Charles Pennock, 1958-59 District Governor, and Charles Meyers, outgoing District Governor.

Weekly Concerts at Glen Providence Park
The third of the summer series of band concerts will be held in Glen Providence Park (west end of State street near Baltimore pike, Media), on Thursday evening, July 24, at 8 p.m.

Thomas G. Leeson will conduct the Chester Elks' 35 piece band. Robert Keel will be the master of ceremonies.

These concerts are given every Thursday evening during July and August. In the event of rain, the scheduled program will be given the following week. H. Walter Weaver, superintendent of the County Parks, states that the park is sprayed for the elimination of mosquitoes previous to each concert.

All citizens of the county and neighboring communities are invited to attend. For greater comfort, it has been suggested that they bring their own lawn chairs, cushions, etc.

SERVICES SATURDAY FOR FREDERICK VOLZ
Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Oliver H. Bair, 1820 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, for Frederick G. Volz, 101 Elm avenue, who died Wednesday, July 16, at Hahnemann Hospital. Mr. Volz, 67, was the owner of the Champion Sales Company, 1817 Callowhill street, Philadelphia.

He is survived by his wife Edna McDermott Volz.

Rains Postpone

Knee Hi Games World Series Rescheduled for Tuesday at 6:30

The big splash of the Swarthmore Knee Hi League referred to last week turned out to be the rain which caused enough postponements to spread proceedings through next week. Last Tuesday evening coach Bill Welsh's Indians team of the American Division took its league title with an overwhelming victory over the Tigers. The Indians, sporting a 7 won and 3 lost record, will meet either the Cardinals or the Dodgers next Tuesday night in the first game of the Little World Series.

The National Division of the league was thrown into a tie for first place when the Braves of Coach Howard Splier, behind the pitching of Dan Marino, defeated the league-leading Cardinal team 4 to 0 to set the "red birds" back in a tie with Hub Hartman's Dodgers nine. Last night was to be the playoff game and the winning team will go into the series next week.

Monday night will be reserved for practice sessions for both teams representing their respective leagues, and then, Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. on Riverview Field will mark the first game of the series, which will include the best of three games for the over-all league championship. During the final game League Director Bill Reese will award four trophies to the four most outstanding players in the league. The recipients of the awards will be determined by a vote of the members. All Stars, Eagles Win SRA Team Competition

Mrs. Franklin Robblee invited the intermediate summer club group to a program in which Chief Haltown sang, told interesting bits of information about Indian life, and entertained both the very young children and the older children. After the program the older children were treated to cookies by Mrs. Robblee's group.

Summer Club is now starting the second half of the season. New team captains have been elected, and new teams have been formed. The newly elected captains are Linda Jester, Judy Gols, Marion Hunter, Andy Mac Nair, Danny Marino, Allen Torrey and Gerry Clotier.

The two teams having the greatest number of points in the boys' and girls' leagues at the end of the first half of the program were the All Stars whose captain was Debbie Torrey, and the Eagles who were led by Tommy Gaylord.

A Garland Gardener, Please!

The Flowers for the Flowerless Program, conducted for well over a quarter of a century under the auspices of the Woman's Club, finds itself indeed flowerless these days.

Certainly there has been rain enough and warm enough but regardless of the conditions in each shining raindrop, Mrs. W. Alfred Smith has failed to see on occasion a single flower on the Woman's Club porch. And inasmuch as several buckets of water are set out faithfully each Wednesday afternoon (in hopeful anticipation) it's a hard blow to see containers empty of bloom or weed on a Thursday morning when the "bouquets" are theoretically transported to the Veterans' Hospital at 39th and Woodlawn, Philadelphia.

"If people would only LOOK," Mrs. Smith remarked. "There are roses now, and baby's breath, hydrangeas, Ivy's nice, and at least it's green," she continued.

Mrs. Smith also suggested wild flowers—Queen Anne's lace, daisies which are plentiful and colorful, cornflowers—in fact anything that's green or colorful to cheer up a patient in this definitely summer weather, will be gratefully accepted for the program.

SERVES CHRIST CHURCH

The Rev. Dr. J. J. Jorden Guenther, former rector of Trinity Church, Swarthmore, who retired as rector of St. Peter's-in-the-Grate Valley last fall, is supplying the pulpit at historic Christ Church, Second street above Market, Philadelphia, during July and August.

Rob't Hayden Appointed New Borough Auditor

Modern Material Approved for College Lab

Robert G. Hayden, assistant to the general manager of the American Viscose Corporation's film division, was appointed to fulfill the several remaining years of Henry L. Harris' unexpired term as borough auditor, at the regular monthly session of Borough Council Monday evening. Mr. Harris resigned two months ago.

Graduating from Swarthmore, College in 1947 and the Wharton School of Business Administration at the University of Pennsylvania, he is a certified public accountant. He and his wife, the former Nancy Roberts Smith, daughter of Claude C. Smith, are now living in the Smith house on Baltimore pike until construction of their new home on Woodbrook road is completed.

Council approved the use of insulated precast concrete wall panels for the outer construction of the new science building at Swarthmore College. It also approved the application of Horace Reeves to make a front extension to the twin house he owns on Dartmouth avenue between the Co-Op and The Swarthmorean office. This will bring the structure in line with neighboring buildings in the business section. He owns building business and runs the other as office.

The purchase of $758 worth of miscellaneous small equipment for the Fire Company was authorized. At the behest of the State Highway Department "Speed Zone" signs will be purchased and erected at the beginning and end of the 35 mile limit area along Chester road. Council approved the removal of "No Parking" signs in front of the tax collector's house on College avenue, opposite the high school, until the opening of school.

Public Safety Chairman Charles W. Lukins recommended shrubbery along the Dartmouth avenue end of the borough parking lot be trimmed so as not to obscure view of traffic issuing from Lafayette avenue. Council also approved his recommendation to paint a line at the south end of the underpass, to keep southbound cars merging from the upper level into through traffic, from entering the main stream until they have reached the Stop Sign opposite the Acme.

Charles H. Topping Re-elected BRI Pres.

Charles H. Topping, North Princeton avenue, was re-elected to a second year as president of the Building Research Council, Washington, D. C. Mr. Topping is senior architectural and civil consultant for duPont.

Said William H. Scheick, BRI executive director, in commenting on the election, "This year has seen the inauguration of a long-time dream of BRI members, the establishment of the Committee on Coordinating Basic Building Research and with Mr. Topping's keen interest in this activity, we anticipate that big steps will be taken during the coming year to get this program under way."

Over 100 firemen and 15 pieces of apparatus from Swarthmore, Media, Springfield, Rutledge, and Morton answered the fire alarm at 7:10 Wednesday night. So also did a flock of panicky taxpayers, as engine after engine turned down Rutgers avenue, apparently bound for the elementary school.

And bound for the school they were, but it was the Sixth District's monthly fire drill, not (thank goodness), a genuine conflagration. Nevertheless, ladders went up, hose was rolled out, and firemen played streams of water on the roof of the old building as cooperating companies put their know-how to work.

Two small puddles were found, after the deluge, one from water that had come in under a rear door on the first floor, and another from water that had come in through one of several holes—obviously made by air rifles—in the window glass. (And in case anyone's interested, there are also holes in the glass of the one story wing that definitely came from mud balls.)

So, there was no smoke and no flame, and no damage from fire or water, and no tax rise for Swarthmore, although, as one woman equipped, before the mystery was solved, "At least there'll be no tax rise this year, the bills are already out!"

The Sixth District conducted a drill last month when Fair Acres, the county home at Lima, was the target, and will stage another one next month when the objective will be somewhere in the Media area.

POLIO STILL A THREAT!

Polio strikes without warning. Epidemics spread quickly. No section of the country is immune because the virus is still widespread. Despite proved efficiency of polio vaccine, eighty million Americans under forty years of age have not completed the full schedule of three doses. Unfortunately, the vaccine cannot wipe out the disease. It simply protects those who receive it. Thus, eighty million Americans are needlessly susceptible to the dread disease. Don't take chances with your health or that of your loved ones. See your physician! Be immunized now!

Seahorses in Easy Win Over Rose Tree Woods

Face Battle of Season in Tomorrow's Tri-Meet

Brand new in the Suburban Swimming League, visiting Rose Tree Woods last Saturday was no match for the four-year team of Swarthmore Seahorses who will really test their mettle against 1957 League Champ Aronimink and Marple-Newton in a triangular final on which hinges the League's southern division championship at 9 a.m. tomorrow in Marple-Newton's pool. Swarthmore and Aronimink are the only undefeated teams at this juncture, the latter having defeated Rose Valley 197-156 on Saturday.

Although the home team chalked up 28 firsts to Rose Tree's 7 and skipped five events for a 223-94 score Saturday to remain undefeated thus far this season, two Rose Tree girls captured all four stroke events in midlegs—bettering the pool record each time! Sharon Magen by her 49.1 time in breaststroke bettered the 52.8 record snatched the previous week by Elaine Woodall of Rose Valley from Molly Schumacher, Swarthmore, who set it at 60 last year. Sharon's 51.5 butterfly also deposited the old 55.8 record of Cacki Espenshade, Swarthmore.

Barbara Bartlett by her 47.1 time in backstroke bettered the former record of L. Vogt, Aronimink by 2.6; and her 37.6 freestyle time deposed the old 38. record of Swarthmore's Ann Townes. Thus Swarthmore lost all but one of the four midget records it had held for its own pool.

The one it retains is R. McCurdy's 35.2 for freestyle.

Sr. Pool Records

In winning the senior girl's freestyle in 1:11.5 Saturday, Carol Williams also bettered the pool record of 1:15.1 which she had also held previously. Carol's old pool record of 1:31.2 in senior breaststroke, which she bettered to 1:29.2 in the Rose Valley meet, has yet to be surpassed by an outsider swimming here. However Dave Preston's senior boy's freestyle record of 1:02 was lost to Brooke Plummer of Rose Valley who did it in 52.5 on July 5. Thus the locals slipped one in senior records held.

Betsy Breakell lost her 42.6 intermediate breaststroke record to Sue Robert of Rose Valley but also on July 5 Jim Foley captured the intermediate backstroke (34.7) bettering the record set by a Rose Valley swimmer here over two years ago. Charlotte Brodhead's 38.8 intermediate backstroke record has never been beaten at the pool, so the Seahorses just break even on intermediate records. The two junior records held by Swarthmore (Jim Foley's 30.2 in freestyle and his 37.7 in backstroke) have yet to be broken.

Record Record Drops

All this tallies out to Swarthmore having at present seven of the top times for events swum in its own pool, whereas at this time last year it held 11 of the 40 possible records. Thus it would seem that despite exhibiting an overall strength in winning meets, Swarthmore is not holding its own in outstanding individual performance compared to its competitors within League teams.

In addition to the customary several disqualifications in breaststroke and butterfly events last Saturday, the ticklishness of rules (Continued on Page 7)

Receives Rotarian Award

Thos. Hopper Receives Community Award

Rotary Club Installs Herman Bloom as President

Thomas W. Hopper, Dogwood lane, ex-president of Borough Council, was named the recipient of Swarthmore Rotary Club's first Community Award at a special "Ladies' Night" at the Spring Haven Club. Presented by Samuel Carpenter, outgoing president of the organization, the award was made in recognition of Mr. Hopper's "outstanding service to our community of a thoughtful, intelligent, and painstaking nature."

The award is made on merit alone, and does not establish a "tradition."

At the same meeting, Herman Bloom, Columbia avenue, was installed as president of Rotary for the 1958-59 year. Also installed as officers were:

West Cochrane, vice-president; William Bush, secretary, and Dean Church, treasurer.

Special guests of the occasion, in addition to the ladies, were Charles Pennock, 1958-59 District Governor, and Charles Meyers, outgoing District Governor.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Oliver H. Bair, 1820 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, for Frederick G. Volz, 101 Elm avenue, who died Wednesday, July 16, at Hahnemann Hospital. Mr. Volz, 67, was the owner of the Champion Sales Company, 1817 Callowhill street, Philadelphia.

He is survived by his wife Edna McDermott Volz.

Rains Postpone Knee Hi Games

World Series Rescheduled for Tuesday at 6:30

The big splash of the Swarthmore Knee Hi League referred to last week turned out to be the rain which caused enough postponements to spread proceedings through next week. Last Tuesday evening coach Bill Walsh's Indians team of the American Division took its league title with an overwhelming victory over the Tigers. The Indians, sporting a 7 win and 3 lost record, will meet either the Cardinals or the Dodgers next Tuesday night in the first game of the Little World Series.

The National Division of the league was thrown into a tie for first place when the Braves of Coach Howard Sipler, behind the pitching of Dan Marino, defeated the league-leading Cardinal team 4 to 0 to set the "red birds" back in a tie with Hub Hartman's Dodger nine. Last night was to be the play-off game and the winning team will go into the series next week.

Monday night will be reserved for practice sessions for both teams representing their respective leagues, and then, Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. on Riverview Field will mark the first game of the series, which will include the best of three games for the over-all league championship. During the final game League Director Bill Reese will award four trophies to the four most outstanding players in the league. The recipients of the awards will be determined.

All Stars, Eagles Win SRA Team Competition

Mrs. Franklin Robblee invited the intermediate summer club group to a program in which Chief Halftown sang, told interesting bits of information about Indian life, and entertained both the very young children and the older children. After the program the older children were treated to cookies by Mrs. Robblee's group.

Summer Club is now starting the second half of the season. New team captains have been elected, and new teams have been formed. The newly elected captains are Linda Jester, Judy Golz, Marion Hunter, Andy Mac Nair, Danny Marino, Allen Torrey and Gerry Clothier.

The two teams having the greatest number of points in the boys' and girls' leagues at the end of the first half of the program were the All Stars whose captain was Debbie Torrey, and the Eagles who were led by Tommy Gaylord.

A Garland Gardener, Please!

The Flowers of the Flowerless Program, conducted for well over a quarter of a century under the auspices of the Woman's Club, finds itself indeed flowerless these days.

Certainly there has been rain enough and warmth enough but regardless of the reflections in each shining raindrop, Mrs. W. Alfred Smith has failed to see on occasion a single flower on the Woman's Club porch. And inasmuch as several buckets of water are set out faithfully each Wednesday afternoon (in hopeful anticipation) it's a hard blow to see containers empty of bloom or weed on a Thursday morning when the "bouquets" are theoretically transported to the Veterans' Hospital at 39th and Woodlawn, Philadelphia.

"If people would only LOOK," Mrs. Smith remarked. "There are roses now, and baby's breath, hydrangeas, ivy's nice, and at least it's green," she continued.

Mrs. Smith also suggested wild flowers—Queen Anne's lace, daisies which are plentiful and colorful, cornflowers—in fact anything that's green or colorful to cheer up a patient in this definitely summer weather, will be gratefully accepted for the program.

SERVES CHRIST CHURCH

The Rev. Dr. J. Jarden Guenther, former rector of Trinity Church, Swarthmore, who retired as rector of St. Peter's-in-the-Great Valley last fall, is supplying the pulpit at historic Christ Church, Second street above Market, Philadelphia, during July and August.

Rob't Hayden Appointed New Borough Auditor

Modern Material Approved for College Lab

Robert G. Hayden, assistant to the general manager of the American Viscose Corporation's film division, was appointed to fulfill the several remaining years of Henry L. Harris's unexpired term as borough auditor, at the regular monthly session of Borough Council Monday evening. Mr. Harris resigned two months ago.

Graduating from Swarthmore College in 1947 and the Wharton School of Business Administration at the University of Pennsylvania the following year, Mr. Hayden is a certified public accountant. He and his wife, the former Nancy Roberts Smith, daughter of Claude C. Smith, are now living in the Smith house on Baltimore pike until construction of their new home on Woodbrook road is completed.

Council approved the use of insulated precast concrete wall panels for the outer construction of the new science building at Swarthmore College. It also approved the application of Horace Reeves to make a front extension to the twin house he owns on Dartmouth avenue between the Co-Op and The Swarthmorean office. This will bring the structure in line with neighboring buildings in the business section. Reeves plans to use one house for his own building business and rent the other as office.

The purchase of $758 worth of miscellaneous small equipment for the Fire Company was authorized. At the behest of the State Highway Department "Speed Zone" signs will be purchased and erected at the beginning and end of the 35 mile limit area along Chester road. Council approved the removal of "No Parking" signs in front of the tax collector's house on College avenue opposite the high school, until the opening of school.

Public Safety Chairman Charles W. Lukens recommended shrubbery along the Dartmouth avenue end of the borough parking lot be trimmed so as not to obscure view of traffic issuing from Lafayette avenue. Council also approved his recommendation to paint a line at the south end of the underpass to keep southbound cars merging from the upper level into through traffic, from entering the main stream until they have reached the Stop Sign opposite the Acme.

Charles H. Topping Re-elected BRI Pres.

Charles H. Topping, North Princeton avenue, was re-elected to a second year as president of the Building Research Institute, National Research Council, Washington, D. C. Mr. Topping is senior architectural and civil consultant for duPont's.

Men 65, Women 62 or Over May Be Eligible For Social Sec. Checks

Over the years changes have been made in the Social Security Law so that it is easier to qualify for monthly benefits. In view of this, Herbert W. Gruber, district manager of the Social Security office in Chester reports that some individuals, because of a misunderstanding have not applied for their benefits.

Gruber lists the following categories of persons who may qualify.

Men — Age 65 or over who have been retired or who are earning less than $2080 a year.

Women — are now eligible to get social security payments at age 62 instead of waiting to 65, although payments will be at a reduced rate. A number of women worked long enough during World War II to meet minimum requirements. Working women age 62 or over who have retired or are earning less than $2080 a year may qualify for monthly benefits. Wives of husbands receiving monthly benefits can now qualify at age 62.

Widows of men who worked under social security can receive full widow's benefits at age 62.

Men and women — at age 72 or over may receive benefits and earn any amount.

Even if earning more than $2080 a year, they may collect benefits for any month in which they do not earn more than $80.

Gruber says persons in any of the above categories would do well to check with the social security office, Fidelity-Chester Building, 5th and Market streets, Chester and get facts regarding their eligibility for benefits.

Interested persons may visit, telephone or write for details.

Men 65, Women 62 or Over May Be Eligible For Social Sec. Checks

Over the years changes have been made in the Social Security Law so that it is easier to qualify for monthly benefits. In view of this, Herbert W. Gruber, district manager of the Social Security Office in Chester reports that some individuals, because of a misunderstanding have not applied for their benefits.

Gruber lists the following categories of persons who may qualify. Men - Age 65 or over who have retired or who are earning less than $2080 a year.

Women - are now eligible to get social security payments at age 62 instead of waiting to 65, although payments will be at a reduced rate. A number of women worked long enough during World War II to meet minimum requirements. Working women age 62 or over who have retired or are earning less than $2080 a year may qualify for monthly benefits. Wives of husbands receiving monthly benefits can now qualify at age 62. Widows of men who worked under social security can receive full widow's benefits at age 62.

Men and women - at age 72 or over may receive benefits and earn any amount. Even if earning more than $2080 a year, they may collect benefits for any month in which they do not earn more than $80.

Gruber says persons in any of the above categories would do well to check with the social security office, Fidelity-Chester Building, 5th and Market streets, Chester and get facts regarding their eligibility for benefits.

Interested persons may visit, telephone or write for details.

Pays Tribute

As the end of the "Teener" baseball season comes in sight it is fitting to recognize and pay tribute to the two factors that contributed most to the success of the program:

First, the Recreation Association which contributed the idea and the where-with-all to make it possible. Secondly, Mr. William Reese, the person most responsible for the excellent organization of the program, and the one who bore the brunt of all its problems.

It is to be hoped that this program once started, will become a regular activity of the Recreation Association's program in the years to come.

Sincerely, H. D. Sipler

Tuition Rate Rises Slightly Elementary Language Fails in Curriculum Answer

Elementary rate for tuition pupils in the Swarthmore-Rutledge Schools for the coming school year was set at $324 at the July meeting of School Board Wednesday night.

Reporting that careful consideration had been given each proposal of the Curriculum Advisory Committee's recent recommendations, in an executive session, the Board approved a letter of appreciation to the Committee including explanation of which suggestions it felt feasible at present and which were not so deemed.

A strong recommendation that a foreign language be added on the elementary level beginning next fall, did not gain Board approval. The Board said it felt that the suggested language, French, "or any other modern language should not be taught in the elementary school until the implications for the School Language Program were clearly delineated and agreed upon by the school faculty, administration and Board."

The Board endorsed the Committee's recommendation that Biology be taught in ninth grade, (instead of tenth) beginning next fall and that health instruction for this grade be incorporated in the course, however it did not accept the incorporation of health in the rest of the science program. Other shifts to increase the amount of science taught were approved "with the understanding that the complete science sequence will not be effectuated until the school year 1959-60".

To Exceed Athletes It was agreed that students participating in varsity athletics should be excused from physical education classes during those periods, but because of difficulties in scheduling, arranging morning classes for junior high and afternoon classes for senior high in this subject was not approved. Suggestions involving number of hours taught were referred to faculty and administration for their recommendation.

In the areas of English, Social Studies and Mathematics the Committee's recommendations were found to be in keeping with the program already being developed by these respective departments. The Board was particularly interested in the Committee's emphasis upon work in composition in junior high school, and indicated its desire that this work also be stressed in senior high. The Board likewise recognized the need for detailed study of the library, especially in view of the building program.

The Board in general was in agreement with most of the recommendations set forth in the Committee's report, however it was emphasized that the school will be faced with a difficult situation in 1958-59 because of the necessity for continuing on split sessions while the burned high school is being rebuilt.

The Board expressed its intention of appointing a continuing committee to carry on the curriculum advisory work begun this year. Property committee and architects were authorized to journey to Harrisburg to ascertain the best possible space approval obtainable for the high school rebuilding, so that preliminary plans may be drawn without further delay.

Resignation Accepted Resignation of Sarah S. Hull, kindergarten teacher, was received and accepted.

Twenty copies of a new social studies text and a like number of a chemistry book were authorized purchased for use of advanced twelfth grade students. Ten dozen copies of a new history book for tenth grade, to replace former ones being moved down to ninth grade, were also ordered. Thirty copies of a simplified geography text for slow readers in seventh grade will be purchased.

The Board passed a resolution of appreciation for Mrs. Mary Parke Dodd's many years of faithful service to the School District as tax collector, a copy of which will be forwarded to Mrs. Dodd who retired with the opening of the new tax year.

John W. O'Brian of Dartmouth circle, assistant superintendent of schools in Ridley Township, will spend the week of July 21 attending the 36th Annual School Administrators' Conference being conducted by Pennsylvania State University on its campus at University Park. SUMMER PROBLEMS For months and months I've pondered Just how to make this shop A place where everyone in town Will really love to stop. The merchandise is clean and fresh. The stock is quite complete. (Tho to please all people all the time, Is sometimes quite a feat.) We try to greet you with a smile. When you come in the store, So that you'll feel you're welcome here And will return encore. There's one thing tho, we can't control And that's this summer weather. When heat and moisture doth combine, That's quite a "get-to-gether." Your hair is plastered on your brow, Your clothes are just a mess, Your disposition's crotchety, Most all of us confess. But there's a way to beat the heat, Come on inside and see. The air is cool and dry throughout. Refreshing, you'll agree. AIR CONDITIONED BY CARRIER. Catherman's Drug Store Swarthmore, Pa.

All Stars, Eagles Win SRA Team Competition

merville made various wall plaques using casting powder and plastic molds. This was one of the most popular and successful projects. Everyone did at least one project.

This week the group is working on copper jewelry, wooden house markers with aluminum numbers, and shell jewelry. The boys like the shell jewelry and have done some attractive pieces. Most of the projects are being kept at Summerville for the Arts and Crafts exhibition to be held the last week of the program.

For the children of summer recreation school, the Fourth of July was an important in retrospect as it had been in anticipation. Most of the children shared with their groups their holiday weekend activities, and they all relived the fun of parades, picnics, swimming, and fireworks.

The Ricksacker boys' mother cat has again produced a litter, apparently for the children of the preschool primary group, and Mrs.

Ricksacker will be glad to receive applications for the available kittens—three at last count—at her home, 329 Cornell avenue.

The Architectural Fives The Fives spent a part of one morning drawing their own houses with paint sticks, the results including some doors on the second floor and a wide variety of highly original architectural styles. They have achieved a noticeable degree of success in the rhythm instrument department, learning how to play the instruments correctly and when it is each child's turn to play. The original almost- unanimous tendency just to BANG is gradually giving way to a more melodic affect, to the distinct relief of staff members.

The Fours seem to have voted clay work and cookie time their favorite weekday morning activities, although they all take enthusiastic part in painting, crayoning, pasting, playing in the rhythm band, learning new songs, building block towers, and playing house indoors, and using all the riding, swinging, and climbing equipment outdoors, as well—never an idle tricycle!

Looking forward to a very special event scheduled for Friday, they learned and discussed the life and habits of the Indians, and made paper teepees freely decorated with appropriate designs.

"Mouses" Completed The post-kindergarten children finished their Mickey Mouses (sic) begun the week before, spurred on by the prospect of taking them home for family approval. They started group singing, with rewardingly melodious results in both old favorites and new songs.

This group, too, has had fun with clay modeling, turning out some very fine figures which will be painted when dry. Kick baseball was introduced, and a series started, with the winning team given 5 points and the losers 3 points each day. At the end of each week, the scores are totaled, and an award will be given to the winning team on the last day of the session. As the teacher of this group said, "We won't make the World Series, but we have fun".

The primary group, with several newcomers to their ranks, finished painting their clay models for home display. They have "Pretend School" every day in the small playhouse outdoors, with a very efficient principal and secretary. On Thursday, macaroni painted and strung for jewelry was modeled by several of the girls.

Chief Halftown's Visit The climax of the week's events was a visit, on Friday, from television personality Chief Halftown. His varied program appealed to all age groups, including the Summer Clubbers who were also in attendance.

Several of the younger children sang for The Chief, including Anne Michel, Pamela Mulrooney, and Henry Herschel.

The atmosphere of the entire group may, henceforth, smack somewhat of "show biz", since Pamela Mulrooney and Johnny Schmidt were invited by Chief Halftown to appear with him on his noontime program Monday. This they did, and his Swarthmore rating for that day must have been excellent, not to mention fond friends and relations of the guest stars who managed to find television sets to watch in the middle of their business day!

Dr. and Mrs. Erwin R. Schmidt are back at their home on Elm avenue after spending two weeks in Madison, Wis., as the guests of Mrs. Schmidt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boissard.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Bevan of Crest Lane returned Sunday after spending 10 days at Orleans on Cape Cod, Mass., as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chester P. Baker.

College Lists 4 to Retire; Appoints 4

New Appointments Will Replace Cox, Wood Swan, Little

President Courtney Smith of Swarthmore College has announced the retirements of two faculty members and two members of the administration: Harry Wood, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds; Mrs. Sara S. Little, House Director; Dr. Alfred J. Swan, Chairman of the Department of Music; and Dr. Edward H. Cox, Chairman of the Department of Chemistry.

Harry Wood, 400 Walnut lane, came to Swarthmore in 1927 as head gardener from his native England, where he received his education and his professional training. In 1931, the first plant collection on the campus, the lilacs along the Meeting House walk, was started. Since that time Mr. Wood has helped the College turn the campus into a nationally famous horticultural landmark, famous for its beauty and for its educational program—the display of the most desirable and reliable hardy-plant material in surroundings the ordinary homeowner can duplicate.

Additional Project His activities have extended far beyond the campus. President of the Swarthmore chapter of Sigma Xi, a member of the Swarthmore Borough Council, an officer of the national Association of Physical Plant Administrators of Colleges and Universities, he has also been active in the National Association of Gardeners and in the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society.

This spring, Mr. Wood took on an additional project, the main feature exhibit of the 1958 Philadelphia Flower Show at the Commercial Museum. Sponsored by the Scott Foundation and under the direction of Mr. Wood, the spectacular 5,000-square foot simulated mountain top, with more than one thousand plants, picked up three of the show's most coveted awards.

In recognition of his contribution Swarthmore honored him at its commencement exercises June 9 with the John W. Nason Award, which consists of a citation and a monetary award of $1,000.

President Smith announced that Mr. Wood will continue his association with the College as a consultant.

Edward H. Cox Dr. Edward H. Cox, 416 Park avenue, has been a member of the Swarthmore faculty for 32 years. Although his Swarthmore ties were begun several years earlier when he was a member of the Class of 1914, he received his B.A. degree from Earlham, and then was awarded an M.S. degree from the University of Louisville; an M.S. degree from Harvard, and a D.Sc. from the University of Geneva, Switzerland. He also did postdoctoral study in Berlin for one year.

Before coming to Swarthmore in 1926, Dr. Cox had several years of teaching experience, two at the University of Louisville, one at the University of Illinois and three at Obetlin College. He had also worked as chief chemist with Sharp and Dohme, where he played a major role in the development of hexylresorcinol, the antiseptic.

At Swarthmore Dr. Cox was advanced to the rank of full professor in 1956, was chosen chairman of the Department in 1949, and in (Continued on Page 8)

Local Astronomers To Visit in Moscow

The Sprout Observatory at Swarthmore College will be represented by three astronomers in Moscow at the Tenth General Assembly of the International Astronomical Union August 13 to August 20.

Dr. van de Kamp, who is a member of the U. S. National Committee of the I. A. U. and of two I. A. U. scientific commissions, and his wife, will be guests of the U.S.S.R. Academy of Science for two weeks.

Summer Club Exhibits Art and Craft Items

Younger Group Snips, Paints and Races Through Week

Parents and friends of children who are attending the playground program on the college campus are invited to an exhibit of art and craft items made by the children. The exhibit will be held in Summerville from 9:30 to 11 a.m. today. Summer club badges will be awarded to those children who have completed all of the arts and crafts projects.

Square dancing, a new activity for many summer club members, was introduced to the girls attending the program. Last week the girls learned the dance "Dive for the Oyster." This week the "Virginia Reel" will be taught.

Some of the highlights of last week's program were a watermelon eating contest, won by Frank Madore; coke drinking contests won by Gerry Clothier and Tommy Gaylord, and a pie eating contest won by Danny Marino. Andy MacNair's team won the peanut hunt, finding more peanuts than the squirrels on the campus.

Contented Fours

The Fours are now a happy, contented group of children. The first weeks of missing mother and not wanting to leave her or home are over. Almost all the children enter eagerly, anticipating the morning fun.

Two Local Men Active In Mediterranean

Two Swarthmore men, Navy Lt. (jg) Paul E. Friend, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Friend of Parrish road, and Marine Cpl. Lloyd E. Comegys, nephew of Mrs. Clare Cooper of Kenyon avenue, are on active duty in the Mediterranean.

Lt. Friend is aboard the aircraft carrier USS Essex which furnished air coverage for the U. S. Sixth Fleet amphibious operation that landed a reinforced battalion of 1800 U.S. Marines on the beach at Beirut, Lebanon, on July 15.

Cpl. Comegys is part of the third increment of U. S. Marines landed at 3:30 a.m. (EDT), July 18 at Beirut.

Approximately 1800 men of the First Battalion, Eighth Marine Regiment, were landed by four ships of Transport Squadron 4. Members of the Battalion have been in the Mediterranean area since January and were scheduled to return home last May.

Paton College Principal To Preach Here Sunday

Visiting Minister Will Conduct Presbyterian Service

Visiting minister at the Presbyterian Church Sunday will be the Rev. Maurice Charles, Principal of Paton Congregational College. He will preach at the 10 o'clock service.

Mrs. Charles comes from a family with long association with Welsh Congregationalism in South and West Wales. He received his B.A. and B.D. degrees in London University and then continued on to Oxford University for research in the relationship of the Christian religion to modern social and political problems.

He became a minister at Abercarn in Monmouthshire and worked among the unemployed in the West-ern Valley with the help of his church. During this time, Mr. Charles visited the Soviet Union and went to Fascist Germany. He also attended the Anglo-Catholic School of Sociology at Keele, Oxford, and the Welsh Summer School of Social Service.

With Film Follies

In Saturday morning's swim events the recent illness of several seahorses; the lack of some others to equal their former best times, and weakness in turns, contributed to keeping the hopeful film instruction on the week's worksheet posted on the Swarthmore pool board ("Saturday—Win Championship") from coming true. Swarthmore was defeated by even a few more points than had been warningly forecast by Coaches Mildred Robinson, Karl Schaefer, and Joan Bobbinson, CAP.

All Stars, Eagles Win SRA Team Competition

merveille made various wall plaques using casting powder and plastic molds. This was one of the most popular and successful projects. Everyone did at least one project. This week the group is working on copper jewelry, wooden house markers with aluminum numbers, and shell jewelry. The boys like the shell jewelry and have done some attractive pieces. Most of the projects are being kept at Summerville for the Arts and Crafts exhibition to be held the last week of the program.

For the children of summer recreation school, the Fourth of July was as important in retrospect as it had been in anticipation. Most of the children shared with their groups their holiday weekend activities, and they all relished the fun of parades, picnics, swimming, and fireworks.

The Ricksecker boys' mother cat has again produced a litter, apparently for the children of the pre-school primary group, and Mrs.

Ricksecker will be glad to receive applications for the available kittens—three at last count—at her home, 329 Cornell avenue.

The Architectural Fives The Fives spent a part of one morning drawing their own houses with paint sticks, the results including some doors on the second floor and a wide variety of highly original architectural styles. They have achieved a noticeable degree of success in the rhythm instrument department, learning how to play the instruments correctly and when it is each child's turn to play. The original almost-unanimous tendency just to BANG is gradually giving way to a more musical effect, to the distinct relief of staff members.

The Fours seem to have voted clay work and cookie time their favorite weekday morning activities, although they all take enthusiastic part in painting, crayoning, pasting, playing in the rhythm band, learning new songs, building block towers, and playing house indoors, and using all the riding, swinging, and climbing equipment outdoors, as well—never an idle tricycle!

Looking forward to a very special event scheduled for Friday, they learned and discussed the life and habits of the Indians, and made paper teepees freely decorated with appropriate designs.

"Mouses" Completed The post-kindergarten children finished their Mickey Mouses (sic!) begun the week before, spurred on by the prospect of taking them home for family approval. They started group singing, with rewardingly melodious results in both old favorites and new songs.

This group, too, has had fun with clay modeling, turning out some very fine figures which will be painted when dry. Kick baseball was introduced, and a series started, with the winning team given 5 points and the losers 3 points each day. At the end of each week, the scores are totaled, and an award will be given to the winning team on the last day of the session. As the teacher of this group said, "We won't make the World Series, but we have fun."

The primary group, with several newcomers to their ranks, finished painting their clay models for home display. They have "Pretend School" every day in the small playhouse outdoors, with a very efficient principal and secretary. On Thursdays, macaroni painted and strung for jewelry was modeled by several of the girls.

Chief Halftown's Visit The climax of the week's events was a visit, on Friday, from television personality Chief Halftown. His varied program appealed to all age groups, including the Summer Clubbers who were also in attendance.

Several of the younger children sang for The Chief, including Anne Michel, Pamela Mulrooney, and Henry Herschel.

The atmosphere of the entire group may, henceforth, smack somewhat of "show biz", since Pamela Mulrooney and Johnny Schmidt were invited by Chief Halftown to appear with him on his noontime program Monday. This they did, and his Swarthmore rating for that day must have been excellent, not to mention fond friends and relations of the guest stars who managed to find television sets to watch in the middle of their business day!

Dr. and Mrs. Erwin R. Schmidt are back at their home on Elm avenue after spending two weeks in Madison, Wis., as the guests of Mrs. Schmidt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boissard.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Bevan of Crest Lane returned Sunday after spending 10 days at Orleans on Cape Cod, Mass., as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chester P. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Dryden and daughters Deborah and Deirdre of Dayton, O., will arrive next Wednesday for a five-day visit to Mr. Dryden's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Peirsol, Jr. of Lafayette avenue.

POLIO NOT YET WHIPPED!

Nearly forty million Americans under forty years of age have had no vaccine and over forty million have not completed their series of three doses. Polio virus is still widespread. An epidemic may break out any time, any place, because the vaccine protects only those who receive it. If you or members of your family have not been immunized—see your physician now. Don't gamble with your health. Be immunized!

 and wheeled toys still rank high for fun. Play dough is requested every day and thoroughly enjoyed when the time comes to use it.
 Some of the children are learning to use scissors for the first time and the others are becoming more adept with them. Many of the youngsters are now able to do a neat job with paste.
Creative Fives
 The big thing for the Fives this week was the Indian hats made to culminate the visit of Chief Half-town. Bands of paper were decorated with Indian designs and colored feathers added to make a war bonnet resembling the Chief's.
 On Tuesday there was a birthday celebration to the delight of all the children. Cukepeaks with lollipops for candles were the chief refreshment, supplied by Missy Davis who stated "Now I am five. I can go to school now!"
 This week has been rhythm week for the fives. Besides the usual rhythm band playing, the children stretched, walked, marched and ran to various records. This idea of listening to the music and doing some activity to it was quite new to them.

Rainy Day Relays
 Monday was a rainy day, so the post-kindergarten group had to spend the whole day inside and weren't able to play kickball. That was a disappointment to everyone, but they did divide up into teams and learn to play some different relay races. Everyone enjoyed this activity and everyone participated.
 The kickball tournament was played the rest of the week and the competition is becoming keener and keener. On Friday and for the remainder of the time, the children are continuing their tournament with various types of relay races. Six races take place each day and teams that score at least four out of six are determined the winners.

Farm Discussions
 In the middle of the week, there was discussion about the farm, farmer and his family and the animals and foods that are on a farm. There was talk about the possibility of building their own miniature farm. A farm booklet was started, the first section dealing with farm life. The children colored in two printed pictures typifying farm life and then drew some of their own on the same subject. They will spend next week working on the theme, "Foods raised on a Farm."
 The Seven and Eight year olds put their imagination to a test this week when they drew their own versions of "The Purple-People Eater." Also some place-mats were woven out of multi-colored paper. The big project for the week was that of making sock dolls and fish pillows. Some of these up-and-coming seamstresses have really turned out some fine pieces of work. Even the boys seem to be enjoying this project.

How careful can you get?

Never too careful when it comes to checking—and driving—your car. Never too careful to save even one life on our highways!

Official car inspection in Pennsylvania has saved many lives by reducing traffic accidents caused by mechanical failure to 1.8% of the total of all traffic accidents. This is one-third of the national average for such accidents.

Official car inspection does not relieve you of the responsibility of keeping your car in safe operating condition between the twice-yearly inspection periods. You know when your brakes need tightening... your lights need refocusing... your steering wheel needs adjusting... your tires need replacing. Don't let such things go—they may mean the difference between life and death!

Above all, inspect your driving! We can check car failure. Only you can check human failure—the poor driving habits and the disregard for traffic rules that cause the vast majority of traffic accidents. See how careful you can get!

Seahorses Victorious, And Defeated Last Week

 mascot, came home with fins folded to report final scores: Marple-Newton 201 - Swarthmore 154; Aronimink 222 - Swarthmore 184; Aronimink 185 - Marple-Newton 171. This put Swarthmore, Marple-Newton and Rose Valley in a triple tie for second place in the southern division of the Suburban Swim League, each having won three and lost two meets.
 League Records Smashed
 Four of Aronimink's first placeings smashed league records. Midget Tom Johnson bettered the old record of 32.6 by 4 of a second in boys freestyle, and the former butterfly record of 37.5 by 1 second. Lynn Tally recondtioned a third midget record by doing girls breaststroke in 48 flat (old time 48.4). Lanny Reppert bettered the former 30.5 record for intermediate boys backstroke by 1.3 seconds.
 Swarthly had revived enough by Sunday night to unsuccessfully root for his conqueror, southern division champ Aronimink, in its dive-off with Colonial Village, northern division winner, for the 1958 championship of the entire league, held at the Swarthmore pool. Diving scores totaled Colonial-Village 36, Aronimink 18.
 On Monday night Swarthmore team and pool members again took advantage of the opportunity to observe top-notch contestants in an exciting swim-off at Swarthmore which overcame the diving score and proclaimed Aronimink a 193 to 162 victor over Colonial Village. In winning the championship for the third straight year, Aronimink set new midget girls breaststroke record (46.4 by Lynn Tally) and midget boys freestyle (31.6 by Tom Johnson). Sandy Shannahan of Colonial set new intermediate girls freestyle 29.8 and breaststroke 37.8 records.
 Local Record Changes
 Placing for Swarthmore in the triple tie with Aronimink and Marple-Newton last Saturday were:
BACKSTROKE - Senior girls: 1, J. Williams (1:25.1); bettering by one second the Swarthmore record for the event, which she already held. Senior boys: 3, R. Sublette (1:14.4); 5, D. Allen. Intermediate girls: 2, S. Williams (39.2); 5, S. Crawford. Intermediate boys: 4, J. Foley (36.3); 6, M. Boyer. Junior girls: 1, J. Espenshade (42.3); 6, G. Boyd (42.6); 6, G. Welsh. Midget girls: 3, A. Townes (38.5); 5, J. Courtney. Midget boys: 3, Robinson (36.4); 5, J. Brooks.

POLIO VIRUS STILL WIDESPREAD!
 Despite a reduction of 80 percent in paralytic polio cases since release of polio vaccine, the infective virus is still widespread. Polio vaccine, effective as it is, will never eradicate polio virus. It simply protects those who are immunized. If you or members of your family have not completed the full schedule of three doses or have not begun the series, you are gambling with your health and your life. (Continued from Page 1)
1954 was named Edmund Allen Professor of Chemistry.
While a member of the Swarthmore faculty, Dr. Cox was away from the campus for a year at a time on several occasions. In 1933 he was a Carl Schurz Fellow in Germany. He returned to Europe in 1944 as technical consultant to the Air Force in London and Paris, and again in 1951 as Fulbright lecturer at the University of Montpellier in France. The University later awarded Dr. Cox the degree of Docteur Honoris Causa.

A member of the American Chemical Society, of which he was councillor 1945-1952, he is also a Fellow of the New York Academy of Science. He has acted as consultant to the Bureau of Ordinance of the U. S. Navy since 1949, and this semester has been associated with the National Science Foundation in Washington while on a leave of absence from the College.

Alfred J. Swan
Dr. Alfred J. Swan came to Swarthmore in 1926, the same year as Dr. Cox, to found the Department of Music. Born in Russia and educated in St. Petersburg and later at Oxford University, Dr. Swan came to this country after the First World War and taught for two years at the University of Virginia. He brought to Swarthmore a deep interest in good music, not only for the classroom, but for performance, and two years after his arrival the vocal groups on campus found themselves singing Ralph Vaughan Williams' opera "Hugh the Drover" and Rimsky-Korsakov's "Sadko", instead of the usual college fare of "Aura Lee" and "Bull Frog on the Bank."

Another major project was undertaken in the recording field when Victor and Columbia recorded Swarthmore performances of the Haydn Mass in B flat major and the Passion Music of Heinrich Schütz. Until after World War II these were the only listing of the two works in the record catalogs.

In addition to his role in the academic profession, Dr. Swan is known and respected throughout the musical world as composer, author, and musician. Among his musical compositions are: Songs from Many Lands; Eight Negro Songs from Bedford County, Virginia; Sonata for Piano, No. 1; Trio for Piano, Flute, and Clarinet; Rondeau des Enfants; Recueil des Chansons Russes; Liturgical Canticles of the Russian Church Nos. 1-6; Song of Evening in Swarthmore Choral Series. He is the author of "Scriabin", "Music 1900-1930", "The Music Director's Guide", and the translator of a "History of Russian Music".

This spring the college paid tribute to Dr. Swan with a concert of his own works performed by students and faculty.

Dr. and Mrs. Swan and their son Alexis will spend the summer in Europe where he will complete work on a new book. Next year he will continue to teach at Haverford College, where he has held a joint appointment with Swarthmore for many years.

In addition to these responsibilities she has been head resident of Worth Dormitory, a residence hall for 74 senior women. Mrs. Little will continue to make her home in Swarthmore in a recently purchased house on Harvard avenue.

Two other retirements were announced by Dr. Smith at the same time. Gilbert C. Cheyney, power plant fireman, who has been with the College for 30 years, and Thomas Yates, janitor, who has employed by the College for 13 years.

New Appointments
Dr. Smith also announced the new appointments for the four positions.

Peter Gram Swing, 7 Crum Ledge, assistant Professor of Music and director of the chorus was named Chairman of the Music Department to succeed Dr. Swan. Mr. Swing has been a member of the Swarthmore faculty since 1955. He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees at Harvard University and subsequently taught at Harvard and Radcliffe. He studied one year at the University of Utrecht in the Netherlands on a Fulbright scholarship. This year Mr. Swing was instrumental in organizing the Three College Chorus, composed of the choral groups of Haverford, Bryn Mawr and Swarthmore Colleges, which performed with the Philadelphia Orchestra and later presented the Three College Chorus Festival on the Swarthmore Campus.

Walter B. Keighton, Jr., 311 Cedar lane, professor of Chemistry, was named Chairman of the Chemistry Department to succeed Dr. Cox. A graduate of Swarthmore, Dr. Keighton returned to the College in 1928 as a member of the faculty after obtaining his Ph.D. degree at Princeton and after several years of work in industry as a chemist. He has published widely in Professional journals and last summer was co-director of a two-week conference of high school teachers designed to improve the teaching of chemistry in the high schools.

William M. Stanton, Jr., business manager of Park College in Parkville, Missouri, will succeed Mr. Wood as Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds. A Philadelphian by birth, Mr. Stanton was graduated from the Westtown School and received a B.A. degree from the University of Wisconsin. He also studied at the University of Florida and the University of Omaha.
Before his association with Park College, Mr. Stanton had worked as a sales engineer, as a relief administrator with the American Friends Service Committee, and as assistant superintendent of buildings and grounds at Earlham College. He has been active in civic affairs, serving on the Parkville City Council and the board of directors of the Parkville Rotary Club, as vice president of the Platte County Historical Society, and as vice president of the Kansas-Missouri National Association of Educational Buyers. Mr. Stanton's appointment will begin September 1.
Mrs. Kathryn A. Davisson, 311 Vassar avenue, who has served as assistant to Mrs. Little since 1945, has been named Acting House Director.

SUMMER PROBLEMS
For months and months I've pondered
Just how to make this shop
A place where everyone in town
Will really love to stop.
The merchandise is clean and fresh,
The stock is quite complete.
(Tho to please all people all the time,
Is sometimes quite a feat.)
We try to greet you with a smile
When you come in the store,
So that you'll feel you're welcome here
And will return encore.
There's one thing tho, we can't control
And that's this summer weather.
When heat and moisture doth combine,
That's quite a "get-to-gether."
Your hair is plastered on your brow,
Your clothes are just a mess,
Your disposition's crotchety,
Most all of us confess.
But there's a way to beat the heat,
Come on inside and see.
The air is cool and dry throughout.
Refreshing, you'll agree.
